c) Electrical torture: tied naked to a metal chair with electical wires on her fingers and toes. Later placed on a wooden bed and subjected to electrical torture all over her body, especially on the genitalia. On this occasion she was also beaten with an iron rod on the abdomen: this caused vaginal bleeding. During the electrical torture, a doctor was present. He did auscultation of her heart several times, and established that it was alright to continue the torture. The torture by electricity left burns and long-lasting numbness of the hands, especially the right (several months), less of the feet (about three weeks). Moreover, swelling and numbness of the mouth caused by dysphagia lasting for about one week. Finally, it should be mentioned that she was shaking - especially her hands and jaws - for days after electrical torture.

d) Cold water was poured over her, especially after electrical torture. Occasionally she would suddenly - for example, in the middle of the night - be ordered to have a cold shower.

e) She was blindfolded with adhesive plaster and in total isolation for two months in a very small and very cold single cell without a toilet; she had to relieve herself in the cell.

f) She was deprived of sleep: she was roused every hour for several nights and ordered to have a cold shower, with or without her clothes on.

g) Sexual torture: sham intercourse, including masturbation by male warders.

h) Sham executions, inter alia, with a rope. At one time a "priest" was called, but he immediately startedkicking her. This was repeated for several days running.

On 11 April 1977, she gave birth to a son in prison. During labour, which lasted for about five hours, she was tied to a bed by her hands and feet and was completely unattended until the last few minutes. Her newborn baby had to sleep on the floor of a rat-infested cell.

Veronica was unexpectedly released in October 1977, after the Austrian government had granted her a visa. In November 1977, she was examined by AI's group of Danish doctors. They found the following sequelae to torture: impaired memory, difficulty in concentrating, nervousness, headaches, dizziness and vaginal discharge since delivery of the baby. Fortunately, her baby (then aged 7 months) showed normal mental and motor devlopment upon physical examination.

2. Isabel GAMBA de NEGROTTI

Isabel Gamba de Negrotti, a 27 year old nursery school teacher, was abducted from her home, together with her husband and taken to a police station in Villa Urquiza, Buenos Aires. Although she told the police that she was pregnant, she was punched and beaten, her hair was pulled and she was threatened with death. She was kept hooded and her coat was taken away. She was threatened and beaten by about eight men, who said they would go and get her younger sister and mother. Later that evening, she had cramp spasms and began to feel ill. She could hear her husband screaming

The next morning, she was taken to Coordinación Federal so that her political activities could be investigated. The worst treatment began:

> "They took me to another room where they kicked me and punched me in the head. Then they undressed me and beat me on the legs, buttocks and shoulders with something made of rubber. This lasted a long time: I fell down several times and they made me get up and stand by supporting myself on a table. They carried on beating me. While all this was going on they talked to me, insulted me and asked me about people I didn't know and things I didn't understand. I pleaded with them to leave me alone, or else I would lose my baby. I hadn't the strength to speak, the pain was so bad.
> "They started to give me electric shocks on my breasts, the side of my body and under my arms. They kept questioning me. They gave me electric shocks in the vagina and put a pillow over my mouth to stop me screaming. Some-one they called the "colonel" came and said they were going to increase the voltage until I talked. They kept throwing water over my body and applying electric shocks all over."

Two days later she miscarried. Her husband was subsequently released and currently lives in exile in Europe. She is still detained in Villa Devoto prison.

A STUDY OF VILLA DEVOTO PRISON

Unidad 2, Cárcel de Villa Devoto, Bermudez 2651,
Buenos Aires, Capital Federal, Argentina

Villa Devoto in Buenos Aires is Argentina's largest prison. It contains the majority of Argentina's female political prisoners (approximately 1,200 according to the testimonies of released prisoners) although some 70 male political prisoners and a large number of male common prisoners are also detained here. It was built to house 2,500 prisoners, but currently holds some 4,000. It was these overcrowded conditions which led male common prisoners to protest and caused the "riot" of 14 March 1978 - an incident which received considerable publicity in the international press. Between 40 and 46 prisoners died and between 70 and 76 were severely injured. According to the official statement of the Argentine authorities, a group of prisoners - allegedly all on narcotics charges - took a prison guard hostage, killed him and then set fire to their mattresses and blankets; the fire quickly spread. The authorities were quick to point out that none of the dead or injured had bullet wounds. However, people outside the prison allege that five special para-military combat groups were sent to quell the riot, helicopters were called in and police cordoned off the prison. They further allege that the noise of gunfire inside the prison could be heard for about half an hour. One of the doctors - Dr Fortunato Benaguin - who attended the injured was subsequently quoted in the weekly magazine Somos as saying that some of the dead and injured had bullet wounds. Furthermore, the American-based Council on Hemispheric Affairs issued a statement saying that at least some of the victims were classified by international agencies as being political prisoners.

For the past two years, prison conditions in Argentina have been of major concern to Amnesty International. The following is a précis of various testimonies - from the inmates of Villa Devoto themselves and from released prisoners. The passages in quotation marks are reproduced verbatim from these testimonies. Although we have inserted relevant quotations from the United Nations Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners and Related Recommendations (SMRTPRR), since December 1975, all prisons in Argentina have been under military jurisdiction. Political prisoners are all categorized under decree 2023 (issued in December 1974 and made more severe in May 1976) as extremely dangerous and are subject to a harsh regime which:

a) restricts visits and correspondence to blood relatives (this does not include common-law spouses or partners of a second marriage, as divorce is not recognized in Argentina;)

b) imposes strict censorship of mail and reading matter;

c) authorizes spot checks and whole body searches which may be carried out at random, even at meal times;

d) permits severe penalties for the smallest infraction of prison regulations.

Furthermore, decree 955 (Regimen de Máxima Peligrosidad) -the maximum security regulations also apply in Villa Devoto. According to the inmates of Villa Devoto, these decrees (2023 and 955) "were created with the aim of treating political prisoners in an inhuman and cruel way and 'legalizing' the violations of the most elementary human rights".

Finally, it is worth noting that Villa Devoto, along with La Plata prison (for males, situated in Buenos Aires province) is considered Argentina's "model" prison. The age range of the female political prisoners is from 17 to 50 years years old and babies are imprisoned along with their mothers.

General Conditions

" The wards (pabellones - large rooms with about 20 bunks) where the many political prisoners held in this prison must spend their days are long dark corridors with cells on each side. Each ward has 23 cells, and in each of them are four people who have to live in a space that would be the minimum for only one person. All have as sole furniture a water-closet, a wash basin, a cement shelf and four bunks fixed to the walls. There is a window, which, besides its iron bars is covered with a thin steel net. It is forbidden to climb up or get near the window. Ventilation is minimal and the sanitary system virtually non-existent.

Food

SMRTPRR (20 (1) and (2): "Every prisoner shall be provided by the administration at the usual hours with food of nutritional value adequate for health and strength, of wholesome quality and well prepared and served."

"Drinking water shall be available to every prisoner whenever s/he needs it."

"It (the food) is completely inadequate, based on flour and fat. The spaghetti and stew, the daily meals, are an indescribable mass which is almost impossible to swallow. There is almost never meat and when it is given, it is of the worst quality, thus having no protein value at all. Several months ago, the delivery of milk ceased. All this leads to steady physical deterioration and the loss of basic resistence to disease.

"Every day, prisoners fall ill with serious stomach complaints or other illnesses which require a special diet, of better quality. Usually this is not ordered, and if it is ordered it may be interrupted at any time. The tea (boiled mate, a herb tea) has no taste at all, and is without sugar and is no better than the rest of the food. There is grease floating in it from the badly cleaned containers. This diet could be reasonably balanced if relatives might be allowed to send food to the prisoners, or if better food were sold at the prison. Both alternatives are expressly forbidden by decree 955. At the present time, only a few items allowed by the decree can be brought into the prison and even these are difficult to obtain, owing to the bad economic position of the prisoners."

Medical Attention

SMRTPRR (22 (1) and (2) and 25(1)): "At every institution, there shall be available the services of at least one qualified medical officer who should have some knowledge of psychiatry...."

"Sick prisoners who require specialist treatment shall be transferred to specialized institutions or to civil hospitals....."

"The medical officer shall have the care of the physical and mental health of the prisoners and should daily see all sick prisoners, all who complain of illness, and any prisoner to whom his attention is specially directed."

"This is exceedingly bad. When they go to see the doctor, some medecine may be prescribed without any examination. These medecines must be bought at the prison, and the prisoners do not always have the means to do so. Nothing, not even an aspirin, is provided, even in cases of extreme urgency. In order to obtain assistance from a specialist, it is necessary to book months in advance and, if you are lucky, the day may come. But the result makes little difference owing to the situation already described. In some cases X-rays are ordered, but the results are not known by the prisoners. The doctor's surgery has only a bed, and no other medical equipment, not even basic first aid equipment. While the consultation takes place the prison warders and other staff walk past. The nurses treat the political prisoners badly and, like the doctors, they are more police than health staff. Most of them are unqualified, and previously belonged to the Inspection Board (Internal Security Police) and the prisoners are really guinea pigs for them. Usually they lack professional knowledge."

Case 1: Alicia PAÍS de JUÁREZ

In October 1977, political prisoner Alicia País de Juárez died in Pavilion 41 of Villa Devoto prison as a result of lack of medical attention. During her year of imprisonment, Alicia had had frequent attacks of asthma. When fellow prisoners asked for an investigation into her death, they were locked up in punishment cells for 20 days.

Case 2: Mireya ROJO

Legal adviser to the Metalworkers' Union of Villa Constitución (Unión de los Obreros Metalúrgicos), she was arrested on 29 April 1975 after a widespread strike in the industrial town of Villa Constitución, but has never been brought to trial. Whilst in detention, she contracted tuberculosis and is currently reported to weigh only 37 kilos. In july 1977, a testimony received from the prisoners of prisoners of Villa Devoto reported that she had also got a stomach ulcer. Although she has been transferred to Villa Devoto hospital, her health gives cause for grave concern given the inadequate medical attention.

Other women seriously ill in Villa Devoto prison (reported to AI in July 1977: current state of health unknown):

1. Matilde PERALTA PINO - aged 42, a polio victim
2. Carolina SUAZO de SAVALA
3. Beatriz JACOB - hernia of the diaphragm
4. Margarita FERRE - hemorrhage as a result of torture
5. Eva DIAZ de ROMERO - aged 60; acute diabetes
6. Yolanda GATICA - psychologically disturbed.
7. Margarita BARRERA - Chagas' fever (otherwise known as African sleeping sickness) fever resulting in tremors, headaches, apathy, convulsions and a coma progressing to death.
8. Marta RAMOS - suffers from acute asthma attacks
9. Eva Magdalena ZAMORA de PHLENS
10. Norma E. PERALTA - constriction of aorta
11. Carmen CORMES de CASTIGLIONI - aged 66; lumbago and serious heart condition.
12. Blanca BECHER - aged 31
13. Rosa SANDOVAL - aged 53; serious physical deterioration.
14. Nancy AYALA - aged 19; megacolon: abnormal enlargement of colon resulting in malfunctioning of bowels.

Mothers and Babies

SMRTPRR (23 (1) and (2)): "In women's institutions there shall be special accommodation for all necessary pre-natal and post-natal care and treatment. Arrangements shall be made wherever practicable for children to be born in a hospital outside the institution. If a child is born in prison, this fact shall not be mentioned in the birth certificate."

"Where nursing infants are allowed to remain in the institution with their mothers, provision shall be made for a nursery staffed by qualified persons, where the infants shall be placed when they are not in the care of their mothers."

"The prisoners who are pregnant or have children younger than 6 months at the time of their arrest are kept in a separate ward, but without special treatment. What is more terrible is that, once the child is 6 months' old, decree 955 says that he must abandon his mother and be given to relatives. It is not even allowed for the child to be with his mother during his first year, which is a vital time fot hhe child's future development."

Discipline and Punishment/Visits/Recreation/Inspection

Conduct constituting a disciplinary offence, the type and duration of that punishment and the authority competent to impose such punishments are all at the discretion of the Argentine authorites. However,

> "Corporal punishment, punishment by placing in a dark cell, and all cruel, inhuman or degrading punishments shall be completely prohibited as punishments for disciplinary offences."

According to testimonies received from the prisoners of Villa Devoto, the inmates are constantly punished for "the most improbable and arbitrary reasons that can be imagined". For example, it is apparently forbidden to: talk loudly, sing, celebrate birthdays, have a meeting of more than six people, put on plays, do physical exercises, do any work with the hands or show any sign of joy.

Prisoners are often punished by being sent to what are known as the "pig-sties". These are small cells, measuring 2.30m x 1m. The cell window is small and high up; when the natural light fades the cell is in total darkness. There is no wash-basin or toilet. A mattress and blankets are devlivered at 10.00 pm and are taken away again at 6.00 am. The prisoner is only allowed to have the clothes she is wearing at the time. The period of punishment is, apparently, NEVER LESS THAN 20 days. Some prisoners are known to have spent 45 DAYS in total isolation in these cells.

Visits

The right to receive visitors may be withdrawn at any time as a punishment. Political prisoners in Villa Devoto may receive visitors for two hours a week: an hour for direct male relatives and an hour for direct female relatives. The visits take place in specially prepared rooms. The prisoner and her relatives are separated by a pane of glass which prevents all physical contact. Conversations are conducted through a microphone; furthermore, all conversations are recorded.

Recreation

Again, this privelege may also be withdrawn as a form of arbitrary punishment. The prisoners are allowed one hour's exercise per day in an enclosed concrete yard surrounded by armed guards. While the prisoners are taking their exercise, their cells are often searched by the guards. In the past, warders have stolen or broken a prisoner's few belongings.

Inspection

Decrees 2023 and 955 legalize the "requisa vejatoria" - humiliating body body searches:

"The inspection staff in Villa Devoto become day by day more specialized in ill treatment a aggression and harassment of the political prisoners. They have absolute impunity and the support of their superiors. Usually, the function of the inspection staff in a prison is to keep internal order and security: fundamentally a preventive function. At the present time, their work is fundamentally repressive and intimidatory.

"At the beginning, individual inspection was carried out by feeling the clothes of each prisoner. Then they were obliged to take their over-clothes off, keeping only pants and bra. Now they have to be completely naked, allowing the woman in charge of the inspection to handle their bodies in a degrading and humiliating way. In some cases, certain prisoners were forced to go to to the prison infirmary, so that the gynaecologist could give them a vaginal inspection.

In July 1977, Amnesty International received the following testimony from the prisoners of Villa Devoto, concerning interrogation and threats of execution:

Interrogation:

"In recent months the prisoners have been daily interrogated in prison by members of the First Army Corps from Buenos Aires, and the Second Army Corps from Rosario. Even so, on 13 June (1977) three prisoners were taken away from the prison, presumably to be taken to Cordoba for interrogation by the Third Army Corps. (This section of the army have announced that people arrested within their jurisdiction are to be taken to Córdoba for their interrogation. Knowing the criminal mentality of the armed forces in Córdoba, we are very worried about them.)

"The day they were taken from their cells, they were told that they would attend proceedings leading to their release. From prison they were taken to the Military Airport of Morón, from where they should have taken a plane to Córdoba. Once there they realized that they had been deceived and that the purpose of their journey was to interrogate them. That day the journey had to be cancelled because of bad weather, and they were sent back to prison with the assurance that they would be transferred when the order arrived. This happened a week later.

"This time, in spite of the protests of the other prisoners, who fearing for their lives tried to postpone the transfer, the soldiers took them away by force, brutally dragging the women across the floor. Several other political prisoners were severely beaten, and physically assaulted, and then sent to the punishment cells to be held incommunicado for 20 days (without visits, letters, locked in all the time, with music blaring through the prison loud-speakers).

"The authorities of the Villa Devoto prison say that they received orders from the military to produce the people asked for alive or dead. They, as the people in charge of the prison, are only responsible for the lives of the prisoners transferred for interrogation until the moment they leave the prison Gates."

Threats of Execution

"Horacio Martín Galindez, Security Chief, supported by the Director of the Prison, Mr Ruiz, has during the last few days made serious warnings to the prisoners, threatening them if they do not co-operate and accept the repressive policy of the transfer for torture, he himself will take responsibility for executing the prisoners by shooting them. Also at any time, he would give the order to riddle the cells with bullets. It will not be surprising if we soon hear of shooting and murder at the Villa Devoto prison, which is the prison that The Argentinian military authorities exhibit, as a model of respect for human rights, while what it really is, is a model of repression, harassment and torture that destroys physically the women of Argentina and other Latin American countries who live day by day under a system of terror and oppression.

Case studies of two women political prisoners currently detained in Villa Devoto:

1. María José YOFRE

María José Yofre was arrested on 19 December 1975, whilst in her eighth month of pregnancy, together with her 2 year old son. It is reported that she spent the last month of her pregnancy in a small room in a barracks without light or ventilation, in a region of consistently high temperatures and humidity. Her baby daughter was with her for only 24 hours; her son was also then taken from the prison, and she herself was transferred to Villa Devoto in Buenos Aires.

María's parents now live in Cuba, having been forced to leave Argentina in order to escape the repression inflicted upon their family:

Miguel Hugo Vaca Narvaja .....: Their brother-in-law. Disappeared on 10 March 1976 in Córdoba. He was a lawyer active in the defence of political prisoners.

Miguel Hugo Vaca Narvaja ..... : Their nephew, and also a lawyer like his father. He and two other detainees were killed during a transfer from Córdoba Penitentiary.

Carlos Felipe Altamira Yofre ..... : Their nephew; also a lawyer and a member of the administrative council of the Córdoba College of Lawyers. Abducted in Buenos Aires in May 1976, a few days after military and police personnel had set fire to his office in Córdoba.

Gabriela Yofre ..... : Their daughter. Abducted in Buenos Aires in October 1976. Mother of a 3 year old.

Husband of Gabriela .....: Killed in May 1977.

María's two children are now cared for by their paternal grandparents. By October 1977, she had only seen her children twice because of the economic difficulties occasioned by visits to the prison. The visits last for half an hour and prisoner and visitor are separated by a glass screen and have to talk through microphones. The conversations are recorded.

María José Yofre has now been held for 2½ years without any charges against her. Her case was taken up by Amnesty International in April 1978.

2. Liliana Graciela VOGLER

Liliana Graciela Vogler, a university student aged 17, was arrested on 23 June 1975 at her home in Río Cuarto, Córdoba province. It is reported that she was tortured during the first two days of her detention by the Provincial Police. She was blindfolded and hooded to prevent the later recognition of her torturers, and beaten all over her body. Under torture, she was forced to sign a declaration, which had been drawn up by the police, stating that she and two friends (Juan Alberto Muzzolón and Francisco Bermúdez, who had been arrested a few hours before her) were involved in political activities and in possession of subversive literature. Five days after her arrest, before being taken to the Federal Court, she was threatened that she and her family would be killed if she did not confirm the declaration in court. She was not allowed to talk with her relatives or lawyer until the proceedings were over. She ratified the declaration drawn up by the police, but at the end of the preliminary hearings she stated how she had been beaten in the first days of her arrest and that after signing the declaration she had been treated well.

From 10 - 15 July (1975) she was transferred to Buen Pastor (a prison for women) in Córdoba city, and in August to Córdoba Penitentiary. At the same time, the arrests of young students were continuing in Río Cuarto. One of them, Clotilde Yercovich, was raped by a policeman called Geton Gomez. She had his baby during 1976, whilst detained in Río Cuarto prison.

As a result of the above arrests, the Federal Judge of Río Cuarto ordered that Liliana should be transferred to that city for a new investigation to be carried out. The transfer took place on 7 September 1975. During the journey she was tortured - psychologically at first: they pretended that they were going to shoot her. Twice en route she was made to get down from the vehicle transporting them and undergo a mock execution. All this time she was blindfolded and handcuffed. She was also pulled by the hair and threatened.

When Liliana was taken before the Federal Judge, she asked for protection and guarantees, because she wished to tell the truth, and having received solemn promises from the Judge, she denounced in detail the tortures to which she had been subjected at the time of her arrest and during the previous day's journey. She stated that she could not identify those who had ill-treated her in the first instance, but could say who had done so during the Transfer from Córdoba to Río Cuarto because she had been given a single blindfold and this had slipped a little, enabling her to recognize them. One of them was Geton Gomez, who was renowned amongst the political prisoners, and although she could not give the names of the other two, she could identify them. She then told the Judge that under threats and in fear of again being submitted to torture she had confirmed as correct the declarations which had been dragged from her by the police, when she had appeared before him. However, the truth was that she had never taken part in any politics, she was not connected with subversion and she was innocent of the charges made against her.

However, when she went to sign the declaration she found that her exact words had not been recorded and, more importantly, the name of her torturer and the information she had given concerning the other two helpers were ommitted. The secretary of the court informed her that he had not been present at certain points of the investigation and therefore he did not know what she had said, but she should not worry because if she wished to have it recorded she should request a supplementary investigation, as the Federal Judge had already retired and he himself could not add to his declaration anything that he had not heard personally. Apparently, this was correct, but a new investigation could never be obtained. In the face of Liliana's declarations, the judge in charge of the case (at that time Dr Jose M. Aliaga) ordered that Liliana should meet each of the five of her friends and fellow students who were in detention. Two of them (previously mentioned), Francisco Bermudez, son of a well-known Río Cuarto doctor, and Juan Alberto Muzzolon, had been removed from Río Cuarto prison and taken to the police station. They were tortured for five days: they were beaten with fists and sticks all over their bodies, but particularly on the head; they were kicked in the genitals and submitted to "water torture" - only urine was used instead of water. The third was Juan Carlos Gentile; he had purple, green and black marks all over his body - the result of torture. The remaining two were Patricia Giglione, aged 18 and a friend of Liliana's and Clotilde Yercovich, previously cited in this case history. She was aged 18 and a university friend of Liliana's. They had both been arrested 15 days before this and had been detained in the police station, where both had been tortured and threatened; Patricia denied all this when she appeared before the Judge. Both girls were given the possibility of obtaining their freedom if they collaborated with the police. Muzzolón, Bermúdez, Gentile and Yerecvich had to sign another statement (allegedly under torture) in which they recognized as belonging to them certain explosives and subversive literature which had been found in the outskirts of the town. Liliana was implicated in this as well.

On 13 September 1975, just five days after Liliana had denounced her torture before the Federal Judge of Río Cuarto, part of the Vogler's family home was blown up. Liliana was threatened with death.

At the end of October 1975, the Córdoba newspaper La Voz del Interior, published an article put in by relatives of political prisoners, denouncing Liliana's torture. On 22 November (1975), the Voglers' home was again blown up. Liliana's father, Guillermo, was told that he would be killed if he did not leave the city within 72 hours. On 18 December, Guillermo Vogler was arrested and sent to Córdoba Penitentiary.

The Córdoba area of Argentina is controlled by the III Army Corps, who are notorious for their repressive measures. Immediately after the military coup of 24 March 1976, people in the prisons and concentration camps in this area were openly tortured, mutilated and killed. All the prisons in the Córdoba area were totally isolated from the outside world. The prisoners were not allowed to write, receive letters or visitors. They were allowed no reading material or radios. During the period April - August 1976, 29 political prisoners from Córdoba Penitentiary died: they either died as a result of torture or were removed from the prison and unofficially executed. Four women who were in prison along with Liliana died: the body of one of them, 23 year old Alicia Rosetti and the mother of a small child, showed severe knife wounds. She had spent 30 days in total isolation, without clothes (this was mid-winter) and insufficient food.

In September 1976, prisoners were removed from Córdoba Penitentiary and taken to Villa Devoto (women) and Sierra Chica (men) prisons. It was at this time that Liliana arrived at Villa Devoto.

Both Liliana and her father Guillermo were adopted by Amnesty International in July 1977. Guillermo Vogler was released in December 1977 and now lives in exile in the USA. Liliana was charged under Law 20.840 - the Law of National Security - and sentenced to 9 years' imprisonment in March 1978 for possession of explosives and subversive literature and affiliation to the ERP (People's Revolutionary Army - Ejército Revolucionario del Pueblo) - a violent, left-wing organization. It is worth noting that of the group arrested on or around the same date as Liliana, she was the only one who denounced her torture and torturers to the judge. While the person most implicated was given a 6 year sentence, she received the severest sentence. Relatives state that she is completely innocent of the charges brought against her; her case if now under appeal before the Federal Court of Appeal in Córdoba. A state-defender has been appointed because no lawyer is willing to take on the case.

to warn us of the accentuatedly [redacted] jingoistic Argentine impulse to herd together against foreign criticism whatever the merits of the issues--usually accompanied by forebodings that we are rushing headlong into another "Braden or Peron" quagmire.

3. We think the worst is over in terms of emotional outbursts or other precipitous public manifestations against the US keyed to the EXIM Bank issue, but the longer term implications and consequences are yet to be felt in terms of Argentine foreign policy redirection. We continue to receive hints about abrogating the Rio Defense Pact, cancelling the Milgrp and withdrawing from UNITAS.

4. Two official statements by government spokesmen, both issued July 21, are indicative of the continuing smouldering mood in the government:

a. Interior Minister Harguindeguy was quoted as saying "(with respect to political timetables) which foreigners wish to impose on us, there may be many here would like to join the ranks of those abroad, but in the history of all the peoples there always have been those who allied themselves with the foreign world and this will continue to be. They have their names and are defined in the Spanish language."

b. President Videla in a farewell speech (as Army Chief) before the troops stated, "As the Armed Force of the nation, we must, permanently, spiritually and materially remain on guard against any type of aggression jeopardizing our territorial integrity or the full exercise of our sovereignty which may be launched against us in order to divide us from within or from without."

5. As seen by local press commentators, General Videla and Harguindeguy left little doubt that they were referring to the EXIM Bank decision. CLARIN saw the two speeches as coinciding in the conclusion that the Carter Administration's posture vis-a-vis Argentina was political i.e., that it referred to the de facto nature of the current Argentine Government rather than the human rights issue per se. The CLARIN commentary also articulated what appears to be the mood among some officials of the Argentine Government of perceiving what they believe to be the imposition by the US Government of linkages between the personal rights and democratic restoration issues on the one hand and US support, or a lack thereof, for Argentina's position in bilateral territorial disputes with Chile and Great Britain on the other. It should be added that no high-ranking official of the GOA has explicitly articulated such a concern to the Ambassador. However, such imaginary linkages were drawn in the Argentine mind, at least implicitly, in connection with the GOA complaints a few weeks ago about the Alende reception in Washington and, in the same breath, the President's allegedly deliberate omission of mentioning the Malvinas Island dispute in his opening address before the OASGA. With a fervid imagination, Argentine political observers read all kinds of sinister implications into what may be a mere coincidence of events. This problem led us to argue in reftels A. and B. for a policy which would permit us to explicitly de-link the personal rights issue from that of democratic restoration.

July 26, 1978

Dear Senator Church:

The information you have regarding the Argentine "Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo" is correct. I had the honor of meeting with representatives of this very courageous group when I was in Argentina and again when a delegation visited the United States. The group, which started with a few brave women, has grown and its membership is now estimated at about three hundred. The women who make it up meet every week in the Plazo de Mayo by the Ministry of Interior and Presidential Palace to demonstrate their desire for information on the welfare and whereabouts of their loved ones who have disappeared, presumably at the hands of security forces, or are believed to be held without charge by the current Argentine Government.

In December 1977, two French nuns and five mothers who had been gathering regularly at the Plaza to protest the detention and disappearances of their loved ones, were themselves detained, apparently by security forces. The Government of Argentina denied knowledge of their whereabouts despite strong indications that security forces had abducted them. After several months without any word, their bodies were-reported by human rights groups to have been discovered washed ashore on the Argentine coast. Six other mothers were also abducted and are presumed to be dead.

As you may be aware, our current relations with Argentina are severely strained because of the continuing serious human rights problems in that country. In the almost innumerable representations we have made on the human rights situation, the demands of the "mothers" and the harassment and abuse members of their group have suffered has been emphasized. The experiences of this group reflect the core of the problem in Argentina, the failure of the Government to be accountable to its people and to govern by due process and constitutionally recognized by law. This is the case despite the fact that the Government of Argentina has recognized that the terrorism which led to the suspension of legal norms is now under control.

We have tried in many ways to convince the Argentine Government of the need for change. We have made it clear that improvement in our relations is dependent on change. We have sent many high level delegations to Argentina, including one headed by the Secretary of State and another by the Undersecretary for Political Affairs. I accompanied the Secretary and undertook two separate missions on my own. We have encouraged other governments to make their concerns known to the Government of Argentina. We have addressed Argentine human rights issues in international fora and urged the Argentine Government to accept a visit by the Inter-American Human Rights Commission. We have stopped military aid and training and few new military transfers have been approved. We are opposing loans to Argentina in the multilateral development banks, and the Export-Import Bank, in accordance with the State Department's advice, has recently declined to participate in a major business transaction in Argentina.

We hope that our continued underscoring of the major importance of human rights to our foreign relations, will influence the Government of Argentina to bring about substantive improvements. I welcome your support in this effort and would be happy to consult with you in person if you would find it useful.

Sincerely yours,

Patricia M. Derian

On July 14, 1978, Mrs. Lidia Ester Cabrera de Franco was released from Asuncion's Emboscada prison without any explanations given. In a lengthy interview at the Embassy, Mrs. Cabrera de Franco described her arrest, detention and treatment first at the hands of the Argentine police and later at the Investigations police in Asuncion. Despite the recent release of political prisoners, her story, if true, gives an idea of the treatment that is accorded political prisoners, regardless of sex or legalities concerning the protection of individual human rights.

Attached is the memorandum of conversation of the interview with Mrs. Cabrera de Franco on July 21, 1978.

(5) 30 BH123

Buenos Aires, 28 Julio de 1978

A S.E. el Señor Ministro del Interior
Gral. de División D. Albano Harguindeguy

De nuestra mayor consideración:

Mediante comunicación dirigida al diario LA PRENSA y publicada el día 2 de Junio del corriente año, el Señor Ministro dió a conocer lo que a su juicio serían rectificaciones de datos erróneos respecto de 87 personas incluídas como desaparecidas en la nómina de 2511 publicadas en dicho matutino con fecha 17 de Mayo de este año por la Asamblea Permanente por los Derechos Humanos, el Movimiento Ecuménico por los Derechos Humanos y la Liga Argentina por los Derechos del Hombre.

Entendemos que el plausible propósito de la comunicación dada a conocer por el señor Ministro no es otro que el de llegar con la mayor aproximación a la verdad en este trascendente y grave problema. Igual propósito anima a las entidades firmantes de la lista precitada. Y con tal actitud aportan ahora, para el mismo fin, los elementos de juicio que motivan la presente nota. En ella se tienen en cuenta muy particularmente algunas situaciones individuales que muestran la significación institucional y humana del problema.

Dichas personas figuran efectivamente en nuestras listas de desaparecidos del 17 de Mayo de 1978, y ratificamos que al día de la fecha continúan en la misma condición, sin saberse nada de ellas. Al respecto corresponde puntualizar:

a) En relación al ciudadano Vicente Víctor Ayala, obra en nuestro poder una nota suscripta por su familia con fecha 18 de Junio de 1978, en la cual se hace saber que el nombrado continúa desaparecido. Se añade en dicha nota que el Decreto invocado por el señor Ministro (número 870/78) por el cual se habría dispuesto su libertad, está erroneamente citado en la comunicación ministerial, pues se trata en realidad del decreto 870/75, por el cual se dispuso (luego de un arresto a disposición del Poder Ejecutivo en aquel entonces) su libertad con fecha 8 de Abril de 1975, la que se hizo efectiva de inmediato. Ello ha sido corroborado por el Recurso de Hábeas Corpus interpuesto por su familia ante el Juez Federal de Corrientes, luego de la comunicación de V.E. al diario LA PRENSA del 2 de Junio del corriente año, recurso en el cual los informes de las autoridades requeridos dejaron constancia inequívoca de que el Decreto No. 870 relativo a Vicente Víctor Ayala es del año 1975, y se refiere por lo tanto a la cesación de una detención muy anterior a su actual desaparición.

b) En relación al ciudadano Carlos Hugo Capitman ratificamos que continúa desaparecido, pese a existir el decreto de libertad que menciona V.E. en la comunicación del 2 de Junio. En el recurso de Hábeas Corpus interpuesto por su familia ante la justicia de la Capital Federal, la Sala Penal de la Cámara Federal acaba de resolver recientemente el pase de las actuaciones pertinentes al Consejo Supremo de las Fuerzas Armadas, ante la posibilidad de que la libertad ordenada por el Decreto citado por V.E. haya sido frustrada o desacatada por vías de hecho por personal de fuerzas armadas o de seguridad, desde que los informes remitidos a la justicia federal por los comandos requeridos al efecto no han podido hacer saber donde, cuando y cómo se habría cumplido la orden de libertad emergente del Decreto 1907/76.

c) En igual situación de los antes nombrados, en cuanto a la frustración de hecho de su ordenada libertad, se encuentran los ciudadanos Laura Noemí Creatore, Manuel Tomás Vizcarra y Dardo Francisco Molina.

2.- Bajo el mismo subtítulo de "Cesaron su detención y fueron puestos en libertad", la referida comunicación de vuestra excelencia publicada el día 2 de Junio incluye el nombre de los ciudadanos Orlando Cancio y Miguel Angel Pincheira, que según dicha publicación habrían sido puestos en libertad por Decreto No. 2467/76

Dichas personas figuran en nuestras listas como desaparecidas, y lo siguen estando. Ratificamos, pués, su inclusión en la nómina de personas actualmente desaparecidas, y agregamos para subrayar la especial gravedad de éste caso, que los nombrados Cancio y Pincheira no son las únicas personas a las que se refiere el Decreto 2467/76, aunque son ellas las que menciona ese Ministerio. En efecto, el Decreto 2467/76 también dispone la libertad de otras personas que cesan su condición de arrestados a Disposición del Poder Ejecutivo, pero que jamás aparecieron son: Marcos Seminario de Neuquén y José Delineo Méndez de Cutral-Co.

3.- En el mismo subcapítulo "Cesaron su detención y fueron puestos en libertad", figuran en la nómina publicada por ese Ministerio los ciudadanos Zoilo Ayala, Carlos Alberto Carranza, Jorge Raúl Olave, Estela Beatriz Lombardo de Olave y Manuel Tomás Vizcarra.

Dichas personas que continúan desaparecidas fueron incluídas en nuestras listas en razón de que en los respectivos Hábeas Corpus interpuestos oportunamente a su favor las autoridades requeridas en cada caso por el Juez interviniente informaron que dichos ciudadanos no figuraban como detenidos.

Es evidente que tiene significación institucional la circunstancia de que, luego de tales informes negativos, hayanaparecido como detenidos a disposición del Poder Ejecutivo y puestos en libertad por decretos de aquél.

Lo mismo podría afirmarse sobre los casos RAMOS Batalla, STREMI Juan Carlos, que en la comunicación del señor Ministro figuran como detenidos "a disposición del Poder Ejecutivo Nacional" y que sin embargo, en oportunidad de su detención los recursos de Hábeas Corpus que en su favor presentaron los familiares respectivos obtuvieron respuesta negativa.

4.- Bajo el subtítulo de "De acuerdo con los antecedentes que obran en el Ministerio del Interior, se encuentran en sus domicilios", la comunicación del 2 de Junio menciona entre otros ciudadanos Carlos Alberto Carbajal.

La señora Mirta Carbajal de Ortiz informó a la Asamblea Permanente por los Derechos Humanos, el día 23 de Junio de 1978, que el nombrado no ha aparecido.

5.- En el subtítulo OTROS CASOS se menciona como procesado a FERNANDEZ, Carlos Alberto. En la publicación del 17 de Mayo, había dos personas con el mismo nombre y apellido. Informamos que la persona con L.E. 8.139.310 continúa desaparecida por cuanto los Hábeas Corpus obtuvieron resultado negativo.

6) Del conjunto de 87 nombres incluídos en la comunicación de ese Ministerio publicada el día 2 de Junio del corriente año, extraemos los de José Lutzky, Miguel Angel Laborde, Epifanio Méndez Fleitas, Hugo Ernesto Huberman, Fawel Huberman, Zulema Isabel Sosa de Alfaya, María L. Maneiro, Lidia Ester Cabrera, Eduardo Sotero y Francisco Venegas, al solo efecto de dejar constancia de que dichas personas no fueron incluídas en las listas publicadas por las entidades subscriptas el día 17 de Mayo de 1978, puesto que en relación a las mismas no se había recibido denuncia alguna.

7) En el subtítulo "ACTUALMENTE DETENIDAS A DISPOSICION DEL PODER EJECUTIVO NACIONAL" se informa que CAPELLA, Jorge Antonio se halla detenido en la U-9 de La Plata. Aclaramos que no se trata de la misma persona que aparece en la publicación del 17/5/78, que es CAPELLO, Jorge Antonio desaparecido el 15/5/77, y que continúa en igual situación, según ha confirmado su familia.

8) Con el mismo espíritu de aporte que hemos mencionado al comienzo de esta nota, hacemos llegar al señor Ministro una nómina de 500 nuevos casos de personas desaparecidas que deben sumarse por consiguiente a los dos mil quinientos once publicados el 17 de Mayo del corriente año.

Tal nómina adicional ha sido confeccionada sobre la base de testimonios presentados a las entidades firmantes de la presente luego del 17 de Mayo de 1978.

9) Dejamos constancia, respecto de los nombres incluídos en la comunicación de ese Ministerio del 2 de Junio del corriente año, que hemos recibido de las respectivas familias o de otra fuente similar la confirmación de la libertad de las siguientes personas: MIGLIARI, Antonio Atilio, BARRACOSA, de Migliari Haydee Marta, BARRIONUEVO, Nicolás Carlos, SAURIT de Daviña, Graciela, GARCIA, Gabriel Alberto.

Por todo lo expuesto, y dada la pública resonancia del problema que nos ocupa, solicitamos al señor Ministro conceda una audiencia a representantes de las entidades firmantes, a efectos de poner a su disposición cuanto elemento de juicio o de prueba pueda obrar en nuestro poder o ser de nuestro conocimiento, en la seguridad de que ello contribuirá en su medida a la preservación de la vida y al afianzamiento de la justicia.

Saludan con la consideración más distinguida a su Excelencia el Señor Ministro del Interior.

SUBJECT: ARA WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS JUNE 21-27

1. THE CENTRAL EVENT THIS WEEK IN WASHINGTON WAS THE MEETING OF THE VIII OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY, DETAILS OF WHICH ARE BEING REPORTED IN SEPTELS.

2. CARIBBEAN GROUP MEETING. THE FIRST REGULAR MEETING OF THE CARIBBEAN GROUP FOR COOPERATION IN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, HELD AT THE WORLD BANK 6/19-24, WAS A SIGNIFICANT SUCCESS FROM BOTH RECIPIENT AND DONOR VIEWPOINTS. THE RESULTS WERE A MAJOR ADVANCE FOR U.S. POLICY, WHICH HAS STRONGLY SUPPORTED A MULTILATERAL APPROACH TO THE PROBLEMS OF THE CARIBBEAN. SPECIFIC ACTIONS ARE BEING REPORTED IN SEPTEL.

3. CHRISTOPHER COMMITTEE. THE INTERAGENCY GROUP ON FOREIGN ASSISTANCE AND HUMAN RIGHTS WILL MEET JULY 7. THE GROUP WILL EVALUATE ITEMS OF ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR SEVEN LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES--ARGENTINA, CHILE, EL SALVADOR, GUYANA, HAITI, NICARAGUA AND PARAGUAY.

4. BAHAMAS MILITARY FACILITIES NEGOTIATIONS. AFTER SEVERAL YEARS OF FRUITLESS DISCUSSIONS, THERE WAS SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS TOWARD A NEW AGREEMENT ON U.S. USE OF FOUR MILITARY FACILITIES IN THE BAHAMAS DURING TALKS JUNE 22 AND JUNE 23. DIFFERENCES ON COMPENSATION AND RETROACTIVITY WERE REDUCED TO MANAGEABLE SIZE. A STUMBLING BLOCK TO AGREEMENT THIS YEAR MAY BE A LINGERING BAHAMIAN BELIEF THAT SUBSTANTIAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE FORTHCOMING IN ADDITION TO SEVERAL MILLION DOLLARS ANNUAL CASH RENT FOR THE FACILITIES. TIATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO RESUME JULY 20 AND 21.

5. PERUVIAN ELECTIONS. THE DEPARTMENT ISSUED A STATEMENT ON JUNE 21 STATING OUR ENCOURAGEMENT AT THE FACT THAT THE JUNE 18 CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY ELECTION TOOK PLACE AS SCHEDULED, AND MENTIONING PERU'S PRE-ELECTORAL RESTRAINTS AND ECONOMIC CRISIS. PERUVIAN FOREIGN MINISTER DE LA PUENTE TOOK EXCEPTION TO THE STATEMENT, ASSERTING THAT THE U.S. STATEMENT CONSTITUTED INTERFERENCE IN PERUVIAN DOMESTIC AFFAIRS.

6. RECALL OF AMBASSADOR TO CHILE. AMBASSADOR GEORGE W. LANDAU WAS RECALLED FOR CONSULTATIONS FROM SANTIAGO ON JUNE 23. THE RECALL WAS ACCOMPANIED BY A PUBLIC STATEMENT BY TH: DEPARTMENT, SUPPORTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, WHICH NOTED THAT THE GOC HAD NOT BEEN FORTHCOMING WITH PROMISED COOPERATION IN THE LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATION INVESTIGATION. LANDAU IS CONSULTING WITH STATE AND JUSTICE; CONVERSATIONS CONTINUE WITH HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE GOC IN AN EFFORT TO GAIN COOPERATION.

7. CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS ON ARMS RESTRAINT AND TRANSFER. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY JOHN BUSHNELL TESTIFIED JUNE 27 BEFORE THE HOUSE INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS SUBCOMMITTEE ON THE SUBJECT OF U.S. ARMS RESTRAINT AND TRANSFER POLICIES IN THE HEMISPHERE. HIS PREPARED STATEMENT POINTED OUT THE RELATIVELY LOW LEVEL OF ARMS PURCHASES IN LATIN AMERICA AND REVIEWED SALIENT FEATURES OF ADMINISTRATION POLICY: AVOIDING BEING THE FIRST TO SUPPLY WEAPONS SYSTEMS OF GREATER SOPHISTICATION, PLACI;G THE BURDEN OF PERSUASION ON THOSE OPPOSING IT, AND CONSIDERING CAREFULLY THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATIO; IN PROPOSED RECIPIENT COUNTRIES. THE SUBCOMMITTEE'S QUESTIONS FOCUSED ON THE LACK OF SIMILAR FORMAL POLICIES ON THE PART OF OTHER SUPPLIERS AND WHETHER OUR POLICIES WERE THEREFORE INEFFECTIVE IN FORESTALLING BUILD-UPS. THE SUBCOMMITTEE ALSO INQUIRED INTO THE ECONOMIC LOSSES FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRY

BECAUSE OF OUR REFUSAL ON POLICY GROUNDS TO PERMIT CERTAIN SALES. DAS BUSHNELL RESPONDED BY MAINTAINING THAT OUR POLICIES HAVE IN FACT RESULTED IN MODERATION OF LATIN AMERICA'S ARMS DEMAND, WHICH IS IN ANY CASE RELATIVELY SMALL. HE ACKNOWLEDGED FINANCIAL LOSSES, ALTHOUGH NEGLIGIBLE IN THEIR IMPACT ON THE OVERALL

U.S. ECONOMY, BUT CHARACTERIZED THESE ECONOMIC COSTS AS A REASONABLE PRICE TO PAY IN ORDER TO HAVE A CLEAR POLICY OF ARMS RESTRAINT AND SUPPORT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. HE SAID THESE COS;S ARE IN EFFECT AN INVESTMENT IN A MORE PEACEFUL, MORE HUMANE WORLD.

A. ARA'S JUNE 23 CONTRIBUTION TO 'WEEKLY ISSUES':

UNITAS: A USEFUL POLICY INSTRUMENT IN U.S.-LATIN AMERICAN RELATIONS.

THE ANNUAL UNITAS NAVAL EXERCISE IS THE LAST MAJOR ON-GOING U.S. MILITARY VENTURE WITH LATIN AMERICA. IT COMBINES MANEUVERS AT SEA WITH IN-PORT REPRESENTATIONAL ACTIVITIES IN A FOUR-MONTH, 24,000 MILE CIRCUMNAVIGATION OF SOUTH AMERICA. EIGHT COUNTRIES PARTICIPATED IN UNITAS XVIII. UNITAS XIX IS SLATED TO BEGIN IN AUGUST.

THE TRADITIONAL OPERATIONAL JUSTIFICATION FOR UNITAS IS THAT IT ALLOWS U.S. TO EVALUATE SOUTH AMERICAN NAVIES AND GAIN FAMILIARITY WITH LOCAL BASES AND LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FACILITIES.

ALTHOUGH THE TACTICAL AND STRATEGIC KNOWLEDGE SO GAINED COULD BE US:FUL IN THE FUTURE, THE UNITAS MANEUVERS ACTUALLY SERVE TWO MORE IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVES --DEFUSING REGIONAL TENSIONS AND MAINTAINING A COOPERATIVE U.S. PRESENCE.

IN LAST YEAR'S EXERCISE, CHILE AND PERU, TWO COUNTRIES WITH SERIOUS BORDER PROBLEMS, JOINED WITH THE U.S. IN AN UNPRECEDENTED TRILATERAL OPERATION WHICH MARKED THE FIRST TIME SINCE 1962 THAT THE TWO NATIONS HAD PARTICIPATED TOGETHER IN UNITAS. FOR THIS YEAR'S EXERCISE, ARGENTINA AND CHILE HAVE AGREED TO SET ASIDE THEIR BEAGLE CHANNEL DISPUTE LONG ENOUGH TO PERMIT THE USE OF BOTH COUNTRIES' PORTS ON THE CHANNEL.

WHILE NAVIES ARE GENERALLY NOT THE DOMINANT MILITARY SERVICE IN LATIN AMERICA, THE UNITAS EXERCISE PROVIDES A VALUABLE PSYCHOLOGICAL UNDERPINNING TO COLLECTIVE

SECURITY AND THE RIO TREATY. THE MANY PORT CALLS ARE A UNIQUE MEANS OF "SHOWING THE FLAG--IN A COOPERATIVE RATHER THAN A UNILATERAL FASHION. THE NAVY SHOW BAND, [redacted]

PRESS CONFERENCES, AND OPERATION HANDCLASP (WHICH DISTRIBUTES MEDICAL SUPPLIES, RECREATIONAL EQUIPMENT, AND CLOTHING TO SCHOOLS, HOSPITALS AND ORPHANAGES) ARE ALL ECONOMICAL MEANS OF DEMONSTRATING GOODWILL.

UNITAS MAY BE SEEN AS A FORM OF REGIONAL INSURANCE AGAINST INCREASING STRAINS ON DETENTE AND CUBA'S MILITARY ADVENTURISM. BUT IN A WIDER SENSE, UNITAS IS A SMALL BUT IMPORTANT PART OF OUR CONTINUING EFFORT TO BUILD MORE COOPERATIVE RELATIONS WITH OUR LATIN NEIGHBORS.

IN THE WAKE OF THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH WEDNESDAY AT THE OAS GENERAL ASSEMBLY, UNITAS AND SIMILAR ACTIVITIES MAY ALSO BE INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT POLICY INSTRUMENTS FOR BUILDING THE MUTUAL CONFIDENCE NEEDED FOR REGIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT AND ARMS RESTRAINT. VANCE

Request for Extradition

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Minister of Foreign Relations of Chile and states the following:

By note No. 43 of August 1, 1978, this Embassy requested of Your Excellency the provisional arrest of Chilean citizens Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios, whose extradition was to be requested in due course in accordance with the provisions of Article IV of the Extradition Treaty in force between the Republic of Chile and the United States of America.

By note No. 45 of August 10, 1978, this Embassy sent Your Excellency complete copies of the formal indictment of the aforementioned persons, returned on August 1, 1978 by a Federal Grand Jury in the District of Columbia, together with the warrants of arrest issued for the same persons by the District Court for the District of Columbia on the same date.

The Government of the United States of America hereby formally requests of the Government of Chile the extradition of Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios. Said persons were sufficiently identified in our note No. 43 of August 1, 1978. At the time of the events that are the subject of the request for extradition, the aforesaid persons were officers in the Chilean Army assigned to the Directorate of National Intelligence (DINA). The first named was the Director of DINA and the others were officials of that organization. At the present time, as stated in Your Excellency's note of August 2, 1978, the aforementioned persons are under provisional arrest in Chile.

Said persons were indicted by the Grand Jury in the District of Columbia on August 1, 1978, and are to be tried according to the laws of the United States of America for the following crimes:

1. Conspiracy to murder a foreign official, Orlando Letelier, a crime punishable under United States Code, Title 18,Section 1117.

2. Murder of a foreign official, Orlando Letelier, on September 21, 1976, a crime punishable under United States Code, Title 18, Sections 1111 and 1116.

3. Murder in the first degree of Orlando Letelier on September 21, 1976, a crime punishable under the District of Columbia Code Title 22, Section 2401.

4. Murder in the first degree of Ronni Moffitt on September 21, 1976, a crime punishable under the District of Columbia Code, Title 22, Section 2401.

5. Destruction and damage by use of explosives of a 1975 Chevrolet Chevelle Malibu Classic automobile, used in interstate traffic, that was transporting Orlando Letelier, Ronni Moffitt, and Michael Moffitt from the State of Maryland to the District of Columbia on September 21, 1976, causing the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. The crime is punishable under United States Code, Title 18, Section 844 (i).

UNCLASSIFIED

The death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt took place on September 21, 1976, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America.

The three accused are alleged to be the authors of the crimes indicated.

The aforesaid offenses are extraditable pursuant to Article II of the Extradition Treaty in force between the Republic of Chile and the United States of America, and to other applicable rules and principles of international law.

In accordance with the provisions of the Extradition Treaty between Chile and the United States, this request is accompanied by the following documents:

1. An authenticated copy, translated into Spanish, of the indictment returned against the aforementioned persons by the Grand Jury of the District of Columbia;

2. Authenticated copies, translated into Spanish, of the warrants of arrest issued for the aforementioned persons by the District Court of the District of Columbia on August 1, 1978;

3. Complete text, translated into Spanish, of the legal provisions cited in the indictment which define and punish the crimes listed therein, indicate the applicable penalties, and define the punishable forms of participation. Statutes which regulate the applicable statute of limitations on penal action for the aforesaid crimes are also included;

UNCLASSIFIED

4. Complete text in English of the evidence on which the indictment was based and which constitutes such evidence of criminality with respect to the accused as, according to Chilean law, would justify the apprehension and commitment for trial of the accused if the crime had been committed in Chile. This includes: photostatic copies of the original documents including transcripts of the questions asked and the testimony given before the grand jury, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and attorneys of the United States Attorney's office; complete copies of the expert reports produced; and photographs, films, and other evidence including documents and records specified in the index, ~~in which they are contained~~. This evidence should be regarded as an integral part of this request for extradition.

A duly certified official translation is attached for all of the accompanying documents and material evidence.

All of the evidence indicated is certified as authentic by the competent officials, as required by ~~Chilean law~~ the Extradition Treaty.

The Ministry of Foreign Relations is requested to authenticate the signature of His Excellency George W. Landau, Ambassador of the United States to Chile, in the appropriate certifications.

The Embassy of the United States of America calls attention to the need to ensure the ~~persons~~ presence of the accused for purposes of their appearance at the extradition proceedings and their delivery to the requesting government once the extradition has been granted. It is therefore requested that the provisional arrest status under which the accused are currently being held be continued until the extradition process has been completed in the manner prescribed by law, pursuant to the Extradition Treaty and the domestic laws of Chile.

UNCLASSIFIED

The Government of the United States of America offers the Government of the Republic of Chile full reciprocity in the event of any future requests for extradition that the Government of Chile might make to the Government of the United States, pursuant to the provisions of the Extradition Treaty in force and the laws of the United States of America.

The Government of the United States of America has named as its counsel and attorney for all procedures related to this extradition request Mr. Alfredo Etcheberry Orthusteguy, attorney at law, listed in Registry 2 of the Bar Association under entry No. 1747, Supreme Court license _____, domiciled at Santiago, Calle Bandera No. 162, 40 piso, oficina 41. Mr. Etcheberry's appointment is understood to extend to all procedures, petitions, and recourses related to the processing of the extradition request before the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Chile, the Supreme Court, and all the courts of justice of Chile. In the discharge of his responsibilities Mr. Etcheberry will be invested with all the powers conferred and recognized for legal attorneys and counsels by the laws of Chile and the United States and by the international treaties and customs in force.

The Embassy of the United States of America requests His Excellency to inform the Supreme Court of this appointment so that it may bear it in mind and accord Mr. Etcheberry all of the powers inherent in his appointment.

The Government of the United States of America would appreciate it if His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Relations would take the necessary steps in connection with this request for extradition so that the extradition may be granted.

We renew the assurances of our most distinguished consideration.

SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATION INVESTIGATION

1. TEN LAWYERS BROUGHT A CRIMINAL ACTION AGAINST MANUEL CONTRERAS JULY 31. THE LAWYERS APPEAR TO BE PREDOMINANTLY CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDCERS) AND THE GROUP INCLUDES WELL-KNOWN PDC IDEOLOGUE JAIME CASTILLO VELASCO. ALL GAVE THEIR ADDRESS AS THAT OF THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY. THE GROUP CHARGES CONTRERAS WITH THE KIDNAPPING OF 69 PERSONS (PRESUMABLY, TAKEN FROM THE VICARIATE'S LIST OF 615 MISSING PERSONS) AND THE DOCUMENTATION PRESENTED TO THE 10TH CRIMINAL COURT TOTALS 300 PAGES.

2. IN THE ABSENCE OF ETCHEBERRY, WHO IS OUT OF TOWN UNTIL THE EVENING OF AUGUST 2, WE TALKED WITH ONE OF HIS PARTNERS, CARLOS BALBONTIN. ACCORDING TO BALBONTIN, THE FACT THAT THIS SUIT HAS BEEN INITIATED WOULD NOT NECESSARILY INTERFERE WITH AN EXTRADITION REQUEST STEMMING FROM THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE. THIS LOCAL CASE HAS NOT YET REACHED A STAGE WHERE IT WOULD TAKE PRECEDENT. IF IT DOES REACH THAT STAGE (PRESUMABLY AFTER [redacted]

[redacted]

THE JUDGE'S PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION) PRIOR TO THE REQUEST AND DECISION ON EXTRADITION, THE, ACCORDING TO BALBONTIN, THE JUDGE WOULD STILL DECIDE THE ACTION OF EXTRADITION ON ITS MERITS, BUT A DECISION IN FAVOR OF EXTRADITION COULD NOT BE CARRIED OUT UNTIL THE LOCAL CASE WERE CONCLUDED.

3. COMMENT: WE CANNOT TOTALLY EXCLUDE THAT THIS SUIT AGAINST CONTRERAS MAY BE GOC-INSPIRED -- AN EFFORT TO RAISE FURTHER OBSTACLES IN THE WAY OF ANY POSSIBLE CONTRERAS EXTRADITION. GIVEN THE POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS OF AT LEAST SOME OF THE LAWYERS AND THE KNOWN INTENSITY OF FEELING OF THE RELATIVES OF THE

DISAPPEARED, HOWEVER, THIS SEEMS UNLIKELY. RATHER, IN THE KNOWLEDGE OR EXPECTIATION THAT THE CONTRERAS (AND OTHER) INDICTMENTS WERE COMING, THE LOCAL DEFENDERS OF LEGALITY APPEAR TO HAVE DECIDED THAT CONTRERAS SHOULD NOT BE BROUGHT TO THE BAR SOLELY AS THE RESULT OF FOREIGN LEGAL ACTION -- THAT CHILEANS SHOULD ALSO BEE SEEN TO BE ACTIVE IN SEEKING JUSTICE. IF SO, THEY PROBABLY ASSUME THAT EXTRADITION OF CONTRERAS IS NOT A LIKELY PROSPECT.

Who, after having exhibited their Full Powers, which were found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following:

ARTICLE 1

Each one of the signatory States in harmony with the stipulations of the present Convention assumes the obligation of surrendering to any one of the States which may make the requisition, the persons who may be in their territory and who are accused or under sentence. This right shall be claimed only under the following circumstances:

a) That the demanding State have the jurisdiction to try and to punish the delinquency which is attributed to the individual whom it desires to extradite.

b) That the act for which extradition is sought constitutes a crime and is punishable under the laws of the demanding and surrendering States with a minimum penalty of imprisonment for one year.

ARTICLE 2 [3]

When the person whose extradition is sought is a citizen of the country to which the requisition is addressed, his delivery may or may not be made, as the legislation or circumstances of the case may, in the judgment of the surrendering State, determine. If the accused is not surrendered, the latter State is obliged to bring action against him for the crime with which he is accused, if such crime meets the conditions established in sub-article (b) of the previous article. The sentence pronounced shall be communicated to the demanding State.

ARTICLE 3

Extradition will not be granted:

a) When, previous to the arrest of the accused person, the penal action or sentence has expired according to the laws of the demanding or the surrendering State.

b) When the accused has served his sentence in the country where the crime was committed or when he may have been pardoned or granted an amnesty.

c) When the accused has been or is being tried by the State to which the requisition was directed for the act with which he is charged and on which the petition of extradition is based.

[3] For text of U.S. understanding, see footnote 1, p. 152.

d) When the accused must appear before any extraordinary tribunal or court of the demanding State (tribunal o juzgado de excepción del Estado requiriente). Military courts will not be considered as such tribunals.[3]

e) When the offense is of a political nature or of a character related thereto. An attempt against the life or person of the Chief of State or members of his family, shall not be deemed to be a political offense.

f) When the offense is purely military or directed against religion.

ARTICLE 4

The determination of whether or not the exceptions referred to in the previous article are applicable shall belong exclusively to the State to which the request for extradition is addressed.

ARTICLE 5

A request for extradition should be formulated by the respective diplomatic representative. When no such representative is available, consular agents may serve, or the governments may communicate directly with one another. The following documents in the language of the country to which the request for extradition is directed, shall accompany every such request:

a) An authentic copy of the sentence, when the accused has been tried and condemned by the courts of the demanding State.

b) When the person is only under accusation, an authentic copy of the order of detention issued by the competent judge, with a precise description of the imputed offense, a copy of the penal laws applicable thereto, and a copy of the laws referring to the prescription of the action or the penalty.

c) In the case of an individual under accusation as also of an individual already condemned, there shall be furnished all possible information of a personal character which may help to identify the individual whose extradition is sought.

ARTICLE 6

When a person whose extradition is sought shall be under trial or shall be already condemned in the State from which it is sought to extradite him, for an offense committed prior to the request for extradition, said extradition shall be granted at once, but the surrender of the accused to the demanding State shall be deferred until his trial ends or his sentence is served.

ARTICLE 7

When the extradition of a person is sought by several States for the same offense, preference will be given to the State in whose territory said offense was committed. If he is sought for several offenses, preference will be given to the State within whose bounds shall have been committed the offense which has the greatest penalty according to the law of the surrendering State.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

If the case is one of different acts which the State from which extradition is sought esteems of equal gravity, the preference will be determined by the priority of the request.

ARTICLE 8

The request for extradition shall be determined in accordance with the domestic legislation of the surrendering State and the individual whose extradition is sought shall have the right to use all the remedies and resources authorized by such legislation, either before the judiciary or the administrative authorities as may be provided for by the aforesaid legislation.

ARTICLE 9

Once a request for extradition in the form indicated in Article 5 has been received, the State from which the extradition is sought will exhaust all necessary measures for the capture of the person whose extradition is requested.

ARTICLE 10

The requesting State may ask, by any means of communication, the provisional or preventive detention of a person, if there is, at least, an order by some court for his detention and if the State at the same time offers to request extradition in due course. The State from which the extradition is sought will order the immediate arrest of the accused. If within a maximum period of two months after the requesting State has been notified of the arrest of the person, said State has not formally applied for extradition, the detained person will be set at liberty and his extradition may not again be requested except in the way established by Article 5.

The demanding State is exclusively liable for any damages which might arise from the provisional or preventive detention of a person.

ARTICLE 11

Extradition having been granted and the person requested put at the disposition of the diplomatic agent of the demanding State, then, if, within two months from the time when said agent is notified of same, the person has not been sent to his destination, he will be set at liberty, and he cannot again be detained for the same cause.

The period of two months will be reduced to forty days when the countries concerned are conterminous.

ARTICLE 12 [1]

Once extradition of a person has been refused, application may not again be made for the same alleged act.

[1] For text of U.S. understanding, see footnote 1, p. 152.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

ARTICLE 13

The State requesting the extradition may designate one or more guards for the purpose of taking charge of the person extradited, but said guards will be subject to the orders of the police or other authorities of the State granting the extradition or of the States in transit.

ARTICLE 14

The surrender of the person extradited to the requesting State will be done at the most appropriate point on the frontier or in the most accessible port, if the transfer is to be made by water.

ARTICLE 15

The objects found in the possession of the person extradited, obtained by the perpetration of the illegal act for which extradition is requested, or which might be useful as evidence of same, will be confiscated and handed over to the demanding country, notwithstanding it might not be possible to surrender the accused because of some unusual situation such as his escape or death.

ARTICLE 16

The costs of arrest, custody, maintenance, and transportation of the person, as well as of the objects referred to in the preceding article, will be borne by the State granting the extradition up to the moment of surrender and from thereon they will be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE 17

Once the extradition is granted, the demanding State undertakes:

a) Not to try nor to punish the person for a common offense which was committed previous to the request for extradition and which has not been included in said request, except only if the interested party expressly consents.

b) Not to try nor to punish the person for a political offense, or for an offense connected with a political offense, committed previous to the request for extradition.

c) To apply to the accused the punishment of next lesser degree than death if according to the legislation of the country of refuge the death penalty would not be applicable.

d) To furnish to the State granting the extradition an authentic copy of the sentence pronounced.

ARTICLE 18

The signatory States undertake to permit the transit through their respective territories of any person whose extradition has been granted by another State in favor of a third, requiring only the original or an authentic copy of the agreement by which the country of refuge granted the extradition.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

ARTICLE 19

No request for extradition may be based upon the stipulations of this Convention if the offense in question has been committed before the ratification of the Convention is deposited.

ARTICLE 20

The present Convention will be ratified by means of the legal forms in common use in each of the signatory States, and will come into force, for each of them, thirty days after the deposit of the respective ratification.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uruguay shall transmit authentic certified copies to the governments for the aforementioned purpose of ratification. The instrument of ratification shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan-American Union in Washington, which shall notify the signatory governments of said deposit. Such notification shall be considered as an exchange of ratifications.

ARTICLE 21

The present Convention does not abrogate or modify the bilateral or collective treaties, which at the present date are in force between the signatory States. Nevertheless, if any of said treaties lapse, the present Convention will take effect and become applicable immediately among the respective States, if each of them has fulfilled the stipulations of the preceding article.

ARTICLE 22

The present Convention shall remain in force indefinitely but may be denounced by means of one year's notice given to the Pan-American Union, which shall transmit it to the other signatory governments. After the expiration of this period the Convention shall cease in its effects as regards the party which denounces but shall remain in effect for the remaining High Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE 23

The present Convention shall be open for the adherence and accession of the States which are not signatories. The corresponding instruments shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan-American Union, which shall communicate them to the other High Contracting Parties.

In witness whereof, the following Plenipotentiaries have signed this convention in Spanish, English, Portuguese and French and hereunto affix their respective seals in the city of Montevideo, Republic of Uruguay, this 26th day of December, 1933.

RESERVATIONS

The Delegation of the United States of America, in signing the present Extradition Convention, reserves the following articles:

Article 2. (second sentence, English text);
Article 3, paragraph d;
Articles 12, 15, 16 and 18.

Reservation to the effect that El Salvador, although it accepts in general principle Article XVIII of the Inter-American Treaty of Extradition, concretely stipulates the exception that it cannot cooperate in the surrender of its own nationals, prohibited by its Political Constitution, by permitting the transit through its territory of said nationals when one foreign State surrenders them to another.

Mexico signs the Convention on Extradition with the declaration with respect to Article 3, paragraph f, that the internal legislation of Mexico does not recognize offenses against religion. It will not sign the optional clause of this Convention.

The Delegation from Ecuador, in dealing with the Nations with which Ecuador has signed Conventions on Extraditions, accepts the stipulations herein established in all respects which are not contrary to said Conventions.

ANSWERS TO SEVERAL QUESTIONS.

1. Testimonies before the Grand Jury. No signature by the witness is necessary. Only a complete text of the testimony, with a certification by a judge or a clerk of the court to the effect that this is in fact an accurate transcription of the testimony given before the Grand Jury.
2. Written depositions before the FBI. A complete transcription thereof is enough. No signatures are necessary. An authorized officer of the FBI or the Department of Justice should certify that this is a complete, accurate copy of the original written deposition made by such and such person.
3. Oral statements made to FBI agents. An authorized officer of the FBI or the Department of Justice must certify that such and such person told to the agents of the FBI such and such things. Further, that he is willing to testify to that and that he will be summoned to appear as a witness in court during the trial.

In all cases included above under (1), (2) and (3) it is necessary to specify the witness' name, occupation and adress; the date and place of the interview, deposition, or testimony, and, if possible, identify the FBI agents that were present.

4. Documentary evidence supporting Townley's testimony. It will be necessary to produce it here in order to give credit to Townley's testimony, which will certainly be strongly challenged in court. Photostatic copies thereof will be necessary. If they were in Townley's possession and were handed by him to the FBI, a certification is necessary, with regard to each document, by an authorized officer of the FBI, to the effect: (a) that they are genuine photostatic copies of the original documents, and (b) that they were delivered by Townley to the FBI. If they were obtained by the FBI following Townley's directions, the FBI officer must certify: (a) that they are genuine photostatic copies of the original documents, and (b) that they were obtained directly from the original sources by FBI agents such and such.

MOTIVOS Y OBJETIVOS DE MI VIAJE A LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS EN EL AÑO 1976,.- El motivo y objetivo de mi viaje a los Estados Unidos en 1976, tenia como finalidad la eliminacion fisica del Sr. Orlando Letelier; dicha mision me fue ordenada por el Coronel don Pedro Espinoza Bravo, quien habia recibido - segun lo que el me informo,-la orden del Sr. Director Nacional de DINA el entonces Coronel don Manuel Contreras Sepulveda.

Las reuniones y los hechos que culminaron en el exito de esta mision son como sigue :

1.- fui citado a una reunion con el Coronel Pedro Espinoza, la que tuvo lugar - creo- en principios de Junio en el lugar conocido como : "" LA PIRAMIDE "", frente al colegio Saint George, donde tomamos un termo de cafe y charlamos por largo rato - quizas una hora o mas, - sobre diversos temas relacionados con el servicio, asi como otros temas familiares y cosas de amigos. Dentro de la conversacion me pregunto si estaria dispuesto a cumplir una mision especial en el exterior - sin darme referencia alguna-.

2.- Puede haber sido totalmente en el mes de Julio de 1976, que tuve una segunda reunion con el Coronel Espinoza, a la cual fui citado por el entonces Teniente Fernandez, para encontrarme con el Coronel Espinoza en un lugar - stio eriazo- ubicado en "" LO CURRO "" .- Durante esta segunda entrevista converse y me fue entregada mi mision en forma privada, por el Coronel Espinoza, la cual consistia en viajar al Paraguay para obtener documentacion Paraguaya y las visas requeridas para entrar a los Estados Unidos y eliminar al Sr. Orlando Letelier.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Dentro de las instrucciones de detalle que se me impartieron, señalo las siguientes :

a) Proceder al Paraguay donde el Teniente Fernandez se ocuparia de obtener la documentacion necesaria, hecho en el cual no tendria participacion. Ratifico que la eleccion de nombres usados en esta documentacion fue hecha al azar y sin ninguna predisposicion, en el Paraguay.

b) El metodo que debia ser usado para la eliminacion de Orlando Letelier, quedaba a nuestro criterio, pero en lo posible que fuera aparentemente accidental. De todos modos el objetivo final era lo importante cualesquiera que fueran los metodos usados.

c) En esta oportunidad, la instruccion de contactar con Cubano era solamente en el caso de necesitar apoyo. En esta fase, la orden especifica es que la ejecucion - en lo posible- la hiciesemos nosotros mismos.

3)A partir de este momento, los hechos sucedieron tal como lo señale precedentemente en mi declaracion relativa al viaje a Paraguay, variando solamente el objetivo o motivo de esta mision como lo explico en el presente escrito.

Con posterioridad a mi regreso del Paraguay, en el mes de Agosto mi Sra. se opero.- Por lo tanto, preste muy poca atencion a mis deberes en el servicio y no supe de la partida del Teniente Fernandez ni menos del viaje de los Tenientes Riveros y Mosquaira. Eso si que escuche un rumor - o comentario-, de que algo se habia hecho para neutralizar el problema suscitado con los documentos obtenidos en el Paraguay.

4) En los ultimos dias de Agosto o primeros dias de Septiembre de 1976, tuve otra reunion con el Coronel Espinoza, en un lugar que no recuerdo si fue la oficina de dicho Oficial o en el cerro "" LO CURRO "",- En esta reunion estuvimos solos y me dieron las ordenes especificas para la mision que culmino en la eliminacion del SR. ORLANDO LETELIER. Estas ordenes fueron como sigue :

a) Trasladarme a los Estados Unidos de N.A. con un pasaporte Oficial Chileno, proporcionado por el Servicio con pasajes propor-cionado en igual forma y con fondos que ascendieron a US$ 980.- Como ya lo indique en mi declaracion, el referido pasaporte estaba a nombre de HANS PETERSEN SILVA. Asimismo en dicho pasaporte figuraba como empleado de CORFO.

b) Debia viajar en el momento que me seria indicado por PEDRO ESPINOZA, o algun otro subalterno, para cruzar con el Teniente Fernandez en el aereopuerto Kennedy de Nueva York.

c) Debia tomar contacto con el grupo cubano con quien habia trabajado y denominado " M.N.C. ",-yo se que PEDRO SARIA quien era ese grupo, pero no me lo dijo-, para solicitar la cooperacion de ellos y que fueran ellos quienes llevarian a cabo la operacion eliminatoria.

d) En lo posible yo debia estar fuera de los Estados Unidos, antes de que sucediera el hecho (lo cual hice documentalmente)

e) Que la muerte fuera en lo posible accidental - aparentemente-.

f) No obstante lo anterior estaba autorizado para usar mi discresion y llevar a cabo la mision de cualquier manera que resultara.

5) Creo que fueron uno o dos dias antes de mi partida el dia ocho de Septiembre, que recibi la documentacion mencionada en el punto cuarto sub letra "A", igual que los fondos, y, procedi a viajar a los Estados Unidos de Norteamerica.

6) Aclaro que mi encuentro con Fernandez en Nueva York y al que me referi en mi declaracion, no fue casual como alli se consigna, sino que estaba ordenado que el Teniente Fernandez hiciera el reconocimiento operacional previo , para actuar en contra de LETELIER.- Estos antecedentes me fueron entregados por Fernandez en forma verbal y escrita :

a) Verbalmente me describio el area en general, los automoviles de Letelier y todo lo que involucra un reconocimiento de inteligencia.

UNCLASSIFIED

b) Por escrito : Un croquis de la ubicacion de la residencia y las marcas, coleres y patentes de los vehiculos utilizados pOr la familia.

7) En este momeno procedi a tomar contacto con los cubanos del M.N.C. quienes se mostraron muy renuentres a aceptar la misi on como originalmente se habia ordenado.

8) Que despu s de varios dias de conversaciones y convencimiento a los referidos cubanos;accedieron a actuar en esta mision con las siguientes salvedades :

a) Que esto se llevara a cabo con un artefacto emplosivo de control remoto.

b) QUE YO PARTICIPARA DIRECTAMENTE EN LOS HECHOS, para involucrar a un miembro de DINA en esta operacion.

9) Previa consulta al que entonces se llamaba " LUCHO GUTIERREZ " sin emplear Codigo - hago presente que LUCHO GUTIERREZ, corresponda al cargo de Jefe del Servicio Exterior -, pero en forma altamente velada, procedi a acaptar las condiciones que me formulaba el MNC.- Lucho Gutierrez no contesto de inmediato y tampoco fue el quien me dio la autorizacion, materialmente sino que simplemente actuo como un vocero.

10) Hubo un alto de dos dias, mientras los cubanos preparaban su operacion independiente, cuyos detalles ignoro.

11) Aproximadamente el dia martes 14 de Septiembre, me traslade con un cubano "Virgilio Paz " en su automovil particular desde Nueva Jersey a Washington. Alli comprobamos la labor realizada - de reconocimiento- por el Teniente Fernandez, lo cual dentro de lo posible fue bastante completo. Acto seguido hicimos nuestro propio estudio de costumbres de LETELIER, y alojamos en un Motel ubicado en el centro de Washington, trasladandonos el dia sabado cuando llego otro cubano de nombre DIONISIO SUAREZ. El mismo sabado que llego DIONISIO SUAREZ a Washington fabrique con la ayuda de VIRGILIO PAZ un artefacto explosivo que coloque yo mismo al automovil de LETELIER, ese mismo sabado 18 en la noche. En la madrugada del domingo 19, parti en vuelo a Newark , Nueva Jersey.

UNCLASSIFIED

12) A partir de este momento, los hechos sguen como lo relate en mi declaracion prestada ante US.

13) De acuerdo a la concepcion inicial de la mision, no estuve presente en Washington cuando se hizo funcionar el artefacto y por lo tanto no se quien lo hizo actuar, pero dejo constancia que no puede haber sido VIRGILIO PAZ porque converse telefonicamente con el dos horas antes de la explosion, encontrandose en su residencia en Nueva Jersey.- Tambien dejo constancia y esto es totalmente cierto, que me dijo que el primer intento de hacer funcionar el artefacto no habia resultado y que habian tenido que retornar al domicilio de LETELIER, remover el artefacto, revisarlo, corregirlo y recolocarlo.

14) A mi regreso a Santiago, me presente al Coronel Espinoza a dar cuenta del resultado y detalles de la mision - no recuerdo si me presente al C.G. o a su casa- . Me felicito,-sin embargo me dio a entender indirectamente que el lugar y metodo empleados, podrian haber sido diferentes y mejores-, con lo cual yo concordaba plenamente, pero que estaban fuera de mi control.

15) Deseo manifestar conclusiones que me han sido entregadas por funcionarios del F.B.I. con lo cual yo concuerdo :

a) Los cubanos hicieron este trabajo para demostrar su capacidad de hacerlo.

b) MANDARON PERSONEROS CUBANOS A LA MISION NAVAL DE CHILE EN WASHINGTON, POCOS DIAS ANTES DEL HECHO PARA COMPROMETER A CHILE EN EL HECHO POSTERIOR.

c) Que el lugar fue elegido a proposito por los cubanos, tambien para comprometer a Chile.

d) El motivo, por los puntos anteriores seria su desagrado por la espulsion de ROLANDO OTERO DE CHILE y la orden de detencion emitida en Chile contra el Doctor Orlando Bosch y, la poca accion de respaldo positivo recibida de Chile.

ACTIVIDADES EN EL AÑO 1978- Recuerdo que a comienzos del mes de Marzo, encontrandome en el Sur, recibi un llamado por radio en el cual se me decia que viera el diario el Mercurio, donde aparecia informacion con respecto al exhorto.

Al dia siguiente volvi a Santiago con mi familia y al subsiguiente recibi una citacion telefonica a una reunion con el Comandante Valdivieso - siendo este mismo el que llame. Esta reunion no se llevo a cabo en primera instancia, sino dos horas despues, en la cual participaron : General MANUEL CONTRERAS SEPULVEDA - aun en servicio activo -, MAY. Palacios, Comandante Valdiviese, en el NICO'S PIZZA como punto de reunion lugar donde subimos a un automovil donde iban los nombrados y que manejaba el May. Palacios.

EL GENERAL CONTRERAS, en el transcurso del recorrido, me dio ordenes de guardar silencio referente a los reales propositos de mi ida a EE. UU. en Septiembre de 1976 y se practico una historia ficticia a ese respecto. La version final de esta historia es mia, siempre siguiendo las instrucciones de mi General Contreras.

Volvimos al punto de partida - NICOS PIZZA-, donde subio el Capitan Fernandez, quien me informo de lo que ya habia declarado a la Direccion del C.N.I., para que pudieran concordar nuestros dos relatos.

Seguidamente comentamos los hechos realizados en USA. y vimos posibles acuerdos que se concretarian en el momento de " LOS QUIUBOS" . A partir de esa fecha me mantuve oculto de acuerdo a lo dispuesto. En el interin tanto me llamo Valdivieso para fundamentar una coartada para el mes de Septiembre de 1976. Rehuse seguir esa orden, mi Sra. contrato un abogado - Manuel Acuna Keirath - quien tambien fue contactado por el Cdte. Iturriaga.

Posteriormente - no recuerdo cuando -, pero si despues que el Capitan Fernandez ya habia declarado al Fiscal Militar, este oficial me dio a conocer su declaracion, para que concordara con la mia en cuanto a "nuestro encuentro en el Aeropuerto Kennedy ".

Tambien quiero dejar constancia de que lo dicho arriba referente a mi persona, correspondia asimismo a otros funcionarios ajenos a la Institucion.

Todo lo anterior, baje promesa de decir verdad y juramento legal en los hechos que no me son propios.

CHILE

Since January 1, the Chilean Government has taken several major steps toward easing the repressive restrictions on personal and political freedom which have been in effect since the September 1973 coup. Some significant problems have yet to be addressed. The measures taken, however, reflect the government's confidence that the internal security situation is now under control. They also reflect Chile's desire to improve its international image and offset the adverse publicity generated by media reports of the Directorate of National Intelligence's (DINA) involvement in the assassination of Orlando Letelier.

Prospects for human rights advancement seemed dim following President Pinochet's January 4 plebiscite victory (75 percent of the voters indicated their support for him.) He quickly asserted that his government would no longer be responsive to international pressure regarding its human rights practices. Foreign and domestic observers speculated that he would interpret the plebiscite as a mandate to keep the political lid on indefinitely. Twelve Christian Democratic Party (PDC) leaders were amost immediately charged with violating the ban on engaging in political activity and banished, without trial, to isolated villages in the barren highlands of Chile's northernmost province. Subsequent events, however, have belied the ominous tone of Pinochet's January remarks and actions.

In late January, some three weeks after the PDC members' rustication, the Santiago Appeals Court ruled that although the government could legally banish dissidents to a given province, the dissidents could choose where they wished to reside within the province. The Court's check on the government's banishment powers under the State of Siege was unprecedented and indicated a new willingness to probe the limits of judicial authority. Although the government probably could have appealed the decision successfully, it acquiesced in the Court's ruling. Government hardliners may have concluded that since the act of rustication was sufficient to convey the government's message that it had limited tolerance for domestic political activity, the future disposition of the PDC members was not significant.

On March 11, the State of Siege, which had been in effect since September 1973, was lifted. Although the government retains a number of extraordinary powers, it can no longer:

--revoke a person's citizenship;

--indefinitely detain a person without charge;

--rusticate dissidents; or

--try dissenters in wartime military courts.

In April the government decreed a sweeping amnesty which freed from prison or internal exile persons convicted by military courts between the 1973 coup and April 19, 1978. It also eliminated the possibility for prosecution of persons who had committed specified crimes during the State of Siege (e.g., drunk driving, killing parents or children, tax evasion, and other economic crimes). The major human rights question raised by the amnesty involved its application to members of the security forces who committed such crimes as murder, torture, illegal arrests, etc.

President Pinochet has also accelerated his timetable for establishing a "protected democracy" and returning the military to the barracks. Under the new timetable, which has already slipped slightly, the drafting of a new constitution is to be completed this year. After being approved by the Junta, the draft will be submitted to a plebiscite.

In July, three members of the ad hoc working group of the UN Human Rights Commission (UNHRC) arrived in Chile, the first nation to permit such a visit. The group's investigation is currently in progress. Thus far, it has received excellent cooperation from the government. The members have been given complete freedom of movement and have been allowed to talk to whomever they desire.

The advances made since the first of the year appear to represent a substantive rather than a cosmetic effort by the Pinochet government. Nevertheless, problems, some more important than others, remain:

--the amnesty, which applies to persons convicted and externally exiled by the military courts, has not resulted in their quasi-automatic readmission;

--the government retains the right to expel persons who it considers are a threat to national security; that right, however, is currently being tested in court;

--several civil courts, noting that the amnesty eliminated criminal accountability on the part of security forces, have closed their investigations into "disappeared persons" cases;

--the Center for National Information (CNI), successor to the Directorate of National Intelligence (DINA), has generally demonstrated restraint, but reportedly 20 percent of its personnel are former DINA members, and it allegedly used brutal methods to destroy a cell of the extremist Movement of the Revolutionary Left (MIR);

--the CNI and other investigatory agencies continue to detain, albeit for short durations, people who are allegedly creating public disturbances or spreading anti-government propaganda (e.g., some 600 persons were picked up during an illegal May Day celebration);

--basic labor rights have not been restored; and

--political parties are still outlawed.

The question of Chile's "disappeareds" falls into two categories:

--those who have gone underground either here or abroad; and --those who have been killed by security forces but who, because they were using aliases, were never properly identified.

The Pinochet government is liberalizing its hold on the nation, and this process seems likely to continue its forward momentum. Further world-wide adverse publicity on the Letelier assissination case is likely, and the Pinochet government will probably move to counter it with additional human rights improvements. The pace of further liberalization may be slowed, however, because Pinochet does not wish to appear to be caving in to international pressure. It seems likely that he will move slowly, carefully assessing the impact of each improvement on internal security. Although each step toward liberalization diminishes the possibility of recidivism, no legal guarantees to prevent backsliding have yet been enacted.

SUBJECT: WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE REPORT, JULY 31-AUG 4

1. SUMMARY: SECURITY ASSISTANCE CONFERENCE IS TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY, AUGUST 10.

DESPITE THE ENORMOUS BATTLES OF THE LAST TWO WEEKS OVER THIS LEGISLATION, WE DO NOT ANTICIPATE TOO MUCH TROUBLE IN CONFERENCE. ON TURKEY (UNDERSCORED), WE WILL SEEK SOME ADJUSTMENTS WHICH SHOULD MAKE THE OUTCOME MORE ACCEPTABLE BOTH TO THE GREEKS AND TURKS. ON RHODESIA (UNDERSCORED), WE WILL TRY TO NUDGE THE CONFEREES IN THE DIRECTION OF THE JAVITS-CASE FORMULA FROM THE SENATE AND BELIEVE THAT THIS CAN BE DONE IN A WAY THAT THE HOUSE WILL FIND SATISFACTORY. IN ADDITION, THERE ARE SOME "CONSTRAINTS" IN THE SENATE BILL WHICH WE WILL TRY TO ELIMINATE. THE CONFEREES WILL BE GENERALLY FAVORABLE TO OUR POSITION ON MAJOR ISSUES, BOTH HOUSES HAVE HAD CATHARTIC FIGHTS ON THESE ISSUES, AND WILL NOT BE ANXIOUS TO GO OVER THE GROUND AGAIN, SO THE PROSPECTS ARE GOOD. FOREIGN ASSISTANCE APPROPRIATION (UNDERSCORED)

HAVING GOTTEN HALFWAY THROUGH THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE APPROPRIATION, THE HOUSE TODAY PUT IT ASIDE UNTIL AT LEAST THE WEEK OF AUGUST 14. THE MOST SERIOUS DAMAGE THUS FAR WAS ELIMINATION OF ALL ASSISTANCE TO SYRIA, AN ITEM WHICH WILL HAVE TO BE DEALT WITH IN THE SENATE AND IN CONFERENCE. THE GOOD NEWS IS THAT WE SUCCEEDED IN BEATING REPRESENTATIVE YOUNG'S AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE BARRED INDIRECT AID THROUGH THE INTERNATIONAL BANKS TO VIETNAM, LAOS, CAMBODIA AND UGANDA. WE WON ON THE YOUNG AMENDMENT 198-203, TURNING AROUND ROUGHLY 90 MEMBERS WHO VOTED THE OTHER WAY LAST YEAR. USING LISTS FROM THE EARLY VOTES, WE SHOULD BE ABLE TO TARGET OUR EFFORTS FOR THE BIG ISSUES TO COME -- LONG'S AMENDMENT TO CUT $600 MILLION FROM THE BANKS AND FURTHER ACROSS-THE-BOARD CUTS. END SUMMARY.

2. RECAP OF HOUSE ACTION ON SECURITY ASSISTANCE BILL

--TURKEY

THE 3-1/2 YEAR-OLD TURKISH ARMS EMBARGO WAS LIFTED TUESDAY BY A CLIFF-HANGER VOTE OF 208 TO 205 ON AN AMENDMENT SPONSORED BY MAJORITY LEADER WRIGHT WHICH WAS SIMILAR TO THE MCGOVERN-BYRD AMENDMENT PASSED BY THE SENATE. THE HOUSE VERSION, HOWEVER, WOULD RAISE THE EMBARGO ONLY UPON A PRESIDENTIAL CERTIFICATION THAT IT IS IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST OF THE US AND NATO TO DO SO AND THAT TURKEY IS ACTING IN GOOD FAITH TO SETTLE THE CYPRUS PROBLEM TO INCLUDE:

--THE EARLY PEACEFUL RETURN OF THE REFUGEES;

--CONTINUED REMOVAL OF TURKISH TROOPS; AND

--EARLY RESUMPTION OF INTERCOMMUNAL TALKS.

PROPONENTS OF THE EMBARGO, SENSING DEFEAT, OFFERED A COMPROMISE SPONSORED BY HIRC CHAIRMAN ZABLOCKI WHICH WOULD HAVE RETAINED THE EMBARGO, BUT PROVIDEED FOR A SUSPENSION FOR ONE YEAR IF:

--THE TURKS WITHDREW FROM FAMAGUSTA;

--THE UN ASSUMED ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY FOR

FAMAGUSTA; AND

--GOOD FAITH NEGOTIATIONS ON CYPRUS COMMENCED.

ANALYSIS OF HOUSE TURKISH EMBARGO VOTE (UNDERSCORED)

THE TURKISH EMBARGO VOTE IN THE HOUSE WAS A VIRTUAL REPLAY OF THE JULY 1975 VOTE SAVE FOR THE HAPPY DIFFERENCE THAT THIS TIME THE ADMINISTRATION CAME OUT ON TOP. BOTH TIMES:

--A MAJORITY OF REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST IMPOSING THE EMBARGO, WHILE A MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS VOTED TO RETAIN IT;

--THERE WAS A DISTINCTLY REGIONAL CHARACTER TO THE VOTE -- THE ADMINISTRATION DID VERY POORLY IN THE NORTHEAST, THE MID-ATLANTIC AND THE BIG CITIES. WE DID VERY WELL IN THE WEST AND SOUTH.
THE DIFFERENCE TUESDAY WAS THAT THE (PRIMARILY REPUBLICAN) SWITCHERS WHO VOTED TO RETAIN THE EMBARGO WERE OFFSET BY A LARGER NUMBER OF DEMOCRATS WHO SWITCHED TO SUPPORT THE ADMINISTRATION BY VOTING FOR THE WRIGHT AMENDMENT.

PARAQUAT (UNDERSCORED)

THE HOUSE ADOPTED BY VOICE VOTE A WOLFF AMENDMENT PROHIBITING THE EXPENDITURE OF FUNDS TO ERADICATE MARIJUANA THROUGH THE USE OF PARAQUAT UNLESS THE PARAQUAT IS USED WITH ANOTHER SUBSTANCE OR AGENT WHICH WILL SIGNAL USERS THAT PARAQUAT HAS BEEN USED ON IT.

AFGHANISTAN (UNDERSCORED)

AN ASHBROOK AMENDMENT TO STRIKE $600,000 IN IMET FOR AFGHANISTAN WAS REJECTED BY VOICE VOTE.

KOREA (UNDERSCORED)

STRATTON OFFERED AN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE REDUCED THE AUTHORIZATION FOR THE KOREAN EQUIPMENT TRANSFER PACKAGE FROM $800 MILLION TO $90 MILLION FOR FY 79 ONLY AND WOULD HAVE LIMITED THE NUMBER OF TROOPS TO BE WITHDRAWN TO 6,000 IN THAT PERIOD. DERWINSKI OFFERED AN ADMINISTRATION-SUPPORTED SUBSTITUTE WHICH WAS IDENTICAL TO THE LANGUAGE ADOPTED BY THE SENATE AND SIMPLY CALLS FOR CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS BEFORE ADDITIONAL TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN. THE DERWINSKI PROPOSAL WAS SUBSTITUTED FOR STRATTON'S BY A

212-189 VOTE AND THE THE SUBSTITUTE LANGUAGE WAS ADOPTED BY A VOTE OF 279-117.

A JACOBS AMENDMENT TO SUSPEND MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA UNTIL FORMER AMBASSADOR KIM DONG JO IS PERMITTED BY THE ROKG TO COME TO THE US TO COOPERATE IN

THE KOREAGATE INVESTIGATION WAS DEFEATED 257-147.

RHODESIA (UNDERSCORED)

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT VOTE ON WEDNESDAY WAS ON RHODESIA, WHERE, WITH STRONG SUPPORT FROM SPEAKER O'NEILL, WE WERE ABLE TO TURN BACK BY 229 TO 176 A FINDLEY AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE LIFTED SANCTIONS IMMEDIATELY. THE AMENDMENT PROVIDED THAT THE PRESIDENT COULD REIMPOSE THE SANCTIONS IF NEGOTIATIONS WERE NOT BEING CONDUCTED IN GOOD FAITH OR IF ELECTIONS WERE NOT SCHEDULED. THE HOUSE THEN PASSED AN ICHORD AMENDMENT BY 229 TO 180 WHICH WOULD REQUIRE REMOVAL OF SANCTIONS BY DECEMBER 31, 1979, UNLESS THE PRESIDENT DETERMINES THAT FREE ELECTIONS HAVE NOT BEEN HELD IN WHICH ALL POLITICAL GROUPS ARE FREE TO PARTICIPATE.

CHILE (UNDERSCORED)

NEWS OF THE INDICTMENTS FOR THE LETELIER ASSASSINATION CAUGHT THE ATTENTION OF THE HOUSE. AN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE SUSPENDED UNCONDITIONALLY ALL PIPELINE MILITARY ASSISTANCE SHIPMENTS TO CHILE WAS DEFEATED 146 TO 120. THEN, FOLLOWING AN ABORTIVE LEADERSHIP ATTEMPT TO END FURTHER DEBATE ON CHILE, THE HOUSE PASSED BY A VOICE VOTE A HARKIN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD SUSPEND PIPELINE SHIPMENTS UNTIL THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT TURNED OVER TO THE US GOVERNMENT FOR TRIAL THE INDICTED ACCUSED SLAYERS OF FORMER CHILEAN AMBASSADOR ORLANDO LETELIER AND MRS. RONNI K. MOFFIT, A US CITIZEN. THIS AMENDMENT WAS LATER OVERTURNED BY A VOTE OF 243 TO 166 JUST PRIOR TO FINAL PASSAGE OF THE BILL. THE FINAL EFFECT IS TO LEAVE THE PIPELINE SHIPMENTS TO CHILE INTACT.

ISRAEL AND USSR (UNDERSCORED)

BY A VOICE VOTE THE HOUSE ADOPTED SENSE OF THE CONGRESS LANGUAGE PROPOSED BY WOLFF SUPPORTING ADDITIONAL AIRCRAFT FOR ISRAEL AND CALLING ON THE PRESIDENT TO REVIEW FULLY US POLICY TOWARD THE USSR IN LIGHT OF SOVIET ACTIONS AROUND THE GLOBE. SIMILAR LANGUAGE HAD BEEN ADOPTED BY

THE SENATE REGARDING THE SOVIET UNION.

3. FOREIGN ASSISTANCE APPROPRIATIONS BILL

HOUSE FLOOR ACTION ON THE FOREIGN ASSITANCE APPROPRIATIONS BILL THURSDAY AND FRIDAY RESULTED IN THE FOLLOWING:

ADOPTED (UNDERSCORED)

--A 2 CUT IN TITLE I EXCEPTING ECONOMIC SUPPORTING ASSISTANCE IN THE MIDDLE EAST BY A VOTE OF 293-52.

--DELETION OF ECONOMIC SUPPORTING ASSISTANCE FOR SYRIA (DERWINSKI) BE A VOTE OF 280 TO 133.

--$10 MILLION ADDITIONAL FUNDS FOR CYPRUS REFUGEES (BUCHANAN/CONTE).

--FUNDS PERMITTING ANGOLAN AND UGANDAN STUDENTS NOW IN US EDUCATION PROGRAMS TO COMPLETE STUDIES (BINGHAM/HADLEY).

--THE DELETION OF A $73.9 MILLION DEFENSE REPRESENTATION FUND ON A POINT OF ORDER BECAUSE IT HAD NOT BEEN AUTHORIZED.

--AGREED TO A 2 FMS CUT BY A VOTE OF 300 TO 29 (HAWKINS). THE BILL PROVIDED FOR AN EARMARKING OF $1 BILLION OF FMS TO ISRAEL AND AN OBEY AMENDMENT TO HARKIN ADDED THE EARMARKING OF $2.5 MILLION TO LEBANON AND $8.5 MILLION FOR TURKEY.

--A YOUNG AMENDMENT PROHIBITING THE USE OF PEACE CORPS FUNDS FOR ABORTIONS BY A VOTE OF 60 TO 8.

REJECTED (UNDERSCORED)

--PROHIBITION ON INDIRECT AID TO VIETNAM, LAOS, CAMBODIA, AND UGANDA (YOUNG) - 198-203.

--PROHIBITION ON INDIRECT AID TO ANGOLA AND MOZAMBIQUE (ASHBROOK) - VOICE.

--CUT $49 MILLION IN ECONOMIC AID TO INDIA (YOUNG) - 194-200.

--REDUCE UNDP TO $116 MILLION FROM $123 MILLION (YOUNG) - 189-202.

--REDUCE MAP TO PHILIPPINES BY $5 MILLION (RYAN) - 142-264.

--DELETE $600,000 FOR AFGHAN MILITARY TRAINING (ASHBROOK)- 152-236.

--REDUCE IMET BY $13.2 MILLION TO $12.45 MILLION (HARKIN)- VOICE.

--PERMIT DIRECT US HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE TO COUNTRIES FOR WHICH DIRECT AID PROHIBITED (HARKIN AND SOLARZ) BY VOTES OF 12-23 AND 19 TO 24.

--STRIKING $96 MILLION FOR AID REPRESENTATION.

4. SECRETARY VANCE APPEARANCE BEFORE SFRC (UNDERSCORED)

SECRETARY VANCE MET WITH THE SFRC TUESDAY MORNING TO DISCUSS DEVELOPMENTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND ON SALT. ON THE MIDDLE EAST HE EXPLAINED THE AREAS OF APPARENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN ISRAEL AND EGYPT AND NOTED OUR DISAPPOINTMENT WITH SADAT'S SUNDAY STATEMENT.

5. SENATE VERSION OF WITTEVEEN FACILITY BILL

BY A LARGE MARGIN, THE SENATE PASSED THE WITTEVEEN FACILITY BILL, BUT ONLY AFTER ATTACHING SIX TROUELESOME AMENDMENTS. THESE ARE:

--A REQUIREMENT FOR FULL APPROPRIATION OF THE $1.7 BILLION US SHARE;

--A REQUIREMENT THAT THE US EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OPPOSE ANY LOANS FROM THE FACILITY TO CAMBODIA OR UGANDA;

--A REQUIREMENT THAT THE US EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OPPOSE LOANS FROM THE FACILITY TO NATIONS PROVIDING AID OR ASSISTANCE TO TERRORISTS;

--A REQUIREMENT THAT TREASURY/STATE SUBMIT AN ANNUAL REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS (DEFINED AS IN FOREIGN ASSISTANCE ACT) IN EACH COUNTRY WHICH DRAWS FROM THE FACILITY;

--A TOTAL US TRADE EMBARGO AGAINST UGANDA; AND

--A MANDATE FOR A BALANCED US BUDGET BEGINNING IN FY 1981.

THE SENATE REJECTED SEVERAL OTHER AMENTMENTS INCLUDING THE ABOUREZK HUMAN RIGHTS AMENDMENT (ALMOST IDENTICAL TO THE

OPTIONAL FORM 151
(Formerly FS-412

HARKIN AMENDMENT OT THE HOUSE VERSION), ONE WHICH WOULD HAVE PREVENTED THE US CONTRIBUTION FROM TAKING PLACE UNTIL IMF SALARIES WERE WITHIN 5 OF US CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES, AND ONE WHICH WOULD HAVE LIMITED US PARTICIPATION TO FIVE YEARS. THE HOUSE/SENATE CONFERENCE ON THE BILL WILL MEET MONDAY.

THE HOUSE VERSION INCLUDES ONLY TWO MAJOR AMENDMENTS: (1)

THE HARKIN HUMAN RIGHTS AMENDMENT; AND (2) AN AMENDMENT CALLING FOR APPROPRIATION OF SOME OR ALL OF THE US CONTRIBUTION.

6. AGRICULTURAL EXPORTS (UNDERSCORED)

THE HOUSE COMMITTEES ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND AGRICULTURE HAVE ACTED ON VARIOUS LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS TO PROMOTE THE EXPORT OF US AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS. THE BILLS WOULD AUTHORIZE THE PRESIDENT TO EXTEND INTERMEDIATE CREDITS OF THE CCC UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS, LIBERALIZE CCC CREDITS TO COMMUNIST COUNTRIES, AND UPGRADE AGRICULTURE ATTACHES OVERSEAS. SIMILAR LEGISLATION IS SCHEDULTED TO BE MARKED UP IN THE SENATE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE NEXT WEEK. WE ARE WORKING WITH THE USDA AND OTHERS TO LIMIT THE INTERMEDIATE CREDITS TO FINANCING OF BREEDING STOCK AND BUILDING OF WHEAT RESERVES BY LDC'S IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENTS. WE ARE FEARFUL THAT MORE EXPANSIVE PROPOSALS FAVORED IN THE CONGRESS WOULD TRIGGER A CREDIT WAR. ALSO, WE TAKE THE POSITION THAT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW AGRICULTURAL TRADE OFFICES OVERSEAS IS UNNECESSARY. AS TO THE REFORM OF JACKSON/VANIK, WE DO NOT SUPPORT CHANGES AT THIS TIME.

7. STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZATION LEGISLATION CONFERENCE

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY HOUSE/SENATE CONFEREES CONSIDERED THE FIRST 40 (OUT OF 75) ITEMS OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZATION BILL. CONFEREES WILL MEET AGAIN TO COMPLETE ACTION ON THE FISCAL YEAR 1979 AUTHORIZATION BILL MONDAY, AUGUST 7. THE FOLLOWING ARE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CONFERENCE.

--THIRD AGENCY RULE -- THE SENATE RECEDED FROM ITS AMENDMENT ABOLISHING THE SO-CALLED THIRD AGENCY RULE ALLOWING A COMPROMISE WITH THE DEPARTMENT WHICH WILL BE INCLUDED IN THE STATEMENT OF MANAGERS.

--PALESTINIAN RIGHTS UNIT -- THE SENATE RECEDED FORM ITS

AMENDMENT PROHIBITING FUNDING FO THIS UNIT FROM THE PORTION OF OUR U.S. ASSESSED CONTRIBUTION TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND ADOPTED THE MORE ACCEPTABLE HOUSE LANGUAGE.

--ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR NARCOTICS -- THE SENATE RECEDED TO THE HOUSE LANGUAGE ESTABLISHING AN ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR NARCOTICS.

--THE USE OF FOREIGN AIR CARRIERS -- THE HOUSE RECEDED TO THE SENATE AMENDMENT AUTHORIZING U.S. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES TO USE FOREIGN AIR CARRIERS FOR PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION

BETWEEN POINTS OUTSIDE THE U.S. THE HOUSE, HOWEVER, WILL BE DRAFTING AN AMENDMENT WHICH WILL SPELL OUT UNDER WHICH REASONABLE CIRCUMSTANCES THIS LANGUAGE CAN BE UTILIZED BY THE DEPARTMENT.

--ICA NAME CHANGE -- THE SENATE RECEDED ON ITS AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE CHANGED THE NAME OF ICA TO THE UNITED STATES AGENCY FOR INFORMATION AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE (AFTER SIGNIFICANT DEBATE AND TURMOIL BETWEEN CONFEREES).

--SPECIAL COMPUTATION OF ANNUITIES -- THE SENATE RECEDED TO THE HOUSE AMENDMENT WHICH AUTHORIZES THE SO-CALLED QUOTE ONE YEAR HIGH UNQUOTE. CONGRESSMAN FASCELL INSISTED THAT THE QUOTE HIGH ONE UNQUOTE PROVISION REMAIN IN THE FY 1979 LEGISLATION.

--OVERTIME -- THE SENATE RECEDED TO THE HOUSE PROVISION WHICH PERMITS THE SECRETARY TO PAY COMPENSATION FOR EXTRA DUTY REQUIRED OF FSO'S. SENATOR PELL AGREED TO THIS AMENDMENT IN THE LAW EXCLUDING THE $250 PAY INCREASE. A STATEMENT OF MANAGERS WILL PROBABLY EXCLUDE FROM THIS SPECIAL ALLOWANCE THOSE OFFICERS WHO WORK FOR PRINCIPALS IN THE DEPARTMENT. THERE IS ALSO THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE STATEMENT OF MANAGERS WILL ALSO EXCLUDE FROM THIS SPECIAL ALLOWANCE PROVISION OFFICERS OF THE RANKS OF 01 THROUGH 03. CHRISTOPHER

Dear Mrs. Mondale:

I am writing to ask for your support and help in obtaining the fair trial or release from prison of Miguel Angel Estrella.

Miguel Angel Estrella is an Argentinian pianist who, in December 1977, was abducted by the police in Montevideo, Uruguay where he was living with his two children. He has been kept in prison ever since. Miguel Angel Estrella is an extraordinary pianist and an exceptional human being who, without criminal charges, is being unjustly kept in prison.

A very strong movement was organized in Europe to obtain his freedom and up to this day more than 11,000 signatures have been sent to the President of Uruguay on his behalf. I have been asked by the French committee to make this information available to people in the United States. Knowing your concern for the arts and artists, your support would be very valuable.

I am sending you some information on this pianist and a translation of an interview which took place in Mexico a few days before he was arrested in Uruguay.

I plead that you read this information since I feel that by doing this you will have a very accurate perception of his unusual personality. Please let me know if you need additional information.

I would greatly appreciate any consideration that you may give to this request,

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATION CASE: MISCELLANEOUS

1. THE AMBASSADOR RETURNED TO SANTIAGO AUGUST 25, FOLLOWING A WEEK'S CONSULTATION IN WASHINGTON. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE LOCAL MEDIA WERE OUT IN FORCE WITH THE PREDICTABLE QUESTIONS RELATING TO THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE: THE AMBASSADOR DID NOT BRING THE EXTRADITION REQUESTS; HE DOES NOT KNOW WHO LILIANA WALKER IS; THE LETELIER CASE IS A LEGAL MATTER; ETC.

2. AFTER FOUR DAYS IN THE MILITARY HOSPITAL FOR A REPORTED KIDNEY AILMENT, MANUEL CONTRERAS RETURNED HOME AT THE END OF LAST WEEK. CAPTAIN ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS HAS NAMED CARLOS OYANEDEL AS HIS LAWYER. WE HAVE NO BIOGRAPHIC DATA ON OVANEDEL. THE PRESS REPORTS HIM AS DENYING THAT THE FACT HE REPRESENTS ONE DEFENDANT WHILE SERGIO MIRANDA CARRINGTON REPRESENTS THE OTHER TWO (CONTRERRAS AND ESPINOZA) MEANS THERE IS ANY DIVERGENCE AMONG THE THREE REGARDING THEIR DEFENSE. FERNANDEZ AND ESPINOZA REMAIN IN THE SANTIAGO MILITARY HOSPITAL-- FOR REASONS OF CONVENIENCE NOT ILL HEALTH.

1. THE SANTIAGO PRESS REPORTS THAT MANUEL CONTRERAS RETURNED TO THE MILITARY HOSPITAL AUGUST 27 TO CONTINUE MEDICAL TESTS. HE HAD EARLIER BEEN IN THE HOSPITAL AUGUST 20/23. WHILE THE REPEATED PRESENCE OF CONTRERAS IN THE HOSPITAL WHERE ARMANDO FERNANDEZ AND PEDRO ESPINOZA ARE SERVING THEIR PROVISIONAL DETENTIONS RAISES SUSPICION, HE APPARENTLY DOES HAVE A KIDNEY PROBLEM.

2. SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT ISRAEL BORQUEZ IS ON A 20-DAY MEDICAL LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM HIS JOB. THE LEAVE BEGAN AUGUST 21 AND WILL RUN TO APPROXIMATELY SEPTEMBER 13. THE PRESS DESCRIBES HIS PROBLEM AS A SPINAL HERNIA. "EL MERCURIO" SAYS THAT IF BORQUEZ HAS NOT RETURNED TO HIS OFFICE BY THE TIME THE LETELIER CASE EXTRADITION REQUESTS ARRIVE THEY WILL INITIALLY BE HANDLED BY THE ACTING PRESIDENT OF THE COURT, JOSE MARIE EYZAGUIRRE, BUT THAT BORQUEZ WOULD ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY UPON HIS RETURN.

SUBJECT: CHILEAN DISAPPEARANCE PROBLEM FESTERS

REF: A) SANTIAGO 5102, B) SANTIAGO 6275

1. SUMMARY: POLICE BRIEFLY DETAINED 50-60 RELATIVES OF MISSING CHILEANS WHO HAD ATTEMPTED TO HOLD A PUBLIC PROTEST IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO AUGUST 30. THE DEMONSTRATORS OBJECT TO A GOC DECREE, REPORTEDLY IN ITS LAST STAGES OF PREPARATION, WHICH WOULD FACILITATE A LEGAL FINDING OF PRESUMED DEATH FOR MOST OF THE DISAPPEARED. MEANWHILE CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONTINUE TO SUBMIT TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR LISTS OF THOSE WHO DISAPPEARED FROM THEIR DISTRICTS SINCE THE 1973 COUP. SO FAR SOME 269 OF THE TOTAL 615 CASES HAVE BEEN TRANSMITTED TO THE GOC AND THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT EVEN ACKNOWLEDGED THEIR RECEIPT, ALTHOUGH IT HAS TOLD 25 OF THE RELATIVES PRIVATELY THAT THE DETAINED ARE PROBABLY NO LONGER ALIVE. THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY IS URGING THE CHURCH TO ISSUE A STRONG PUBLIC STATEMENT OBJECTING TO THE GOC'S CAVALIER TREATMENT. IN THE COURTS, A CIVILIAN JUDGE HAS TURNED OVER TO MILITARY JUSTICE THE ACCUSATION FILED BY THE RELATIVES OF THE DISAPPEARED THAT EX-DINA CHIEF MANUEL CONTRERAS WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ABDUCTION AND DEATH OF SOME 69 MISSING PERSONS BUT THE RELATIVES ARE [redacted]

2. DECREE LAW REGARDING PRESUMED DEATHS: IN RECENT DAYS THE PRESS HAS REPORTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS IN THE LAST STAGES OF PREPARING A DECREE LAW REGARDING A LEGAL DETERMINATION OF PRESUMED DEATH DURING THE STATE OF SIEGE, IN EXISTENCE BETWEEN THE 1973 COUP AND MARCH 10, 1978. THE PURPOSE OF THE LAW WOULD BE TO FACILITATE A JUDICIAL FINDING OF PRESUMED DEATH IN THE VAST MAJORITY OF CASES OF "DISAPPEARED" CHILEANS. WHILE IN SOME CASES RELATIVES HAVE EXPERIENCED REAL HARDSHIPS BECAUSE OF PROBLEMS IN-

UNCLASSIFIED

VOLVING THE ESTATE OF THE MISSING PERSON, A MAJOR AIM OF THE LEGISLATION IS OBVIOUSLY TO HELP RESOLVE THE DISAPPEARED PROBLEM. ONCE A RELATIVE HAS ACCEPTED A FINDING OF PRESUMED DEATH THE INCENTIVE OF A CRIMINAL COURT TO PURSUE THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF HIS DISAPPEARANCE IS GREATLY REDUCED.

3. RELATIVES PROTEST: ON AUGUST 30 A GROUP OF APPROXIMATELY 100 RELATIVES OF THE DISAPPEARED PARTICIPATED IN AN UNAUTHORIZED PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION OBJECTING TO THE PROPOSED DECREE. THE DEMONSTRATORS CARRIED PLACARDS AND GATHERED IN FRONT OF THE MONEDA IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO. CARABINEROS QUICKLY BROKE UP THE DEMONSTRATION AND CARTED OFF SOME 50 TO 60 PROTESTERS. THE RELATIVES' ORGANIZATION IMMEDIATELY COMPLAINED IN A PRESS RELEASE THAT THE POLICE ROUGHLY BROKE UP THE MEETING. BUT ALL THOSE DETAINED WERE SHORTLY RELEASED.

4. CHURCH LISTS OF MISSING TO MINISTRY OF INTERIOR: AS REPORTED REF (A), IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE JUNE HUNGER STRIKE THE GOVERNMENT OFFERED TO EXPLORE ANY SERIOUS LEADS WITH RESPECT TO MISSING PERSONS. THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, RELYING ON DOCUMENTS HELD BY THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY, BEGAN TO SUBMIT LISTS OF INDIVIDUAL CASES TO THE MINISTRY. VARIOUS BISHOPS HAVE GIVEN THE GOVERNMENT LISTS OF PERSONS WHO DISAPPEARED WHILE IN THEIR ARCHDIOCESE. SO FAR SOME 269 CASES HAVE BEEN HANDED TO THE GOVERNMENT TOGETHER WITH SUBSTANTIATING DOCUMENTATION. ACCORDING TO A VICARIATE STAFFER (PROTECT) THE VICARIATE PLANS TO CONTINUE THIS PROCESS UNTIL ALL 615 DOCUMENTED CASES HAVE BEEN TURNED OVER TO THE GOVERNMENT. FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE THEY HAVE PREPARED LISTS FROM ARCHDIOCESES OF THE MORE CONSERVATIVE BISHOPS WHO PRESUMABLY WILL BE SUBMITTING THEM TO THE GOVERNMENT IN THE NEAR FUTURE. 5. CONTRERAS CASE: AS REPORTED REF (B) AND PREVIOUS, A GROUP OF TEN HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE RELATIVES OF DISAPPEARED ORGANIZATION HAVE ACCUSED EX-DINA CHIEF CONTRERAS OF KIDNAPPING 69 INDIVIDUALS. A SEPARATE CASE SUBMITTED BY LAWYERS ON BEHALF OF CARLOS LORCA HAS BEEN ADDED TO THE MAJOR ACCUSATIONS. A CIVIL COURT JUDGE, AFTER A CURSORY REVIEW OF THE ACCUSATION, TRANSMITTED THE CASE TO THE MILITARY BECAUSE OF THE ALLEGED INVOLVEMENT OF AN EX-MILITARY OFFICER (CONTRERAS). GENERAL MOREL ACCEPTED JURISDICTION AND PRESUMABLY A MILITARY COURT CASE HAS BEEN INITIATED. MEANWHILE, HOWEVER, LAWYERS FOR THE DISAPPEARED HAVE FILED AN APPEAL IN THE CIVILIAN COURTS ASSERTING THAT THE FIRST INSTANCE JUDGE DID NOT FOLLOW DUE PROCESS IN HER HANDLING OF THE ACCUSATION. CLEARLY THEY WOULD PREFER TO KEEP THE CASE BEFORE THE CIVIL COURTS. (COMMENT: BUT WE THINK CHANCES OF SUCCESS ARE SMALL).

6. COMMENT: THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY TOLD US AGAIN (AS THEY HAVE IN THE PAST ON FREQUENT OCCASIONS) THAT THE RELATIVES' ORGANIZATION OPERATES SEMI-AUTONOMOUSLY. IN THE CASE OF THE ACCUSATION AGAINST CONTRERAS THE VICARIATE ALLEGEDLY URGED THE RELATIVES NOT TO PURSUE THEIR CLAIM BECAUSE IT MIGHT IMPINGE ON THE LETELIER CASE. AT THIS TIME, HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO A VICARIATE STAFFER, THE VICARIATE BELIEVES THAT THE DECISION OF THE RELATIVES ONLY COMPLICATES THE GOC'S PROBLEMS REGARDING THEIR HANDLING OF GENERAL CONTRERAS AND ON BALANCE HAS NOT DAMAGED THE LETELIER PROCEEDING.

7. ON VARIOUS OCCASIONS THE ICRC HAS SUGGESTED TO US THAT ONE POSSIBLE REMEDIAL MEASURE THE GOC MIGHT TAKE TO CONSOLE THE RELATIVES OF THE DISAPPEARED IS TO INFORM THEM PRIVATELY THAT INDIVIDUAL MISSING PERSONS MAY BE PRESUMED DEAD. IT APPEARS THAT THE GOC HAS DECIDED TO TEST THIS APPROACH WITH A LIMITED NUMBER OF CASES.

1. SUMMARY: PRESS REACTION TO THE PUBLICATION IN SANTIAGO OF AFL-CIO PRESIDENT GEORGE MEANY'S AUGUST 10 LETTER TO PRESIDENT CARTER THREATENING A BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN PRODUCTS WAS LIGHT BUT UNIVERSALLY CRITICAL. THE PRESS ESPECIALLY ATTACKED MEANY'S STATEMENT THAT IN THE ABSENCE OF A SATISFACTORY CHILEAN RESPONSE BY NOVEMBER 26, THE AFL-CIO WOULD COOPERATE FULLY WITH ORIT-AFFILIATED LATAM UNIONS IN MOUNTING "EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL ACTION AGAINST THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT'S CONTINUED REPRESSION OF ITS WORKERS". ALL MEDIA COMMENTED THAT THE CHILEAN WORKER WAS CAPABLE OF RESOLVING HIS OWN PROBLEMS WITHOUT OUTSIDE INTERFERENCE. AUTHENTIC TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS HAVE BEEN PUBLICLY SILENT BUT PRIVATELY JUBILANT THAT, FINALLY, THE AFL-CIO HAS BACKED CHILEAN WORKERS SO CATEGORICALLY. END SUMMARY.

2. "EL MERCURIO'S"AUGUST 27 EDITORIAL WAS SHORT AND CALM. IT DESCRIBED THE AFL-CIO AS A "SUPER-GOVERNMENT" WHICH ATTEMPTS TO [redacted]

INTERVENE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES BUT DOES NOT PLAY BY THE RULES GOVERNING THE ACTIONS OF STATES. "LA TERCERA'S"AUGUST 28 EDITORIAL WAS MORE CAUSTIC. IT ASSERTED THAT THE AFL-CIO USED A DOUBLE STANDARD SINCE IT HAD NOT VOCIFEROUSLY DEFENDED CHILEAN TRADE UNIONS DURING THE ALLENDE YEARS. "TERCERA"SUGGESTED THAT THE REAL REASON FOR THE LETTER WAS TO OVERTHROW THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT.

3. THE PRESS ALSO PUBLISHED A STATEMENT BY GUILLERMO MEDINA, THE GOC LABOR REPRESENTATIVE ON THE COUNCIL OF STATE, CONDEMNING THE LETTER AS INTERFERENCE, AND REMARKS BY INTERIOR MINISTER

SERGIO FERNANDEZ IN THE SAME VEIN. THE GOC-CONTROLLED LABOR FRONT OF CHILE STATED THAT AFL-CIO VICE PRESIDENTS, SOL CHAIKIN AND TEDDY GLEASON, WERE SERIOUSLY MISINFORMED DURING THEIR MAY 21-23 VISIT TO CHILE. THE STATEMENT CONDEMNED THE AFL-CIO ATTITUDE AS INTERFERENCE AND WARNED THAT CHILEANS WOULD DEFEND THEIR COUNTRY AGAINST FOREIGN INTERVENTION.

4. COMMENT: MEDINA'S STATEMEN WAS THE ONLY PUBLISHED REACTION BY AUTHENTIC LABOR LEADERS OR ORGANIZATIONS. PRIVATELY, HOWEVER, DEMOCRATIC CHILEAN TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS ARE PLEASED WITH THE LETTER AS IT INDICATES THAT THE AFL-CIO IS FINALLY TAKING A STAND ON TRADE UNION RIGHTS IN CHILE. DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS BELIEVE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WILL ANNOUNCE A SERIES OF REFORMS AS A RESULT OF THE LETTER. THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT, THEY SAY, CANNOT AFFORT TO TAKE THE CHANCE THAT AFL-CIO PARTICIPATION INN A POSSIBLE BOYCOTT TO ACHIEVE LIMITED GOALS WILL SNOWBALL INTO A WORLDWIDE UNLIMITED BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN PRODUCTS AND TRANSPORTATION. RADØ5

EVOLUTION OF US HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY IN ARGENTINA

Serious strains in Argentine-US relations are the result of a fundamental clash between the Carter administration's human rights policy and the Videla government's perception of Argentine national security interests. Because neither country considers its basic policy objectives negotiable, seemingly intractable problems have arisen in bilateral relations.

The record of US-Argentine relations over the past six, twelve, or even thirty months has not been characterized by lost opportunities on one side or the other. Given the parameters set by US human rights policy and Argentine security policy, there has been no solution. There has been no way--short of a fundamental policy shift by one side or the other--to avoid the current nadir in bilateral relations. The extended diplomatic maneuvering since March 1976 has taken place at the expendable margins as perceived by policymakers on both side. Limited concessions in the interest of improved relations have been made by both sides, but Washington and Buenos Aires have been unwilling or unable to concede on crucial matters that would indicate a basic policy reorientation. At those points in the diplomatic process when this fact confronts one or both sides, the frustrations become apparent, tensions increase, and, in the Argentine case, nationalistic bravado intensifies.

UNCLASSIFIED

Argentina is a textbook example of why a human rights policy must be a long-term proposition. We are not able to force the Argentines into human rights compliance. Improvements, if and when they occur, will be the result of changed perceptions among Argentine leaders concerning their own national interests and security needs. Continued strong US human rights pressure will undoubtedly have some effect on Argentine decisionmaking, but the impact will be cumulative and impossible to quantify.

The Argentine Position. Human rights, terrorism, and national security are inextricably bound in the minds of Argentine leaders. Their perception is based on the nation's devastating experience with political violence over the past eight years. The facts need not be recounted here. Suffice it to say that part of the legacy of those years has been an armed forces' determination to annihilate leftist terrorism and prevent its future recrudescence. It is basic national security doctrine in the Argentine military. Counterterrorism is war. Tactics are dictated by expediency rather than respect for human rights or law. Every US representative who has dealt with the Argentines over the past thirty months in familiar with their litany concerning the demands of a "dirty war". For the most part, that litany is not rhetoric designed to legitimize the murder of government opponents. It reflects the Argentine perception of events.

Counterterrorism was accorded top priority by the armed forces from the day they assumed power in March 1976. There can be no question that government leaders knew, or soon became aware, that officially-sanctioned counterterrorist tactics would raise a serious problem in relations with the US. Top military officers were warned both before and after the March coup that a consistent pattern of gross human rights violations would force a negative US response.

It can be argued that until the advent of the Carter administration, the Argentines remained dubious about the sincerity of US human rights demarches. Many in the government may have believed that:

--US protests were largely perfunctory, a temporary outburst of moral fervor reflecting pressure from a few misguided human rights zealots in the Congress and non-governmental organizations; and

--Argentina would be protected for the duration of its "dirty war" by friends in the US executive and Congress and/or the Pentagon.

With Carter's inauguration, however, and the subsequent February 1977 announcement of an intended cut in US military aid, the Argentine leadership could no longer have harbored any illusions about the bilateral consequences of its human rights practices. At that point, if not earlier, the conscious decision was made to sacrifice temporarily close relations with the US if that was the price for continuing the counterterrorist war and its attendant abuses.

The often analyzed hardline-moderate split within the Argentine military is of crucial human rights importance over the long term, but it is largely irrelevant in immediate terms. While the two vaguely-defined camps disagree on the treatment of a wide spectrum of non-violent government opponents and on questions vital to the eventual relationship between freedom and authority in post-military Argentina, there is nearly consensual agreement on the need to physically eliminate known and suspected terrorists. There is no evidence to suggest a hardline-moderate split when it comes to dealing with subversives "with blood on their hands." The few hundred believed still resident in Argentina will probably receive the same treatment that apparently has been standard since March 1976, i.e., clandestine seizure, torture during interrogation, and summary execution. Human rights improvements engineered by the Videla-Viola moderates, therefore, will continue to take place against a backdrop of consistent and gross violations suffered by at least one element in Argentine society.

While hard-core terrorists still reside in Argentina, therefore, the dilemma in terms of bilateral relations is clear.

--on the US side, policy and legislative constraints will make it difficult to respond to and encourage human rights improvements when consistent and gross violations apparently continue;

--on the Argentine side, it will be difficult for Videla and like-minded officers to encourage human rights compliance in the name of better relations when US rewards are bound to be minimal and the moderates will consequently be exposing themselves to charges of "vende patria."

The Argentine Approach. The Argentine strategy for relations with the US has been based on the following assumptions:

--good relations with the US are desirable;

--the current embitterment over human rights will be temporary, ending either with the disappearance of terrorists and a general halt to abuses in Argentina, or a change in US policy; and

--Argentina can survive US hostility because of access to alternate suppliers of military aid and economic and financial opportunities.

Tactically, the Argentine approach has involved:

--pleas for patience and understanding by the US that constitute a tacit admission that what is now occurring places Argentina beyond the US human rights pale;

--specific human rights concessions in areas not considered security sensitive, i.e., publication of prisoner lists, action in special interests cases; ICRC prision inspections.

--attempts to isolate human rights from other facets of bilateral relations in an effort to minimize damage and maintain a dialogue; continued talks on nuclear cooperation and the upcoming economic discussions are illustrative;

--active review and exploitation of alternative sources of military equipment and training, markets, and sources of financing; and

--restrained responses to US sanctions and perceived injustices. Sharp outbursts of nationalistic bravado aimed at the US have not been characteristic of the Videla government. They have usually occurred only in private diplomatic exchanges or in response to a public US comment or action that the Argentines felt compelled to answer. Such was the case in August with the flurry of Argentine comment occassioned by Assistant Secretary Derian's comments and the Export-Import Bank decision. Even then, however, government officials did not attempt to incite the kind of anti-US clamor of which Argentines are capable.

Difficulties in Formulating US Strategy

The Nuclear Angle. The US human rights approach to Argentina has always been tempered by Argentina's potential as a nuclear proliferator. The country does not present the kind of national security difficulties inherent in dealing with Iran or South Korea. Even within the Latin American area, US interests in Argentina are less significant than those in Brazil or perhaps Mexico. Nonetheless, Argentina's nuclear status and capabilities have forced the US to examine carefully the possibility that human rights initiatives might be detrimental to continued US influence in the nuclear area.

The Argentines undoubtedly appreciate the bargaining power of their nuclear chip. During the Carter-Videla meeting in September 1977 and Secretary Vance's visit to Buenos Aires two months later, nuclear affairs and Argentine ratification of the Treaty of Tlatelolco were major items on the agenda. To date, the Argentines have made no serious effort to orchestrate a human rights-nuclear trade. Rather, they have assumed a forthcoming posture on Tlatelolco because nuclear cooperation serves their own needs (heavy water technology), and, to a lesser degree, because of a desire to impart a generally cooperative tone during direct dealings with President Carter and Secretary Vance. The fact remains, however, that repeated Argentine promises to deposit their instrument of ratification remain unfulfilled. Action on Tlatelolco is still, therefore, a possible source of leverage that the Argentines may attempt to inject directly into human rights discussions.

Limited Leverage. US policymaking has been further complicated by the lack of economic or military clout in Argentina sufficient to force changes in Argentine policy priorities. Put simply, the US is trying almost single-handedly to encourage a basic policy reorientation on a sensitive matter in a country where its leverage is limited and competing policy objectives (nuclear) might be endangered.

Argentine military officers would prefer to purchase US training and equipment, but they are willing to buy elsewhere and have had offers sufficient to cover their needs. Economically, Argentina is relatively free of dependence upon sources of funding and investment susceptible to official US control. Negative IFI votes are a political embarrassment to Argentina, but such votes do not block access to critical financing. The Videla government's economic success in the external sector has ensured the availability of financial opportunities from a variety of foreign sources.

Argentina's access to non-US economic and military suppliers emphasizes our continuing inability to multilateralize our human rights efforts in Argentina in any significant way. The West Europeans, Israelis, and Soviets are all willing to fill military equipment orders, and Economy Minister Martinez de Hoz has encountered little difficulty in his foreign economic dealings. Even President Perez of Venezuela, the most outspoken Latin supporter of the Carter administration's human rights efforts has advised US representatives to be cautious about pressuring the Videla government. Perez treated Videla to a state visit while condemning the human rights records of the Chilean, Nicaraguan and Paraguayan governments.

Negotiations Generated Misunderstandings

Marginal Concessions. With neither the US nor Argentina willing to change the policies that have strained relations, negotiations have tended to center on the exchange of minor concessions that leave the basic positions of both sides in tact. The US has tried to encourage human rights compliance through strong diplomatic approaches on the general theme, tacit support for Videla and the military moderates, suggestions as to specific, limited actions that the Argentines might implement to improve relations, and the use of IFI votes, Export-Import Bank financing and munitions export licenses as carrots in a calibrated effort to reward improvements. The Argentines have attempted to appear responsive through such actions as publishing lists of state-of-siege detainees, implementing the right-of-option program; and releasing or legally processing the cases of individual in which the US has expressed special interest.

From the US perspective, the extended human rights dialogue has:

--helped protect the rights of individual in a few specific cases, generally encouraged domestic human rights advocacy, and perhaps had a generally positive, although unmeasurable, impact on the Argentine government's overall human rights performance;

--maintained open lines of communication during a difficult period in bilateral relations; and

--helped buttress the military moderates who offer the best long-term prospects for Argentina.

On the negative side, the process of exchanging minor concessions has encouraged what has been termed a "flesh-for guns" mentality on the part of the Argentines. Self-interest and a dose of cynicism play a large part in the formulation of the Argentine perception. Nonetheless, US pressure in special interest cases and suggestions for specific and limited actions like the publication of prisoner lists and information on "the disappeareds" has bred the notion among some Argentine leaders that such measures are viewed by the US as ends in and of themselves rather than as steps designed to create momentum toward the goal of general human rights compliance. The US approach, therefore, may have tended to create the illusion that progress toward normal bilateral relations is possible without a fundamental shift in Argentina's human rights practices.

When it becomes apparent that the cause of noralization has not been significantly advanced by what are essentially comestic actions, Argentine frustrations mount and they protest that there is nothing they can do that will satisfy the US. A common Argentine complaint, in fact, has been that the US responds to improvements by simply demanding more, upping the ante each time. The logical conclusion of this trend of thought among Argentines is that there is nothing that Argentina can do because what the US really wants is the replacement of Argentina's military government by a civilian democracy.

At this point, the view that the US is using human rights as a ploy to bring down the Videla government is essentially a product of Argentine frustration. It smacks of the kind of defensive posturing into which they have been forced by the continuation of human rights abuses. Should it gain sufficient currency to become a basis for Argentine policy formulation, it would present a serious inhibition to the success of US human rights efforts. That point does not appear to have been reached, however.

The point to be emphasized here is that frustration, tensions, and suspicions about ultimate US intentions are the logical consequence of the current Argentine-US human rights negotiations. Brief interludes of cooperation and improvement in the overall atmosphere of relations will sooner or later give way to new tensions as it becomes apparent that only a basic reorientation of policy by one side or the other will permit a genuine normalization of relations.

Impact in the US. While the carrot and stick approach has yielded little in the form of tangible human rights gains in Argentina, it has exposed the State Department and the Carter administration to domestic criticism for doing both too much and too little.

--Some critics, mainly in business and conservative political circles, claim that economic and military sanctions have cost the US markets and jobs and alienated a traditional US ally while serving no apparent human rights purpose.

--Domestic human rights activists, on the other hand, insist that more US pressure should be applied. They tend to view carrots as attempts by the State Department to appease a client state on the basis of cosmetic or spurious human rights improvements.

An IAHRC Visit. The current US emphasis on the importance of an on-site inspection by the Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC) falls within the pattern of bilateral dealings established over the past thirty months. Ideally, from the US point of view, Argentine acceptance of an inspection visit would be the first step in a consistent if gradually implemented Argentine campaign to restore the rule of law and respect for human rights. It is more likely, however, that most Argentine policymakers view an IAHRC visit as another concession to the US made attractive by specific short-term benefits and the possibly beneficial impact that acceptance of an international inspection might have on the country's sagging international image.

The direct involvement of top level policymakers on both sides, and the fact that Argentina's willingness to cooperate with the IAHRC would represent a dramatic departure from its established attitude toward the Commission lend seemingly extraordinary importance to an on-site inspection. And over the mid-term, an IAHRC visit might prove to be something of a turning point if it means that:

--Videla and the moderates are sufficiently in control of the armed forces to make and enforce the tough decisions necessary to halt human rights abuses;

--pressure for improvements will be effectively multilaterlized by engaging the prestige and authority of the IAHRC; and

--the apparent Southern Cone (Argentina, Bolivia, Paraguay, and Uruguay) agreement to bar entry to the IAHRC is fatally undermined.

In immediate terms, however, an IAHRC visit is not likely to alter substantially the existing pattern in bilateral relations. The Argentines will have made what they will consider a major concession, but closer bilateral relations will still be inhibited by US policy and legislative constraints. It is conceivable that a commission visit could produce new bilateral tensions. An IAHRC report will almost certainly be highly negative, and its accuracy, if not the Commission itself, will then be challenged by the Argentines. If such a report is subsequently used by the US Congress or executive branch to justify new sanctions or public criticism, Videla will find it extremely difficult to respond to future US human rights suggestions.

Dear Ms. Wolgelenter:

The Deputy Assistant Secretary, Mark Schneider, has asked me to respond to your letter of August 29 about the disappearance of your cousin Mauricio Alberto Poltarak in Argentina.

We have requested our Embassy in Buenos Aires to raise this case with the Foreign Office Working Group of the Government of Argentina and to forward to you any information it receives.

Thank you for writing to us and please be assured of our deep concern about the case of your cousin and all of the numerous other persons in Argentina who have been reported to our Government to have disappeared.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Ms. Derian:

We are very happy to tell you that Lilliane Deutsch has been released from prison and has arrived in the United States with her father. The entire Deutsch family is now free. The family cannot thank you enough for your wonderful efforts on behalf of our relatives.

For over a year now an unbelievable effort has been maintained to free these innocent people. Our calls for help were heard and answered - leaders from all over the country of many religious and political beliefs vigorously protested their imprisonment. Congressmen and Senators, Jewish leaders, Catholic and Protestant leaders were heard from. The Secretary of State and the President of the United States asked for their release. Some, like Congressman Leach of Iowa and Congressman Waxman of California and Rabbi Rosenthal of the Anti-Defamation League were unstinting of their time.

We wish to thank all of the wonderful people who helped so well and successfully - and now they are free and we will never forget your efforts on our behalf.

Sincerely,

For the Deutsch Family

HUMAN RIGHTS: ARGENTINA

Political terrorism of the left and the right has wracked Argentina since the late sixties and was partially responsible for the economic and political breakdown precipitating the March 1976 coup. The Junta's efforts to eliminate leftist terrorism led to massive counter-terrorist campaign, undertaken by the security forces.

Although the Government has publicly stated that terrorism has largely been defeated, the anti-terrorist campaign of the last few years has continued and has resulted in severe violations of human rights.

At present, the Government of Argentina acknowledges approximately 3,400 state of siege prisoners detained under executive power (PEN). The state of siege powers, involed in 1974, have been used to hold a wide variety of persons forlong periods without formal charges. The USG reports an additional 500 prisoners in military camps. Arrests continue but have decreased considerably from the level of the past two years. From January to August 1978, 347 were added to PEN and 446 released.

Security personnel and prison officials use torture routinely during the interrogation process.

In addition, thousands (estimates range between 3,000 and 20,000) have been abducted by security forces. These cases, known as the disappeared, include a broad range of people, such as labor leaders, workers, clergymen, human rights advocates, scientists, doctors and political party leaders. A movement is growing, led by human rights organizations and the Mothers of the Church, to trace the missing people. The Government, however, has not accounted for the vast majority of the disappeared, many of whom are presumed to be dead. At present, our Embassy is receiving reports of disappearances at a rate of 16-45 per month.

The GOA in late 1977 reinstituted a limited "right of option" for political prisoners, held under executive detention, to request exile. However, from January to August, only about 60 were allowed to leave under this program.

The GOA for the first time in February 1978 published lists of those detained under the state of siege.

Once again permission has been granted for the ICRC to visit non-military prisons.

Responsive action has been taken on a few cases in which the U.S. has expressed special interest. Newspaper editor and Jewish leader Jacobo Timerman was transferred from PEN detention to house arrest, Alfredo Bravo, Co-Chairman of the Permanent Assembly for Human Rights, was paroled, Guillermo Vogler was released to the U.S. under the right of option, and the Deutsch family was released. Also placed on parole was Perez Esquivel, leader of Paz y Justicia and Nobel Peace Prize nominee.

Official harassment of selected religious groups continues. The Jehova's witnesses have borne much of the brunt. Reports of anti-semitic incidents targeted at members of the Jewish community and Jewish prisoners have decreased.

Severe restrictions remain on civil and political freedoms, among these trade union rights, fair judicial processes, and the activities of political parties. Press freedom continues to be curtailed although some restrictions were recently lifted. There appears to be little concerted or effective effort to date to check fundamental abuses or revitalize the legal and institutional barriers that would prevent human rights violations in the future.

We had hoped that the Argentine Government would have been able to accept a visit by the OAS Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IAHRC). However, the conditioned invitation issued by the GOA was not acceptable to the Commission. Negotiations are continuing.

ACTION TAKEN ON HUMAN RIGHTS

-- On October 27, 1977, the U.S. voted no on a gas pipeline loan in the IDB. We followed this up with "no" votes on a cellulose plant on December 1 and a petrochemical complex on December 8. On November 3 we did, however, support an IDB loan for portable water on the grounds that it meets basic human needs.

-- Early in 1978, we abstained on an industrial credit and a grain storage loan, both in the World Bank. We abstained rather than vote no to signal to the Argentine Government that we had noted limited improvements in some areas, and to encourage further positive developments. We followed this by an extension of a $60 million agricultural credit loan in April and abstained on three IFC loans.

-- Eximbank is currently holding back on over $600 million in transactions for Argentina because of human rights considerations.

-- Over 200 Arms transfer requests are being deferred. Argentina rejected FMS credits for FY-78. The Administration declined to sign for FY-77 FMS agreement and is not requesting FMS credits for Argentina for FY-79. All arms transfers (FMS sales and commercial sales of items on the munitions list) are being reviewed on a case-by-case basis; only very few [redacted] selected new items with no apparent relationship to human rights have been approved.

-- On various occasions, we have discussed our human rights concerns with the GOA at the highest levels, including trips by two Assistant Secretaries, an Under Secretary and the Secretary of State. When Under Secretary [redacted] Newsom visited Argentina in late May, he made clear to the Argentines that we want better relations with that country, but that there would have to be improvements in the human rights area. He specifically asked for movement on: an invitation to the IAHRC; establishment of a mechanism to inform the families of disappeared persons of their whereabouts; and trial, release or exile for the 3,400 PEN prisoners held without charge.

-- The Department has submitted over 1,000 names of individuals who are either detained or have disappeared to the Argentine Government and have requested that they furnish information on these individuals.

Dear ~~Robert~~ Bob:

The purpose of this letter is to request your assistance in reference to the case of Mr. Américo Mohamet Sady Arce and Mrs. Delia Kennedy Sady, both of them Argentinian Citizens. Mr. Sady is the brother of Mrs. Esther Sady Berríos, who is married to Mr. Rafael Berríos Carrión, U.S. Citizen residing in Puerto Rico. On the 10th of May, 1976, at 9:00 P.M., Mr. and Mrs. Sady were arrested from their home located at Monroe Street, 5626, First Floor, Apartment #6, Villa Urquiza, Buenos Aires, Argentina and charged because of their political activities during the days of the Administration of Ms. Isabel Perón.

Our constituent Mr. Rafael Berríos Carrión and Mrs. Esther Sady Carrión are interested in receiving information on the whereabouts of Mrs. Sady and Mr. Sady. Since their arrest the Sady Family doesn't know the location or the prison where Mr. and Mrs. Sady might be, if they are alive. Mr. Rafael Berríos Carrión and Mrs. Esther Sady Berríos have been requesting information to the Argentinian Authorities on Mr. and Mrs. Sady without success.

Mr. Américo Mohamet Sady Arce identification number is 3.885.044. His father is Mr. Joaquín Sady and his mother is 4.855.373. Her father name is Mr. Mateo Kennedy and her mother's name is Mrs. María Avecilla de Kennedy.

I will appreciate all the assistance you may give to our request in helping our constituent Mr. Rafael Berríos Carrión and Mrs. Esther Sady de Berríos in finding Mrs. and Mr. Sady, their prison address or another information regarding their whereabouts.

We can also
case at the next

Detention Camps

The Department's request has opened up a rich vein of material here. We have a lot of information regarding interrogation and detention centers scattered throughout our files. I have been pulling it together, trying to develop a format to evaluate and present it sensibly. We are at over 50 facilities and still counting. This is a mucky area as our witnesses were blindfolded. The pattern is clear and the number much larger than I would have opined before I started mining files. I hope to have this out in the next week.

FOWG

The chill in our bilateral relations has produced a surge of cooperation from the FOWG. We are snowed under with several dozen replies to our information requests. As usual, there are no surprises. We are turning out the H pass cables like hotcakes on these sad cases. The Foreign Office probably wants to make sure that its responsiveness is not open to question by the Congress or Administration. The turn around is good, but the news is bad.

Right of Option

Our Right of Option Program is still on dead center. As you can see from the attached graph the inputs and outputs of PEN cases swing erratically but the number of options granted stays at a low and steady level. Our Consulate's requests to meet several dozen Right of Option applicants have finally been turned down after months of being stalled. The MinInt cited a Foreign Office rule which allows Consular officials access only to their own nationals. I lunched with the Acting FOWG head yesterday. He promised to work out an exception to allow consular access in these option application cases. Meanwhile, we have learned that the Canadian, Danish, Swedish, Israeli, etc. have actually gotten in to see their option applicants. Please share this tidbit with Judy.

Embassy Card File

I trust you have by now received the copy of our Human Rights Card File. We will be folding in another 300 or so cases this weekend. It never ends or even slows down. Although operations are down, as time goes by, more of the "silent majority" cases come out in the open. Someone might try to work out a method by which the Embassy's Card File could be made available to the IACHR on a confidential basis. I believe that the file is the most comprehensive compilation on the Argentine Human Rights Record available.

EXIM Rejection and Derian Statement

The human rights organizations here are ecstatic over the EXIM decision and Patt's statement. They have all streamed into my office to express their pleasure and profound thanks. Unfortunately, I was out when the Embassy reaction cable was being drafted and the positive news did not get folded in.

The strong government and press reaction here is a complicated cocktail but its principal ingredients from the perspective of my desk are:

Dashed Expectations -- According to Thoreau, happiness is a matter of expectation. After the Argentines successfully staged and won the World Football Cup, the government, the press, the man in the street, all thought that Argentina had crossed an international bridge to respectability. EXIM and Derian were the first indications that their unresolved problems were still around.

Government's Weakness -- Although it is the government's practice to characterize publicly all human rights charges as attacks against Argentina and not the government or as a lack of understanding, it did not deflect these events. There was impact. For some reason, the events were characterized internally as an attack on the Videla-Viola government which is feeling very weak at the moment. Why the government decided to take, rather than slip, the punch is not clear. But it certainly served some internal purpose.

Guilt -- This was the first time in my recollection that we have mentioned the words "torture" and "summary execution" in public. This indication of what we really think (and know) touched the usually well hidden guilt complex among a number of the Argentine military. I had several incredible discussions as a result. I am becoming a confessor to both sides. The problem is that for many military leaders knowledge equates with accountability. The Derian statement questioned the military's belief that the law of forgetfullness will in time absolve them of responsibility. Their domestic and international campaign of plausible denial was shaken by a few accurate words.

Political Power and Human Rights

The last few weeks has seen a new air of gloom over the town. Everyone is dining out on Videla's loss of power; the inability of the government to deal with the issues at hand; the fact that the issues are getting worse. On top of this there is now a steady stream of war talk. The economic policy is being roundly attacked. We expect Massera to blast Dr. Joe's machinations before stepping down to civilian life. The Montes foreign policy moving from the West to the Non-Aligned and the East is viewed as military amateurism. Health care is deteriorating, the education policy is in shambles, there is no movement on the labor front. There are more and more cracks in the wall and more openess in discussing them.

In this heady atmosphere of political weakness the human rights organizations are opting for a tougher line.

Videla's latest human rights statements in Rome are seen as a continuation of the government's refusal to deal with the issue. Videla even discovered another cause for disappearances -- people blowing themselves up with poorly made bombs.

From this desk, the issue posed is whether our strategy of trying to strengthen Videla-Viola, thereby giving them the political power to bring about reforms providing for the protection of the person should be re-examined in light of their growing weakness to govern. Although my futile dissent message encouraging the US Navy to massage Massera got no where, recent events have strengthened my view that we should start putting some of our money on the other horses in the race. Massera is everyone's (but this Embassy's) favorite dark horse.

EXIM Policy Reconsideration

There is some discussion here that EXIM might reconsider its lending policy towards Argentina, now that the Harkin Amendment is no longer hanging over its head. This would be a disaster for our human rights efforts here, unless it was coupled with some significant concrete action by the GOA. Softening of EXIM's policy would strengthen the hardliners, demonstrate that the Yankees are only really interested in making a buck, fortify the position of no concessions on human rights, and show we can be shouted down by the local Argentine press.

IACHR Visit

The word is out here in press circles of a Videla-Mondale deal to improve bilateral relations via some Argentine gestures on human rights. The deal is said to include extending an invitation to the IACHR to visit Argenina in exchange for US concessions. One press skeptic suggests that Videla is in an even worse power position now to deliver on his promises to Mondale than he was to deliver on his (still unfilled) promises to President Carter. We shall see. The IACHR visit is becoming here as it is in Asuncion and Montevideo the litmus test of our human rights policy.

Thank you both for your letters. I was pleased that Patt found the meeting with Ron Kelly useful. I

1. MEMBERS OF ARGENTINE SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (PST) CALLED ON POLOFF ON SEPTEMBER 5 TO REQUEST U.S. INTERVENTION IN PREVENTING THE REFOULMENT OF HUGO MIGUEL BRESSANO TO ARGENTINA.

2. POLOFF SUGGESTED THAT MOST APPROPRIATE ORGANIZATION TO INTERCEDE ON BEHALF OF BRESSANO WOULD BE UNHCR. PST MEMBERS SAID THEY HAD INFORMED UNHCR OFFICE HERE REGARDING THEIR CONCERN AND WOULD MAKE FORMAL PRESENTATION TO UNHCR REGIONAL REP WHEN THEY RECEIVED DETAILED INFORMATION REGARDING BESSANO'S DETENTION FROM BRAZIL.

LEADER, BUT LAUGHED OFF AS BRAZILIAN INTELLIGENCE "WITCH HUNTING" ANY TIES BETWEEN BRESSANO AND ARGENTINE TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS.

4. COMMENT: ACCORDING TO INFORMATION AVAILABLE FROM USUALLY RELIABLE SOURCES AT THE EMBASSY, HUGO MIGUEL BRESSANO WAS, AS OF FEBRUARY 1967, REPORTEDLY THE LEADER OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WORKERS PARTY (PRT), ONE OF THE TWO TROTSKYIST GROUPS WHICH CLAIMED TO BE THE BONA FIDE ARGENTINE SECTION OF THE TROTSKYIST FOURTH INTERNATIONAL. INFORMATION RECEIVED IN DECEMBER OF 1969 REPORTED THAT BRESSANO HAD RECENTLY BEEN RELEASED BY PERUVIAN COURTS AND HAD GONE TO URUGUAY, WHERE HE RENEWED CONTACTS WITH LEFTISTS IN MONTEVIDEO. IN MAY OF 1970 BRESSANO WAS SOUGHT BY ARGENTINE POLICE AS A MEMBER OF A ROSARIO PRT TERRORIST GROUP. LAST REPORT AVAILABLE DATES FROM 1971, TO THE EFFECT THAT IN MAY OF THAT YEAR BRESSANO WAS HEAD OF THE LA VERDAD FACTION OF THE PRT AND WAS THE DELEGATE TO THE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL IN THE SOUTHERN ZONE OF SOUTH AMERICA. SUBJECT ALSO KNOWN AS "HUGO MORENO" AND "NEHUEL MORENO," WAS BORN IN RIVADAVIA, ARGENTINA, APRIL 21, 1924.

Dear Brian and Tex:

Enclosed please find an update to my letter of August 22, with additional names of AIUSA adoptees, including the disappeared people.

Could you please advise me of what you are doing about those people who have been recently released, especially into house arrest, ie. Alfredo Bravo, Juan Rodolfo Acuña, and Jorge Reynaldo Puebla Aguilera. Are they eligible for the parole program? Why have there been no applications sent over by the UNHCR, especially in the light of the demands that have reached us from the Chilean refugees in La Prida Hotel in Buenos Aires? Can a certificate be issued without the interview by an INS officer? If not, isn't there a sufficient caseload to warrant one being sent down immediately for the detainees?

Sorry to keep pestering you, but we do seem to have to clarify these matters.

All best,

Wendy Turnbull

SUBJECT: MISLEADING REPORTS OF LOCATING "MISSING PERSONS" DECONTROL

REF: BUENOS AIRES 7186

1. THE MISSING PERSONS BUREAU OF THE ARGENTINE FEDERAL POLICE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION ANNOUNCED ON SEPTEMBER 10, THAT 139 "MISSING PERSONS" HAD BEEN LOCATED IN THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS. (SEE REFTEL.) A CHECK OF THE 139 NAMES LISTED BY THE FEDERAL POLICE AGAINST THE EMBASSY'S FILES OF ABOUT 5,000 DISAPPEARANCE CASES PRODUCED NO MATCHES. WE CONCLUDE THAT THIS LATEST LIST, LIKE THE EARLIER FEDERAL POLICE LISTS OF LOCATED "MISSING PERSONS" OF AUGUST WITH 201 NAMES AND APRIL WITH 232 NAMES, ARE COMPOSED ALMOST ENTIRELY OF NORMAL "MISSING PERSON" CASES - RUNAWAYS, AMNESIA VICTIMS, SHIP JUMPERS, ETC.

2. HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS HERE HAVE CHARACTERIZED THESE FEDERAL POLICE ANNOUNCEMENTS AS PUBLIC RELATIONS EXERCISES TO [redacted]

MISLEAD THE ARGENTINE PUBLIC INTO BELIEVING THAT PROGRESS IS BEING MADE IN LOCATING SUBSTANTIAL NUMBERS OF "DISAPPEARED PERSONS". FAMILES OF "DESAPARECIDOS" HAVE REPORTED TO THE

EMBASSY THAT EFFORTS TO REGISTER THEIR CASES WITH THE FEDERAL POLICE'S MISSING PERSONS BUREAU HAVE NOT BEEN SUCCESSFUL. FEDERAL POLICE OFFICIALS HAVE SENT THE FAMILIES TO REGISTER THEIR CASES TO THE SPECIAL OFFICE RUN BY THE INTERNAL SECURITY DIVISION OF THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR. THIS OFFICE ANNOUNCED ON JUNE 2 THAT 87 OF THE 2,500 PERSONS LISTED AS DISAPPEARED IN THE MAY HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS LA PRENSA AD HAD BEEN LOCATED. THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY LATER ANNOUNCED THAT 14 OF THE 87 LOCATED PERSONS WERE STILL DISAPPEARED.

3. EMBASSY COMMENT: THERE APPEARS TO BE THE POSSIBILITY OF CONFUSION IN THE GOA'S PRESENTATION OF INFORMATION REGARDING THE LOCATING OF "MISSING" AND "DISAPPEARED" PERSONS. WHETHER THIS CONFUSION IS INTENDED TO ENHANCE THE ARGENTINE HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD IS NOT CLEAR. HOWEVER, AFTER CHECKING THE NAMES OF THE 572 PERSONS LOCATED BY THE FEDERAL POLICE MISSING PERSONS BUREAU, WE FIND ALMOST NO CORRELATION BETWEEN THOSE PERSONS NAMES AND THE DISAPPEARANCE REPORTS ATTRIBUTED TO GOVERNMENT SECURITY OPERATIONS. INFORMATION REGARDING THIS LATTER CLASS OF CASES APPEARS TO BE CONTROLLED BY THE INTERNAL SECURITY DIVISION, NOT THE FEDERAL POLICE.

4. THE EMBASSY CONTINUES TO LEARN OF REAPPEARANCES OF PERSONS ABDUCTED BY SECURITY FORCES. TO DATE IN 1978, WE HAVE RECEIVED INFORMATION REGARDING 15 REAPPEARANCES. IN A FEW CASES, THE PERSONS WERE HELD INCOMMUNICADO FOR OVER A YEAR BEFORE BEING RELEASED. END COMMENT.

EJERCITO DE CHILE
INSPECTORIA GENERAL DEL EJERCITO

26 DIC. 1974

BOLETIN OFICIAL
DEL EJERCITO
(PARA USO EXCLUSIVO DE LA INSTITUCION)

AÑO LXII — SANTIAGO, CHILE — 31 DE DICIEMBRE DE 1974 — Nº 51

Saludo de Navidad y Año Nuevo a las Instituciones del Ministerio de Defensa Nacional

El Presidente de la República desea hacer llegar a los integrantes de todas las Instituciones dependientes del Ministerio de Defensa Nacional, un saludo afectuoso con sus más sinceros deseos de paz en esta Navidad y que el Nuevo Año, próximo a iniciarse, signifique para todos sus hogares la materialización de los anhelos de alegría y felicidad.

Que esta unión fraternal, que ha caracterizado a las Instituciones durante mucho tiempo y que, durante este año ha constituido un ejemplo, se mantenga en estas festividades, no sólo por el espíritu que es tradicional en ellas, sino que se haga permanente, para progresar en la reconstrucción de nuestro país y luchar así —todos unidos— por un futuro venturoso para nuestra Patria. Ello no sólo es propio del sentimiento que anima nuestras almas por el significado de la Navidad, sino que es indispensable para traer paz a los espíritus y forjar a nuestros hijos en un Chile que también renace, libre de odios y rencores.

Unidos los brazos y las mentes y reconciliados los espíritus, no habrá obstáculo que pueda impedir el progreso de Chile. Nadie lo desea más que nosotros y así lo hemos ofrecido y demostrado.

Nuestro único enemigo es la pobreza y contra ella lucharemos, con todas nuestras fuerzas. Les agradezco por aceptar con comprensión el sacrificio y privaciones que ello ha significado para ustedes y sus familias.

Reiteramos nuestro llamado a la reconciliación y al esfuerzo mancomunado, probablemente con fundamentos más sólidos que nadie, porque representamos el poder y la fuerza. Sólo pedimos que este ofrecimiento sea utilizado con espíritu positivo.

El Presidente que hoy se dirige a ustedes quisiera que este mensaje que es, más que un saludo, la expresión de un profundo agradecimiento y un emocionado recuerdo, estreche a toda esta gran familia desde Arica a la Antártica, en una promesa de incorporar a ella a todos los chilenos, en la lucha por el trabajo y el esfuerzo que dignifica.

Santiago, 23 de diciembre de 1974.

CREA LA DIRECCION DE INTELIGENCIA NACIONAL (DINA).

SANTIAGO, 14-6-1974

DECRETO LEY Nº 521

VISTO: lo dispuesto en los decretos leyes números 1 y 128, de 1973, y

CONSIDERANDO la necesidad de que el Supremo Gobierno tenga la colaboración inmediata y permanente de un organismo especializado que le proporcione en forma sistemática y debidamente procesada la información que requiera para adecuar sus resoluciones en el campo de la Seguridad y Desarrollo Nacional,

La Junta de Gobierno ha acordado dictar el siguiente

Artículo 1º.- Créase la DIRECCION DE INTELIGENCIA NACIONAL, organismo Militar de carácter técnico profesional, dependiente directamente de la Junta de Gobierno y cuya misión será la de reunir toda la información a nivel nacional, proveniente de los diferentes campos de acción con el propósito de producir la inteligencia que se requiera para la formulación de políticas, planificación y para la adopción de medidas que procuren el resguardo de la Seguridad Nacional y el Desarrollo del país.

Artículo 2º.- La Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional estará dirigida por un Oficial General o Superior, en servicio activo, de las Fuerzas de la Defensa Nacional, designado por decreto supremo, el que con el título de Director de Inteligencia Nacional, tendrá la dirección superior, técnica y administrativa del Servicio. En el ejercicio de sus facultades, podrá dictar las resoluciones e impartir las instrucciones internas que sean necesarias para el funcionamiento de la Repartición.

Artículo 3º.- La organización, estructura institucional interna y deberes de la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional serán establecidas por un Reglamento Orgánico dictado a propuesta de su Director.

La planta estará constituida por personal proveniente de las Instituciones de la Defensa Nacional.

Cuando sea necesario contratar personal que no provenga de las Instituciones de la Defensa Nacional, deberá ser aprobado por Decreto Supremo, suscrito además, por el Ministro de Hacienda. El régimen jurídico y los niveles remunerativos respectivos serán los mismos por los que se rige el personal civil de las Fuerzas Armadas.

Artículo 4°.- El Director de Inteligencia Nacional podrá requerir de cualquier servicio del Estado, municipalidades, perso nas jurídicas creadas por ley o de las empresas o sociedades en que el Estado o sus empresas tengan aportes de capital, representación o parti cipación, los informes o antecedentes que estime necesarios para el efi caz cumplimiento de sus cometidos.

Del incumplimiento de esta obligación podrá dar cuenta al Contralor General de la República a fin de que aplique al infrac tor, directamente, cualquiera de las sanciones administrativas contemp das en el respectivo estatuto que rija su desempeño.

Las normas que establecen el secreto o reserva sob determinadas materias no obstarán a que se proporcione a la Dirección Inteligencia Nacional la información o antecedentes solicitados, sin p juicio de que sobre su personal pese igual obligación de guardar reser o secreto.

Artículo 5°.- El Reglamento Orgánico a que se ref ro el Inciso 1° del Artículo 3°, establecerá que el régimen jurídico beneficios que regirán para el personal de las cuatro Instituciones d la Defensa Nacional y Servicio de Investigaciones, que sea destinado comisionado a la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional, será el mismo que ge para el personal que presta sus servicios en la Defensa Nacional.

Artículo 6°.- La Ley Anual de Presupuestos consul rá, en sumas globales, los recursos que sean necesarios para el financ miento de los gastos que demande la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional

El financiamiento correspondiente al año 1974 se h rá con cargo a las sumas globales que al efecto pondrá a disposición la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional el Ministerio de Hacienda.

Artículo 7°.- Libéranse de los derechos específic y ad-valorem establecidos en el Arancel Aduanero, y de los demás impues tos, tasas y contribuciones y, en general, de todo derecho que se perc ba por intermedio de las Aduanas, como asimismo de la Tasa de Despacho establecida por el artículo 190 de la ley N° 16.464 y sus modificacion y del impuesto del 10% previsto en el artículo 44 de la ley N° 17.56 todas las importaciones de equipos completos, accesorios y demás eleme tos, que efectúe la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional.

Artículo 8°.- Agrégase en la letra a) del artícul 19 de la ley N° 17.798, de Control de Armas, el siguiente inciso nuevo

"Asimismo, las diligencias a que se refieren los i ciscs precedentes, podrán ser cumplidas por la Dirección de Inteligen cia Nacional en la forma y condiciones señaladas en esos preceptos.".

Artículo 9°.- El Director de Inteligencia Nacional y los Jefes de Servicios de Inteligencia dependientes de las Instituci nes de la Defensa Nacional, podrán coordinar directamente sus activida des para el cumplimiento de sus misiones específicas. Sin perjuicio d lo anterior, y cuando lo reclamare la necesidad imperiosa de la defens del régimen Institucional del Estado, la Junta de Gobierno podrá dispo ner la participación o coordinación de todos los Organismos de Inteli gencia anteriormente mencionados, en funciones propias de la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional.

DEL EJERCITO
(PARA USO EXCLUSIVO DE LA INSTITUCION)

AÑO LXXII — SANTIAGO, CHILE, 31 DE DICIEMBRE DE 1974. — Nº 51

Saludo de Navidad y Año Nuevo a las Instituciones del Ministerio de Defensa Nacional

El Presidente de la República desea hacer llegar a los integrantes de todas las Instituciones dependientes del Ministerio de Defensa Nacional, un saludo afectuoso con sus más sinceros deseos de paz en esta Navidad y que el Nuevo Año, próximo a iniciarse, signifique para todos sus hogares la materialización de los anhelos de alegría y felicidad.

Que esta unión fraternal, que ha caracterizado a las Instituciones durante mucho tiempo y que, durante este año ha constituido un ejemplo, se mantenga en estas festividades, no sólo por el espíritu que es tradicional en ellas, sino que se haga permanente, para progresar en la reconstrucción de nuestro país y luchar así —todos unidos— por un futuro venturoso para nuestra Patria. Ello no sólo es propio del sentimiento que anima nuestras almas por el significado de la Navidad, sino que es indispensable para traer paz a los espíritus y forjar a nuestros hijos en un Chile que también renace, libre de odios y rencores.

Unidos los brazos y las mentes y reconciliados los espíritus, no habrá obstáculo que pueda impedir el progreso de Chile. Nadie lo desea más que nosotros y así lo hemos ofrecido y demostrado.

Nuestro único enemigo es la pobreza y contra ella lucharemos, con todas nuestras fuerzas. Les agradezco por aceptar con comprensión el sacrificio y privaciones que ello ha significado para ustedes y sus familias.

Reiteramos nuestro llamado a la reconciliación y al esfuerzo mancomunado, probablemente con fundamentos más sólidos que nadie, porque representamos el poder y la fuerza. Sólo pedimos que este ofrecimiento sea utilizado con espíritu positivo.

El Presidente que hoy se dirige a ustedes quisiera que este mensaje que es, más que un saludo, la expresión de un profundo agradecimiento y un emocionado recuerdo, estreche a toda esta gran familia desde Arica a la Antártica, en una promesa de incorporar a ella a todos los chilenos, en la lucha por el trabajo y el esfuerzo que dignifica.

Santiago, 23 de diciembre de 1974.

AUGUSTO PINOCHET UGARTE,

DECRETOS LEYES

Modifica Ley Nº 7.821, sobre Remisión Condicional de la Pena

(Publicado en el Diario Oficial Nº 29910, de 12 Nov. 1977).

Decreto Ley Nº 1969.—Santiago, 19. X. 1977.—Visto:

Lo dispuesto en los Decretos Leyes Nºs. 1 y 128, de 1973, 527, de 1974; y 991, de 1976; y

Considerando:

La necesidad de modificar las modalidades o condiciones de cumplimiento de la pena remitida condicionalmente, a fin de hacerlas más expeditas y adecuadas a las esencias y características de las instituciones de las Fuerzas Armadas y Carabineros, que demandan destinaciones, comisiones de servicios y otras actividades que significan desplazamiento de personas,

La Junta de Gobierno de la República de Chile ha acordado dictar el siguiente

Decreto Ley:

Artículo Unico.—Modifícase la Ley Nº 7.821, en la forma que a continuación se expresa:

a) Agréganse, al final del artículo 2º, los siguientes incisos:

"Tratándose del personal de las Fuerzas Armadas y Carabineros, mientras esté en servicio, se entenderá que concurren, por ese solo hecho, los requisitos señalados en los números 1) y 3) del inciso primero y la vigilancia a que se refiere el número 2) del mismo inciso se ejercerá por los jueces institucionales respectivos; quienes podrán delegar tal facultad en la autoridad que estimen conveniente y que corresponda a la Institución a que pertenece el beneficiario, de acuerdo a las necesidades del Servicio".

"Producido el retiro del beneficiado durante el plazo de observación, el tiempo de sujeción a la vigilancia del respectivo juez institucional se computará como tiempo sometido a la vigilancia del Patronato de Reos. El que reste para completar el plazo de observación, se hará bajo la vigilancia de esta última institución".

b) Reemplázase el inciso primero del artículo 3º por el siguiente:

"Si el beneficiado quebrantare, dentro del período de observación, alguna de las condiciones señaladas en el artículo precedente, el Patronato de Reos o el juez institucional respectivo, según el caso, pedirá que se revoque la suspensión de la pena, lo que podrá decretar el tribunal."; y

c) Reemplázase el artículo 4º por el siguiente:

"Artículo 4º—La vigilancia de los beneficiados con la remisión condicional de la pena estará a cargo de los Patronatos de Reos o de los jueces institucionales respectivos".

Regístrese en la Contraloría General de la República, publíquese en el Diario Oficial e insértese en la recopilación oficial de dicha Contraloría.—Augusto Pinochet Ugarte, General de Ejército, Presidente de la República.—José T. Merino Castro, Almirante, Comandante en Jefe de la Armada.—Gustavo Leigh Guzmán, General del Aire, Comandante en Jefe de la Fuerza Aérea de Chile.—Eduardo Gordon Cañas, General Subdirector de Carabineros, General Director de Carabineros Subrogante.—César Raúl Benavides Escobar, General de División, Ministro del Interior.—Herman Brady Roche, General de División, Ministro de Defensa Nacional.

mo militar especializado, de carácter técnico y profesional, que tendrá por misión reunir y procesar todas las informaciones a nivel nacional, provenientes de los diferentes campos de acción, que el Supremo Gobierno requiera para la formulación de políticas, planes, programas; la adopción de medidas necesarias de resguardo de la seguridad nacional, y el normal desenvolvimiento de las actividades nacionales y mantención de la institucionalidad establecida.

No obstante su calidad de organismo militar, integrante de la Defensa Nacional, la Central Nacional de Informaciones se vinculará con el Supremo Gobierno, en el cumplimiento de sus misiones específicas, a través del Ministerio del Interior.

Artículo 2º— La Central Nacional de Informaciones estará dirigida por un Oficial General o Superior en servicio activo, de las Fuerzas Armadas o de Orden, designado por decreto supremo, el que con el título de Director Nacional de Informaciones, tendrá la dirección superior, técnica y administrativa del Servicio. En el ejercicio de sus facultades, podrá dictar las resoluciones e impartir las instrucciones internas que sean necesarias para el funcionamiento de la Repartición.

Artículo 3º— La organización, estructura institucional interna y deberes de la Central Nacional de Informaciones serán establecidas por un Reglamento Orgánico dictado a propuesta de su Director.

La dotación estará integrada por personal en retirada y por aquel proveniente de las Instituciones de la Defensa Nacional.

Cuando sea necesario contratar personal, que no provenga de las Instituciones de la Defensa Nacional, deberá ser aprobado por decreto supremo, suscrito —además— por el Ministro de Hacienda. El régimen jurídico y los niveles remunerativos respectivos serán los mismos por los que se rige el personal civil de las Fuerzas Armadas y serán considerados como tales para todos los efectos jurisdiccionales y disciplinarios.

Artículo 4º— El Director Nacional de Informaciones, podrá requerir de cualquier servicio del Estado, municipalidades, personas jurídicas creadas por ley o de las empresas o sociedades en que el Estado o sus empresas tengan aportes de capital, representación o participación, los informes o antecedentes que estime necesarios para el eficaz cumplimiento de sus cometidos.

Del incumplimiento de esta obligación podrá dar cuenta al Contralor General de la República, a fin de que aplique al infractor, [illegible]

Informe Numero: 1
(Traduccion)

16 de Enero de 1976

Asunto: Informacion sobre posible atentado contra el Embajador Norteamericano

1. El dia 15 de Enero se presento en esta embajada el Sr. Juan Rene Munoz Alarcon, Carnet 4.824.557-9 de Santiago, nacido el dia 2 de Abril de 1943 en Santiago, residente en Sargento Menadier 311, Poblacion Maipo, Puente Alto. El Sr. Munoz dijo tener informacion sobre un posible atentado contra el Embajador norteamericano. En esta primera oportunidad se le tomo la declaracion y se le solicito regresar de nuevo el dia 16 de enero, lo que cumplio. En la segunda entrevista del dia 16 de Enero, se le tomaron datos adicionales. Ademas, se le advertio que no se podria cumplir con el deseo que el habia expresado en sentido de que no se le informara a las authoridades Chilenas sobre las seclaraciones que habia hecho, ya que cualquiera investigacion de lo que decia el correspondia a las authoridades de Chile.

2. Segun el Sr. Munoz, desde hace unos nueve meses se esta discutiendo un posible atentado contra el Embajador Norteamericano en Chile. El atentado tiene sus origenes en Argentina, donde colaboran en la planificacion el grupo Montoneros y el als de Organizacion del Partido Comunista de Argentina, quienes se reunen en el sector de Parque Patricio en Buenos Aires. El organizador dentro de Chile es un Montonero Argentino, conocido como "el poeta" y tambien como "tuco". Este sujeto entro a Chile en los primeros dias de Diciembre. Entro por tierra desde Mendoza, y Munoz cree (especifico que se trataba de especulacion) que uso documentos Brazilenos. Este sujeto asistio a reuniones en el Club Hipico y en el Hipodromo Chile, pero Munoz no sabe si aun permanece en Chile. Para mayores antecedentes sobre este individuo, vease el Informe No. 2.

3. El primer conocimiento que tuvo el Sr. Munoz acerca del posible atentado lo obtuvo hace unos 35 dias (es decir, a mediados de Diciembre), cuando fue contactado por un sujeto que conoce solo como "Jose". Este sujeto esta asilado en la Embajado de Venezuela desde hace varios meses, pero tiene manera de entrar y salir cuando sea necesario, cosa que hace aproximadamente cada 30 dias. "Jose" le solicito al Sr. Munoz que participara en el atentado. Segun Munoz, se le solicito la participacion porque a pesar de que Munoz es conocido dentro de la izquierda como persona que fue Socialista pero luego renuncio del partido y actuo como informante sobre actividades de la izquierda para lost servicios de seguridad de Chile (ver Informe No. 3), tambien es conocido como persona que los servicios de seguridad creen estar tan "quemado" que ya no lo toman en serio. Por esto, segun Munoz, los organizadores del atentado creen que Munoz tendria una libertad de circulacion que les podria ser valioso a los que participaban en el complot, y a las vez cualquiera denuncia que hiciera no le seria creido. Aun mas, los organizadores creian que la mala situacion economica por la cual pasa Munoz lo haria participar en el atentado en esperas de asi poder salir del pais clandestinamente junto con los otros participantes, y asi buscar nuevas posibilidades economicas.

4. En esta oportunidad el Sr. Munoz dice haberse negado a participar en el atentado. No obstante, dice haber obtenido ciertos detalles sobre el atentado. Segun el, las armas que se usarian en el atentado son rifles de alta potencia con miras telescopicas, las cuales estan bajo el control del cura Fernando Salas. Se esperaba hacer el atentado hace unos dos meses, pero como Salas estaba detenido no estaban disponibles las armas y no se procedio. Se programaba hacer el atentado cuando el Embajador asistia a una ceremonia de entrega de alimentos para el programa de empleo minimo, y Munoz cree que todavia se espera hacer el atentado en una oportunidad parecida (se deja constancia que el Sr. Embajador no ha asistido ni tiene programado asistir a tal ceremonia, y que estuvo fuera de Chile durante la mayor parte del mes de Diciembre).

5. Desde entonces, la situacion economica de Munoz ha empeorado. Fue echado de las casa de unos hermanos donde vivia, y ahora vive donde la suegra (en la sireccion indicada). Tambien tiene proceso en su contra por girar cheque sin fondos. Esta situacion economica dio lugar al segundo encuentro que tuvo con personas conectadas al posible atentado. En un dia Miercoles hace unos 15 dias (seria el 31 de Diciembre de 1975), Munoz fue a visitar un conocido, Sergio Vasquez, tambien conocido como "Rudi", a quien generalmente ubica en el pasaje del teatro Gran Palace. Vasquez es una persona a quien Munoz habia ayudado durante el gobierno pasado, y ahora de vez en cuanto Vasquez le presta dinero a Munoz. Segun Munoz, Vasquez no tiene nada que ver con el posible atentado. No obstante, cuando Munoz ubico a Vasquez, este le presto cierta candidad de dinero, y le dijo que lo esperara en el restoran "Fuente Alemana", en Alameda cerca de Vicuna McKenna, para luego darle mas. Sin embargo, Vasquez no aparacio. El que si aparecio fue otro conocido de Munoz, Juan Moraga. Segun Munoz, Moraga es miembro del Partido Comunista de Chile, y trabajo con Munoz en el directorio nacional juvenil de la CUT durante el gobierno pasado. Moraga le hablo a Munuz de lo que habia propuesto "Jose", y le solicito una respuesta definitiva. Munoz de dijo que le diera mas tiempo para pensarlo. Al parecer en esta oportunidad Munoz no llego a sober mas detalles sobre el posible atentado.

6. La embajado toma en serio las declaraciones de Munoz, no tanto por creer los detalles que ofrece (que tienen muchas contadicciones) como por notar que Munoz tiene antecedentes de izquierda y que las personas que nombra parecen ser verdaderas, tambien a crear dudas sobre las declaraciones que ha dado, y algunas que tienden a dar credito a las declaraciones.

a. Factores que tienden a crear dudas:

(1) Munoz ha solicitado asilo en esta embajada anteriormente. La primera vez fue en Mayo de 1973, cuando lo hizo en persona, y la segunda vez fue por carta en 1974. En esta ocasion dijo tener interes en el programa para otorgar asilo a detenidos.

(2) Munoz dice estar pasando por una situacion economica bastante serio. Sin embargo, su ropa es de muy buena calidad.

(3) Parece poco probable lo declarado por Munoz sobre el tal "Jose" que entra y sale de la embajada de Venezuela, como asi lo parecen otros detalles tanto del posible atentado como de las otras declaraciones que hizo. Entre las otras declaraciones, el menos probable fue cuando jijo que el nuevo dirigente maximo del MIR es el Obispo Camus.

b. Factores que tiended a dar credito:

(1) Se le advertio a Munoz que se le entregaria lo dicho por el a las fuerzas de seguridad de Chile, pero esto no causo que variara lo dicho.

(2) Munoz se mantiene firme en lo dicho y habla con confianza y conciccion.

(3) Munoz tiena antecedentes que le darian como conocer personas de izquierda tales como los que nombra.

7. Se le solicito a Munoz que volviera a ponerse en contacto con Moraga para tratar de obtener mayores datos sobre el posible atentado. Se le recomendo a Munoz que le explicara a Morga que antes de participar de lleno en el complot, queria saber definitivamente que podria salir de Chile, y que queria que Moraga le explicara como se haria. Munoz acordo ponerse en contacto con la embajada todos los dias para dejar saber en que andaba.

5 de julio de 1976
En el Exilio

Sr. Sergio Crespo
Consul General de la Rep. de Chile
Nueva York, N.Y.

Mi apreciado Sergio:

Mucho agradezco su gentil invitación para la recepción a celebrarse el día 7 de julio con la tripulación del "Esmeralda", así como la correspondiente que tendra lugar el día 8 a bordo del Buque Escuela.

Siento inmensamente el sentirme honrosamente obligado a declinar a dichas invitaciones y quiero aquí explicarlo brevemente los motivos que me evitan estar con ustedes en estos dos dias.

El Movimiento Nacionalista Cubano hubo de romper lanzas en defensa de los mejores intereses de la Nación Chilena al respaldar en todas las formas (públicas y privadas, dignas del comentario y dignas del silencio) al gobierno que preside el Excelentísimo Señor Presidente, General Augusto Pinochet Ugarte.

Sergio, bien recordará nuestras muestras de afecto e identificación para con Chile y su justa lucha contra el marxismo. En estos momentos pasa por mi mente el acto del pasado 30 de noviembre de 1975 que bajo el lema de "Cuba y Chile Frente al Comunismo" hubimos de organizar, asi como nuestra constante labor en favor de la causa chilena, que consideramos la nuestra, a través de la prensa escrita, radial y televisada. En conclusión, creo que estamos en acuerdo de que el Movimiento

Nacionalista Cubano, en nombre del pueblo cubano del destierro, siempre ha defendido y respaldado al gobierno chileno contra la conjura internacional comunista, que continúa trabajando en su intento de destruir las instituciones y subvertir la paz en la Nación Chilena.

Amigo Crespo, así las cosas, el día 20 de mayo (irónicamente, fecha de la Independencia de Cuba) arriba al aeropuerto de Miami en el vuelo #870 de Braniff Airlines, procedente de Santiago, en calidad de detenido, esposado y escoltado por agentes del Buro Federal de Investigaciones de los Estados Unidos, el Sr. Rolando Otero, combatiente cubano anticomunista y veterano de "Bahía de Cochinos." El combatiente Otero se encontraba en Santiago, en aparente asilo político desde principios de febrero.

Crespo, no voy aquí a discutir la culpabilidad o responsabilidad de los hechos de los cuales el Sr. Otero es acusado por las autoridades norteamericanas, tampoco si los mismos fueron mas perjudiciales que beneficiosos para la causa cubana de liberación, sino que simplemente elevo a usted mi protesta, descontento y desconcierto ante este hecho. Hemos tratado de obtener respuesta satisfactoria al "Caso Otero" y hasta ahora no hemos tenido alguna.

Sí quiero que comprenda usted, Sergio, y de ser posible eleve nuestro sentir a Santiago, que para los elementos combatientes del destierro cubano este ha sido un duro golpe dado a nosotros por quien hasta ahora hemos considerado nuestro aliado ideológico en la lucha contra el enemigo común. Y así lo hacemos porque sabemos que quienes hoy gobiernan en la Nación Chilena lo hacen en defensa de los principios de nuestra civilización occidental y cristiana y en defensa de nuestra cultura y tradición.

Sepa usted que recientemente se efectuó una reunión de los dirigentes beligerantes de la causa cubana y por respeto y estimación para con el Movimiento Nacionalista Cubano y por nuestros planteamientos se decidió tomar un margen de espera antes de reaccionar por el hecho de entrega de Rolando Otero a la cárcel que le espera en este país.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Ya la prensa se ha hecho eco del descontento del exílio cubano ante este hecho y muy a pesar nuestro han hecho comentarios de censura para con la Junta de Gobierno. Esto es algo que mucho nos duele y que por todos los medios hemos tratado de evitar pero hasta cierto punto estamos con los brazos cruzados ante el desconocimiento de el verdadero porque de las cosas.

Sabemos también que se han dictado ordenes de detención en Chile contra otro cubano de probada filiación anticomunista.

Amigo Sergio, nosotros pudimos haber logrado una movilización masiva para dar la bienvenida al "Esmeralda" así como distintos actos-homenajes a su tripulación, pero nos vimos obligados a abstenernos a hacerlo debido al hecho ya explicado. Las circunstancias nos obligaron a no hacer aquello que nuestro sentimiento y el afecto por el pueblo chileno dictaban, imponiéndose lo negativo de la circunstancias a nuestro verdadero deseo y voluntad.

Igualmente le informo que aunque mi deseo es de estar con ustedes en estos días las circunstancias - un cubano preso en Miami y nuestra sagrada causa de liberación - no son un impedimento moral.

Espero con vuestra respuesta poder aclarar este lamentable hecho y aunque las causas que hayan motivado la entrega de Rolando Otero por las autoridades chilenas a las norteamericanas no puedan ser del conocimiento público, una vez recibidas haremos todo lo posible por eliminar las tensiones en el exílio cubano, provocadas por el "Caso Otero"

Con un fuerte abrazo me despido de usted, y con un verdadero deseo de que este asunto se aclare satisfactoriamente lo antes posible. Queda de usted, atentamente,

Su amigo,

Guillermo Novo Sampol

A MIS COMPATRIOTAS

A las diez de la mañana del día 12 de Marzo iniciaré una huelga de hambre como protesta por los vejámenes, maltratos y abusos a que he sido sometido por parte de las autoridades Costarricenses, las cuales me han mantenido detenido, sin haber sido presentado ante tribunales competentes, como un vulgar delincuente cuando mi único delito es el de luchar con todas las fibras de mi ser por la libertad de mi Patria. Se me acusa de tener papeles falsos, es de todos conocido que mi anhelo es aportar a la lucha en contra de la tiranía castrista, me he obligado a utilizar identificación falsificada, pero es bueno que se sepa que el Gobierno de Costa Rica conocía de mi estancia en el país no poniendo objeción en un principio a la misma, y que además actualmente miles de Chilenos comunistas radican en el país carentes de documentación legal sin ser molestados en lo mas mínimo por las autoridades.

Yo reclamo del Gobierno Costarricense que me otorgue a mi, que lucho por reinstaurar en mi país las mismas libertades e instituciones que Costa Rica felizmente disfruta, la misma hospitalidad y cariño que ha brindado a los comunistas chilenos como el señor Pascal Allende quienes abogan y luchan por la destrucción del sistema democrático, y a quienes sin embargo se les trata a cuerpo de rey en doloroso contraste con la dureza asumida en contra de mi persona por parte del Gobierno Costarricense.

Rechazo como burdas y falsas las acusaciones de la radio castrista de la Habana, de la cual inexplicablemente las autoridades de Costa Rica se han hecho eco, que me sitúan como partícipe de un plan para asesinar al comunista chileno Pascal Allende. Todos mis esfuerzos y energías se dirigen única y exclusivamente en contra de la tiranía castrista. El Gobierno sabe perfectamente que esas acusaciones son falsas, pero se ha dejado chantajear por la campaña del régimen castrista en una violación de su soberanía.

Sepan mis compatriotas que no solo ha sido la presión comunista la que ha movido al Gobierno a perseguirme y detenerme. En una extraña e insólita coincidencia, el Gobierno Norteamericano por medio de su embajador en San José, ejerció enorme influencia para que yo fuera expulsado procediendo interrogarme miembros del Bureau Federal de Investigaciones de los E.U. en suelo Costarricense, en flagrante violación de la soberanía de este país.

Esta huelga de hambre que inicio es mi expresión de rebeldía y protesta ante la cobardía y la traición de los que supuestamente estaban hermanados con la causa de la libertad de Cuba y sin embargo hoy nos apedrean y nos persiguen con saña. En nuestra lucha por reconquistar las libertades conculcadas nos enfrentamos ante un enemigo poderoso y sin escrúpulos, ante la indiferencia, claudicación y hasta complicidad de quienes debían ser nuestros aliados.

Latinos todos, es esta una verdad como templo que no podemos ocultar. Para ello nos el ejemplo dignificante de nuestros mártires y de nuestros presos en la Isla Esclava, como aliciente y estímulo para proseguir la lucha. Ante mis compatriotas reafirmo mi fe inquebrantable en los valores eternos de mi Patria, en la certeza del precepto Martiano, que afirma que las tiranías fomentan las virtudes que las matan, que lo heroico vence, e imbuido de este espíritu proseguiré en mi actual actitud hasta tanto no se me haga justicia. Caiga sobre el Gobierno de Costa Rica la responsabilidad sobre mi suerte.

Por una Cuba Libre.

Fuera de la oficina lo acompañaba permanentemente su chofer y su guardaespaldas, de nombre AQUILES REINARES PESCE y MOLINA. En todo el tiempo que trabajé junto al Coronel Espinoza le ví utilizar un sólo y mismo auto: un Chevy Nova año 1975 de color café, siempre manejado por el citado REINARES; d) Que, por el mismo cargo del declarante, estima imposible que el Coronel Espinoza hubiese recibido a alguien en su oficina sin que él lo hubiese sabido e introducido a ella. Aún, las conversaciones telefónicas más privadas se hacían por su intermedio y el Coronel Espinoza tenía por costumbre indicarle que se quedase presente en muchas de sus reuniones, mejor dicho, en casi todas ellas, siendo ésa lo habitual; e) Que recuerda que en el mes de Julio de 1976, el mismo mes en que el Coronel hizo un viaje a Brasil, le hizo citar por teléfono a un Sr. Andrés Wilson y, cuando concurrió, en su presencia preguntó el Coronel a Wilson si podía El Coronel Espinoza dió al Teniente Fernández el nombre de esa mujer y el lugar donde debían encontrarse, pero no recuerda ni uno ni otro. g) Que a fines de Agosto o principios de Septiembre de 1976 recibió en su oficina una llamada telefónica de Andrés Wilson solicitando hablar con el Coronel Espinoza. Preguntado acerca de la materia sobre la que quería hablar, manifestó que tenía que viajar en esos días a Estados Unidos y que llamaba para ofrecerle al Coronel comprar cualquiera cosa que pudiese necesitar, ofrecimiento que también hizo Wilson al declarante. Mas tarde, el Coronel Espinoza comentó al declarante esta amabilidad de Wilson, que le parecía más sorprendente todavía por no existir entre ellos amistad ni especiales vínculos. h) Que, yo era el que regulaba las actividades del Cabo REINARES conductor, y del Sargento Molina, Guardaespaldas del Coronel Espinoza, cuando durante el día el Coronel debía salir, cosa que sucedía rara vez.

Isabel Letelier fue el único testigo en audiencia de ayer

- El maletín del ex Ministro fue objeto de debate
- "Dulces sonrisas" de la declarante a miembros del jurado.
- Señaló que en Chile había 80 mil presos políticos.

por EMILIO BAKIT
Enviado especial
a Washington

Si anteayer la sala 19 de la Corte de Justicia del Distrito Federal de Columbia, recibió una lluvia de testigos, ayer se quedó con uno solo: Isabel Letelier. Con voz calmada, tranquila, Isabel, como la llaman sus "compañeros" del Instituto de Estudios Políticos de Washington, relató los acontecimientos que vivió su esposo, Orlando Letelier, hasta que fue asesinado. En varias oportunidades fue interrumpida por las objeciones de la defensa y por las amonestaciones del juez que le pidió que no hiciera divagaciones políticas ni expresara sus sentimientos personales, cuando sólo se le pedía un sí o un no como respuesta.

Entre los comentarios que el juez pidió al jurado... que olvidara, estaba la cifra de "80 mil presos políticos en Chile", que ella mencionó. El proceso se realizó a puertas cerradas durante la mañana de ayer debido a que el juez Parker y los abogados debían decidir si se daba lugar a la moción de la defensa, en el sentido de que se le permitiera ver los originales de los documentos que tenía Orlando Letelier el día del atentado. Por eso es que en la tarde el Fiscal Propper sólo tuvo tiempo de interrogar a la viuda de Letelier, cuya testificación continuaba esta mañana.

EL MALETIN

Durante toda la mañana, público, periodistas y los tres cubanos acusados, Ignacio y Guillermo Novo y Alvin Ross, debieron permanecer en la sala —o fumando fuera de ella— a la espera de que comenzara la sesión de la corte. En ese lapso, los familiares de los detenidos anticastristas pudieron acercarse a ellos para saludarlos desde el cierre de madera que separa al público del sector donde se encuentran acusados, acusadores, juez y funcionarios judiciales. Entre los que saludaban el juez decidiera si [illegible] importa o no para [illegible] fallo. Su determinación se conoce en el curso del día de hoy. Cabe señalar que entre los documentos que se tradujeron está una carta de la hija de Salvador Allende, Tati, que envió a Letelier relacionada con actividades del MIR y de obtención de recursos en Europa.

TESTIGO

A todo esto el receso obligado de la mañana de ayer permitió que se conocieran algunas informaciones sobre el futuro del juicio. Hasta el momento los testigos interrogados son 10. Y en total su número llega a 80. Eso hace prever que los interrogatorios aunque sean rápidos el juicio se prolongue hasta mediados de febrero.

Se supo, también, que la defensa de los cubanos presentará nuevos testigos: la esposa de Huberto Matos, el intelectual cubano torturado y encarcelado por Fidel Castro, y a Humberto Medrano, líder de la resistencia cubana que organizó el canje de prisioneros entre ese país y Estados Unidos.

Por su parte, se sabe que el Fiscal Eugene Propper presentará como uno de el juez, a raíz de las objeciones, Isabel Letelier se volvía hacia el jurado y le sonreía dulcemente.". Luego continuaba el relato.

Ante una pregunta de Propper, sobre lo que ocurrió después de ser nombrado Ministro de Defensa, Isabel Margarita Morel, respondió: "A Orlando le pasó lo que le pasó a miles y miles de chilenos, durante el golpe...".

No pudo continuar la frase debido a que los abogados defensores objetaron la respuesta, la cual fue aceptada por el juez. Propper debió hacer la pregunta nuevamente e Isabel debió responder sin hacer mayores comentarios: "Mi esposo fue arrestado en el Ministerio de Defensa por los militares".

Posteriormente identificó a su esposo en una fotografía. En otra foto Letelier aparecía en su despacho de trabajo, y en una tercera cuando lo llevaban arrestado. Al identificar esa foto Isabel Letelier dijo: "Aquí lo llevan como un criminal rodeado por soldados con ametralladoras...". No pudo continuar porque nuevamente sus comentarios fueron objetados por los abogados defensores.

SIGUE EL RELATO

Luego el interrogatorio siguió en esta forma, entre Propper e Isabel Letelier:

—¿Cuándo vio por última vez a su marido a raíz del golpe?

"Lo vi esa mañana del 11 por última vez y no volví a verlo hasta febrero de 1974, cuando me permitieron visitarlo en un hospital de Punta Arenas. Había estado en la isla Dawson. Estuve tres meses sin saber qué había ocurrido con Orlando".

[illegible] para [illegible] ción por el comentario, y el fiscal Propper hizo la pregunta de otra forma:

—Aparte de tomar un abogado, ¿usted recurrió o conversó con otras personas en sus intentos por lograr la libertad de su esposo?

—Conversé con gente de la prensa americana que estaba en Santiago, con antiguos amigos de Estados Unidos y recibí llamados telefónicos de todas partes del mundo de gente que quería ayudarnos.

—¿Usted logró algo en todas estas acciones?

—Sí; que las autoridades militares me pusieran bajo arresto domiciliario por actividades subversivas.

—¿Pidió también ayuda a organismos internacionales?

—Nosotros le pedimos ayuda a organismos tales como Amnesty International, la Cruz Roja, al Consejo Mundial de Iglesias, a la Asociación Internacional de Abogados y a muchos otros para que concurrieran a Dawson a constatar las horrendas condiciones de vida en que vivían los prisioneros (nueva objeción la defensa).

Posteriormente Propper continuó el interrogatorio:

—¿En qué condiciones vio en Punta Arenas a su esposo?

—Lo vi en el hospital de Punta Arenas; lo vi como un ser humano que había perdido 40 libras de peso y muy decaído anímicamente. [Estaba horrible! (nueva objeción de la defensa y recomendación del juez de no hacer comentarios).

—¿Su marido fue liberado, finalmente, gracias a la intervención de la justicia?

—No, no fue liberado, sino que fue expulsado del país.

—¿Cómo se logró esa expulsión?

—Con la ayuda de Dición en Chile. Siempre el objetivo era denunciar lo que estaba ocurriendo (nueva objeción de la defensa).

—Acerquémonos a los días de septiembre de 1976. ¿Qué hizo su marido el 11 de septiembre en Nueva York?

—Concurrió al Madison Square Garden, para hablar en un acto de conmemoración del golpe militar de 1973.

—¿Qué supo en esa oportunidad?

—Reporteros le informaron que la Junta le había quitado la nacionalidad.

—¿Qué ocurrió después? ¿Cómo supo oficialmente que se le quitaba la nacionalidad?

—No llegó a saberlo, dos días después de que fue asesinado recibimos la copia del Diario Oficial de Chile con el decreto que le quitaba la nacionalidad (aquí se produce una demora destinada a explicar al juez y al jurado qué es el Diario Oficial de Chile).

—¿Qué hizo Orlando Letelier el 20 de septiembre de 1976?

—Mi esposo me dejó ir a comer con los Moffitt, que desde que llegamos a Estados Unidos, habían dado todo su apoyo a Orlando.

—¿Se volvieron a ver al día siguiente?

—Los Moffitt llegaron a pasa a buscar a Orlando. Se fueron en su auto debido a que el de los Moffitt tenía problemas. Nosotros quedamos de vernos a la hora de almuerzo.

—¿Y lo volvió a ver?

—No lo volví a ver. Fue asesinado.

—¿Cómo lo supo?

—Recibí un llamado de la secretaria de Orlando. Me dijo que había ocurrido un accidente y que fuera al hospital de Washington. Al llegar vi mucha gente y me di cuenta por sus caras de que algo horrible había pasado (objeción de la defensa).

—¿Qué le dijeron?

—Después me dijeron que Orlando estaba muerto...

En esta parte del interrogatorio se suspendió la sesión de la Corte, para continuar tratando el caso del maletín de Letelier. Esta mañana continuaba el interrogatorio.

fumando fuera de ella— a la espera de que comenzara la sesión de la corte. En ese lapso, los familiares de los detenidos anticastristas pudieron acercarse a ellos para saludarlos desde el cierre de madera que separa al público del sector donde se encuentran acusados, acusadores, jueces y funcionarios judiciales. Entre los que saludaban estaban las hijas de Alvin Ross, Leyla, de 11, y Ana, de 24, casada. La menor se acercó lo más posible a su padre y le envió saludos a través de la barrera. Alvin Ross le envió un beso a la vez que le decía que le enviaría una carta.

Afuera en el pasillo los dibujantes aprovechaban de hacer el retrato de Isabel Letelier que esperaba su turno para testificar mientras sus seguidores —entre ellos varios exiliados chilenos—, miraban con malos ojos a los periodistas que habían llegado a Washington desde Santiago.

A todo esto, en el interior de la sala de la Corte, el juez Parker y los abogados Larry Dubin, Oscar González Suárez y Paul Goldberger —de la defensa— y Eugene Propper, Lawrence Barchella y Diane Kelly —los fiscales— analizaban el asunto del maletín de Letelier.

La defensa había señalado que el contenido de ese maletín —pese a ser conocido en parte— era fundamental para los alegatos en favor de los acusados. El Gobierno de los Estados Unidos se había negado terminantemente a entregar a la defensa el contenido del maletín. Sin embargo, en la mañana de ayer y posteriormente en la tarde, se determinó una traducción "neutral" de los documentos que estaban en español para que presentará nuevos testigos: la esposa de Huberto Los, el intelectual cubano torturado y encarcelado por Fidel Castro, y a Humberto Medrano, líder de la resistencia cubana que organizó el canje de prisioneros entre ese país y Estados Unidos.

Por su parte, se sabe que el Fiscal Eugene Propper presentará como una de sus testigos sorpresa a Rolando Otero. Se trata de un cubano anticastrista que fue detenido en Chile y entregado al gobierno de los Estados Unidos, al que ahora se utiliza como testigo contra Chile para probar que el Gobierno, a través de la DINA, fue el que ordenó el asesinato de Orlando Letelier.

RELATO Y OBJECIONES

■ Respecto a la testificación de Isabel Letelier, estuvo plagada de objeciones, debido a sus comentarios contra el gobierno chileno. Esto fue lo que ella alcanzó a declarar ayer hasta que la Corte fue declarada en receso:

Isabel Letelier señaló que había vivido 20 años con su esposo, que tenía 4 hijos, que la primera vez que habían llegado a Estados Unidos fue en 1960, para trabajar con el BID. Permanecieron 10 años hasta 1970 en Washington. En enero de 1971, Letelier fue nombrado por Allende Embajador de Chile en Estados Unidos, cargo en el que permaneció hasta mayo de 1973. Posteriormente, Letelier fue nombrado Canciller, en seguida Ministro del Interior y, finalmente, a pocos días del golpe, Ministro de Defensa.

Cabe señalar que en cada pausa que le daban las conversaciones entre los abogados de la defensa y

"Lo vi esa mañana del 11 por última vez y no volví a verlo hasta febrero de 1974, cuando me permitieron visitarlo en un hospital de Punta Arenas. Había estado en la Isla Dawson. Estuve tres meses sin saber qué había ocurrido con Orlando".

—¿Qué hizo usted para conocer lo ocurrido a su esposo?

"Fui donde el general Pinochet, que había tomado el mando de la Junta y le pregunté dónde estaba Orlando. Mi familia sentía una gran ansiedad por la ausencia de Orlando".

En este momento interviene el juez Barrington Parker:

—Señora, cuando usted responda no exprese los sentimientos personales de usted o de su familia. Conteste exactamente lo que se le pregunta.

En seguida continuó en interrogatorio el Fiscal Propper:

—¿Qué ocurrió después con Orlando Letelier?

"De Dawson fue trasladado a la Academia de Guerra Aérea de Santiago y posteriormente al campo de concentración de Ritoque.

—¿Qué cargos le hicieron las autoridades militares a Orlando Letelier para mantenerlo detenido?

—Fue hecho prisionero sin cargo alguno.

—¿Usted inició alguna acción judicial para lograr su libertad?

—Tomamos un abogado que nunca pudo ver a mi esposo. También internacionalmente comenzó un movimiento para ayudarnos.

En este momento los abogados defensores presentaron una nueva objeción.

y muy cercano a [illegible]amente. ¡Estaba horrible! [nueva objeción de la defensa y recomendación del juez de no hacer comentarios].

—¿Su marido fue liberado, finalmente, gracias a la intervención de la justicia?

—No, no fue liberado, sino que fue expulsado del país.

—¿Cómo se logró esa expulsión?

—Con la ayuda de Diego Arria, quien lo llevó a Venezuela el 11 de septiembre de 1974. Después, en 1975, nos trasladamos a Estados Unidos; aquí trabajó contratado por el Instituto de Estudios Políticos de la Universidad de Washington.

—¿Sobre qué hablaba su marido en las conferencias?

—Comenzó a hablar sobre las violaciones de los derechos humanos y las pésimas condiciones de los pobres en Chile.

—¿Qué era lo que más criticaba Orlando Letelier?

—Criticó el bombardeo de La Moneda; el bombardeo de sectores populares; el hecho de que en Chile hubiera 80 mil prisioneros políticos; el cierre del Congreso y la prohibición de realizar elecciones presidenciales, parlamentarias, municipales, en sindicatos y de todo tipo. Criticó también que todos los cargos comenzarán a ser ocupados por militares.

—¿Dónde decía todo esto su esposo?

—Era invitado a hablar en universidades sobre los derechos humanos en Chile. Le hablaba a amigos, a periodistas, a parlamentarios, a todo el que quisiera oirlo. Iba a donde lo invitaran.

—¿Tenía contactos con parlamentarios norteamericanos?

—Con quienes más tenía contacto era con Kennedy, Mc Govern, Humphrey, Church y otros. Siempre les hablaba sobre la situa-

Diversiones de verano

■ A) Problema de ingenio:

Dos hombres caminan de norte a sur por una calle que corre de oriente a poniente. En la mitad del trayecto, el mayor de los hombres, de apellido Zárate, le propone a su acompañante, a quien le dicen "el pelao", que hagan cinco veces y media igual recorrido, pero con un solo pie. "El pelao" acepta esa proposición, pero la condiciona a que después las vuelvan a hacer con el otro pie. Conforme, le replica Zárate. Cuando llevan cuatro vueltas con el primer pie, la señora de este último, Olivia Carmona de Zárate, lo llama a almorzar (los Zárate viven en esa calle, mientras la familia del "pelao" se domicilia en la siguiente hacia el poniente y que va de sur a norte). Los dos amigos detienen la prueba por 23 minutos, justo lo que demoró el almuerzo, y la reanudan, pero saltándose, por olvido, la quinta vuelta inicial. Cuando iban en la tercera de las vueltas que propuso "el pelao", éste se tropieza y gatea lo que le resta. Por esta circunstancia, ambos deciden repetir todas las vueltas, pero ahora con los dos pies juntos. PREGUNTAS: a) ¿Cómo se llama la señora del "pelao"; b) ¿Por qué no se dice nunca el nombre de Zárate?; y c) ¿A qué hora se sirven las once los Zárate?

Que, a lo menos en dos ocasiones, recuerda perfectamente, mientras ella conversaba con MARIANA CALLEJAS, TOWNLEY, cerca de ellas, intervenía ocasionalmente en las conversaciones propias de mujeres mientras manipulaba con cédulas o carnets de identidad o de manejar, que parecía poseer en gran cantidad. Recuerda que en una de esas dos oportunidades pregunt a MICHAEL TOWNLEY "qué hacía", y que éste se limitó a decirle que "confeccionaba carnets por si acaso", a lo que la declarante no le dió mayor importancia, por creer que se trataba de una broma, pero lo vió colocandole timbres de goma de los mismos qu ella sabía que Townley hacía, pues tenía de diversos tipos. Dos Agentes del FBI Llevan a Townley

- Fiscal Propper ha pedido, en EE. UU., que no se le conceda libertad bajo fianza

GUAYAQUIL 8 (UPI).— El ciudadano norteamericano Michael Vernon Townley Welch, presunto implicado en el asesinato del ex Canciller chileno Orlando Letelier, pasó esta tarde por Guayaquil con rumbo a Estados Unidos.

Townley fue deportado de Chile, donde residía, escalando por la secretaria chilena Silvia Rivera Callejas Townley, a bordo de un avión de Ecuatoriana de Aviación, que desde de Santiago a las 11 de la mañana y llegó aquí a las 2.45 hora local, partiendo a las 3.30 P.M. con rumbo a Quito-Panamá-Nueva York.

Townley, de 35 años de edad, vestía blue jeans, camisa a cuadros y un buzo azul. Estaba custodiado por dos agentes de la Policía Federal de Investigaciones (FBI) de los Estados Unidos, que se mantenían apartados.

El deportado ingresó una de las últimas aviones del avión, inmediatamente pudo conversar con los periodistas.

Estrictas medidas de seguridad se tomaron aquí a la llegada del avión, que se posó en el punto más alejado del terminal, estando presentes dos miembros del Consulado norteamericano, aparte de agentes de seguridad nacionales y paraseidistas militares.

WASHINGTON, 8 (AP).— La decisión del Gobierno chileno de entregar a la justicia norteamericana a Michael W. Townley, parecería destinada a aplacar la reacción del asesinato del ex Canciller chileno, Orlando Letelier.

El fiscal del caso, Eugene Propper, así como la oficina Buro Federal de Investigaciones (FBI), declinaron formular comentarios sobre la decisión chilena, pero fuentes allegadas a la investigación dijeron que esta fué por completa sorpresa a Townley.

El especialista electrónico de la desaparecida dirección de policía de ese país (DINA), fue conducido hoy en un automóvil hasta el pie de un reactor de la línea Ecuatoriana de Aviación, que partió de Santiago para arribar esta noche con destino a Nueva York.

Las abogadas de Townley, que llegó de 34 años a Chile en 1972, trataron de detener la entrega de su cliente, to-

NOMBRE: MANUEL CONTRERAS SEPULVEDA

NACIONALIDAD: CHILENO

PROFESION: GENERAL DE BRIGADA

ESTADO CIVIL: CASADO

DOMICILIO: PRINCIPE DE GALEZ N.° 7045

CARNET: No 56693 de SAN ANTONIO RUN: 2.354.882-8

QUIEN DECLARA BAJO JURAMENTO Y EXPONE QUE: los documentos que a continuación se indican, acompañados como prueba documental por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos en la petición de extradición del General Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Coronel Pedro Espinoza Bravo y el Capitán Armando Fernández Larios son falsos, por cuanto contienen falsificaciones documentarias, que en cada caso se señalan :

1.- La prueba No. 47, consistente en un supuesto salvoconducto de Juan András Wilson Silva, que tiene las siguientes falsificaciones :

a.- Falta el timbre "Válido en todo el país D.I.N.A. " b.- En profesión o actividad dice " Secretaría General de Gobierno" debiendo decir " Funcionario de DINA" c.- En " con el objeto de " dice " cumplir misiones de servicios especiales ", debiendo decir " Comisión de Servicios".

d.- El timbre redondo dice " Ejército de Chile" debiendo decir "República de Chile" y en su parte inferior que no aparece porque fue intencionadamente no colocada (se colocó la mitad del timbre), debe decir " D.I.N.A."

e.- La firma es falsificada y no corresponde a la del suscrito.

f.- El timbre que aparece con el nombre "Manuel Contreras S., - Coronel Director de DINA", es desproporcionado y jamás fué empleado en DINA y corresponde a la fábrica de timbres que

UNCLASSIFIED

Townley mantenía en su casa.

g. El domicilio que aparece es " Borneo 3599, La Reina, Santiago" debiendo decir "Belgrado 11" como siempre se colocó en todos los salvoconductos de DINA para evitar que se conociera el domicilio de los funcionarios.

2.- La prueba No. 99, consistente en un supuesto salvoconducto de ANA LUISA PIZARRO AVILES, correspondiente al año 1976, el cual tiene las siguientes falsificaciones :

a.- El timbre redondo dice " Secretaría General de Gobierno", debnendo decir "República de Chile, DINA".

b.- La firma del suscrito es falsificada .

c.- Falta timbre "Válido en todo el país D.I.N.A. "

3.- La prueba No. 100, consistente en un supuesto salvoconducto de Ana Pizarro , para el año 1977:

a.- La firma del suscrito es falsificada.

b.- Todos los salvoconductos de 1977 de DINA fueron cambiados a partir de Agosto de 1977 debido que pasó a llamarse C.N.I.

4.- La prueba No. 105, consistente en una supuesta tarjeta de Identidad del C.N.I., contiene las siguientes falsificaciones :

a.- Ana Pizarro Avilés ó Mariana Callejas, nunca fué agente, Auxiliar civil o informante de DINA y nada prueba en ese sentido con esta tarjeta que es del C.N.I.

b.- La firma del suscrito es falsificada

c.- Los Auxiliares civiles de C.N.I. al igual que los de DINA, cuando esta existió, tenían su tarjeta de identificación con su nombre verdadero y no con nombre supuesto, luego esta tarjeta es absolutamente falsificada, ya que en última instancia debió decir "Mariana Callejas Honores" y no Ana Pizarro A.

Declara asimismo que la mejor prueba de que los salvoconductos de Juan Andrés Wilson y Ana Pizarro Avilés son falsificados está en el hecho de que los salvoconductos eran permanentemente cambiados varias veces al año y para poder obtener uno nuevo debía entregarse el antiguo previamente.

Previa lectura, se ratificó y firmó conjuntamente con el notario que autoriza.

Se Cierra el Caso Del Canal Cinco

Detenidos Recobran la Libertad

Undurraga y Etchepare Abandonan la Cárcel

La extensión a Concepción de un canal pluralista de TV, el montaje de equipos de interferencia, el robo de dichos equipos y la muerte de un pintor fueron los ingredientes de un caso que conmovió a Chile. La más despiadada campaña orquestada desató la UP para silenciar una voz libre, utilizando de los más canallescos medios, que incluyeron la calumnia y la injuria contra el padre Raúl Hasbún, y demás ejecutivos de televisión de la UC.

Después de largos meses de prisión, declarados reos como cómplices en el bullado proceso del llamado "Caso del Canal Cinco de Televisión", ayer recuperaron su libertad condicional, bajo fianza de diez mil escudos cada uno, Rafael Undurraga y Juan Carlos Etchepare, el primero detenido en Santiago por detectives penquistas. El otro se entregó voluntariamente a la justicia, luego de haberse mantenido oculto por muchos días en el entretecho de su domicilio, también en la capital.

LA HISTORIA

La historia se remonta al mes de febrero pasado, cuando Canal 5 de Televisión de la Corporación de la Universidad Católica, pese a todas las trabas que le pusieron los más connotados personajes del depuesto régimen de la Unidad Popular, inició sus transmisiones experimentales en Concepción. Fue entonces cuando comenzaron a producirse interferencias en la señal, que fueron denunciadas a la Delegación Zonal de la Dirección de Servicios Eléctricos, Gas y Telecomunicaciones, en calle Lincoyán Nº 595. Esto vino a confirmar que las interferencias se hacían por orden del depuesto régimen, por intervención directa de Daniel Vergara, hoy con [illegible] ferado de la Dalcahue.

La interferencia, en pleno período electoral, [illegible] paldada junto con sus mismos. La toca le había sido cubierta con [illegible] adhesiva, de siete centímetros de ancho, con lo que se le había embarrilado prácticamente la parte comprendida bajo las fosas nasales y la parte superior de la garganta. Esto le había provocado [illegible] muerte. La misma mañana de horas de la madrugada del lunes 19, distas del pasquín directamente de la Dirección General de Investigaciones.

El Pleno de la Corte de Apelaciones ante la gravedad de la situación y para dar mayores garantías de equidad y acelerar las investigaciones del sumario designó a su integrante Eleodoro Ortiz Sepúlveda, en visita extraordinaria en el Primer Juzgado del Crimen y para hacerse cargo del proceso.

DETENCIONES

El sábado 24 de la madrugada, antes de la designación del ministro Ortiz Sepúlveda, detectives de Investigaciones, cumpliendo órdenes dadas por el prefecto Enrique Robles, detuvo al director del Canal 5 de televisión de la Universidad Católica, Carlos de la Sotta Ibacache. También lo fuede Televisión de la Corporación de la Universidad Católica, pese a todas las trabas que le pusieron los más funestos personajes del depuesto régimen de la Unidad Popular, inició sus transmisiones experimentales en Concepción. Incluso en aquella oportunidad elementos extremistas trataron de apoderarse del gimnasio techado de Talcahuano, con el evidente propósito de destruir la antena levantada allí para las transmisiones del Canal Católico en esta zona. Como los estudiantes defendieron el local, impidiendo la acción de los vándalos, el entonces alcalde socialista porteño, Ramón Carrasco —uno de los turistas en la isla Quiriquina— ordenó retirar los tendidos eléctricos que suministraban la energía al gimnasio y a las instalaciones de la Sede de la U. Católica. Adujo que estas instalaciones se habían hecho provisionalmente y que debían sacarse, pues significaban un peligro.

Sólo la protesta pública retuvo a los personeros del depuesto régimen en otras intentonas y de esta forma el Canal Cinco volvió al aire y a las pantallas de televisión de la zona. Sin embargo, a poco de ocurrir esto, se observó que las emisiones que, aunque experimentales, llegaban casi normalmente a los televidentes, sufrían deterioro y ya no eran claras ni las imágenes ni el audio.

INTERFERENCIAS

Un informe técnico, ordenado por los ejecutivos del Canal, permitieron establecer que las emisiones estaban siendo interferidas. Luego se descubrió una extraña antena que emergía por sobre los techos, desde las dependencias interiores de las oficinas ocupadas por la De-[illegible] vino a confirmar que las interferencias se hacían por orden del depuesto regimen, por intervención directa de Daniel Vergara, hombre [illegible] o forzado [illegible] la Dawson.

La interferencia, en pleno período electoral, el que debía culminar el domingo cuatro de marzo, se hizo con el evidente propósito de restar a la oposición un valioso medio de comunicación de masas, que no era adicto a la Unidad Popular. Sorpresivamente la interferencia desapareció de las pantallas la tarde del sábado 17 de marzo. El lunes el delegado zonal de los Servicios Eléctricos denunció a la Policía el robo de un delicado instrumental que se mantenía en una de las dependencias interiores de esas oficinas. Luego se precisó qué se trataba de dos delicados instrumentos, fabricados por técnicos de Canal 7 de Televisión y por orden expresa del Gobierno para ser traídos a Concepción y obstruir las emisiones del Canal Católico. Uno de ellos había sufrido un desperfecto y de allí que no hubiese podido ocupar el sábado 17

UN CRIMEN

El caso sufrió un vuelco espectacular cuando, el martes veinte, uno de sus hermanos, extrañado por no tener informaciones del pintor de brocha gorda Jorge Tomás Henríquez González, de 35 años de edad, llegó hasta la casa de dos plantas que éste ocupaba ilegalmente, en calle Freire Nº 364, casi en la esquina con Lincoyán, encontrándolo muerto.

El infortunado pintor fue encontrado en una dependencia del segundo piso, donde tenía su dormitorio. Estaba en ropas menores, tirado en el piso y con las piernas flectadas hacia arriba y [illegible] es-[illegible] contusiones de ancho, con lo que se le había embarrilado prácticamente la parte comprendida bajo las fosas nasales y la parte superior de la garganta. Esto le había provocado la muerte. La misma databa de horas de la madrugada del lunes 19.

De inmediato el robo de los aparatos fue relacionado con la muerte del pintor. Esto porque a través de una ventana interior del primer piso de la casa de Freire 348, se tenía acceso inmediato a un pequeño patio donde estaba la sospechosa y extraña antena y a las dependencias donde se mantenían los instrumentos desaparecidos.

"CRIMEN POLITICO"

Al suceso se le dio carácter político y los diarios adictos al depuesto régimen, se lanzaron en una orquestada campaña para mezclar en el hecho a personas que, como ha quedado probado en las investigaciones del proceso, no tenían ninguna vinculación al crimen. Llamó la atención la actitud asumida aquí en Concepción por el entonces prefecto de Investigaciones, Enrique Robles Villalobos, que cerró las fuentes de información a los periodistas durante dos días, mientras que en Santiago, el comunista Daniel Vergara, que las oficinas de subsecretario del Interior, proclamara a los cuatro vientos el "crimen político" cometido por elementos de la oposición.

El diario "Puro Chile", financiado por capitales comunistas, también dedicó en esta campaña y con verdadera saña descargó su artillería contra el [illegible] Raúl Rasbún, acusándolo de ser el autor intelectual del crimen. La información la recibían los periodi-designación del ministro Ortiz Sepúlveda, detectives de Investigaciones, cumpliendo órdenes dadas por el prefecto Enrique Robles, detuvo al director del Canal 5 de televisión de la Universidad Católica, Carlos de la Sotta Ibacache. También lo fueron otras personas. Sin observar disposiciones contenidas en el Código Penal, los detenidos no fueron puestos a disposición del tribunal competente en la primera audiencia, como debía haberse hecho el mismo día sábado por la mañana. Se les mantuvo estrictamente incomunicados hasta el lunes 26 por la mañana. Sólo entonces fueron llevados al Primer Juzgado. Entre ellos se contaba María Inés Fuller, hija de la propietaria de la casa ocupada por la Dirección de Servicios Eléctricos y de la de Freire 348, colindante con la anterior, y su esposo, un hombre prácticamente inválido. Se les acusaba de tener responsabilidades, de una u otra manera, en el robo de los instrumentos y del crimen del pintor de brocha gorda.

Luego de soportar días de incomunicación, finalmente la Primera Sala de la Corte de Apelaciones acogió la apelación de los abogados defensores y revocó el auto de reo dictado contra Carlos de la Sotta y María Inés Fuller, dejándolos en libertad incondicional.

Después de muchas semanas se logró comprobar que el robo había sido perpetrado por un comando extremista, que había actuado independientemente encabezado por un individuo norteamericano que huyó del país. Pero también había cómplices. Dos de ellos fueron detenidos y declarados reos por el ministro Eleodoro Ortiz. Se trata de Rafael Undurraga y Juan Carlos Etchepare, que ayer recuperaron su libertad bajo fianza, que les fue concedida por la Primera Sala de la Corte de Apelaciones.

Soy malo para las fechas, pero puede que coincidan; no estoy seguro".

"Los equipos electrónicos eran para protección. De seguimiento; como así. Mire no sé, porque no entiendo de electrónica", aclaró.

Respecto de la expulsión misma señaló: "Sólo me he enterado recién hace diez minutos, aquí, en el Cuartel de Investigaciones, que mi esposo fue expulsado del país".

"El se presentó voluntariamente ayer para ir a declarar a Concepción. Tenía un auto listo y había firmado el cambio. Yo iba a viajar a Concepción el fin de semana para llevarlo yo. Vine aquí sin ningún equipaje".

RECURSO DE RECLAMACION

Justo en los momentos en que Founley abandonaba el país, su abogado Manuel Acuña presentó un recurso de reclamación ante la Corte Suprema de Justicia, documento que especifica, según señaló, que no había expirado el plazo de 24 horas para la apelación de la medida adoptada por el

Santiago, 6 de Abril de 1978

Señor Ministro:

El Gobierno de los Estados Unidos de América, por intermedio del suscrito, desea poner en conocimiento de V.E. los siguientes hechos acerca del ciudadano norteamericano MICHAEL TOWNOEY WELCH, actualmente en Chile.

1.- Según informaciones obtenidas por el Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.), en el mes de Marzo de 1973 un Tribunal de la ciudad de Concepción Chile, despachó una órden de detención contra el mencionado MICHAEL ERNON TOWNLEY.

2.- Con posterioridad al despacho de dicha órden, llego a conocimiento del F.B.I. que TOWNLEY había huído de Chile a los Estados Unidos, país done en forma ilegal solicitó pasaporte bajo el nombre fingido de KENNETH WILLIAM ENYART, con fecha 4 de Octubre de 1973. el 5 de Octubre de 1973 se le otorgó un pasaporte norteamericano ordinario N° 2287732 , bajo el referido nombre de KENNETH WILLIAM ENYART.

3.- El FBI. tuvo conocmiento de que posteriormente el referido TOWNLEY hizo uso del pasaporte obtenido en forma ilegitima a nombre de KENNETH WILLIAM ENYART, para ingresar ilegalmente a Chile. Una orden de detención sera expedida en breve contra el mencionado YOWNLEY, por el delito de haber obtenido ilegal yfraudulentamente un pasaport norteamericano bajo el falso nomnre de KENNETH WILLIAM ENYART.

4.- Sin perjuicio de lo anterior, con fecha 28 de marzo 1978 se despacho una orden de detención por el Tribunal Distrital de los Estados Unidos para el Distrito de Columbia, contra el mencionado MICHAEL TOWNLEY. Se acompaña a la presente una copia literal fidedigna de la orden de detencion pendiente.

"Gobierno de USA Presionará a Chile para Lograr mi Entrega"

- El ataque del Gobierno norteamericano no es en contra mía, sino que en contra del Gobierno de Chile".
- "Falsificarán pruebas si es necesario para lograr mi retorno a Estados Unidos".
- "Estoy tranquilo a pesar de que hay problemas por venir".

El ciudadano norteamericano Michael Townley, quien aparece en Estados Unidos vinculado con la investigación por el asesinato de Orlando Letelier y su secretaria, manifestó en la noche del jueves "su temor de que el Gobierno norteamericano presione a Chile para obtener su extradición".

Townley, en su casa de Lo Curro, manifestó "que el ataque a mi persona por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos no es personal, sino que un certero ataque al Gobierno de Chile". Al consultarle la posibilidad de que la justicia norteamericana pidiera su extradición contestó: "Por la vía jurídica no [illegible]

Por último —enfatizó— no correspondería una extradición contra mi persona, por tratarse de algo eminentemente político".

PRESIONES

Posteriormente, Michael Townley señaló: "Seguramente el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos va a presionar a Chile mediante amenazas para lograr una entrega directa de mi persona".

Sin embargo, sobre este mismo punto, Townley expresó que confiaba en el Gobierno chileno en el sentido de que no se dejaría presionar. "Actualmente —dijo— hay muchos rumores que esto ocurra. He recibido llamadas de personas en tal sentido y son totalmente confiables".

Más adelante, al consultarle a Michael Townley por la impresión que tenía sobre la justicia chilena, manifestó "que tiene una excelente opinión. La justicia chilena —acotó— tiene un bien ganado prestigio desde hace muchos años y confío plenamente en ella. La justicia chilena sabrá responder ante esta situación".

También enfatizó "que él respondería solamente ante los tribunales chilenos préguntarle por su estado de ánimo, dijo: "Estoy tranquilo, a pesar de que hay problemas por venir, los voy a afrontar con esta misma tranquilidad".

Townley también anunció en la noche del jueves, que ayer ofrecería una conferencia de prensa con algunos medios de comunicación, previa proceso que se sigue en la justicia militar y el exhorto de la justicia norteamericana. "Sólo se tocarán aspectos de mi vida particular", declaró.

Respecto a las declaraciones que aparecen en esta información, estaban contenidas en un comunicado que él había redactado con anterioridad al

"Jamás Lograrán Extradición de Townley"

- "Jurídicamente no tienen pruebas y sólo se basan en acusaciones políticas".
- "Mi misión como abogado de Townley en la tramitación del exhorto, concluyó".
- "Townley se presentará ante la justicia de Concepción por caso de Canal 5, cuando sea requerido".

El abogado Manuel Acuña, quien tiene a su cargo la defensa de Michael Townley, que aparece vinculado al caso Letelier, en Estados Unidos, insistió en la mañana de ayer, que "Townley temía que el Gobierno norteamericano ejerciera presiones sobre Chile para que pudiera ser trasladado a USA, donde se ventila una investigación.

El abogado Manuel Acuña dijo que jamás Estados Unidos sobre bases jurídicas y legales obtendrá la extradición de Townley.

Esta misma aseveración la había formulado Michael Townley en la noche del jueves, en su casa de Lo Curro, durante el transcurso de una declaración, que hizo entrega a periodistas de algunos medios de información.

Manuel Acuña expresó ayer "que Townley está preocupado y acongojado por ser él el causante de que Estados Unidos pudiera ejercer presión sobre Chile para los efectos de que pudiera ser trasladado a Norteamérica, fuera de todas las reglas y normas jurídicas que rigen la extradición. Creo que la preocupación de Townley —añadió Acuña— es infundada, ya que todos sabemos que nuestro Gobierno actúa siempre sobre bases jurídicas y no se dejará presionar bajo ningún punto de vista".

Más adelante, el profesional declaró "que su misión como abogado de Michael Townley en la tramitación del exhorto norteamericano había concluido luego que se efectuara el diligenciamiento del mismo. Sin embargo —acotó—, sigo como abogado para los efectos del proceso que hay en la Fiscalía ad hoc, y es posible que en el futuro se contraten mis servicios ante la posibilidad que Estados Unidos pudiera solicitar la extradición de Townley".

Luego Acuña enfatizó, "que jamás por la vía de las disposiciones legales que rigen la extradición Townley podría ser llevado a los Estados Unidos, ya que todas las imputaciones que se pudieran hacer en su contra son de carácter político, y es claro que en las extradiciones no se pueden tomar estos antecedentes como base. No hay ninguna prueba que revista carácter de delito común para que Norteamérica logre su objetivo", acotó.

Finalmente, Manuel Acuña declaró que en lo que respecta al proceso por el caso de Canal 5, de Concepción, que fue ordenado reabrir por la Corte de Apelaciones de esa ciudad, y donde Townley se encuentra declarado reo en rebeldía y con una orden de aprehensión pendiente, "seguramente se contratarán los servicios de un abogado de Concepción, para que asuma la defensa si es necesario".

Sobre este mismo punto el abogado dijo "que Townley se presentaría ante los tribunales de Concepción en el momento que sea requerido por éstos. No tiene ningún problema en hacerlo", agregó.

Aclaran Muerte del Pintor

CONCEPCION.—"Sólo me he impuesto a través de la prensa de la decisión de la Corte de reabrir el fallo con la consiguiente orden de ubicación del señor Townley, y por mi parte sólo confío en que él se presentará a declarar".

Así señaló el abogado Wladi Troncoso, quien en 1972 actuó por la parte querellante en relación a la muerte del pintor de brocha gorda Jorge Tomás Henríquez González, quien pereció luego de que un grupo de personas ingresara a las dependencias de Servicios Eléctricos para sustraer un aparato que interfería las transmisiones del Canal 5 de TV, acusado de operar ilícitamente por el Gobierno de esa época.

"Por el momento no puedo hacer mayores declaraciones hasta que efectivamente se reabra el proceso", agregó el informante, quien asimismo señaló que una vez que la causa vuelva a ser reactivada por los tribunales pedirá el esclarecimiento de la muerte del obrero Manríquez.

"Pienso que Townley tuvo algún grado de responsabilidad en esa situación, aunque no puedo decir cual, ya que él hasta aquí nunca ha declarado", manifestó Troncoso.

Expresó por otro lado que él continuará actuando por mandato de una hija natural del pintor, Elizabeth Henríquez Fontana, quien, se sostiene, se habría entrevistado varias veces con el abogado después que se supiera la noticia de la aparición de Townley residiendo en Santiago, hace poco más de un mes, a raíz de la petición del exhorto de la Corte Distrital de Columbia, Estados Unidos, en relación al caso Letelier.

Decretada Expulsión De Michael Townley

● Anuncio lo hizo anoche Ministro Secretario General de Gobierno, general René Vidal

El Ministro Secretario General de Gobierno, general René Vidal, dio a conocer anoche en su despacho, a los directores y representantes de medios de comunicación, que el Gobierno había decretado la expulsión del ciudadano norteamericano Michael Vernon Townley, por ingreso ilegal al país. El Secretario de Estado dio a conocer a los periodistas el texto del decreto expulsatorio: "Con esta fecha, el Ministerio del Interior dispuso mediante el Decreto N.o 290 la expulsión del país del ciudadano norteamericano Michael Vernon Townley, por haber infringido las disposiciones del Decreto Ley N.o 1094, de 15 de julio de 1975, que legisló sobre la entrada, residencia y salida de extranjeros. La resolución fue notificada al señor Townley por efectivos del Servicio de Investigaciones hoy 7 de abril de 1978".

"El procedimiento de expulsión se ha ceñido a las disposiciones legales vigentes sobre esta materia".

SITUACION ACTUAL DE TOWNLEY

Extraoficialmente se supo que Michael Townley se encontraría en estos momentos detenido, mientras se cumple el plazo para cumplir la disposición. No se sabe a qué país será expulsado, ya que, según la disposición, el inculpado deberá decidir su lugar de destino. Se sabe, además, que el plazo para aplicar la medida sería de 24 horas, ya que éste podría apelar de ella ante los Tribunales.

VERSIÓN DE ABOGADO

A las 19.30 horas de anoche el Prefecto de Investigaciones del Area Metropolitana, Juan Salinas, notificó al ciudadano norteamericano Michael Townley que el Ministerio del Interior, en virtud del Decreto 290, había determinado expulsarlo.

La noticia fue dada a conocer a "Las Ultimas Noticias" por el abogado de Townley, Manuel Acuña.

Este señaló que el decreto respectivo tenía sus bases en los artículos 71, 81, 84, 89 y 90 del decreto ley 1.094.

Estos artículos señalan en sus partes pertinentes que Townley es expulsado del país por no tener sus papeles y su documentación en regla, lo que significaba estar ilegalmente en Chile.

Michael Townley, según su abogado, permaneció hasta las últimas horas de anoche en el Cuartel de Investigaciones en calidad de retenido a la espera de que se diera cumplimiento a la orden de expulsión.

Manuel Acuña manifestó que Townley se había presentado voluntariamente al Cuartel de Investigaciones en la tarde de ayer y luego que confirmara que existía una orden de aprehensión en su contra emanada del Primer Juzgado del Crimen de Concepción, donde se sustancia un proceso por robo y homicidio a raíz de la destrucción de equipos de Servicios Eléctricos de esa ciudad.

Townley, dijo el abogado Acuña, llegó hasta investigaciones con el objeto de presentarse ante el Tribunal de Concepción y su intención era la de confesar su participación en los hechos. Sin embargo, en las últimas horas de la tarde de ayer se le notificó de este decreto de expulsión.

Al preguntarle al abogado si antes de ser expulsado Townley sería puesto a disposición del tribunal penquista: "Eso es lo que él espera ya que existe una orden de aprehensión pendiente en su contra, de un tribunal chileno. Sin embargo, no sabemos hasta el momento qué va a ocurrir".

Finalmente, al señalarle al abogado Acuña si en el caso que Townley fuese expulsado de inmediato, a dónde se dirigiría, declaró que presumiblemente sería puesto a disposición de la Corte Distrital de Columbia.

Michael Townley en los últimos días debió declarar en un exhorto procedente de ese tribunal norteamericano a raíz de su presunta vinculación con la investigación que se sigue en Estados Unidos por el asesinato de Orlando Letelier.

También debió declarar en un proceso que se sustancia en la Fiscalía Militar ad hoc por la falsificación de pasaportes oficiales.

DECLARACION JURADA

L.Carter Cornick, Jr. y Robert Scherrer, Agentes Especiales de la Oficina Federal de Investigaciones (FBI) por la presente declaran lo siguiente bajo juramento:

Estuvimos presentes en el Recinto de Detenciones de la Marina de los Estados Unidos en Quantico, Virginia, en la tarde del 14 de Abril de 1978, y hablamos con Michael Vernon Townley, quien estaba detenido en ese lugar. Townley nos informó que el, o alrededor del 12 de Abril de 1978 se comunicó telefónicamente con el General de Brigada Héctor Orozco Sepúlveda en el Ministerio de Defensa, Santiago, Chile. Townley nos dijo que el General Orozco le informó que viajaría a Washington, D.C. en un futuro cercano con el fin de conferenciar con Townley sobre el asesinato de Orlando Letelier.

Townley solicitó y obtuvo nuestro permiso para telefonear al General Orozco al Ministerio de Defensa en Santiago al número telefónico 64-472. El llamado al General Orozco fue realizado a través de la mesa conmutadora de la Jefatura del FBI a pedido del Agente Especial Scherrer. Estuvimos presentes mientras Townley hablaba por teléfono ro este fue expulsado oficialmente por haber infringido las leyes sobre tráfico.

Las fuentes dicen que Townley fue arrestado a las 21 horas de anoche en la capital chilena, sobre la base de un pedido de captura emitido el 25 de marzo pasado por el juez William B. Bryant a solicitud de Propper.

La decisión de entregar a Townley era esperada anteayer en su oportunidad pública. Las fuentes dijeron que su entrega debía ser secreta y que no se habían contemplado los anuncios hasta no concluir los trámites legales del cambio de jurisdicción del acusado.

Esos planes contemplaban que inmediatamente después de su detención Townley sería puesto bajo la custodia del FBI en un avión que debía haber partido anoche hacia Miami donde se iba a efectuar el primer trámite legal de su detención final.

Se dice que Propper había logrado esos acuerdos durante su viaje de la semana pasada a Santiago, con el agente del FBI Carter Cornick.

Propper dejó ayer a Cornick a cargo del caso, pero no hizo comentarios sobre el mismo.

Al mismo tiempo, un vocero del Departamento de Estado dijo que no había tenido conocimiento de ningún pedido de extradición de Townley.

Al parecer surgió anteanoche, Townley debe ser presentado ante un juez federal que deberá decidir si corresponde su detención, pero se sabe que Propper ha solicitado se le conceda la libertad bajo fianza.

Las fuentes dicen que ello puede facilitar su inmediata traslado al Distrito Judicial de Washington y que posiblemente el lunes será presentado a un tribunal local, para una segunda consideración del pedido de detención.

Luego de ello, Propper y el FBI quedarían en libertad de interrogar a Townley sobre su alegada participación en la conspiración que condujo al asesinato de Letelier en septiembre de 1976.

Gobierno Pinochet, añadió Acuña, la decisión se tomó de en el hecho de que el decreto de expulsión no puede violar la orden del Tribunal de Concepción que requería a Townley que la temporada del proceso No. 46-11, por homicidio". "La orden de detención tiene prioridad respecto de la expulsión decretada, en contra de mi defendido", añadió.

Por otra parte, Acuña dijo que una vez en Estados Unidos y en manos del FBI, será imposible que Townley regrese, y que por lo tanto, la justicia chilena perdió la oportunidad de saber qué fue la que realmente pasó en Concepción el año 1976.

Consultado acerca de las posibilidades de éxito que tenía la reclamación impuesta señaló: "Lo que resuelva la Corte Suprema no servirá de nada. Sólo presentamos el recurso de reclamación por cuestión de principios. Esto barro se humilló ayer. Creo, sin embargo, que Pinochet en el futuro podamos responder con la dignidad que merecemos a las presiones de un país más fuerte".

Sobre la presunta presencia de agentes del FBI en Puduhuel, señaló: "No sabemos cuántos había dentro del país en este momento. Sólo sabemos que no había tenido ningún tipo de información de inteligencia chilenos, que es inadmisible que estén en manos de otra país".

Finalmente, dijo: "El plazo para presentar la apelación vencía hoy (por ayer), a las 17 la horas. Debió tener ese plazo o ser notificados los recursos que se hubiesen presentado para hacer efectiva la expulsión.

El recurso que el abogado Acuña presentó ante la Corte Suprema consta de ocho fojas, a se adjuntan el acta de nacionalización del decreto de expulsión y la filiación de Townley Coleman, para acreditar el parentesco del norteamericano con esta última.

Según se informó, la Corte Suprema podrá inhibirse luego que informe al Ministerio del Interior para resolver sobre el recurso. El alto tribunal tiene un plazo de cinco días para pronunciarse sobre el procedimiento o el en lo local.

El ciudadano norteamericano, que fue vinculado por diversos medios informativos a la ex Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional (DINA), fue interrogado en varias oportunidades por un fiscal ad hoc, el general de brigada Héctor Orozco, en un proceso que sendan los tribunales militares por la utilización de los pasaportes oficiales falsificación de instrumentos públicos, y por la juez del Primer Juzgado del Crimen de Santiago, Juana González, que tramita el exhorto de la justicia de Estados Unidos. El fiscal norteamericano Eugene Propper viajó 2 veces a Santiago para el cumplimiento del exhorto.

SORPRESA

Un alto vocero del Gobierno dijo ayer a "El Mercurio", pasado el mediodía que fue una sorpresa para el Ministerio del Interior la salida del país de Michael Townley. Agregó que el temprano conocimiento de que el ciudadano norteamericano había sido entregado en el acto de Estados Unidos reunamos en las oficinas oficiales "para determinar exactamente la secuencia". Agregó que se podría entregar mañana una declaración oficial.

Townley estaba desde la tarde del viernes bajo custodia del servicio de Investigaciones.

Fue recibido por el director del Instituto Gustavo Cuevas Farren y posteriormente por el cuerpo de profesores del ICP, con los cuales departió sobre los temas indicados.

El director Cuevas expresó en la reunión con el catedrático japonés el interés de la unidad académica a su cargo para incrementar contactos con centros universitarios extranjeros, puntualizando que ya había sido propuesto, al visitar el año pasado algunos países del Lejano Oriente.

PUBLICACIONES

Con posterioridad a la visita del profesor Fukuchi, el director del ICP se refirió a dos publicaciones recientemente editadas por el: "La experiencia chilena puede referendum y su valoración", de Alejandro Silva Bascuñán y "La Organización del Tratado del Atlántico Sur; una visión crítica", de Emilio Meneses. La primera de ellas dijo constituye un valioso análisis de los referendum constitucionales a lo largo de la historia de Chile. En cuanto a la segunda, abarca desde el ángulo geopolítico la posibilidad de una asociación defensiva en un ámbito estimado por la presión naval soviética.

En su conversación con los periodistas, el profesor Cuevas detalló luego algunos de los programas académicos en que actualmente está empeñado el ICP, integrante de la Facultad de Ciencias Sociales de la Universidad Católica de Chile.

do tratado sobre el Canal de Panamá en el Senado, porque pende de un hilo", dijo el Presidente ayer a un grupo de directores de diarios y ejecutivos de radio. Hoy la Casa Blanca difundió una transcripción de la entrevista.

"El apoyo que tenemos es muy tenue en algunas instancias", dijo Carter.

PROTESTAS

PANAMA, 8 (AFP).— Unos 200 jóvenes panameños protestaron ayer frente a los tratados del Canal y quemaron en efigie al Presidente Jimmy Carter, pese a advertencias hechas por senadores estadounidenses en el sentido que tales manifestaciones podrían dar lugar a que la oposición a los pactos reúna la cantidad suficiente de votos para derrocar su ratificación.

"Abajo los convenios que garantizan la intervención yanqui", rezaba un cartelón que portaba uno de los manifestantes en un parque céntrico. "Panameños, organizarse y pelear contra los tratados", decía otra pancarta.

Uno de los estudiantes gritaba: "Hay que decirle al general Torrijos que los tratados son inaceptables para el pueblo".

"Estamos contra el tratado que garantiza a los yanquis el derecho de intervención".

Las consignas de la protesta informaban a los manifestantes que los dos tratados deben ser rechazados por el pueblo panameño aunque el Senado estadounidense no les introduzca enmiendas adicionales.

Personal de la Guardia Nacional panameña observaba la manifestación sin intervenir.

La demostración fue patrocinada y organizada por dos grupos estudiantiles: la Liga Revolucionaria Socialista, de tendencia trotskista, y el Comité Cívico Torrijos.

Algunos panameños abjuran en particular el primero de los tratados, aprobado por el Senado el 16 de marzo. Dicho tratado garantiza la neutralidad del Canal de Panamá después de la entrega del mismo a Panamá en el año 2000, sobre con una salvedad que posibilitaría la intervención militar de Estados Unidos si Panamá se viera imposibilitada de mantener resguardar la vía interoceánica.

El segundo tratado, que detalla los pormenores de cómo se entregará el canal a Panamá a fines de 1999, se debatirá actualmente en el Senado norteamericano y será sobre el 18 de abril.

Panamá ha reiterado la posición estadounidense en cuanto al derecho de intervenir, tenemos en esta disputa a los Estados Unidos.

El Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores informó aquí ayer que el gobierno de Panamá no adoptará posturas agresivas sobre la validez de los tratados en el Congreso norteamericano, aprobados por el Senado hasta tanto no se sepa la actitud exacta final.

Townley informó al General Orozco que podría ser posible un acuerdo para cooperar con el FBI proporcionando información sobre el asesinato de Orlando Letelier, pero que primero debería reunirse personalmente con el General Orozco.

Después de terminar su conversación con el General Orozco, Townley nos dijo que, antes de revelar al FBI cualquiera información relativa al asesinato de Orlando Letelier, necesitaría la autorización formal de General Orozco, en nombre del Gobierno de Chile, puesto que él deseaba dejar constancia de que su revelación de los detalles del asesinato-conspiración de Letelier era el deseo del Gobierno de Chile. Además, Townley declaró que la autorización del General Orozco para cooperar con el FBI lo relevaría de su obligación como Agente de la DINA de no revelar información relacionada con su servicio (DINA). Townley nos dijo también que consideraba a Chile como su hogar y que deseaba tener seguridades del General Orozco de que se le permitiría regresar a Chile después de su período de encarcelamiento en los Estados Unidos como resultado de su rol en el asesinato de Letelier. Finalmente, Townley nos informó que quería obtener una garantía de seguridad para su esposa y familia en Chile.

El General Orozco y sus acompañantes viajaron desde Nueva York a Washington, D.C. por vía aérea y fueron recibidos en el Aeropuerto Nacional de Washington por el Encargado de Negocios Tomás Amenábar de la Embajada de Chile y nosotros. Posteriormente tuvimos una conferencia con el General Orozco, el Coronel Pantoja y el Mayor Vergara (J) en la residencia en Washington, D.C. del Embajador de Chile ante los Estados Unidos. Durante esta conferencia discutimos las condiciones de Townley para revelar detalles de su misión como oficial de la DINA en los Estados Unidos. El General Orozco estuvo de acuerdo en reunirse personalmente con Townley para discutir las condiciones. Además el General Orozco nos informó que deseaba tomar una declaración a Townley en caso de que se llegara a un acuerdo sobre su cooperación respecto de los hechos verdaderos del asesinato de Letelier y la participación de la DINA.

Hello my beautiful,

I am still trying to digest all of the news clippings that you sent. Also the same thing about ex your letters. I think from the tone of them, the underlying tone as well as your tone during your last two fone calls , that you are a little anoyed or mad at me. I imagine for two reasons: one your resentment and anger at me for being responsible for as you said, at least "75%" of all of our problems; second, for not taking as firm a stence with chilean officialdom as you feel I should. I am sorry love. I can't argue about the first point, and I think that I have stated enough times already how I feel about the second point. One thing is to scream and obtain something, but I think that the only thing that is going to be obtained here with what I have read of the press clippings that you sent is that the people who can make things livable for you and the kids and have things arranged for us to be able to make a decent life with my return to Chile etc, are going to be so totally alienated that there good will and help are not going to go on much longer, and then what do we do, because this is first time, with what has started in the press, screaming about Argentina, Italy, etc. and what is going to come out at the trial about Mexico, The rest of the world is going to be screamin for you and me for many years to come. It won't make any differen that they also scream for Contreras and the chilean government, they will be screaming first of all for us to be able to nail the chileans with the rest. Or if they can't get at the rest of t then they are going to be after us for the rest just on general principal. At this moment I am torn about you coming here to testify. I won't lie, I would like very much to see you and be able to hold you and maybe even make love with you, but from all of the declarations that you have made to the press about why you were in the service and why you received salary have nothing to do with the truth, and if you come to testify it will be public knowledge that you had active knowledge of DINA ex activities, an then what will you say to the press and to your friends. Once if you don't testify and IX I manage to avoid letting your name in the testimony, the cubans can bring it out at anymoment, at any through cross examination of me, or by testimony of one of them. I spoke to Jim Neck the other day. What he said was basically, do say anything more to anybody. Let the thing die down. What keeps going are our statements and counter-statements and corrections of misquotes and bad reporting, etc.. He said stop feeding it. Let them say what they want and after the trial is over, or during the later part of the trial we can choose a friendly reporter and do it properly. At this moment I don't know what Orozco has said to to Bob and Propper about the letter for me or the reaction of the Government to their stating that I was instructed to cooperate. If they don't give it to me and back it sooner or later then we will go ahead and do it here now. But you let me do it with the attorney's and with the right form, they have a letter from Orozco (in english and spanish) and can also swear affidavits and make a court move for breach of promise, a law suit of some I do think that at this moment you should ax more or less what you falsifyed statement throgh the military said. I do want to know what the press is saying now and what kind of treatment you have g getting from the service etc., I would like to talk to you also also if Oronno is backing out on the letter I am sure that Gil, Carter, Propper and Marcella will be willing to either testify or swear out affidavits or leak the story to the press, the story of the meetings here in Wash. and that I hadn't yet agreed to any thing at all, and in fact that I was the one that called Orozco and asked him to come here to give me my instructions personally. As far as the rest of the stuff, the responsibility and who ordered what and whether I was or was not a soldier, and whether I was just following orders,is all going to come out at the trial and believe it that Propper is going to do his utmost to make me look like a good dumb soldier who did nothing more than obey. If he doesn't get Virgil and Dionisio to trial then I am going to be the biggest baddy there and he made the deal with me, and that could be very favorable to Guillermo and the others. They won't be able to carry the conspiracy back any further through me because I don't have it to give to them, and unless some of their own informants can nail it down I don't know what they will do with it. What they can and will nail down is the conspiracy in Chile. Even if they don't get a word of testimony from Chile, with what they get from me and all the corroboration of everything that I have said they will get the chileans by enuendo if not by truth and that for the chilean government, inuendo can be worse than the court for the government, not for a defendant before the law but for the public opinion of a country yes! At this moment even if we were to change our position, even if we were to publically back the government, it would not change in the least what is going to happen, what they are ultimately going to have to do. What I am trying to get across is that we have a luxury position at this moment: no matter what we do they are going to get hit with the shit anyway. I am not saying that we should back them, in fact with all the press that we have had, if you shut up at this moment it will be bad for the government because it will be believed that the government got to you some way, or got to the both of us. No matter what they are screwed equally!!!.

UNCLASSIFIED

I told you in an other letter. I do want to go back to Chile. I know that I can make us a living there, where as here I don't think that I could, not at the level that we would want: I don't want to go back to manual labor. Also I've got the nightmare of you and the kids during the next years while I am put away. I am quite sure that I will be able to make it ok, even being locked away without being able to see you, I could make it as long as I knew that you and the kids would be ok. The next years are going to be harder on you and the kids than it will be on me. As you said in one of your letters, and as I've said in one of mine that I have't mailed to you; this is the first time that you have had to carry through a crisis without a mans shoulder to lean on, and there are going to be an appreciable number of years this way for you, and I also know that financial security is important for you. I mean the ability to buy shoes for the kids when they need it, to be able to pay Luis and Juanitas salary, to be able to pay the things that must be payed as well as a trip to the movies and an outing for the kids,etc.. If you have this kind of security then I am sure that it will be infinitely easier for you to get through the rest without me or anyone else there at your side to lean on. I must admit that this worries me also because by the time that I get out of here you just might have gotten so self sufficient that you won't be happy with me back either. Time will be the only one to tell. I love you and don't want to loose you, but I don't want you tearing your self apart doing your best to wait for me, and then not having anything for me when we do make it back together.

I am mailing off a Birthday card for Brian tomorrow, its got two dollars in it so that he can buy himself at least a couple of Pumperninks. I am also sending off a birthday card for your mother, the problem is that I don't remember whether her birthday is the first part of June or July, if it is July, then its going to be awfully early.

My mother already has the colapsable shopping cart for your mother's birthday. I didn't get to speak to Dad today but I think that he has already ordered the parts for Chris's bike, and I hope that he is looking for a motorbike. What I forgot to tell you is that with the new telephone here you can call Sta. to Sta. now, there is no need for person to person because the tel. is only about ten feet away from where I am right now, its almost beside my bed. Mom also said that she had the other things that you wanted, the hair coloring, shirts for the kids (only one for Brian) plus all of the other things that you wrote for.

I do love you very much darling, and I am married to you for what I consider to have been overwhelmingly the better, and until death do us part, but to me it is more important that your desire for my love and our future is what gives you your resolve to stay by us during this mess, other than because you feel you owe it,or its what you should do because its the expected thing.

I realize that you probably couldn't answer that last paragraph with 100% certainity at this time, its just that I don't want this to become a sacrifice that will be or could be the final thing that splits us apart after I get out. I don't want these years to come to represent something that will magnify through the years to make you come to hate me or despise me for having been the major responsible both befor this problem and then during it.

Well darling its now 3:30 AM and I am going to leave this for one of the guards to mail tomorrow morning. I love you,beaful lady, you know that you are my booful lady! and please don't get too mad at me for wanting us to survive, for wanting you and the kids to get through this in the best way possible. Sleep tight my love, and if you can manage it sometime please have a nice dream with me.

Love always my love

P.S. I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Perinetti so that you will know the contents before you talk to him. A.P.S. I have not received Easter Letter from Mother Queen - just you! Love, Jim

Washington, Jueves, Mayo 28, 1976.-

Hola, mi linda:

Todavía estoy tratando de dirigir todas las noticias que enviastes. La misma cosa acerca de tus cartas. Pienso por el tono de ellas, el tono entre líneas tanto como el tono durante tus últimas dos llamadas, que estás un tanto disgustado o enojado conmigo. Imagino que por dos razones: uno, tu resentemiento y enojo conmigo por ser responsable por años como dijistes, al menos por el 75% de nuestros problemas; segundo, por no conversar tan firmemente con la oficialidad chilena como tu sentías debí hacerlo. Lo lamento amor. No tengo argumentos para el primer punto, y pienso que he establecido las suficientes veces ya como me siento respecto al segundo punto. Una cosa es exponer y obtener algo, pero pienso que lo único que se va a conseguir aquí con lo que ya he leído de los recortes de prensa que me enviastes es que la gente que puede hacer cosas valiosas para tí y los niños y tienen cosas arregladas para nosotros para poder hacer una vida decente a mi regreso a Chile, etc. van a estar tan totalmente alienados que su buena voluntad y ayuda no va a durar mucho, y entonces que hacemos nosotros, porque esta es la primera vez. Con que han empezado en la prensa, argumentando acerca de Argentina, Italia, etc. y que va a resultar en el juicio acerca de México. El resto del mundo estará argumentando acerca tuyo y mío por muchos años más (venideros) no hará ninguna diferencia sobre que ellos también argumentarán sobre Contreras y el gobierno chileno, ellos hablarán primero que todo de nosotros para poder clavar a los chilenos con el resto. O si ellos no pueden conseguir al resto, entonces andarán detrás de nosotros por el resto en general principalmente. En este momento me inclino por que tu vengas aquí a testificar. No mentiré, me gustaría mucho verte, sostenerte y quizás aún hacer el amor contigo, pero de todas las declaraciones que tu has hecho a la prensa acerca de porqué tu estabas en el servicio y porque tu recibistes un sueldo nada tienen que ver con la verdad, y si tu vienes a testificar será de conocimiento público que tu tenías activo conocimiento de las actividades de la DINA, y entonces que dirás a la prensa y tus abo-

gos. Aún si no testificas y yo se los arreglo para evitar que tu nombre aparezca en el testimonio, los cubanos pueden sacarlo a luz en cualquier momento, aún a través de un contrainterrogatorio a mí, o por testimonio de alguno de ellos. Le hablé a Jim Beck el otro día. Lo que dijo es básico, no digas nada más a nadie. Deja que la cosa muera. Que los mantiene sobre nuestras declaraciones y contradeclaraciones o conecciones de notas y malos reportajes, etc. El dijo deja de alimentarlos. Déjalos decir lo que quieran y una vez finalizado el juicio, durante la última parte del juicio, podemos escoger un reportero amigo y hacerlo correctamente. En este momento, no sé que ha dicho Orozco a Cob y Propper acerca de la carta para mí o la reacción del gobierno sobre su aseveración de que yo fuí instruído para cooperar. Si no se la dan de vuelta, más tarde o más temprano, entonces nosotros iremos más lejos y lo hacemos aquí ahora. Pero déjame hacerlo con el notario y en la forma correcta, ellos tienen una carta de Orozco (en inglés y español) y pueden también proveer affidavits (carta de contención) y hacer un movimiento en la corte para conje de promesa, una clase de causa.

Yo realmente pienso que en este momento tu deberías hacer, más o menos, lo que tu falsa declaración dice sobre los militares. Yo deseo saber de verdad que dice la prensa ahora y que clase de tratamiento has estado recibiendo del servicio, etc. Yo también desearía hablarte si Orozco está acordo de regreso la carta. Estoy seguro que Cob, Carter, Propper y Sarcella estarán deseosos de testificar o juror affidavits o dejar filtrar la historia a la prensa, la historia de las reuniones aquí en Wash. y sobre lo que yo aún no he acordado nada, y en verdad que fuí yo el que llamó a Orozco y le pedí venir aquí a darme mis instrucciones personalmente. Acerca del resto del asunto, la responsabilidad y quien lo ordenó, qué y como yo era o no era un soldado, y como yo seguía órdenes, es todo lo que va salir en el juicio y creo que Propper va a ser lo más de sí para hacerme aparecer como un buen soldado que no hizo nada más que obedecer. Si el no consigue a Virgilio y Dionisio para enjuiciarlos, entonces yo seré el más malo allí y harán todo conmigo, y eso podría ser muy favorable para

Guillermo y los otros. Ellos no serán capaces de llevar la conspiración más adelante a través mío porque no lo tengo para dárselos, y a menos que uno de sus mismos informantes puedan conseguirlo yo no sé que harán con ello. Que van ellos a conseguir si se conspiró en Chile. Aún si ellos no consiguen ni una palabra de testimonio de Chile, con lo que ellos consigan de mí y toda la colaboración de todo lo que he dicho ellos conseguirán a los chilenos por encuendo si no por verdad y eso para el gobierno chileno, encuendo puede ser peor que la corte para el gobierno, no para un defendido ante la ley pero para la opinión pública del país, sí! En este momento, aún si nosotros vamos a cambiar nuestra posición, aún si nosotros damos vuelta la espalda públicamente al gobierno, no cambiaría al último lo que va a suceder, lo que ellos tienen que hacer al último. Sobre lo que voy-es que nosotros estamos en una posición de lujo en este momento: no importa que hagamos ellos van a coger el golpe de todas maneras. Yo no digo que debamos darle vuelta la espalda, en verdad con toda la prensa o publicidad que hemos tenido, si tu te callas en este momento será malo para el gobierno porque se creerá que el gobierno te obtuvo a tí de alguna manera, o nos consiguió a ambos. No importa que hayan atornillado, igualmente!

Te dije en otra carta, yo deseo realmente volver a Chile. Sé que podemos hacernos una vida allá, sin embargo aquí yo no pienso que podría, no al nivel que nosotros desearíamos. No deseo volver a trabajos manuales. También yo he cogido pesadillas sobre tí y los niños durante los próximos años mientras quede libre. Estoy completamente seguro que podré hacerlo correctamente, aún estando encerrado, sin poder verte, lo podré hacer tanto como sepa que tú y los niños están bien. Los próximos años serán más duros para ti y los niños que para mí. Como tu dijistes en una de tus cartas, y como yo lo dije en una de las mías que te envié, esta es la primera vez que tu tienes que sobrellevar una crisis sin el hombro de un hombre donde inclinarte, y será un número apreciable de años en esta forma para tí, y también sé que una seguridad monetaria es importante para tí. Yo quiero decir, poder comprar zapatos a los niños cuando lo necesiten, poder pagar los sueldos de Luis y Juanita, poder pagar las cosas que hay que pagar tanto como una ida al cine y una salida para los niños, etc. Si tu tienes esta clase de seguridad estoy seguro será infinitamente más fácil para tú pasar por el resto sin mí o sin otro a tu lado donde apoyarte.

Debo admitir que esto me preocupa porque al momento que yo salga de aquí, tu puedes haber obtenido tal seguridad en autoabastecerte que no serás tampoco feliz con mi regreso. El tiempo es el único que lo puede decir. Te amo y no deseo perderte, pero no te quiero llorosa sola haciendo lo mejor por esperarme y no tener nada para nosotros cuando lo hagamos de nuevo juntos.

Estoy enviando una tarjeta de cumpleaños a Orian mañana, envío 2 dólaresallí para que el pueda comprarse por sí mismo al menos un par de Pumpernicks. También estoy enviando una tarjeta de cumpleaños a tu madre. No pude hablarle a papá hoy pero pienso que el ya ordenó los partes para la bicicleta de Chris, y espero que el busque una motocicleta. Lo que olvidé decirte que con el nuevo teléfono aquí tu puedes llamar teléfono a teléfono, no es necesario persona a persona porque el teléfono está solamente a unos 10 pies de aquí donde estoy en este momento, casi al lado de mi cama. Mamá también dijo que tenía las otras cosas que tu deseabas, la tintura de pelo, camisas para los niños (solo una para Orian) más todas las otras cosas que tu escribistes.

De verdad te amo mucho querida, y me casé contigo porque yo consi- dero haber sido afortunado y hasta que la muerte nos separe, pero para mí es más importante que tu deseo de mi amor y nuestro futuro te haga resolver quedarte por nosotros esta vez, más que porque es lo que debes hacer porque es lo que se espera de tí.

Me doy cuenta que probablemente este último párrafo no lo puedas responder con un 100% de certeza en este momento, es solo que no deseo que este sacrificio llegue a ser o pudiera ser la última cosa que nos separe después de mi salida. No deseo que estos años que vienen representen algo que se agrande a través de los años que llegues a odiarme o despreciarme por haber tenido la mayor responsabilidad de ambos antes de este problema y durante él.

Bien querido, son las 3.30 de la madrugada y dejaré esto para que uno de los guardias te lo envíe mañana por correo. Te amo, bella dama, tu sabes que eres mi bella dama, y por favor no te enojes demasiado conmigo para que deseemos sobrevivir, porque deseo que tú y los niños pasen por esto de la mejor manera posible. Duerme bien querida, y si te las puedes arreglar alguna vez ten un buen sueño conmigo.

Te amaré siempre, mi amor

Estimado Gustavo,

Acabo de terminar de hablar contigo. Voy a puntualizar algunas cosas, y lo que digo referente a Mariana y que ella y los ninos vendrian aqui no es para repetirlo a ella, lo voy a tener que convencer a mi manera! Bueno, primero, la defensa de los cubanos va a ser que esta es una maniobra de la CIA y el FBI para cagarlos con la gentil cooperacion de DINA de Chile. Si ellos mantienen a Virgilio y a Dionisio afuera de esto, o sea que no los pillan, entonces es mi solo palabra que los cubanos estuvieron directamente involucrados. En cuanto a la reunion de conspiracion lo unico que tienen que decir es que ellos negaron a cooperar ! de nuevo mi solo palabra contra la de ellos. Ahora viene la parte de Chile, si ellos fueran a usar la defensa que yo primeramente te dije, o sea que yo soy de la CIA, entonces se conjugan las dos defensas; los cubanos; esto es un complot de los gringos: y el lado nuestro; que este es un complot de los gringos porque Townley es de CIA y infiltro nuestro servicio y lo que el hizo lo hizo con la actuacion de la CIA en Washington para cagar al gobierno de Chile segun los deseos del gobierno del Sr Carter. Y para esto van a tener que tambien disacreditar a Mariana, y por eso es que yo creo que le estan pidiendo a ella una declaracion legalizada donde ella declara que no tiene ningun deseo que se enjuicie o castigue al Mamo y los otros. Aparte de esto la estan pidiendo un relato notarizado de su vida donde va a declarar que participo en el PC en su juventud, que fue miembro activo del Zionismo y que estuvo en un Kibutz en Israel, que participo en la politica de Eugene Mcarthy, conotado izquierdista (como Kennedy) en movimiento contra Vietnam, en fin con todo esto, izquierda, y despues Patria y Libertad y anti-Allende, podran decir que era un infiltrado y quizas le cuelgan tambien la etiqueta de Cia. Quien sabe.

La posicion de Propper y de los del FBI ha sido muy buena, no son politicamente motivados en esto. No me cabe la menor duda de que otros esferas que empujan a ellos si esta muy politicamente motivados. Propper ha expresado su pesar de que la eliminacion no se hizo de otra forma o en otro lugar porque el esta de acuerdo con ello, incluso lamento que no se incluyo a la Sra.. Ahora no es solamente Propper quien ha dicho esto, tambien Barcella, Cornick y el agente Schaerer es pro-junta abiertamente y se siente como el ajo estando en la posicion donde esta. (Schaerer, es lejos el mas inteligente, vivo y perspicaz de todo el equipo).

Ahora te voy a decir lo que yo creo de todo la situacion: (me gustaria que trataras de comprobar lo que puedes de esto 1.- Hubo un sector de Generales que presionaron mucho a Pinochet que me expulsara, y este grupo fue encabezado por Gen. Covarrubias, Gen. Vidal, y un Grupo de altos oficiales del Vach: (posiblemente con Leigh); es posible que Mena se opusiera pero no excesivamente. Brady se opuso y Benavides estaba a favor igual Schweitzer y Cmndte. Montero y Judo que Pozzo hubiera opinado (solamente actuado en lo que le puede haber sido util para cagar a Contreras). Bien una vez que estoy en USA, pido a Pozzo que venga para explicarme que mierda pasa y me instruye en que debo hacer. Antes de que el llega mis abogados ya tienen claro lo que pueden lograr para mi: 1; por los cargos aleno de pasaporte y equipos y ser un agente extranjero no registrado probablemente unos 20 anos de carcel ademas de la condena que podria caer por el asunto de fondo, botelier todo esto en el caso de no cooperar y, 2; en el caso de cooperar una condena de diez anos, que podria ser tan corto como 3½ anos y mas probablemente 6½

UNCLASSIFIED

anos de los diez que se van a dictar en la sentencia, bueno asi estaba cuando llego Orozco. Orozco llego dos dias despues de que habian atrapado a Guillermo y Alvin Foss y el FBI estaban presionandolos fuertemente para hacer un trato. Si ellos lo hubieran hecho antes, yo tendria seguro dos condenas consecutivas de cadena perpetua de todos modos no hice trato alguno hasta despues de hablar con Orozco, corriendo el riesgo de que el tiro me saliera por la culata. Orozco me prometio tres cosas, sujeto a confirmacion telefonica a Stgo.; uno, una carta donde el gobierno me emplazaba a cooperar, dos garantizarme un libre reingreso a Chile y tres una continuada apoyo a mi familia y a mi; el ultimo punto lo garantizo Pantoja en el acto frente a mis dos abogados, Mariana, mi, Orozco y May. Vergara.. Orozco me confirmo [illegible] cosas al dia siguiente, tambien los confirm al agente de FBI Schoerer y a Propper y mis abogados. Bueno ahora viene la segunda tanda, al dia siguiente Orozco volvio a venir aqui para tomar mi declaracion modificado de los hechos referente al asunto Letelier lo cual hice, tambien le hable de algunas cosas que habian hecho DINA sin nosotros que queria Orozco para poder presiona a Contreras a decir la verdad. Tambien me hablo de Andrea, y yo le dije que yo era el unico que podria reunir todo la pelicula para fabricarlo, el me dijo que estaba conciente de eso y que ellos iban a ver la manera de hacer un canje por personas buscados por drogas por los gringos en Chile por mi para tenerme de vuelto al ano o meno: Y en cuanto yo regresara a Chile se haria una amnestia para sacarme a mi de la carcel igual que Mamo y los demas. Pero lo que el mas me hizo hincapie era que Contreras y Espinoza y Fernandez estaban cocinados y iban a tener que ir a prision de todos modos (inclusive el huevon de Vergara pidio manuales de reglamentos de los carceles militares de USA para poder la legislacion necesario para establecerlos en Chile) y que Pinochet y el gobierno estaban totalmente aislados de lo que venia para Mamo y Cia. y que la unica manera que el gobierno veia que podria sobrevivir era entregar algunos cristianos a los leones de la opinion publica y salir ilesos como los justos entregando los malos (o sea decir que Chile tiene cancer y auto operarlo para remover las particulas cancerosos). Recapitulando un poco: cuando llegan a mi expulsion y que se hace con los grigos, un grupo de oficiales (DC o DC Pirana) presiona para que se coopere y que me entregan, luego Mamo empiesa a chillar y dice que ellos no van a ser el chivo expiratorio y que si el gobierno no cambia de actitud los van a cagar"todos juntitos"; acto seguido se vuelve a tomar la actitud de que los gringos son malos no hay cooperacion el gringo Townley y su Sra. son traidores, o quisas infiltrados de la CIA involucrados en un complot para cagar a Chile y que ni Chile ni chilenos tienen algo que ver con la muerte de Letelier y en esto inceiblemente concuerdan los generales y sectores que tanto gritaon para mi expulsion. Todo esto se vende internamente pensando que los gringos no van a poder llegar a una acusacion formal en contra de Chile, o hacer fratificar la accusacion a un pedido de extradicion. Resulta que si tienen suficiente! Propper ha estado recibiendo evidencias voluntarias de Chile, y segun lo que yo escuche, hasta hay gente de DINA (CNI) que han voluntariamente entregado informacion contra Mamo y otros. Ha llovido informacion, tienen toneladas de declaraciones. No se si lo que tienen es directamente al hucho de Letelier, pero hay suficiente de todo que si lo largan el olor de mierda va a quedar por mucho tiempo. Bueno cual es el resultado: 1.- el grupo de generales logra que me entregan y inician la caida tambien propongan la cooperacion 2.- Viene la contra ataque de Mamo y su gente y se neutraliza a los que propongan la cooperacion y y ahora lo que viene; con el gobierno en una posicion de solidaridad con el Mamo y con la no intervencion de USA en los asuntos de Chile, y con la implicancia que los gringos aparentamente tienen que Pinoch llamo a Stroessner en Paraguay para que Paraguay entregarah los pasaportes oficiales a Fernandez y yo largan las acusacionesformales en contra de Contreras, Espinoza, Fernandez y si quisieran nombran a Pinochet como co-conspirador sin acusacion formal (esto significa que hace suficiente evidencia para pensar que si pero no suficiente para hacer una acusacion formal). Y en este momento empiesan a largar evidencias, mas presiones internacionales, cortar relaciones de USA y otras paises europeas y a todo esto viene el mismo grupo de Generales que prometieron que me entregaran a mi y que fomentaron la linea de cooperacion y le muestra a Pinochet que su ultima actitud de respaldar significa que el va a tener que renunciar y que ver a tener que procesar a Mamo y los demas como anteriormente dijieron pero con la excepcion que ahora no se puede ya aislar al gobierno y a su excellencia del desastre y que ambos van a tener que renunciar y hay que establecer un gobierno de transicion con Gen Camarubias al mando, y con la DC dando el apoyo logistico politico de personas administrativas al gobierno.

UNCLASSIFIED

Bueno esto es mi analisis de la situacion. Yo creo que todos los palitos que habian que pisar se han pisado, y ahora que, Frei? o quien sera, y cuanto tardara para que vuelve la Unidad Popular? ESTO, TODO ESTO, ES UNA MIERDA CON PATAS!!!!!

Por RUBEN ADRIAN VALENZUELA

El 2 de septiembre de 1976, en plena ciudad de Washington, un automóvil al que le habían colocado un artefacto explosivo vuela por los aires. En el atentado perdieron la vida Orlando Letelier, ex canciller chileno del Gobierno de Salvador Allende, y su secretaria particular. Una mujer, Mariana Callejas, estaba al tanto de todo. Es la esposa de Michael Townley, el agente de la DINA que instaló la bomba asesina con la colaboración de cubanos exiliados. Su extensa entrevista con el periodista chileno Rubén Adrián Valenzuela constituye un testimonio excepcional, no sólo para aportar un poco más de luz a un crimen político que todavía conmueve al mundo, sino para conocer desde dentro el clima psicológico y moral de los asesinos a sueldo de los servicios secretos.

Las circunstancias en que se produjo el hecho estaban muy claras para unos y muy oscuras para otros. En los Estados Unidos y en Chile se siguen ahora las investigaciones y los procesos para —al menos eso se dice— su total esclarecimiento.

El 21 de febrero de 1978, el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos requirió formalmente al de Chile la entrega de dos hombres para ser investigados: Juan Williams Rose y Alejandro Romeral Jara.

El Gobierno chileno negó la existencia de ambas personas. Pero como consecuencioa de fuertes presiones norteamericanas, una investigación, ordenada por el propio Presidente Augusto Pinochet, permitió poner en claro que Juan y Alejandro eran, en realidad, Michael Vernon Townley Welch, ciudadano norteamericano residente en Santigo y miembro de la Policía Secreta, DINA, y el capitán del Ejército chileno Armando Fernández Larios. Ambos habían pertenecido a la organización ultraderechista Patria y Libertad.

El 23 de marzo, sin embargo, el Gobierno de Pinochet negaría categóricamente que chileno alguno hubiera tomado parte en el asesinato de Letelier.

En abril, Chile expulsaba a Michael Townley hacia los Estados Unidos, donde fue arrestado, como pieza fundamental del "caso Letelier", por el FBI. Pinochet había encontrado su chivo expiatorio.

Actualmente se desarrolla en Chile un sumario secreto en torno a la posible extradición de tres militares supuestamente involucrados en el caso: el general Manuel Contreras, ex jefe de la todopoderosa DINA (Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional); el ex subjefe, coronel Pedro Espinosa, y el capitán Armando Fernández Larios. Los tres están arrestados con carácter preventivo y bajo vigilancia.

Pero en el caso Letelier hay una pieza clave que, por extrañas circunstancias, no ha sido movida: Mariana Callejas, esposa de Michael Townley, que estaba al corriente de toda la oscura trama que rodeó el atentado contra Letelier. Escuchémosla.

—Mariana, ¿cuál es tu situación emocional hoy día? En todo orden de cosas: en lo personal, respecto a tu situación como pareja, y en lo emocional, como una persona que creyó estar jugando un papel importante en el desarrollo político del país.

—Voy a contestarte primero lo último, como una persona que creyó estar haciendo algo por un Gobierno que, pensaba, era lo mejor para Chile. Me voy desilusionada, pero tengo esperanzas de que las cosas se arreglen, de que el panorama político en Chile mejore. Como persona común y corriente, mi situación familiar y matrimonial está como siempre, tranquila, no tengo preocupaciones, porque por lo menos la unidad familiar se va a mantener. Mis hijos están acostumbrados a la situación y me las voy a arreglar para que mientras estén allá sigan igual.

—¿Piensas volver en marzo del próximo año?

—Sí.

—¿Dónde vas a estar todo este tiempo?

—En Washington.

—¿Haciendo qué?

—Me parece que viene el proceso, no sé cuando, pero yo supongo que voy a estar ocupada en el proceso durante agosto, septiembre y quizá octubre, y después no me convendría volver y tener que pasar las vacaciones. Queremos pasarlas con papá. Prefiero quedarme allí todo este tiempo y tratar de que los niños recuperen las clases yendo a la escuela allá.

—¿De qué manera han golpeado en tu forma de vivir y en la integridad familiar todas estas circunstancias?

—Yo me mantengo en forma. Yo soy una persona fuerte. Creo que me las he arreglado bastante bien y no me he derrumbado. No dejaré que esto me destruya. Estoy terminando una etapa. Cuando vuelva, en marzo, empezaré de nuevo.

"Encuentro que mi marido actuó de buena fe. El obedeció órdenes de las Fuerzas Armadas".

—¿Este terminar una etapa incluye terminar con Michael Townley?

—No, en absoluto. Terminar con un ambiente que yo no quería. Lo que yo quería de esta casa es esta pieza donde me ves y que era realmente mi hogar. El resto de la casa donde trabajaba Michael, donde venían a verlo otras personas, donde yo sabía que se trabajaba en Inteligencia, era para mí desagradable.

—¿Qué pasó con el laboratorio electrónico de tu marido?

Michael Vernon Townley, el agente de la DINA que colocó la bomba en el coche de Letelier, junto a su esposa, Mariana Callejas. La foto fue tomada poco antes de ser entregado al FBI.

"Mi única participación en el asunto fue que comuniqué a la DINA que la bomba ya había sido colocada".

—Se lo llevaron.

—¿Quiénes?

—No sé.

—Alguna explicación te habrán dado...

—¿Quién me va a dar explicación?

—...

—Supe que había venido gente y que se habían llevado todo lo electrónico.

—Había en el equipo de tu marido, equipo que tú dominabas, elementos sofisticados. ¿También desaparecieron?

—Desapareció todo.

—¿Has intentado averiguar el paradero?

—¿Para qué? Cuando él vuelva, si había algo que le pertenecía a él personalmente y que no era del servicio, él tratará de averiguar.

—Mariana, tú eras una mujer con vida sentimental digamos variopinta. Yo me atrevería a preguntarte de buena fe si Michael Townley quebró tu modo de vivir, si no te hizo caso incluso. Que se disparó. Debe haber un modo honesto de ganarse la vida. Has dicho que reprobabas este modo de vivir, y el hecho de que tu casa esté desmantelada y tengas que dejar Chile es una consecuencia de este alocamiento de Michael Townley. ¿Le sigues queriendo?

—Sí. Esto no ha cambiado mi modo de pensar. Pienso que podría haber hecho las cosas de otro modo. Pienso que de todos modos debió obedecer órdenes, pero nunca debió obedecer todas las órdenes que se le daban, pero en todo caso tengo que ser leal porque Michael Townley es un norteamericano y yo soy chilena. A Michael Townley lo traicionó mi país. Yo, como chilena, tengo que respaldarlo.

—Creo que juegas con las palabras cuando dices que el país traicionó a Michael Townley. ¿Tú no sientes que lo has traicionado también?

—No, en absoluto. Yo he estado siempre con él.

—Tengo la sensación, como observador objetivo, como periodista, de que tú juegas mucho con la idea de que fue Michael Townley el que hizo todo. Tú estabas en los antecedentes de todo esto y, sin embargo, nunca pueda negar. Tienen fotografías de él con Guillermo Novo, con Fernández Larios; él va a terminar por confesar, y ¿qué va a pasar? Que va a quedar muy mal Chile con todo esto. Todo eso lo decía en la carta al Presidente Pinochet. Se la dí al general Mena, y le dije: "Yo necesito hacerle llegar esto esta noche al Presidente Pinochet". El general Mena leyó la carta y me preguntó: "¿Usted tiene confianza en que yo se la entregue?". "Por supuesto", le contesté yo. Se la entregué. Según entiendo, esa carta no la recibió el Presidente esa noche. En realidad, no estoy segura si la recibió o no, en todo caso no hizo ninguna diferencia.

—En la primera entrevista que dio a la prensa tu marido, que fue a mí, después que se le sindicó como William Ross, me dijo algo que a la luz de los acontecimientos de hoy no parece una mentira, sino más bien una acusación. El decía: "La muerte de Letelier, ¿a quién le sirvió más, a Estados Unidos o a Chile?". Ahora bien, por todo lo que tú dices, Estados Unidos supo oportunamente, antes del asesinato de Letelier, que tu marido y los cubanos estaban planeando su muerte. Tienen fotos de él con Novo, sabían cuándo ingresó al país, etcétera. ¿Tú dirías que Estados Unidos dejó que se siguiera adelante con el plan de matar a Letelier para sacar provecho político?

—No. Yo creo que no, porque eso ante la justicia norteamericana lo haría cómplice.

—Entonces, tu marido mintió.

—¿Por qué?

—Cuando él decía a quién le sirve más la muerte de Letelier, a Chile o a Estados Unidos.

—¿Estaba preguntándolo él o lo decía? No lo entiendo.

—No, él hacía una pregunta, pero evidentemente era una pregunta para tema de reflexión.

—Claro. No he reflexionado nunca sobre el tema, pero entiendo que ha sido una catástrofe para todo el mundo. Es decir, que a nosotros los agentes del FBI nos hacían preguntas... "Qué calamidad, si este hombre a nosotros tampoco nos gustaba, pero no había por qué matarlo en Washington. Esto era un asunto cubano".

—¿Pero cómo se explica que los servicios de seguridad norteamericanos estuvieran fotografiando a tu marido desde antes del atentado?

—Me parece que ya había sospechas. Por las compras de equipos electrónicos. Y en todo caso, esto fue mucho como el asunto de los Anderson Tape. Las fotos de él con Guillermo Novo. Guillermo Novo era sospechoso. Y ellos estaban siguiendo sus movimientos y fotografiaban todo lo que hacía Guillermo Novo.

—Moraleja, dime con quién andas y te sacaré una foto.

—Claro. Así quedó estampada la fotografía de mi marido. Que dicen, porque a mí no me consta. Se dice que hay fotografía de Fernández Larios con Mike en el aeropuerto. Es obvio. Se supone que ellos le siguen el paso a toda persona que viaje con pasaporte oficial chileno.

—¿Es cierto que la bomba que puso tu marido debajo del auto de Letelier falló al primer intento?

—Tampoco lo sabremos nunca.

—¿Por qué?

—Porque para eso tendría que encontrarse a quien la hizo detonar. Y no se le ha encontrado.

—Hay un cubano que dicen que llamó a tu marido y le dijo: "Falló la bomba y yo la arreglé".

—Sí, pero no sé cuánto de verdad hay en eso.

—En todo caso, de ser así, favorecería un poco a tu marido.

—No. Yo encuentro que no tiene la menor importancia. La intención es la que vale, ¿no?

—Bueno, pero ahí te contradices, porque cuando tú dices que tu marido no es un asesino... él cumplió órdenes...

—Claro, él no es un asesino, cumplió órdenes de asesinar, eso sí.

—Pero poner una bomba, el resultado se supone que es la muerte...

—Lógico. No hay vuelta que darle.

—Ahora, tú ¿habrías puesto la bomba?

—(Duda tremenda) Yo habría sido un poco más cautelosa que mi marido. Fíjate que en el fondo yo me

—Tú también eres funcionaria de la DINA. ¿Si te diera la orden de matar a alguien lo harías?

—Yo no soy funcionaria de la DINA. Y si se me diera la orden de matar a alguien no lo haría.

—Tú no eres, pero fuiste.

—Ni siquiera eso. Es muy fácil comprobar eso. No ha salido nunca dic, ni de los prisioneros, de los ex prisioneros, de la gente que está fuera, absolutamente nadie que a mí me nociera como funcionaria de la DINA.

—Tampoco conocían a tú marido mo funcionario de la DINA.

—Sí, ha salido gente que lo ha ho... Yo no tuve ninguna participación en nada, exceptuando que, ces, lo acompañé en algún viaje, o en todo caso, acá, en Chile, yo tuve absolutamente nada que hacer con la DINA. Yo sé decir que —Salvo para cobrar un sueldo...

—Es algo que... sí. Creo que eran s mil trescientos pesos de más que e daban a mi marido por incluir mi nombre en la lista de la DINA.

—¿Cuándo te decidiste a decir la verdad en los términos que hoy la dices?

—Fue cuando expulsaron a mi marido.

—Porque hasta entonces tú habías mentido mucho.

—Sí. Mentí para proteger a mi marido, al Gobierno, a la DINA, a los demás implicados. Mentí para protegerlos a todos.

—Incluso ocultaste a tu marido sabiendo que era un hombre buscado por la justicia.

—Sí, naturalmente.

—¿Eso no te hace cómplice?

—Supongo que sí. Pero me hace cómplice de una acción del Gobierno.

"Yo sigo pensando qu quien ideó el plan lo hiz por el bien de Chile".

—Una especie de complicidad tú reconoces pero que no ac sobre ti, porque se ha llegado a arreglo, de alguna manera tu mar ha pagado todas las habas, pero estás limpia de polvo y paja, co de Primera Comunión. —Eso habría sido traicionar a mi país. Acuérdate que yo pensaba que era el Presidente Pinochet quien estaba ordenando...

—Pero en los términos en que se ha dado la situación, la traición al país hoy la cometieron ustedes, la cometió tu marido...

—Yo no veo por qué.

—El prestigio de las Fuerzas Armadas chilenas, en general, hoy está en tela de juicio. Hay tres oficiales del Ejército chileno ni siquiera acusados de un crimen político, están acusados de delitos comunes. Eso deja en muy mal pie a aquellos que tú definías como una reserva moral.

—Lógicamente, lógicamente. Si a mi marido no lo hubieran expulsado ilegalmente en la forma que lo hicieron, esto no habría sucedido...

—Se habría tapado un asunto que de todas maneras era inmoral.

—Pero eso le corresponde al Gobierno juzgarlo, no a nosotros. Ni a ti ni a mí. Eso le corresponde al señor Pinochet. Si él es inmoral, bueno, no es culpa mía. Si él lo ordenó, no es culpa mía. El general Contreras pertenecía al Ejército en aquella época. Si él estaba en el Ejército, ¿por qué lo hizo? Yo todavía no entiendo por qué lo hizo.

—Pero si tu marido, que era funcionario de la DINA, hubiera recibido la orden de pegarse un tiro o de tirarse de cabeza desde la terraza del edificio, tú no lo habrías permitido y habrías hecho todo lo posible por evitarlo...

—Supongo que en un caso así no me lo habría dicho a mí. ¿Y qué hay de Fernández Larios, que también recibió la orden, y también es parte del asunto? ¿Por qué no me hablas de él?

—Nadie habla de él.

—No, nadie habla de él. ¿Por qué no hablan de él? Porque le protege su situación. A él le protege su institución.

—¿Tú lo conociste a él personalmente?

—Claro que lo conozco personalmente y lo aprecio mucho. Es un tipo formidable.

—¿Está detenido? ¿Lo van a entregar?

—No, no lo van a entregar ni a él ni a Espinosa ni a Contreras. Yo no puedo creer que puedan hacer una cosa así.

—Lo mismo decías con respecto a tu marido.

—Sí, pero mi marido era civil y era extranjero. Entonces, por mucho que me duela, comprendo que lo hayan entregado. Pero no comprendería, es decir, me sentiría muy, muy avergonzada, si se fueran a entregar a esos tres. Los otros tres son chilenos, son oficiales, no se puede.

—¿Qué piensas hacer para sobrevivir en Estados Unidos?

—Por el momento no tengo problema, porque mientras yo esté allá para declarante en el juicio el FBI paga mi estancia y la de los niños. Más adelante, para mí no es problema trabajar en Estados Unidos.

—¿Es efectivo que tienes ofrecimientos de compañías cinematográficas para derechos de este caso?

—No. Que yo sepa, no. ¡Ojalá!

"La mujer de un soldado que fue a la guerra sabe que su marido mató una cantidad de personas. ¿Por eso se va a negar a seguir durmiendo con él?".

Que yo sepa, no. No me interesa el caso.

—Lo más probable es que ahora en Estados Unidos tomen contacto contigo. Los cables han dicho que sí. Están interesados en la parte cinematográfica...

—Vamos a ver. Si no me las puedo arreglar de otra manera, me imagino que estaría pensándolo, pero si me las puedo arreglar en una forma honesta...

—¿Sería deshonesto que te lucraras con las Memorias de este caso?

—Sería deshonesto siempre que Michael no lo aprobara. Si Michael lo aprobara, entonces no sería deshonesto.

—¿Tú vas a escribir sobre el caso?

—Sí, yo creo que voy a terminar por escribir, pero todavía no. Sólo he escrito unos apuntillos, pero nada serio, porque no sé lo suficiente como para escribir. Yo sé mi parte, y mi parte no es gran cosa.

—Yo no concibo a la Mariana Callejas mujer sin un compañero a su lado. ¿Cómo te las vas a arreglar?

—Es muy extraño que no lo concibas, porque he estado mucho tiempo sin un compañero a mi lado...

—Pero has cambiado de compañero oficialmente también varias veces.

—Sí. Pero estos últimos años Michael ha sido muy poco compañero para mí. Ha estado trabajando prácticamente de la noche a la mañana y prácticamente no le veía y me las arreglé muy bien sola. No sé. Parezco no necesitar el compañero.

—¿Tú te definirías como una persona apasionada, fría, indiferente...?

—Apasionada cuando se trata de causas. Muy fría cuando se trata de enfrentar.

—¿Qué causa te mueve ahora?

—Ahora me mueve la causa de Chile. Todavía quiero lo mejor para Chile.

—A tu juicio, ¿no se está dando lo mejor para Chile?

—No. A mi juicio se ha seguido una estrategia absolutamente errónea, y se sigue con una estrategia errónea.

—¿Qué debiera ser lo correcto?

—Ya es demasiado tarde para ha-

—Ahora, tú te vas de Chile, ¿nadie te ha puesto trabas para que te vayas?

—No, en absoluto.

—¿Seguro?

—Seguro.

—¿Qué instrucciones tienes?

—Instrucciones, ninguna; yo no me he comunicado con nadie en mucho tiempo. Todo lo contrario. Se me han hecho las cosas fáciles. Es decir, que es increíble lo buena que es la gente. Palabra, es increíble.

—Pero hasta varias semanas después que tu marido fue llevado a Estados Unidos, aquí había guardias de seguridad en tu casa.

—Todavía hay.

—¿De quién?

—Del CNI.

—Tú declarabas antes que el acto de tu marido te inspira admiración.

—No, el acto no; el valor.

—Ya.

—Digamos que es una fracción del acto en sí. Como te digo, yo me opuse rotundamente y le hablé de la vida humana y le hablé del respeto a la vida humana... Por último, le dije: "Hagamos una cosa, se retira usted de la DINA y nos fugamos a cualquier parte. Si lo que le preocupa, qué sé yo, es que le vayan a decir que es un cobarde, porque no se atreve, o porque le vayan a dejar sin empleo, usted se puede ganar la vida como mecánico, por último, en cualquier parte; nos arreglaremos, pero sálgase de esto". Se lo dije. Entonces... yo encuentro que eso fue el peor error de su vida, este asunto. Lógico. Pero la fracción esa de ser el que tomó la parte más peligrosa de la acción en el asunto, eso es lo que yo respeto.

—Ese respeto a esa fracción, ¿se lo transmites a tus hijos?

—No. Ellos no tienen por qué, pero creo que en el fondo ellos se sienten más o menos igual que yo. Porque cuando ellos supieron que era papá quien había puesto la bomba, yo estaba fuera de Chile. Y salió en los diarios acá. Yo me preocupé mucho, me amargó muchísimo. Entonces llamamos por teléfono a los niños y les preguntamos si había salido la noticia en los diarios y nos dijeron que sí. Y cuando yo llegué estuve tanteando el terreno con ellos. Porque son bien hombres los chicos. Entonces les dije yo: "Bueno, ustedes saben que papá tenía órdenes y él las cumplió". Entonces, el mayor me dijo: "Sí, sabemos que papá cumplió esas órdenes; no tenemos nada en contra de papá por haber cumplido órdenes". Y por último, me dijo el mayor: "En el fondo, es mejor que papá lo hiciera, porque así no expuso la vida de nadie más". Entendieron.

—Es el mismo planteamiento tuyo.

—Exactamente.

alegro de que haya sido Michael quien haya puesto la bomba. Me inspira mucho respeto. La parte de poner la bomba es la más difícil, la más arriesgada, de todo un operativo de esta naturaleza, según me han explicado... No detonarla, porque se puede detonar desde lejos, pero ponerla. Puede estallar en cualquier momento mientras se está poniendo. Mike, para mí, no sacó las castañas con la mano del gato. Yo no entiendo por qué la puso él tampoco, porque no se suponía que la iba a poner él; se suponía que ésta iba a ser una acción cubana. Y los cubanos iban a hacerlo todo. Entonces, no sé por qué eso va a salir en el proceso, el por qué la puso él. Porque es de más sabido que este muchacho, Virgilio Paz, es expertísimo en el asunto bombas, así que no entiendo por qué la puso Mike. Pero en todo caso lo respeto por eso, porque tenía una misión que cumplir...

—Pero, ¿no es un poco el respeto que se tienen los hampones en la mafia? Con una escala de valores tan distinta de la escala de valores de la gente normal.

—Yo estoy hablando de guerra, aquí no estamos hablando de delincuencia común, yo estoy hablando de guerra. La guerra que ha tenido que darse, secretamente, por chilenos. De este tipo de guerra precisamente. Entonces, el hecho de que haya sido él quien puso la bomba y no haya sido un cubano es lo que me hace respetarlo, porque pasó el peligro él, la parte más peligrosa la vivió él. Yo no estoy de acuerdo con lo que hizo él, no estoy de acuerdo con el crimen. Soy la persona más respetuosa de la vida que te puedas imaginar. Yo no mato ni siquiera a las arañas. Miro para dónde van. Pero no, no las mato. Yo tengo mucho respeto a la vida. Pero si él tenía órdenes explícitas de no volver sin haber cometido el crimen, orden explícita de matar a Letelier, y de que el asunto tenía que tener éxito, el hecho de que él se haya asegurado de que la bomba iba a quedar bien puesta, que ninguno iba a morir por poner la bomba, sino solamente él, en último caso, que era el encargado del asunto, yo encuentro que está bien, que es cosa de hombres.

—Ahora, esta parte de poner la bomba y del operativo, de fabricarla, tú dijiste en una oportunidad que le había significado a Michael la suma de novecientos ochenta dólares...

—No, no dije eso. Yo dije que para el viaje se le dieron novecientos ochenta dólares.

—Pero, según entiendo, no fue más lo que se gastó...

—No, nada más.

—¿Por qué en Chile la DINA habría presentado un informe de gastos próximo al millón de dólares?

—Alguien se lo embolsicó. Y eso me lo han dicho a mí varias personas. Nada, los cubanos nada; Incluso le prestaron plata a Michael. Porque terminó así, terminó sin un peso, creo que le prestaron una cosa de ciento cincuenta dólares.

—¿Tú sabes en qué se gastó esa plata?

—Novecientos ochenta dólares se gastan muy fácilmente en los Estados Unidos. En arriendo de autos, en comida, en... qué sé yo. Artefactos electrónicos o lo que fuera. Supongo que tuvo que ser en todo eso.

—¿En los elementos para la misma bomba, no?

—No, porque entiendo que eso lo pusieron los cubanos.

—¿Pero tu marido llevaba detonantes de acá, no?

—Sí, llevaba detonantes del Ejército.

—¿Tú sabías que los llevaba?

—No, no tenía ni idea.

Assassin's wife to go to Chile

Mrs. Townley: 'There's nothing left that I might fear'

Wash Star 2/22/79

By Jeremiah O'Leary
Washington Star Staff Writer

Mariana Callejas Townley, lonely and homesick, has made up her mind to go back to Chile soon — even though she believes she may have signed her death sentence by speaking out against the former chief of the DINA secret police, Gen. Manuel Contreras.

The 48-year-old wife of the confessed assassin of former Ambassador Orlando Letelier, Michael V. Townley, has decided to reject the federal witness protection program and the opportunity to live in the United States.

Writing to this reporter from the undisclosed location about three hours from Washington where she and her two young boys live with U.S. deputy marshals to guard them, she said:

"Sure, I could start life all over again on the witness program. Another name. A remote place. A normal life. But one cannot discard the past as an old hat, especially a beautiful past. They (the boys) are homesick, yearning to go back to their school, their friends, our family. And I must find out how many friends I have left."

Her 36-year-old husband, as well as FBI agents and other U.S. government officials, have tried to persuade her to remain where she is until Townley completes the jail sentence to be meted out to him by federal Judge Barrington D. Parker late next month.

But she said, "I'm going back soon after the trial is over. By destroying my reputation, Contreras expects to keep me away because he knows the Supreme Court might want my testimony. And he knows I'll tell the truth no matter how painful the truth is to me.

"So you might understand why I'm just barely holding on to the little blue pills of valium and trying to keep sane until the end. You must think, 'What about the other women?' True, the other women. But they haven't had to fight a whole government, argue with generals, be threatened with lawsuits by the president (Augusto Pinochet).

"They have not been studied and slandered by the whole press of the country. And all of it from one day to the next, with no warning when everything promised happiness, when finally I had gotten Mike to forget CNI (the successor agency to DINA) and to go into the computer business and my book was going to be published.

"I know I deserve it, otherwise it wouldn't have happened to me. But to tell you truthfully, I'd very gladly trade places with Letelier or with Ronni Moffitt. But I have children, and I have a wonderful family, mother, sisters, brothers. I, although the youngest, have always been the tower of strength. I have to keep it up for them.

"You must think I'm very selfish, not thinking at all of Mike. I'll tell you why. Mike is one of those privileged, uncomplicated, kind, charming human beings whom hardly anybody can help liking. Wherever he's sent, he'll find the way to be useful.

"He'll miss us, of course, especially the children but he'll build himself a nice nest. He'll be away from problems, he'll read, he'll study. He has a fantastic mind. Whatever he studies, he'll become an expert in. I know him so well. I think that Judge Parker was wrong: you'd be very happy to sit beside him in church or anywhere. Don't laugh. You'd feel safe with him."

Mariana Townley is an attractive woman somewhat in the image of actress Jeanne Moreau, but she has the manner of a latter-day Ophelia, smiling wistfully in the face of darkest tragedy. Yet her recent letters reflect the impact of the shadowy life in which she and her husband moved at the beck and call of Gen. Contreras and the secret police.

"For the first time in my life," she said, "I know the meaning of the word 'depression.' I didn't know it could happen to me but a year has gone past since the beginning of this nightmare. A year of unbearable pressure must be a lot for anyone and perhaps I'm not as strong as I thought I was. I need someone to tell me that everything is going to be all right. I need someone to tell me that I'm not crazy. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad person. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad mother. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad wife. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad daughter. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad sister. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad friend. I need someone to tell me that I'm not a bad human being what in the image of actress Jeanne Moreau, but she has the manner of a latter-day Ophelia, smiling wistfully in the face of darkest tragedy. Yet her recent letters reflect the impact of the shadowy life in which she and her husband moved at the beck and call of Gen. Contreras and the secret police.

"For the first time in my life," she said, "I know the meaning of the word 'depression.' I didn't know it could happen to me but a year has gone past since the beginning of this nightmare. A year of unbearable pressure must be a lot for anyone and perhaps I'm not as strong as I thought I was. I need someone to tell me that everything is going to be all right but no one can tell me that because it wouldn't be true.

"I live on a day-to-day basis. Today will be over in a few more hours. Tomorrow is another day. What will it bring? More sorrows, no doubt."

She reserves special loathing and animosity for Contreras, now under confinement with two other former DINA officers because of their indictment by a U.S. grand jury in the Letelier plot and the American request for their extradition. Her belief is that everyone in the Chilean government is afraid of Contreras.

"They allow him to do what he wants and I know why. His weapon is extortion. He knows too much (about) military secrets and scandal. Generals are no saints. We do have some puritans among the generals but many of them are not. Contreras knew it and had obtained proof, photographs, who knows what else?

"But, to me, he has done already so much damage in the moral sense that there's nothing left I might fear. So he cannot extort me but he does not want me back (in Chile) and he knows I'm going back."

About the murder of Letelier, Mariana said she is not certain whether her husband's deed was misguided patriotism or the belief that he was a soldier and must obey orders. "Whichever was his reason," she said, "Michael did not say 'No' when he should have, did everything the best he could, followed the instructions that were precise: (make it look like an) accident, the best way, but DO IT in any way possible.

"I have thought many times of the reason for the urgency of that command. I've arrived at the conclusion that Gen. Contreras was, is, a very sick man, and that he wanted to show the president and the rest of the generals that his power was unlimited. And the president trusted him so much Contreras was able to keep many facts from him."

Recalling the DINA attempt to cover up the Chilean role in the plot, Mariana said Contreras wanted to send her husband into hiding, but that she would not let him go. "I did not want to [illegible] so vulnerable if he went away. [illegible]

Encuesta y elecciones

Eso, por lo menos, es lo que espera el comentarista Pablo Rodríguez, el cual desde su columna en La Tercera, reclamaba, el lunes, una actitud más combativa de parte de las autoridades que, hasta ahora, "se han limitado a encarar sucesivamente una serie de problemas, la mayor parte de los cuales han sido promovidos o intensificados por una oposición partidista que, ausente de apoyo interno, busca en el extranjero la manera de crear presiones internacionales en contra del régimen militar".

También se refirió el ex dirigente de Patria y Libertad a las últimas encuestas, las que, en su opinión, "acusan un aumento en el apoyo cívico al gobierno militar. Estos índices pueden ser equívocos si no se tiene en cuenta que ellos resultan de dos factores: la carencia de una alternativa capaz de sustituir al gobierno militar (hecho que revela hasta qué extremo llegaron el repudio y agotamiento derivados de la actividad político-partidista) y a la excesiva ponderación que se sigue atribuyendo al orden, el respeto y la tranquilidad de que disfruta el país desde hace cinco años (45,3 por ciento de la población encuestada)".

La posición oficial respecto a la encuesta (HOY N.° 92) cuyos resultados se conocieron por la prensa, la dio a conocer el ministro del Interior.

Entre otros indicadores, sostuvo Fernández, la encuesta señala que el 60 por ciento de los chilenos no desea elecciones políticas. Y comentó que "el pueblo se da cuenta de que la vía del sufragio universal no es la solución para todos los problemas, que no se trata de una vara mágica ni de una panacea".

Hace cinco años, al entregar oficialmente su Declaración de Principios, el gobierno afirmó, en cambio, que "la Junta de Gobierno entregará oportunamente el poder político a quienes el pueblo elija a través del sufragio universal, libre, secreto e informado".

Tal vez debería aclarar el ministro Fernández si de sus palabras debe deducirse o no un cambio. A.S.

La última versión de Mariana Callejas

• Por teléfono y por escrito, sin revelar el lugar donde las autoridades norteamericanas la tienen bajo su protección, esposa de Townley habla para HOY

Washington, por Cecilia Domeyko

No niega que teme regresar a Chile. Está consciente de los peligros. Pero para Mariana Callejas de Townley, "Chile es mi patria y no sabría vivir en otro país". Por eso, pronto partirá de vuelta con sus dos hijos mientras su esposo, Michael Townley, permanece en EE.UU. cumpliendo una condena probable de diez años de cárcel. Bajo el acuerdo suscrito entre Townley y el gobierno norteamericano, Mariana aún puede acogerse al plan de protección de testigos. Hasta miembros de la mafia norteamericana, utilizados como soplones por el FBI, han desaparecido provistos por el gobierno de una nueva identidad después de ser reubicados en un lugar seguro.

La Dirección de HOY cree necesario puntualizar que, conforme a su propósito de servir de la mejor manera al lector, solicita constantemente entrevistas a los representantes de todos los sectores de la opinión pública. Ello no implica necesariamente que comparta los puntos de vista de quienes conceden dichas entrevistas, como es el caso de las siguientes declaraciones exclusivas que hizo Mariana Callejas de Townley a la periodista Cecilia Domeyko, en Washington.

Mientras permanezca en EE.UU. sigue sujeta a este plan. No pudo aparecer en ningún momento en las sesiones del juicio donde su esposo fue testigo principal. Está resguardada a cada instante por guardias federales. Se comunicó con HOY a través del teléfono y por escrito. Sólo se supo que residía a poca distancia de Washington con sus dos niños.

por Jeramías O'Leavy

Mariana Callejas Townley, sola y enferma, se ha hecho a la idea de regresar a Chile pronto, aunque ella cree que ha firmado su sentencia de muerte por hablar contra el Jefe Oficial de la policía secreta DINA, Gen. Manuel Contreras.
La esposa de 48 años del confeso asesino del Embajador Orlando Letelier, Michael V. Townley, ha decidido abandonar el programa de protección de observación federal y la oportunidad de vivir en Estados Unidos.
Escribiendo a este reportero desde una lejana localidad alrededor de 3 horas de Washington, donde ella y sus dos jovenes hijos viven con alguaciles norteamericanos para resguardarlos, ella dijo:
" Seguro, yo puedo empezar una vida toda de nuevo en el prógrama de observación. Otro nombre. Un lugar remoto. Una vida normal. Pero uno no puede despreciar el pasado como a un sombrero viejo, sobre todo un hermoso pasado. Ellos (los niños) tienen nostalgia, añoran volver a su colegio, a sus amigos, a nuestra familia. Y yo de descubir cuantos muchos amigos dejé".
Su marido de 36 años, así como agentes del FBI y otros oficiales del gobierno == Norteamericano han tratado de persuadirla de que se quede donde está hasta que - Townley complete la sentencia de prisión que debe darle el juez federal Barrigton Parker a mas tardar el próximo mes.
Pero ella dijo " Yo regreso pronto después que el juicio termine. Destruyendo mi reputación , Contreras esperar mantenerme alejada porque el sabe que la Corte Suprema podría desear mi testimonio. Y él sabe que diré la verdad, no importa cuan dolorosa sea la verdad para mí".
"Así Ud. podrá entender porque yo me sostengo a penas con pequeñas píldoras azules de valium y tratando de ,mantenerme sana hasta el final. Ud. debe pensar. Hay otras mujeres. Verdad, las otras mujeres. Pero ellas no han tenido que pelear por un gobierno completo, discutir con generales, ser atemorizada o amenazada con == juicios por el presidente (Augusto Pinochet).
"Ellas no han sido estudiadas y manipuladas por toda la prensa del país. Y todo ello de un día para otro, sin ninguna advertencia cuando todo prometía felicidad, cuando finalmente había conseguido que Mike olvidará el CNI (la agencia sucesora de DINA) y entrara en el negocio de computación y mi libro iba a ser publicado.
"Yo se que me lo merecía", de otra manera no me habría sucedido a mi. Pero para decirle verdad, yo estaría muy contenda de negociar l gares con Letelier o Roni Moffit, Pero yo tengo niños, y tengo una maravillosa familia, madre, hermanas, - hermanos, y aún los menores he sido siempre la torre de fuerza. Debo mantenerme arriba por ellos."
"Ud. debe pensar que soy muy egoista, no pensando en nada en Mike. Le diré porque. Mike es uno de esos privilegiados, sin complicaciones, amable, ser humano encantador a quien difícilmente alguien podría parecersele. Dondequiera se le envíe, el encontrará la manera de ser útil.
"El nos extrañara por supuesto, especialmente a los niños, pero el se construirá para sí un magnifico nido. El estara alejado de problemas, leerá, estudiará. El tiene una magnifica mente. Cualquier cosa que estudie, llegará a ser un experto en ello. Le conozco tan bien. Creo que el Juez Parker estaba equivocado: el estaría muy contento de sentarse cerca de él en la iglesia o en cualquier lugar.No se ría. Ud. se siente a salvo con él."
Mariana Townley es una mujer atractiva de alguna manera en la imagen de la actris Jeanne Moreau , pero tiene la manera de una pasada Ofelia, sonriendo tontamente en la cara de una oscura tragedia. Aun sus ultimas cartas reflejan el impacto de la vida sombría en la cual ella y su marido se movieron en el pasado, con General Contreras y la policiía secreta.
"Por primera vez en mi vida, dijo, sé el significado de la palabra depresión. No sabía podría sucederme a mí. pero ya ha pasado un año del comienso de esta pesadilla. Un año de insoportable presión debe ser mucho para cualquiera y tal vez yo no soy tan fuerte como pensé que era. Necesito de alguien que me diga que todo estará bien pero nadie puede decirmelo porque no sería verdad."

" Yo vivo en bases de día a día. Hoy se terminará pronto en pocas horas más. Mañana es otro día. Que traerá? Más penas, sin duda."

Ella reserva especial interes y animosidad para Contreras, ahora bajo confinamiento con otros dos oficiales de DINA por ser inculpados por un Gran Jurado Norteamericano en el asunto Letlier y los Americanos solicitaron sus extradiciones. Su creencia es que cada uno en el Gobierno Chileno tienen miedo de Contreras.

"Ellos le permiten hacer lo que él quiera y yo sé porque. Su arma es la extorsión. El sabe demasiado (acerca) secretos militares y escandalos. Los Generales no son — santos. Nosotros si tenemos algunos puritanos entre los generales pero muchos de — ellos no lo son. Contreras lo sabe y ha obtenido pruebas, fotografías, quien sabe que más?

" Pero, para mí, el ha hecho ya tanto daño en un sentido moral que no queda nada alla que yo pueda temer, así el no puede extorsionarme pero él no me desea de regreso(en Chile) y el sabe que yo regreso.".

Acerca del asesinato de Letelier, Mariana dijo que ella no estaba cierta si lo que hizo su marido fue patriotismo malentendido o la creencia que el era un soldado y debía obedecer ordenes. "Cualquiera haya sido su razón, dijo, Michael no dijo No cuando debió hacerlo, hizo todo lo mejor que pudo, siguio las instrucciones que eran precisas (hacerlo aparecer como) accidente, el mejor camino, pero hagalo de cualquier manera posible.

"Yo he pensado muchas veces en la razón de la urgencia de esa orden. He llegado a la conclusión que Gen. Contreras era, es, un hombre muy enfermo y que el deseaba demostrarle al presidente y al resto de los generales que su poder era ilimitado. Y el — presidente confiaba en él tanto que Contreras podía mantener muchos hechos lejos de él".

Volviendo a la intencion de DINA de cubrir el rol chileno en el asunto, Mariana dijo que Contreras deseaba enviar a su exposo escondido afuera pero que ella no lo había dejado ir. "Yo le dije a Mike que el era muy vulnerable si salía, dijo, le dije que si salía desaparecería y ellos dirían que era un Agente de la CIA. Le dije a Mike que el hizo lo mejor en el mundo, y le pregunté porque Contreras no envió uno de sus soldados ha hacer el trabajo. Porque si el te envía a tí y te pescan, Contreras dirá que eras agente de la CIA infiltrado en DINA.

"Mike dijo, No, él no haría una cosa así, el es un oficial y un caballero."

En el juicio de los 3 cubanos acusados, que terminó en su condena la semana pasada, Townley testificó que la DINA le ordenó ir a Mexico a matar a los exilados Volodia Teilteibom y Carlos Altamirano. El fué acompañado en ese viaje por tierra desde — Miami a Ciudad de México, por Mariana y otro Cubano inculpado Virgilio Paz. El testimonio fué que los Townleys y Paz tenían un rifle con mira telecopica pero llegaron a Ciudad de México un día atrasados para llevar a cabo el asesinato.

Contreras, dijo, no pareció muy molesto por el fracaso de la misión mexicana. Ella dijo que no dió razón para la misión.

"Contreras no es las fuerzas armadas, ni es el gobierno de Chile. Nosotros debemos mirarlo como la manzana podrida. Mariana dijo "Creo que de alguna manera he perdonado al Gobierno de Chile por entregar a Mike. Si ahora sé donde radica la falta y tal vés fue todo para mejor. Hubiera seguido esa monstruosa máquina todo el tiempo. Mike fué una pequeña parte de lla que se quebró y toda la máquina sufrió un colapso para mejor.

"No volverá haber nunca una DINA en Chile nuevamente. Y ello me hace sentir mucho - mejor, más limpia, porque el país mejora. Regreso a una vida diferente, mejor. Extrañaré a Mike, por supuesto, y los niños también lo extrañaran. Pero la vida será normal ahora y cuando Mike regrese el nunca será engañado nuevamente por el canto de las sirenas.

"Mike no tendrá una vida facil tampoco. Tal vez ninguno de nosotros tendrá una larga vida. Pero será una mejor que antes. Mike y yo nunca conversamos mucho, El gustaba de la televisión y yo la odiaba. Y este asunto minó nuestras relaciones aun más. No importaba en que empezaramos terminabamos hablando del asunto.

Marina cerró su última carta con estas palabras: " No puedo escribir más, Me caigo de sueño. Quisiera estar en casa, cerca de mis montañas."

llas de Valium y a "no pensar más que de un día a la vez". El año de espera previa al juicio la llevó prácticamente al borde de una depresión nerviosa. Su relación matrimonial ha sido afectada: las conversaciones difícilmente se apartan del tema del caso Letelier.

Pese a que en Chile se ha desatado una campaña para desprestigiarla, tiene fe en el futuro. "Por lo menos, al regresar sabré quiénes son y no son mis amigos", dice con la voz suave que la caracteriza.

Sobre los efectos de esta campaña dice: "Don Mamo (Contreras) sabe que no digo más que la verdad. Busca mi descrédito porque sabe que vuelvo a Chile y no quiere que lo haga. Cree que si me convierte en bígama, comunista, mentirosa, desleal, yo, deshecha en lágrimas, me quedaré a vivir en este país que detesto. Se equivoca. No ha conseguido el asunto Letelier arrancarme una sola lágrima y nadie conseguirá que no regrese".

Venganza cubana

–En la campaña, Contreras la acusa de ser comunista. ¿Lo fue alguna vez?

–Puedo declarar honestamente que soy anticomunista. Pero, para aclarar todo esto, resumiré mi trayectoria política: a los catorce años, en rebelión contra mi padre, que era anticomunista y antinazi, me dediqué a repartir panfletos del PC en las esquinas. Medio año después descubrí el socialismo y pensé por un tiempo que nada podía ser mejor para la sufriente Humanidad. Antes de los 20 me desilusioné y pasé a ser un ente apolítico.

"En 1968, en compañía de amigos de la Universidad de Miami, marché contra la guerra de Vietnam: apoyaba a Eugene McCarthy (el candidato presidencial). Pronto, también me desilusioné de McCarthy y de César Chávez (dirigente chicano). Descubrí que los políticos en su mayoría son falsos.

"Volvimos a Chile en 1970, porque pensamos que había que luchar desde adentro contra un gobierno marxista: no como los cubanos que lucharon desde afuera y perdieron su isla. Me di cuenta de que la única salida para Chile y la liberación del marxismo era un pronunciamiento militar. Todos nuestros esfuerzos se canalizaron hacia eso.

–Dicen que usted se casó bajo órdenes del PC.

–Esa es la última bajeza. Tal vez sólo me quede reírme. Quizás es cierto que hubo una posibilidad en un millón de que el hijo del gerente de la Ford en Chile conociera a la bohemia divorciada, amiga del grupo que flotaba alrededor de un conocido fotógrafo, pero esa posibilidad sucedió. Sé que esos ataques provienen de Contreras: es su modus operandi. Por eso todo el mundo le teme y lo dejan hacer lo que quiera. Su arma es la extorsión: sabe demasiado acerca de secretos militares y escándalos. Los generales no son santos. Existen puritanos entre ellos, pero son una minoría. Contreras lo sabe y tiene pruebas: ha dicho todo lo que ha podido. No me puede extorsionar. Y no puede evitar que regrese a decir lo que quiero.

–Sin la protección de EE.UU., ¿no teme la venganza de los cubanos?

–Francamente, no. Sé que algún día comprenderán cómo se supo la historia completa del asesinato. La declaración partió de un cubano: Orlando Bosch. Y éste lo supo por un miembro del Movimiento Nacionalista Cubano, quien salió de una reunión y se lo contó. Además, su movimiento estaba infiltrado. Entonces, ¿por qué culpar a Townley, que salió de Chile expulsado y en manos del FBI? Ellos ya habían hablado: Alvin Ross y Guillermo Novo también. Jamás lo habría esperado de Guillermo...

"En cuanto a Paz y Suárez, si don Manuel Contreras los tiene escondidos en Chile, que sean muy felices en tan bello país. ¿Y si me matan si nos encontramos? Seguramente.... a pesar de que Paz sabe que hicimos lo posible. En cuanto a Suárez, jamás me podré convencer de que no vengó a Otero haciendo estallar la bomba contrariamente a lo convenido, en pleno Sheridan Circle, a metros de la Embajada de Chile, y con otros pasajeros en el auto. Estoy segura de que implicaron a Michael para inmiscuir a la DINA. Pudieron haber elegido a alguien más representativo de la DINA y no al eterno chivo expiatorio.

–¿Por qué cree que dicen que Townley es agente de la CIA?

–Porque es norteamericano, alto y de ojos azules. Sólo se salvan de esta definición los que se mimetizan y no parecen serlo: los chicos, morenos y regordetes.

"Contreras es enfermo"

Según Mariana, cuando recién salió el exhorto de extradición, Townley tuvo la oportunidad de huir. Se la brindó el mayor Vianel Valdivieso, quien quería que Townley se fugara al sur. Ella, y no Michael, acudió a la cita en Bilbao con Los Leones

Michael Townley: cumplió órdenes porque le gustaba jugar a los soldaditos

"Don Mamo" Contreras: quería demostrar al Presidente y a los generales que tenía poderes ilimitados, según Mariana Callejas iría al sur según lo previsto.

UNCLASSIFIED

–¿Qué pasó entonces?

–El mayor Valdivieso se enojó mucho conmigo y nos acusó de no tener confianza en él. Le contesté que tenía razón: no le tenía confianza. Hubiera sido muy fácil que Townley "desapareciera". ¿Acaso no desaparecía gente en Santiago? Después, hubieran culpado a la CIA: habrían dicho que ésta hizo desaparecer a uno de sus agentes.

"Cuando Valdivieso vio que Townley no se iría con ellos, me exhortó a que se escondiera por su cuenta. Que no se dejara tomar por la CNI ni que le contara al general Mena, director de la CNI, lo acontecido. Hay quienes todavía no comprenden por qué Michael, agente de la DINA-CNI, debía esconderse de esa organización. La razón es simple: Townley trabajó ahí a cargo de don Manuel Contreras. En el momento del destape, éste ya nada tenía que

Mariana Callejas: "Contreras ya no me puede extorsionar, no puede evitar que regrese a decir lo que quiero" ver con la DINA o la CNI. El general Mena nunca supo nada de Andrés Wilson o del caso Letelier. Townley terminó escondiéndose en nuestra propia casa. Pensamos que era el lugar más seguro."

–¿Usted también mintió al comienzo bajo órdenes de Contreras?

–Sí. Decidí dejar de hacerlo cuando Townley fue entregado al FBI. No había razón para seguir mintiendo cuando Michael había sido traicionado. Sólo que, al principio, no pude decirlo todo, pues no sabía cuánto sabían el FBI y el señor Propper. No tenía objeto seguir amparando a aquéllos que habían dado las órdenes. Fuimos unos ilusos. Pensar que nosotros nos imaginamos que el general Contreras iba a decir, con la cabeza en alto, orgulloso: "Sí, yo ordené el asesinato, en beneficio de la patria. Dejen a los demás tranquilos". prensa, un pequeño hombrecito sonriente que decía: "¿Nosotros? ¡Inocentes! ¡Ese Townley armó todo con la CIA para desprestigiar al país!" Resulta que, más tarde, Contreras nos acusa de marxistas, mientras que su abogado sigue acusándonos de agentes de la CIA. ¡Ni siquiera se ponen de acuerdo para mentir!

–¿Quién convenció a Townley de que dijera la verdad?

–Yo le aconsejé decir la verdad. No es que mi consejo tuviera importancia... Lamenté tener que decirlo todo, más que nada por los cubanos, menos culpables que los autores intelectuales del asunto. Recuerdo con ira el llamado telefónico de Guillermo Novo y la poca importancia que le dio Contreras. Durante el juicio, Miranda Carrington intentó ayudar a los acusados con documentos. ¡Demasiado tarde! En enero de 1977, los cubanos pedían nada más que 25 mil dólares para huir. Son personas honorables y todavía era posible ayudarlos. Contreras no hizo nada.

–¿Por qué cree que Contreras mandó a Townley a cometer el asesinato?

–He llegado a la triste conclusión de que Manuel Contreras es un hombre enfermo. Quería demostrar al Presidente y a los demás. El Presidente confiaba tanto en él que Contreras pudo ocultarle muchos hechos.

–¿Por qué Townley aceptó esa misión?

–Porque a mi marido le gustaba jugar a los soldaditos. No supo decir que no cuando debió haberlo hecho.

–¿Qué siente con respecto al gobierno del Chile actual?

–¿El gobierno? No me gusta este gobierno, esta Junta, pero sigo partidaria del gobierno militar. Pero, hasta cierto punto, he perdonado al gobierno el haber entregado a Townley. Sé ahora quién es el culpable de todo esto. Quizás todo sea para mejor. Michael era sólo un tornillo dentro de una gigantesca maquinaria. Ahora falta el tornillo y toda la máquina se ha detenido: quizás nunca vuelva a existir una DINA en Chile. El país está bien así.

"Ninguno de los dos tendremos una vida fácil, seguramente no tendremos una larga vida, pero será una mejor. Los niños y yo echaremos de menos a Michael. Pero él estará bien. Estará alejado de todos los problemas y podrá leer y estudiar. Tiene una mente fabulosa y aprovechará bien su tiempo. Y para cuando regrese a Chile, ya no tendrá las mismas tentaciones".

JUSTICIA

El primer discurso

● Una sorpresa dio el presidente de la Corte Suprema, Israel Bórquez, al referirse a olvidado DL 1.775

Fue su primer discurso en la tradicional ceremonia de inauguración del Año Judicial que se realiza en el primer día hábil del mes de marzo. Porque el presidente de la Corte Suprema, Israel Bórquez (casado, sin hijos, 74 años y 43 en la carrera judicial), asumió el alto cargo en mayo de 1978.

Coincidió con su antecesor, José María Eyzaguirre, en destacar la difícil situación económica de los miembros del Poder Judicial. Eyzaguirre fue duro, en marzo del año pasado, para decir que veía "con profunda pena" que la Administración de Justicia tenía "un oscuro porvenir" si no se adoptaban con valentía y rapidez las medidas para rectificar la situación. El presidente Bórquez reconoció ahora como "buen augurio" el aumento especial de sueldos para el personal subalterno, que empezó a correr el pasado 1.º de enero. Pero fue enfático para aclarar que no bastaba, que la única solución era restablecer la "escala de sueldos del Poder Judicial". Y no se pide una excepción: ya otros sectores, como los funcionarios de la Superintendencia de Bancos, se marginaron de la escala única. Dijo Bórquez:

–El interés por ingresar a la carrera judicial –me refiero a jueces, secretarios o relatores– ha desaparecido. Por ahí resulta alguien con vocación, seguramente heredada, y se incorpora así al servicio un buen elemento humano...

Y agregó:

–Restableciéndose aquella jerarquía especial de remuneraciones y dotándose a este Poder del Estado de los dineros necesarios a través del presupuesto de la nación, sin restricciones mezquinas, producto de comparaciones interesadas y ajenas al superior beneficio social, haría posible mantener o recuperar para la justicia de Chile el prestigio y la independencia que sus funcionarios forjaron al administrarla durante toda la vida de la República.

El problema, sin duda, es grave. Como comentó un alto funcionario judicial al finalizar el acto, "muy pocos siquiera imaginan el desastre que sería la administración de Justicia en manos de mediocres: de muy poco vale la Constitución y las leyes si no hay jueces que las apliquen con valentía, honestidad e independencia".

Injusticia

En el recuento de lo positivo, Bórquez destacó el decreto-ley que crea juzgados en lo criminal y eleva de categoría a otros. Estas medidas, junto a la pronta instalación de la Corte de Apelaciones en el departamento Pedro Aguirre Cerda, redundarán "con absoluta certeza, en beneficio de la más expedita administración de justicia para los departamentos de más población

Saboteadores

Un amigo, vinculado al equipo económico, me habla entusiasmado de los beneficios que traerá la renegociación del Estatuto Automotriz.

–Es increíble –señala– el daño que le estaba haciendo a la política económica el hecho de que un grupo de empresas gozara de una discriminación especial.

–Es cierto –comento– que para incentivarlas hubo que favorecerlas con un arancel especial.

–No son los aranceles lo más grave, sino el pésimo ejemplo que estaban dando. No era posible que ellas escaparan a los esquemas esenciales de la política económica.

–¿En qué sentido?

–Cuando se busca propender a las importaciones, cuando todos los esfuerzos se orientan en ese sentido, y ellas hacen todo al revés. No imagina el daño que estaban haciendo a la importación de vehículos. Habían incluso llegado a concientizar a la gente...

–¿Cómo?

–Sí, ya algunos repetían que eran mejores los autos armados en Chile porque existía la seguridad de los repuestos. ¡A ese extremo habíamos llegado!

Para explicar cómo las demás industrias han cooperado con la política económica.

–A la de la construcción ya no se le puede pedir más. ¡Y qué decir de los textiles! Hasta Iansa ha aportado su cuota...

–Se le olvida la electrónica –acoto.

–Cierto. Cuánto costó convencer que los chilenos no podían competir con Japón y Taiwán en equipos electrónicos. Pero no faltaban argumentos simplistas que decían que las fábricas de Arica alimentaban a 20 mil personas. Al final se convencieron de que ellas podían perfectamente colaborar en el desarrollo económico a través del empleo mínimo. ¿Y qué pasó recién en Arica? Automotriz Arica, con el 80 por ciento de las acciones de la Corfo, lo que es más grave, estaba anunciando que fabricaría incluso viviendas de aluminio. Lo importante era crear problemas.

–Pero... la verdad es que no entiendo.

Mi interlocutor es quien parece no comprender mi sorpresa por su alarma, y prosigue:

–En verdad que toda la industria automotriz estaba atornillando al revés. Todas querían saborear los planes económicos. Y se van a dar a conocer las pruebas al país. Ojalá que por cadena nacional.

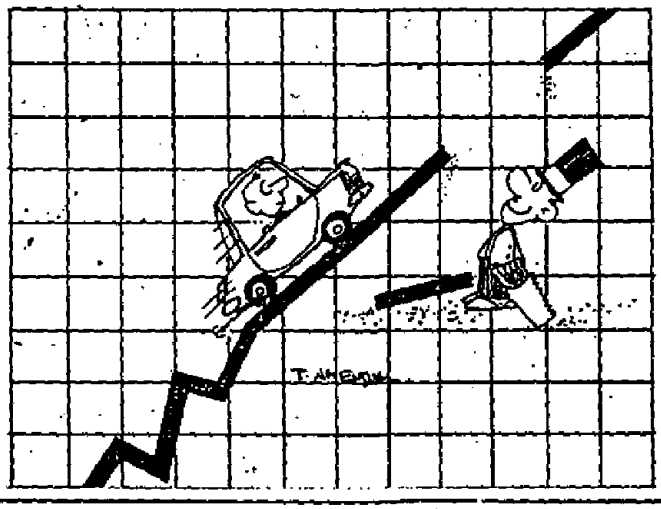
–¿Hasta ese extremo se llega?

–Sí –replica–. Llegó a nuestras manos un memorándum reservado que la Franco Chilena, que fabrica los Peugeot y Renault, le enviaba a su casa matriz en París.

–¿Y qué decía el memo?

–Se proponía subir la producción de 32 a 50 vehículos al día, y aumentar su dotación de personal. Y hay quienes afirman que la Fiat estaba en el mismo plan.

Tenebroso.



portancia de un reciente decreto-ley que creó el Servicio Nacional de Menores.

Por su especial personalidad, se esperaba con cierta expectación este primer discurso de Bórquez. Y no defraudó. Porque sacó del sombrero algo de real gravedad que olvidó su antecesor José María Eyzaguirre, quien debió denunciarlo. Se trata del decreto-ley 1.775, de mayo de 1977, que modificó los artículos 6 y 158 del Código de Procedimiento Penal.

–De esta Reforma Procesal –enfatizó Bórquez– nada supo esta Corte...

El Código establecía: "Para proceder al examen y registro de lugares religiosos, de edificios en que funciona alguna autoridad pública, de cuarteles o lugares sujetos a jefes militares, o de buques del Estado, el juez deberá pasar recado de atención a la autoridad o persona a cuyo cargo estuvieren, quien podrá asistir a la operación o nombrar a alguna persona que asista".

Israel Bórquez: "La Justicia merece la confianza de la ciudadanía"

La modificación introducida por la Junta Militar suprimió la frase "de cuarteles, lugares sujetos a jefes militares, o de buques del Estado" y agregó este inciso:

"Tratándose de recintos militares o policiales, las diligencias a que se refiere el inciso anterior deberán cumplirse por intermedio de los tribunales militares de la correspondiente jurisdicción".

Aclara también la modificación: "Se entiende por recinto militar o policial todo espacio debidamente delimitado, vehículos, naves o aeronaves, en los cuales ejerzan sus funciones específicas una autoridad militar o policial de Carabineros de Chile".

Esta reforma –denunciada ahora por Bórquez– impide a los jueces del Crimen ingresar a tales recintos.

–La modificación –dijo Bórquez– ocasionado y sigue ocasionando entorpecimientos en las investigaciones sumariales que debe llevar a cabo la Justicia O cer lo correcto, quizá. Pero primero que nada es un crimen que en todo caso no fue cometido por mi marido, por su propia voluntad, fue ordenado por un organismo gubernamental. Ese solo hecho debió bastar para que el Gobierno apoyara al servicio de inteligencia que lo había hecho y protegiera al coronel Contreras y a la DINA; aunque lo echara después no importaba, pero protegerlo de Estados Unidos. Enviando a Michael a Estados Unidos se dio el primer y más rotundo paso negativo que pueden haber dado. Los mismos abogados de Estados Unidos han dicho, la misma gente de la Embajada, no entienden cómo se puede hacer la estupidez de mandar a un agente de la inteligencia a otro país. Michael lo dijo. Si a mí me mandan va a ser terrible. Ese fue el primer error. Después, quizá si se hubiera hecho un juicio interno, habría dejado a Estados Unidos contento, pero mucho antes que ahora, antes de que el escándalo fuera tan grande. Cuando recién llegó allá y declaró, se debió hacer un juicio interno y haber declarado reos a los tres o quizá haya más; haberme envuelto a mí, por último, a todos que sabíamos, y haberlos condenado y hubieran dejado a Estados Unidos perfectamente satisfechos con esa actuación...

—¿Tú crees que Estados Unidos necesitaba lo que se dice un "show"?...

—No. En absoluto. Ellos perseguían un asunto policial.

—¿Pero tú crees que a Estados Unidos no le mueve la causa de la justicia fundamentalmente?

—Claro. Por eso la justicia habría quedado en paz, si aquí, en Chile, se le hubiera seguido un juicio a los culpables.

—Pero tú me decías hace un rato que tu marido viajó a Estados Unidos, fue entregado al FBI, pero viajó instrucciones del Gobierno chileno de hacer una declaración determinada.

—No, no, no fue así. No viajó a Estados Unidos con instrucciones. En absoluto. No se pudo comunicar con nadie. Es decir, se comunicó con un montón de gente, que lo engañaron. Mi marido fue a Investigaciones para irse a Concepción, porque le dijeron que lo llevaban allí y cuando llegó allá lo entregaron y lo expulsaron ilegalmente. Pero él no recibió las instrucciones hasta días después, cuando yo me encontraba allá y las recibió de autoridades chilenas que viajaron especialmente a eso. El les explicó la situación, les confió todo y ellos le ordenaron confesar.

—Pero la noche antes del día en que expulsaron a tu marido del país había estado aquí un jefe de la DINA, que le explicó la necesidad de que...

—No, no. No se lo explicó a él, se lo explicó a mí. El estuvo conmigo. Yo te voy a explicar. La última El capitán Armando Fernández Larios (señalado con la flecha) en una foto tomada durante el funeral de su padre, en 1977. Su extradición fue solicitada por la justicia norteamericana.

"Al principio mentí para proteger a mi marido, al Gobierno, a la DINA, a todos los demás implicados".

noche nosotros estábamos en la casa de un amigo en el centro y a esa casa llegó un oficial del CNI (Centro Nacional de Inteligencia) y el abogado Acuña. Ellos le dijeron a Mike que se dirigiera inmediatamente a Investigaciones, porque el general Baeza le iba a ayudar y lo iba a enviar en un auto de Investigaciones a Concepción para bloquear la extradición, la expulsión digamos, porque ya se sabía la expulsión. Mi marido y el comandante Mey y el abogado se fueron a Investigaciones y yo me quedé fuera, no entré, esperando que el auto saliera a Concepción. Y no salió jamás. Yo tenía que recoger a uno de mis niños y terminé por retirarme y fui a casa de mi mamá. A la casa de mi mamá me llamó el mozo Luis y me dijo que había unos señores del CNI que querían hablar conmigo. Yo, al principio, no los conocía, no los había visto nunca. Cuando yo llegué acá, la casa estaba totalmente llena de gente. Estaba acá el general Mena, el coronel Pantoja, me parece que el mayor Vergara, en fin, un lote de gente del CNI, del ejército, y el general Pantoja me explicó a mí por qué era necesario sacar a Mike a Estados Unidos. Me dio una larga conferencia, una larga explicación.

—¿Cuál era la importancia?

—La importancia era que internamente nosotros sufrimos ataques continuos y Estados Unidos podía cortar relaciones. Entonces yo le dije que yo no aceptaba su planteamiento, que era mucho peor mandar a Mike a los Estados Unidos. Yo lo sabía porque cuando vino el abogado Hueck habló con Propper y Propper le explicó que contra Mike tenían sólo esos ciento veinte años de que había el Presidente, esos ciento veinte años por la compra de artículos electrónicos y por viajar con pasaporte falso. Esos son los delitos de Mike. Esos delitos los tenían comprobados. Entonces, al mandar a Mike a los Estados Unidos, allí le iban a ofrecer esos ciento veinte años a que cooperara, y ¿quién quiere estar ciento veinte años en la cárcel por algo que no fue su intención hacer de todas maneras? Yo le expliqué todo eso al general Mena, pero me respondió que, a pesar de todo, nosotros vamos a tener que expulsarlo. Entonces, como último recurso, yo le había escrito una carta a su excelencia el Presidente Pinochet y se la mostré al general Mena. En la carta yo le explicaba al Presidente las tremendas repercusiones que iba a tener la expulsión de mi marido. Yo le decía que no hay manera que él, cuando se le enfrente a la evidencia —que sabemos que los gringos tienen, porque Hueck sabía que los gringos tenían suficientes evidencias te has sentido ni declarado culpable.

—¿Qué iba a hacer yo? Lo único que sabía era el plan. No iba a comunicárselo a Carabineros, naturalmente. Yo supe del plan y no estaba de acuerdo y se lo dije, y le dije que era una estupidez, y le recomendé que no lo hiciera y él lo hizo de todos modos.

—Por tu parte, en el tiempo de la resistencia contra el Gobierno de la Unidad Popular, después en círculos de amigos y ahora en esta situación actual, siempre dijiste creer que las Fuerzas Armadas chilenas eran la reserva moral del país.

—Sigo pensándolo.

—¿No crees que se le ha causado un grave daño a las reservas morales del país con la acción de tu marido?

—Yo creo que es al revés el asunto.

—No entiendo.

—Encuentro que mi marido actuó de buena fe. El obedeció órdenes de las Fuerzas Armadas.

—¿Cómo se actúa de buena fe cuando se va a matar a una persona?

—A él se lo ordenaron. Igual que a Fernández Larios. El estaba cumpliendo órdenes.

—De acuerdo con la ley, y la ley es a veces lógica y a veces ilógica, quien está en antecedentes de un crimen que se va a cometer debe comunicarlo a la autoridad para intentar evitarlo.

—¿A qué autoridad iba a ir yo?

—Se ha dicho, y el Presidente lo ha dicho varias veces, que la Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional actuó por impulso propio. ¿No estimaste en algún momento que era oportuno advertirle al Presidente que estaba pasando esto a sus espaldas?

—Yo traté varias veces inútilmente de comunicarme con el Presidente.

—¿Tú trataste de impedir que la acción se llevara a cabo o trataste de que tu marido participara?

—No, cuando la acción se llevó a cabo yo estaba firmemente convencida de que la orden provenía del Presidente. Entonces, yo no podía tratar de hablarle al Presidente cuando pensaba que la orden venía de él. Cuando nosotros trabajábamos, es decir, cuando Michael trabajaba para el coronel Manuel Contreras, todas las órdenes que provenían de Contreras, él siempre pensó que venían de Pinochet. Nunca pensó que Contreras jugara solo. El pensaba que las órdenes venían de más arriba que Contreras. Yo creo que él sigue pensándolo todavía.

—¿Tú crees al Presidente cuando dice que él no estaba en antecedentes?

—No. En absoluto. No lo puedo creer.

—¿Qué te hace pensar eso?

—Primero, que una acción tan delicada y tan tremendamente importante como ésta no la habría llevado a cabo un hombre como Contreras sin consultarlo antes con su superior directo. Es asunto de jerarquía militar. Yo pienso que el Presidente le ordenó a Contreras. Puede que no le haya ordenado que matara a Letelier, pero puede que le hayua ordenado que hiciera algo contra Letelier para que éste se callara. Eso es lo que yo pienso. Ahora, que Contreras, eso es un cuento muy largo, es como el cuento de los niños que se hablan al oído y después sale otra cosa distinta. Puede que ordenó que lo hiciera callar y Contreras ordenó matarlo y que Espinosa diera orden de matarlo. En fin...

—En la preparación de este plan, ¿cuál fue tu participación?

—Absolutamente nada.

—Una revista ha dicho que tú avisaste telefónicamente en Santiago a alguien de la DINA que tu marido había ya puesto el aparato que haría matar a Letelier.

—Esa fue mi única participación y lo hice porque él estaba, me parece, en un motel. Entonces él no quería llamar del motel al número de la DINA en Santiago, naturalmente. Entonces llamó al teléfono de la casa y me dijo: llama al número del CG, que es como se le dice al cuartel general de la DINA, y pregunta por tal persona.

Michael Townley, fotografiado con la expresión típica de los acusados. El Gobierno chileno lo sacrificó para salvar a quienes le daban las órdenes.

—¿Por quién?

—Ah, eso no lo puedo decir porque es parte del proceso... por tal persona y dile que el artefacto ya está colocado. El artefacto, no la bomba, el artefacto ya está colocado y está andando. Que el plan marcha bien. Y nada más. Esa fue mi participación. Yo llamé a ese número, hablé con el señor y le dije: acabo de recibir una comunicación de Estados Unidois y me dicen que el artefacto está puesto y está andando. Esa fue mi parte.

—Esa parte... ¿no te remuerde la conciencia haberla tomado?

—No. Porque yo sigo pensando que el que ideó esto —ya haya sido el Presidente Pinochet o el general Contreras, eso lo veremos algún día—, pienso que cualquiera de los dos, de *donde haya surgido la orden, lo hicie*ron por el bien de Chile.

—Pero eso a la vista de los resultados no te lo cree nadie...

—Sí, pero es que las cosas salieron mal, simplemente. Pero es muy posible que Letelier estuviera haciéndole un grave daño a Chile. Hay que pensar que estos años hemos estado en guerra, que ha sido una guerra bastante fea, que se ha llevado a cabo en secreto, que la llevó a cabo el general Contreras, coronel Contreras en aquella época, y en realidad la gente de la DINA se sacrificó muchísimo en esta guerra y nadie se dio cuenta. Entonces, lo curioso es que si hubo un propósito y la orden de asesinar a Letelier, es porque ellos pensaban que era lo mejor para el país. Ahora, yo no podía hacer valer mi propia opinión sobre la de ellos. Si ellos pensaban que era lo mejor para el país, yo no tenía nada que hacer. Primero que no era cosa mía, era cosa de mi marido. Yo tuve muy poco que ver con eso. Yo siempre estuve en desacuerdo con la orden, pero mi marido lo tomó justamente como eso, como una orden.

—Mariana, yo sé que tú estás en desacuerdo con lo que voy a decir, pero quitándole toda la interpretación intelectual, los resquicios legales, tu

Entre el odio y la admiración: encuestas le daban enorme popularidad...

El 29 de mayo de 1963, John Kennedy cumplió sus 46 años. Sus amigos le prepararon una fiesta de sorpresa que naturalmente no lo sorprendió. Salinger se encargó de prepararle un discurso, pidiéndole que lo leyera. Era una parodia del famoso mensaje de Gettysburg, pronunciado por Lincoln y que todos los escolares norteamericanos se saben de memoria. Hubo regalos, bromas y, como fin de fiesta, un paseo a bordo del yate presidencial por el río Potomac.

Animo batallador

"Era el momento de la marea más alta para el régimen de Kennedy, pero los participantes en el jolgorio no lo sabían", escribió William Manchester.

Todo el mundo confiaba en que todavía pasarían otros cinco años antes de que fuese necesario abandonar la Casa Blanca. Eso era mucho tiempo. Y cuando alguien se ponía a pensar en lo que ocurriría después del segundo período presidencial de Kennedy, era sólo para hacer planes para el gran diario que pensaban editar en Washington.

Por ahora, dice Manchester, "su estilo era el de lo que se llamaba 'los jóvenes matrimonios'. Las tres esposas Kennedy –Jackie, Ethel y Joan– estaban embarazadas esa primavera. Coches cunas y corrales infantiles formaban parte habitual del mobiliario de la mayoría de los funcionarios gobiernos por personajes venerables, más allá de la cincuentena".

En esas circunstancias, el estado de ánimo del grupo gobernante en los Estados Unidos era firme, dispuesto a todas las batallas. Y no habían faltado los enfrentamientos, tanto internos como externos.

Kennedy, con su hermano como fiscal general –ministro de Justicia– se había abierto por lo menos dos frentes de batalla en su propio país: la Mafia y los intereses económicos, en especial los de la poderosa industria del acero.

Con la Mafia, la suya fue la continuación de una larga lucha liberada desde el Senado contra el crimen organizado. Su choque con los poderosos fabricantes de acero fue un alarde propio de las películas del Oeste, en que el impetuoso Bob no sacó las pistolas, sino que amenazó a la U.S. Steel con enviarle los inspectores de Impuestos Internos.

Otros resentimientos

En 1963, sin embargo, John Kennedy y su hermano tenían otros enemigos: su creciente compromiso con el movimiento negro se convirtió en una intensa cruzada después de la marcha pacífica sobre la capital, dirigida por Martin Luther King. Poco antes, Kennedy había enviado al Congreso el proyecto de ley que terminaba con la discriminación electoral. Pero eran tantas las barreras que todavía subsistían, que fue necesario que 200 mil personas –blancos y negros– hicieran su demostración de fuerza para superar todos los obstáculos.

Más importante que todo esto todavía eran los resentimientos que provocó la audaz política internacional de su gobierno.

El primer paso en falso se produjo cuando decidió seguir adelante con los planes heredados del gobierno de Eisenhower y apoyar la invasión a Cuba. Mal preparada, sin apoyo adecuado, la operación concluyó en un fracaso y en un doble resentimiento: el de los cubanos castristas, heridos porque la operación había sido planeada por la CIA, y el de los anticastristas, afectados por el poco entusiasmo oficial.

La misma situación se repetiría en octubre de 1962, después de la crisis de los cohetes. Entonces, el enfrentamiento entre Estados Unidos y la Unión Soviética se resolvió directamente entre Kennedy y Khrushev, quedando Fidel Castro dolido porque no se le había tomado en cuenta, y los anticastristas y anticomunistas en general sentidos porque las "palomas" habían derrotado a los "halcones".

Pero esto era apenas un capítulo de un drama mayor, cuyo escenario era el mundo entero: el deseo de Kennedy de inaugurar una etapa de coexistencia pacífica, ya que estaba convencido de que la lucha entre las superpotencias sólo llevaría al holocausto a toda la humanidad.

Acuerdos discutidos

En 1963, aun contra la opinión de sus críticos menos exaltados, Kennedy empujó con firmeza la aprobación del tratado

Cuando beba, no conduzca.

Se lo dice

de proscripción de las pruebas nucleares en la atmósfera. Si en política interna Kennedy creía que mientras más fuerte se golpeara al adversario, mejor sería, en las relaciones internacionales mostró una gran capacidad de conciliación.

El 20 de junio de 1963, en la Universidad Americana, fue enfático: "Nuestros problemas han sido causados por el hombre. Por lo tanto pueden ser resueltos por el hombre. Hay quienes dicen que es inútil hablar de paz... mientras los líderes soviéticos no adopten una actitud más positiva. Yo espero que cambien de actitud. Creo que podemos ayudarlos a cambiar de actitud. Pero creo también que debemos reexaminar nuestra propia actitud".

El 30 de agosto, el Departamento de Defensa dio la gran noticia: se había llegado a un acuerdo para establecer una línea directa –el teléfono rojo– entre Washington con Moscú. Ese mismo día empezó a funcionar. Inevitablemente debían crearse nuevos resentimientos.

Pero, al mismo tiempo, la curva de popularidad –conforme a las encuestas de opinión pública– reflejaba un sostenido apoyo del electorado a Kennedy. Después de la crisis de los cohetes, Gallup había determinado que el 83 por ciento de la población aprobaba lo que había hecho. La cifra descendió en los meses siguientes, primero al 61 por ciento y luego al 59 por ciento. Pero en septiembre, dos meses antes de su asesinato, cuando el Congreso aprobó el tratado de proscripción de pruebas nucleares, la curva empezó a subir de nuevo.

Y seguía subiendo el 22 de noviembre cuando, junto con Jacqueline, llegó al aeropuerto de Dallas.

ARABES

Esos inversionistas misteriosos...

● Presencia de petrodólares en Occidente: entre el mito y la realidad

Por Sergio Marras

¿Qué hacen los árabes de la OPEP con las superganancias del petróleo? ¿Es verdad –como dicen los más suspicaces– que se están adueñando disimuladamente del mundo?

Si se investiga un poco, se verifica que tienen terrenos y hoteles en las costas europeas mediterráneas; bienes inmobiliarios, acciones y todo tipo de securities en los principales centros comerciales del mundo desarrollado. Hacen donaciones a las universidades norteamericanas para que monten cátedras e institutos de estudios árabes. Poseen un organizado sistema de "ayuda externa" para el mundo subdesarrollado –especialmente para los países árabes no petroleros, Africa Negra y Asia Central–, participan de una manera más o menos velada en diferentes tipos de multinacionales financieras que se dedican... a todo: desde apoyar dictaduras militares en América Latina hasta financiar países fantasmas como es el caso del bantustan del Transkei en Sudáfrica, cuya principal fuente de crédito exterior es una multinacional con sede en Beirut: la Medi Dupis.

En líneas generales, éste parece ser el destino de la mayor parte de los petrodólares que los árabes destinan a "inversión exterior". Dólares que en los últimos años se han multiplicado, alarmando a empresarios, trabajadores y legisladores de los países supuestamente más afectados.

Campaña efectiva

La prensa de Estados Unidos, el país donde más inversiones han llegado, convirtió el asunto en un verdadero media event y fueron muchas las revistas que lo llevaron a sus portadas. Un botón de muestra puede ser la foto del Real Estate Was publicación especializada en ven muebles, en la que un árabe con oscuros pintados con signos dó gunta ingenuamente: "¿Está Wa la venta?".

El público norteamericano se h nado, poco a poco, con la est pesadilla que le presenta la pren llegado a creer que el día men sus jefes serán reemplazados pc señores de túnicas flotantes. Ir propio Congreso norteamerica representantes de zonas agríc gado a decir que "un millón japoneses cargados de dinero prando las mejores tierras de hasta California".

años de utilidades podrían comprar la Bolsa de Nueva York completa.

Organizaciones judías como la B'Nai B'rith, el Comité de Asuntos Públicos de los Israelitas Americanos, la Organización Sionista Americana y el Congreso Judío comenzaron inmediatamente a llamar la atención sobre lo que bautizaron "la intromisión árabe en los asuntos norteamericanos", temiendo que éstos pudieran controlar alguna porción de la opinión pública del poder político.

Pronto las revistas comenzaron la campaña y los árabes, junto a los japoneses, pasaron a ser personajes misteriosos y siniestros para el ciudadano medio. Coincidió también que estos últimos se hicieron presentes en 1974 comprando la Motorola, que es la empresa que hoy día se llama Quasar, y el Banco de Tokio entró a controlar el First National Bank de California.

Un estudio de opinión pública concluyó que la inversión extranjera era percibida como amenaza sólo cuando era protagonizada por árabes o japoneses. Cuando se consultó a un periodista, autor de uno de los artículos antiárabes, explicó el problema de una manera muy simple: "Es distinto si una empresa es de un canadiense, un británico o un holandés. Es gente normal, como usted o yo... Pero todos esos son orientales".

sión extranjera en Estados Unidos ha llegado a una cota jamás antes alcanzada: 310 mil millones de dólares. Las inversiones totales de Estados Unidos en el exterior son de 381 mil millones de dólares. Pronto se habrá alcanzado el equilibrio. ¿Será ésa la razón de la alarma?

Hilos ocultos

Pero si se analizan las cifras del Departamento de Comercio, se ve que la inversión de todos los países de la OPEP es de apenas el uno por ciento de esa cantidad al lado del 67 por ciento de Europa, el 18 por ciento de Canadá y el 15 por ciento de Japón.

Ante estas cifras parece desmedida la campaña de prensa. ¿Quién estará, entonces, manejando los hilos de la opinión pública?

La respuesta quizás la puedan dar los principales inversores extranjeros, entre los cuales no hay ningún príncipe árabe.

Están más bien los conocidos de siempre: Seagrams, Shell, Bayer, Basf, Unilever, Philips, Nestlé, Agnelli, Rotschild, etc... y el curioso Friedrich Karl Flick, cuya familia hizo fortuna a base del tráfico de armas con los nazis y que vive rodeado de docenas de perros pastores alemanes y guardaespaldas veteranos de Vietnam. Sospechosamente, todos están muy bien contactados con editoriales y periodicos.

QUIEN BAJO JURAMENTO EXPONE, que con fecha 30 de Septiembre de 1977 emitió un documento relacionado con personas que habían realizado Cursos de Inteligencia en la Escuela Nacional de Inteligencia. Dicho documento estaba basado en otro de fecha 26 de Septiembre de 1977, firmado por el Sr. Director de la Escuela Nacional de Inteligencia.

Que en dichos documentos no se consigna el nombre del ciudadano cubano o VIRGILIO PAZ como habiendo realizado un Curso en la ENI., en 197 6, no obstante que atendida la naturaleza de los dos documentos individualizados, de haber sido ello real, debería necesariamen te haber figurado el nombre de VIRGILIO PAZ.

Que la presente declaración se emite en esta forma atendido el carácter de Secreto, por ser de Inteligencia, que tienen dichos documentos. Deja constancia que formu la la presente declaración en forma absolutamente voluntaria, ratificándola y firmándola.

Información confidencial ha transmitido que en Universidad de Montreal hay un pastor canadiense no católico nombre Robert Quebillen o Quevillon quien habría sido expulsado de Chile y mantiene activa campaña contra nuestra recolectando fondos y su envío a Chile. Uno de sus principales contactos sería Francisco Rojas, contador oficina Codelco Montreal. Señor Rojas está actualmente de vacaciones en Chile y sugiero DINA investigue su persona relacionado denuncia recibida. Dicho funcionario es de confianza de Codelco y está considerado que la oficina Codelco abrirá proximamente Nueva York. Esta Embajada informó en octubre 1973 que citado Rojas pidió asilo político en Canadá y es un antecedente que ahora recobra importancia ante hechos expuestos.-

OBJETIVO DEL INFORME:

El objetivo de este informe es estudiar la posibilidad de que el sistema que a continuación se describe sea activado a nivel del receptor por la frecuencia de señales , combinaciones de señales o ruido ambiental, y por señales espurias.

DESCRIPCION DEL SISTEMA.

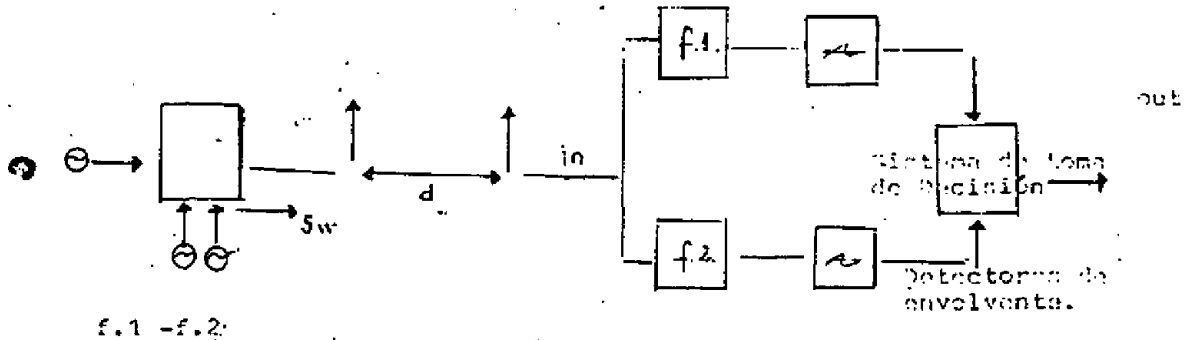
Se trata de un transmisor de HF de 5 watts de potencia operado con una frecuencia deportadora de 31.04 MH_z. El sistema de modulación es del tipo AM con un alfabeto binario de 2 frecuencia de audio de 727,5-772,5 H_z de modulación.

Para este análisis se ha considerado que el sistema de detección no coherente, ya que es el sistema usado frecuentemente en AM, para comandos de controles distantes.

En un primer análisis, las condiciones de propagación supuestas son de espacio libre y para el ruido se ha tenado como patrón el existente en una ciudad densamente poblada.

EL LOGICO

Si llamamos número de tonos , tenemos que los códigos son igual a N^2. Para el caso presente, si N=2, el total del sistema tendrá 4 códigos. Se mostrará en un diagrama en bloques el funcionamiento del sistema , en condición deportadora de 31.04 MH_z y modulacocon 2 frecuencias de audio de 727,5 y 772,5 H_z con una potencia de 5 watts.



f.1 -f.2

El receptor estará compuesto básicamente de una antena de 2 filtros (f.1 y F.2), de 2 detectores de envolvente y de un sistema de Toma de Decisión que activa un sistema ON-OFF.

Debe hacerse notar que la decisión de si fue transmitida o nó una información se toma en base a cuál salida del detector de envolvente tiene la mayor amplitud al tiempo de muestreo.

Esto es, el canal que tenga la mayor envolvente será aquel que probablemente contendrá la señal.

En el sistema descrito, la probabilidad de error se fundamenta en el hecho de que la cantidad de ruido presente en el canal OFF sea mayor que la señal más el ruido en el canal ON.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Probabilidad de saturación del sistema por ruidos.

La probabilidad de que el ruido (N) esté entre N y n+dn está dada por la fórmula:

$$P(n)\,dn = N/\sigma^2 \cdot e^{-n^2/2\sigma^2}$$

Donde N=n= voltaje de ruido =voltaje efectivo de ruido.

x Distrib.: "Distribución de Rey Leigh".

Las probabilidades que resultan de la operación son las siguientes:

Correctos:

R(1/1) = una información es mandada y es recibida.
R(0/0) = una información no es mandada y no es recibida.

Incorrectos.

R(1/0) = una información no es mandada y es recibida.
R(0/1) = una información es mandada y no es recibida.

Este estudio centrará el cálculo entre posibilidades R 9(0/1) en el cual una información no ha sido enviada y es interpretada por el receptor como información de mando.

Ruido ambiente.

Análisis del parámetro ruido ambiente:

Se ha dicho que para el estudio de este parámetro se analizará el ruido ambiente existente en una ciudad de altas probabilidades de ruido y se ha despreciado valores PEAK del ruido ambiente que en la mayoría de los casos tiene una subida aproximada de 15 db.

Cálculo de la intensidad de campo a partir del valor medio del ruido (campo de ruido).

$$20 \log. \frac{E}{1 \frac{MV}{m}} = dB$$

$$E = 10^{\frac{dB}{20}} \quad MV/m$$

$$\text{sí } dB = +30 = 10^{\frac{30}{20}} = 10^{1,5} = 31,6 \text{ MV/m.}$$

En base a este valor si consideramos el caso alto, se tienen lo siguiente:

$$20 \log. \frac{E}{1 \text{ MV/m}} = dB$$

$$dB = 45$$

$$E = 177,9 \text{ MV/m}$$

Cálculo de intensidad de campo a partir de la potencia.

Para este caso se considera que el transmisor está encendido en forma permanente enviando la portadora.
Se supondrá para el cálculo una antena de varilla.

Con esto la ganancia óptima de la antena sería de 1,5.

En el caso de propagación en espacio libre, el campo eléctrico satisface la siguiente relación:

donde:

P_t (watts) =potencia transmitida por la antena.

g=ganancia de la antena.

R=distancia en metros que separa a la antena del receptor.

$$E_o = \sqrt{\frac{30 P_{tg}}{R}} \left(\frac{V}{m} \right)$$

$g = 1,5$

$$E_o = 15/R \left(V/m\right) = \frac{15.10^6}{R} \left(MV/m\right)$$

Con esto la relación señal-ruido, ya dada, ya dada por los terminales de la antena receptora, queda:

$$(C/N) \text{ dB} = 10 \log. \frac{6,94 . 10^9}{R^2}$$

Conclusión del cálculo.

El porcentaje de error expuestos en la relación de la columna de la derecha se fundamento en la curva entregada por National Bur, Standards que se adjunta.(Fig.2.)

TAL DATA MODULATION SYSTEMS

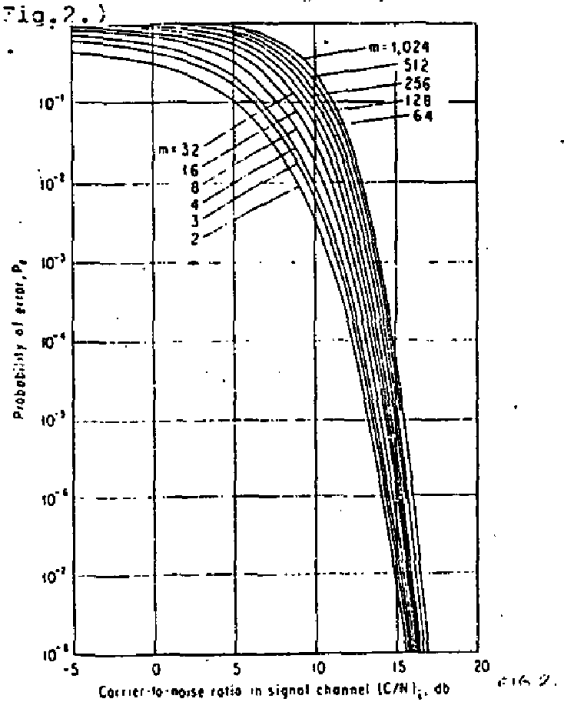

Fig. 23-7. Probability of error in multiple incoherent FSK system. (From Akima,[11] Natl. Bur. Standards.)

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

En este gráfico se desprende que cuando cualquiera de propagación en espacio libre , el porcentaje de error para una corta distancia es,en la práctica casi imposible y que para más que significa dos señales de modulación , el porcentaje de error a una distancia de 100 metros será menor que 1 chico 10.000 millones de probabilidades.

Es necesario hacer notar que en este análisis se ha considerado que la portadora de 31.04 MHz se encuentra permanentemente en el aire.

De lo anterior y dado el cálculo de probabilidades, se concluye que el sistema en base a 4 códigos, difícilmente se dispare en forma espontánea.

Cálculo de condiciones reales de propagación en espacio libre considerando la presencia de la tierra.

En este segundo caso, se analizará las peores condiciones de propagación de la portadora del sistema, incluyendo una instalación deficiente del transmisor, considerando antenas cercanas al nivel del suelo, menores de 2 metros.

Considerando la tierra, el valor del campo relativo al calor calculado en espacio libre queda dado aproximadamente por:

donde h_o es la altura mínima efectiva de una antena, la cual se puede obtener de la fig 33.3 que se acompaña.

Esto es para antenas cercanas a nivel del suelo.
Usando la figura indicada vemos en el caso de tierra pobre para polarización vertical y a 31 megaciclos, la altura efectiva es del orden de 1 metros.

Con esto llegamos a la siguente relación aproximada:

Para R=50 m. nos queda:

$$\left|\frac{E}{E_o}\right| \frac{2}{5} = 0,4.-$$

lo que representa una pérdida efectiva de 8 dB.

$= 7,96 = 8$ dB

Por otro lado $E_o = \frac{15. 10^6}{50} \left(\frac{MV}{m}\right)$

$= 3. 10^5 \left(\frac{MV}{m}\right)$

UNCLASSIFIED

Con lo que : $\left(\frac{C}{N}\right) = \left(\frac{3.10^5}{180}\right)^2$

$= 64,4$ dB

Usando las fórmulas anteriores, tenemos que:

$$\frac{C}{N} = \left(\frac{\frac{15}{R} \cdot 10^6 \cdot \frac{20}{R}}{180}\right)^2 = \frac{2,78 \cdot 10^{12}}{R^4}$$

50	56,5	10^{-10}
100	44,1	10^{-9}
500	16,5	10^{-8}
1.000	4,4	0.12
1.500	-2,6	0.6

De la tabla se concluye que para cortas distancias esto es, hasta los 500 metros las probabilidades error y que el sistema actúe en forma espontánea por espurias, es bajo , ya que exige la posibilidad de una falla cada 100 millones de probabilidades.

En tanto que para 1.000 metros de distancia del transmisor respecto del receptor se tiene que las probabilidades de error son aproximadamente de un 12 %.

Considerando que:

- La portadora de 31.04 MH_2 se encuentre permanetemente en el aire.
- Que el transmisor se encuentre accionando el sistema a una distancia superior a 1.000 metros.
- Que las condiciones de propagación son las llamadas de tierra.
- Que la instalación del sistema de antenas está cercana al suelo.
- Que existe un alto índice de ruido ambiente ,por ignición , ruido hecho por el hombre, etc., tomada la cota máxima para una ciudad densamente poblada dada por el National Bur,Standards.:

La probabilidad que el sistema actúe en forma espontánea es también muy baja.

Finalmente se analizará el caso de que la portadora de 31.04, no se encuentre permanentemente en el aire y que el sistema actúe sólo por efecto del ruido ambiente,señales espurias o ruido general.

Para que el sistema actúe se hace necesario que se reciba un código binario de longitud N.

La probabilidad de que cada elemento o bit del código sea el recue-

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

rido y que el si[illegible] de 1/2 [illegible]

$$P_{\varepsilon} = 1/2\, e^{-1/2(C/N)}$$

Si (C/N) es cero, ya que no hay portadora, se tiene que $e^{0} = 1$.

Entonces las probabilidades de error son 1/2 para cada bit.

Esto se interpreta en forma lógica diciendo que en ausencia de portadora, con alto nivel de ruido existe igual posibilidad que el bit sea no el correcto.

Suponiendo que el resultado de cada mensaje es independiente de los restantes mensajes, la probabilidad de que los N bit sean los necesarios para que el mecanismo actué será:

$$P_{n} = (1/2)^{N}$$

De la fórmula anterior resulta lo siguiente:

1.- Si el largo del código,(largo total) es de una palabra, que es el mínimo a considerar se tiene:

Largo del Código	Nº bit	Prob. de error
Una palabra	4	[illegible] $1,5 \cdot 10^{-5}$

2.- Si el largo total del código es de dos palabras, que es lo normal a considerar se tiene:

Largo del código	Nº bit	Prob. de error
Dos palabras	8	$2,3 \cdot 10^{-10}$

Conclusión:

Dadas estas condiciones extremas, se tiene que las probabilidades que el sistema haya entrado erróneamente con ruidos, ya que al primer caso existe una posibilidad cada 150.000 veces.
En el caso 2º se tiene que existe una posibilidad cada 22,000 millones de veces.

DECLARACION JURADA

El Cónsul de Chile en Quito, Ecuador, que suscribe, certifica que ha comparecido don VIANEL VALDIVIESO CERVANTES, Teniente Coronel de Ejército, casado, nacido en Santiago de Chile el 3 de Octubre de 1936, Ingeniero Electrónico Militar, inscrito en el Colegio de Ingenieros de Chile con el Nº 7438, poseedor del Carnet de Identidad Nº 3.067.629 de Santiago, Pasaporte Oficial Nº 1594/78 de Santiago, domiciliado en Eloy Alfaro 2286 de esta ciudad, quien expone que:

1.- Es absolutamente inefectivo lo aseverado por Michael Vernon Townley, o las palabras atribuídas a él, en el sentido que el suscrito habría participado junto al General Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Mayor Manuel Palacios y Capitán Armando Fernández, en una reunión con el mencionado individuo, la que se habría verificado en un establecimiento comercial denominado Nico's Pizza, en el mes de Marzo de 1978 en la ciudad de Santiago. La citada reunión es falsa en esa o cualquier otra época y declaro que lo afirmado o atribuído a Michael Vernon Townley en ese sentido es absolutamente falso, como también cualquiera otra expresión, especialmente aquella que pretende imputarme el haberlo llamado telefónicamente para que concurriera a la reunión y haberlo acompañado junto a los demás en un automóvil por las calles de Santiago, todo lo cual reitero carece absolutamente de veracidad.

2.- Además declaro que Michael Townley le mostró al suscrito, un diploma que acreditaba que había realizado satisfactoriamente un curso de Técnicas Electrónicas en la A. I.D. (Audio Intelligence Devices), en Florida U.S.A. Todo esto QUIEN BAJO JURAMENTO EXPONE Que, no es efectivo lo aseverado por Michael Vernon Townley en proceso que se sigue en los Estados Unidos, en relación con la muerte de Orlando Letelier en el sentido de queel declarante habría participado en una reunión con el mencionado individuo en un establecimiento comercial denominado Nico's Pizza en marzo de 1978 en la ciudad de Santiago. Tal reunión es absolutamente falsa en esa fecha o cualquiera otra y declaro que la afirmación del mencionado Townley carece en absoluto de veracidad, como lo confirman numerosas declaraciones juradas que establecen las actividades del declarante durante el mes de marzo de 1978.

Lo indicado por Townley, que nunca fue agente de la ex-DINA, obedece a instrucciones recibidas para declarar en contra del declarante en este sentido.

Que se presta la presente declaración a objeto de ser acompañada en juicio en los Estados Unidos, o en Chile si fuese necesario. Leído, se ratifica y firma.

Background:

On February 2-3, 1978 a State/Treasury team consisting of Messrs. Nachmanoff, Meissner, Schneider and Oxman conferred with FRG Foreign Office and Ministry of Economic Cooperation officials on the subject of human rights in International Financial Institutions (IFI's).

The U.S. position on this subject as stated then, was that we seek to direct IFI loans away from countries with poor human rights records and to try and limit IFI aid to such countries to loans which will be applied to meet "basic human needs" (e.g. loans for water supply systems). Furthermore, we seek to avoid unnecessary confrontations and have developed a "calibrated and sequential" program. This means that we will first approach countries seeking assistance with serious human rights problems on a private level in an attempt to persuade them. Only if such approaches fail might we ultimately vote "no" on the loan. We are hoping to be effective in improving human rights performance, but are not interested in "posturing".

German officials basically agree with the U.S. objectives but doubt that aid is the best tool. They base their argument not only on the difficulty in defining which countries are violating human rights, but also on the consideration that, if aid to a country is withdrawn, one is penalizing the population. German officials also noted that the provisions in the statutes of the IFI's state that political or non-economic factors should not influence decisions; the FRG is not concerned with the legal aspects of this, but do fear that bringing up human rights could open the doors to other extraneous considerations.

In sum, the meetings ended with the agreement that we would cooperate as closely as possible in a quiet fashion.

Since those meetings, we have notified the FRG of our intention to vote "no" at least five times (Paraguay, Chile, Vietnam, Laos and Equatorial Guinea) and "abstain" at least five times (Argentina, El Salvador, Philippines, Yemen and Uruguay).

In at least one instance, that of Equatorial Guinea, we are sure that the FRG has changed its vote and voted with the U.S. because of our objections.

Talking Points:

1. German support has been half-hearted on this issue.

2. Are there any new guidelines on this subject from Washington? What are the current attitudes? How hard does Washington want us to push with the Germans on this matter?

HIS REASONING IS AS FOLLOWS: TESTIMONY FROM LILIANA WALKER IS NOT IMPORTANT TO OUR CASE. WE ARE SATISFIED IF SHE NEVER APPEARS. THERE IS, HOWEVER, SOME DANGER THAT THE DEFENSE FOR CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA AND FERNANDEZ WILL CALL LILIANA (THE REAL PERSON OR SOMEONE ELSE) TO TESTIFY ON ITS BEHALF. Dear Cy:

I am writing to request your personal intervention in a matter relating to the case of Charles Horman, a New Yorker who was arrested by the Chilean Junta on September 17, 1973 in Santiago and killed three days later. My office has been involved in this matter from the outset at the request of Charles Horman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Horman of [redacted]. The death of Charles Horman is a very sad and sordid story indeed, and the handling of the matter at that time by the United States Embassy in Santiago and the State Department left much to be desired in my opinion.

My specific request to you at this time is for a very high level review of the denial by the State Department of access to some one hundred thirteen (113) documents sought under the Freedom of Information Act by the parents of Charles Horman. It is my understanding that these documents have all been identified as having a reference to or bearing upon the death of Charles Horman, and have been denied to the family for purported reasons of "national security" and "privacy".

Due largely to the unshakable tenacity of the Horman family in its determination to ascertain all the facts relating to their son's death, considerable evidence has come to light indicating that Charles' death may well have been, in fact, a political murder. Moreover, in a published interview with a former Chilean Intelligence Officer, one Rafael Gonzalez, he stated that he was present at the time the order was given by Chilean Intelligence for the execution of Charles Horman; and that there was also present on that occasion a person he believed to be an American.

In light of the revelations concerning United States activities in Chile during the Allende period, the revelations concerning the Letelier murder and, not least of all, the lurid circumstances of Charles Horman's own death, it is inevitable that the atmosphere should be highly charged with suspicion.

I believe that a decision by the State Department to release relevant documents denied to the Horman family under the Freedom of Information Act could help significantly in their determination to uncover the full story of their son's death and to dispel any suspicions that may exist.

A memorandum I have received from Mr. Horman identifying the 113 documents that have been withheld is enclosed. I hope very much that you will personally satisfy yourself that the right thing is done in this case.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

DECLARACION JURADA

Comparece doña Claudia Lucía Donoso Crocco , chilena, soltera, estudiante, domiciliada en Los Tulipanes Nº 2961 de esta ciudad, cédula de identidad Nº [redacted] de Santiago, quien viene en formular la siguiente declaración jurada:

1º.- Fui detenida el miércoles 13 de septiembre del año en curso, alrededor de las 18.15 hrs., por tres individuos de civil armados, que al presentarse en mi domicilio dijeron ser agentes de la C.N.I. Uno de ellos, que dijo llamarse "Jiménez" exhibió rápidamente un carnet en el que no alcancé a leer la identificación sino que sólo una fotografía. Dijo que necesitaba conversar conmigo por lo que debía acompañarlo a la Fiscalía Militar.

En ese momento, se encontraba en mi hogar mi novio, Leonardo Rojas Bahamondes, quién insistió en acompañarme a la supuesta "Fiscalía" mencionada por los aprehensores; estos accedieron a su petición por lo que nos subieron a un automóvil marca Fiat 125, color naranja, sin patente, al que subieron además los tres agentes y el conductor. Delante de nuestro vehículo estaba otro, marca Datsun, color verde botella, también sin patente y donde viajaban tres personas, dos hombres y una mujer, todos de civil.

sores se dirigieron a nosotros y nos hicieron firmar un libro - de registro de la Comisaría. Luego de firmar sacaron a mi novio Leonardo del lugar, sin que regresara. Al consultar por su suerte, uno de ellos me dijo que lo habían dejado en libertad y que yo debía declarar primero en la Fiscalía.

3º.- En el interior de la Comisaría me taparon los ojos con unos papeles y una tela adhesiva encima, - me subieron a un auto y me llevaron a un lugar desconocido. Recuerdo que antes de llegar a esa prisión clandestina el automóvil transitó por un camino bastante irregular, como si no hubiera pavimento. El vehículo se detuvo frente a una casa donde después de esperar un minuto estacionado ingresó a lo que debe haber sido el antejardín de la propiedad. Me bajaron a una especie de subterráneo donde pude escuchar fuerte música y risas de hombres y mujeres como si estuvieran en una fiesta. Al parecer bailaban. Me ingresaron a una dependencia contigua a donde se escuchaba la música, me registraron completamente, me quitaron la cartera, cinturón, reloj y otras especies menores y me dejaron sentada. Luego me sacaron las botas que en ese momento llevaba y me introdujeron a una pieza que servía de celda.

4º.- En esa pieza comenzaron a interrogarme acerca de donde había obtenido unos panfletos que tenía en mi casa; bastantes datos acerca de mi familia y sobre mi novio, que les indicare uno por uno a qué partido político pertenecían, si efectivamente militaban en algún grupo clandestino, a que se dedicaban aparte del trabajo o estudios que desarrollaban, en especial, pedían muchos datos por las actividades de un hermano y de mi novio. Luego me pedían datos míos, si era católica, si iba regularmente a alguna Iglesia, a qué iba y con quién conversaba, si conocía a un señor que le decían "Lolo Pizarro",

UNCLASSIFIED

si sabía quién tenía un mimeógrafo, si conocía gente de izquierda que aún estudiaba en la Universidad, que diera nombres y no me pasaría nada, etc., etc. Sobre el mimeógrafo, estudiantes de izquierda de la Universidad, el tal "Lolo Pizarro", actividades clandestinas de algún familiar y si pertenecían a algún partido político, dije no tener idea y desconocer cualquier antecedente al respecto.

Sólo me remití a explicar cómo habían llegado a mi poder unos panfletos que se relacionaban con hechos pasados como el 1º de Mayo, diciendo que los había encontrado en la vía pública y que cualquier persona podía recogerlos. Respecto a otros relacionados con problemas de la Universidad y los estudiantes, dije haberlos recibido por correo.

Ante mis respuestas recibí muchas amenazas, me decían que si no cooperaba "llamarían al Perro", que me iban a "tirar al agua" o simplemente que "me tratarían mal".

En una oportunidad me amenazaron colocándome el cañón de un revólver en la sien. De repente dispararon cerca mío y escuché que comentaban: "cuidado, se te pasó la mano, casi le pegas rozando", etc.

Otro día dijeron que iban a ponerme un detector de mentiras, me recostaron sobre una especie de somier y comenzaron a meter mucha bulla con unos fierros, de repente dejaban caer con toda fuerza unos fierros al suelo para asustarme, pero, me mantuve en mis declaraciones.

Estos interrogatorios se mantuvieron ininterrumpidamente durante los primeros cuatros días, los agentes se turneaban cada ciertas horas y continuaban preguntando lo mismo, eran todos bastante repetitivos. Cuando no me interrogaban me conversaban, pues, tenían orden de no dejarme dormir hasta que "confesara" lo que ellos querían.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

El día jueves 14, por la noche, o la - madrugada del viernes, me dieron comida por primera vez. Al tercer día, esto es, el viernes, al no poder dormir comencé a ver alucinaciones, lo mismo el sábado, donde creía que me iba a desmayar. Confieso que el Domingo, cuarto día sin dormir y contestando siempre lo que me preguntaban, no sé si estaba despierta o dormida, veía todo tipo de alucinaciones, realmente estaba en un mundo de fantasía, me sentía muy mal.

En los interrogatorios participaban hombres y mujeres indistintamente; debo decir que las mujeres eran bastante groseras y vulgares y rápidamente perdían la paciencia ante mis respuestas, que seún ellas, eran negativas.

El lugar donde permanecí los primero cuatro días fue siempre el mismo, una pieza pequeña ubicada en un subterráneo, donde siempre escuché mucha música a todo volúmen.

El baño quedaba ubicado en un patio, - donde para llegar a él debía subir una escala de 9 peldaños, luego una planicie y otra escala pequeña de dos peldaños.

En una oportunidad me sacaron de la pieza unos agentes mujeres y me interrogaron al aire libre durante varias horas, recuerdo que sentía mucho frío. El total de mujeres que me interrogaron fue de alrededor de ocho y los - agentes hombres que se encontraban en el recinto deben haber sido unos quince en total, esto lo deduzco por las voces.

5º.- El domingo en la noche me trasladaron a otro lugar, me cambiaron la venda de los ojos por una de género, color gris, que según uno de ellos era una manga de camisa. Me subieron a un auto que no pude ver y volvimos a transitar por el camino irregular. Al minuto de emprender la marcha escuché que se comunicaban por radio diciendo el conduc tor: "aquí Alfa 5 llamando a..."(daba unos números que en éste momento no recuerdo). La respuesta fue: "Alfa 5 adelante", luego nuestro coche replicó: "Alfa 5, estoy en tránsito a 10 minutos de ese lugar".... Anduvimos unos 15 minutos hasta que llegamos a destino. Me bajaron y dejaron en una casucha que estaba anexa a la casa principal. Pude verla porque varias veces me saqué la venda de los ojos.

Esa noche pude dormir por primera vez desde mi detención; me dejaron con dos vigilantes. Al otro día, esto es, el lunes 18, una de las agentes ingresó intespestivamente a mi pieza en momentos en que estaba con la vista sin vendas, pude verla perfectamente, era rubia, delgada, pelo ondulado largo, ojos verdosos con lentes ópticos, tez clara, y al igual que las demás, vestía de civil. Creo que era la misma mujer que participó en el allanamiento a mi domicilio efectuado unos cinco días antes de mi detención, valé decir, el día Viernes 8 de septiembre de 1978.

En otra oportunidad, el martes 19 de septiembre un agente que estaba medio borracho ingresó también a mi pieza, era delgado de regular estatura, pelo negro, crespo y largo, ojos oscuros, cejas juntas, nariz aguileña, de aspecto y lenguaje vulgar, del tipo lumpen. Se me acercó y levantándome la venda me pidió que lo mirara de cerca, trató de hacerse el enamorado, pero, cuando se acercaron otros agentes se fue para que no se dieran cuenta que estaba ebrio.

En los interrogatorios a que fuí sometida en este nuevo lugar solo recibí bofetadas en la cara, no se me aplicó corriente ni otros tormentos, sí se me amenazó con sufrirlos si no cooperaba.

El martes 19 me sentaron frente a una pequeña mesa y me hicieron redactar una especie de autobiografía, me decían que agregara el mayor número de detalles, incluso los de tipo sentimental. Luego me tomaron varias fotografías y las huellas digitales.

6º.- El día miércoles 20 de septiembre del año en curso, esto es, al cumplir ocho días de encierro e intensos interrogatorios en lugar desconocido, se me sacó de ese lugar y me trasladaron a la 1a. Fiscalía Militar de Santiago.

Me llevaron en un automóvil, con los ojos pegados con scotch, arriba de ellos unos lentes y en mis manos un diario para que durante el trayecto fingiera leer. Al llegar a la Fiscalía me sacaron el scotch y los lentes. El actuario me preguntó si conocía a alguna de las personas con las que aparecía en el diario, le dije que NO. Luego de otras preguntas relacionadas con los panfletos y un revólver inscrito por mi padre, decidió copiar la declaración enviada por la C.N.I. en la cual, negué todos los cargos que se me formulaban.

7º.- Debo agregar que el día viernes 15, mientras me interrogaban, por la tarde, uno de los agentes comentaba que habían interpuesto un recurso de amparo en mi favor y que estaban consultando por mi estado de salud. Desde ese momento se preocuparon bastante de mis reacciones, en especial, sobre lo que iba a declarar al recuperar mi libertad. Insistían en que dijera que no había sufrido malos tratos ni se me había torturado.

8º.- A las 18,00 hrs. del día 20 de septiembre fuí dejada en libertad incondicional por falta de méritos, por resolución de la 1a. Fiscalía Militar de Santiago.

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 7776 (B) SANTIAGO 7928 (C) STATE 262450

1. OUR FORMULATION OF QUESTIONS REGARDING LETELIER'S ALLEGED PRESENCE IN EUROPE DURING PERIOD FERNANDEZ WAS IN U.S. WAS PERHAPS CONFUSING. THE LOCAL RUMOR IS THAT WHILE ON ONE DENIES FERNANDEZ' WAS IN THE UNITED STATES AT A CERTAIN TIME, HIS DEFENSE MAY TRY TO ESTABLISH THAT LETELIER WAS IN EUROPE DURING THAT PERIOD, AND THEREFORE FERNANDEZ COULD NOTT HAVE BEEN ON A SURVEILLANCE MISSION. HOPE YOU CAN CLARIFY FOREGOING CONCERN.

2. WITH REGARD TO OUR INTEREST IN WHETHER CNI IS STILL PAYING TOWNLEY, WE CAN UNDERSTAND TOWNLEY'S RELUCTANCE TO GO ON THE RECORD. DO YOU HAVE ANY OUTSIDE COLLATERAL WHICH WOULD SHED LIGHT ON THE QUESTION AND WHICH COULD BE USED SHOULD THE NEED ARISE? PER PARA TWO REF B, WHAT ACCOUNTING DO WE GET FOR MARIANA'S $12,000?

3. WE ALSO RAISED WITH ETCHEBERRY THE ALLEGATION THAT HE HAD GIVEN THE PRESS A DETAILED BRIEFING ON OUR EXTRADITION EVIDENCE (LAST PARA REF C). HE DENIES DOING SO AND WE HAVE NO REASON TO DOUBT HIM. WE ARE NOTT AWARE OF ANY TV OR RADIO BROADCASTS MADE BY ETCHEBERRY. HE ALSO WELL UNDERSTANDS THE GROUND RULES ON THIS SCORE.

SUBJECT: FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS' CALL ON SECRETARY VANCE

1. CHILEAN FOREIGN MINISTER HERNAN CUBILLOS CALLED ON THE SECRETARY ON OCTOBER 10 AT 4:00 PM IN THE DEPARTMENT. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY CHILEAN AMBASSADOR BARROS. ASSISTANT SECRETARY VAKY, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY GUZMAN AND DESK OFFICER STEVEN ATTENDED.

2. CUBILLOS EXPRESSED HIS GRATITUDE FOR THE OPPORTUNITY TO MEET WITH THE SECRETARY. HE COMPLIMENTED THE SECRETARY ON RECENT SUCCESSES IN INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMACY RELATED TO THE MIDDLE EAST PROBLEM, AND EXPRESSED HIS PLEASURE IN HAVING AMBASSADOR LANDAU IN SANTIAGO. THE SECRETARY

IN TURN THANKED CUBILLOS FOR CHILEAN COOPERATION AND SUPPORT IN INTERNATIONAL POLICY MATTERS.

3. CUBILLOS THEN SETTLED IN TO WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS THE REASON FOR HIS REQUEST TO MEET WITH THE SECRETARY, AND 25 OF THE 35 MINUTES OF THE MEETING WERE SPENT ON A PRESENTATION ON THE BEAGLE CHANNEL DISPUTE AND TENSIONS BETWEEN CHILE AND ARGENTINA. HE GAVE THE SECRETARY A COPY OF THE BEAGLE CHANNEL ARBITRATION AWARD, AND LAID OUT A MAP TO GUIDE THE DISCUSSION. HE REVIEWED THE BACKGROUND OF THE

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBMISSION OF THE DISPUTE TO ARBITRATION, DEMONSTRATED ON THE MAP THE AREAS AND LINES IN QUESTION, AND EXPRESSED CHILEAN SHOCK OVER ARGENTINE REJECTION OF THE AWARD. HE HAD ACCEPTED ARGENTINE PRESIDENT VIDELA'S INVITATION TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE CAVEAT THAT CHILE WOULD CONSIDER ONLY THE MARITIME BOUNDARY QUESTION, NOT THE AWARD ITSELF COVERING THE ACTUAL CHANNEL.

4. THE CHILEAN POSITION WAS DESCRIBED BY CUBILLOS AS A REASONABLE AND NORMAL PROPOSAL FOR A MARITIME DIVIDING LINE BASED UPON THE PRINCIPLE OF "EQUIDISTANCE" FROM THE LAND MASSES BORDERING THE MOUTH OF THE BEAGLE. HE CONCEDED THAT CHILE WAS PREPARED TO NEGOTIATE THIS AND TO MAKE CONCESSIONS. ARGENTINA, HE ALLEGED, HAD "PLAYED" WITH VARIOUS PROPOSALS INVOLVING THE CONTINENTAL SHELF AND HAD DISCUSSED COMMON AREAS OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, ETC., BUT THE ARGENTINE POSITION SHIFTED CONSTANTLY AND ARGENTINE CLAIMS WERE UNCLEAR. CUBILLOS MAINTAINED THAT ARGENTINA HAD GONE SO FAR AS TO ACTUALLY THREATEN WAR IF AGREEMENT WAS NOT REACHED BY NOVEMBER 2 OR IF CHILE TOOK

THE DISPUTE TO THE ICJ, THIS LATTER DESPITE THE 1972 TREATY IN WHICH BOTH COUNTRIES AGREED TO TAKE DISPUTES TO THE ICJ. HE COULD NOT DISCOUNT THE USE OF FORCE IN THE MATTER, AND CHILE WOULD DEFEND ITSELF IF ATTACKED. HE FELT CHILE HAD THE MORAL RIGHT BASED UPON THE AWARD TO APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE.

5. THE SECRETARY ASKED FOR A DESCRIPTION OF THE BRITISH POSITION AND CUBILLOS AND BARROS PRODUCED COPIES OF THE EXCHANGES BETWEEN THE UK AND THE PARTIES IN WHICH THE UK DECLARED ITS ROLE AS ARBITRATOR TERMINATED. IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS CUBILLOS NOTED THAT THE TALKS WITH ARGENTINA CONTINUE, BUT HE COULD NOT PROVIDE A FULL EXPLANATION OF THE ARGENTINE POSITION AND ARGENTINE AIMS. BARROS SUGGESTED THAT THE PRINCIPLE ARGENTINE EFFORT IS TO "SAVE FACE" AFTER HAVING LOST THE ARBITRATION AWARD, AND PERHAPS TO PROTECT ANTARCTIC CLAIMS. CUBILLOS CONFIRMED THAT THE NOVEMBER 2 DEADLINE IS A SELF-IMPOSED LIMIT BY THE TWO PARTIES, WHICH IS NOT INFLEXIBLE. HE HAD CONSIDERED THE POSSIBILITY OF A MORATORIUM ON SETTLEMENT OF THE DISPUTE, BUT HAD NOT DISCUSSED IT WITH THE ARGENTINES. HE FELT THAT NEGOTIATION OF A MORATORIUM WOULD BE MORE COMPLEX AND DIFFICULT THAN NEGOTIATION OF A FINAL RESOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM ITSELF.

6. IN RESPONSE TO THE SECRETARY'S QUESTION, CUBILLOS SAID THAT NEITHER GOVERNMENT HAD APPEALED TO THE

OAS FOR ASSISTANCE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS. CHILE HAD BEEN "HURT", HOWEVER, BY THE LACK OF INTERNATIONAL INTEREST AND SUPPORT (ON QUESTION OF ARGENTINE REJECTION OF THE ARBITRATION AWARD). HE UNDERSTOOD THAT THERE WAS "BIAS" AGAINST CHILE WHICH HELD SOME GOVERNMENTS BACK, BUT THAT THE PROBLEM WAS CRITICAL. CHILE WOULD TRY TO SOLVE IT THROUGH

[redacted]

NEGOTIATIONS, OR IN THE ICJ, AND WOULD NOT ATTACK ARGENTINA. IT WOULD BE A MATTER OF GREAT REGRET IF CONFLICT TOOK PLACE. CUBILLOS HOPED THE U.S. WOULD USE A LITTLE INFLUENCE, AND SAID THAT CONCERN ON THE PART OF THE U.S. WOULD HELP RESOLVE THE DISPUTE. HE JOKINGLY CALLED FOR "ANOTHER CAMP DAVID."

7. THE SECRETARY PROMISED TO LOOK INTO THE MATTER. HE SAID THAT THE LAST THING WE WANTED WAS CONFLICT IN THE HEMISPHERE, AND THAT HE WOULD DISCUSS THE MATTER WITH ASSISTANT SECRETARY VAKY AND OTHER INTERESTED OFFICERS. CUBILLOS CONCEDED THAT THE NOVEMBER 2 DEADLINE WAS FLEXIBLE AND THAT ANOTHER 30 DAYS FOR NEGOTIATION COULD BE OBTAINED.

8. ASKED IF THE RETIREMENT OF ADMIRAL MASSERA IN ARGENTINA HAD REDUCED THE TENSION TO ANY DEGREE, CUBILLOS REPLIED THAT IT HAD NOT. MASSERA OUT OF OFFICE CONTINUED TO PRESS THE ISSUE, AND HIS INFLUENCE CONTINUED TO BE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR ON THE ARGENTINE SIDE.

9. CUBILLOS NOTED THAT AMBASSADOR LANDAU HAD SUGGESTED TO HIM THAT HE EXPLAIN TO THE SECRETARY THE PROCESS OF POLITICAL INSTITUTIONALIZATION PRESENTLY UNDERWAY IN CHILE, AND HE DEVOTED MOST OF THE REMAINING TIME IN THE MEETING TO A REVIEW OF THE PROCESS, INCLUDING THE DRAFTING OF A NEW CONSTITUTION, THE REFERENDUM PLANNED IN 1979, AND THE TRANSITION PERIOD OVER THE NEXT FIVE OR SIX YEARS. HE SAID THAT THE NEW CONSTITUTION DREW HEAVILY FROM FRENCH AND GERMAN PRECEDENTS. AN EVOLUTIONARY PROCESS WAS NEEDED IN CHILE. HE

[redacted]

[redacted]

SAID THAT IT WOULD BE TOO EASY TO PRESS FOR AN ELECTION NOW IN CHILE, IN WHICH PINOCHET COULD BE ELECTED WITHOUT DIFFICULTY IN THE FASHION OF A SOMOZA OR A STROESSNER. CHILEANS DID NOT WANT THIS, AND CIVILIANS LIKE CUBILLOS JOINED THE GOVERN-

UNCLASSIFIED

MENT PRECISELY TO HELP THE MILITARY MAKE THE TRANSITION TO DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT AGAIN. THE ALTERNATIVE TO THIS EVOLUTIONARY PROCESS WOULD BE REGRESSION TO TRUE MILITARY DICTATORSHIP "AS IN THE FIRST DAYS AFTER THE COUP," ACCORDING TO CUBILLOS. HE INSISTED THAT CIVILIAN RULE AT THIS POINT IN CHILE WAS IMPOSSIBLE. IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS THERE WILL BE PUBLIC DEBATE OVER THE NEW CONSTITUTION, LEADING TO A REFERENDUM NEXT YEAR. CUBILLOS NOTED THAT AMBASSADOR BARROS WOULD BE AT THE SECRETARY'S DISPOSAL AT ANY TIME TO HELP HIM TO BETTER UNDERSTAND THE POLITICAL PROCESS IN CHILE.

10. AS THE MEETING ENDED, THE SECRETARY RAISED THE LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATION CASE WITH CUBILLOS. HE REMINDED CUBILLOS THAT THE CASE WAS OF "TREMENDOUS IMPORTANCE" TO US, WITH CHILEAN GOVERNMENT COOPERATION ESSENTIAL TO OUR RELATIONSHIP. CUBILLOS ASSURED THE SECRETARY OF HIS OWN CONCERN OVER THE CASE, AND NOTED THAT HE DID NOT EVEN KNOW GENERAL CONTRERAS. HE BELIEVED THAT THE CASE MUST CONTINUE TO BE DEALT WITH IN JUDICIAL CHANNELS IN WHICH BOTH COUNTRIES MUST HAVE CONFIDENCE. HE NOTED WITH CONCERN OUR PUBLIC STATEMENTS SUCH AS THE RECENT COMMENT ON THE ACTION OF THE CHILEAN SUPREME COURT IN CONDUCTING THE EXTRADITION HEARING IN SECRET, AND EXPRESSED HIS CONCERN THAT SUCH STATEMENTS MISLED AND INFLAMED PUBLIC OPINION. HE CLAIMED FIRMLY THAT "THERE IS NO MONKEY BUSINESS" GOING ON IN THE COURT, AND SUCH IMPLICATIONS ONLY ENLARGE THE CREDIBILITY GAP. HE

[redacted]

[redacted]

HAD TAKEN HIS JOB IN AN EFFORT TO REDUCE THAT GAP. UPON DEPARTURE HE AGAIN THANKED THE SECRETARY FOR THE MEETING.

11. BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE MEETING, CUBILLOS EMPHASIZED TO STEVEN BOTH HIS HIGH REGARD FOR AMBASSADOR LANDAU AND HIS ASSURANCE THAT A JUST RESOLUTION OF THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE WAS REGARDED AS OF GREATEST IMPORTANCE BY THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT. CHRISTOPHER

SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: GOC DISSOLVES MARXIST TRADE UNION MOVEMENT AND BANS UNREGISTERED TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS

1. SUMMARY: ON OCTOBER 20, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR PUBLISHED THREE NEW DECREE LAWS WHICH AFFECT THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT IN CHILE. THE FIRST, DECREE LAW 2345, GIVES THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR FINAL AUTHORITY TO REORGANIZE ALL GOVERNMENT AND GOVERNMENT-OWNED INSTITUTIONS, INCLUDING REMOVAL AND APPOINTMENT OF PERSONNEL WITHOUT REGARD TO THEIR RIGHTS AS TRADE UNION LEADERS. THE SECOND, DECREE LAW 2346, DISSOLVES SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS AND INCLUDES THE SIDDOLUTION OF ALL LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH THEM. THIS ACTION INVOLVED APPROXIMATELY 500 LOCALS WITH 110,000 MEMBERS. THE THIRD, DECREE LAW 2347, BANS ALL LABOR ORGANIZATIONS WHICH DO NOT HAVE FORMAL LEGAL IDENTITY. THIS DEFINITION DESCRIBES MANY TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH, AS WELL AS THOSE INDEPENDENT OF, THE GOVERNMENT, BUT WE ARE NOT YET SURE HOW THE DECREE WILL BE IMPLEMENTED. END SUMMARY.

2. INTERIOR MINISTER SERGIO FERNANDEZ ANNOUNCED OCTOBER 19 THE UNCLASSIFIED

DISSOLUTION OF SEVEN MARIXIST-LED TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS. THE PERTINENT DECREE DISSOLVES:

A. THE NATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF INDIANS AND FARM WORKERS - RANQUIL, 110 AFFILIATES.

B. THE NATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FARM WORKERS (U.O.C), 61 AFFILIATES

C. THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF METAL WORKERS UNIONS (FENSIMET), 88 AFFILIATES

D. THE UNION OF CONSTRUCTION CRAFT WORKERS

E. THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF TEXTILE AND CLOTHING WORKERS (FENATEX), 120 AFFILIATES

F. INDUSTRIAL FEDERATION OF BUILDING WOOD AND CONSTRUCTION WORKERS (FIEMC), 76 AFFILIATES

G. THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL FEDERATION OF MINE WORKERS (FINM), 74 AFFILIATES.

THE DECREE ALSO DISSOLVES LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH THESE SEVEN FEDERATIONS AND INVOLVED ABOUT 110,000 WORKERS. ALL THE GOODS AND PROPERTIES OF THESE ORGANIZATIONS AND THEIR AFFILIATES ARE EXPROPRIATED BY THE STATE.

3. DECREE LAW 2345 GIVES THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR AUTHORITY TO REORGAINZE THE GOVERNMENT AND GOVERNMENT-OWNED INSTITUTIONS. THE DECREE EXPRESSLY EXCLUDES, HOWEVER, THE COURTS, THE MILITARY AND THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL. ARTICLE 4 GIVES THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR AUTHORITY TO COMPEL OTHER MINISTERS TO COMPLETE POLICIES RELATED TO THE CONTEMPLATED REORGANIZATION AND "DEBUREAUCRATIZATION" OF THE GOVERNMENT. DECREES AFFECTINT THE APPOINTMENT AND FIRING OF PERSONNEL MUST HAVE BOTH THE SIGNATURE OF THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR AND THE MINISTER OF THE AFFECTED INSTITUTION. THE LAW SPECIFICALLY SUSPENDS RIGHT OF TRADE UNION LEADERS NOT TO BE FIRED OR MOVED WHILE THEY EXERCISE UNION OFFICE (ADMINISTRATIVE LAW (DFL) 388 OF 1960).

UNCLASSIFIED

4. DL 2347, BANS BOTH AD HOC AND ESTABLISHED TRADE UNION ORGANIZATION S
WHICH DO NOT HAVE FORMAL LEGAL IDENTITY (PERSONA JURIDICA). PERSONS EXERCISING LABOR FUNCTIONS CONTRARY TO THIS LAW ARE SUBJECT TO CRIMINAL PROSECUTION OF TWO AND ONE-HALF YEARS IN JAIL IF CONVICTED. AD HOC ORGANIZATIONS COMMUNIST "COORDINADORA SINDICAL", CLAT AFFILIATED FUT, SUCH AS THE GOC "FRENTE LABORAL" AND THE INDEPENDENT "GROUP OF TEN" SEEM TO FIT THIS DEFINITION, SO WOULD ESTABLISHED TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS SUCH AS THE PETROLEUM WORKERS, MARITIME WORKERS, LEATHER AND SHOE WORKERS, REGIONAL BASED COPPER MINERS ORGANIZATION (ZONAL), THE NEWLY FORMED UNTRACH, CHEMICAL AND PHARMACEUTICAL WORKERS, RETAIL CLERKS AND COMMERCE WORKERS AND STEEL WORKERS (CAP-HUACHIPATO) AND PAPER WORKERS. TRADE UNION LOCALS AT THE PLANT LEVEL IN ALL THE ABOVE AREAS, HOWEVER, ARE LEGALLY REGISTERED. THE REAL IMPACT OF THE DECREE HANGS ON GOC INTERPRETATION AND IMPLEMENTATION. SO FAR AS WE KNOW, THE GOC HAS NOT MOVED AGAINST ANY DEMOCRATIC LEADER.

5. THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR NOTED IN HIS SPEECH THAT WITHIN A FEW DAYS, THE GOC WOULD ANNOUNCE ITS CONCEPTS FOR NEW INSTITUTIONS FOR THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT.

1. RAMON PENA, STAFF AIDE TO SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT ISRAEL BORQUEZ, INFORMED NEWSMEN EVENING OF OCTOBER 23 THAT BORQUEZ HAD TURNED DOWN A REQUEST FROM SERGIO MIRANDA, LAWYER FOR MANUEL CONTRERAS, ASKING THAT HIS CLIENT BE INTERROGATED IN THE MILITARY HOSPITAL. MIRANDA HAD SUBMITTED MEDICAL REPORTS STATING THAT CONTRERAS SUFFERED FROM HYPERTENSION AND THAT HE SHOULD NOT BE REQUIRED TO LEAVE THE HOSPITAL TO APPEAR IN COURT. REPORTEDLY THE DOCTORS DESIGNATED BY BORQUEZ TO ASSESS CONTRERAS' HEALTH (REF A) DID NOT CHALLENGE THIS DIAGNOSIS, BUT THEY DID NOT AGREE THAT THE CONDITION SHOULD PREVENT CONTRERAS FROM LEAVING THE HOSPITAL.

3. "LA TERCERA" OCTOBER 24 REPORTS A RUMOR THAT CONTRERAS WILL SHORTLY CALL A PRESS CONFERENCE TO PUBLICLY STATE HIS VIEWS ON THE LETELIER CASE. A WEEK AGO A SIMILAR RUMOR WAS ABOUT, BUT MIRANDA RATHER THAN CONTRERAS PITCHED THE PRESS WITH CONTRERAS' FINANCIAL PLIGHT.

E.O. 11652: N/A
TAGS: ELAB, SHUM, PGOV, CI
SUBJ: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: UPDATE ON NEW DECREES

REF: SANTIGO 8144

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC SAYS THAT THE DECREE DISSOLVING SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS WILL ALSO APPLY TO APPROXIMATELY 400 LOCAL UNIONS INVOLVING 12,795 UNION MEMBERS (ABOUT 10 PERCENT OF ORGANIZED LABOR). A CO-ORDINADORA LEADER SAYS THE GOC HAS BLOCKED HIS TEXTILE LOCAL'S BANK ACCOUNT. THE SANTIAGO CATHOLIC CHURCH HAS ANNOUNCED ITS OPINION THAT THE DECREES THREATEN WORKERS' RIGHTS. PRIVATELY AN INDEPENDENT, GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT, LEADER EXPRESSED CONCERN AT THE SWEEPING AUTHORITY THE DECREES CREATE, BUT OFFERED AN OPTIMISTIC APPRAISAL OF HOW THE GOC WILL IMPLEMENT THEM. MOST "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS ARE OUT OF TOWN; ONE OF THEM TOLD US HE FEARED THE GOVERNMENT WOULD USE THE REORGANIZATION DECREE TO [redacted]

PURGE GOC CRITICS. OTHER GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT LABOR ORGANIZATIONS HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT THEY ARE STUDYING THE NEW LABOR LEGISLATION. END SUMMARY..

2. LABOR MINISTER VASCO COSTA TOLD THE PRESS OCTOBER 23 THAT "VICIOUS REMORMONGERS" WERE EXAGGERATING THE EFFECTS OF THE NEW DECREE ABOLISHING MARXIST-LED LABOR FEDERATIONS AND THEIR AFFILIATES. COSTA SAID THAT APPROXIMATELY 400 LOCAL UNIONS WITH 112,795 WORKERS WOULD BE AFFECTED. THIS, HE ADDED, WAS ONLY 5.88 PERCENT OF THE 6,840 TRADE UNION LOCALS IN CHILE AND FEWER THAN 10

PERCENT OF THE 1.2 MILLION ORGANIZED CHILEAN WORKERS. THE GOVERNMENT ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT PRESIDENT PINOCHET WOULD SCHEDULE A MEETING IN NOVEMBER WITH LOCAL LABOR LEADERS (RATHER THAN WITH LEADERS OF FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATION).

3. CHRISTIAN DECOCRAT ACTIVIST MANUAL BUSTOS, PRESIDENT OF SUMAR TEXTILES WORKERS UNION, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COORDINADORA SINDICAL AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE NOW DESSOLVED TEXTILE WORKERS FEDERATION (FENATEX), TOLD LABATT THAT OFFICIAL MINISTRY OF LABOR FIGURES SHOWED 529 UNIONS FALLING UNDER THE DISSOLUTION DECREE. HE SUGGESTED THAT THE LABOR MINISTER PERHAPS THOUGHT TO CLOSE DOWN ONLY 400 OF THEM. BUSTOS, WHOM THE "GROUP OF TEN" OUSTED IN JUNE WHEN HE JOINED WITH THE LEFTIST COORDINADORA SAID THAT THE GOC HAS ALREADY BLOCKED HIS TEXTILE UNION'S BANK ACCOUNT OF SOME 43,000 PESOS ($13,000). HE VALUED UNION PROPERTY AT 8,000,000 PESOS ($280,000). HE NOTED THAT THE DISSOLUTION DECREE PERMITTED THE GOVERNMENT TO CONFISCATE ABOUT $50,000,000 WORTH OF CASH AND PROPERTY. BUSTOS SAID TEXTILE WORKERS AT SUMAR AND OTHER PLANTS [redacted]

RECEIVE SOME OF THEIR SALARIES THROUGH THE UNION; AT SUMAR THE UNION PAYS EACH WORKER 1200 PESOS ($36) A MONTH IN WAGES AND BENEFITS. THE DISSOLUTION DECREE DID NOT ADDRESS THIS PROBLEM.

4. THE CHURCH-SPONSORED PASTORAL OBRERA TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE NEW DECREES "ARE OF SUCH MAGNITUDE THAT THEY JEOPARDIZE THE RIGHT OF LABOR TO ORGANIZE" AND "ARE UNACCEPTABLE FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF THE SOCIAL DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH". THE AUXILIARY BISHOP OF SANTIAGO, ENRIGQUE ALVEAR, ADDED THAT "THE ECONOMIC MODEL OF THIS GOVERNMENT SEEMS TO REQUIRE PROSCRIPTIONS AGAINST POLITICAL PARTIES, FREE TRADE UNIONS AND FREE EXPRESSION. THIS ECONOMIC MODEL DESTROYS FREEDOM. AS CHRISTIANS AND CITIZENS WE CANNOT AGREE WITH IT."

5. FEDERICO MUJICA, PRESIDENT OF THE PRIVATE EMPLOYEES UNION (CEPCH) TOLD LABATT THAT THE NEW MEASURES COULD BE APPLIED TO SPOKESMEN OF SOME OF CEPCH'S LARGE AFFILIATES -- INCLUDING THE FEDERATION OF COMMERCIAL WORKERS (RETAIL CLERKS) (FEBATRADECO) -- BECAUSE THEY WERE NOT LEGALLY INSCRIBED. MUJICA BELIEVD, HOWEVER, THAT THE GOC WOULD GO VERY SLOW IN USING THE NEW DECREES AGAINST DEMOCRATIC UNIONS.

FINDING A BRIGHTER SIDE, MUJICA OBSERVED THAT THE GOC COULD USE THE NEW MEASURES A A FIRST STEP IN REORGANIZING THE CHILEAN TRADE UNION MOVEMENT ALONG DEMOCRATIC LINES COMPATIBLE WITH US TRADE UNION IDEALS. HE ADDED THAT HE DID NOT THINK THE GOC WOULD WIPE OUT LOCAL UNIONS BUT RATHER WOULD BREAK UP FEDERATIONS IN BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTORS WITH THE AIM OF REBUILDING A TRADE UNION MOVEMENT FROM THE BOTTOM UP AS HAS BEEN DONE IN BRAZIL. MUJICA SAID THAT HIS ORGANIZATION WOULD STUDY THE NEW LAWS BEFORE MAKING A PUBLIC DECLARATION. HEALTH WORKERS AND COPPER WORKERS ALSO MADE SIMILAR ANNOUNCEMENTS.

6. ERNESTO VOGEL, PRESIDENT OF THE RAILWAY WORKERS INDUSTRIAL FEDERATION AND ONE OF THE FEW "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS CURRENTLY IN TOWN TOLD LABATT THAT HE WAS MOST CONCERNED ABOUT THE DECREE GIVING THE INTERIOR MINISTER SWEEPING POWERS TO RESTRUCTURE THE BUREAUCRACY. THIS, VOGEL SAID, COULD BE USED TO REMOVE MOST OF THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERSHIP IN PUBLIC SERVICE AND IN GOVERNMENT-OWNED INDUSTRIES. VOGEL NOTED THAT THE LAST DECREE MADE IT A NATIONAL SECURITY CRIME FOR HIM TO SPEAK AS A MEMBER OF THE "GROUP OF TEN".

7. TWO PRINCIPAL DEMOCRATIC LEADERS (EDUARDO RIOS AND TUCAPEL JIMINEZ) ARE PARTICIPATING IN AIFLD-SPONSORED SEMINARS WITH AIFLD CONSULTANT DAN MONTENEGRO IN SOUTHERN

CHILE. THEY HAVE NOT COMMENTED PUBLICLY ON THE DECREES.

UNCLASSIFIED

8. COMMENT: AS AN HISTORICAL NOTE, DECREE LAW 12 OF SEPTEMBER 17, 1973 DISSOLVED THE CHILEAN LABOR CENTRAL (CUT) AND CONFISCATED ALL ITS PROPERTY. WE NOTE THAT THIS TIME THE JUNTA HAS TO DRAW SPECIFICALLY UPON ITS CONTITUTIONAL POWERS IN DISSOLVING THE SEVEN FEDERATIONS AND THEIR AFFLIATES, SINCE UNDER THE JUNTA'S OWN RULES, CONFISCATION IS NORMALLY UNCONSTITUTIONAL. DECREE LAWS 6 AND 22 OF SEPTEMBER 1973 AND DL 98 OF OCTOBER GAVE THE GOC POEERS SIMILAR TO HE NEW DL 2345. BUT DL 200 OF DECEMBER 1973 TERMINATED THAT BLANKET SPECIAL AUTHORITY TO REORGANIZE THE BUREAUCRACY.

9. THE KEY REMAINS IMPLEMENTATION. IF THE GOC WISHES TO FORESTALL AFL/CIO ENDORSEMENT OF A BOYCOTT IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT IT WOULD MOVE AGAINST DECOMCRATIC LABOR LEADERSHIP AT THIS TIME. WE RESERVE JUDGMENT ON THE GOVERNMENT'S TRUE INTENTIONS.

1. SUMMARY: THE CHILEAN LABOR MINISTRY HAS SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAS NO INTENTION OF CONFISCATING PROPERTY WHICH COLLECTIVELY BELONGS TO THE WORKERS WHEN IMPLEMENTING ITS DECREE DISSOLVING SEVEN LABOR FEDERATIONS AND AFFILIATES. THE GOVERNMENT CONTINUES TO BLOCK CERTAIN UNION BANK ACCOUNTS AND HAS CARRIED AWAY SOME OF THE RECORDS AND FURNITURE OF THE SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS. SEVERAL UNIONS AFFECTED BY THE DECREE HAVE ISSUED STATEMENTS. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY MADE A POINT OF DROPPING ITS STATEMENT OFF AT THE EMBASSY. EDITORIAL COMMENTS IN "LA TERCERA" AND GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT NEWSWEEKLY "QUE PASA" TAKE SOME DIGS AT GOC LABOR POLICIES. END SUMMARY.

2. OCTOBER 25 A MINISTRY OF LABOR SPOKESMAN TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT PLAN TO TAKE PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE MEMBERS OF THE DISSOLVED TRADE UNIONS. HE SAID THE MINISTRY HAD BLOCKED A NUMBER OF UNION BANK ACCOUNTS A TRANSISTORY AND PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE BUT WOULD SOON PRODUCE A RESOLUTION WHICH WOULD RESOLVE THE PROBLEM OF PAYMENT OF CERTAIN SOCIAL BENEFITS FROM UNIONS' FUNDS. A PARTICULAR POINT OF CONCERN IS DEATH BENEFITS SINCE UNION MEMBERS NEED TO PAY FUNDRAL EXPENSES.

4. THE LABOR MINISTRY MADE AN EFFORT TO DOWNPLAY THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RECENT DECREES. HE TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE HIGHEST PRIORITY PROJECTS BEING STUDIED NOW AT THE MINISTRY INVOLVED REINITIATING PENSIONS AND REFORM OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSION SYSTEM (COMMENT: LONG STANDING LABOR PROJECTS HAVE BEEN UNDER STUDY FOR YEARS).

5. IN A PRESS CONFERNCE OCTOBER 26 THE NOW NO LONGER LEGALLY EXTANT COORDINADORA SINDICAL HELD WHAT TECHNICALLY MUST HAVE BEEN ILLEGAL PRESS CONFERENCE. IT ISSUED A STATEMENT STRONGLY CRITICIZING THE GOC DECREES AS A GROSS VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

[redacted]

[redacted]

6. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY LOST LITTLE TIME IN MAKING ITS VIEWS KNOWN. PARTY VICE PRESIDENT TOMAS REYES (WHO REPRESENTS THE PARTY'S MAINSTREAM LEFT) REQUESTED AN INTERVIEW WITH THE AMBASSADOR OCTOBER 24. HE BROUGHT A PARTY DECLARATION SUPPORTING THE DISSOLVED TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND LAMBASTING THE GOVERNMENTS LABOR, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL POLICIES.

7. EDITORIAL COMMENT: "LA TERCERA" OCTOBER 26 LEAD EDITORIAL NOTED THAT WORKING PEOPLE HAVE RIGHTS. IT REFERRED TO THE OFT REPEATED STATEMENTS FROM THE GOC DISAVOWING THE GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION TO HARM WORKERS' INTERESTS. THE EDITORIAL SUGGESTED THAT THE GOC TAKE ANOTHER LOOK AT THE DAMAGES ITS NEW DECREES MAY CAUSE SHOULD THEY BE VIGOROUSLY ENFORCED. GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT NEWSWEEKLY "QUE PASA" MORE GENTLY MADE A SIMILAR POINT.

SUBJ: VISIT TO WASHINGTON BY "MOTHERS OF THE PLAZA DE MAYO"

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY. IN THE PAST MONTH A NUMBER OF THE "MOTHERS OF THE PLAZA DE MAYO" HAVE UNDERTAKEN NEW INITIATIVES, INCLUDING TRAVEL ABROAD, TO UNDERSCORE THEIR DEMANDS THAT THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT DO SOMETHING ABOUT THE PROBLEM OF THE DISAPPEAREDS. FIVE ARGENTINE MOTHERS -- ANGELICA MIGNONE AND RENEE EPEBAUM, TRAVELING FROM OTTAWA, ARE BEING JOINED IN WASHINGTON BY ELIDA GALETTI, HEBE BONAFINI AND MARIA CERRUTI. IN WASHINGTON THE GROUP WILL SEEK TO MEET WITH GOVERNMENT, CONGRESSIONAL AND NGO LEADERS. THE GROUP EXPECTS TO BEGIN ITS WASHINGTON ACTIVITIES ON OCTOBER 26.

WE THOUGHT IT USEFUL TO SEND AT THIS TIME THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES BY "THE MOTHERS". GENERALLY SPEAKING WE SENSE A HIGH LEVEL OF FRUSTRATION

[redacted]

[redacted]

PAGE 02 BUENOS 08537 01 OF 02 271541Z

AS TIME PASSES AND THE LADIES RECEIVE NO INFORMATION REGARDING THEIR DISAPPEARED CHILDREN. END INTRODUCTION

AND SUMMARY.

1. THE PLAZA MOTHERS HAVE UNDERTAKEN A NUMBER OF NEW INITIATIVES IN THE LAST MONTH. MOST IMPORTANT IS A VISIT TO WASHINGTON, NEW YORK AND OTTAWA, WHERE A GROUP OF FIVE MOTHERS PLAN TO MEET WITH GOVERNMENT, CONGRESSIONAL, UN, OAS, AND NGO LEADERS TO SEEK GREATER US AND CANADIAN SUPPORT ON THE QUESTION OF THE DISAPPEAREDS. ANGELICA MIGNONE AND RENEE EPEBAUM ARE REPORTED TO BE IN OTTAWA THIS WEEK. THEIR CANADIAN VISIT IS BEING ARRANGED BY THE TORONTO BASED INTER-CHURCH COMMITTEE FOR LATIN AMERICA. THESE TWO MOTHERS AND THREE OTHERS COMING FROM ARGENTINA -- ELIDA GALETTI, HEBE BONAFINA AND MARIA CERRUTI -- PLANNED TO MEET IN WASHINGTON ON OCTOBER 25. WOLA REPRESENTATIVE, SISTER JO MARIE GRIESGRABER, IS EXPECTED TO BE THE PRINCIPAL WASHINGTON CONTACT FOR THE GROUP. WE SUGGESTED THAT THE GROUP CONTACT BUMPUS (ARA/ECA), LISTER (ARA), AND COHEN (HA/HR) TO ARRANGE MEETINGS WITH ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS.

2. IN ANOTHER INITIATIVE, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH HAS BECOME A MAJOR FOCUS OF ATTENTION FOR THE MOTHERS. A GROUP OF THEM IS MAKING PLANS TO ATTEND THE LATIN AMERICAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONFERENCE IN PUEBLA, MEXICO (HOLD CLOSELY). A LETTER WRITING CAMPAIGN TO THE MAJOR LATIN AMERICAN BISHOPS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN ARGENTINA HAS ALREADY BEGUN. IN A RELATED EFFORT, A LETTER WAS SENT ON OCTOBER 2 SIGNED BY 38 MOTHERS TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF BUENOS AIRES, CARDINAL ARAMBURU, STRONGLY DENOUNCING THE CARDINAL'S REFUSAL TO MENTION [redacted]

THE DISAPPEARANCE QUESTION DURING HIS SERMON TO THE 600,000 LUJAN PILGRIMS. THE LETTER WENT ON TO ASSERT THAT THE MOTHERS HAD COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT ARGENTINE CHURCH LEADERS PREFERRED CLOSE RELATIONS WITH THE TEMPORAL POWERS AND ITS ADVANTAGES, INSTEAD OF "TESTIFYING TO THE TRUTH" AND "SERVING THE PERSECUTED AND SUFFERING." THE MOTHERS ARE CIRCULATING THE LETTER, WHICH IS THE FIRST PUBLIC ATTACK ON THE ARGENTINE CHURCH'S POSITION ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

3. THE MOTHERS' GROUP APPEARS TO BE GROWING IN STRENGTH HERE. THE THURSDAY AFTERNOON GATHERINGS IN THE PLAXA

DE MAYO HAVE BEEN INCREASING IN NUMBERS. DEPENDING ON THE WEATHER, THERE ARE PRESENTLY BETWEEN 200 AND 300 WOMEN IN THE PLAZA EACH THURSDAY. A SPECIAL MOTHERS' DAY MASS ON OCTOBER 15 ANNOUNCED BY ADVERTISEMENTS IN THE LOCAL PRESS REPORTEDLY DREW 2,000 PERSONS TO A CHURCH IN DOWNTOWN BUENOS AIRES. AFTER THE MASS, A GROUP ESTIMATED AT OVER 1,000 WALKED IN PROCESSION TO THE PLAZA DE MAYO AND CIRCLED THE PLAZA SEVERAL TIMES BEFORE DISBANDING. EXCEPT FOR A POLICEMAN'S (UNSUCCESSFUL) REQUEST THAT ONE OF THE MOTHERS "ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY" FOR THE MASS AND THE MARCH, THERE WAS NO POLICE INTERFERENCE. THE MOTHERS TOLD EMBOFF THEY WERE VERY PLEASED WITH THE TURNOUT; HOWEVER OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS OBSERVERS REGRETTED THAT THIS LARGE A DEMONSTRATION PAKSED VIRTUALLY UNNOTICED THROUGH THE DESERTED SUNDAY STREETS OF CENTRAL BUENOS AIRES.

4. ANOTHER POINT WORTH NOTING IS THE DECISION OF THE MOTHERS TO ADOPT NEW VERBAL FORMULATION IN THEIR QUEST FOR INFORMATION. THEY ARE NOW USING THE WORD "DETENIDO" (DETAINEE) TO REFER TO THE MISSING AND ARE SPECIFICALLY REJECTING THE WORD "DESAPARECIDO" (DISAPPEARED) AS A "FALSE" DESCRIPTION OF THE PROBLEM. ONE MOTHER SUMMED UP THE NEW CONCEPT BY STATING THAT

[redacted]

[redacted]

"ALL OUR MISSING CHILDREN ARE DETAINEES. 'DESAPARECIDOS' REFERS MERELY TO DRAMAS WITHOUT SOLUTIONS."

5. THE MOTHERS HAVE BECOME INCREASINGLY OPTIMISTIC REGARDING THE POSSIBILITY OF THE RETURN OF THE DISAPPEARED DUE TO A NUMBER OF REPORTS OF CLANDESTINE DETENTION FACILITIES CIRCULATING IN HUMAN RIGHTS CIRCLES HERE. MANY OF THESE REPORTS ARE ALLEGED TO END COMMENT.

6. IN ANOTHER RECENT INITIATIVE, ON OCTOBER 10, LETTERS FROM 189 OF THE PLAZA MOTHERS WERE PRESENTED TO THE EMBASSY FOR TRANSMITTAL TO PRESIDENT CARTER. THE LETTERS (WHICH ARE BEING POUCHED TO THE DEPARTMENT) CONTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF DISAPPEARANCES OF FAMILY MEMBERS AND REQUEST THE PRESIDENT'S HELP.

7. EMBASSY WILL BE GRATEFUL FOR PLAYBACK ON ACTIVITIES OF THE MOTHERS' GROUP IN OTTAWA, NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON.

E.O. 11652: N/A
TAGS: ELAB, SHUM, CI
SUBJ: GOC ANNOUNCES GENERAL TRADE UNION ELECTIONS FOR OCT 31.

REF: SANTIAGO 8354

SUMMARY: LATE FRIDAY OCTOBER 27 THE GOC ANNOUNCED THAT ELECTIONS FOR UNION OFFICERS IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR WOULD BE HELD THE FOLLOWING TUESDAY. IN FIRSMS WITH EXISTING UNIONS, WORKERS WILL BE ABLE TO VOTE FOR TWO PEOPLE AND THE THREE WINNING THE MOST VOTES WILL SERVE FOUR YEAR TERMS. NO ONE ACTIVE IN POLITICS DURING THE LAST DECADE IS ELIGIBLE FOR OFFICE; NO INCUMBANT MAY BE ELECTED.

ELECTIONS WILL NOT BE HELD FOR ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTING GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES, STATE-OWNED FIRMS OR AMONG LONGSHOREMEN, THUS THE MEASURES APPARENTLY DO NOT IMMEDIATELY AFFECT THE POSITIONS OF SUCH DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS AS TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, ERNESTO VOGEL, OR EDUARDO RIOS. THE MINISTER OF LABOR ALSO

[redacted]

[redacted]

PROMISED TO BRING OUT A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DECREE DURING THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1979 AND SAID NEW REGULATIONS FOR THE REST OF THE LABOR SECTOR WOULD BE ANNOUNCED BEFORE THEN. END SUMMARY.

2. THE CHILEAN LABOR MINISTER MINISTER ANNOUNCED FRIDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 27, THAT THE PRIVATE SECTOR WILL HOLD TRADE UNION ELECTIONS TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31. THE MINISTER TOLD THE MEDIA TO COOPERATE AND NOT ATTRIBUTE POLITICAL MOTIVES TO AN ESSENTIALLY TRADE UNION MATTER, OTHERWISE GOC WOULD FIND IT NECESSARY TO APPLY VIGOROUSLY THE POWERS AT ITS DISPOSAL.

UNCLASSIFIED

3. THE MINISTER SAID THAT GOVERNMENT WORKERS, WORKERS OF STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS, AND MARITIME WORKERS WILL NOT PARTICIPATE. ORGANIZATIONS REPRESENTING THESE WORKERS WILL BE SUBJECT TO FUTURE REGULATIONS TO BE ISSUED PRIOR TO THE INITIATION OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. HE PROM ISED A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW BY THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1979.

4. DECREE LAW 2376 APPEARED IN THE OFFICIAL GAZETTE ON OCTOBER 28. IT ESTABLISHES REGULATIONS FOR ORGANIZATION TRADE UNION IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR.

-- ARTICLE 2: REMOVES THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN BLUE COLLAR AND WHITE COLLAR UNIONS REQUIRING THE MERGER OF EXISTING LOCAL UNIONS INTO A SINGLE PLANT-WIDE LOCAL. ONLY PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN WITH THE COMPANY FOR AT LEAST TWO YEARS ARE ELIGIBLE TO JOIN THE UNION.

-- ARTICLE 3: REDUCES THE NUMBER OF OFFICERS IN EACH UNION FROM FIVE TO THREE WITH THE EXCEP-

[redacted]

TION OF STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS. THESE LATTER WILL CONTINUE TO BE REGULATED BY SEPARATE STATUTES. THE RIGHT TO ORGANIZE A UNION IS CONFERRED ONLY AFTER THE BUSINESS HAS BEEN IN EXISTENCE AT LEAST TWO YEARS. THE UNION MUST HAVE 30 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE AFFILIATED AND AT LEAST 25 WORKERS TO CONSTITUTE A UNION. ONCE CONSTITUTED, IF THE MEMBERSHIP DROPS BELOW THESE MINIMUMS, THE UNION IS DISSOLVED IN ACCORDANCE WITH EXISTING LEGISLATION.
-- ARTICLE 4: RAISES THE MINIMUM AGE TO HOLD UNION OFFICE FROM 18 TO 21 YEARS OLD AND REQUIRES A MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS IN THE COMPANY TO HOLD UNION OFFICE. THIS ARTICLE EXCLUDES ANYONE WHO DURING THE LAST TEN YEARS HAS ENGAGED IN PARTISAN POLITICAL ACTIVITY, BEEN A DUES-PAYING MEMBER OF A POLITICAL PARTY OR RUN FOR PUBLIC OFFICE.

-- ARTICLE 5: PROVIDES FOR ENFORCEMENT OF ARTICLE 4, GIVING LABOR INSPECTORS POWER TO REMOVE FROM OFFICE ANYONE WHO DOES NOT MEET THE TESTS OF THE PREVIOUS ARTICLE. LEGAL REMEDIES OF APPEAL ARE SPELLED OUT.

-- ARTICLE 6: PRESCRIBES AN OATH FORESWEARING PARTICIPATION IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY WHILE HOLDING UNION OFFICE. PERSONS REFUSING TO TAKE THIS OATH ARE DISQUALIFIED AND THE UNION POSITION FILLED IN ACCORDANCE WITH DL 198. (DL 198 PROVIDES FOR GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENT OF UNION OFFICIALS.)

5. ELEVEN TRANSITORY ARTICLES PROVIDE THE RULES FOR VOTING (EACH WORKER WILL VOTE FOR TWO PEOPLE, THE TOP THREE WIN FOUR YEAR TERMS). THEY MAKE INCUMBANTS INELIGIBLE FOR ELECTION. THEY ALSO REQUIRE ALL UNION OFFICERS IN ORGANIZATIONS NOT HOLDING ELECTIONS (I.E., THE PUBLIC SECTOR AND LONGSHOREMEN) TO SWEAR THEY ARE NOT NOW AND WILL NOT IN THE FUTURE ENGAGE IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY. ANOTHER ARTICLE PROVIDES STILL SANCTIONS FOR ANYONE WHO TRIES TO FRUSTRATE THE ELECTORAL PROCESS ("ATENTA CONTRA LA NORMALIDAD DEL ACTO Y OBSTACULICE LA MATERIALIZACION DEL MISMO").

7. COMMENT: OUR PRELIMINARY READING OF THE DECREE IS THAT DOES NOT IMMEDIATELY AND DIRECTLY JEOPARDIZE THE POSITIONS OF SUCH DEMOCRATIC LEADERS AS TUCAPEL JIMENEZ (GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES), ERNESTO OGEL (STATE-OWNED RAILROADS), EDUARDO RIOS (LONG-SHOREMEN); OR UNTRACH LEADER HERNOL FLORES (GOVERNMENT-OWNED POST AND TELEGRAPH).

1. SUMMARY: LARGELY ECLIPSED BY LABOR MINISTER'S OCTOBER 27 SPEECH (SEPTEL), THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN TAKING STEPS TO CLOSE DOWN UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH SEVEN MARXIST-LED FEDERATIONS DISSOLVED BY DECREE OCTOBER 19. AMONG THEM IS THE WORKERS UNION AT EXXON-OWNED LA DISPUTADA COPPER MINE. PROHIBITED BY ANOTHER DECREE FROM SPEAKING AS THE GROUP OF TEN, SEVENTY-TWO DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS (INCLUDING THE TEN) ISSUED A PUBLIC STATEMENT OCTOBER 25. THE STATEMENT ASSERTS THAT THE INTERIOR MINISTRY DECREES VIOLATE HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE GOVERNMENT'S OWN PRINCIPLES AND ARE CERTAINLY NO WAY TO ENGENDER NATIONAL RECONCILIATION. END SUMMARY

2. POLICE HAVE SEALED THE OFFICES OF THE WORKERS UNION [redacted]

AT LA DISPUTADA COPPER MINE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF AN OCTOBER 19 DECREE DISSOLVING SEVEN MARXIST-LED LABOR CONFERERATIONS AND AFFILIATES. THE MINE, OWNED BY EXXON, IS IN THE MOUNTAINS NEAR SANTIAGO. ALSO CLOSED WERE THE MELON CEMENT COMPANY WORKERS UNION AND THE SCHATT TEXTILE MILL WORKERS UNION, BOTH IN THE CENTRAL VALLEY TOWN LA CALERA. THE GOVERNMENT ENTRUSTED THE UNIONS' PROPERTY TO THE COMPANIES FOR SAFEKEEPING. (COMMENT: HERETOFORE TRADITIONAL CHILEAN PRACTICE HAS BEEN TO HAVE SEPARATE UNIONS FOR BLUE AND WHITE COLLAR WORKERS IN THE SAME PLANT. THE CLOSURES REPORTED ABOVE AFFECT THE BLUE COL-LAR WORKERS: THE EMPLEADOS' UNIONS ARE UNAFFECTED.)

3. NO LONGER ABLE TO SPEAK AS THE "GROUP OF TEN" UNDER ANOTHER OCTOBER 19 DECREE DISSOLVING ALL LABOR ORGANIZATIONS NOT LEGALLY REGISTERED, DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS SUCH AS EDUARDO RIOS, ERNESTO VOGEL AND TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, JOINED SIXTY-NINE OTHERS IN SIGNING A PUBLIC STATEMENT STRONGLY CRITICAL OF THE INTERIOR MINISTRY'S DECREES. THE SEVEN POINT STATEMENT SAYS THAT:
-- THE DECREES VIOLATE THE JUNTA'S OWN PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNMENT ENUNCIATED IN CONSTITUTIONAL ACTS;
-- THEY VIOLATE HUMAN RIGHTS, CHILEAN TRADITION, FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE, AND OTHER RIGHTS SET FORTH IN INTERNATIONAL LABOR CONVENTIONS;
-- THE PROVISION TO REMOVE ANY PUBLIC WORKER PLACES A SWORD OF DAMOCLES OVER AN ALREADY BELEAGUERED SECTOR;
-- THE DISSOLUTION DECREE DEPRIVES THOUSANDS OF UNION REPRESENTATION BECAUSE OF THE BELIEFS OF A FEW UNION LEADERS AND CAN ONLY SERVE TO HELP ORGANIZERS USED TO WORKING UNDERGROUND;
-- THE SWEEPING DEFINITION PERMITTING SANCTIONS [redacted]

AGAINST ANYONE WHO "PRESUMES TO REPRESENT SECTORS OF WORKERS" INTIMIDATES THE WHOLE SOCIETY;
-- THE GOC DID NOT ADDRESS THE RESTRICTIONS PROHIBITING UNION ELECTIONS, COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, ETC. (COMMENT: THESE POINTS WERE COVERED IN MINLAB SPEECH, SEE SEPTELS); AND
-- THE DECREES WIDEN SOCIETAL SCHISMS RATHER THAN IMPROVING PROSPECTS FOR NATIONAL RECONCILIATION.

4. FORU PRO-GOVERNMENT LABOR LEADERS WERE REPORTED BY THE PRESS AS CONDEMNING ANY BOYCOTT SPONSORED BY THE "LEFTIST AMERICAN TRADE UNION ORGANIZATION, AFL-CIO".

5. AND HIGH GLOSS NEWSMAGAZINE "COSAS" REVIEWED THE BACKGROUND OF AFL-CIO'S LONGSTANDING CONCERN OVER THE CHILEAN LABOR SCENE. IT TOOK AS A BENCHMARK THE MARCH, 1976, SOLIDARITY VISIT AND THE OCTOBERN 1976, MESSAGE FROM MEANY TO PINOCHET. MEANY, REACTING TO THE REMOVAL OF A DEMOCRATIC HEAD OF THE COPPER CONFEDERATION, SUGGESTED A CHANGE IN AFL-CIO'S PREVIOUS OPPOSITION TO A CHILEAN BOYCOTT. THE ARTICLE, BACKGROUNDED BY BUT NOT ATTRIBUTED TO LABATT, COUNTERED THE ARGUMENT THAT THE AFL-CIO WAS ACTING NOW AS PART OF A CONCERTED ATTACK TO TOPPLE PINOCHET.

SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS PROTEST RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE UNION ELECTIONS

REF: SANTIAGO 8355

1. SUMMARY: DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS ISSUED AN AS YET UNPUBLISHED STATEMENT PROTESTING LEGISLATION FOR PRIVATE SECTOR UNION ELECTIONS ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31. PROTEST STATES THAT LAW IS TECHNICALLY DEFECTIVE IN ONLY PERMITTING TWO WORKING DAYS TO PREPARE FOR AN ELECTION IN SEVERAL THOUSAND WORK PLACES THROUGHOUT CHILE AND BY AUTHORIZING SANCTIONS AGAINST ANYONE WHO CRITICIZES THE PROCESS OR EVEN, SUGGESTS CANDIDATES. THE STATEMENT ALSO PROTESTS THAT THE NEW LAW MAKES IT AN "EX POST FACTO CRIME" TO HAVE PARTICIPATED IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY DURING THE LAST TEN

YEARS AND DISCRIMINATES AGAINST PERSONS WHO HELD UNNION OFFICE DURING THE CURRENT REGIME. THE TRADE UNIONISTS SPECIFICALLY ATTACKED THE LAW'S REQUIREMENT THAT WHITE AND BLUE COLLAR UNIONS PRESENTLY EXISTING BE REESTABLISHED AFTER THE ELECTION AS PLANT-WIDE EMPLOYEE ASSOCIATIONS WHICH INCLUDE PARTICIPATION OF MANAGEMENT AND LABOR WITHOUT DISTINCTION. DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS ALSO POINT OUT THAT RESTRICTIVE TRADE UNION LEGISLATION EXISTING SINCE 1973 HAS NOT BEEN REPEALED BUT REINFORCED BY THIS LAW. ACCORDING TO STATEMENT, THE GOC WILL CONTINUE TO DENY THE RIGHT TO MEET FREELY, BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY AND ELECT TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP, AND THAT OCTOBER 31 ELECTION IS A TEMPORARY ONE TIME SUSPENSION

UNCLASSIFIED

OF THIS RESTRICTIVE LEGISLATION. THE "GROUP OF TEN" HOPES THE AFL-CIO WILL LABEL THE ELECTORAL PROCESS A HOX ("BURLA"). EX-MINISTER OF LABOR RETIRED AIR FORCE GENERAL NICANOR DIAZ MAKES SMILIAR POINTS OVER ONE TEMERARIOUS LOCAL RADIO STATION. MEANWHILE THE GOC IS MONOPOLIZING THE MEDIA AND REMINDING WORKERS THAT NO ONE ACTIVE IN POLITICS WILL BE PERMITTED TO TAKE OFFICE. END SUMMARY.

2. THE "GROUP OF TEN" ISSUED A DECLARATION OCTOBER 29 CONCERNING THE SCHEDULED OCTOBER 31 ELECTIONS FOR TRADE UNION OFFICE. THE DECLARATION MAKES THE FOLLOWING POINTS:

-- MINISTRY OF INTERIOR DECREE LAW 2347 OF OCTOBER 20 HAD ALREADY MADE IT A CRIME FOR TRADE UNION LEADERS AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL TO REPRESENT MUNICIPAL, GOVERNMENT AND STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISE WORKERS ON BREAD AND BUTTER ISSUES. (COMMENT: SUCH GROUPS AND JIMINEZ, ANEF, VOGEL'S RAILROAD WORKERS AND NORABUENA'S SUGAR WORKERS ARE, TECHNICALLY, MUTUAL ASSOCIATIONS REGISTERED WITH MINISTRY OF JUSTICE AND NOT TRADE UNIONS WHICH ARE REGISTERED WITH MINISTRY OF LABOR).

-- THE NEW LAW REDEFINING PRIVATE SECTOR UNIONS MAKES IT A CRIME FOR ANYONE EXCEPT NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS TO ENGAGE IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, AND DOES NOT CALL FOR ELECTIONS AT THE

[redacted]

[redacted]

FEDERATION OR CONFEDERATION LEVEL.

-- THE NEW LAW INDUCES AN EX POST FACTO SANCTION AGAINST ANYONE WHO ENGAGED IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY OVER PAST TEN YEARS (WHEN, OF COURSE, POLITICAL ACTIVITY WAS A VALUED RIGHT).

-- THE DECREE DISCRIMINATES AGAINST CURRENT TRADE UNION LEADERS JUST BECAUSE THEY HELD OFFICE DURING THE CURRENT REGIME.

-- THE IMPLEMENTING REGULATIONS OF THE TUESDAY ELECTIONS EVEN MAKE IT A CRIME TO POSTULATE CANDIDATES OR CAMPAIGN FOR TRADE UNION OFFICE. BUT THE GOC AND ITS SYCOPHANTS USE THE MEDIA MASSIVELY.

-- THE NEW LAW ALLOWS ONLY 48 HOURS (TWO WORK DAYS) TO PREPARE FOR THE VOTE.

-- COMBINED WITH DL 2347 (OP. CIT.) THE NEW LAW WILL LEAVE MANY WORKERS COMPLETELY WITHOUT REPRESENTATION.

-- THE TWO LAWS ATOMIZE THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT PUTTING WORKERS AT THE DISPOSAL OF INEXPERIENCE LEADERS TO NEGOTIATE FUTURE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CONTRACTS WHILE MANAGEMENT CAN NOT ONLY PARTICIPATE IN THE UNION, IT CAN ALSO DRAW ON PAST COLLECTIVE BARGAINING EXPERIENCE. STRIKES ARE NOT PERMITTED.

-- THE NEW LAWS MAINTAING DECREE LAW 198 IN FULL FORCE SUSPENDING IT ONLY FOR TUESDAY'S ELECTION. FUTURE TRADE UNNION OFFICERS WILL BE APPOINTED BY THE GOC JUST AS IN THE PAST.

3. FORMER MINISTER OF LABOR, RETIRED AIR FORCE GENERAL NICANOR DIAZ ESTRADA MADE A STRONG DECLARATION (CARRIED ON RADIO COOPERATIVE OCTOBER 30) PROTESTING THE NEW ELECTION LAW. HE SAID THE LAW WENT AGAINST ALL PRINCIPLES OF FREE TRADE UNION ELECTIONS AND HUMAN RIGHTS. DIAZ STATED THAT DENIAL BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE RIGHT OF PRESENT TRADE UNION LEADERS TO BE REELECTED WAS

A DENIAL OF TRADE UNION FREEDOM. HE THEN OUTLINED THE HISTORY OF THIS GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS TO USE TRADE UNION LEADERS IN THE INTERNATIONAL FORUM INCLUDING TO HELP PREVENT AN ITF BOYCOTT. NOW, HE ASSERTED, THE GOC IS SIMPLY THROWING THEM OUT -- BY LAW.

THE PROPAGANDA BLITZ ALSO REMINDS WORKERS TO VOTE FOR APOLITICAL CHOICES SINCE ANYONE SUBSEQUENTLY IDENTIFIED AS HAVING BEEN POLITICALLY ACTIVE DURING THE LAST DECADE WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO TAKE OFFICE. CORPORATIONS.

5. COMMENT: WHAT WITH THE THREE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR DECREES OF OCTOBER 19 AND THE MINISTER OF LABOR'S RESTRUCTURING DECREE AND REGULATIONS FOR IMPLEMENTING PRIVATE SECTOR UNION ELECTIONS OF OCTOBER 27, THE SITUATION HAS BECOME COMPLEX. WHAT THE NEW RULES MEAN WILL BECOME CLEARER DURING THE NEXT FEW WEEKS AND MONTHS AS THE GOC IMPLEMENTS THEM AND ISSUES THE DECREES PROMISTED FOR THE PUBLIC SECTOR AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.

6. ELECTIONS OF ANY KIND ARE A RARITY IN THE JUNTA'S CHILE. AS WE SAID DURING THE JANUARY CONSULTA, THEY MAY HAVE UNFORESEEN POSITIVE CONSEQUENCES. FURTHERMORE, MUCH AS THE APRIL AMNESTY WAS A NECESSARY PRECONDITION TO MOVEMENT IN THE POLITICAL AREA, SOME RESTRUCTURING ("PURIFICATION") OF THE LABOR SECTOR WAS A PRECONDITION FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND THE RESTORATION OF TRADEMUUNION RIGHTS.

7. THERE REMAINS, HOWEVER, A QUESTION OF MEANS AND ENDS. ONE APPARENT CONSEQUENCE OF THE WAY THE GOC PLANS TO PURIFY PRIVATE SECTOR LABOR IS TO ELIMINATE THE PREVIOUS STRUCTURE OF SEPARATE BLUE AND WHITE COLLAR UNIONS AND REPLACE THEM WITH A SINGLE NEGOTIATING ENTITY WITH FEWER OFFICERS. THERE IS A SUPPOSITION THAT UNDER CURRENT CONDITIONS, THE WORKERS WILL INCLINE TOWARD A WHITE COLLAR REPRESENTATIVE WHO WILL BE MORE MALLEABLE TO MANAGEMENT. THE GROUND RULES ALSO COMPLICATE THE FORMATION OF FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS. MOST IMPORTANTLY, THE ELECTION DECREE ENSURES THAT VIRTUALLY NO PERSON WHO HAS HELD OFFICE, EVEN THOSE THE GOC APPOINTED IN THE PAST, WILL BE ABLE TO REPRESENT THE UNION. INEXPERIENCE MAY BE A MAJOR ASSET FOR MANAGEMENT ONCE COLLECTIVE BARGANING IS ALLOWED. ON THE OTHER HAND AT LEAST ONE LARGE PRIVATE FIRM HAS EXPRESSED STRONG CONCERN OVER THE POSSIBLY DISRUPTIVE EFFECT OF NEOPHYTE LABOR LEADERS MAKING UNREALISTIC

[redacted]

WAGE AND BENEFIT DEMANDS. THE ARGUMENT IS THAT MANAGEMENT PREFERS EXPERIENCE LABOR LEADERS WHO ARE MASTERS OF THE ART OF THE POSSIBLE. (VIZ. UNDERSTAND HOW TO READ A BALANCE SHEET.)

8. AN ADDITIONAL CONCERN STEMS FROM WHAT THIS ELECTORAL PROCESS DOES FOR THE FUTURE LEGITIMACY OF ELECTIONS. PERHAPS THROUGH LACK OF COMPREHENSION AS TO THE ROLE OF ELECTIONS IN DEMOCRACIES, THE DRAFTERS OF THE CURRENT RULES ARE -- BY PROHIBITING CAMPAIGING, LISTS OF CANDIDATES, TIME TO DISCUSS ISSUES -- CREATING A KIND OF POPULARITY CONTEST, PRESUMABLY BASED ON WORKERS' GENERAL KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR COLLEAGUES. THIS DENIGRATION OF THE ELECTORAL PROCESS MAY H AVE LONGER TERM CONSEQUENCES FOR THE POSSIBLE RESTORATIO
N
OF DEMOCRACY IN CHILE.

9. THE INDIVIDUAL CONCERNS OF SOME TOP MEMBERS OF THE "GROUP

OF TEN" ARE REPORTED IN A SEPTEL. THEY BELIEVE THAT THE CURRENT SPATE OF NEW RULES CONTAINS AUTHORITY TO CRUSH THEM. SO FAR, HOWEVER, THEY ARE STILL NOT CERTAIN JUST WHAT THE GOC PLANS.

[redacted] SECTION 1 OF 2 SANTIAGO 8392

E.O. 11652: GDS
TAGS: ELAB SHUM CI
SUBJECT: POSITION OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS UNDER ELECTION LAW

REF: SANTIAGO 8391

1. SUMMARY: GROUP OF TEN UNION LEADERS, JIMENEZ, VOGEL AND RIOS TOLD AMBASSADOR OCT 30 THAT THE NEW LABOR LEGISLATION SERIOUSLY AFFECTED EIGHT OF THEIR MEMBERS, ESSENTIALLY LEAVING THEIR MEMBERSHIP WITHOUT ANY LABOR REPRESENTATION. THE GROUP ALSO SAID THAT ONLY THE COMMUNIST LABOR COULD PROFIT FROM THE OCT 31 ELECTIONS. THEY CONCLUDED THEY WOULD EXPLAIN THEIR POSITION TO THE AFL-CIO THROUGH THE AIFLD REPRESENTATIVE BRUCE JAY. END SUMMARY

2. EDUARDO RIOS, PRESIDENT OF THE MARITIME CONFEDERATION, ERNESTO VOGEL, PRESIDENT OF THE RAILWAY WORKERS AND TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, PRESIDENT OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES UNION MET WITH THE AMBASSADOR, THE POL AND ECON COUNSELORS AND CONFIDENTIAL

LABATT OCT 30.

3. THE TRADE UNIONISTS SAID THAT THE NEW LAW (DL2376) SHOULD BE LOOKED AT IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE THREE MINISTERIAL DECREES OF OCT 19 TO DETERMINE ITS EFFECT ON THEIR ORGANIZATIONS. DECREE LAW 2347 MADE IT A CRIME FOR TRADE UNIONS WITHOUT JURIDICAL PERSONALITY TO REPRESENT WORKERS. THIS LAW IMMEDIATELY DISSOLVED RIOS' MARITIME CONFEDERATION (COMACH) AS A TRADE UNION AS WELL GROUP OF TEN'S SUGAR WORKERS (IANSA) MINE AND SMELTER WORKERS (ENA) AND THE PETROLEUM WORKERS CONFEDERATION.
THE LAW THEY SAID, ALSO AFFECTED VOGEL'S RAILWAY WORKER'S

FEDERATION AND JIMENEZ'S PUBLIC EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION BECAUSE THEIR REGISTRATORS DOES NOT PERMIT THEM TO REPRESENT WORKERS, RATHER THEY ARE REORGANIZED BY THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE TO PERMIT THEM TO PROVIDE WELFARE AND SOCIAL ASSISTANCE TO THEIR MEMBERSHIP. THE THREE SAID THAT IT NOW ILLEGAL FOR ANY OF THESE SEVEN FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS TO SPEAK ON BEHALF OF WORKERS, AS IT IS FOR THE GOUP OF TEN AS A WHOLE.

5. ALSO AFFECTED ACCORDING TO THE TRIO, IS THE PLASTICS AND GLASS WORKERS CONFEDERATION. IT HAS JURIDICAL RECOGNITION TO REPRESENT WORKERS. PLASTIC WORKERS ARE SUBJECT TO THE NEW ELECTION LAW FOR OCT 31 AND MUST ELECT NEW LEADERS AT THE LOCAL LEVEL. HOWEVER, THE FEDERATION'S CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT CONFEDERATION LEADERS BE ALSO LEADERS OF LOCAL UNION. BY THE LAW NONE OF THE PRESENT FEDERATION LEADERS ARE PERMITTED TO BE CANDIDATES FOR THE LOCAL OFFICE. IT WOULD SEEM, THEN, THAT THEY MUST GIVE UP NATIONAL OFFICE AND THE GOC WILL BE ABLE TO APPOINT NEW LEADERS FOR THE PLASTIC WORKER'S CONFEDERATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH DL 198. ONLY THE TWO CAMPESINO ORGANIZATIONS DO NOT SEEM TO BE AFFECTED BY THESE LAWS.

6. THE TEN NOTED THAT AT THE FEDERATION LEVEL THEY WERE NOW [redacted]

[redacted]

SUBJECT TO A FINANCIAL SQUEEZE. THE NEW ELECTION LAW (DL 2376) IN ARTICLE 13 SPECIFICALLY FORBIDS THE STATE TO DEDUCT DUES FROM PUBLIC EMPLOYEES FOR A LABOR ORGANIZATION. THIS ARTICLE ELIMINATED THE FINANCING FOR ALL LOCAL AS WELL AS NATIONAL PUBLIC SECTOR UNIONS. VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS MAY BE MADE OR COLLECTED OUTSIDE OF THE CHECKOFF SYSTEM. THOSE UNIONS AFFECTED BY DL 2347 HAD ONLY RECEIVED VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS FROM LOCAL AFFILIATES. THE LATEST DECREE'S ART 8 PROHIBITS CONTRIBUTIONS TO NON-LABOR GROUPS. THIS ARTICLE ALSO PROHIBITS ANY CONTRIBUTION TO LABOR CENTRALS OR LABOR GROUPS MIXING DIVERSE ECONOMIC SECTORS. ALL BT THE PLASTIC WORKERS AND THE TWO CAMPESINO GROUPS WOULD APPEAR TO BE AFFECTED BY THIS PROVISION.

7. RIOS POINTED TO ARTICLE 14 OF DL2376 WHICH APPEARS TO APPLY TO THE MARITIME AND COPPER WORKERS THE POLITICAL CRITERIA CONTAINED IN ARTICLE 4. THIS ARTICLE WOULD REQUIRE THAT LOCAL AND FEDERATION LEADERS IN THE MARITIME AND COPPER MINING SECTORS MUST, WITHIN IN 30 DAYS SWEAR THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN A MEMBER OF A POLITICAL PARTY OR HELD PARTY OFFICE DURING THE LAST TEN YEARS. UNION LEADERS ALSO EXCLUDED FROM THE VOTING ON OCT 31 ARE NOT SPECIFICALLY REQUIRED TO MAKE SUCH A DECLAREION). RIOS STATED THAT HE OF COURSE, DID NOT MEET THIS POLITICAL TEST. ONLY EDUARDO RIOS WOULD SEEM TO BE AFFECTED BY ARTICLE 14. IN THE GROUP OF TEN.

8. TURNING TO MORE GENERAL CRITICISM, THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS TATED THAT DECREE 2346 WHICH DISSOLVED SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDRATIONS FELL MEAVILY ON THEIR AFFILIATED (AND NOT UNSIGIFICANT NUMBER OF) DEMOCRATIC LOCAL UNIONS. THE TRIO ASSERTED THAT THESE LOCALS HAD INVESTED THEIR MONEY IN PROVIDING WELFARE BENEFITS TO THEIR MEMBERSHIP IN THE FORM OF VACTION HOUSING, UNION HALLS, SPORTS STADIUMS AND MEDICAL CENTERS. THESE GOODS ARE ALL BEING CONFISCATED BY THE STATE. THE COMMUNIST UNIONS, ON THE OTHER HAND, HAD NOT SPENT THEIR INVESTMENTS TO BENEFIT THEIR MEMBERSHIP AND HAD LITTLE FOR THE GOC TO CONFISCATE. THE THREE SAID THEY BELIEVED THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAD LEARNED OF THIS DECREE PRIOR TO ITS PROMULGATION AND REMOVED ALL INCRIMINATING DOCUMENTS FROM THEIR UNION HALLS. THEY ALSO REMOVED MOST THINGS OF VALUE.

[redacted]

9. MOST DAMAGING TO THE NEW ELECTORAL PROCESS IS THE CONTINUED VITALITY OF DECREE LAW 198 OF DECEMBER 197. TRANSITION ARTICLES 6 AND 7 OF THE NEW LAW REVITALIZES DL198 AND REFERS TO PROVISIONS CONTAINED THEREIN FOR GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENT OF TRADE UNION LEADERS AS THE PREFERED MANNER OF FILLING UNION VACANCIES AFTER THE OCT 31 ELECTIONS. DL 198 ALSO RESTRICTS THE RIGHT TO MEET FREELY.

10. THE GROUP SAID THAT THEY BELIEVED THAT ONE OF THEM SHOULD

TRAVEL TO THE UNITED STATES TO EXPLAIN THEIR SITUATION TO THE AFL-CIO. THE AMBASSADOR SUGGESTED THAT THE FACTS SPOKE FOR THEMSELVES AND THE GOC WOULD PROBABLY ONLY USE THEIR TRIP AGAINST THEM AND THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR MOVEMENT. THEO GROUP AGREED AND SAID THAT THEY WOULD COMMUNICATE THEIR OPINIONS TO THE AFL-CIO THROUGH BRUCE JAY ON HIS RETURN NOVEMBER 1.

11. COMMENT: THE MEETING WAS POSITIVE. THE THREE TRADE UNION LEADERS LEFT FEELING THAT THEIR VIEWPOINTS WOULD BE HEARD IN THE UNITED STATES BY BOTH THE AFL-CIO AND THE USG. THERE WILL BE NO PRESS ATTENTION TO THIS MEETING.

12. IN A JURIDICALLY CONFUSED SITUATION, THE STATUS OF PRIVATE SECTOR FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS IS PARTICULARLY MURKY. LOCAL UNIONS, AFTER THEY ARE RECONSTITUTED AS AN EMPLOYEES UNION RATHER THAN WHITE OR BLUE COLLAR UNIONS, APPARENTLY MUST DECIDE WITH WHICH FEDERATION, IF ANY, TO AFFILIATE. IN THE CASE WHERE THE LOCAL UNIONS ARE NOT VOTING OCT 31, FEDERATION OFFICERS NOT AFFECTED BY OTHER PROVISIONS OF THE LAW WOULD MAINTAIN THEIR POSITION UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THEY WISH TO ENGAGE IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. THE LAW REQUIRES THAT THE LEADERSHIP OF UNIONS ENGAGING IN COLLECTIVE BARGAIN BE CHANGED BY ELECTIONS ON OCT 31 OR BY DL 198 AT SOME FUTURE DATE.

[redacted]

[redacted]

FREDERICA MUJICA'S CONFEDERATION OF PRIVATE EMPLOYEES IS PARTICULARLY DAMAGED BY THE NEW LAWS WHICH PROHIBIT PAYING DUES TO LABOR CENTRALS GROUPING UNIONS FROM DIVERSE SECTORS.

De nuestra mayor consideración:

Nos es particularmente grato dirigirnos a la máxima autoridad de su país en la Argentina.

Las abajo firmantes formamos parte de un sector de nuestra sociedad que está padeciendo la más dolorosa de las torturas.

Somos madres de desaparecidos,nuestros hijos secuestrados por Fuerzas de Seguridad son en su mayoría profesionales,universitarios,trabajadores y religiosos que se oponen a la opresión de su pueblo,sin que ello signifique que puedan ser sospechados de terroristas,pero la violenta represión ejercida avasalló sin discriminación a terroristas y disidentes.

Ante este doloroso proceso que perturba cada una de nuestras familias y habiendo agotado todo intento de solución con las Autoridades Argentinas por la insistente negativa que expresan,vemos con creciente angustia el futuro.

Sin embargo,el Señor Coronel San Román en representación del Ministerio del Interior,nos ha informado en la última entrevista,que los Desaparecidos son un grave problema a resolver por el Gobierno.

De acuerdo a estas expresiones y a nuestro desesperado reclamo,es que pensamos que los Gobiernos Amigos de la República Argentina podrían auspiciar medidas que ayudaran a mejorar este sombrío panorama. Una forma de hacerlo sería ofreciendo para una cantidad a estipular por su Gobierno,de visas o asilo como Refugiados a personas desaparecidas que eventualmente serían localizadas sin que ello signifique "intromisión en asuntos internos del país".

Esto que proponemos sería una cuestión de estudio por parte de los Gobiernos Amigos,los mismos procederían sin dañar la imagen del país,y sin crear fricciones en la relación entre los gobiernos que nos ayudaren y el Argentino.

Esta ayuda solidaria y humana marcará un hito en la Historia de la Humanidad.

Es por ello que solicitamos de su generosa disposición una breve entrevista personal que no dudamos será positiva.

Reciba nuestros respetos.

MOTHERS OF PLAZA DE MAYO LETTER TO AMBASSADOR CASTRO

(Summary)

These mothers ask for help in finding out the whereabouts of their detained and disappeared relatives.

They discuss the bad conditions in the jails, the fact that detainees are not able to offer a defence, that they are tortured and punished and held under PEN without any reason.

They write about the right of option to leave the country, noting that it is practically impossible to obtain the certificates from the foreign countries embassies.

They ask for help that their sons, husbands etc. be judged and that they be informed what they have done and where they are held.

SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: PRIVATE SECTOR UNION ELECTIONS PEACEFUL

REF: SANTIAGO 8355

1. SUMMARY: GOC HELD ELECTIONS IN APPROXIMATELY 2,400 PLACES OF BUSINESS THROUGHOUT CHILE. APPROXIMATELY 450,000 WORKERS WERE ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE. ALTHOUGH THE NEW RULES CALL FOR THE FORMATION OF A SINGLE PLANT -WIDE UNION (REFTEL), SEPARATE WHITE AND BLUE COLLAR ELECTIONS TOOK PLACE -- A DESIRABLE DECISION. ALTHOUGH ELECTIONEERING WAS A CRIME IN THIS ELECTION, THERE HAVE BEEN NO REPORTS OF ANY PERSON ARRESTED. A DEMONSTRATION BY THE DISBANDED COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NATIONAL COORDINATING BODY IN THE SAN FRANCISCO CHURCH PROTESTING THE ELCTIONS ENDED PEACEFULLY. HOWEVER SEVERAL STUDENT SYMPHATHIZERS WERE ARRESTED FOR DISTURBING PUBLIC ORDER. END SUMMARY.

[redacted]

2. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN OVER FIVE YEARS, PRIVATE SECTOR TRADE UNION ELECTIONS WERE HELD IN CHILE. ACCORDING TO THE GOC, ABOUT 450,000 WORKERS WERE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE, AS MEMBERS OF A TRADE UNION ORGANIZED IN A SINGLE BUSINESS OR COMPANY AND NOT BY SKILL OR TRADE, IT IS NOT CERTAIN WHETHER THESE FIGURES INCLUDE THE 112,795 WORKERS WHO WERE DECLARED INELIGIBLE TO TAKE PART IN THIS VOTE BY DECREE LAW 2346 WHICH DISSOLVED LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS, THE VICE MINISTER OF LABOR JUAN RAUL VENTURA-JUNCA IN ADDRESSING THIS QUESTION SAID THAT DISSOLVED LOCAL UNIONS COULD NOT BOTE NOW BUT WOULD SHORTLY BE

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

PERMITTED TO REORGANIZE UNDER NORMS ESTABLISHED BY THIS DECREE. THE VICE-MINISTER ADDED THAT THE UNION ELECTIONS ARE IN-HOUSE AFFAIRS AND AS SUCH THE GOC WOULD NOT OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCE WINNERS OR RESULTS. HOWEVER THE MEDIA WERE FREE TO QUERY BUSINESSES AND TRADE UNIONS ABOUT THE RESULTS OF THE ELECTION. THE TRADE UNIONIST VOTED BY SECRET BALLOT AND WERE PERMITTED TO WATCH THE TALLY OF VOTES. (EACH ELIGIBLE VOTER WAS PERMITTED TWO VOTES AND THE THREE PERSONS HAVING THE HIGHEST MAJORITY WERE ELECTED). THE THREE CHOULD THEN ASSIGN THE POSITIONS OF TREASURER, SECRETARY AND PRESIDENT AMONG THEMSELVES.

3. THE VICE MINISTER OF LABOR ANNOUNCED THAT THE NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS WOULD BE SWORN IN BEGINNING MONDAY NOVEMBER 6. HE ADDED THAT LABOR FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS, IF THEIR CONSTITUTIONS PERMITTED, WOULD NOT BE AFFECTED. HOWEVER, SOME CONSTITUTIONS OR STATUES REQUIRE A FEDERATION LEADER TO BE ALSO AN OFFICER OF A LOCAL UNION. IN THESE CASES, THE GOC WOULD APPOINT NEW FEDERATION LEADERS UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF DECREE LAW 198 OF DECEMBER 1973. VENTURA-JUNCA SAID THAT NO ONE WOULD BE FORCED TO TAKE UNION OFFICE. THE PERSON RECEIVING THE NEXT LARGEST NUMBER OF VOTES WOULD VILL THE VACANCY. HOWEVER, AN ELECTED OFFICER LATER DISQUALIFIED FOR POLITICAL ACTIVITY OR OTHER [redacted]

REASONS WOULD BE REPLACED UNDER THE PROVISION OF DL 198.

4. TRADE UNION SOURCES REPORTED THAT THE VOTE WENT WITHOUT INCIDENT, BUT COMPAINED THAT NO SPECIAL PROVISION HAD BEEN MADE FOR VOTING BY SECOND AND THIRD SHIFT WORKERS. THE "NO ELECTIONEERING" LAW WAS, NOT REPSECTED IN PRACTICE. MANY WORKERS CAME TO THE UNION LEADERS TO ASK FOR NAMES TO PLACE ON THE BALLOT. HOWEVER, OUR COURCE SAID THAT NO ONE WAS ARRESTED FOR CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY. A MAJOR CONCERN WAS THE LEVEL OF COMPANY INVOLVEMENT IN THE ELECTION PROCESS. ONE UNION MEMBER REPORTED THAT THERE WAS A COMAPNY REPRESENTATIVE AND A "CARABINERO" (NATIONAL POLICE) AT EACH POLLING PLACE. THE NEWSPAPERS ALSO REPORTED THE PRESENCE OF SUPERVISORY PERSONNEL AT THE POLLING PLACES. THE GOC OBTAINED UNION MEMBER-SHIP LISTS FROM THE COMPANYS RATHER THAN THE UNIONS WHICH RESULTED IN AT LEAST ONE CASE OF UNION OFFICERS BEING DENIED THE RIGHT TO VOTE. HOWEVER, TRADE UNION SOURCES ADDED THAT IN NO CASE TO THEIR KNOWLEDGE DID MANAGEMENT ATTEMPT TO INFLUENCE THE VOTE. THE PRESS REPORTED THAT A SUPERVISOR AT ELECTROMET IN SANTIAGO HAD TOLD THE WORKERS THAT THEY WOULD BE FIRED IF THEY VOTED. THIS SITUATION WAS QUICKLY REVERSED BY THE GOC.

5. MEANWHILE ABOUT 50 PERSONS, MOSTLY MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COORDINADORA SINICAL AND THE CHRISTIAN LABOR (CLAT) AFFLIATED SINGLE LABOR FEDERATION (FUT) HELD A 24-HOUR BIGIL PEACEFULLY LAST NIGHT (OCT. 31). MANUEL BUSTOS, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT EX-PRESIDENT OF SUMAR TEXTILES, ALAMIRO GUZMAN, COMMUNIST EX-PRESIDEN T
OF THE MINING FEDERATION ADN CARLOS FREY, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT EX-PRESIDENT OF FUT AND BLUE COLLAR PORT WORKERS PARTICIPATED.

BUT THAT THE RESTRICTIONS CONTAINED IN THE LAW AND THE REINFORCEMENT OF CRIPPLING DL 198 MADE OCT. 31 ONLY A ONE-DAY SUSPENSION OF TRADE UNION REPRESSION IN CHILE. THEY WILL SAY THAT THE POSITION OF THEIR ORGANIZATIONS IS WORSE NOW THAN BEFORE THE ANNOUNCED ELECTION LAW.

7. COMMENT: ARTICLE 2 OF DECREE LAW 2376 REVISES NORMS FOR ESTABLISHING UNIONS IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND CALLS FOR THE MERGER OF EXISTING UNIONS INTO PLANT-WIDE STRUCTURES WHICH COULD INCLUDE BOTH MANAGEMENT AND LABOR. ELECTIONS WERE NOT HELD ON THIS BASIS. THIS IS A VERY POSITIVE CHANGE IN THE ELECTION LAW IN THAT IT AVOIDS THE COMPLICATIONS INVOLVED IN MERGING AS MANY AS SIX UNIONS NOW ESTABLISHED IN MANY LARGE PRIVATE INDUSTRIES.

SUBJ: LOPEZ PORTILLO VISIT TO PRC

REF: MEXICO 17475

1. SUMMARY: MEXICAN PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO'S SIX-DAY VISIT TO CHINA PROCEEDED IN A FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE BUT APPARENTLY BROUGHT ABOUT LITTLE IN THE WAY OF CONCRETE RESULTS. LOPEZ REVIEWED INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS WITH PREMIER HUA KUO-FENG AND VICE PREMIER LI HSIEN-NIEN, AND MEMBERS OF HIS DELEGATION SIGNED AGREEMENTS ON CULTURAL AND TOURISM COOPERATION. WE UNDERSTAND THE PRESIDENT WAS PLEASED WITH HIS VISIT, DESPITE SOME INEVITABLE DIFFERENCES OF PERCEPTION WITH HIS CHINESE HOSTS. END SUMMARY.

2. MEXICAN PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO LEFT SHANGHAI OCTOBER 30 AT THE END OF A SIX-DAY VISIT TO THE PRC. THE MEXICAN PARTY WAS MET ON ARRIVAL OCTOBER 24 BY PRC PARTY CHAIRMAN AND PREMIER HUA KUO-FENG, WHO HOSTED A WELCOMING BANQUET

[redacted]

FOR HIM THE SAME NIGHT. THE FOUR-DAY PROGRAM IN PEKING INCLUDED A MEETING WITH HUA AT THE GREAT HALL OF THE PEOPLE, TWO ROUNDS OF TALKS WITH VICE PREMIER LI HSIEN-NIEN, AND VISITS TO THE PEKING PETROCHEMICAL PLANT, AN AGRICULTURAL EXHIBIT AND VARIOUS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS. BEFORE LEAVING CHINA, LOPEZ PORTILLO PAID A TWO-DAY VISIT TO SOOCHOW AND SHANGHAI ACCOMPANIED BY LI HSIEN-NIEN (WHO, INCIDENTALLY, USUALLY LEAVES SUCH ESCORT ACTIVITIES TO LOWER-RANKING OFFICIALS).

3. TWO AGREEMENTS WEGNED DURING THE VISIT: A CULTURAL AGREEMENT AND AN AGREEMENT ON TOURISM COOPERATION. ACCORDING

UNCLASSIFIED

TO A MEXICAN EMBOFF, THE CULTURAL AGREEMENT HAD BEEN IN THE WOPKS FOR SOME TIME AND PROVIDES ONLY A FRAMEWORK FOR CULTURAL EXCHANGES. THE SUBSTANCE WILL HAVE TO BE ADDED LATER. IN THE TOURISM AGREEMENT, CHINA'S MAIN INTEREST LIES IN STUDYING MEXICAN TOURIST FACILITIES. THE PRC REPORTEDLY PLANS TO SEND SEVERAL DELEGATIONS TO STUDY HOW MEXICO HANDLES THE FLOOD OF "YANQUI" TOURISTS.

UNCLASSIFIED

4. SCIENTIFIC EXCHANGES WERE ANOTHER TOPIC OF DISCUSSION IN PEKING, ALTHOUGH NO SPECIFIC AGREEMENT WAS SIGNED. THE TWO SIDES WERE IN GENERAL AGREEMENT THAT THESE EXCHANGES SHOULD BE INCREASED, AND THAT OIL TECHNOLOGY WILL PLAY AN INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT PART IN THIS PROGRAM. THE MEXICAN EMBOFF POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT THE TRULY INTERESTING DISCUSSIONS ON OIL WOULD COME DURING LOPEZ PORTILLO'S VISIT TO JAPAN.

5. IN THE WELCOMING BANQUET, CHAIRMAN HUA REFERRED TO THE PRC'S DESIRE TO ESTABLISH RELATIONS WITH MORE LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. LOPEZ PORTILLO FOLLOWED THIS UP IN HIS OCTOBER 27 PRESS CONFERENCE, WHEN HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING HE WOULD

[redacted]

[redacted]

HELP CHINA EXPAND ITS TIES IN LATIN AMERICA. ACCORDING TO THE MEXICAN EMBASSY, HOWEVER, THERE WAS NO SPECIFIC REQUEST FROM THE PRC FOR MEXICO TO PLAY AN INTERMEDIARY ROLE.

6. A LARGE PORTION OF THE BILATERAL TALKS WAS SPENT REVIEWING THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE, AND THE MEXICANS PREDICTABLY FOUND AREAS BOTH OF AGREEMENT AND DISAGREEMENT WITH THEIR CHINESE COUNTERPARTS. TWO ISSUES ON WHICH THEY DID NOT SEE EYE TO EYE WERE CHINA'S BENIGN POLICY TOWARD THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT AND ITS HARSH DENUNCIATION OF CUBA AND ITS POLICIES. BOTH SIDES SIMPLY AGREED TO DISAGREE.

7. DESPITE THE RELATIVE LACK OF CONCRETE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, THE MEXICANS CLAIM TO BE SATISFIED WITH THE VISIT. THE PRESIDENT WAS PLEASED BY THE HIGH-LEVELPTION HE RECEIVED IN PEKING, AND APPARENTLY VIEWS HIS VISIT HERE AT LEAST PARTLY AS A NECESSARY BALANCE TO HIS EARLIER TRIP TO THE SOVIET UNION. HE AND HIS PARTY ARE SAID TO RECOGNIZE THAT CHINA AND MEXICO ARE TOO FAR APART BOTH PHYSICALLY AND IDEOLOGICALLY FOR THEIR RELATIONS TO BE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN EITHER COUNTRY'S FOREIGN POLICY. SUBJ: LABOR NOTES: GOC BACKPEDALS ON DISSOLUTION DECREE

1. SUMMARY: A LABOR MINISTRY SPOKESMAN HAS SAID THAT THOSE LOCAL TRADE UNIONS DISSOLVED BY DL 2346 COULD REMAIN IN OPERATION IN ABSENCE OF A SPECIFIC DECREE DISOLVING EACH INDIVIDUAL UNION. SIX CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT LABOR LEADERS HAVE NEVERTHELESS SENT A CABLE PROTESTING THIS AND OTHER RECENT LAWS AFFECTING THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR MOVEMENT IN CHILE. END SUMMAY.

2. THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF LABOR RAMON SUAREZ CLARIFIED GOC INTENTIONS IN ISSUING THE OCTOBER 19 DISSOLUTION DECREES. SUAREZ SAID THAT UNTIL THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR SPECIFIES WHICH LOCAL TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS WERE DISOLVED BY DL 2346, ALL LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS WILL CONTINUE TO FUNCTION NORMALLY WITH THEIR CURRENT LEADERSHIP

AND FULL EXERCISE OF ALL THEIR RIGHTS AND DUTIES. (COMMENT: SUAREZ' STATEMENT ENDS THE ABILITY OF LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS TO CLOSE DOWN TRADE UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH THE SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS WITHOUT A MINISTERIAL DECREE AUTHORIZING THIS STEP. THIS MEANS THAT PREVIOUSLY CLOSED NON-COMMUNIST LOCAL UNIONS SUCH AS THE ONE AFFILIATED WITH THE EXXXON-OWNED LA DISPUTADA MINE WILL BE REOPENED. THE SEVEN FEDERATIONS, WHICH WERE SPECIFICALLY LISTED IN DL 2346 DO NOT GET THIS REPRIEVE.) SUAREZ ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THE OUTGOING TRADE UNION LEADERS (INCLUDING THOSE REPLACED IN LAST WEEK'S ELECTION)

WILL ENJOY ALL THE PRIVILEGES CONTEMPLATED BY THE LAW INCLUDING THE RIGHT NOT TO BE FIRED FOR A PERIOD NOT EXCEEDING SIX MONTHS AFTER THEY LEAVE OFFICE.

3. CABLE TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIATIONS: SIX CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS SENT A CABLE TO THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION (ILO) AND THE SECRETARY GENERALS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS AND THE WORLD CONFEDERATION OF LABOR CONDEMNING THE GOC'S CONTINUED HARASSMENT OF CHILEAN LABOR. THE CABLE REQUESTS THE URGENT INTERVENTION OF THESE ORGANIZATIONS TO PREVENT THE "REPRESSION" OF THOUSANDS OF OUSTED TRADE UINION LEADERS AND TO HELP RESTORE TRADE UNION FREEDOMS TO CHILE. THE CABLE WAS SIGNED BY "GROUP OF TEN" MEMBERS ERNESTO VOGEL AND ENRIQUE MELLARDO, "COORDINADORA" LEADERS MANUEL BUSTOS AND JUAN MANUEL SEPULVEDA AND CLAT AFFILIATED LEADERS CARLOS FREZ AND JUAN PINCHEIRA.

5. COMMENT: SUAREZ'S REMARKS ARE DEFINTELY A POSITIVE STEP IN REDUCING THE ADVERSE AFFECTS THE RECENT LABOR DECREES HAD ON TRADE UNION INSTITUTIONS.

SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: ELECTION WRAP-UP

REF: SANTIAGO 8663

1. SUMMARY: OVER ONE-THIRD OF ORGANIZED CHILEAN LABOR PEACEFULLY PARTICIPATED IN THE LOCAL LEVEL UNION ELECTIONS HELD OCTOBER 31. THE GOC HAS BEGUN TO SWEAR-IN NEWLY ELECTED LOCAL UNION LEADERS. IT HAS DECLARED IT WILL NOT DISQUALIFY ANY OF THE NEW ELECTED FOR POLITICAL ACTIVITY OR AREA ORIENTATION. ALSO, IT REINTERPRETED ONE OF THE MID-OCTOBER DECREES TO GIVE ITSELF DISCRETIONARY POWER TO ALLOW INDIVIDUAL LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH THE 7 DISSOLVED COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS TO REMAIN IN EXISTANCE AND HOLD ELECTIONS. IT NOW SAYS THAT THE GOODS AND PROPERTY CONFISCATED FROM THE DISSOLVED FEDERATIONS WILL BE RETURNED TO THE WORKERS IN DUE COURSE. DESPITE THESE APPARENT MODERATING MOVES, CRITICS SEE EVENTS OF THE PAST THREE WEEKS [redacted]

[redacted]

AS STEPS BACKWARD ON THE PATH TO RESTORED LABOR FREEDOM. END AUMMARY.

2. THE GOC SAID PRIOR TO THE OCTOBER 31 UNION ELECTIONS THAT IT WOULD NOT COMPILE OVERALL STATISTICS. IT SUBSEQUENTLY ESTIMATED THAT 450,000 WORKERS PARTICIPATED. OUR GUESS, BOLSTERED BY REPORTS FROM BUSINESSMEN, THAT THE SWAMPED LABOR MINISTRY POSTPONED ELECTIONS A A NUMBER OF PLANTS, IS THAT ABOUT 350,000 MAY HAVE VOTED; IQ.E., CLOSER TO ONE-THIRD OF ORGANIZED LABOR THAN THE ONE-HALF CLAIMED BY THE GOC. IN ANY EVENT, ALL AGREE THAT THE ELECTIONS WERE HELD PEACEFULLY. THE MEDIA (RATHER

UNCLASSIFIED

SANCTIMONIOUSLY) PRAISED THE WORKERS' MATURITY AND RESPONSIBILITY.

3. ON NOVEMBER 7, THE TOC PUBLICLY SWORE IN 81 LOCAL LEADERS FROM TRADE UNIONS IN THE SANTIAGO METROPOLITAN AREA. THE OATH SET OUT IN ARTICLE 6 OF THE DECREE LAW 2376 REQUIRES THE NEW UNION OFFICIALS TO FORESWEAR PARTICIPATION IN "ANY POLITICAL ACTIVITY OR MOVEMENT" WHILE IN OFFICE. FURTHER, HE MUST PLEDGE "NOT ATTEMPT TO POLITICIZE THE TRADE UNION ORGANIZATION BY PERVERTING ('DESNATURALIZANDO') ITS OBJECTIVES" OR BY LENDING HIMSELF "FOR SUCH ENDS". A GROUP OF SENIOR LABOR LEADERS MEETING WITH CARDINAL SILVA CALLED THE OATH HUMILIATING AND DISCRIMINATING AGAINST WORKERS AS A CLASS.

4. MANY CRITICS HAD PARTICULARLY CONDEMNED THE GOC FOR DISSOLVING LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH SEVEN COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS AND CONFISCATING THE AFFILIATES' ASSETS. IN REACTION A LABOR MINISTRY SPOKESMAN FIRST "CLARIFIED" THE GOC INTENTIONS BY DECLARING THAT O LOCAL UNION WOULD BE CLOSED WITHOUT A SPECIFIC MINISTERIAL ORDER. THE MINISTER OF LABOR WENT FURTHER NOVEMBER 9 (SEPTEL) STATING THAT ALL GOODS CONFISCATED BY THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE RETURNED TO THE WORKERS AND THAT ELECTIONS WOULD BE HELD IN MOST, IF NOT ALL, OF THE LOCAL UNIONS AFFILIATED WITH THE COMMUNIST-LED [redacted]

[redacted]

FEDERATIONS. THEINTERIOR MINISTER ALSO "REITERPRETED" THE TROUBLE-SOME OCTOBER 19 DECREE IN A STATEMENT ISSUED NOVEMBER 7. NOW THESE LOCAL UNIONS WILL BE PERMITTED TO HOLD ELECTIONS FOR A NEW TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP IF THEY CAN PROVE SATISFACTORILY TO THE MINISTRY THAT THEY WERE NOT INVOLVED IN "THE POLICY FORMULATION" OS THE VARIOUS COMMUNIST-LED FEDERATIONS. GOC ASSERTS THAT UNDER THIS FORMULA MOST OF THE 529 LABOR UNIONS SUSPENDED BY THE LAW WILL BE ABLE TO ELECT THEIR NEW LEADERSHIP FAIRLY SOON.

5. CARDINAL RAUL SILVA, JUST RETURNED FROM ROME, MET WITH A GROUP OF TRADE UNION LEADERS WHOSE ROLE HAD BEEN CRIPPLED BY THE GOC DECREE FORBIDDING THEM TO SPEAK IN THE NAME OF UNREGISTERED LABOR ORGANIZATIONS. THEY TOLD THE CARDINAL THAT THE NET EFFECT OF RECENT DECREES WAS TO LEAVE THOUSANDS OF WORKERS WITHOUT REPRESENTATION.

6. TRADE UNION CRITICS OF THE NEW BODY OF TRADE UNION LEGISLATION ALSO CONDEMN THE MEASURES ABOLISHING CHECKOFF TO THE PUBLIC SECTOR UNIONS AND LIMITING THE FINANCING OF MOST FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS TO INDIVISUAL VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS BY UNION MEMBERS RATHER THAN BY AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS. THEY CONTEND THIS ATOMIZES THE TRADE UNION STRUCTURE AND SPELLS FINANCIAL DEATH FOR NATIONAL TRADE UNIONS IN CHILE.

7. TRADE UNION SOURCES BELIEVE THAT IT IS STILL TOO SOON, IF EVER, TO CLASSIFY THE NEW TRADE UNION LEADERS BY POLITICAL PARTY, ALTHOUGH THEY CLAIM THAT THE "NO CANDIDACY"RULE FAVORED EMEMBERS OF CLANDESTINE POLICAL MOVEMENTS. ALTHOUGH THE LAW

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

PERMITS THE LABOR MINISTRY TO DISQUALIFY ELECTED LEADERS ON THE BASIS OF POLITICAL ORIENTATION AND ACTIVITY, THE LABOR MINISTER SAID THAT NO ELECTED LEADER WOULD BE DISQUALIFIED FROM TAKING THE NEW OATH OF OFFICE.

8. COMMENT: THE RECENT TRADE UNION ELECTIONS ARE A STEP FORWARD IN THE VERY LIMITED SENSE THAT WORKERS WERE ALLOWED TO CHOOSE [redacted]

FREELY FROM AMONG THOSE PERSONS NOT EXCLUDED AS CANDIDATES. GIVEN TIME AND GUIDANCE FROM EXPERIENCED EX-LEADERS AT LEAST SOME OF THE NEW MEN WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE EXPONENTS OF LABOR RIGHTS AND DEMANDS. IT SHOULD BE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE RIGHTS TO HOLD ELECTIONS HAS NOT BEEN REESTABLISHED, NOR DO WORKERS YET ENJOY THE RIGHT TO MEET FREELY, TO STRIKE OR TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY -- ALTHOUGH THE GOC HAS PROMISIED THE LATER EARLY IN 1979, ALBEIT WITH COMPULSORY ARTITRATION.

9. OVERALL, THE SERIES OF RECENT TRADE UNION LAWS, AS IMPLEMENTED THUS FAR, CONTAIN MORE MINUSES THAN GAINS FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF INDEPENDENT TRADE UNIONISM. IN ADDITION TO THE LOSS OF EXPERIENCED LEADERSHIP THE GOC HAS PLACED SEVERE RESTRICTIONS ON THE ABILITY OF LABOR FEDERATIONS AND OTHER UNBRELLA GROUPINGS TO REPRESENT WORKERS AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL. TO ITS CREDIT THE GOC HAS, IN THE PAST FEW DAYS, "CLARIFIED"SOME OF THE MOST OBJECTIONALBE CLAUSES TO MAKE THEM MORE ACCEPTABLE TO OPINION HERE AND ABROAD. BUT THEY DO NOT UNDO ALL OF THE DAMAGE.

1. SUMMARY: MEXICAN PRESIDENT LOPEZ PORTILLO'S SIX DAY VISIT TO JAPAN RESULTED IN SIGNING OF A NEARLY $1 BILLION LOAN PACKAGE AND GENERAL AGREEMENT ON JAPANESE PURCHASE OF MEXICAN OIL IN EXCHANGE FOR DEVELOPMENTAL ASSISTANCE. JAPANESE EXPRESSED INTEREST IN FISHING RIGHTS IN MEXICAN WATERS BUT NO AGREEMENT WAS REACHED. MEXICANS SOUGHT INCREASED JAPANESE INVESTMENT, ESPECIALLY IN TOURIST INDUSTRY. ALTHOUGH JOINT COMMUNIQUE REFERRED TO NUMBER OF POLITICAL ISSUES, THEY WERE HARDLY TOUCHED UPON IN DISCUSSIONS. END SUMMARY

LOPEZ PORTILLO, WHO SOME YEARS EARLIER HAD VISITED BOTH JAPAN AND CHINA, APPEARED DEEPLY IMPRESSED BY CONTRAST BETWEEN TWO COUNTRIES AND THEIR RESPECTIVE PACES OF DEVELOPMENT. AT SAME TIME, HE RECOGNIZED CERTAIN COMPLEMENTARITY AND AFFINITY BETWEEN TWO, AND IN THIS CONNECTION SAID THAT DESPITE SOVIET CRITICISM OF SINO-JAPANESE PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP PEACE TREATY, HE COULD UNDERSTAND GEOGRAPHICAL, HISTORICAL AND POLITICAL "NATURALNESS" OF PFT.

3. JOINT COMMUNIQUE (COPIES POUCHED TO DEPARTMENT AND MEXICO CITY) CONTAINED LENGTHY REFERENCES TO DISARMAMENT

AND UN-RELATED ISSUES. [redacted] HOWEVER, THAT THESE RECEIVED LITTLE OR NO ATTENTION IN DISCUSSIONS, WHICH INSTEAD WERE DEVOTED, AS EXPECTED, TO ECONOMIC QUESTIONS. MEXICANS WANT JAPANESE INVESTMENT IN TOURIST INDUSTRY AND ORIGINALLY DESIRED INCLUSION OF THIS ITEM IN COMMUNIQUE. JAPANESE DECLINED TO SO FORMALIZE QUESTION, BUT AGREED TO STUDY REQUEST. ON FISHING, GOJ SIDE NOTED INTEREST OF JAPANESE TUNA FISHING INDUSTRY IN FISHING RIGHTS IN MEXICAN 200-MILE ECONOMIC ZONE. (FORMER AGRICULTURAL MINISTER SUZUKI HAD VISITED MEXICO EARLIER FOR TALKS ON FISHING RIGHTS.) MEXICAN SIDE APPEARED AMENABLE TO JOINT FISHING VENTURES IN THEIR ZONE AS LONG AS ALL WERE REGISTERED IN MEXICO. JAPANESE COULD NOT AGREE. FURTHER TALKS WILL BE HELD ON PRIVATE BASIS IN DECEMBER WHEN MEXICANS SEND REPRESENTATIVE TO TOKYO.

4. NUMBER OF FINANCIAL AGREEMENTS WERE REACHED, ALL OF THEM INVOLVING ONLY PRIVATE SECTOR. IN PARTICULAR, CONSORTIUM OF JAPANESE BANKS REPORTEDLY AGREED TO A PACKAGE OF LOANS EQUIVALENT TO MORE THAN $1 BILLION FOR MULTIPLE PURPOSES INCLUDING DEVELOPMENT OF NEW OIL AND GAS RE-

SOURCES. WITH REGARD TO POSSIBLE EXPORTS OF MEXICAN OIL TO JAPAN, DISCUSSIONS WERE ONLY IN GENERAL TERMS, WITH DETAILS TO BE WORKED OUT ON COMMERCIAL BASIS BETWEEN JAPANESE IMPORTERS AND PEMEX. MEXICANS INDICATED THAT OIL WOULD NOT BE AVAILABLE FOR EXPORT TO JAPAN IN SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES FOR ANOTHER TWO YEARS; AFTER THAT, THEY AFFIRMED, THERE WOULD BE PLENTY, STRETCHING INTO NEXT CENTURY. MEXICANS ALSO TOLD JAPANESE PRICE OF OIL TO JAPAN WOULD BE NO LOWER THAN THAT TO THE U.S. THERE WAS LITTLE SPECIFIC DISCUSSION OF 300 KM PIPELINE TO SALINA CRUZ, MEXICANS NOTED THEY HOPED TO EXPAND SALINA BERTH CAPACITY FROM PRESENT 50,000 DWT TO 250,000 DWT, AND MADE CLEAR JAPANESE PARTICIPATION IN PROJECT WOULD BE WELCOMED.

5. [redacted] MEXICANS MENTIONED POSSIBILITY OF USING TANKERS WHICH CARRY INDONESIAN CRUDE TO CALIFORNIA FOR TRANSPORTING MEXICAN CRUDE TO JAPAN, BUT SAID GOJ WAS NOT PARTICULARLY IN FAVOR OF THIS IDEA. ONE ALTERNATIVE WHICH HAS SOME APPEAL WITHIN GOJ, SAID TANAKA, WAS A "SWAP" IN WHICH U.S. WOULD TAKE MORE MEXICAN OIL AND JAPAN MORE FROM INDONESIA. THIS ARRANGEMENT, IT WAS THOUGHT, WOULD MAKE FAR MORE SENSE IN TERMS OF REDUCED TRANSPORTATION COSTS. IN OTHER ASPECT OFOIL DISCUSSIONS, LOPEZ PORTILLO AFFIRMED THAT MEXICO WOULD NOT JOIN OPEC AND INSTEAD WOULD PURSUE ITS OWN OIL POLICIES.

6. LOPEZ PORTILLO VISIT RECEIVED EXTENSIVE AND RATHER ENTHUSIASTIC PRESS COVERAGE. PRESIDENT'S PILGRIMAGE TO CHIBA PREFECTURE VILLAGE WHERE MEXICAN SHIP HAD GONE AGROUND IN 17TH CENTURY WAS PARTICULARLY APPEALING TO JAPANESE (PICTURE OF LOPEZ PORTILLO IN TRADITIONAL GARB WAVING TO CROWDS FROM PALANQUIN WAS WIDELY CARRIED).

JAPANESE, OFFICIALLY AND UNOFFICIALLY, APPEARED TO HAVE RECEIVED MEXICAN VISITORS WITH BOTH CURIOSITY AND RESPECT--LATTER CLEARLY REFLECTING JAPANESE APPRECIATION OF MEXICO'S NEW STATUS AS MAJOR PRODUCER OF COMMODITY

SUBJECT: FOREIGN MINISTER COMPLAINS ABOUT EMBASSY LABOR REPORTING

1. SUMMARY: FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS COMPLAINED THAT EH EMBASSY REPORTS NEGATIVELY ON LABOR MATTERS AND REPEATED PREVIOUS GOC OFFERS OF INFORMATION ON THE TRUE SITUATION. IN DEFENDING THE OBJECTIVITY OF EMBASSY REPORTING I POINTED OUT THE SHORT-SIGHTEDNESS OF THE GOC'S CONSTRAINTS ON AND ANIMUS AGAINST DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS. THE GOC IS WORRIED ABOUT A POSSIBLE BOYCOTT AND WOULD LIKE TO BELIEVE THAT SUPPORT FOR SUCH ACTION IS BASED ON INACCURATE KNOWLEDGE. END SUMMARY.

2. I MET WITH FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS AT HIS REQUEST NOVEMBER 10. CUBILLOS HAD JUST RETURNED FROM A LONG VISIT ABROAD AND STATED THAT THE PRINCIPAL PURPOSE OF OUR CONVERSATION WAS TO REPORT TO ME ON HIS BILATERAL WITH SECRETARY VANCE AND HIS TRIP TO CHINA. AFTER FINISHING THESE TOPICS, HE SAID THAT HE HAD HEARD FROM SOURCES IN WASHINGTON THAT THE EMBASSY REPORTED NEGATIVELY ON LABOR DEVELOPMENTS IN CHILE. HE THEN SHOWED ME A PHOTOSTAT OF A LETTER WRITTEN JULY 1977 FROM AFL-CIO OFFICIAL MCLELLAN TO EMBASSY LABOR ATTACHE ARCHER WHICH WAS GENERALLY CRITICAL OF THE LABOR SITUATION AT THAT TIME AND WHICH WAS IN RESPONSE TO AN EARLIER LETTER FROM MR. ARCHER. I TOLD THE FOREIGN MINISTER THAT OBVIOUSLY I HAD NO CONTROL OVER WHAT MR. MCLELLAN WROTE TO MR. ARCHER AND THAT IN MY VIEW HIS LETTER WAS NOT GERMANE

CUBILLOS SAID HE WAS SURE THAT THIS WAS THE FACT, BUT THAT NONETHELESS IF I EVER WANTED TO TALK TO ANYONE ABOUT LABOR, THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE HAPPY TO GIVE ME ALL THE NECESSARY INFORMATION. HE SAID HE KNEW THAT OUR RELATIONS WIHT THE MINISTER OF LABOR WERE NOT THE VERY BEST, BUT HE WOULD MAKE OTHER PEOPLE AVAILABLE TO KEEP US INFORMED.

SUBJECT: LABOR NOTES: AFL-CIO ASKS GOC TO MEET WITH CHILEAN DEMOCRATIC LABOR, AND OTHER SUBJECTS

REF: STATE 290646

1. SUMMARY: THE AFL-CIO SENT A LETTER TO THE "GROUP OF TEN" STATING THAT THE AFL-CIO FOUND THE RECENT TRADE UNION LEGISLATION INCLUDING THE ELECTIONS TO BE "A STEP BACKWARD AND UNACCEPTABLE". THE LEE LETTER SAID THAT THE AFL-CIO SUGGESTED TO THE GOC THAT IT MEET WITH DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS TO WORK OUT A PROGRAM TO RETURN TRADITIONAL TRADE UNION FREEDOMS TO CHILE. THE SANTIAGO COURT OF APPEALS MAY VOID THE GOC LABOR DECREE ABOLISHING LABOR UNIONS WITHOUT JUDICIAL PERSONALITY. THE GOC ANNOUNCED A FOUR DAY SEMINAR SPONSORED BY THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (ODEPLAN) FOR LEADERS OF LABOR, BUSINESS AND CIVIC GROUPS ON GOC

[redacted]

[redacted]

SOCIAL ECONOMIC POLICY. PRESIDENT PINOCHET IS EXPECTED TO ADDRESS THE SEMINAR. END SUMMARY.

2. ERNIE LEE, DIRECTOR OF THE AFL-CIO DEPARTMENT OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, WROTE NOVEMBER 1 TO ERNESTO VOGEL, PRESIDENT OF THE RAILWAY WORKERS; TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, PRESIDENT OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES UNION AND EDUARDO RIOS, PRESIDENT OF THE MARITIME WORKERS. THE THREE FORM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE "GROUP OF TEN". LEE SAID THAT THE MAY AFL-CIO SOLIDARITY TEAM DID NOT GO TO CHILE AS ENEMIES OF THAT COUNTRY, BUT DURING THE PAST SIX MONTHS

SINCE ITS VISIT THERE HAS BEEN NO PROGRESS TOWARDS A RESTORATION OF TRADE UNION FREEDOMS. LEE SAID THAT ON THE CONTRARY THE AFL-CIO, TOGETHER WITH A LARGE MAJORITY OF THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS IN CHILE FOUND THE RECENT DECREES AND ACTIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE LABOR FIELD TO BE "A BACKWARD STEP AND UNACCEPTABLE". LEE WARNED THAT THIS SITUATION WOULD LEAD THE AFL-CIO INEXORABLY TOWARDS ACCEPTING INTERNATIONAL DEMANDS FOR A BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN PRODUCTS -- AN ISSUE TO BE RAISED IN LIMA ON NOVEMBER 26. LEE NOTED THAT THE AFL-CIO HAD SUGGESTED TO THE GOC THAT IT MEET DIRECTLY WITH THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR MOVEMENT TO WORK OUT A PROCESS FOR A RAPID RETURN TO LABOR FREEDOMS IN CHILE.

3. IN AN IMPORTANT DECISION, THE SANTIAGO COURT OF APPEALS AGREED TO HEAR A UNION PETITION CHALLENGING THE MANAGEMENT OF THE STATE-OWNED SUGAR COMPANY'S REFUSAL TO RECOGNIZE THE SUGAR WORKERS' CONFEDERATION (CONSIA). THE COMPANY HAD ARGUED THAT THE CONSIA DID NOT HAVE JUDICIAL PERSONALITY TO ACT AS A LABOR ORGANIZATION AND WAS THEREFORE DISSOLVED IN ACCORDANCE WITH A RECENT DECREE LAW (DL 2347). THE UNION'S ARGUMENT IS THAT AS [redacted]

THE SUGAR LOCAL UNIONS HAD JUDICIAL PERSONALITY, THEY WERE FREE TO CHOOSE WHOMSOEVER THEY PLEASED TO REPRESENT THEM BEFORE THE MANAGEMENT WHETHER IT BE A LAWYER OR THE SUGAR WORKERS' CONFEDERATION. THE STATE-OWNED SUGAR COMPANY IS EXPECTED TO ARGUE FORCEFULLY AS AN ADVERSE DECISION WILL VOID DL 2347 AND EFFECTIVELY REMOVE FEDERATIONS FROM THE SCRUTINY OF THE LABOR MINISTRY. (COMMENT: MIXED CONFEDERATIONS, WHATEVER THE OUTCOME, WOULD PROBABLY NOT BE AFFECTED. SUGAR WORKERS ARE MEMBERS OF THE "GROUP OF TEN").

4. THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (ODEPLAN) ANNOUNCED A FOUR DAY SEMINAR ON THE SOCIAL ECONOMIC POLICY OF THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT FOR NEWLY ELECTED LABOR LEADERS AND OTHER LEADERS OF CIVIC AND MUNICIPAL ORGANIZATIONS. ODEPLAN MINISTER ROBERTO KELLY SAID THAT THE COURSE WOULD BE HELD AT DIEGO PORTALES NOVEMBER 21-24 AND WOULD INCLUDE THE PARTICIPATION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC AND MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR. KELLY EXPECTED ABOUT 1,500 PERSONS TO PARTICIPATE. THE MINISTER ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THE SYSTEM OF AUTOMATIC PAY ADJUSTMENTS TO THE FULL VALUE OF THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX WOULD CONTINUE DURING 1979 FOR PUBLIC WORKERS. WAGES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR, HOWEVER, WOULD BE GOVERNED BY "SUPPLY AND DEMAND" MECHANISM OF THE FUTURE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW. THIS LAW WILL INCLUDE MECHANISMS FOR MEDIATION AND COMPULSORY ARBITRATION.

1. FORMER DINA CHIEF MANUEL CONTRERAS UNDERWENT A GALL BLADDER OPERATION EVENING OF NOVEMBER 20 AT THE MILITARY HOSPITAL. HOSPITAL AUTHORITIES LATER TERMED THE OPERATION A SUCCESS AND REPORTED THAT CONTERAS' CONDITION WAS SATISFACTORY, THOUGH HE WILL REMAIN IN THE INTENSIVE CARE WARD FOR THE TIME BEING.

2. THE DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN CONTRERAS AND AFTERNOON DAILY "LA SEGUNDA" ACQUIRED A NEW DIMENSION NOVEMBER 17 WHEN DEFENSE LAWYER SERGIO MIRANDA LODGED A LIBEL SUIT. THE DAILY HAS RECENTLY REPORTED THAT CONTRERAS SHIPPED DOCUMENTS RELATED TO THE LETELIER CASE OUT OF THE COUNTRY (REF B). MIRANDA FAILED IN AN EARLIER COURT ATTEMPT TO HAVE "SEGUNDA" DIRECTOR HERMOGENES PEREZ DE ARCE CALLED BEFORE SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT ISRAEL BORQUEZ.

LIMA PLEASE PASS TO AFL-CIO DEL TO ORIT CONFERENCE

E. O. 11652: N/A
TAGS: ELAB, ORIT, CI
SUBJECT: LABOR MINISTER CALLS IN TWO DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS

1. AIFLD CPD JAY HAS INFORMED US OF THE FOLLOWING AND ASKED THAT IT BE PASSED TO AFL-CIO DEL TO ORIT CONFERENCE AT LIMA.

2. CHILEAN MINISTER OF LABOR VASCO COSTA CALLEDIN TUCAPEL JIMENEZ AND EDUARDO RIOS FOR SEPARATE CONVERSATIONS NOV 23 AND 24 RESPECTIVELY. HE WAS CORDIAL AND UPBEAT. WITH BOTH VISITORS, COSTA DEFENDED THE GOOD INTENTIONS BEHIND THE GOVERNMENT'S RECENT LABOR DECREES. THE MINISTER TOLD JIMENEZ THAT PRESIDENT PINOCHET WOULD BE CONVERSING WITH UNSPECIFIED LABOR LEADERS IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS; HE TOLD RIOS THAT HE (COSTA) ALSO PLANNED TO MEET WITH SOME LABOR LEADERS AFTER RETURNING FROM THE I-A LABOR MINISTERS CONFERENCE AT LIMA.

3. COSTA PROMISED JIMENEZ THAT HE WOULD STUDY THEQ PROBLEM OF THE ASSOCIATIONS OF PUBLIC WORKERS WHO LOST THEIR DUES CHECKOFFS AND THE DAMAGE THAT THIS HAS DONE TO THEIR SOCIAL PROGRAMS.

[redacted]

[redacted]

BUT BOTH LEADERS STRESSED THAT NO UNDERSTANDINGS HAD BEEN REACHED. IN THEIR WORDS "NOTHING HAS CHANGED."

4. THE MINISTER EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE TO RIOS THAT THERE WOULD BE NO BOYCOTT, SAYING THAT HE WOULD TALK TO THE AFL-CIO AT LIMA (COSTA NEVER RAISED THE POSSIBLE BOYCOTT IN HIS TALK WITH JIMENEZ). COSTA SAID THAT THE AFL-CIO POSITION WAS VARY AMBIGUOUS, CINE "THE SERIES OF POINTS" THAT THE CHAIKIN/GLEASON TEAM HAD LEFT AFTER THE MAY MEETING WITH PINOCHET WAS UNSIGNED AND CERTAINLY NOT A "MEMORANDUM" AS STATED IN THE MEANY LETTER TO CARTER. COSTA SAID THAT PINOCHET HAD GIVEN IT LITTLE IMPORTANCE BACK

UNCLASSIFIED

IN MAY, TURNING IT OVER TO COSTA AT THE END OF THE MEETING.

5. RIOS AND JIMENEZ SEE COSTA'S INITIATIVE AS AN ATTEMPT TO FEEL THEM OUT PROBABLY PROVOKED BY A NEW GOC CONCERN ABOUT THE SERIOUSNESS AND LIKELIHOOD OF A BOYCOTT. THEY BELIEVE THAT THE MERE ANNOUNCEMENT OF AN ORIT DECISION TO BOYCOTT CHILE WOULD OPEN THE WAY TO ENTER INTO PRODUCTIVE CONVERSATIONS.

6. COSTA STONGLY URGED RIOS NOT TO ISSUE AN ALREADY DRAFTED STATEMENT EXPLAINING THAT THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR SECTOR HAD EXHAUSTED ALL POSSIBILITIES OF DIALOGUE WITH THE GOC AND THUS COULD NOT LONGER OPPOSE A BOYCOTT EVEN IF IT DAMAGED THE CHILEAN ECONOMY. RIOS AND JIMENEZ TELL US THEY ACCEDED TO THE MINISTER'S REQUEST SO AS NOT TO FURTHER EXACERBATE TENSIONS AND IN HOPES THAT THIS DISPLAY OF GOOD FAITH ON THEIR PART WILL FACILITATE DISCUSSIONS WITH COSTA ONCE ORIT HAS DECIDED UPON A BOYCOTT (COMMENT: WE ALSO SPECULATE THAT THEY HAVE SOME DOUBTS ABOUT ORIT'S DECISION AND MAY NOT WANT TO COME OUT INTO THE OPEN UNTIL THE ORIT DECIDES ON THE BOYCOTT ISSUE).

7. FREDERICO MUJICA VISITED AIFLD REP ON NOV 24 TO PASS A RUMOR THAT THE JUNTA HAD DRAGGED COSTA ON THE CARPET EARLIER IN THE [redacted]

[redacted]

WEEK REGARDING HIS HANDLING OF THE BOYCOTT QTHREAT. COSTA ALLEGEDLY REASSURED THE JUNTA BY TELLING THEM HE HAD THINGS WELL UNDER CONTROL. THIS LED MUJICA TO CONCLUDE THAT PROGRESS TOWARD RESOLUTION OF THE OUTSTANDING ISSUES WILL ONLY OCCUR IF COSTAJS ASSERTIONS ARE DISPROVEN BY EVENTS. (COMMENT: AS ALWAYS, WE TAKE MUJICA'S OBSERVATIONS WITH A GRAIN OF SALT. BUT IN THIS CASE HE COMES OUT AT THE SAME PLACE AS RIOS AND JIMENEZ.)

SUBJ: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: CHILEAN BISHOPS DEFEND UNION RIGHTS

1. SUMMARY: THE CONFERENCE OF CHILEAN BUSHOPS DREW UPON VATICAN II DOCTRINE TO PUBLICLY DEFEND WORKERS' RIGHTS TO ORGANIZE TRADE UNIONS, ELECT THEIR LEADERSHIP AND PARTICIPATE IN DECISIONS AFFECTING THEIR ECONOMIC WELFARE (I.E. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING). PRO-GOVERNMENT "EL MERCURIO" FOUND THE BISHOPS' STATEMENT BIASED AND INAPPROPRIATE AND BELIEVED THE GOC SHOULD CONTINUE ALONG THE PATH IT HAD CHOSEN. GOC LABOR REPRESENTATIVE GUILLERMO MEDINA ALSO CRITICIZED THE STATEMENT STATING THAT THE CHURCH SHOULD NOT INTERFERE IN LABOR AFFAIRS. ON ANOTHER LABOR FRONT, THE PRESIDENT OF THE COPPER WORKERS SAID THAT ALL PERSONS ARRESTED AT CHUQUICAMATA AND EL SALVADOR MINES HAD BEEN UNCONDITIONALLY RELEASED AND 20 PERSONS GIVEN BACK THEIR JOBS. END SUMMARY.

2. THE ANNUAL SESSION OF THE CHILEAN COUNCIL OF BISHOPS RELEASED NOVEMBER 19 A 16 POINT DECLARATION [redacted]

[redacted]

DEFENDING WORKERS' RIGHTS. THE DOCUMENT RECALLED PRECEPTS FROM VATICAN II'S "CHURCH AND THE WORLD" IN STRESSING:
-- THE RIGHT OF WORKERS TO BE ABLE TO ORGANIZE TRADE UNIONS AND PARTICIPATE FREELY IN THESE ORGANIZATIONS WITHOUT FEAR OF REPRISALS.

--THE INJUSTICE AND INHUMANITY OF ORGANIZING AND REGULATING LABOR ACTIVITY IN A MANNER PREJUDICIAL TO WORKERS WHICH TOO OFTEN RESULTS IN TURNING WORKERS INTO SLAVES TO THEIR OWN JOBS, A CONDITION WHICH CAN NEVER BY JUSTIFIED BY SO-CALLED ECONOMIC LAWS.

UNCLASSIFIED

--THE NEED TO TREAT FARM AND URBAN WORKERS EQUALLY.

--THE REQUIREMENT THAT WORKERS MUST BE PERMITTED TO PARTICIPATE IN ECONOMIC DECISIONS WHICH AFFECT THEIR LIVES INCLUDING DISCUSSIONS DIRECTLY WITH MANAGEMENT BY THEIR FREELY ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES.

--THE IMPOSITION OF TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS TO CONTROL WORKERS IS CONTRARY TO SOCIAL DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH, AS IS CONTROL OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT BY POLITICAL PARTIES.

3. "EL MERCURIO" IN A HARSHLY CRITICAL EDITIORIAL NOVEMBER 21 TOOK THE BISHOPS TO TASK FOR NOT MAKING SIMILAR STATEMENTS DURING THE THREE YEARS OF THE ALLENDE REGIME. "EL MERCURIO" SUGGESTED THAT THE NEWLY ELECTED TRADE UNIONISTS OUGHT TO ENERGETICALLY REACT TO THE BISHOPS IMPLIED ACCUSATION THAT THE GOC IS TRYING TO IMPOSE A CONTROLLED TRADE UNION MOVEMENT UPON THE WORKERS. "EL MERCURIO" ADVISED THE GOC TO CONTINUE ALONG THE ROAD IT HAS TAKEN AND NOT TO BE DETERRED IN THE WORK IT HAS SUCCESSFULLY BEGUN TO ESTABLISH FREEDOM IN DIVERSE SECTORS BY [redacted]

[redacted]

THE INJURED VESTED-INTERESTS OF SOME.

4. GUILLERMO MEDINA, LABOR REPRESENTATIVE OF THE COUNCIL OF STATE, SAID THE BISHOPS' AND THE CHURCH HAD NO ROLE IN LABOR MATTERS. MEDINA STATED THAT WHILE HE PERSONALLY HAD PROBLEMS WITH THE RECENT LABOR LEGISLATION, HE BELIEVES THAT TRADE UNION LEADERS, NOT THE BISHOPS OF THE CHURCH, HAD TO RESOLVE THEM. MEDINA ANNOUNCED THAT PRESIDENT PINOCHET WOULD MEET WITH WORKERS IN LATE NOVEMBER TO ANSWER PETITIONS PENDING SINCE HIS MEETING WITH THEM LAST MARCH.

5. ON ANOTHER SUBJECT, GOC- APPOINTED COPPER LABOR LEADER BERNARDINO CASTILLO SAID THAT NO ONE WAS BEING DETAINED EITHER IN CHUQUICAMATA OR IN EL SALVADOR. THE SIX ARRESTED IN THE EL SALVADOR MINE PROTEST WERE FIRED AND LEFT THE PROVIDENCE. OF THE 72 PERSONS ARRESTED IN CHUQUICAMATA, 52 WERE GIVEN CHOICE OF FACING CHARGES OR RESIGNING AND LEAVING PROVINCE WHILE 20 GOT THEIR JOBS BACK. CASTILLO SAID THAT THE 52 LEFT THE PROVINCE AND THERE ARE NO CHARGES PENDING AGAINST ANY OF THEM. THE STATE OF SEIGE, HOWEVER, CONTINUES IN THE MINING AREA.

SUMMARY

1. [redacted] WAS INVITED B6
BY THE GOVERNMENT OF MEXICO TO ACCOMPANY PRESIDENT JOSE LOPEZ-PORTILLO ON HIS RECENT TRIP TO JAPAN. WAS ONE OF THREE REGIOMONTANOS FROM MONTERREY INCLUDED IN THE GROUP OF 15 MEXICAN BUSINESSMEN. THE PURPOSE OF THE TRIP WAS TO LOOK FOR JAPANESE BUSINESS PARTNERS FOR MEXICAN INDUSTRY AND TO ENCOURAGE BETTER TRADE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS. AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE TRIP DID RESULT IN PLANS TO ESTABLISH TWO JAPANESE "MAQUILADORA" OPERATIONS IN BAJA CALIFORNIA, AND INCREASED JAPANESE INTEREST IN PARTICIPATING IN JOINT FISHING VENTURES WITH TWO LARGE MEXICAN COMPANIES. ALL WAS NOT SWEETNESS AND LIGHT, HOWEVER, AS INDICATED BY [redacted] B6 IMPRESSIONS BELOW.

2. THE MEXICAN DELEGATION WAS ATTEMPTING TO SELL OIL TO THE [redacted]

JAPANESE IN EXCHANGE FOR INCREASED JAPANESE INVESTMENT IN MEXICO. TO THIS END, THE PRESIDENT WAS ALREADY CONTEMPLATING POSSIBLE MEASURES AVAILABLE TO THE GOM TO FACILITATE THIS.
INFORMS US THAT THE JAPANESE PRESSED THE MEXICAN B6
DELEGATION HEAVILY IN AN EFFORT TO NEGOTIATE CHANGES IN MEXICO'S FOREIGN INVESTMENT LAW. (NB: CURRENT MEXICAN REGULATIONS: "NO NEW FOREIGN CORPORATIONS CAN BE FORMED LOCALLY WITH MAJORITY OF FOREIGN INTEREST". EXCEPTIONS EXIST.) PRESIDENT LOPEZ-PORTILLO INDICATED TO THE JAPANESE THAT HE WOULD CONSIDER ON A CASE BY CASE BASIS REQUESTS FOR RELIEF FROM CURRENT REGULATIONS; HE WAS NOT HOWEVER, TERRIBLY ENCOURAGING. [redacted] POINTED OUT THAT THE MEXICAN DELEGATION WAS B6

VERY WELL AWARE OF JAPANESE RESTRICITIONS ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT THERE, AND ON JAPAN'S NON-TARIFF TRADE BARRIERS. HE INDICATED THAT THE MEXICAN DELEGATION FELT THEY COULD NOT MODIFY THEIR RULS OF THE GAME UNLESS THE JAPANESE WERE ALSO WILLING TO BE MORE ACCOMODATING.

3. THE ATMOSPHERICS OF THE SITUATION WERE NOT FAVORABLE. PART OF THE REASON FOR THIS, HE SAID, WAS BECAUSE THE JAPANESE ALWAYS HAD PRESENT AT THE VARIOUS MEETINGS A FULLY STAFFED, HIGH LEVEL GROUP. ON THE MEXICAN SIDE, UNFORTUNATELY, MANY MAMEBERS OF THE GROUP WERE OFTEN SIGHTSEEING. THE JAPANESE SIDE LEANED HEAVILY ON THE MEXICAN DELEGATION IN AN ATTEMPT TO RECEIVE SOME CONCESSIONS IN CURRENT GOM INVESTMENT REGULATIONS. THE MEXICAN SIDE RESENTED THE JAPANESE ATTITUDE, AND WAS UNPREPARED FOR THE TOUGH NEGOTIATING STANCE ADOPTED BY THEIR HOSTS. [redacted] FELT THAT THE ENTIRE PROCEEDING WAS LESS SUCCESSFUL THAN THE PRESIDENT HAD HOPED FOR. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE PRESIDENT AND FOREIGN MINISTER BOTH WERE SOMEWHAT PREOCCUPIED BY THE LABOR UNREST THEN PRESENT IN MEXICO. (MAJOR AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLERS' STRIKE), AND THE VISIT TO CHINA. B6

4. WE UNDERSTAND FROM [redacted] THAT FURTHER NEGOTIATIONS WITH JAPAN ARE CONTEMPLATED. HE ALSO EXPECTS THAT SOME JOINT TECHNICAL COOPERATION IN THE STEEL INDUSTRY WILL EVENTUALLY RESULT FROM THE MEETING. B6

5. COMMENT: [redacted] IS A REMARKABLY WELL INFORMED SOURCE ON THIS SUBJECT AND IS A WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY REGARDED CONTACT OF THIS POST. WHILE HE IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE GOVERNMENT, HE IS BETTER INFORMED ON LOCAL HAPPENINGS THAN MOST HIS MEXICAN COUNTERPARTS. HE WILL BE KEEPING US INFORMED ON DEVELOPMENTS IN THIS SECTOR IN THE FUTURE. SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT OF CHILE: GOC STATEMENT

REF: LIMA 10344 (NOTAL)

1. INTERIOR MINISTER SERGIO FERNANDEZ MADE THE GOC'S FIRST OFFICIAL RESPONSE NOVEMBER 27, TO THE ORIT-VOTED BOYCOTT AGAINST CHILE, NICARAGUA AND CUBA. THE 8-POINT STATEMENT ATTRIBUTES THE DECISION TO BOYCOTT CHILE ON MISUNDERSTANDING OF THE LABOR SITUATION IN CHILE, BLAIMING "BAD CHILEANS," EX-POLITICAL LEADERS AND A SELFISH TRADE UNION OLIGARCHY FOR BETRAYING THE COUNTRY. WITHOUT NAMING THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, HE ALSO POINTS AN ACCUSING FINGER IN THAT DIRECTION. THE STATEMENT CONTAINS (POINT 3) A THREAT OF A RATALIATORY ACTION AGAINST THE CHILEANS RESONSIBLE SHOULD THE BOYCOTT COME INTO EFFECT.

2. EMBASSY INFORMAL TRANSLATION OF STATEMENT FOLLOWS: QUOTE:

[redacted]

THE CHILEAN NATIONA AND THE GOVERNMENT HAVE LEARNED TODAY OF THE AGREEMENT REACHED BY A GROUP OF INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATIONS AIMED AT IMPOSING A BOYCOTT ON CHILE AND SEEKING TO PREVENT THE UNLOADING OF MERCHANDISE FROM OUR COUNTRY ABROAD OR THE SHIPMENT OF PRODUCTS TO OUR TERRITORY. THIS IS AN ATTEMPT TO COMMERCIALLY ISOLATE OUR FATHERLAND.

CONFRONTED WITH THE SITUATION THE MINISTRY OF INERIOR STATES THE FOLLOWING:

1. SAID MEASURE RESULTS FUNDAMENTALLY FROM MISUNDERSTANDING BY THE ORGANIZATIONS INVOLVED REGARDING THE TURE SCOPE OF THE MEASURES ADOPTED TO BRING ABOUT THE NEW LABOR

UNCLASSIFIED

INSTITUTIONALITY, AND THAT HAVE INCLUDED THE CARRYING OUT OF SECRET, DIRECT AND FREE TRADE UNION ELECTIONS FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF THE REPUBLIC.

2. SUCH MISUNDERSTANDING HAS BEEN PROMOTED BY "BAD CHILEANS," EX-LEADERS OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND BY THE OLD TRADE UNION OLIGARCHY WHO, AFTER HAVING REPEATEDLY OVER THE LAST YEARS FOUND LACK OF SUPPORT AMONG OUR CITIZENS, NOW MAKE SERVILE RECOURSE TO FOREIGN MANEY AND INFLUENCE, SACRIFICING WITHOUT SCRUPLE THE NAME OF THE FATHERLAND AND THE WELL-BEING OF THEIR BROTHERS IN A VAIN EFFORT TO RECOVER THE POWER THAT THEY PREVIOUSLY ABUSED TO THEIR EXCLUSIVE BENEFIT. IT IS NOT NECESSARY ON THIS OCCASION TO LOWER OURSELVES TO NAME THE TRAITORS BECAUSE CHILEANS KNOW VERY WELL WHO THEY ARE WHO ARE UNABLE TO FORGET THE POLITICAL AND TRADE UNION PROVILEGES THAT THEY ENJOYED AT THE COST OF THE ENTIRE COUNTRY.

3. IT MUST BE VERY CLEAR THAT IF THE BOYCOTT COMES INTO EFFECT THOSE "BAD CHILEANS," WHOSE DIRECT INSTIGATION AND DELIBERATELY

FALSE INFORMATION HAS LEAD TO THE PRESENT SITUATION, WILL FACE THEIR RESPONSIBILITY IN THE MANNER THAT THOSE WHOSE ACTIONS AND FAILURES BETRAY THE COUNTRY DESERVE.

4. IT IS NECESSARY THAT THE PEOPLE UNDERSTAND THAT THIS IRRATIONAL EFFORT AND AGRESSION AGAINST CHILE, UNDERTAKEN MORE

[redacted]

[redacted]

THAN FIVE YEARS AFTER THE NATIONAL LIBERATION, HAS FOR ITS ONLY EXPLANATION THE DESPARATE ATTITUDE OF OUR ADVERSARIES WHEN FACED WITH THE OBVIOUS SUCCESS OF OUR FATHERLAND IN ITS ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND IN THE PROGRESSIVE CREATION OF A NEW INSTITUTIONALITY.

5. THE NATION MUST BE CONFIDENT TTHAT NO FOREIGN AGGRESSION, MUCH LESS ONE THAT LACKS ALL MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL JUSTIFICATION, ATTEMPTING TO SUBMERGE US INTO THE SAME IDEOLOGIES THAT BROUGHT POLITICAL CHAOS AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC UNDERDEVELOPMENT, CAN POSSIBLY INFLUENCE A GOVERNMENT AND A PEOPLE WHO HAVE SURVIVED INTACT THE MOST DIFFICULT DANGERS IN OUR HISTORY.

6. CHILEANS CAN HAVE CERTAINTY AND TRANQUILITY THAT NEITHER THE INSTITUTIONALIZATION PROCESS OF THE COUNTRY NOR THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC STRATEGY UNDERWAY WILL BE ALTERED, SINCE THEY ARE BASED ON THE NEED TO STRENGTHEN THE INDEPENDENCE AND SOVEREIGNTY OF OUR FATHERLAND, AND THEY HAVE MAJORITY SUPPORT AND A COHERENCE AND SOLIDITY THAT NO INTERNATIONAL ACTION CAN EVER DESTROY.

NEVERTHELESS, IF THE REFERRED TO ACTION IS CARRIED OUT AND HAS SOME EFFECT ON THE PROGRESS ACHIEVED THANKS TO THE EFFORTS OF ALL, THE GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE THE MEASURES NECESSARY TO MINIMIZE THE DAMAGE THAT THE HATRED OF OUR ENEMIES WISHES TO PROVOKE, ESPECIALLY AMONG THE MORE HUMBLE SECTORS.

7. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE GOVERNMENT CALLS ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT IT HAS REPEATEDLY URGED CONCILIATION, PRUDENCE AND GOOD SENSE TO ALL SECTORS RECALLING, IN PARTICULAR, THE PRUDENCE THAT SHOULD BE SHOWN BY PERSONS INVESTED WITH RELIGIOUS OR MORAL AUTHORITY, WHO MUST NOT BECOME INVOLVED IN ACTIVITIES DETRIMENTAL TO CHILE'S WELFARE.

IT IS EXPECTED THAT NOW IN VIEW OF THE REGRETTABLE FRUITS TO WHICH THEY HAVE CONTRIBUTED, THESE PEOPLE WILL REACT WITH THE SAME

UNCLASSIFIED

HUMANISTIC ZEAL THEY INVOKED PREVIOUSLY, SINCE THEY CANNOT CLOSE THEIR CONSCIENCES TO THE FACT THAT A BOYCOTT IS GOING TO AFFECT, IN AN ESPECIALLY GRAVE AND IMMEDIATE MANNER, THE MOST HUMBLE SECTORS THEY ALLEGE THEY SERVE.

8. LASTLY, THE GOVERNMENT CALLS UPON ALL OUR COMPATRIOTS TO CLOSE RANKS AROUND THE FATHERLAND, CERTAIN THAT WE, IT CHILDREN, WILL KNOW HOW TO RESPOND TO THIS NEW CHALLENGE, WITH THE COURAGE

[redacted]

[redacted]

AND VALOR WITH WHICH, THROUGHOUT OUR HISTORY, WE HAVE OVERCOME THE ATTACKS ATTEMPTED AGAINST THE SOVEREIGNTY, DIGNITY AND GREATNESS OF CHILE.
END QUOTE.

3. COMMENT: THE UNREPENTANT AND NATIONALISTIC TONE OF THIS INITAL GOC STATEMENT IS NOT A SURPRISE BUT WE WOULD GUESS IT IS MORE IN THE NATURE OF A FIRST REFLEXIVE ACTION THAN A CLEAR INDICATION OF HOW THE GOC INTENDS TO PROCEED. THE STATEMENT IS HOPEFUL TO THE EXTENT IT RECOGNIZES THAT A BOYCOTT IS STILL NOT INEVITALBE.

SUBJ: INITIAL REACTION TO ANNOUNCEMENT OF BOYCOTT

1. SUMMARY: BANNOER HEADLINES NOVEMBER 28 ANNOUNCED BROAD PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR THE GOC IN THE FACE OF AN ORIT-APPROVED BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN TRADE. NEWSPAPER EDITORIALS AND COMMENTS FROM CHILEANS AND VARIOUS WALKS OF LIFE DESCRIBED THE ACTION AS UNJUSTIFIED AND IMMORAL. THERE IS SOME RECOGNITION THAT THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS ARE SERIOUS BUT SOME OFFICIAL COMMENTATORS ARGUE THAT CHILE IS NOW BETTER ABLE TO COPE WITH THE BOYCOTT AS ITS TRADE HAS BEEN DIVERSIFIED. THERE IS LITTLE REFERENCE TO MARXIST INFLUENCE IN THE DECISION AND ONLY LIMITED EFFORT SO FAR TO IMPLICATE THE USG. THE GOC HAS ISSED A STRONG STATE-MENT CONDEMNING THE BOYCOTT AND THOSE CHILEANS WHO ENCOURAGE IT (SEPTEL). DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS

ARE HOPEFUL THAT THE GOVERNMENT WILL SOON TAKE THE STEPS NECESSARY TO AVOID IMPOSITION OF THE BOYCOTT. END SUMMARY.

2. NEWSPAPER HEADLINES AND COMMENTS: THE LEAD HEADLINE IN "EL MERCURIO" NOVEMBER 28 SAYS THAT THE ORIT BOYCOTT WILL BE COORDINATED IN WASHINGTON. "MERCURIO'S" EDITORIAL, WHILE HIGHLY CRITICAL OF THE BOYCOTT DECISION, IS CAREFUL TO AVOID PANIC. "LA TERCERA" HEADLINES THAT CONDEMNATION OF THE BOYCOTT IS WIDESPREAD, WHILE "EL CRONISTA" SAYS " CHILE REPUDIATES AGGRESSION AGAINST ITS WORKERS". THE EDITORIAL IN BOTH NEWSPAPERS STRESSED THAT THE CHILEAN WORKERS AND OTHER POORER SECTORS WILL BE HURT WORST IF THE BOYCOTT COMES INTO FORCE. ALL NEWSPAPERS REPORT A NEW YORK TIMES STORY ON LABOR UNDER SECRETARY BROWN'S LUNCHEON SPEECH IN LIMA AS SHOWING USG SUPPORT FOG THE BOYCOTT.

UNCLASSIFIED

3. FINANCIAL/BUSINESS LEADERS: CENTRAL BANK PRESIDENT PABLO BARONA AND LEADING ECONOMIC CONSULTANT JOSE PINERA BOTH MAKE THE POINT THAT CHILE, BECAUSE OF THE ECONOMIC POLICIES OF RECENT YEARS IS NOW IN A BETTER POSITION THAN PREVIOUSLY TO WITHSTAND A BOYCOTT. HOWEVER, THEY LEFT LITTLE DOUBT OF THEIR UNHAPPINESS AT THE ACTION. PINERA CALLS IN UNJUSTIFIED (BECAUSE CHILE IS NOW IN THE PROCESS OF MOVING TOWARDS A NEW INSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM) DISCRIMINATORY, ILLEGITIMATE AND STERILE (BECAUSE CHILE CAN SURVIVE).

4. GOC LABOR LEADERS: MANY LABOR LEADERS ALIGNED WITH THE GOVERNMENT HAVE COME FORWARD WITH STATEMENTS CONDEMNING THE BOYCOTT. GUILLERMO MEDINA, LABOR'S REPRESENTATIVE ON THE COUNCIL OF STATE IS THE ONLY ONE WITH SOME

STANDING AMONG DEMOCRATIC LABOR ELEMENTS. HE ATTEMPTED TO LINK THE BOYCOTT TO THE MARXIST CAMPAIGN AGAINST CHILE. BERNARDINO CASTILLO, GOC APPOINTED HEAD OF THE COPPER WORKERS, SUGGESTED THAT US MULTILATERAL COPPER COMPANIES MAY BE BEHIND THE ORIT MOVE, SINCE IT WOULD FORCE UP THE WORLD PRICE OF COPPER. HOWEVER, CASTILLO ALSO SAID THAT THE GOC HAD MADE A MISTAKE IN HOLDING ELECTIONS FOR WHICH MANY PEOPLE WERE INELIGIBLE: THE WORKERS SHOULD CHOOSE WHO SHOULD BE THEIR LEADERS, NOT THE GOVERNMENT.

5. CHURCH LEADERS: BISHOP DE BORJA VALENZUELA, PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, IS REPORTED BY "EL MERCURIO" AS SAYING THAT NO CHILEAN CAN BE IN FAVOR OF THE BOYCOTT AND THAT IT WOULD HURT THE PPOREST SECTORS. BUSHOP FRESNO, ALSO A CHURCH MODERATE, REPORTEDLY DESCRIBED THE BOYCOTT AS IMMORAL. BISHOP TAGLE, A CONSERVATIVE, NOT SURPRISINGLY CAME OUT STRONGLY AGAINST THE MEASURE.

VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY HEAD CHRISTIAN PRECHT REFUSED TO MAKE A COMMENT.

6. THE EX-POLITICIANS: THE ONLY ONE SO FAR WHO HAS COME OUT WITH A STATEMENT IS EX-SOCIAL DECOMCRATIC (PIR) SENATOR ALBERTO BALTRA. HE CALLED THE MEASURE DISCRIMINATORY. DEMOCRATIC PARTY PREISIDENT ANDRES ZALDIVAR AND THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL PARTY, JULIO SUBERCASEUX, REFUSED TO MAKE ANY COMMENT.

UNCLASSIFIED

7. DISCUSSIONS WITH DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS: EDUARDO RIOS TELLE THAT HE BELIVESE THE GOC WILL HAVE TO MAKE SOME CONCRETE MOVES IN ORDER TO PREVENT THE BOYCOTT FROM GOING INTO EFFECT. THE PRINCIPAL STEP HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE IS REPEIL OF DECREE LAW 198 WHICH WOULD PERMIT TRADE UNIONIST TO MEET FREELY, ELECT LEADER-SHIP ON A REGULAR (UNRESTIRCTED) BASIS, AND RPEVENT THE [redacted]

GOVERNMENT FROM REMOVING UNIO OFFICIALS. THESE WOULD BE PREREQUISITES FOR MEANINGFUL COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. RIOS SAYS THAT LABOR MINISTER VASCO COSTA PROMISED (WHEN THEY SAW HIM JUST PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE FOR LIMA) TO RESUME DISCUSSIONS WITH "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS WHEN HE RETURNS. TACAPEL JIMENEZ IS OPTIMISTIC THA THE HARD LINE ENUNCIATED NOVEMBER 27 BY INTERIOR MINISTR FERNANDEZ WOULD NOT PREVAIL WITHIN THE GOC, AND THAT THE GOVERNMENT WILL TRY TO FIND A SOLUTION THAT REMOVES THRE THREAD OF A BOYCOTT.

8. COMMENT: THE INITIAL REACTION, SOME OF IT CONTRIVED, SHOWS A MIXTURE OF ANGER, OUTRAGE AND CONCERN. DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS HOPE THAT THE LATTER WILL GAIN PROMINENCE IN THE NEXT DAYS AND WEEKS, FORCING THE GOVERNMENT TO TAKE STEPS TO ADDRESS LABOR GRIEVANCES.

1. SUMMARY: CHILEAN OFFICIALS STATE THEY ARE PLANNING WAYS TO MITIGATE THE EFFECT OF A POSSIBLE ORIT BOYCOTT. FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS DIFFERENTIATES BETWEEN THE AFL-CIO AND THE USG, THUS SOMEWHAT BLUNTING WIRESERVICE REPORTS FROM LIMA THAT USG OFFICIALS SEEM TO ENDORSE THE ORIT ACTION. CARDINAL SILVA PERSONALLY DUCKS A RESPONSE ON THE BOYCOTT BUT HIS SANTIAGO ARCHBISHOPHRIC PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED THAT, IF PUT INTO EFFECT, IT WOULD HURT THOSE IT PURPORTS TO HELP. THE "GROUP OF TEN" HAS BEEN LYING LOW BUT PLANS TO HOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 30. THE GOC PROJECTS THE IMPRESSION THAT IT IS PREPARING FOR THE LONG HAUL. AT THE MOMENT, THE BOYCOTT IS THE OVERRINGING

[redacted]

PUBLIC ISSUE, FORCING EVEN THE BEAGLE AND THE LETELIER CASE INTO THE BACKGROUND. END SUMMARY.

2. AFTER A GOC STRATEGY SESSION, MINISTER OF ECONOMY PABLO BARAONA CALLED FOR A "BOYCOTT OF THE BOYCOTT" BY DIVERSIFYING EXPORTS PARTICULARLY TOWARD ASIA. HE ADDED THAT BY THE MERE ANNOUNCEMENT OF A POSSIBLE BOY-COTT "70 PERCENT OF THE DAMAGE HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE". FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS SAID THAT THE BOYCOTT STEMMED FROM MISINFORMATION ABOUT THE INTENT OF VARIOUS GOC DECREES, PARTICULARLY THAT DISSOLVING THE SEVEN MARXIST-LED FEDERATIONS.

3. CUBILLOS TOLD THE PRESS NOVEMBER 29 THAT THE AFL-CIO IS "INDEPENDENT OF THE USG; THEREFORE THERE IS NO REASON TO BLAME THE US GOVERNMENT". CUBILLOS' OBSERVATION WAS ESPECIALLY HELPFUL SINCE THE LOCAL PRESS CARRIED WIRE-SERVICE REPORTS FROM LIMA ALLEGING THAT THE USREP TO THE SIXTH LABOR MINISTERS CONFERENCE HAD WALKED OUT ON THE CHILEAN PRESENTATION AND HAD SUPPORTED AN ORIT BOYCOTT.

4. THE SANTIAGO ARCHBISHOPHIC ANNOUNCED THAT, ALTHOUGH ITS VIEWS ON THE LABOR SITUATION WERE WELL KNOWN, IT COULD ONLY REGRET THE ACTUAL IMPLEMENTATION OF A BOYCOTT WHICH WOULD "CAUSE SERIOUS DAMAGE TO THOSE IT WAS TRYING TO HELP". CARDINAL SILVA COUNTERED REPORTERS ASKING HIM TO TAKE A STAND ON THE BOYCOTT BY REMINDING THEM THAT THE CHURCH'S POSITION ON THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS HAD JUST BEEN MADE PUBLIC DURING THE RECENT HUMAN RIGHTS SYMPOSIUM AND AT THE PUERTO MONTT BISHOPS CONFERENCE.

5. THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS PUT OUT AN ANNOUNCEMENT ASSERTING THAT IT WAS FECKLESS TO BLAME THE BOYCOTT ON [redacted]

THE INTERNATIONAL CONSPIRACY WHEN EVIDENCE OF ABUSE OF WORKERS RIGHTS IN CHILE WAS WELL KNOWN AND MOST RECENTLY ILLUSTRATED BY THE WAY THE GOC HAD PUT DOWN LABOR PROBLEMS AT THE CHUQUICAMAT COPPER MINE.

6. RECENT IVP GRANTEE AND UNTRACH LABOR LEADER HERNOL FLORES SAID IT SERVED LITTLE PURPOSE TO LOOK FOR SCAPE-GOATS BUT IF ANYONE IS TO BE BLAMED IT SHOULD BE THOSE WHO REFUSED TO LISTEN TO THE WORKERS' LEGITIMATE CLAIMS. FEDERICO MUJICA URGED THE GOC TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM BEFORE THE BOYCOTT SPREAD TO EUROPE.

7. THE "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS MET NOVEMBER 28 TO FIRM UP THEIR PLAN OF ACTION. THEY DECIDED TO CALL A PRESS CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 30, TO INCLUDE ALLIES FROM THE UNTRACH, AT WHICH THEY ARE EXPECTED TO SAY THAT THE GOC STILL HAS THE OPPORTUNITY TO HEAD OFF THE BOYCOTT BY ALLOWING CHILEANS THE RIGHTS LABOR GENERALLY ENJOYS THROUGH-OUT THE FREE WORLD.

8. COMMENT: THE MEDIA CAMPAIGN CONDEMNING THE BOYCOTT TENDS TO OBSCURE THE FACT THAT MANY BUSINESS AND CIVIC LEADERS HAVE NOT YET SPOKEN UP. WE MAY KNOW IN A FEW DAYS WHETHER A MORE MODERATE VIEW WITHIN THE POWER-ELITE IS GOING TO EMERGE. IN THE MEANTIME THE GOVERNMENT PROJECTS THE IMAGE OF AN ADMINISTRATION PREPARING TO WEATHER YET ANOTHER IN A LONG SERIES OF ADVERSITIES. FOR THE PRESENT, THE BOYCOTT DOMINATES THE MEDIA CAUSING EVEN THE BEAGLE

'AND 'THE LETELIER CASE TO OCCUPY A SECONDARY LEVEL OF 'ATTENTION.

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: ROUNDUP NOVEMBER 30

REF: SANTIAGO 9126

1. SUMMARY: A SENIOR CHILEAN OFFICIAL HEWED TO THE LINE THAT THE GOC WOULD NEVER FOLD UNDER PRESSURE NOR SUBSTANTIALLY MODIFY ITS MAIN LINES OF POLICY. SLIGHT MODIFICATIONS MIGHT OCCUR, HE SAID, BUT ONLY AS THE RESULT OF INTERNAL GOC ANALYSIS. VARIOUS IDEAS TO AMELIORATE THE EFFECTS OF THE THREATENED ORIT BOYCOTT SURFACED, INCLUDING THAT OF TRANS-SHIPPING VIA THIRD COUNTRIES, TAKING LEGAL ACTION AGAINST LONGSHOREMEN IN THE U.S., AND HAVING THE GOC INSURE SHIPPERS FOR "POLITICAL RISKS" (THIS SHORT DOWN BY THE GOC). FOR THE FIRST TIME THE GOC POINTED THE FINGER AT THE LOCAL AIFLD INSTITUTE AND THE EMBASSY'S LABOR ATTACHES AS SOURCE OF "MISINFOR-MATION" ABOUT THE CHILEAN LABOR SITUATION. THE "GROUP OF

TEN" REMAINED THE MAJOR VILLIANS IN THE MEDIA. IN A PRESS CONFERENCE A FEW HOURS AGO, DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS, LED BY RIOS, VOGEL AND JIMENEZ, SAID THAT THE GOC BORE ULTIMATE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE BOYCOTT AND CTIOD END THE THREAT BY RESTORING LABOR FREEDOMS. RADIO COVERAGE OF THE MEETING WAS SURPRISINGLY BALANCED. END SUMMARY

2. SECRETARY GENERAL OF GOVERNMENT, GENERAL VIDEL (GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN) EXPRESSED OFFICIAL SATISFACTION WITH THE CATHOLIC CHURCH'S COMMENTS ON THE

UNCLASSIFIED

ORIT BOYCOTT THREAT (SEE REFTEL) AND SAID THAT CHILEANS WOULD PULL EVEN CLOSER TOGETHER FACED WITH THIS NEW ADVERSITY. VIDAL SAID THAT THE MAJOR OUTLINES OF GOC POLICY ENJOYED FULL SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE AND WOULD NOT BE MODIFIED BY THREATS FROM ABROAD. "WE ONLY WILL CONSIDER SMALL VARIATIONS IN POLICY BASED UPON OUR ANALYSIS OF THE BACKGROUND, LOGICALLY PRESENTED."

3. VARIOUS BUSINESS GROUPS SUGGESTED WAYS OF MITIGATING OR CIRCUMVENTING THE BOYCOTT. ONE IDEA IS THE CREATION OF A MAJOR TRADING COMPANY WHICH WOULD BE ABLE TO ARRANGE TRANS-SHIPMENT VIA THIRD COUNTRIES. OTHERS SUGGESTED TAKING LEGAL ACTION IN THE U.S. FOR ANY LOSSES RESULTING FROM UNAUTHORIZED LABOR ACTIONS. YET OTHERS RECALLED EXPORTERS' EARLIER PROPOSAL FOR "POLITICAL RISK" INSURANCE. THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE DOES NOT AGREE TO A GOVERNMENT-FINANCED SCHEME. THE PRESS REPORTS THAT TWO ORDERS FOR CHILEAN FRUIT (ONE U.S., THE OTHER CANADIAN) HAVE ALREADY BEEN CANCELLED.

4. ALTHOUGH MANY CHILEANS SEEM TO ASSUME THAT THE USG ENDORSES THE BOYCOTT, GOC OFFICIALS AND THE MEDIA HAVE [redacted]

GENERALLY AVOIDED BLAMING THE U.S. ADMINISTRATION. AS REPORTED NOVEMBER 29 (REFTEL), FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS MADE A SPECIAL POINT OF DIFFERENTIATING THE AFL-CIO FROM THE USG. A FULLER ACCOUNT OF CUBILLOS' STATEMENTS SHOWED THAT HE HAD BLAMED MOST OF THE ALLEGED "MISINFORMATION" REACHING THE AFL-CIO ON UNPATRIOTIC CHILEANS. BUT, DISQUIETINGLY, THE FOREIGN MINISTER THEN WENT ON TO SAY THAT US LABOR'S VIEW OF THE CHILEAN SCENE WAS ALSO SHAPED BY REPORTS FROM ITS REPRESENTATIVE IN CHILE AT THE FREE LABOR INSTITUTE AND "WE CANNOT IGNORE THE FACT THAT SURELY THE AMERICAN EMBASSY, THROUGH ITS LABOR ATTACHES (SIC), HAVE BEEN REPORTING ON THE SITUATION". THE NEWSWEEKLY CUBILLOS USED TO MANAGE, "QUE PASA", WAS EVEN MORE SPECIFIC IN SINGLING OUT "PRIVATE INFORMATION FROM A LABOR ATTACHE IN CHILE WHO HAS A HIGHLY POLITICIZED OUTLOOK", AS A MAJOR FACTOR IN THE ORIT DECISION.

5. THE "GROUP OF TEN", DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS BLAMED BY THE GOC FOR PROVOKING THE BOYCOTT AND CHIDED BY THE PRESS FOR BEING "UNAVAILABLE", HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE NOVEMBER 30. LED BY RIOS, VOGEL AND JIMENEZ, THE GROUP CREDITED THE GOC'S RELUCTANCE TO GRANT TRADE UNIONS THEIR BASIC FREEDOMS AS THE CAUSE OF THE BOYCOTT. THEY SAID THEY WOULD BE FILING A SLANDER SUIT AGAINST RIGHTIST-SENSATIONALIST "LA SEGUNDA". SEVEN ROWDIES WHO SHOUTED "TRAITOR" AND OTHER UNKIND ADJECTIVES AT THE BEGINNING OF THE PRESS CONFERENCE WERE BEARDED BY REPORTERS PRESENT AND SLUNK AWAY. RADIO STATIONS REPORTING ON THIS JUST-HELD MEETING WERE REMARKABLY BALANCED -- REPORTERS WERE PARTICULARLY HARD ON THE TROUBLEMAKERS IN THE CROWD.

6. COMMENT: THE GOC HAS FROM TIME TO TIME OBJECTED TO THE ACTIVITIES OR ALLEGED SUBJECTIVITY OF EMBASSY OFFICERS. BECAUSE OF THE LABOR OFFICER'S FREQUENT PUBLIC APPEARANCE TOGETHER WITH DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS BOTH THE INCUMBENT AND HIS PREDECESSOR HAVE BEEN SPECIAL TARGETS OF GOC

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: MCLELLAND LETTER TO LABATT; GOC PLANS LABOR RALLY

REF: A) SANTIAGO 8808 (NOTAL), B) SANTIAGO 8846 (NOTAL)

1. SUMMARY. "EL MERCURIO" CARRIES TEXT OF JULY 1977 LETTER FROM AFL-CIO'S ANDY MCLELLAN TO LABOR ATTACHE EDWARD ARCHER; INTENT IS TO DOCUMENT GROUP OF TEN'S CLOSE TIES TO AFL-CIO AND A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL. GOC HAS APPROVED "REQUEST" FOR A MASSIVE LABOR RALLY OF SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENT DECEMBER 6. PRESS CAMPAIGN CONTINUES. END SUMMARY.

2. MCLELLAND LETTER. ON INSIDE PAGE (BUT WITH TOP-RIGHT FRONT PAGE LEAD) "EL MERCURIO" OF DECEMBER 2 REPRODUCES A LETTER OF JULY 5, 1977, FROM AFL-CIO INTER-AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE ANDREW MCLELLAN TO LABOR ATTACHE EDWARD ARCHER, AND PROVIDES ANNOTATED TRANSLATION. THERE IS ALSO A PHOTOGRAPH OF ARCHER. THE LETTER FROM MCLELLAN THANKED ARCHER FOR A DETAILED SITUATION REPORT (A LETTER

[redacted]

FROM ARCHER OF MAY 20), AND REPORTED ON THE TRIP OF GROUP OF TEN LEADERS TUCAPEL JIMENEZ AND EDUARDO RIOS TO GENEVA DURING THE ILO MEETING. MCLELLAN ARGUES THAT THE TRIP WAS A SUCCESS AS THE EUROPEANS WERE NOW MORE CRITICAL OF SUPPORTING LUIS MENESES, THE COMMUNIST LEADER OF THE CUT IN EXILE. THE LETTER ASKED FOR MORE INFORMATION ON MENESES FOR THE AUGUST ITF MEETING IN DUBLIN, AND CONCLUDED WITH A COMMENT ABOUT THE LACK OF RECENT INFORMATION ON CHILE FROM OTHER SOURCES.

3. LABOR RALLY. THE GOC HAS APPROVED A MASSIVE LABOR RALLY IN

UNCLASSIFIED

SUPPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT FOR DECEMBER 6. ALL PAPERS DECEMBER 2 CARRY FULL PAGE ADS FEATURING THE CHILEAN EQUIVALENT OF A "HARD HAT" AND WITH THE SLOGANS: "NOR SUBJECTED TO FOREIGN DOMINATION"; "CHILEAN; REJECT FOREIGN INTERVENTION"; "CHILE COMES FIRST". THE AD IS SIGNED BY THE "COMANDO GREMIAL" WHICH THE PRESS DESCRIBES AS AN ORGANIZING GROUP COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM MANY UNIONS AND FEDERATIONS. THE RALLY IS TO BE HELD IN THE PLAZA BULNES IN FRONT OF LA MONEDA AT 6:00 PM. (COMMENT: THE LEADERS OF THE COORDINADORA SINDICAL -- VARIOUS POSITIONS ON THE LEFT -- HAVE NOTED THE INCONGRUITY OF THIS RALLY WITH THE GOC'S BAN ON POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, AND PUT OUT A STATEMENT DECEMBER 1 ASKING FOR APPROVAL OF A SEPARATE RALLY.)

4. PRESS CAMPAIGN. GOC-OWNED "EL CRONISTA" CONTINUES TO GO FULL-BORE; THE OTHER PAPERS DEVOTE SOMEWHAT LESS ATTENTION DECEMBER 2. GENERAL VIDAL, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE GOVERNMENT, IS REPORTED AS SAYING THAT THE "PRESENT GOVERNMENT CAN NEVER ACCEPT ANYTHING WHICH HARMS OUR INDEPENDENCE AND SOVEREIGNTY.

5. COMMENT. THIS IS THE SAME LETTER WHICH FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS SHOWED TO THE AMBASSADOR NOVEMBER 10 IN COMPLAINING ABOUT [redacted]

[redacted]

NEGATIVE REPORTING ON THE LABOR SITUATION IN CHILE (REFTELS). SOMEONE IN THE GOC (WE DOUBT CUBILLOS -- THERE ARE PROBABLY MANY COPIES ABOUT) HAS NOW DECIDED THAT THE LETTER IS USEFUL AMMUNITION IN WHIPPING UP NATIONALISTIC SUPPORT FOR THE REGIME AND AGAINST DEMOCRATIC LABOR CRITICS, PRINCIPALLY THE GROUP OF TEN. IN HIS PUBLIC AND PRIVATE STATEMENTS TO DATE CUBILLOS HAS BEEN CAREFUL TO POINT OUT THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE AFL-CIO FROM THE USG. HOWEVER HE HAS ALSO MENTIONED PUBLICALLY EMBASSY LABOR ATTACHES AND THE AIFLD REP AS THE SOURCES OF INFORMATION ON WHICH THE AFL-CIO BASED ITS DECISION TO PROPOSE AND SUPPORT A BOYCOTT. THERE IS A FINE LINE; AND SOME DANGER (AS POINTED OUT REFTELS) THAT THE GOC WILL SEEK ARCHER'S REMOVAL.

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: GOC RALLY RESTRAINED

1. (U) SUMMARY: THE GOC ENCOURAGED RALLY IN ITS OWN SUPPORT AGAINST THE BOYCOTT WAS SURPRISINGLY RESTRAINED. NO MORE THAN 20,000 PEOPLE SHOWED UP AND THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE OF MASSIVE GOC MOBILIZATION. THE SPEECHES, INCLUDING PINOCHET'S, DID NOT INDICATE A WILLINGNESS TO SEEK ACCOMMODATION BUT THEY WERE LESS STRIDENT AND NATIONALISTIC THAN WE HAD EXPECTED. NATIONAL TELEVISION DID NOT COVER THE EVENT LIVE BUT RATHER REPLAYED IT LATER IN THE EVENING. IN A TELEVISION DISCUSSION PROGRAM THE NIGHT OF DECEMBER 6, A LOCAL LABOR LEADER CALLED FOR THE EXPULSION OF LABOR ATTACHE ARCHER. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE DECEMBER 6 RALLY IN THE CENTER OF SANTIAGO AGAINST THE BOYCOTT TURNED OUT TO BE CONSIDERABLY LESS DRAMATIC THAN EXPECTED. THE EMBASSY ESTIMATES THAT ABOUT 15,000 PERSONS WERE PRESENT. WE HAVE BEEN TOLD THAT ONE GOVERNMENT SOURCE PUT THE NUMBER AT 19,500. THE CROWD DRAWN LARGELY FROM THE PUBLIC SECTOR, UNIVERSITY AND PRI-VATE INDUSTRY WAS GENERALLY CALM AND DISPERSED QUIETLY FOLLOWING THE RALLY. THERE WAS RADIO COVERAGE BUT NO LIVE TELEVISION; INSTEAD, ALL TELEVISION STATIONS RAN A FILM OF THE RALLY AT 9:30 THE NIGHT OF DECEMBER 6.

3. (U) THE SPEAKERS IN ORDER OF APPEARANCE WERE NELSON AGUILAR, REPRESENTING RECENTLY ELECTED LABOR LEADERS; MARTIN BUSTOS, PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERATION OF STEVEDORES; AND, PRESIDENT PINOCHET. BUSTOS CONDEMNED STRONGLY FOREIGN INTERFERENCE IN CHILEAN AFFAIRS AND THE ACTIVITIES OF "BAD CHILEANS" WHO SUPPORTED THE BOYCOTT. HE CALLED ON ALL

WORKERS TO SUPPORT THEIR COUNTRY IN THE PERSON OF ITS PRESIDENT, GENERAL AUGUSTO PINOCHET. HOWEVER, BUSTOS DEALT WITH THE ORIT AND THE AFL-CIO IN MILD TERMS. HE SAID THAT LEADERS OF BOTH THESE GROUPS WERE WELL INTENTIONED BUT BADLY MISINFORMED ABOUT THE LABOR SITUATION IN CHILE.

4. (U) PRESIDENT PINOCHET DESCRIBED THE SOCIO-ECONOMIC PROGRAMS OF THE GOVERNMENT WHICH FAVORED WORKING PEOPLE. HE FIRST SAID THAT CHILE WAS A FREE COUNTRY WHICH RESPECTED THE FREEDOM OF OTHERS BUT HAD ITS OWN FREEDOM CHALLENGED REPEATEDLY DURING THE FIVE YEARS OF MILITARY RULE. PINOCHET SAID THAT THIS CHALLENGE WAS BECAUSE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S SUCCESSES IN ELIMINATING TERRORISM, FREEING PEOPLE FROM THE YOKE OF BUREAUCRACY AND BUILDING A NEW SOCIETY IN WHICH PRIVATE PROPERTY AND INDIVIDUAL FREEDOMS ARE RESPECTED. PINOCHET ADDED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD SUCCEEDED IN TERMINATING A TRADE UNION OLIGARCHY, AND FORTIFYING THE RANK AND FILE TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS. IT HAD OPENED ITS BORDERS TO FREE COMMERCE, TRAINED 150,000 WORKERS, INCREASED FAMILY ALLOWANCES AND RESPECTED THE RIGHTS AND LEGITIMATE CONQUESTS OF THE WORKERS. WITH REGARD TO TRADE UNION RIGHTS, PINOCHET STATED THAT HIS

GOVERNMENT HAS APPOINTED TRIPARTITE COMMISSIONS TO SET WAGES, LEGISLATED MATERNITY ALLOWANCES, A TRANSPORTATION ALLOWANCE AND A MINIMUM INCOME FOR WORKERS. HIS GOVERNMENT HAD ALSO SET AN UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION FOR PUBLIC AND PRIVATE WORKERS AND AUTOMATIC READJUSTMENTS OF WAGES AND SALARIES THREE TIMES A YEAR TO THE FULL AMOUNT OF THE RATE OF INFLATION.

5. (U) PINOCHET SAID THAT CHILEAN WORKERS ENJOYED MORE TRADE UNION FREEDOM NOW THAN AT ANY TIME IN THEIR HISTORY. HE SAID THAT LOCAL UNIONS WERE NO LONGER SUBSIDIARIES OF THEIR FEDERATIONS. WORKERS WERE FREE TO FORM AS MANY AS THREE TRADE UNIONS IN ANY PLANT AND WERE FREE TO FORM OR JOIN ANY FEDERATION THEY CHOOSE. INDIVIDUAL WORKERS WERE ALSO GIVEN THE FREEDOM TO PERSONALLY JOIN OR NOT JOIN A

6. (U) PINOCHET CONCLUDED BY STATING THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD CONTINUE FIGHTING, WITH OR WITHOUT THREATS, FOR THE "DIGNITY AND FREEDOM OF THE CHILEAN PEOPLE." HE CALLED FOR UNITY AND TRANQUILITY, BUT WARNED THAT TRANQUILITY AND TOLERANCE SHOULD NOT BE MISTAKEN FOR WEAKNESS.

IN PROVOCATIVE TERMS, GUZMAN ASKED ABOUT THE JULY 5, 1977 LETTER FROM AFL-CIO MCLELLAN TO EMBASSY LABOR ATTACHE ARCHER (WHICH HAD BEEN PUBLISHED HERE DECEMBER 2). ROCHA ATTACKED THE LETTER, THE AFL-CIO AND THE "GROUP OF TEN" AND CALLED FOR THE EXPULSION OF ARCHER FROM CHILE. 9 (C) COMMENT: WE VIEW THE RELATIVELY MILD AND NON-SENATIONALIST NATURE OF THE RALLY AS AN INDICATION THAT THE GOC HAS NOT YET DECIDED HOW TO HANDLE THE BOYCOTT PROBLEM. THE AMBASSADOR AND OTHERS HAD URGED GOC OFFICIALS NOT TO FURTHER EXACERBATE THE SITUATION BY INTEMPERATE REMARKS OR DECLARATIONS OF FUTURE ACTION. A LITERAL READING OF PINOCHET'S SPEECH DOES NOT REVEAL WILLINGNESS TO SEEK ACCOMMODATION BUT NEITHER DID IT CATEGORICALLY CLOSE THAT DOOR.

1. ENTIRE TEXT CONFIDENTIAL. SUMMARY: THE PRESIDENT OF AIFLD'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS WAS IN CHILE DECEMBER 9 AND MET WITH PINOCHET. WE HAVE BEEN ACTIVE IN RECENT DAYS TALKING UP THE PROSPECTS FOR A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT OF THE BOYCOTT THREAT. DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS HAVE DRAWN UP FOUR POINTS FOR NEGOTIATION AND HAVE MET INFORMALLY WITH THE LABOR MINISTER. WE HAVE HEARD THAT PINOCHET HIMSELF IS AGREEABLE TO DISCUSSIONS. HOWEVER, FROM OTHER SOURCES WE ARE TOLD THAT THE GOC WILL NOT NEGOTIATE UNTIL THE BOYCOTT THREAT HAS BEEN LIFTED AND, AGAIN DEPENDING ON WHOM YOU TALK TO, THERE ARE HINTS OF STRONG OPPOSITION FROM THE ECONOMIC TEAM. THE PICTURE IS MIXED, BUT MORE NEGATIVE THAN HOPEFUL AT THIS POINT. END SUMMARY.

2. VISIT OF PETER GRACE. WE HAVE BEEN INFORMED THAT PETER GRACE, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF AIFLD, ARRIVED AND DEPARTED CHILE IN HIS PRIVATE JET DECEMBER 9. HE APPARENTLY LUNCHED WITH PINOCHET, INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ AND LABOR MINISTER COSTA. GRACE DID NOTMEET WITH ANYONE FROM THE EMBASSY NOR WITH AIFLD CPD BRUCE JAY. WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT HE TOLD THE GOC OR WHAT MESSAGE , IF ANY, HE TOOK BACK WITH HIM. WE DO KNOW HOWEVER THAT HE GAVE A RIDE TO CARDINAL SILVA, GOING TO THE US TO RECEIVE A HUMAN RIGHTS AWARD. (ACTION REQUEST: WE WOULD WELCOME ANY INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE DEPARTMENT ON THE GRACE TRIP.)

3. ACTIVITIES OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LABOR MINISTER WILLIAM THAYER (NOW ONE OF THE GOC'S HUMAN RIGHTS ADVISORS) MET WITH BRUCE JAY EARLY LAST WEEK AND EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO HELP BRING THE GOC AND DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS TOGETHER. ONE LINE OF ACTIVITY WAS TO DEFINE THE ISSUES TO BE ADDRESSED IN DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN THE GOC AND DEMOCRATIC LABOR. DEMOCRATIC LEADERS, WORKING WITH JAY, HAVE COME UP WITH FOUR FAIRLY GENERAL POINTS: BASIC LABOR FREEDOMS AND PROTECTIONS; MORE SPECIFIC RESTRICTIONS AFFECTING SOME SECTORS; REHABILITATION OF FIRED LEADERS AND DISBANDED UNIONS; A LARGER VOICE FOR ORGANIZED LABOR IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

4. THAYER ALSO SOUGHT TO ARRANGE A MEETING OF LABOR LEADERS WITH LABOR MINISTER VASCO COSTA. THE FIRST WORD BACK FROM LABOR MINISTER COSTA WAS THAT NO MEETING WAS POSSIBLE IN THE NEAR TERM. (THIS WAS BE-

[redacted]

FORE THE DECEMBER 6 LABOR RALLY IN SUPPORT OF THE GOC). ON DECEMBER 8 COSTA SENT WORD THAT HE WOULD MEET "INFORMALLY" THE NEXT DAY AT HIS HOUSE. THAT MEETING WAS ATTENDED BY TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, ERNESTO VOGEL AND HERNOL FLORES AND LASTED THREE HOURS. COSTA WAS CORDIAL BUT TOUGH. HE SAID THERE CAN BE NO NEGOTIATIONS WITH DEMOCRATIC LABOR UNTIL THE AFL-CIO LIFTS THE BOYCOTT THREAT. HE DESCRIBED THE FOUR POINTS DRAWN UP BY DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS AS UNACCEPTABLE. (COMMENT: COSTA AND INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ HAD LUNCHED WITH PINOCHET AND PETER GRACE EARLIER DECEMBER 9. WE ASSUME THAT GRACE GOT THE SAME MESSAGE ON THE UNWILLINGNESS OF THE GOC TO NEGOTIATE UNDER THE THREAT OF A BOYCOTT. IT IS NOTT CLEAR WHETHER COSTA CONSIDERS THE FOUR POINTS UNACCEPTABLE AS A BASIS FOR NEGOTIATION OR MORE SIMPLY IS OBJECTING TO ANY WRITTEN STARTING POINT).

5. OTHER PERSONS INVOLVED. PROFESSOR HARBERGER OF UNIVERSITH OF CHICAGO HAS BEEN IN TOWN FOR THE PAST TWO WEEKS AND THE AMBASSADOR ASKED HIM TO SOUND OUT MEMBERS OF THE ECONOMIC TEAM (MANY OF WHOM ARE HIS FORMER STUDENTS) ON GOC FLEXIBILITY. HARBERGER FINDS DE CASTRO AND OTHERS CLAIMING THAT THERE IS LITTLE THEY CAN DO AT THIS TIME, IN ESSENCE ARGUING THAT IT IS MORE A POLITICAL THAN AN ECONOMIC MATTER -- THE GOC CANNOT GIVE IN TO ORIT PRES-SURE. HARBERGER HAS NOTT GIVEN UP AND IS CONISERING THE POSSIBILITY OF INVOLVING GEORGE SCHULTZ AT SOME POINT. HARRY GEYELIN, PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE AMERICAS, WAS ALSO IN TOWN THIS PAST WEEK AND POKE AT LENGTH WITH DE CASTRO, FINANCE MINISTER BARAONA AND PINOCHET. HIS IMPRESSION WAS THAT THE GOC WILL NEGOTIATE ONCE THE BOYCOTT IS LIFTED. HIS DEPUTY ON THE COUNCIL , ESTEBAN FERRER, WAS NOT QUITE AS OPTIMISTIC. FORMER MINISTER OF ECONOMY (UNDER PINOCHET) FERNANDO LENIZ, ACTING IN PART ON BEHALF OF CAPTAIN CLARK, PRESIDENT OF DELTA LINES, HAS BEEN PROMOTING THE IDEA OF NEGOTIATIONS. HE REPORTS THAT CASTRO WAS [redacted]

ESS RECEPTIVE THAN GENERAL LUSI RAMIREZ (HEAD OF THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE), WHO ASSURED HIM THAT SOME WAY OUT WAS POSSIBLE.

6. BERNARDINO CASTEILLO. CASTILLO, THE HEAD OF THE COPPER WORKERS, MET WITH "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS DECEMBER 11 AND REPORTED THAT PINOCHET IS AGREEABLE TO A MEETING TO INCLUDE ALL DEMOCRATIC LABOR ELEMENTS. HIS ONLY REQUIREMENT ACCORDING TO CASTILLO WAS THAT THIS BE DONE WITH DIGNITY.

7. COMMENT: WE ARE GETTING MIXED SIGNALS ON THE WILLINGNESS OF THE GOC TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT WITH DEMOCRATIC LABOR THAT WOULD PREVENT A BOYCOTT. THERE CLEARLY IS INTEREST ON THE PART OF TOP OFFICIALS, INCLUDING PINOCHET, TO KNOW WHAT IT MIGHT TAKE IN THE WAY OF CONCESSIONS TO AVOID

A BOYCOTT; BUT THE PERDOMINANT GOC LINE IS THE STANDARD ONE OF NOT BEING WILLING TO NEGOTIATE UNDER A THREAT. DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS REMAIN OPTIMISTIC THAT THE GOC WILL SEEK AN ACCOMMODATION BUT, SO FAR AS WE CAN TELL, THIS IS STILL MORE HOPE THAN REALITY. THERE IS DANGER IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS THAT THE BEAGLE WILL SIDETRACK GOC ATTENTION TO THE BOYCOTT. ONCE A BOYCOTT GETS STARTED THERE IS DANGER THAT THE GOC, FIGURING THAT AT LEAST HALF THE DAMAGE HAS ALREADY BEEN INCURRED, WILL DECIDE TO TRY TO RIDE IT OUT.

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: UPDATE

REF: SANTIAGO 9353

1. SUMMARY: OFFICIAL AND PRIVATE CHILEANS CONTINUE TO BE VERY INTERESTED IN POSSIBLE WAYS TO AVOID THE BOYCOTT BUT GOC HAS NOT BACKED OFF CONDITION THAT BOYCOTT THREAT MUST FIRST BE LIFTED. THE GOVERNMENT ORGANIZED ITS SECOND MAJOR RALLY DECEMBER 14; 50 LEFTISTS (NOT GROUP OF 10) LABOR LEADERS WERE DETAINED BRIEFLY FOR ATTEMPTING TO HOLD THEIR OWN DEMONSTRATION. LABOR MINISTER COSTA SAYS THAT WORK ON THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW AND OTHER LEGISLATION MAY BE SPEEDED UP. WE DO NOT RULE OUT THAT BETWEEN NOW AND THE AFL-CIO DEADLINE OF JANUARY 8 THE GOC WILL FIND A WAY TO BEGIN TO RESTORE TRADE UNION RIGHTS. END SUMMARY.

2. AIFLD GOOD OFFICES: DURING THE PAST TEN DAYS AIFLD REPRESENTATIVE BRUCE JAY HAS MET WITH INFLUENTIAL CHILEANS, PRIVATE AS WELL AS OFFICIALS, IN AN EFFORT TO ENCOURAGE THE GOC TO ENTER [redacted]

INTO CONSTRUCTIVE DISCUSSIONS WITH DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS. JAY HAS MET WITH FERNANDO LENIZ, EX-MINISTER OF FINANCE AND NOW MANAGER OF PRUDENTIAL GRACE; JORGE CAUAS, AN EX-MINISTER OF FINANCE AND CHILEAN AMBASSADOR TO US AND NOW PRESIDENT OF THE BANK OF SANTIAGO; MINISTER OF LABOR VASCO COSTA, ARTURO FONTAINE, EDITOR OF EL MERCURIO, WILLIAM THAYER, ADVISOR TO FOREIGN MINISTRY; COLONEL JAIME LAVIN, DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY AND BERNARDINO CASTILLO, PRESIDENT OF THE COPPER WORKERS CONFEDERATION. JAY HAS EXPLAINED TO ALL, THAT THE AFL-CIO WANTS AS A MINIMUM, THAT "CONSTRUCTIVE CONVERSATIONS" BEGIN BETWEEN THE GOC AND CHILEAN TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP TO SEEK WAYS TO RESTORE TRADE UNION

UNCLASSIFIED

FREEDOMS TO CHILEAN LABOR. JAY POINTED OUT THAT ALTHOUGH THE GROUP OF TEN MUST BE REPRESENTED IN THE MEETINGS, THE TALKS DO NOT HAVE TO BE LIMITED TO THEM. JAY'S PRESENTATION CONVEYS A VERY POSITIVE AFL-CIO POSITION AND A NUMBER OF PERSONS HAVE SUBSEQUENTLY EXPRESSED TO EMBOFFS THEIR APPRECIATION FOR THE "BRIEFING." HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT THROUGH VARIOUS SPOKESMEN, INCLUDING THE LABOR MINISTER, WILLIAM THAYER AND BERNARDINO CASTILLO CONTINUE TO INSIST THAT THERE CANNOT BE NEGOTIATIONS UNTIL THE BOYCOTT THREAT IS LIFTED.

3. ANOTHER RALLY: THE GOC ORGANIZED ANOTHER MASSIVE RALLY IN VALPARAISO DECEMBER 14 TO REJECT THE ORIT DECLARED BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN PRODUCTS. THE PRESIENT OF CHILE DID NOT ATTEND. THE RALLY WAS BETTER ORGANIZED AND ATTENDED THAN LAST WEDNESDAY'S DEMONSTRATION IN SANTIAGO, WITH PERSONS ARRIVING BY BUS FROM SURROUNDING TOWNS. THE GOC HAD REFUSED PERMISSION TO COMMUNIST AND OPPOSITION GROUPS TO HOLD A RALLY IN SANTIAGO ON THE SAME DAY. THE RALLY, WAS CALLED BY THE COMMUNIST DOMINATED "COORDINADOR SINDICAL," THE CLAT AFFILIATE (FUT) AND THE CONFEDERATION OF PRIVATE EMPLOYEES (CEPCH) TO EXPRESS SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL ACTION TO END TRADE UNION SUPPRESSION. THE GROUP OF TEN WAS INVITED BUT REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE. THE GOC ARRESTED ABOUT 50 PERSONS WHO

[redacted]

[redacted]

DEMONSTRATED DESPITE THE LACK OF APPROVAL. ALL WERE RELEASED WITHIN A FEW HOURS.

4. OTHER FRONTS: TWENTY-ONE TRADE UNIONIESTS, ELEVEN APPOINTED BY THE GOC, SENT A CABLE TO THE AFL-CIO DECEMBER 13 REQUESTING THE AFL-CIO NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ORIT BOYCOTT OF CHILE. BERNARDINO CASTILLO HEADED THIS EFFORT. GROUP OF TEN TRADE UNION LEADERS WERE ASKED TO SIGN BUT REFUSED ON THE GROUNDS THAT A BOYCOTT THREAT IS THE ONLY WAY TO FORCE THE GOC TO BEGIN TO CONCEDE RIGHTS TO WORKERS. THE MINISTER OF ECONOMY, PABLO BARAONA TOLD THE PRESS DECEMBER 14 THAT WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF A PENDING COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW THERE COULD EXIST FULL TRADE UNION ACTIVITY AND SUGGESTED THAT THE GOC'S ONLY CONCERN IN THIS AREA WAS TO PREVENT TRADE UNIONS FROM SECURING A MONOPOLY POSITION WITHIN THE ECONOMY. THE MINISTER OF LABOR SAID THAT THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW MAY NOW BE ISSUED PRIOR TO OCTOBER 31, 1979, THE DATE SET BY THE GOVERNMENT FOR ITS COMING INTO EFFECT. HE EMPHASIZED THAT MOVING THE DATE AHEAD WAS NOT A REACTION TO INTERNATIONAL PRESSURE. (COMMENT: THIS IS THE FIRST TIME WE HAVE SEEN THE OCTOBER 31, 1979 DATE -- PREVIOUSLY THE MINISTRY CITED JANUARY 1, THE FIRST SEMESTER OF 1979 AND JUNE 1, 1979 AS DATES WHEN A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW WOULD BE ISSUED.) A GROUP OF FARM WORKERS FROM A NORTHERN FRUIT GROWING PROVINCE GAVE EMBOFF FOLDERS CONTAINING TEN THOUSAND SIGNATURES AND A COPY OF A CABLE TO THE AFL-CIO APPEALING THE BOYCOTT DECISION AND SAYING IT WOULD COST THEM THEIR JOBS. THE GROUP SAID THAT THE BOYCOTT WOULD MEAN LARGE SCALE UNEMPLOYMENT IN SAN FELIPE AND LOS ANDES PROVINCES, AFFECTING OVER 120,000 WORKERS.

UNCLASSIFIED

5. REACTION TO AFL-CIO STATEMENT: ALL NEWSPAPERS CARRIED STORY OF AFL-CIO POSTPONEMENT OF A DECISION TO BOYCOTT TO JANUARY 8. MOST NOTED THAT THIS DATE WAS ALSO THE BEGINNING OF THE LETELIER/MOFFITT MURDER TRIAL. "LA TERCERA" CARRIED DECEMBER 15 A SHORT INTERVIEW WITH AFL-CIO INTER-AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE ANDREW MCLELLAN STATING THE THE COINCIDENCE WAS UNINTENDED. MCLELLAN ALSO NOTED THAT THE AFL-CIO HAD ALREADY DECIDED TO COOPERATE WITH THE BOYCOTT [redacted]

[redacted]

AND HAD DELAYED ITS DECISION TO PROVIDE THE GOC ADDITIONAL TIME TO MEET THE DEMANDS CONTAINED IN THE AFL-CIO MAY 22 MEMORANDUM CALLING FOR FULL TRADE UNION FREEDOM.

6. COMMENT: THE POSSIBLE EFFECTS OF A TRADE BOYCOTT STILL COMMANDS ATTENTION IN CHILE. HOWEVER, THE GOC SEEMS MORE CONCERNED ABOUT DEMONSTRATING THAT IT WILL NOT ACCEPT FOREIGN INTERFERENCE IN ITS NATIONAL AFFAIRS THAN IN SEEKING AN INTERNAL SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEMS WHICH THE BOYCOTT WILL CERTAINLY CAUSE. THE VARIOUS EFFORTS ON THE PART OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR TO BEGIN "CONSTRUCTIVE CONVERSATIONS WITH THE GOC" HAVE NOT YET BEEN FRUITFUL, BUT WE DO NOT RULE OUT THAT WITHIN THE UPCOMING CHRISTMAS PERIOD SOME MOVEMENT IN THIS ARE MAY OCCUR.

SUBJECT: SANTIAGO BOMBINGS NOT SOLVED IN SPITE OF HERALDED ARRESTS

REF: SANTIAGO 9318

1. (C) SUMMARY: CHILEAN SECURITY SERVICES GAVE THE MISLEADING IMPRESSION THAT THEY HAD SOLVED A SERIES OF BOMBINGS (REFTEL) WHEN THEY ANNOUNCED DECEMBER 13 BREAKING UP A LEFTIST TERRORIST CELL. HOWEVER POLICE HAVE ONLY BEEN ABLE TO MAKE A CASE AGAINST ONE PERSON WHO CONFESSED TO HAVING PLACED ONE BOMB -- WHICH DID NOT EXPLODE. MOST OF THE EIGHT OTHER DETAINEES HAVE BEEN SET FREE OR CHARGED ONLY WITH DISTRIBUTING SUBVERSIVE PROPAGANDA. THE IDENTIES OF THOSE PLACING THE VERY POWERFUL DEVICES AT THE HOUSE OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT BORQUEZ AND APPEALS JUDGE DUNLOP HAVE NOT BEEN DETERMINED. FORCEABLY RETIRED CARABINERO GENERAL CAMPOS OBVIOUSLY THINKS THAT THE SECURITY FORCES KNOW MORE THAN THEY ARE LETTING ON. WHILE NOT DISCARDING LEFTIST INVOLVEMENT, MANY LOCAL OBSERVERS SPECULATE THE RIGHTISTS, PERHAPS INCLUDING MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY SERVICES THEMSELVES, ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY OF THE BOMBINGS. END SUMMARY.

2. (C) ON DECEMBER 13 SECURITY FORCES ANNOUNCED THE DETENTION OF SEVEN PEOPLE ALLEGEDLY INVOLVED IN PLACING A BOMB AT A SHELL OIL GAS STATION DECEMBER 5/6 -- THE DEVICE FAILED TO EXPLODE.

[redacted]

WE UNDERSTAND POLICE SUBSEQUENTLY ARRESTED TWO OTHERS AND ARE STILL LOOKING FOR A THIRD PERSON -- THOUGHT TO BE A SOCIOLOGIST WORKING AT THE SANTIAGO BRANCH OF FLASCO, JORGE MUNOZ. (FLASCO IS A SOCIAL RESEARCH ORGANIZATION BASED IN ARGENTINA WHOSE STUDIES ARE GENERALLY CRITICAL OF GOC POLICIES).

3. (U) THE DECEMBER 14 PRESS REPORTED THAT MARIA ELIANA RIVERA HAD SLIPPED PAST POLICE GUARDING THE VENEZUELAN EMBASSY BY DRESSING AS A NUN AND USING A FALSE IDENTITY CARD. SHE REMAINS IN THE EMBASSY WHILE THE GOV SEEKS FURTHER INFORMATION ON HER CASE. IT IS ASSUMED THAT SHE WAS INVOLVED WITH THE GROUP.

UNCLASSIFIED

4. (C) INTERNAL NAME CHECKS SHOWED THAT ONE OF THE DETAINEES HAD SOUGHT ASYLUM IN THE MEXICAN EMBASSY RIGHT AFTER THE 1973 COUP. BUT APPARENTLY SHE WAS THE FIRST TO BE CLEARED OF INVOLVEMENT IN THE SHELL BOMBING; SHE WAS UNDONDITIONALLY RELEASED ON DECEMBER 14. A VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY LAWYER TELLS US THAT ONLY THE MAN WHO CONFESSED TO PLACING THE SHELLBOMB IS STILL BEING HELD UNDER MILITARY JURISDICTION FOR ARMS CONTROL VIOLATION (I.E., POSSESSION OF EXPLOSIVES). THE REST WERE CHARGED WITH NATIONAL SECURITY LAW VIOLATIONS FOR DISSEMINATING SUBVERSIVE LITERATURE AND CIVILIAN JUDGES RELEASED ALL BUT THREE FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE.

5. (C) STILL UNSOLVED THEN ARE THE NINE OTHER BOMBINGS WHICH TOOK PLACE IN LATE NOVEMBER AND EARLY DECEMBER, INCLUDING VERY POWERFUL EXPLOSIONS AT THE HOUSE OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT BORQUEZ (WHO IS HANDLING THE LETELIER EXTRADITION CASE) AND RESPECTED APPEALS COURT JUSTICE DUNLOP (WHO WAS INVESTIGATING THE BORQUEZ EXPLOSION). AND ANOTHER BOMB, THIS ONE LOW-TO-MEDIUM IN STRENGTH, DETONATED AT THE HOUSE OF A LOCAL BUSINESSMAN THE DAWN OF DECEMBER 15/16.

6. (U) SECURITY FORCES HAVE TAKEN GREAT PAINS TO POINT OUT THAT [redacted]

THE DUD AT THE SHELL GAS STATION WAS COMPOSED OF DYNAMITE AUGMENTED BY READILY AVAILABLE CHEMICALS AND CNI SPOKESMEN HAVE DENIED EARLY ACCOUNTS THAT THE MUCH MORE POWERFUL EXPLOSIONS AT THE JUDGES' HOMES RESULTED FROM THE USE OF TROTYL -- A HIGHLY POTENT COMPONENT OF TNT. TROTYL IS SUPPOSED TO BE UNDER RIGOROUS MILITARY CONTROL AND CANNOT BE MANUFACTURED EASILY. CNI DISCLAIMERS NOTWITHSTANDING, THE DEVISES AT BORQUEZ' AND DUNLOP'S WERE OF A DIFFERENT ORDER OF MAGNITUDE.

7. (C) THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR (OF WHICH CNI IS A SEMI-AUTONOMOUS PART) HAS REQUESTED THE MILITARY COURTS TO BEGIN INVESTIGATING THE BOMBINGS OF THE JUDGES (THE CIVIL COURTS ARE CONDUCTING THEIR OWN INVESTIGATION) ASSERTEDLY BECAUSE OF AN IPSO FACTO ARMS CONTROL INFRACTION. (COMMENT: A LESS CHARITABLE INTERPRETATION IS THAT THE GOC WOULD PREFER TO HAVE THE MILITARY COURTS DIRECTING THESE POTENTIALLY DELICATE INVESTIGATIONS).

8. (C) CLEARLY EX-SANTIAGO POLICE CHIEF GERMAN CAMPOS (WHO WAS OUSTED ON THE PRETEXT THAT HE HAD NOT PROVIDED PROTECTION FOR JUDGE BORQUEZ' HOUSE) IS NOT CONVINCED THAT MIR AMATEURS ARE RESPONSIBILE FOR ALL THE INCIDENTS. ON DECEMBER 9 (BEFORE THE ARRESTS) HE TOLD THE PRESS: "THE SIMPLE, ELOQUENT FACT IS THAT THIS GROUP HAS NOT BEEN APPREHENDED AFTER OPERATING FOR TWO YEARS. THEY ARE HIGHLY TRAINED, WITH VAST TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE IN PLACING AND DETONATING EXPLOSIVIES, HAVE ACCESS TO TROTYL, HAVE EXCELLENT LOGISTICAL SUPPORT AND MANY VEHICLES, AND APPARENTLY ARE NOT TRYING TO KILL. THEY HAVE EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD INTELLIGENE AND SURVEILLANCE CAPABILITY... THEY HAVE BEEN OPERATING SINCE MAY, 1977." (COMMENT: THE MAY 1977 BOMBINGS ARE KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN IN LARGE MEASURE DINA WORK). "EL MERCURIO" DECEMBER 10 ALSO KEPT AN OPEN MIND ABOUT THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBINGS, WHICH WERE THEN STILL "UNSOLVED". IT POINTED OUT THAT BOTH THE EXTREME LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT SEEK TO ERODE THE IMAGE OF DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY.

9. (C) COMMENT: WHILE WE KNOW THAT MOVEMENT OF REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR) SPLITER GROUPS EXIST AND HAVE THE APABILITYOF MAKING AND SETTLING OFF BOMBS, THIS PARTICULAR SERIES OF ARRESTS DOES NOT SOLVE THE RECENT WAVE OF BOMBINGS. THERE WAS A SURPRISINGLY SHARP PUBLIC CRITICISM OF THE GOC'S INABILITY TO PREVENT THESE BOMBINGS, AND SECURITY FORCES WERE UNDER GREAT PRESSURE TO FIND SOME LEFTIST TERRORISTS. THAT THEY DID PRODUCE SOME ARRESTS (AND PERHAPS DULLED PUBLIC AWARENESS THAT MOST OF THE CASES REMAINED

[redacted]

[redacted]

OPEN) HAS NOT PREVENTED OTHERS FROM SPECULATING.

10. (C) EX-POLICE CHIEF CAMPOS UNDOUBTEDLY HAS AN AXE TO GRIND. NONETHELESS HE MUST HAVE HAD ACCESS TO INFORMATION SUPPORTING THE ALL BUT EXPLICIT IMPUTATION THE SECURITY SERVICES KNOW MORE THAN THEY ARE LETTING ON. THREE HYPOTHESES SPRING TO MIND: 1) THUGS STILL LOYAL TO MANUEL CONTRERAS WANTED TO INTIMIDATE THE COURTS AND OTHER GOC OFFICIALS LEST THEY THINK ABOUT PROSECUTING OR EXTRADITING THE EX-DINA CHIEF; 2) ROGUE MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCESNEED TO KEEP THE TERRORIST THREAT ALIVE TO SAVE THEIR JOBS; OR 3) A VIGILANTE RIGHT -- PERHAPS INCLUDING MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY SERVICES -- WANTS TO SCARE THE GOVERNMENT INTO MAINTAINING OR STRENGTHENING THE CURRENT EMERGENCY MEASURES. IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT THE GOC ITSELF IS DIRECTLY CONNIVING WITH THE BOMBERS: IT HAS PLACED TOO MUCH EMPHASIS ON THE ACHIEVEMENT OF DOMESTIC

UNCLASSIFIED

TRANQUILITY TO TARNISH THAT IMAGE.

UNCLASSIFIED

11. (C) IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT WHILE LEAVING THE PUBLIC IMPRESSION THAT QUICK WORK BY THE SECURITY SERVICES HAD SOLVED THE CASE, THE GOC HAS BEEN MODERATELY CAREFUL TO FOLLOW ITS OWN LAWS REGARDING DETENTION AND ARRAIGNMENT. WE NOTE ALSO THAT THE CIVIL COURTS HAVE BEEN WILLING TO FREE THOSE UNJUSTLY ACCUSED.

"EL MERCURIO" DECEMBER 10 ALSO KEPT AN OPEN MIND ABOUT THE ORIGIN OF THE BOMBINGS, WHICH WERE THEN STILL "UNSOLVED". IT POINTED OUT THAT BOTH THE EXTREME LEFT AND EXTREME RIGHT SEEK TO ERODE THE IMAGE OF DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY.

9. [redacted] COMMENT: WHILE WE KNOW THAT MOVEMENT OF REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR) SPLITER GROUPS EXIST AND HAVE THE APABILITYOF MAKING AND SETTLING OFF BOMBS, THIS PARTICULAR SERIES OF ARRESTS DOES NOT

Case Number: S200000044

SOLVE THE RECENT WAVE OF BOMBINGS. THERE WAS A SURPRISINGLY SHARP PUBLIC CRITICISM OF THE GOC'S INABILITY TO PREVENT THESE BOMBINGS, AND SECURITY FORCES WERE UNDER GREAT PRESSURE TO FIND SOME LEFTIST TERRORISTS. THAT THEY DID PRODUCE SOME ARRESTS (AND PERHAPS DULLED PUBLIC AWARENESS THAT MOST OF THE CASES REMAINED [redacted]

10. [redacted] EX-POLICE CHIEF CAMPOS UNDOUBTEDLY HAS AN AXE TO GRIND. NONETHELESS HE MUST HAVE HAD ACCESS TO INFORMATION SUPPORTING THE ALL BUT EXPLICIT IMPUTATION THE SECURITY SERVICES KNOW MORE THAN THEY ARE LETTING ON. THREE HYPOTHESES SPRING TO MIND: 1) THUGS STILL LOYAL TO MANUEL CONTRERAS WANTED TO INTIMIDATE THE COURTS AND OTHER GOC OFFICIALS LEST THEY THINK ABOUT PROSECUTING OR EXTRADITING THE EX-DINA CHIEF; 2) ROGUE MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCESNEED TO KEEP THE TERRORIST THREAT ALIVE TO SAVE THEIR JOBS; OR 3) A VIGILANTE RIGHT -- PERHAPS INCLUDING MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY SERVICES -- WANTS TO SCARE THE GOVERNMENT INTO MAINTAINING OR STRENGTHENING THE CURRENT EMERGENCY MEASURES. IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT THE GOC ITSELF IS DIRECTLY CONNIVING WITH THE BOMBERS: IT HAS PLACED TOO MUCH EMPHASIS ON THE ACHIEVEMENT OF DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY TO TARNISH THAT IMAGE.

11. [redacted] IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT WHILE LEAVING THE PUBLIC IMPRESSION THAT QUICK WORK BY THE SECURITY SERVICES HAD SOLVED THE CASE, THE GOC HAS BEEN MODERATELY CAREFUL TO FOLLOW ITS OWN LAWS REGARDING DETENTION AND ARRAIGNMENT. WE NOTE ALSO THAT THE CIVIL COURTS HAVE BEEN WILLING TO FREE THOSE UNJUSTLY ACCUSED.

MEMORANDUM

TO: L/M - Mr. Malmborg

FROM: ARA - Frank J. [redacted]Sonell

SUBJECT: Horman Case

At this time we still have one difference between L and ARA on how much to release on the Horman FOI case. The difference is with respect to Document No. 343, the Fimbres/Driscoll/Robinson memo to Hew Ryan and Harry Shlaudeman. I gather from Mrs. Ennis that we cannot go to the Classification Review process for an advance judgement, because this would preempt the appeal rights of FOI requesters.

Following the standard I established with the rest of the documents, I have deleted under (B)(1) (national security considerations) material that could prove compromising to Gonzales in order to protect him from possible Chilean retaliation. For similar reasons I have deleted material referring to Sandoval (really Sandoval's brother since Sandoval himself is now a matter of public record in the Hauser book). Finally, under the same subsection, I have deleted material [redacted] (b3) as well as the fact of a [redacted] intelligence (b1) agency report on Teruggi.

Under privacy considerations (b-6) I have deleted the reference to Mrs. Horman. I assume you still agree with the above deletions.

The point at issue is whether to delete on (b)(5) grounds (inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda) speculation referring to the possibility that either CIA or US military officials played a role in leading unknown Chilean authorities to conclude that it was all right to kill Horman and Teruggi. I recognize L has held that this provision permits withholding material concerning conclusions, opinions or recommendations of Department officers as privileged documentation in the policy formulation process. And, in fact, in respect of this memo and the Smith memo (Document No. 355) I have withheld the identity of authors and recipients on these same (B)(5) grounds since disclosure could have a chilling effect on the deliberative process.

I understand your arguments and do not dismiss them lightly, particularly the fairness argument that there is no proof that any U.S. official had even an inadvertent role in the decision by unknown Chilean elements to kill Horman and Teruggi. Nor do I question your interpretation that we may withhold this speculation.

Nonetheless, the (B)(5) provision is permissive rather than mandatory. In my judgement, the appeals process, whether in the Department or in Court will eventually result in a judgement that the public interest outweighs the reasons for withholding and that this material will eventually become public. This is particularly so because of the strictures that classification should not be used to prevent embarrassment of government agencies or officials, which would be the principal reason for withholding when one gets down to the bone.

Moreover, we have never posed an objection to having the court review all documents in the case in camera. There is at least some likelihood that, except where the protection of individuals or of intelligence methods is at issue, discovery will bring these to the public light. My judgement remains that the Department of State is better off releasing everything it possibly can now, rather than be forced to release later and so appear to "covering up." Lastly, the material in question is natural speculation that has occurred to almost everyone who has contact with the case. It is not the gospel, and is not so stated in these memos as proof but is rather laid out tentatively as a possibility. It may indeed anger some in the CIA and the military, but the speculation exists and is very much in public print. (Moreover, keeping the CIA and DOD happy is not grounds for FOI refusals.)

Accordingly, I am willing to sign a denial letter on Document 343 if it is limited to the portion that I have marked in green. If L feels that other portions must be deleted then L should take the FOI responsibility for the memo and the denial of the material it wishes deleted.

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: GOC ANNOUNCES PLAN FOR RESTORATION OF TRADE UNION FREEDOMS IN CHILE

1. (LOU) SUMMARY: AFTER FOUR WORKING DAYS ON THE JOB LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA ANNOUNCED JANUARY 2 A NEW LABOR PLAN TO BE COMPLETED WITHIN SIX MONTHS WHICH WOULD NORMALIZE TRADE UNION ACTIVITY AND PROVIDE LABOR WITH A SCHEDULE FOR THE RETURN OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND TRADE UNION ELECTIONS. AS A MEASURE OF GOOD FAITH, PINERA SAID THAT LEGALLY RECOGNIZED TRADE UNIONS ARE IMMEDIATELY PERMITTED TO MEET FREELY OUTSIDE WORKING HOURS AND IN THEIR UNION HALLS WITOUT PRIOR AUTHORIZATION. PRIVATELY AFTER THE MEETING

ANNOUNCING THE LABOR PLAN, PINERA SAID THAT HE WOULD CONSIDER THE RAPID RESTORATION OF DUES CHECKOFFS TO TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND PROMISED THAT THE NEW LABOR LEGLSLATION WOULD NOT BE PUBLISHED WITHOUT PRIOR CONSULTATION WITH BUSNESS AND LABOR LEADERS. MEMERS OF THE "GROUP OF TEN" ATTENDED THE JANUARY 2 MEETING. NO COMMUNIST LABOR LEADERS WERE INVITED. THE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED BY THE LABOR MINISTER IS A POSITIVE, AND PERHAPS A MAJOR, STEP TOWARDS RESTORATION OF A DEMOCRATIC LABOR MOVEMENT. ALTHOUGH MUCH STILL DEPENDS ON THE IMPLEMENTING LEGISLATION TO GO INTO EFFECT BETWEEN NOW AND THE JUNE 30 DEADLINE THE GOC SET FOR ITSELF, LABOR MINISTER PINERA, WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE ECONOMIC TEAM, APPEARS TO BE MOVING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA TOLD A GROUP OF 54 LABOR LEADERS AND 9 BUSINESSMEN THAT THE GOC WILL FORMULATE A PROGRAM FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE, DEMOCRATIC, INDEPENDENT AND FINANCIALLY STRONG TRADE UNION MOVEMENT BY JUNE 30, 1979. BY FREE, THE GOC RECOGNIZED THE RIGHT TO MEET FREELY, TO JOIN OR NOT JOIN A UNION, TO PETITION AND TO STRIKE. BY DEMOCRATIC, THE GOC UNDERSTANDS THE RIGHTS TO ELECT UNION LEADERSHIP FREELY AND VOTE BY SECRET BALLOT IN UNION ASSEMBLIES. BY INDEPENDENT, THE GOC RECOGNIZED THE INALIENABLE RIGHT OF WORKERS TO HAVE A UNION ORGANIZATION WHICH EFFECTIVELY, REPRESENTS THEM, WITHOUT PARTISAN POLITICAL MOTIVES. BY FINANCIALLY STRONG, THE GOC RECOGNIZED THE NEED TO OBLIGATE MEMBERSHIP TO PAY DUES IN AN AMOUNT THAT THEY FREELY CHOOSE.

3. (U) PINERA SAID THAT TO ACHIEVE THESE GOALS THE GOC WOULD IMMEDIATELY PERMIT LEGALLY RECOGNIZED UNIONS AND FEDERATIONS TO MEET IN THEIR UNION HALLS OUTSIDE OF WORKING HOURS WITHOUT PRIOR GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZATION. THE AUTHORIZING MINISTRY OF INTERIOR NOTIFICATION HAD ALREADY BEEN SENT TO REGIONAL INTENDENTS AND GOVERNORS. PINERA ADDED THAT THE GOC WQULD PUBLISH A LAW REGULARIZING LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ALL TRADE UNION ACTIVITY BEFORE JUNE 30, 1979.

4. (U) NO LATER THAN JUNE 30 A NEW COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW WILL

ALSO GO INTO EFFECT. AS A RULE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL BE BY COMPANY, NOT INDUSTRY-WIDE. THE RIGHT TO STRIKE WILL BE RECOGNIZED EXCEPT IN INDUSTRIES AND OCCUPATIONS RELATING TO PUBLIC UTILITIES OR WHEN A WORK STOPPAGE COULD CAUSE GRAVE DANGER TO HEALTH, FOOD SUPPLY, TO THE ECONOMY OF THE COUNTRY OR NATIONAL SECURITY POTENTIALLY VERY LARGE EXCEPTIONS). IN THESE CASES OF EXCEPTION THERE WILL BE COMPULSORY ARBITRATION. WHERE THE STRIKE IS PERMITTED IT WILL BE BALANCED BY THE RIGHT OF AN EMPLOYER'S LOCK-OUT.

5. (U) AFTER JUNE 30 ALL TRADE UNION ELECTIONS WILL BE CONDUCTED UNDER PERMANENT LEGISLATION. IN THOSE UNIONS WHICH HELD ELECTIONS THIS PAST OCTOBER 31, A MAJORITY CAN DECIDE TO NULLIFY THOSE

ELECTIONS AND ELECT NEW LEADERS. (IN TODAY'S PRESS CONFERENCE PINERA SAID THAT THERE PROBABLY WOULD NOT BE ANY ELECTIONS UNTIL SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER, 1979.)

6. (U) THE LABOR MINISTER ADDED THAT AS LABOR MINISTER HE WISHED TO INTENSIFY HIS CONTACTS WITH ALL LABOR AND BUSINESS LEADERS, TO IMPROVE LABOR LAW AND STANDARDS ENFORCEMENT WITH PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO SECTORS OF LESSER SOCIAL INFLUENCE, AND TO DEVELOP THE LABOR AND PROFESSIONAL TRAINING INSTITUTIONS.

7 (U) AT A PRESS CONFERENCE JANUARY 3 PINERA SAID THAT THE NEW LABOR PLAN WAS NOT MADE IN RESPONSE TO THE THREAT OF THE BOYCOTT. HOWEVER, IF THE BOYCOTT BY ORIT IS A PRODUCT OF MISINFORMATION HE EXPECTS IT WILL BE LIFTED OR SUSPENDED NOW. THE MINISTER ADDED THAT THE GOC PROGRAM FOR FUTURE TRADE UNION ELECTIONS AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING HAS NOT CHANGE "ONE MILLIMATER" FROM WHAT IT HAD PLANNED TO DO: THESE MEASURES WERE ADOPTED TO FAVOR CHILAN WORKERS, NOT TO RESPOND TO PRESSURE FROM A BOYCOTT. PINERA CONCLUDED THAT HE HOPED THE PLAN WOULD HAVE THE SUPPORT

B. (LOU) COMMENT: THE NEW LABOR PLAN IS A DEFINITE STEP FORWARD FOR THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT: IT RECOGNIZES MORE CLEARLY THAN PREVIOUSLY THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS. FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY IS INSTITUTED IMMEDIATELY. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING MAY COME SOON. MOST OTHER CHANGES, REQUIRING IMPLEMENTING LEGISLATION,

ARE NOT LIKELY TO BECOME LAW UNTIL JUNE 30. THE FULL IMPORT OF THE GOC'S NEW LABOR PLANS WILL NOT BE CLEAR UNTIL THEY ARE IMPLEMENTED. IN THE MEANTIME, THE MATTER OF DUES CHECKOFF ASSUMES PARTICULAR URGENCY: UNLESS THIS IS RESTORED SOONER, MANY FEDERATIONS MAY BE OUT OF BUSINESS OR HAVE HEAVY ACCUMMULATED DEBTS BY THAT DATE. PRIVATELY THE MINISTER PROMISED TO CONSIDER EARLY ACTION ON THIS SCORE.

The Honorable S.I. Hayakawa
The United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Hayakawa:

You, no doubt, don't remember me, but I was a student in your Introduction to General Semantics class in the spring of 1966. I must admit that as I write this I can picture you, red pencil in hand, ready to write "Cite examples!" and "The word is not the object!" all over this paper. However, I'll just have shake off the memories of the past and press ahead with what I want to say here.

I am writing to you on behalf of Cesar Domingo Cerda Cuevas, a Chilean peasant leader who was detained by the police in his country on 5/10/76 and has now "disappeared" without being formally charged with a crime and without word to his family. Mr. Cerda Cuevas is one of over 2,000 Chileans who have simply "disappeared" since the Chilean Junta decide to improve its worldwide image by declaring there are no political prisoners in Chilean jails.

I will be writing to government officals both here and in Chile in an attempt to locate and secure the release of this prisoner and would appreciate your help and any suggestions you might be able to give me.

All the information I have about Mr. Cerda Cuevas at the time is the following: he is 53 years old and his national identification card number, issued in Santiago, is 1415352. I am attempting to contact his family and will let you know when I have more information about him. Also, I understand that it is possible to file a writ as amicus curiae in support of a writ of habeus corpus filed in Chile. I wil pass on to you any information I learn about this process.

As one Californian to another, may I wish you and your family a Merry Christmas and express the hope that the New Year will bring an increase in the recognition of human rights by governments throughout the world.

The Department of State refers to the Embassy's notes No. 177 of August 2, 1978, and 258 of November 30, 1978, from the Embassy of Chile.

No formal answer was provided to the Embassy's note No. 177 because it had been the Department's understanding that the request had been discussed with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Santiago by the United States Embassy there and that a written reply was not considered necessary. The Embassy's note No. 258 indicates an apparent misunderstanding.

In the Silbert-Montero Agreement of April 7, 1978, the United States agreed (Section A.1.) "that information obtained through the Letelier investigation with respect to actions by Chilean nationals in the United States may be used to investigate and prosecute violations of law in the United States"; and (Section A.2.) "that there will be no other use of this information by the United States and it will be conveyed only to the Government of Chile to be used by its investigators for possible prosecutions."

UNCLASSIFIED

 UNCLASSIFIED

The Departments of State and Justice consider that the submission of the very extensive evidence developed in the Letelier/Moffitt assassination case to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on September 20, 1978, in the form of requests for the extradition of three Chilean nationals fulfilled its commitment to provide information to the Government of Chile in this matter.

The Department of State notes that the Prado-Montero Agreement provided, on the Chilean side, (Section B.1.), "that any information relative to actions by Chileans or other persons of any other nationality which relate in any manner to the murder of Orlando Letelier, will be conveyed to the government of the United States." The Departments of State and Justice would be pleased to receive such information, particularly that concerning the progress of the investigation undertaken in Chile into the alleged falsification of official passports used by certain of the defendants to travel to the United States in 1976.

2. ACCORDING TO MIGNONE, CAVALLI'S PHONE CALL TO HIS RESIDENCE EARLY ON THE MORNING OF HIS DEPARTURE TO CHILE WAS A SURPRISE RESPONSE TO THE INFORMATION MIGNONE HAD EARLIER LEFT AT THE NUNCIATURA ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN ARGENTINA. (NOTE: MIGNONE MET CAVALLI IN ROME IN LATE 1978.)

3. MIGNONE REPORTED THAT CAVALLI STATED THAT THE PAPAL EMISSARIES WERE WELL AWARE OF THE SERIOUS HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS IN ARGENTINA AND CHILE AND PLANNED TO USE THEIR GOOD OFFICES ON THESE CENTRAL HUMANITARIAN ISSUES, IN ADDITION TO TRYING TO BRING THE NATIONS TOGETHER ON THE BEAGLE PROBLEMS.

1. LORENZO MIGUEL, FORMER HEAD OF THE ARGENTINE METAL-WORKERS UNION AND OF THE 62 PERONIST LABOR UNION MOVEMENT, WHOSE DETENTION STATUS (SINCE THE ADVENT OF THE CURRENT MILITARY GOVERNMENT IN MARCH 1976) WAS LIBERALIZED LAST SEPTEMBER TO PERMIT HIM TO RETURN TO HIS FAMILY RESIDENCE IN HOUSE ARREST STATUS, WAS REARRESTED DECEMBER 29 BY POLICE OFFICERS AND TAKEN TO FEDERAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS. HE REMAINED THERE UNITL JANUARY 2 WHEN HE WAS ESCORTED BACK TO HIS HOME.

5. HIS BRIEF ARREST MAY ALSO HAVE BEEN CONNECTED WITH REPORTS IN LABOR CIRCLES THAT THE COMMITTEE OF 25 IS PLANNING A NEW UNIFICATION DRIVE FOR THE LABOR MOVEMENT (WHICH WOULD EXCLUDE THE RIVAL "CNT" FACTION) WHICH WOULD ENVISAGE THE CALLING OF A GENERAL STRIKE AGAINST THE ECONOMIC POLICIES OF ECONOMY MINISTER MARTINEZ DE HOZ. ACCORDING TO THE RUMORS, UNDISCLOSED MILITARY CHIEFS HAVE BEEN ENCOURAGING THE TRADE UNIONISTS TO PROCEED WITH PLANS FOR SUCH A STRIKE, AND SOME SOURCES PRESUME THAT MIGUEL IS

January 5, 1979

Mr. Thomas V. Evans
1113 Longworth Office Bldg.
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Sir:

At times our great nation becomes involved in a most despicable type of warfare against weaker nations: economic boycotts-- to try and rationalize these under any set of circumstances is immoral and inhuman to the same degree that an open military attack would be. It is worse, because we lack the guts to declare open war; but the intent remains the same: economic domination of a country. Somehow, I cannot invision this with President Carter's Human Rights Policy.

I recently visited Chile and saw a real disgust, at all social levels, because of the proposed AFL-CIO boycott to that country. They are disgusted at anything representing the United States because of our lack of knowledge of the real situation there. They felt that if a European communist country had effectively liberated itself of communist oppression, we would have applauded. However, we only talk about lack of human rights in Chile, and do not recognize that there is far more freedom there today than during the communist regime. We turn our backs on them, and try to open negotiations with Castro's regime in Cuba. This is sad. We in the United States have no idea of what people have suffered under communist regimes or under guerrilla warfare conditions such as in neighboring Argentina and Uruguay and, hence, should not criticize their human rights' policies.

One may say that the AFL-CIO boycott is not initiated or sponsored by the United States government, and like Pontious Pilot, wash our hands. No sir, I don't agree the government can stay out of it. I think/they/you should openly condemn the AFL-CIO action. After all, Chile is a country where labor unions can freely organize; but at the same time, no one is compelled to join unions. That, in my opinion, is freedom of choice. Of course, I support "right to work" laws in the United States also.

Sincerely,

THS:cac

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: LABOR REACTION TO GOC LABOR PLAN

REF: SANTIAGO 0065

1. (C) SUMMARY: THE LABOR PLAN ANNOUNCED BY LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA JANUARY 2 PLEDGES MODIFICATION OF THE MORE OBJECTIONABLE FEATURES OF GOC LABOR POLICY AND SETS A FIRM DATE, JUNE 30, FOR LEGISLATION THAT COULD FURTHER RESTORE INDEPENDENT TRADE UNIONISM. DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS, WHILE ACKNOWLEDGING POSITIVE ELEMENTS, ARE VERY UNHAPPY WITH THE PACKAGE. THEY VIEW THE GOVERNMENT'S PLAN AS A MINIMAL AND HALF-HEARTED COMMITMENT TO THE BASIC PRINCIPLES

[redacted]

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ UNCLASSIFIED

OF FREE TRADE UNIONISM, MOTIVATED PRIMARILY BY THE NEED TO AVOID THE IMPENDING ORIT BOYCOTT. THEY WANT TO KEEP THE THREAT OF AN IMMINENT BOYCOTT ALIVE WHILE THEY TRY TO GET HELPFUL CLARIFICATIONS ON PROMPT CONCRETE ACTION FROM THE GOC. IN THE EMBASSY'S VIEW THE LABOR PLAN REPRESENTS A PRELIMINARY, POTENTIALLY SIGNIFICANT CHANGE IN THE

GOC APPROACH TO LABOR MATTERS. HOWEVER, WE SHOULD WAIT UNTIL THE DETAILS ARE FILLED IN BEFORE MAKING ANY COMMENTS. END SUMMARY

2. (U) ALTHOUGH ALMOST UNIVERSALLY BUSINESS, PRESS, RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL LEADERS PRAISED THE GOC ANNOUNCED "LABOR PLAN" WHICH SETS A DEADLINE OF JUNE 30 FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF ALL LABOR LEGISLATION NORMALIZING TRADE UNION AND OTHER LABOR ACTIVITY, ALMOST ALL DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS HAVE BEEN CAUTIOUS AND SUSPICIOUS IN THEIR COMMENTS ON THE PLAN. A TYPICAL EXAMPLE OCCURRED AT A TELEVISED LUNCHEON JANUARY 4 WHEN GUILLERMO MEDINA, LABOR REPRESENTATIVE ON THE COUNCIL OF STATE AND GENERALLY CONSIDERED STRONGLY PRO-GOVERNMENT, CITED A LONG SERIES OF UNFULFILLED PROMISES BY THE GOC, INCLUDING PRESIDENT PINOCHET, SINCE 1975. IN THE FOLLOWING PARAGRAPHS WE SET FORTH THE MOST SIGNIFICANT POINTS OF THE LABOR PLAN, THE QUESTIONS AND CRITICISMS OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS AND, TO THE EXTENT WE NOW HAVE THEM, THE CLARIFICATIONS OF LABOR MINISTER PINERA.

3. (U) FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLE: THE NEW LABOR PLAN AS ANNOUNCED BY LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA STATED THAT LEGALLY RECOGNIZED TRADE UNIONS WOULD BE PERMITTED TO MEET FREELY IN THEIR UNION HALLS OUTSIDE WORKING HOURS WITHOUT PRIOR GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZATION. A TELEX FROM THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR WAS SENT TO ALL REGIONAL GOVERNORS AND [redacted]

INTENDANTS ANNOUNCING THIS POLICY. TRADE UNION LEADERS ARE CONCERNED THAT:

-- TRANSITORY ARTICLE 4 OF DECREE LAW 198 REMAINS IN EFFECT. LABOR LEADERS ARE CONCERNED THAT SOME GOC OFFICIALS MAY CONTINUE TO ENFORCE THE REQUIREMENTS OF THAT ARTICLE THAT UNION ASSEMBLIES BE INFORMATIVE RATHER THAN DELIBERATIVE AND THAT UNION LEADERS INFORM LOCAL POLICE TWO DAYS IN ADVANCE OF A MEETING, WITH A COPY OF THE AGENDA.
-- MANY UNIONS DO NOT HAVE UNION HALLS. IT IS NOT CLEAR FROM PRESENT INSTRUCTIONS WHETHER THEY WILL BE FREE TO MEET IN OTHER LOCALES OF THEIR CHOOSING.
-- SOME LONG-ESTABLISHED FEDERATIONS HAVE NEVER ACQUIRED FORMAL LEGAL RECOGNITION. ARE THEY INCLUDED IN GOC AUTHORIZATION TO HOLD MEETINGS?

LABOR MINISTER PINERA HAS SAID PRIVATELY THAT THE NEW RULE GRANTS UNRESTRICTED FREEDOM OF TRADE UNIONS TO MEET WITHOUT

PRIOR NOTIFICATION OR PERMISSION ALTHOUGH HE RECOGNIZED THAT THERE WAS A PROBLEM CONCERNING UNIONS NOT HAVING UNION HALLS. PINERA NOTED THAT THIS PROBLEM COULD BE WORKED OUT. LABOR MINISTER PINERA HASSACKNOWLEDGE PUBLICLY THAT DECREE LAW 198 CONTINUES IN FORCE BUT TOLD GROUP OF TEN LEADER EDUARDO RIOS JANUARY 3 THAT HE WOULD TRY TO GET ARTICLE 4 REPEALED OR MODIFIED IN THE NEAR FUTURE. HOWEVER HE DOES NOT SEE IT RESTRICTING THE ABILITY OF UNIONS TO MEET FREELY.

4. (U) TRADE UNION ELECTIONS: THE LABOR PLAN FOR THE FIRST TIME SETS A DEADLINE FOR PERMANENT LEGISLATION GOVERNING TRADE UNION ELECTIONS -- JUNE 30. THE PLAN WILL ALSO PERMIT UNIONS ON A ONE-TIME BASIS TO RECALL LEADERS ELECTED UNDER THE OCTOBER 31, 1978 ELECTION. PINERA PROMISED THAT THE NEW ELECTION LAW WILL NOT HOLD PREVIOUS POLITICAL ACTIVITY AS DISQUALIFYING BUT WILL MAKE HOLDING OF UNION OFFICE INCOMPATIBLE WITH POLITICAL POSITIONS. TRADE UNIONISTS ARE CONCERNED THAT:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ UNCLASSIFIED
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

-- FORMER TRADE UNION LEADERS REPLACED IN THE OCTOBER 31 ELECTIONS MAY BE FIRED BY THEIR EMPLOYERS SO THAT THEY CANNOT BE CANDIDATES FOR FUTURE TRADE UNION OFFICE -- SINCE THEIR SIX-MONTH GUARANTEED TENURE ("FUERO") WILL HAVE RUN OUT IN MAY.
-- COLLECTIVE BARGAINING SEEMS LIKELY TO BEGIN BEFORE FREE ELECTIONS ARE RESTORED. MOST LEADERS BELIEVE IT IMPORTANT THAT UNIONS GO INTO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WITH FREELY, AND RECENTLY, ELECTED LEADERSHIP.

-- THE LABOR PLAN SEEMS TO INDICATE THAT EXISTING UNION CONSTITUTIONS AND BY-LAWS MAY NOT BE RESPECTED IN SO FAR AS TRADE UNIONS WILL BE PERMITTED ONLY ONE RECALL ELECTION WITHIN A PRESCRIBED FOUR-YEAR TERM OF OFFICE.
-- PINERA HAS TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE RECALL ELECTIONS FOR LEADERS ELECTED THIS PAST OCTOBER 31 MAY NOT BE HELD UNTIL SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER OF THIS YEAR, TO GIVE THE NEW LEADERS TIME TO PROVE THEMSELVES. THIS POSSIBLE DELAY BEYOND THE JUNE 30 DATE, AS WELL AS THE OTHER POINTS ABOVE, INCREASES SOME LEADERS' SUSPICIONS OF GOC INTENTIONS.

TO EMBASSY OFFICERS AND AIFLD REP PINERA HAS SAID THAT THE SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER SUGGESTION FOR RECALL ELECTIONS WAS NOT GOVERNMENT POLICY AND THAT ELECTIONS CAN BE HELD IMMEDIATELY

AFTER JUNE 30 IF UNIONS SO DESIRE.

5. (U) STRIKES: THE NEW LABOR PLAN RECOGNIZES THAT STRIKES MAY BE NECESSARY TO RESOLVE LABOR DISPUTES WHEN OTHER MECHANISMS FAIL. HOWEVER, THE LABOR MINISTER SAID THAT LOCK OUTS OR STRIKES ARE A FACT BUT NOT NECESSARILY A RIGHT. IN ANY CASE THEY ARE UNACCEPTABLE WHEN INJURIOUS TO PUBLIC HEALTH, THE ECONOMY, FOOD SUPPLIES OR NATIONAL SECURITY. WORKERS AT STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS WOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO STRIKE, ALTHOUGH SOME FORM OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL BE CONCEDED WHICH WILL INCLUDE COMPULSORY ARBITRATION. CIVIL SERVICE EMPLOYEES WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO STRIKE OR BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY. UNION LEADERS SAY THAT THEIR ABILITY TO STRIKE FOR ECONOMIC REASONS WILL BE SO LIMITED AS TO MAKE IT ALMOST MEANINGLESS. SOME LEADERS NOTE THAT THE FINAL ARBITER IN DECIDING WHETHER A STRIKE DAMAGES THE ECONOMY OR NATIONAL SECURITY OF THE NATION WILL BE THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF.

6. (U) COLLECTIVE BARGAINING: THE NEW LABOR PLAN CALLS FOR A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW PRIOR TO THE JUNE 30 DEADLINE SET FOR OTHER LABOR LEGISLATION. THE NEW COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW WILL CONTAIN AMPLE PROVISIONS FOR DISPUTE SETTLEMENT INCLUDING CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION FOR MOST CONTRACTS. THE TRADE UNIONISTS

STATE THAT UNIONS PREDOMINANTLY COMPOSED OF SMALL SHOPS, IN SUCH INDUSTRIES AS RETAIL SALES, SMALL AGRICULTURAL FARMS AND TRANSPORTATION WILL BE EXCLUDED FROM COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. FEDERATION LEADERS ARE CONCERNED THAT NO CLEAR ROLE HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED FOR THEM IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. PINERA HAS SAID THAT, WHERE NEEDED, SECTOR BARGAINING WILL BE CONSIDERED.

7. (U) DUES CHECKOFFS: MOST LOCAL UNIONS HAVE VERY LIMITED RESOURCES. UNION LEADERS SAY THAT UNLESS DUES CHECKOFFS FOR FEDERATIONS IS PROMPTLY RESTORED MOST FEDERATIONS WILL NOT SURVIVE UNTIL THE LABOR PLAN IS PUBLISHED AROUND JUNE 30. WITHOUT

THE ECONOMIC POWER OF THE TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS MOST LOCAL UNIONS WILL NOT BE ABLE TO OBTAIN THE ECONOMIC, LEGAL AND TECHNICAL ADVICE THEY BELIEVE NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH BUSINESS IN THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS. PINERA HAS SAID HE WILL CONSIDER THIS PROBLEM ON AN URGENT BASIS, SUGGESTING MOVEMENT TO RESTORE DUES CHECKOFFS BY LATE JANUARY OR FEBRUARY AS THE RESULT OF REFERENDA IN THE UNIONS AFFECTED.

8. (U) TRADE UNION TENURE (FUERO SINDICAL): PINERA SAID THAT FUTURE LEGISLATION WILL RESPECT THIS TRADITIONAL PROTECTION FOR TRADE UNION LEADERS. THE DECREES OF OCTOBER HAD LEFT THE ISSUE IN DOUBT. THERE HAS BEEN NO LABOR LEADER CRITICISM.

9. (C) COMMENT: AFTER YEARS OF FALSE HOPES AND WHAT THEY VIEW AS BROKEN PROMISES, THERE IS LITTLE DISPOSITION ON THE PART OF DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS TO TRUST IN THE GOOD INTENTIONS OF PINERA AND THOSE ABOVE HIM. AT A MINIMUM, THEY WOULD LIKE TO SEE IMMEDIATE ACTION TO REPEAL ARTICLE 4 OF DECREE LAW 198 AND TO REESTABLISH AUTOMATIC DUES CHECK-OFFS FOR FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS. THEY WOULD LIKE TO KEEP THE BOYCOTT THREAT IMMINENT IN ORDER TO ENCOURAGE SUCH ACTION. AT THE SAME TIME, THEY RECOGNIZE THAT THEY ARE IN A COMPLEX AND DELICATE BARGAINING SITUATION. THEY KNOW THAT HARDLINERS IN THE GOC WILL JUMP ON AN OVERLY NEGATIVE REACTION TO THE LABOR PLAN AS PROOF THAT DEMOCRATIC LABOR LEADERS ARE IRRECONCILABLE AND CAN ONLY BE CONTAINED BY REVERTING TO AN OPENLY ANTAGONISTIC POSTURE. THEY APPRECIATE THE CONFLICTING POLITICAL PRESSURES IMPINGING UPON THE AFL-CIO AND ORIT IN ANY DECISION WHETHER TO MAINTAIN THE BOYCOTT THREAT.

10. (C) IN THE EMBASSY'S VIEW THE LABOR PLAN REPRESENTS A PRELIMINARY BUT POTENTIALLY SIGNIFICANT CHANGE IN THE GOC'S APPROACH TO LABOR MATTERS. PINERA AND THE REST OF THE ECONOMIC TEAM HAVE COMMITTED THEIR PRESTIGE TO CARRYING IT OUT. IT COULD MARK THE START OF A REORIENTATION OF GOC THINKING AWAY FROM PREOCCUPATION WITH THE POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS OF TRADE UNION ACTIVITY TOWARD

THE ECONOMIC ASPECTS -- THE BENEFIT OF DEMOCRATIC TRADE LEADERS.
CONFIDENTIAL

11. (C) PINERA HAS ALREADY MET WITH GROUP OF TEN LEADER EDUARDO RIOS; WITH FEDERICO MUJICA AND OTHER PRIVATE EMPLOYEES CONFEDERATION (CEPCH) LEADERS; AND WITH TUCAPEL JIMENEZ AND HERNOL FLORES OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES (ANEF). A MEETING WITH GROUP OF TEN LEADERS IS SCHEDULED FOR NEXT WEEK. THE PUBLIC STATEMENTS OF DEMOCRATIC LEADERS FOLLOWING THESE MEETINGS HAVE NOT BEEN VERY ENCOURAGING, IN KEEPING WITH A TYPICAL TRADE UNION BARGAINING POSTURE, BUT THE VERY FACT THAT PINERA, UNLIKE PREVIOUS LABOR MINISTERS, IS MEETING WITH THEM IS, IN OUR VIEW, IMPORTANT.

12. (C) THE USG HAS CAREFULLY AVOIDED TAKING A POSITION ON THE ORIT BOYCOTT SO FAR AND WE THINK WE SHOULD MAINTAIN THAT POSTURE. IT IS BASICALLY AN ISSUE FOR THE AFL-CIO AND ORIT TO DECIDE. WHILE WE ARE HOPEFUL OF THE GOOD INTENTIONS OF PINERA AND OTHERS, THERE ARE STILL ENOUGH UNCERTAINTIES TO MAKE ANY FORMAL STATEMENT A RISKY PROPOSITION AT THIS TIME.

January 8, 1979

Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of December 7 in which you urged that we support the continuance of the United Nation's Ad Hoc Working Group on the Situation on Human Rights in Chile.

The debate on the question of human rights in Chile was recently concluded in the Third Committee of the UN General Assembly. The Committee approved by a vote of 87 to 8, with 34 abstentions, a draft resolution sponsored by Sweden. The United States, as well as all other Western delegations, voted in favor of the resolution. The resolution emphasized the conclusions of the Ad Hoc Working Group that violations, often of a grave nature, continue to take place in Chile and called upon the Chilean authorities to take a number of specific measures. I enclose a copy of the resolution.

The resolution also invites the Commission on Human Rights, in consultation with the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Working Group, to appoint from among the Group's members a "Special Rapporteur" on the human rights situation in Chile. The Special Rapporteur is to serve as a substitute for the Ad Hoc Working Group. The resolution provides further that the Commission on Human Rights should formulate the Special Rapporteur's mandate on the basis of the 1975 resolution which established the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group itself.

John L. Burton,

UNCLASSIFIED

The substitution of the Special Rapporteur was specifically recommended by the Ad Hoc Working Group. The Group reasoned that in view of its successful visit to Chile earlier this year, its original mandate had been substantially fulfilled. In the Group's view, which we shared, a less complicated mechanism to assure continued UN monitoring of the situation seemed timely and appropriate.

The Ad Hoc Working Group will make its final report to the next session of the Commission on Human Rights, which is scheduled to meet in February-March 1979. We expect the Commission to choose the Special Rapporteur at that time. The United States, as a member of the Commission, will support this course.

I can assure you that the United States Government strongly supports continued United Nations attention to the human rights situation in Chile. We are confident that a Special Rapporteur can be an effective successor to the Ad Hoc Working Group and that vigorous efforts through the United Nations in behalf of the full restoration of human rights in Chile will continue.

Sincerely,

Warren

Dear Cy:

Thank you for your letter of January 4 concerning Daniel Palma. It does indeed answer my letter of July 26, another copy of which is enclosed for your information.

I had not been aware that the problem was quite so widespread but I must agree that I do not see what else could be done. In any event, I appreciate hearing from you.

With all best wishes.

SUBJECT : Maggio Letter on Argentine Navy Mechanics School Detention Facility

REF : (A) Buenos Aires 3244 dtd 4/27/78;
(B) Buenos Aires 3489 dtd 5/5/78

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: New evidence that Horacio Maggio was a trusty at the Navy Mechanics School has led us to review the allegations he made in letters (see attachments) sent last April that Ambassador Hidalgo Sola, the French nuns, Dagmar Hagelin and other notable prisoners had been held and tortured there. If this could be established then at least a few of Argentina's disappearance mysteries could be resolved. But we cannot rule out the possibility that Maggio used his knowledge of the school and its activities to concoct a dramatic tale about his former captors. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

In April 1978, this Embassy, a number of other foreign missions and international news agencies received handwritten letters and detailed drawings from a Horacio Maggio reporting that the Officer's Club at the Argentine Navy's Mechanics School was being used as a clandestine detention and interrogation facility. We believe letters were also sent to Church authorities. (See reftel A.) Maggio met with a foreign correspondent in late April and personally provided more details of the Mechanics School's interrogation facility, in an attempt to substantiate his assertions.

Summaries of the Maggio report were published in Paris in "Le Monde" and in late 1978 in the Spanish news magazine, "Cambio-16."

Three explanations were put forward regarding the Maggio letter: first, that it was an Army "black propaganda" effort (this was the Navy explanation); second, that it was a Montonero invention to discredit the Navy; and third, that the document was in fact genuine.

We treated the document at arm's length because of Maggio's weak story of how he escaped from the Navy. (He said he jumped out of the back of a truck while being moved.) We recently learned however that Mr. Maggio was in fact a trusty who had limited visiting rights with his family, and escaped during a visit at his family's home. We also heard from a source at another embassy that Mr. Maggio had been recaptured and killed by Navy Intelligence. We received in October a letter from Mrs. Maggio requesting our help in locating her husband who had disappeared for a second time--which supports the report of Maggio's demise.

Embassy Comment: The Maggio drawings and description of the operations within the Mechanics School Officer's Club appear to reflect inside knowledge. Many of the procedural details regarding the operations in his report are corroborated by other sources. We have not however been able to confirm that the individuals named by Maggio were in fact prisoners at the Mechanics School. We are seeking to do so, since this would clear up at least a few of Argentina's extant mysteries. At the same time we cannot rule out Maggio's having used his intimate knowledge of the Navy's interrogation facility as a frame upon which to build a lurid case against his former captors.

MEMORANDUM

BW0002

TO: Chief, A/SY/OPS/FO

FROM: RSO - J.J. Blystone - Buenos Aires

SUBJECT: Monthly Status Report for December, 1978

1. Threat Assessment

A. At the end of 1978, RSO met with members of the Security Service to discuss past events of the year and to theorize as to what events could be expected in 1979 regarding terrorist activities.

The following points were brought out during the conversation:

Argentina is divided into military zones. Zones are under the control of the Army Corps within that zone. All operations against subversives which are carried out by members of the various security and military services within a zone must be approved by the commander of the Army Corps within the Zone where the operation is to take place. In spite of this, many operations are conducted without permission; further, there is very poor coordination and exchange of information among the security and military services regarding operations being planned or conducted.

The five military zones are described as follows:

Zone One - Under the control of the First Army Corps. Zone One surrounds the Province of Buenos Aires, except the suburbs of Buenos Aires, the Federal Capital, and the Province of La Pampa, up to the Rio Colorado river. (Note: a "Province" is similar to our state, as in "State of Illinois").

Zone Two - Under the control of the Second Army Corps. Zone Two includes the Provinces of Santa Fe, Entre Rios, Corrientes, Misiones, Chaco, and Formosa.

Zone Three - Under the control of the Third Army Corps. Zone Three includes the Provinces of Jujuy, Salta, Santiago de Estero, Tucuman, Catamaica, La Rioja, Cordoba, San Juan, San Luis and Mendoza.

Zone Four - Under the control of the Military Institute. Campo de Mayo area, located outside of Buenos Aires. Zone Four also controls the suburbs of Buenos Aires, which are Vicente Lopez, San Isidro, San Fernando, Tigre, Exaltacion de la Cruz, Escobar, Zarate, Campana, San Martin, 3 de Febrero, General Sarmiento, and Del Viso y Pilar.

Zone Five - Under the control of the Fifth Army Corps. Zone Five incluues the provinces of Rio Negro, Neuquen, Chubute, and Santa Cruz.

Sources provided the following manpower resources of terrorist organizations remaining in the country and of those now in exile. The figures provided are approximate, with each figure being off anywhere from 3 to 7 points. The security sources did not wish to provide exact totals as the information is considered highly classified by the GOA.

OCPA - Terrorist organization, Communist Labor Power Organization (rough translation). Security forces estimate that 20 leaders now reside in exile. In-country members are located in the following zones: Zone 1 - 17 members; Zone 2 - 4 members; Zones 3, 4, and 5 - 0 members. Total: 21 members in-country. Security forces consider OCPA to be of no danger, as the organization exists in name only. Members are unable to communicate with each other, have no weapons, no explosives, no safe house, and no money, and no leadership.

[redacted]

(RDS-1 (Chaplin, Maxwell) OR/A)

Security force members believe that in the future, the OCPA could possibly produce pamphlets for propoganda purposes; however, the likelihood is remote for reasons outlined above.

PRT/ERP - This terrorist organization is estimated by security forces to have a maximum of 90 members residing in exile. This number represents the leadership of the organization with members located in Italy and France.

Sources indicated that approximately 138 PRT/ERP members remain in Argentina and are situated in the following zones: Zone 1 - 86; Zone 2 - 24; Zone 3 - 8; Zone 4 - 18, and Zone 5 - 2. Sources advised that the last PRT/ERP terrorist act was committed in May, 1978, when a vehicle with explosives exploded in the garage of the San Martin theater.

The PRT/ERP members in exile have joined the 4th International Organization (an organization which supposedly follows the Trotsky line) in France and have changed their organizational policy from violent revolution to one of achieving power through the use of political means. Sources advised the change is a result of losses in membership and equipment in fighting GOA military and security forces. The new Secretary General and leader of the PRT/ERP, Arnoldo Khremer has decided to use political means to gain support and aid for the PRT/ERP movement, i.e. support for the local unions, by distributing pamphlets, supporting wage increases, etc. PRT/ERP hopes that by using political means they will be able to recoup the support of the populace. Our source advised that PRT/ERP has not forsaken the idea of violence to obtain power, that the PRT/ERP still has in Argentina limited quantities of small arms, i.e. pistols, revolvers, and shotguns, and a small amount of explosives. However, sources stated that the movement has limited funds which are being utilized by the leadership in Europe to produce propoganda and are unable to provide financial backing to the remaining elements in Argentina.

[redacted]
(RDS-1 (Chaplin, Maxwell) OR/A)

Sources added that they have broken the movement's lines of communication and that the movement no longer has any safe houses remaining in the country.

Security sources advised that due to their efforts to eliminate PRT/ERP members, the remaining members in country are in hiding or trying to leave. Further, the movement lacks leadership for any future terrorist activity. Sources admitted that there exists a possibility in the coming year that a member or members of the movement could plan some type of terrorist act, but that it would most likely be a bombing of a GOA installation. However, the general concurrence of the security forces is that the movement would distribute pamphlets.

Montoneros - This terrorist movement is estimated by security forces to have a maximum of 200 members residing in exile. This number represents members of the Montonero leadership located in Italy, France and Mexico City. Sources advised that approximately 245 members of the Montonero movement remain in Argentina and are located in the following zones: Zone 1 - maximum 90 members; Zone 2 - maximum 25 members; Zone 3 - maximum 50 members; Zone 4 - maximum 8 members, and Zone 5 - maximum 0 members.

Sources stated that the Secretariat for International Relations of the movement has changed the movement's political structure and renamed the movement "The Peronist/Montonero Movement." The Montoneros believe that by changing the name to include the Peronists, the movement will gain the support of the Peronists and be identified with the Peronist movement in Argentina.

[redacted]

(RDS-1 (Chaplin, Maxwell) OR/A)

Security forces advised that the Montoneros in-country no longer have any safe houses, are unable to recruit new members, are not receiving money from the leadership in exile, lack leadership, have no line of communication, and have limited quantities of weapons (small arms, pistols, revolvers, and shotguns).

Sources advise that terrorist acts resulting from bombings are still possible; however, they found and destroyed three months ago the last Montonero explosive factory manufacturing "Exogeno", which sources advise is a plastic explosive. (Note: Argentina military and security forces have PRT/ERP and Montonero terrorists in their service providing information. Further, the services are using terrorists to point out individuals they have seen but do not know by name as members of the movement or movement sympathizers. This is being accomplished by having the PRT/ERP and Montoneros accompany security members in unmarked vehicles which traverse the city and areas which members or sympathizers are suspected to be located. Sources advised that both systems used have been highly effective, and will continue until the terrorists have been eliminated.)

The RSO was able very briefly to view statistical graphs compiled by GOA security services indicating the numbers of violent acts committed in the years 1977 and 1978 by terrorist and GOA forces while a security member read to the RSO from these graphs. Source provided the following statistical data to RSO:

Violent Acts Committed in 1977

Montoneros - 700
PRT/ERP - 130

One figure which sources did not provide which the RSO was able to see was that GOA forces committed 1,576 violent acts in 1977.

[redacted]

(RDS-1 (Chaplin, Maxwell) OR/A)

Violent Acts Committed in 1978

Montoneros	-	343
PRT/ERP	-	45
Others	-	3

Again, the RSO was able to see that GOA forces committed 696 violent acts during 1978.

Another statistical graph compiled by GOA security forces showed by month the number of bombing acts committed by Montonero and PRT/ERP groups, which are indicated below:

1978 Acts of Bombings

	Montenero	PRT/ERP
Jan	2	-
Feb	4	5
Mar	1	-
Apr	-	-
May	-	1
Jun	1	-
Jul	-	-
Aug	1	-
Sep	1	-

The graph also indicated a high number of bombings had been carried out by GOA forces. The RSO is unable to provide figures as the graph was held by source, who read above figures to RSO.

[redacted]

(RDS-1 (Chaplin, Maxwell) OR/A)

Other graphs which the RSO viewed very briefly indicate the following:

During 1978, PRT/ERP did not conduct any armed attacks; however, the Monteneros conducted 15.

The graph indicated attacks by GOA forces were much higher than the terrorists.

Propoganda action: The PRT/ERP conducted 27 acts involving the use of propoganda in 1978. The Montoneros conducted 207 actions involving the use of propoganda. The graph indicated that the GOA forces used a great deal of propoganda, as the graph showed GOA use to be greater than that of the terrorist groups.

Actions involving stealing of weapons or vehicles in 1978. PRT/ERP conducted one action in January, 1978. The Montoneros conducted 10 actions between the period of January and May, 1978, only. They conducted no actions during the period May to December, 1978.

Kidnappings. PRT/ERP conducted no kidnappings in 1978. The Monteneros conducted two, in January only. The graph indicated that the GOA was more active.

Acts of Intimidation. PRT/ERP conducted 10 acts of intimidation. The Montoneros conducted 20. Acts of intimidation were committed between May and June, and October and November. The graph indicates that GOA forces' acts of intimidation were greater in number than those of the terrorists.

Montevideo

No change from the October report.

Dear Senator Cranston:

Thank you for your inquiry of December 27 on behalf of [redacted] who is concerned about the welfare of Cesar Domingo Cerda Cuevas in Chile.

We know that Mr. Cerda Cuevas is [redacted] not listed as "disappeared", but, unfortunately, we have no concrete information to add. We appreciate your sentiments and efforts to learn more about the circumstances surrounding this disappearance.

We are deeply concerned about disappearances, detainees, and other human rights cases in Chile. Part of our effort to influence the GOC on human rights policies has been the termination of military and economic aid to Chile. We will continue to express our concern at every opportunity to the Chilean authorities, and we will do all we can to elicit a more thorough accounting of such cases.

EXILES HAS APPEARANCEOF INCONSISTENCY AND ARBITRARINESS. IT HAS, FOR EXAMPLE, PERMITTED ISABEL LETELIER, ONE OF THE MOST PUBLICLY ACTIVE AND VEHEMENT ENEMIES OF THE REGIME, TO VISIT, BUT HAS REPORTEDLY REFUSED SIMILAR PERMISSION TO ANGELABACHELET, WIDOW OF AIR FORCE GENERAL BACHELET, AND JOSE ZALEQUETT, AN EXILED ATTORNEY RESIDING IN WASHINGTON.

4. THEREFORE, UNLESS HE PERCEIVES REASON FOR OBJECTION, AMBASSADOR SHOULD TAKE APPROPRIATE OPPORTUNITY TO RAISE MATTER WITH FOREIGN MINISTER AND URGE THAT GOC MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO TREAT REQUESTS FOR RETURN OF EXILES, ESPECIALLY FOR EMERGENCY VISITS, WITH GREATER GENEROSITY.

IN CHILE, THE OPPOSING SIDES RESPECTIVELY DESCRIBE THE EVIDENCE GATHERED SO FAR IN THE EXTRADITION CASE AS "WORTHLESS" OR "OVERWHELMING". SPECULATION OVER THE ROLE AND IDENTITY OF LILIANA WALKER CONTINUES, AND THE PRESS IS PRESSING TO LEARN IF AMBASSADOR LANDAU WILL TESTIFY IN WASHINGTON. COLONEL ESPINOZA RECEIVED PERMISSION TO ATTEND THE PUNTA ARENAS CHANGE OF COMMAND CEREMONY. END SUMMARY.

3. LAWYERS FOR THE THREE CHILEAN OFFICERS WHOSE EXTRADITION WE SEEK REACTED TO THE STATEMENTS OF TWO FBI SPECIAL AGENTS IN TOWN LAST WEEKEND. WHILE SCHERRER, CORNICK AND OUR LAWYER ETCHEBERRY FOUND THE USG EVIDENCE OVERWHELMING, THE DEFENSE CHARACTERIZED IT AS "SCANTY", "POOR QUALITY" AND, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF TOWNLEY'S DECLARATION, "MUSH". THEY HAD ALREADY WRITTEN OFF TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY AS FROM A MAN DESPERATE TO SAVE HIS SKIN.

4. A SIDESHOW HAD DEVELOPED REGARDING THE UNIDENTIFIED WOMAN WHO ACCOMPANIED FERNANDEZ TO THE U.S. IN AUGUST/SEPTEMBER '76. AS REPORTED, WHEN PRESSED, THE SPECIAL AGENTS HAD REMARKED THEIR SURPRISE THAT "LILIANA WALKER" HAD NOT YET APPEARED. THEY SUGGESTED THAT SHW MIGHT HAVE IMPORTANT INFORMATION. ETCHEBERRY, MEANWHILE, HAS BEEN TELLING THE MEDIA THAT WALKER IS A SECONDARY FIGURE WHO MAY NOT BE DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE CASE. HE CAREFULLY REFUSED TO SPECULATE ABOUT A POSSIBLE REQUEST FOR EXTRADITION SHOULD SHE STEP FORWARD. IN RESPONSE TO A PRESS QUERY, THE CHIEF OF THE PLAINCLOTHED FORCE SAID THATHE HAD RECEIVED NO REQUEST TO LOOK FOR WALKER AND WOULD ONLY DO SO IF FORMALLY ASKED BY APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY.

E. O. 12065: N/A
TAGS: OR-P, PGOV, SHUM, CI
SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE: NEWSWEEKLY ALLEGEDLY SUMMARIZES STATEMENTS BY CHILEAN OFFICERS

1. SUMMARY: A GENERALLY INDEPENDENT BUT MOST PRO-GOC NEWSWEEKLY HAS PUBLISHED WHAT PURPORTS TO BE SUMMARIES OF THE TESTIMONY PROVIDED BY TOWNLEY IN THE U.S. AND CHILEAN OFFICERS CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA AND FERNANDEZ IN CHILE. USG-RETAINED LAWYER ALFREDO ETCHEBERRY HAS TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE ACCOUNTS APPEAR GENERALLY ACCURATE AND INTIMATED THAT THEY MAY HAVE BEEN LEAKED BY TOWNLEY'S TALKATIVE WIFE, MARIANA. THE SAME ISSUE OF "QUE PASA" ALSO CONTAINED WHAT WAS DESCRIBED AS THE FIRST INSTALLMENT OF AN ACCOUNT OF TOWNLEY'S WORK FOR DINA, WRITTEN BY MRS. TOWNLY. END SUMMARY.

2. ISSUE 404 OF "QUE PASA", A NEWSWEEKLY MANAGED BY HERNAN CUBILLOS UNTIL HE ACCEPTED APPOINTMENT AS FOREIGN MINISTER IN APRIL 1978, HAS PRINTED THE MOST COMPREHENSIVE ACCOUNT OF THE ALLEGED STORIES TOLD BY FOUR PRINCIPAL ACTORS IN THE LETELIER/ MOFFITT CASE. MUCH OF THE INFORMATION IT ATTRIBUTES TO TOWNLEY HAD ALREADY BEEN REPORTED IN GENERAL TERMS. THE ALLEGED ACCOUNTS

OF THE CHILEAN OFFICERS HAD NOT APPEARED PREVIOUSLY.

3. WHEN QUESTIONED ABOUT THE FOUR ACCOUNTS, USG LAWYER ETCHEBERRY TOLD THE PRESS THAT THEY CONTAINED MINOR ERRORS BUT GENERALLY SEEMED ACCURATE. ETCHEBERRY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT HE HAD SENT COPIES OF THE EXTRADITION CASE STATEMENTS TAKEN BY BORQUEZ TO EUGENE PROPPER, THE USG PROSECUTOR. HE SPECULATED THAT POPPER

HAD SOUGHT TO CHECK THE CHILEAN OFFICERS' STATEMENTS WITH TOWNLEY AND THAT TOWNLEY HAD TOLD HIS WIFE WHO IN TURN HAD TOLD REPORTERS.

4. IN THE SAME ISSUE OF "QUE PASA" APPEARS THE FIRST INSTALLMENT F A MANUSCRIPT WRITTEN BY MARIANA CALLEJAS DE TOWNLEY. TRANSLATED IN SPANISH FROM THE ORIGINAL ENGLISH, THIS FIRST CHAPTER RECOUNTS HOW TOWNLEY BEGAN DRAWING AWAY FROM HER AS HE BECAME MORE ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN PROJECTS THAT TOOK HIM OUT OF THE COUNTRY. SHE AND TOWNLEY HAD FIRST MET THE CUBANS THROUGH A "YUGOSLAVIAN COLONEL" (MARIANA SAYS SHE IS USING ALIASES) WHO LINED THEM UP WITH A GROUP IN NEW JERSEY. SHE DESCRIBES A STORMY FIRST SESSION WHERE THE CUBANS WERE HARD TO CONVINCE THAT THE PAIR DID NOT WORK FOR THE CIA. ("QUE PASA"SAYS THIS MEETING OCCURRED IN 1975 WHEN TOWNLEY SOUGHT THEIR HELP IN AN ATTEMPT AGAINST UP FIGURES IN MEXICO. THE TARGETS HAD LEFT MEXICO BEFORE TOWNLEY GOT THERE).

5. MRS. TOWNLEY SAYS THAT HER HUSBAND ALWAYS WANTED A COMMISSION IN THE CHILEAN MILITARY BUT THAT SHE REALIZED HOW UNTRUSTWORTHY THAT INSTITUTION COULD BE. SHE WRITES THAT SHE WARNED TOWNLEY NOT TO DO ANYTHING IN THE U.S. SINCE THE FBI WOULD RUN HIM DOWN. SHE PROTRAYS HERSELF AS A VIRULENT ANTI-COMMUNIST BUT ONE WHO DETESTED SOME OF THE CUBANS FOR THEIR ANTI-SEMITIC AND FASCIST IDEAS. ON THE OTHER HAND SHE SAYS MOST OF THE CUBAN NATIONALISTS ARE FINE PEOPLE WHOSE RESORT TO VIOLENCE CAN BE JUSTIFIED BY THEIR FRUSTRATIONS AND REPEATED BETRAYALS.

6. COMMENT: "QUE PASA" HAS PRODUCED SOME OF THE BEST REPORTING ON THE LETELIER CASE. FROM THE DETAILED INFORMATION IN THE ARTICLE ONE MUST ASSUME THAT THE MAGAZINE HAS HAD ACCESS TO LARGE PARTS, IF NOT ALL, OF THE RECORD. IT SHOULD BE RECALLED THAT IN A CONTROVERSIAL RULING, JUDGE BORQUEZ DECIDED THAT THE EXTRADITION REQUEST AND RELATED DOCUMENTS WOULD REMAIN SECRET UNTIL HE HAD FINISHED THE INVESTIGATIVE PHASE. ON THE OTHER HAND, LAWYERS FOR THE DEFENSE AND FOR THE USG HAVE BEEN GIVEN ACCESS AND IT IS WIDELY RUMORED THAT THE JUDGE WILL CLOSE THE SECRET, INVESTIGATIVE PART OF THE PROCEEDING SOON. NONETHELESS, "QUE PASA" APPEARS TO HAVE A SCOOP.

1. (U) SUMMARY: CHILEAN NEWSPAPERS HEADLINED ORIT DECISION TO STUDY FURTHER THE QUESTION OF HOW TO RESPOND EFFECTIVELY TO THE NOVEMBER 26 ORIT BOYCOTT RESOLUTION AS A DECISION TO "SUSPEND INDEFINITELY" THE LABOR BOYCOTT AGAINST THE GOVERNMENTS OF CHILE, NICARAGUA AND CUBA. GOC LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA SAID THAT THE DECISION WAS BASED ON BETTER INFORMATION ABOUT THE LABOR SITUATION IN CHILE. HE RECOGNIZED THE POSITIVE INFLUENCE OF DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS IN PROVIDING ACCURATE INFORMATION TO ORIT. PINERA PLEDGED TO CONTINUE ACCELERATING THE LABOR PLAN THROUGH DIALOGUE WITH LABOR AND BUSINESS LEADERS. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) CHILEAN LABOR MINISTER PINERA MADE A FORMAL

STATEMENT TO THE PRESS JANUARY 16 THAT IF THE ORIT COMMUNIQUE MEANT AN INDEFINITE SUSPENSION OF THE BOYCOTT THEN HE WAS VERY HAPPY. PINERA CONTINUED THAT THE ORIT MOVE WAS BASED ON BETTER INFORMATION RECEIVED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR MOVEMENT AND UPON THE SUPPORT FOR THE LABOR PLAN FROM ALL SECTORS OF CHILEAN SOCIETY. PINERA PROMISED TO ACCELERATE COMPLETION OF THE PLAN IN CONFORMITY

WITH THE ECONOMIC PLAN AND A 1974 GOC DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES. HE PROMISED ALSO CONTINUED DIALOGUE WITH BUSINESS AND LABOR LEADERS CONCERNING DETAILS OF THE PLAN.

3. (U) GROUPS OF BUSINESS AND LABOR LEADERS PRAISED THE ORIT DECISION AS A "TRIUMPH OF REASON" AND AS INDICATING INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR THE PROMISES MADE IN THE LABOR PLAN. SOME NOTED THAT THE ORIT ANNOUNCEMENT ONLY POSTPONED A DECISION ON THE BOYCOTT AND URGED THE GOC TO COMPLETE THE LABOR PLAN AS ANNOUNCED BY THE LABOR MINISTER. GROUP OF TEN LEADERS WERE NOT INTERVIEWED.

4. (U) PINERA TOLD THE ECON COUNSELOR THAT HE WAS VERY SATISFIED WITH THE ROLE OF THE CHILEAN LABOR LEADERS INVITED TO THE ORIT MEETING. HE SAID THAT THEY ARGUED FOR POST-PONEMENT AND, WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE AFL-CIO, CARRIED THE DAY. HE HOPED THAT DIALOGUE WITH THESE LEADERS WOULD CONTINUE. PINERA ALSO NOTED TO THE PRESS, THAT HE WOULD MAINTAIN DIALOGUE WITH ALL LABOR AND BUSINESS GROUPS TO REFINE THE LABOR PLAN AND MAKE IT A SUCCESS. INTERIOR MINISZER SERGIO FERNANDEZ TOLD THE PRESS JANUARY 17 THAT HE TOO WAS SATISFIED WITH THE ORIT DECISION TO POSTPONE THE BOYCOTT. HE EXPLAINED THAT HIS STATEMENT THAT THE LABOR PLAN WOULD BE CARRIED OUT "INFLEXIBLY" WAS WIDELY MISUNDERSTOOD AND SAID THAT DECREE LAW 198 WHICH LIMITED TRADE UNIONS FREEDOMS "COULD BE MODIFIED".

5. (U) UNDER THE LABOR PLAN THE LABOR MINISTRY PUBLISHED A MINISTERIAL DECREE JANUARY 17 WHICH MAINTAINS IN OFFICE ALL PRIVATE SECTOR TRADE UNION OFFICERS WHOSE UNIONS DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE OCTOBER 31 OR NOVEMBER 28 ELECTIONS, FOR WHATEVER REASON, ON THE CONDTION THAT WITHIN 15 DAYS THEY SWEAR AN OATH NOT TO ENGAGE IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY, AS REQUIRED BY THE OCTOBER DECREES. THOSE PERSONS WHO DO NOT COMPLETE THIS REQUIREMENT WILL BE REPLACED ACCORDING TO THE NORMS ESTABLISHED IN DL 198, WHICH PERMIT THE LABOR MINISTRY TO APPOINT TRADE UNION LEADERS EITHER THROUGH A SYSTEM OF SENIORITY OR IN SPECIAL CASES AS DECIDED BY THE LABOR MINISTER. MARITIME AND COMMERDCIAL SECTOR WORKERS WILL BE MOST EFFECTED BY THIS DECREE.

6. (LOU) COMMENT: THE ORIT DECISION TO STUDY FURTHER THE PROBLEM CAUSED CONSIDERABLE RELIEF AMONG LARGE SECTORS OF CHILEAN PUBLIC OPINION. MANY RECOGNIZE THAT NOW, PROPERLY, THE FOCUS OF INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC CONCERN WILL BE ON IMPLEMENTATION OF TRADE UNION FREEDOMS THROUGH THE LABOR PLAN. THE INITIAL STATE-

MENTS BY INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ AND LABOR MINISTER PINERA IN THIS REGARD ARE ENCOURAGING. LESS "INFLEXIBILITY" AND MORE "DIALOGUE" WILL BE IMPORTANT BETWEEN NOW AND JUNE 30.

1. (L) SUMMARY: CHILEAN TRADE UNIONISTS REACTED CALMLY TO THE AMBIGUOUS JANUARY 16 ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE ORIT THAT ITS BOYCOTT NEEDED ADDITIONAL STUDY TO MAKE IT EFFECTIVE. THE "GROUP OF TEN", NO LONGER BEING REVILED AS "TRAITORS", HAVE FORMED THE COUNCIL OF DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONS, WHICH INCLUDES MANY OF THE FIFTY ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE SUPPORTED THEIR DEMANDS FOR GREATER UNION FREEDOM. THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS BELIEVE THAT THE ORIT DECISION WAS POSITIVE AND ARE OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE FUTURE. THEY HOPE THAT INCREASED DIRECT DIALOGUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT WILL OVERCOME THEIR CONTINUING DOUBTS ABOUT GOC WILLINGNESS TO RESTORE LABOR RIGHTS. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE THREE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION MOVEMENT, TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, PRESIDENT OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES UNION, ERNESTO VOGEL, PRESIDENT OF THE RAILWAY WORKERS AND HERNOL FLORES, PRESIDENT OF THE POST AND TELEGRAPH WORKERS RETURNED TO CHILE [redacted]

JANUARY 17, IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE JANUARY 16 DECISION BY THE INTERAMERICAN REGIONAL ORGANIZATION OF WORKERS (ORIT) TO STUDY FURTHER THE BOYCOTT RESOLUTION AGAINST CHILE, CUBA AND NICARAGUA. THE AMBIGUOUS STATEMENT CONFUSED MANY TRADE UNIONISTS AND ANGERED SOME: THE COMMUNIST DOMINATED COORDINADORA SINDICAL CONDEMNED THE ROLE OF THE THREE IN DELAYING AND PERHAPS AVOIDING

THE BOYCOTT. LABOR MINISTER PINERA, TO THE CONTRARY, SAID PUBLICLY THAT HE CONSIDERED THE TRIOS' INTERVENTION TO HAVE BEEN VERY POSITIVE. THEY MET FOR SEVERAL HOURS JANUARY 17-18 WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF ALMOST FIFTY TRADE UNIONS. AFTERWARDS DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS ISSUED A STATEMENT OF SUPPORT FOR THEIR EFFORTS, WHILE NOTING THAT THE ORIT DECISION WILL NOT MAKE DEMOCRATIC LABOR LESS FORTHRIGHT AND OUTSPOKEN IN DEFENDING LABOR RIGHTS -- I.E. TAKING ISSUE WITH THE PINERA PLAN AS DEEMED NECESSARY.

3. (U) THE "GROUP OF TEN" ISSUED A DECLARATION JANUARY 14 ANNOUNCING THE FORMATION OF A NEW COUNCIL OF DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONS WHICH WOULD INCLUDE ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE "GROUP OF TEN" AND THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONS WHICH HAVE SUPPORTED THEIR REQUEST FOR GREATER TRADE UNION FREEDOM. THE EXECUTIVE BOARD WILL BE COMPOSED OF EDUARDO RIOS (MARITIME), ANTONIO MIMIZA (PETROLEUM), HERNOL FLORES (POST AND TELEGRAPH), LUIS ALEGRIA (PLASTICS), TUCAPEL JIMENEZ (GOVERNMENT), ENRIQUE MELLARDO (CAMPESINO), CARLOS SANTA MARIA (SOCIAL SECURITY), AND ERNESTO VOGEL (RAILROAD).

4. (U) THE PRO-GOVERNMENT UNION OF CHILEAN WORKERS (UNTRACH) HELD A MEETING TO DISCUSS THE ORIT BOYCOTT DECISION. THE GROUP, HEADED BY GOVERNMENT-APPOINTED COPPER WORKER BERNARDINO CASTILLO, RATIFIED THE UNTRACH'S

THAT THEY BELIEVED THE RESULTS WERE VERY POSITIVE AND WERE OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE FUTURE OF LABOR RELATIONS IN CHILE. THE THREE NOTED THAT THE STRONG PRESS CAMPAIGN AGAINST AGAINST THEM BOTH IN CHILE AND THE UNITED STATES HAD DIMINISHED CONSIDERABLY. THEIR MAJOR CONCERN WAS WHETHER THE GOVERNMENT WOULD FULFILL THE PROMISES IT MADE TO PETER GRACE AND THE AFL-CIO AND CARRY OUT IN GOOD FAITH THE LABOR PLAN. THEY ADDED THAT THEY COULD BE INSTRUMENTAL IN ASSISTING THE GOVERNMENT IN SOLVING WORKERS' PROBLEMS BUT PREFERRED TO DO IT DIRECTLY AND NOT THROUGH U.S. CITIZEN INTERMEDIARIES. THE AMBASSADOR NOTED THAT THE PLAN LABORAL AND THE PROMISES MADE TO GRACE BOTH CONTAINED VERIFIABLE DATES, JUNE 30 AND FEBRUARY 15 RESPECTIVELY. HE ADDED THAT IT WAS UP TO THE "GROUP OF TEN" TO ESTABLISH PROMPTLY DIRECT COMMUNICATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT. SUBJECT: (C) HUMAN RIGHTS: W/W CHILEANS: MJNOZ AND ELGUETA

1. (C-ENTIRE TEXT).

2. SUMMARY: A NEARLY BLIND OLD LADY, ARMED ONLY WITH A TELEPHONE, HAS MOBILIZED AN INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO SAVE A DAUGHTER WHO HAS GONE UNDERGROUND IN CHILE. AMONG OTHER THINGS HER WELL-INTENTIONED EFFORTS MAY COST SEVERAL COSTA RICAN DIPLOMATS THEIR JOBS. END SUMMARY

3. MRS PINTO DE ELGUETA IS A HIGHLY EXCITABLE, NEARLY BLIND, ELDERLY WOMAN. HER HUSBAND, BELEMUNDO ELGUETA, IS AN EX-SOCIALIST CONGRESSMAN NOW IN EXILE IN MEXICO WHERE HE WORKS AS A SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE MINISTER OF DEVELOPMENT AND RESETTLEMENT. RAIMUNDO, A SON, IS EXILED IN LONDON GETTING GOOD GRADES AT A UNIVERSITY THERE. MARTIN, ANOTHER SON, IS AMONG THE DISAPPEARED. CHILEAN SECURITY SERVICES ARE INTENSIVELY SEARCHING FOR GLORIA, A DAUGHTER, AND HER BOYFRIEND GASTON MUNOZ BRIONES.

4. IN LATE NOVEMBER AND EARLY DECEMBER A SERIES OF BOMBINGS TOOK PLACE IN SANTIAGO, INCLUDING VERY

POWERFUL EXPLOSIONS FIRST AT THE HOUSE OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT BORQUEZ (WHO IS HANDLING THE LETELIER CASE EXTRADITION REQUEST) AND THEN AT THE HOUSE OF THE JUDGE NAMED TO INVESTIGATE THE BORQUEZ BOMBING. OTHER BOMBS, MUCH LESS POWERFUL, EXPLORED DURING THE NEXT FEW WEEKS. SECURITY SERVICES BEGAN TO LOOK SILLY, PARTICULARLY

AFTER THE SENIOR CARABINERO GENERAL FOR SANTIAGO, SACKED FOR NOT PROVIDING BORQUEZ ADEQUATE PROTECTION, IMPLIED THAT THE BOMBERS MUST HAVE CONNECTIONS IN THE SECURITY SERVICES THEMSELVES. (SEE SANTIAGO 9590).

5. CNI, THE INTELLIGENCE SERVICE WHICH REPLACED DINA, HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE DECEMBER 13 TO ANNOUNCE IT HAD CAPTURED A GROUP OF SEVEN PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR PLACING A BOMB AT A SHELL GAS STATION THE NIGHT OF DECEMBER 5/6. THE BOMB, A RATHER CRUDE LOOKING DEVICE, FAILED TO EXPLODE. THE PUBLIC PRESENTATION BY THE CNI WAS ALREADY A POSITIVE STEP, SHOWING A PUBLIC RELATIONS AWARENESS AND AN IMPRESSION OF OPENNESS FAR REMOVED FROM DINA'S DARK DOINGS.

6. ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF ADVANCE IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS FIELD OCCURRED WHEN THE MILITARY JUDGE, REVIEWING THE EVIDENCE, QUICKLY FREED SEVERAL OF THOSE DETAINED, KEPT ONLY ONE FOR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF EXPLOSIVES, AND TURNED THE REST OVER TO CIVIL COURTS FOR SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES. THE CIVILIAN JUDGE, IN TURN, RELEASED AT LEAST ONE OTHER PERSON AND DECIDED TO HOLD ONLY THREE PEOPLE.

7. THE CONFESSED BOMB-PLACER SAID GASTON MUNOZ HAD GIVEN HIM THE DEVICE. MUNOZ HAD BEEN DETAINED UNDER STATE OF SIEGE RULES (I.E. WITHOUT FORMAL CHARGE) AT THE TOUGH PUCHUNCAVI DETENTION CAMP UNTIL RELEASED IN LATE 1976. HE TOOK UP WITH GLORIA AND, SAYS MRS ELQUETA, CLAIMED HE WAS A SOCIOLOGIST WORKING AT FLACSO, AN INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL SCIENCE INSTITUTE IN SANTIAGO.

8. ACCORDING TO MRS ELQUETA, THREE MEN DEMANDED ENTRANCE TO HER APARTMENT THE MORNING OF DECEMBER 13. WHEN SHE INSISTED UPON A SEARCH WARRANT, TWO MEN FORCED THEIR WAY INSIDE AND KEPT HER SEATED. THE THIRD MAN REAPPEARED SHORTLY WITH A DULY SIGNED WARRANT--A NICE TOUCH OF LEGALITY VIRTUALLY UNKNOWN IN THE PAST. THE THREE, FINDING SOME INCRIMINATING PAPERS BUT NO TRACE OF GLORIA, DESCRIBED GRAPHICALLY TO MRS ELQUETA HOW SHE WOULD BE TREATED ONCE LOCATED.

9. THE FRANTIC LADY RUSHED TO THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY AND THEN TO EX-SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT EZYAGUIRRE (WHOM SHE HAD GOTTEN TO KNOW DURING HER EFFORTS ON BEHALF OF SON MARTIN). EZYAGUIRRE TOOK HER PROMPTLQ TO SEE BORQUEZ. HE CORDIALLY PROMISED TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO DETERMINE IF THE GIRL WAS ACTUALLY IN GOC HANDS AS MRS.

ELQUETA SUSPECTED. ARRANGEMENTS WERE ALSO MADE TO GET MRS ELQUETA A LONG-REQUESTED TELEPHONE IN CASE THE DAUGHTER TRIED TO GET IN TOUCH. THE PRESS CARRIED ACCOUNTS OF MRS ELQUETA'S CONCERNS. SUCH SOLICITOUS TREATMENT BY THE COURT AND THE PRESS IS ANOTHER HOPEFUL SIGN IN TODAY'S CHILE.

10. ON JANUARY 12, SEVERAL PEOPLE SOUGHT ASYLUM AT THE COSTA RICAN EMBASSY. TWO OF THEM WERE IDENTIFIED IN THE PRESS AS GLORIA AND GASTON. THE COSTA RICANS REFUSED ASYLUM AFTER EXTENDED TALKS. THE SENIOR COSTA RICAN SUBSEQUENTLY TOLD AN EMBOFF THAT HE COULD NOT BE CERTAIN OF THE IDENTITY OF THE PAIR BUT THAT HIS CHILEAN STAFF WAS POSITIVE.

11. ON JANUARY 15 CNI RELEASED PHOTOS OF GLORIA AND GASTON ALONG WITH THE REPORT THAT GASTON WAS ONE OF THE LAST MEMBERS OF THE MIR CELL RUN BY PASCAL ALLENDE AND MIGUEL ENRIQUEZ. MRS ELQUETA THEREUPON WENT TO CNI HEADQUARTERS WHERE, SHE SAYS, OFFICIALS COURTEOUSLY HEARD HER OUT BEFORE POLITELY EXPLAINING WHY THEY WANTED MUNOZ.

12. ON JANUARY 24 MRS ELQUETA CALLED AN EMBOFF SAYING THAT SEVERAL COSTA RICAN EMBASSY OFFICIALS HAD COME BY ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

TO ASSURE HER THAT THE PEOPLE THEY HAD TURNED AWAY WERE COMMON CRIMINALS, NOT GASTON AND GLORIA. MRS

ELQUETA SAID THE OFFICIALS WERE FRANTIC BECAUSE OF THE INTERNATIONAL OUTCRY BEING MOUNTED ON BEHALF OF HER DAUGHTER AND THE REBUKE THE DIPLOMATS RECEIVED FROM SAN JOSE. THEY NOW CLAIM THE VISITORS WERE JUST VISA APPLICANTS, WHO HAVE CONTINUED TO COMZ TO THE EMBASSY SINCE JANUARY 12.

13. DURING A CONVERSATION WITH A SENIOR VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY OFFICIAL JANUARY 25, EMBOFF LEARNED THAT MRS ELQUETA, ARMED WITH HER NEW TELEPHONE (AND GREATLY AIDED BY HER HUSBAND) HAD INDEED SET IN TRAIN A MAJOR CAMPAIGN. THE VICARIATE HAD BEEN DELUGED BY CABLES AND CALLS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE, MOSTLY FROM PEOPLE AND ORGANIZATIONS (INCLUDING AMNESTY) WHO BELIEVED THE PAIR WERE UNDER DETENTION, AND INQUIRIES FROM A NUMBER OF EMBASSIES INSTRUCTED TO EXPRESS CONCERN.

14. ACCORDING TO VICARIATE AND DIPLOMATIC SOURCES, GLORIA AND HER BOYFRIEND ARE UNDER GROUND. AT LEAST ONE SOURCE, WHO ALLEGES TO HAVE CONTACT WITH THE MOVEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY LEFT, (MIR, SAYS THAT THE PAIR DO NOT WANT TO LEAVE CHILE AND THAT THEY DID NOT, FACT, SEEK ASYLUM AT THE COSTA RICANS'.

15. COMMENT: SO FAR IN THIS UNFOLDING DRAMA WE FIND SEVERAL ENCOURAGING ASPECTS: THE COURTS AND PRESS ARE INCREASINGLY WILLING TO REPORT AND EXPLORE ACCUSATIONS OF DETENTIONS. THE TIGHTLY KNIT HUMAN RIGHTS "GRAPEVINE" CAN TRIGGER A RAPID, MASSIVE OUTPOURING OF CONCERN WHICH SHOULD GIVE PAUSE TO ANY GOVERNMENT TRYING TO HOLD A PERSON SECRETLY AND/OR ILLEGALLY. ALTHOUGH CNI

BEHAVIOR IN THIS CASE HAS BEEN MIXED (E.G. THOSE WHO SEARCHZD MRS ELQUETA'S WERE ON THIN LEGAL ICE, BUT AT LEAST THEY FINALLY PRODUCED A WARRANT), BUT, OVERALL, MORE OPEN THAN IN THE PAST.

16. THE HOME MADE BOMB MUNOZ GAVE OUT TO BE PLACED AT THE SHELL GAS STATION FAILED TO EXPLODE AND WAS DESIGNED AS A NOISE MAKER RATHER THAN TO INJURE (UNLIKE THE DEVICES AT THE JUDGES' HOUSES). BUT IT WAS A BOMB, AND MUNOZ DEFINITELY BELIEVES IN VIOLENCE. HE AND HIS GIRFRIEND ARE UNDENIABLY MEMBERS OF THE MOVEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR). THEIR ACTIONS WOULD VIOLATE THE LAW IN ANY WESTERN COUNTRY.

1. AMBASSADOR REQUESTED TO PASS FOLLOWING INFORMATION TO USG LAWYER ALFREDO ETCHEBERRY FOR USE IN EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS IN CHILE.

2. WHERE THE APPLICABLE TREATY SO PERMITS, THE U.S. DOES GRANT EXTRADITION OF ITS OWN CITIZENS. FOR EXAMPLE, SEE CHARLTON V. KELLY, 229 U.S. 447 (1912) IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT UPHELD THE EXTRADITION OF A U.S.

CITIZEN TO ITALY. THE COURT WROTE,

"THE CONCLUSION WE REACH IS, THAT THERE IS NO PRINCIPLE OF INTERNATIONAL LAW BY WHICH CITIZENS ARE EXCEPTED OUT OF AN AGREEMENT TO SURRENDER 'PERSONS,' WHERE NO SUCH EXCEPTION IS MADE IN THE TREATY ITSELF. UPON THE CONTRARY, THE WORD

'PERSONS' INCLUDES ALL PERSONS WHEN NOT QUALIFIED AS IT IS IN SOME OF THE TREATIES BETWEEN THIS AND OTHER NATIONS.

THAT THIS COUNTRY HAS MADE SUCH AN EXCEPTION IN SOME OF ITS CONVENTIONS AND NOT IN OTHERS, DEMONSTRATES THAT THE CONTRACTING PARTIES WERE FULLY AWARE OF THE CONSEQUENCES UNLESS THERE WAS A CLAUSE QUALIFYING THE WORD 'PERSONS.' THIS INTERPRETATION HAS BEEN CONSISTENTLY UPHELD BY THE UNITED STATES, AND ENFORCED UNDER THE SEVERAL TREATIES WHICH DO NOT EXEMPT CITIZENS..."

IT IS OUR UNDERSTANDING THAT CANADIAN COURTS HAVE TAKEN THE SAME VIEW. SEE RE BURLEY, 1 CANADIAN LAW JOURNAL 34 (1865).

3. CONCERNING EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE UNITED KINGDOM, THE APPLICABLE U.S./U.K. TREATY DOES NOT PERMIT THE REQUESTED STATE TO REFUSE A REQUEST FOR EXTRADITION ON THE BASIS OF CITIZENSHIP.

4. NOTE ALSO THE TEXT(QUOTED IN 6 WHITEMAN DIGEST OF INTERNATIONAL LAW 880-882) OF DIPLOMATIC NOTE NO. 202 FROM U.S. AMBASSADOR HILL TO MEXICAN ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER GOROSTIZA OF AUG. 22, 1960, WHICH READS IN PART:

CONSISTENT WITH THE LONG-STANDING POSITION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THE UNITED STATES HAS, IN ADDITION TO THE THREE UNITED STATES CITIZENS PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED, GRANTED THE EXTRADITION OF UNITED STATES CITIZENS OVER A PERIOD OF MANY YEARS. FOR INSTANCE, IN THE CASE OF REQUESTS FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES FOR THE EXTRADITION OF UNITED STATES CITIZENS CHARGED IN MEXICO WITH THE CRIME OF MURDER, THE RECORDS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE CLEARLY SHOW THAT AT LEAST THE FOLLOWING UNITED STATES CITIZENS WERE EXTRADITED TO MEXICO:

Supreme Court Decision in Smith III

Mignone enthusiastically read sections of the just-released Argentine Supreme Court Decision in the Smith III case. Mignone, one of the principal organizers of the Permanent Assembly-sponsored case, characterized the Supreme Court's decision as a direct admission by the Court that it was powerless under the present circumstances to protect the rights guaranteed to the Argentine citizenry by the Constitution. Mignone stated that his first reaction to the Supreme Court's decision was to call on the members of the Court to resign "en banc" to protest against the usurption of the judiciary's powers by the present government.

Operation Against "Casa de la Juventud" Members

Mignone reported that Father Herrera Gallo, the Catholic Church's "youth pastor" and a close friend of Cardinal Aramburu, informed him last week of Cardinal Aramburu's intervention with First Corps Commander Suarez Mason to obtain the release of 64 abducted former members of a Christian socialist youth organization called the "Casa de la Juventud." This Church-run recreation-social center, was organized and run by an activist priest in the early 70's. It was closed in 1974. In mid-December, 1978, a large-scale anti-subversive operation was run against the Casa de la Juventud's former members by the First Army Corps. Operatives called at the old addresses listed for the Casa's membership and in many cases pressured the parents and neighbors for the current address of the former Casa's members. Seventy persons were rounded up, including many couples who had met at the Casa and later married. In several cases, the apartment doors of those taken were closed with First Army Corps' seals.

Father Herrera Gallo had photo enlargements made of these seals. The priest then convinced Cardinal Aramburu to call on First Corps Commander Suarez Mason to present the photographs of the seals, and seek the release of the individuals. Suarez Mason admitted that the individuals had been picked up in a First Corps operation and promised to expedite their release.

Gallo told Mignone that as of the end of January 64 of the 70 individuals abducted had been freed. Cardinal Aramburu has ordered church members to maintain strict silence about the Army operation against the Casa de la Juventud and his intervention. The father said that the Casa members were tortured immediately after their "arrests" and were held blindfolded at a military facility which they believe was on the Campo de Mayo.

Father Gallo assured Mignone that the Casa de la Juventud had no connection with any subversive activities and expressed concern that the Army was now persecuting Church-related groups which they believe represented dangerous ideologies. The priest said that an Army contact had told him that the Church's intervention saved the group's members "from going to the farms (granjas) from where it is very hard to leave." Life on the granjas was described as "very difficult, as the farms are self-sufficient."

Father Herrera Gallo said that during Cardinal Aramburu's recent meeting with the President, General Videla told him that Videla hoped that before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights came to Argentina, perhaps in March, the government would have some significant information to release regarding the disappearance cases. Gallo noted that in contrast General Suarez Mason had adopted a very hardline attitude toward the "desaparecidos" during his meeting with Cardinal Aramburu.

Mignone, whose own daughter disappeared in May, 1976, was understandably interested in the report regarding the "work farms." Mignone noted that several long term reappearance cases reported that they had been held on work farms in the campo.

(COMMENT: The Nunciatura has received only a partial report of the disappearances of the former members of the Casa de la Juventud. We are checking further on Father Herrera Gallo's report. There have been several reports to human rights groups from long term "reaprecidos" that they were held on work farms in the interior of the country. END COMMENT)

Human Rights at Puebla

Mignone said that he had received a call from Mexico last night informing him that the delegation of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo had been received by the Puebla Conference President, Cardinal Aloisio Lorscheider. The mothers presented the Permanent Assembly's recently issued list of 4,382 disappearances and discussed the Argentine human rights situation with the Brazilian Cardinal. The Cardinal promised to inscribe the Argentine disappearances on the conference's agenda.

Mignone noted that the mothers' meeting with the cardinal was "providential." Doctora Westerkamp (she and her husband are both active in the Permanent Assembly) flew from Buenos Aires to Mexico on an Air France flight which stopped in Rio. Cardinal Lorscheider boarded the plane there and sat near her. She was able to have a long discussion with the Cardinal and interest him in the plight of the families of the desaparecidos in Argentina.

Operations Against the Partido Socialista de Trabajadores

Mignone stated that the Assembly has received nine reports of disappearances of members of the Partido Socialista de Trabajadores (PST) in January. Seven of the abductions took place in La Plata, the capital of Buenos Aires Province, and two abductions took place in Buenos Aires. Mignone described the PST as a party of Second Internacional ideologues who specifically rejected terrorism on doctrinal grounds as they believed that spontaneous uprisings of the masses are the "midwives of history," not individual terrorist acts. Mignone noted that the party had been prohibited and dissolved by law in 1976 and had ceased to function as an entity. Operations had been conducted against its members in 1976, but had been sporadic and rare in the last two years, until recently.

Human Rights Gains

Mignone said that although the government's policy of using "terrorist tactics" against subversives had not changed, 1978 had seen some gains for the human rights efforts in Argentina. The human rights organizations had obtained increased public acceptance. Families were becoming less suspicious about reporting disappearance cases to the Assembly. More old cases were being reported each day. New cases were being reported with less of a time lag. The Assembly's "La Prensa" advertisement in May 1978 listing over 2,500 "desaparecidos" had been perhaps the most significant event for the Assembly during the year. This event had sparked a more open attitude towards human rights among the Spanish-language press which now accepted human rights advertisements and published small stories regarding disappearances, legal decisions, and the activities of the human rights organizations. The Spanish-language press had recently begun to editorialize against the continuation of illegal anti-subversive operations. "La Prensa," "La Nacion," and "Clarin" had all editorially issued the call for the return to legal procedures.

Mignone said that the human rights organizations still had a long way to go. Debate for example within the Assembly, was characterized by fear of pushing the government too hard and provoking a counter reaction. He said that with the exception of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo, all the human rights groups in Argentina were extremely timid in pressuring the government for progress in the human rights area.

Military Reassignments

Mignone commented that, on balance, the recently announced military reassignments could be helpful for human rights in that some of the major hardliners had been removed from key troop command positions. Suarez Mason's leaving the First Corps, General Riveros' leaving the Campo de Mayo, and Admiral Chamarro's leaving the Navy Mechanics School, would all be helpful.

Mignone noted however, that the appointment of General Sasiain as the head of the Federal Police was a serious threat, especially if anti-subversive activities were transferred to the Federal Police. Mignone noted that General Sasiain was of Lebanese extraction. His sister and brother-in-law, General Caceres Monié, a former Army general and chief of the Federal Police in the Lanusse Administration, were both killed on their retirement chicken farm by Montoneros in Entre Rios Province in 1976. Mignone described Sasiain as an extremely bitter man whose Tenth Army Regiment in La Plata had run one of the severest anti-subversive campaigns in the country. The campaign was directed primarily against the leftist students and faculty of the formerly mammoth (200,000 students) University of La Plata.

More Floating Bodies

Mignone said that the Assembly had received several reports that the bodies of a man and a woman were found floating in the new port area of Buenos Aires on January 22 around 1:30 p.m. The bodies were reportedly in good condition. Both individuals had been shot in the head. Mignone said that the Assembly planned to make an inquiry to see if the police had identified the bodies. If not, the Assembly would file petitions to force the police officials to conduct an investigation into the murders.

Mignone said that he had received a call from Mexico last night informing him th the delegation of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo had been received by the Puebla Conference President, Cardinal Aloisio Lorscheider. The mothers presente the Permanent Assembly's recently issued list of 4,382 disappearances and discussed the Argentine human rights situation with the Brazilian Cardinal. The Cardinal promised to inscribe the Argentine disappearances on the conference's agenda.

Mignone noted that the mothers' meeting with the cardinal was "providential." Doctora Westerkamp (she and her husband are both active in the Permanent Assembly) flew from Buenos Aires to Mexico on an Air France flight which stopped in Rio. Cardinal Lorscheider boarded the plane there and sat near her. She was able to have a long discussion with the Cardinal and interest him in the plight of the families of the desaparecidos in Argentina.

Operations Against the Partido Socialista de Trabajadores

Mignone stated that the Assembly has received nine reports of disappearances of members of the Partido Socialista de Trabajadores (PST) in January. Seven of the abductions took place in La Plata, the capital of Buenos Aires Province, and two abductions took place in Buenos Aires. Mignone described the PST as a party of Second Internacional ideologues who specifically rejected terrorism on doctrinal grounds as they believed that spontaneous uprisings of the masses are the "midwives of history," not individual terrorist acts. Mignone noted that the party had been prohibited and dissolved by law in 1976 and had ceased to function as an entity. Operations had been conducted against its members in 1976, but had been sporadic and rare in the last two years, until recently.

Human Rights Gains

Mignone said that although the government's policy of using "terrorist tactics" against subversives had not changed, 1978 had seen some gains for the human right efforts in Argentina. The human rights organizations had obtained increased public acceptance. Families were becoming less suspicious about reporting disappearance cases to the Assembly. More old cases were being reported each day. New cases were being reported with less of a time lag. The Assembly's "La Prensa" advertisement in May 1978 listing over 2,500 "desaparecidos" had been perhaps the most significant event for the Assembly during the year. This event had sparked a more open attitude towards human rights among the Spanish-language press which now accepted human rights advertisements and published small stories regarding disappearances, legal decisions, and the activities of the human rights organizations. The Spanish-language press had recently begun to editorialize against the continuation of illegal anti-subversive operations. "La Prensa," "La Nacion," and "Clarin" had all editorially issued the call for the return to legal procedures.

Mignone said that the human rights organizations still had a long way to go. Debate for example within the Assembly, was characterized by fear of pushing the government too hard and provoking a counter reaction. He said that with the exception of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo, all the human rights groups in Argentina were extremely timid in pressuring the government for progress in the human rights area.

Military Reassignments

Mignone commented that, on balance, the recently announced military reassignments could be helpful for human rights in that some of the major hardliners had been removed from key troop command positions. Suarez Mason's leaving the First Corps, General Riveros' leaving the Campo de Mayo, and Admiral Chamarro's leaving the Navy Mechanics School, would all be helpful.

Mignone noted however, that the appointment of General Sasiain as the head of the Federal Police was a serious threat, especially if anti-subversive activities were transferred to the Federal Police. Mignone noted that General Sasiain was of Lebanese extraction. His sister and brother-in-law, General Caceres Monié, a former Army general and chief of the Federal Police in the Lanusse Administrati were both killed on their retirement chicken farm by Montoneros in Entre Rios Province in 1976. Mignone described Sasiain as an extremely bitter man whose Tenth Army Regiment in La Plata had run one of the severest anti-subversive campaigns in the country. The campaign was directed primarily against the leftis students and faculty of the formerly mammoth (200,000 students) University of La Plata.

More Floating Bodies

Mignone said that the Assembly had received several reports that the bodies of a man and a woman were found floating in the new port area of Buenos Aires on January 22 around 1:30 p.m. The bodies were reportedly in good condition. Both individuals had been shot in the head. Mignone said that the Assembly planned to make an inquiry to see if the police had identified the bodies. If not, the Assembly would file petitions to force the police officials to conduct an investigation into the murders.

2. AN EFE ITEM PUBLISHED HERE MARCH 8 SAID THAT U.S. INVESTIGATORS FOUND NEW LINKS BETWEEN DINA AND CUBAN EXILES BASED UPON A REPORT IN TABLOID "SEGUNDA" THAT THE STILL-UNIDENTIFIED "LILIANA WALKER" WAS REALLY ANA MARIA VARGAS, WIFE OF DR ROBERTO VARGAS WHO ALLEGEDLY WORKED FOR DINA (SEE SANTIAGO 1386 FOR "SEGUNDA" STORY). ACCORDING TO EFE, "WALKER" ALSO HAD TRAVELED TO CARACAS

IN 1974 USING THE NAME "ELOINE ALLENDE" IN COMPANY WITH VIRGILIO PAZ. THE EFE ITEM ADDED THAT CUBANS JOSE DIONISIO SUAREZ, GUILLERMO NOVO AND ORLANDO BOSCH HAD MET WITH DR VARGAS.

3. SEVENTY-FOUR YEAR OLD UROLOGIST, ROBERTO VARGAS ZALAZAR, QUICKLY SENT A CLARIFICATION TO THE PRESS. HE DENIED CATEGORICALLY THAT EITHER HE OR HIS WIFE (INES DELANNOY DE VARGAS) HAD EVER WORKED FOR DINA. HE SAID HE HAD RECEIVED NOVO, SUAREZ AND BOSCH AT HIS OFFICE ONE AFTERNOON. THEY BROUGHT GREETINGS FROM DR JOSE IGLESIAS, A CUBAN UROLOGIST TEACHING AT A NEW JERSEY UNIVERSITY. DURING A 1974 CONVENTION IN SANTIAGO, IGLESIAS HAD TOLD VARGAS THAT THE THREE MIGHT BE COMING TO CHILE AND ASKED IF HE MIGHT GIVE VARGAS' NAME TO THEM IN CASE THEY NEEDED TREATMENT. VARGAS SAID THAT OTHER FRIENDS OF IGLESIAS HAD ALSO STOPPED BY WITH GREETINGS FROM TIME TO TIME BUT THAT HE HAD ONLY SEEN SUAREZ, NOVO AND BOSCH THAT SINGLE AFTERNOON.

4. "TERCERA", HOWEVER, PURSUED THE LEAD AND REPORTED THAT VARGAS SENIOR HAS A SON NAMED ROBERTO WHO IS ALSO A DOCTOR. ROBERTO JUNIOR IS MARRIED TO THE COMELY INGRID SCHWARTZMAN A SOMETIME TV SOAP OPERA ACTRESS WHO APPEARED IN "MI PAPA Y MI MAMA" ON LOCAL SCREENS. REPORTERS GOING TO ROBERTO VARGAS DELAUNOY'S HOUSE LEARNED THAT THE PAIR WERE OUT OF THE COUNTRY. (COMMENT: INES

5. IN OTHER LETELIER-RELATED NEWS, SEVERAL PAPERS MARCH 9 CARRIED AN AP DISPATCH DATELINED WASHINGTON WHICH PICKED UP THE NYT'S ARTICLE STRESSING THAT UNDER TERMS OF THE DEAL STRUCK BY DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WITH THE GOC, TOWNLEY MIGHT STILL BE PROSECUTABLE FOR HIS ROLE IN THE UNSUCCESSFUL 1975 ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE CHILEAN EXILES IN MEXICO. THAT STORY ALSO MENTIONS THE LIKELIHOOD THAT TOWNLEY AND DINA WERE INVOLVED IN OTHER ASSASSINATION PLOTS WHEN TOWNLEY USED THE "ENYART" PASSPORT. ALSO CARRIED HERE WAS AN EFE STORY CITING MRS TOWNLEY'S DISSATISFACTION WITH THE RESTRAINTS IMPOSED BY THE WITNESS PROTECTION PROGRAM AND HER INTENTION TO RETURN TO CHILE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. USG PROSECUTOR BARCELLA IS QUOTED AS STATING THAT SHE IS FREE TO TRAVEL AT ANY TIME.

6. "TERCERA" MANAGED ANOTHER OF ITS NOW-TRADITIONAL MISLEADING HEADLINES WHEN IT RAN YET ANOTHER EFE

DISPATCH UNDER THE BANNER: "USG LOSES CREDIBILITY IN LETELIER CASE BY DROPPING CHARGES AGAINST ITT". (THE STORY QUOTED INSTITUTE OF POLICY STUDIES' SAUL LANDAU AS SAYING THAT DROPPING THE ITT CASE WOULD COST THE USG THE CREDIBILITY IT HAD GAINED BY ITS LETELIER INVESTIGATION). THE EFE STORY ALSO ASSERTED THAT ITT WAS NOT OUT OF THE WOODS SINCE "NEW INVESTIGATIONS IN WASHINGTON, STILL IN THE INITIAL STAGE, HAD FOUND CERTAIN TIES BETWEEN THE MULTINATIONAL AND THE ASSASSINATION OF LETELIER".

SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: STRANGE BEDFELLOWS OPPOSE GOC LABOR PLAN

REF: SANTIAGO 1389

1. (L) SUMMARY: VARIOUS LABOR LEADERS ARE SCURRYING TO FIND SOME COMMON DENOMINATORS FOR UNIFIED OPPOSITION TO GOC LABOR DECREES. PHILOSOPHICALLY DISPARATE LABOR GROUPINGS HAVE PICKED UP ON POINTS MADE BY THE "GROUP OF TEN" (AND BY THE AFL-CIO NEARLY A YEAR AGO) WHEN THEY CALLED FOR OUTRIGHT REPEAL OF RESTRICTIVE LEGISLATION AND A STOP TO THE HARASSMENT OF TRADE UNIONS AND THEIR LEADERSHIP. THE "TEN" HAVE RETAINED THEIR INDEPENDENT STANCE BY ISSUING THEIR OWN, PARALLEL DECLARATION. END SUMMARY

2. (U) DIVERSE TRADE UNION GROUPS--THE PRO-GOVERNMENT NATIONAL UNION OF CHILEAN WORKERS (UNTRACH), THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COORDINADORA DINDICAL (CNS), THE CHRISTIAN-LEFT FRENTE UNICA DE TRABAJADORES (FUT), AND PRIVATE EMPLOYEES CONFEDERATION (CEPCH)-- ISSUED A JOINT DECLATION MARCH 6. THESE STRANGE BEDFELLOWS DEMANDED THE REPEAL OF A NUMBER OF GOC DECREES THE EFFECT OF WHICH WOULD BE TO REMOVE MILITARY IMPOSED RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE UNIONS. THIS INCLUDES REPEAL OF "BETE NOIRE" DECREE 198 AND ITS MODIFICATIONS
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A DECREE PERMITTING (BUT TIGHTENING UP ON) DUES CHECKOFF, A RECENT MODIFICATION OF THE PENSION LAW EXTENDING THE MINIMUM AGE FOR ELIGIBILITY IN MANY CASES, AND DECREE LAW 2200 WHICH REVISED THE FIRST PART OF THE OLD LABOR CODE.

3. (L) THE "GROUP OF TEN" ISSUED A SEPARATE DECLARATION THE NEXT DAY. SOMEWHAT MILDER IN TONE (IT CALLS FOR REVISION RATHER THAN REPEAL OF THE LABOR CODE, FOR EXAMPLE), IT MIRRORS AN AFL-CIO MEMORANDUM OF MAY, 1978. THE "TEN" INVITE OTHER GROUPS TO JOIN THEM-- BUT THEY INSIST ADHERENTS FORESWEAR PARTICIPATION ON THE GOC'S ILO DELEGATION AND ATTENDANCE AT GOC-ORGANIZED MAY DAY EVENTS. OTHERWISE THE TWO DOCUMENTS ARE REMARKABLY SIMILAR. BOTH THE LEFT-RIGHT DECLARATION AND THAT OF THE "GROUP OF TEN" STRESS THE NEED TO END HARASSMENT OF LABOR LEADERS, A CAUSE GIVEN A BOOST BY GEORGE MEANY'S CABLE TO PRESIDENT PINOCHET AND TO TWO CABINET MINISTERS URGING THE REINSTATEMENT OF FOUR COPPER WORKERS.

4. (L) COMMENT: WHAT MOTIVATES THE UNUSUAL LEFT-RIGHT JOINT STATEMENT IS NOT ENTIRELY CLEAR. PRO-GOC TRADE UNIONISTS SAY THEY ARE PARTICULARLY ANNOYED AT MINISTER OF LABOR PINERA'S RELUCTANCE (THEY SAY REFUSAL) TO INCORPORATE THEIR VIEWS IN GOC LEGISLATION. FURTHERMORE THEY ARE UNHAPPY WITH A SERIES OF TV "PUBLIC INTEREST" SPOTS WHICH ARE INTERPRETED AS ERODING SUPPORT FOR TRADE UNIONISM.

5. (C) "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS ARE SUSPICIOUS OF THIS SHOW OF UNITY. EDUARDO RIOS, FOR EXAMPLE, TELLS US THAT HE DOUBTS THE STAYING POWER OF THE CNS AND CEPCH--AS WELL AS THE PRO-GOVERNMENT UNTRACH-- IF THE GOC TURNS UP THE HEAT. RIOS DISMISSES THE FUT AS A PAPER ORGANIZATION, WITHOUT RANK AND FILE SUPPORT. HE IS UNDER NO ILLUSIONS ABOUT THE GOC'S MUSCLE TO MAKE THE LABOR PLAN STICK IN ANY SORT OF A SHOWDOWN WITH ITS DOMESTIC OPPOSITION.
CONFIDENTIAL

6. (C) RECENT GOC ACTIONS HAVE NOT REFLECTED WELL ON PRO-GOVERNMENT TRADE UNIONISTS' ABILITY TO INLUENCE EVENTS; INDEED THEY HAVE LOOKED PARTICULARLY IMPOTENT. SINCE THEIR PRINCIPAL APPEAL IS THEIR PURPORTED ABILITY TO GET MORE FROM THE GOC BECAUSE THEY SUPPORT THE REGIME, THE UNTRACH STANDS TO LOSE THE MOST WHEN THE GOC PASSES LAWS EITHER INGORING LABOR DEMANDS OR MEETING THEN ONLY PART WAY. THUS THEY MAY BE MAKING COMMON CAUSE WITH THE LEFT AND THE COMMUNISTS IN ORDER TO RETAIN SOME SHRED OF CREDIBILITY WITH THEIR OWN RANK AND FILE. BUT WE DO NOT RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY THE UNTRACH NOW IS PERSUADED THAT NO TRADE UNION ELEMENT WILL BE ABLE TO HAVE A SIGNIFICANT VOICE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF LABOR DECREES. FINALLY, THE POSSIBILITY REMAINS THAT SOME MACHIAVELLIAN SCHEME IS AFOOT IN WHICH UNTRACH -- CREATED TWO YEARS AGO BY THE GOC--HAS BEEN ACTING AT THE BEHEST OF THE REGIME.

Dear Senator Tower:

Thank you for your inquiry of February 26 on behalf of the Lucy Gonzalez Parsons Branch of the Young Workers Liberation League concerning human rights in Chile and the detention of Juan Segundo Cortez Cortez in particular.

We know that the name of Juan Segundo Cortez Cortez is among the persons listed as "disappeared", but, unfortunately, we have no concrete information to add. We appreciate your constituents' sentiments and efforts to learn more about the circumstances surrounding this disapprearance.

We are deeply concerned about disappearances, detainees, and other evidence of human rights abuses in Chile. Part of our effort to influence the Chilean Government's human rights policies has been the termination of military and economic aid to Chile. We will continue to express our concern at every opportunity to the Chilean authorities, and we will do all we can to elicit a more thorough accounting of such cases.

Sincerely,

1. SUMMARY: THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS (ICFTU) IS PREPARING WHAT ONE OF ITS PRESS RELEASES CALLS A "STEPPED-UP FIGHT AGAINST CHILE AND NICARAGUA." PRECISELY WHAT THIS MEANS, HOWEVER, REMAINS TO BE SEEN, AND WILL DEPEND PARTLY ON WHETHER LEADING LATIN AMERICAN AFFILIATES OF THE ICFTU AND THE INTER-AMERICAN REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS OF WORKERS (ORIT) WANT TO BACK UP MILITANT RHETORIC WITH PRACTICAL ACTION. END SUMMARY.

2. IN A MEETING HELD IN TORONTO IN EARLY FEBRUARY, THE ICFTU'S NEW COMMITTEE FOR THE DEFENSE OF HUMAN AND TRADE UNION RIGHTS IN LATIN AMERICA (REF D) ADOPTED A RESOLUTION INVITING "ICFTU AFFILIATES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD TO IMMEDIATELY EXERT ALL EFFECTIVE PRESSURES, INCLUDING BOYCOTTS, TO HELP ACHIEVE THE DOWNFALL OF THE DICTATORSHIP REGIMES OF CHILE AND NICARAGUA."

3. THE ICFTU HEADQUARTERS HAS MAILED A COPY OF THAT RESOLUTION TO ALL ITS AFFILIATES UNDER COVER OF A CIRCULAR LETTER FROM GENERAL SECRETARY OTTO KERSTEN, DATED FEBRUARY 20. USEC LABOR ATTACHE HAS RECEIVED A COPY OF THE KERSTEN LETTER FROM A SECRETARIAT MEMBER.

THE LETTER OPENS BY RECALLING THAT THE NOVEMBER 29-DECEMBER 1 ICFTU EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS ON CHILE AND NICARAGUA CALLING ON AFFILIATES: (A) TO GIVE ALL POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE TO DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS IN THOSE COUNTRIES IN THEIR STRUGGLE TO SECURE OBSERVANCE OF TRADE UNION RIGHTS, AND (B) "TO CONSIDER THE ADVISABILITY OF TAKING SOLIDARITY INITIATIVES WHICH ARE EVEN MORE EFFECTIVE, INCLUDING BOYCOTT ACTIONS" (REF E).

5. THE KERSTEN LETTER QUOTES THE MILITANT LANGUAGE OF THE RESOLUTION ADOPTED AT THE TORONTO MEETING (PARA 2 ABOVE) AND THEN ADDS: "THE IMPLEMENTATION OF SUCH A RESOLUTION IS OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE, AND WE INTEND TO DO OUR BEST TO MAKE THE STRUGGLE OF THE INTERNATIONAL FREE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT MORE EFFECTIVE IN THIS RESPECT."

6. THE FINAL TWO PARAGRAPHS OF THE KERSTEN LETTER ARE AS FOLLOWS:

"TOGETHER WITH OUR REGIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR THE AMERICAS, ORIT, AND IN CLOSE COLLABORATION WITH OUR NICARAGUAN AFFILIATE, THE CUS (CONFEDERACION DE UNIFICACION SINDICAL), AS WELL AS WITH DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS IN CHILE, WE ARE GATHERING ALL RELEVANT INFORMATION CONCERNING INTERNATIONAL TRADE AS WELL AS TRANSPORT MOVEMENTS TO AND FROM THESE COUNTRIES IN ORDER TO ELABORATE A COMMON STRATEGY AND TO DETERMINE THOSE COUNTRIES MORE DIRECTLY CONCERNED WITH SUCH BOYCOTT ACTIONS.

"WE THEREFORE INVITE ALL ICFTU AFFILIATES TO LOOK CAREFULLY INTO THIS MATTER AND TO KEEP US INFORMED OF ALL STEPS THEY MAY CONSIDER TAKING ACCORDING TO THE ENCLOSED (TORONTO) RESOLUTION."

MEXICO AT THE UNCSTD: A PRE-CONFERENCE POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC PROFILE

UNCLASSIFIED

(C) Summary

Mexico is engaged in a race between development and population growth. With the estimate of its oil reserves rising rapidly, Mexico increasingly will depend on oil revenues to deal with its underlying economic and social problems.

Although Mexico is not a member of the non-aligned movement (NAM), having attended NAM meetings only as an observer, it is one of the original members of the Group of 77. It has a strong interest in North-South issues and a continuing dedication to the principles of the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States (CERDS).

Mexico may therefore be expected to participate actively in the UN Conference on Science and Technology for Development--to be held in Vienna in August 1979--and in preparatory meetings preceding the Conference. Its stance on most UNCSTD issues will likely be moderate and pragmatic.

(C) Foreign Policy

Mexico's traditional foreign policy, somewhat legalistic and defensive in nature, reflects Mexico's 19th-century experiences with the US and the European powers. It is firmly grounded on the principles of non-intervention, respect for the sovereign equality of states, and peaceful resolution of conflicts. In his inaugural address, President Lopez Portillo emphasized the continuity of Mexico's foreign policy, pledging his support for the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States (CERDS), international solidarity, and Mexico's determination to press for the prohibition of weapons that threaten humanity's existence.

While Mexico has been an active member in a number of international forums, its activity--and style--took on a strong Third World cast in the mid-1970s under former President Echeverria. Seeking a role for Mexico as a Third World leader, Echeverria lobbied hard for the adoption of CERDS and pushed Mexico into an active role on a number of North-South issues.

When Lopez Portillo took office, in late 1976, the urgency of Mexico's economic problems dictated that his administration concentrate on 1) restoration of confidence domestically and 2) improved relations with the US. Nevertheless, although the government's style has changed from rhetoric and confrontation to a more moderate pragmatism, Mexico's underlying interests and objectives have remained constant.

Mexico's relations with the US are its most important foreign policy concern. Given the US' overwhelming weight in the bilateral relationship, Mexico seeks continually to lessen its dependence on the US by diversifying its political and economic contacts in the international setting--primarily by expanding trade, financial, and technical ties with the European Community, Japan, Latin America, and the Soviet bloc. Although these efforts have met with some success, the state of Mexican-US relations continues to be the dominant concern in Mexico's foreign policy.

(C) Relations With the US

A host of intertwined relationships joins the US and Mexico: a mutual border, substantial bilateral trade, billions of dollars of US investment in Mexico, and a welter of jointly undertaken projects ranging from eradication of agricultural pests to narcotics control. Because of these interrelationships, the domestic problems of one country often have considerable impact on the other. For example, Mexican unemployment becomes illegal immigration to the US, and US recessionary cycles depress Mexico's export and tourism industries, adversely affecting Mexico's balance of payments with the US.

Mexican-US relations are, for the most part, friendly and cooperative. Officials on many levels from both sides work closely together and confer on mutual problems. Committees of the Bilateral Consultative Mechanism, established in 1976 by Presidents Carter and Lopez Portillo, meet regularly to seek solutions to economic and social issues of mutual concern.

When President Carter visited Mexico in February, he and President Lopez Portillo agreed to: negotiations as soon as possible for the sale of Mexican natural gas to the US; strong efforts to conclude bilateral trade negotiations under the multilateral trade negotiations (MTN); periodic close consultations on border problems; continuous sharing of immigration data; and recommendations for strengthening the Bilateral Consultative Mechanism, to be drawn up within four months.

They also agreed to meet again this summer, at which time they will determine what progress has been made on the issues and the attempts to strengthen the Consultative Mechanism.

(C) Mexico's Role in the International Arena

One of the original members of the Group of 77 in 1964, Mexico played only a moderately active part for the next six years. During the last years of the Echeverria administration (1970-76), however, Mexico expanded its G-77 role greatly as Echeverria sought to make Mexico an LDC spokesman on economic matters. To most LDCs, however, Mexico's credentials were suspect because of the overwhelming reality of US influence on the Mexican economy. Under Lopez Portillo, Mexico has moderated its rhetoric and positions, along with the degree of its Third World involvement.

Mexico is not a member of the non-aligned movement, but it has attended NAM meetings as an observer. The Mexican delegation to the 1976 non-aligned summit meeting in Colombo was led by Foreign Secretary Garcia Robles and was very active. This active participation, however, was more a reflection of then-President Echeverria's campaign for nomination to the post of UN Secretary-General than of Mexico's long-term interest in the NAM. Lopez Portillo's administration has noted that Echeverria's Third World activism was of little tangible benefit and, indeed, on occasion embroiled Mexico in quarrels not its own.

Nevertheless, Mexico has genuine interests in North-South issues, which it will continue to pursue vigorously, albeit less confrontationally than under Echeverria. Mexico was active in obtaining the adoption of the UN resolution on the New International Economic Order (NIEO) and in originating and promoting CERDS. Both the political aspects 1/ and the economic goals 2/ of these documents accurately reflect Mexico's longstanding concern for its political and economic independence.

NOT RELEASABLE TO FOREIGN NATIONALS

Economic Development

(S/NF) Problems. Mexico is faced with basic economic and social problems:

--soaring population;

--growing inequity in income distribution;

--widening regional disparities;

--massive migration from rural to urban areas;

--stagnating agricultural production; and

--increasing unemployment and underemployment.

Mexican population, currently at 67 million, has doubled since 1950 and could almost double again by the turn of the century. Nearly half of the population is under the age of 14. The growth rate, however, has slowed somewhat (from 3.5 percent to 3.0-3.3 percent per year).

Despite omnipresent domestic rhetoric about Mexico being a "revolutionary" state, its social and economic system is highly conservative, and the distribution of income is one of the most unequal in the world. In 1969 the top 20 percent of households received 64 percent of family income. In Mexico, moreover, in contrast to much of the rest of the world, the share of the richest fifth has been rising, while that of the poorest fifth has been falling.

1/ Sovereign equality of states, condemnation of any form of colonialism, rejection of intervention in internal affairs.

2/ Access to developed-country markets, facilitation of transfer of technology, support for commodity values and producer cartels, more effective financial assistance to LDCs.

Traditionally, a handful of states in north and central Mexico has received the bulk of public and private investment, while the rest of the country has largely stagnated. The major population centers in this handful of states have been magnets for massive rural migration. Mexico City, already barely viable at a population of 14 million, is growing by nearly 750,000 persons a year. If the present trend should continue, Mexico City's population would reach 30 million by the year 2000.

Nearly 40 percent of Mexico's population is employed in agriculture. Less than 20 percent of Mexican land is suitable for agriculture. Agricultural efficiency has been hampered by the system of land tenure established by land reform after the 1910 revolution, with much of the arable land divided into tiny, inefficient plots. The existence of some 4 million landless peasants has resulted in large numbers of illegal occupations of private land. Growth in agricultural production has been slow (only 18 percent over the decade 1967-1977), far below the growth in population.

During the 1970s, the Mexican labor force has grown by more than 4 percent per year. Unemployment and underemployment are now running higher than 40 percent of the labor force. The government recently claimed that hardcore unemployment is only 8 percent (theretofore it had admitted to a 9 to 15-percent rate).

High unemployment/underemployment (especially rural), large wage differentials, and population growth have spurred illegal migration to the US. About 60 percent of the estimated 3-5 million illegal aliens in the US are Mexican. In the past, most illegal Mexican migrants came from rural areas, and about two-thirds of them were essentially temporary seasonal labor. Now, they are coming increasingly from urban areas and possess greater skills; a growing proportion, probably about one-half, settle for an indefinite time. Illegal Mexican migration, while a contentious issue in the US, has been something of a safety valve contributing to social and political stability within Mexico.

(S/NF) Growth. From the end of World War II until the mid-1970s, Mexico gave emphasis to industrial (particularly capital-intensive) growth while benefiting also from the "Green Revolution." As a result, it enjoyed one of the highest sustained growth rates in gross national product in the world (6.2 percent annually during the 1950-75 period). At the same time, however, problems resulting from unemployment and inequities of income distribution increased.

UNCLASSIFIED

The Echeverria administration (1970-76) poured great sums of money into ambitious, long-term, capital-intensive projects (dams, steel mills, increased oil exploration) and into social projects (schools, hospitals, roads). During this period, government spending and borrowing from abroad reached an all-time high. At the same time, the international economic crisis led to a sharp drop in Mexico's tourism and export earnings and to a steep rise in the cost of imports. A sudden float of the peso in 1976 (whereupon its value dropped precipitously) spurred massive capital flight and shook the Mexican economy. Incoming President Lopez Portillo was forced to impose a sweeping austerity program in order to obtain the support of the International Monetary Fund. GDP (gross domestic product) growth averaged only 2.7 percent in 1976-77, before rebounding to an estimated 6.6 percent in 1978. Inflation, which averaged 29.1 percent in 1977, declined to an average of about 17.4 percent in 1978.

The current administration is trying to work out a new development plan that will correct past deficiencies. Chief priorities are: reduction in population growth; industrial decentralization; self-sufficiency in agricultural production; job creation; and development and full utilization of domestic energy resources. Programs already under way include:

--a National Family Planning Program, which aims at a 2.5-percent annual population growth rate by 1982, and 1.0 percent by 2000;

--a new National Employment Plan, which seeks to reduce hardcore unemployment to 6 percent and create 3.87 million new jobs by 1982 (774,000 per year) to offset 2.8 million new entrants (560,000 per year) to the labor force;

--a National Urban Plan, which sets priorities for urbanization away from traditional centers to coastal areas; and

--a National Agricultural Plan to develop more farmland, encourage rural industry, and make available more credits to farmers.

The employment plan will not be finished, however, until at least mid-1980. During the period 1981-85, the number of new entrants to the labor force should reach 800,000 a year. Even with GNP growth of 10 percent, new jobs are unlikely to reach 700,000 per annum. For example, although such capital- (and energy-) intensive industries as steel, capital goods, and petrochemicals are slated to grow by 10, 20, and 30 percent a year, respectively, they will create fewer than 50,000 new jobs annually. The job gap could be even greater if the existing low labor participation rate (47 perbent) should rise.

[redacted]

Failure to take the politically hazardous move toward modification of the system of land tenure will virtually assure that the country will have to import increasing quantities of corn and wheat (which, with beans, form the diet of most Mexicans). Imports of basic grains are expected to exceed $900 million in 1979. Future higher standards of living would also mean increasing diversion of agricultural exports to domestic consumption.

Mexico has built a fairly balanced industrial structure. The government undertakes about 90 percent of all scientific and technical research and controls all petroleum and basic petrochemicals industries, nuclear energy, electricity, railroads, and most communications. It has encouraged private-sector development of other basic industries. It is now especially fostering public and private development of energy-intensive export industries, particularly petrochemicals, fertilizers, and steel. The national petroleum monopoly, PEMEX, plans to invest at least $16.5 billion in plant and equipment during the current 1977-82 period. These capital-intensive industries will, however, provide relatively few jobs.

A system of high tariffs, restrictive and arbitrary import licensing, official valuations of imports, and embargoes of certain imports has protected inefficient industry. The government has taken very limited and tentative steps toward liberalization of licensing, while at the same time it has raised tariffs.

Continued oil exploration has increased proven reserves of oil and natural gas from 6 billion barrels in December 1976 to the 40.2 billion barrels announced in December 1978, with probable reserves of 44.6 billion and potential reserves of 200 billion. (Much of Mexico's reserves will be difficult to recover, however.) Average liftings rose from 1.1 million barrels/day in 1977 to 1.6 million barrels/day in 1978 (plus natural gas production of 2.2 billion cubic feet/day); exports rose from 200,000 b/d (worth $1 billion) in 1977 to nearly 500,000 b/d (over $2 billion) in 1978. Although not a member of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, Mexico has followed OPEC oil pricing policies and has attempted to copy Algerian export pricing for natural gas.

Future production and exports will depend on a number of factors. By 1982, production is scheduled to pass 2.7 million b/d (plus 5 billion cf/d of gas). The government plans also by that time to double refining capacity to 1.9 million b/d (although the program is running behind schedule) and to treble basic petrochemical capacity to 18 million tons/year. Production could increase to about 5 million b/d by 1985, but Mexico likely will slow production growth if it does not obtain an export market for associated natural gas.

A key determinant of future oil policy--which in the Mexican tradition will probably be left for the next administration to resolve--will be Mexico's ability to absorb oil revenues. Potential annual export earnings could reach $20-35 billion by 1985. However, as Lopez Portillo has acknowledged, full absorption--through accumulation of foreign exchange reserves or through increased imports--might well be economically and politically destabilizing.

Mexico was the first country (in 1938) to expropriate foreign oil operations. PEMEX has been an important symbol of the country's nationalistic pride. It suffered for many years, however, from inefficiency, featherbedding, and corruption. As late as 1976, production per worker was only one-eighth of that in Venezuela. Under new management, production has nearly doubled, with little increase in employees.

PEMEX has, or can buy, whatever petroleum technology it requires. Mexico also is anxious to develop its potential in solar, nuclear, and geothermal energy, however, and will be seeking scientific and technological expertise in developing such rich resources as phosphates, uranium, and copper.

In order to increase food production, Mexico will:

--seek intermediate technology to make cooperatives more productive;

--promote local packaging and processing industries;

--continue the expansion of its fishing industry; and

--open new agricultural areas in the tropical south.

In recent years, direct foreign investment--which is tightly controlled--has contributed little capital to Mexican economic development (although foreign technology has been important). In the early 1960s it contributed about 40 percent of net long-term capital inflows, but by 1974-76 the contribution had dropped to 8 percent. In the latter period it accounted for only around 3.5 percent of total gross fixed investment. US direct investment in Mexico amounts to some $3.5 billion--about $3.4 billion being equity capital. These inflows, however, have also slowed markedly in the past five years.

(C) Balance of Payments and Trade. Mexico has traditionally run trade and current account deficits, covered by capital inflows. During the mid-1970s, the trade and current account gaps increased, and the country borrowed heavily from abroad. The trade deficit rose from $1 billion in 1972 to $3.7 billion in 1975, while export coverage (of imports) fell from 62 percent in 1972-73 to 44 percent in 1975. The current account deficit rose from $916 million in 1972 to a peak of $4.0 billion in 1975.

Since then, because of economic stabilization measures and rising oil exports, the trade gap has narrowed--to $880 million in 1977 and an estimated $2.2 billion in 1978--and export coverage has surged to around 80 percent. Owing largely to increased debt service, however, the current account deficit has remained at around $2-3.5 billion during 1976-78 (an estimated $2.5 billion in 1978 alone). A $960 million International Monetary Fund standby credit and foreign borrowing have enabled Mexico to maintain sufficient foreign reserves--$2.3 billion at the end of 1978. The trade gap is likely to drop below $1 billion in 1979, but higher debt interest payments will keep the current account deficit near the 1978 level. Rising oil exports should lead to trade and current account surpluses beginning in the early 1980s.

The US is overwhelmingly Mexico's principal trading partner, while Mexico is fifth in importance for the US. In recent years, the US has supplied more than three-fifths of Mexican imports (largely grains and capital goods) and taken about the same proportion of its exports (principally electronic items, cattle, shrimp, tomatoes, coffee, petroleum, and metals). The US trade share and favorable balance have been dropping rapidly, however. The value of Mexico's imports from the US dropped from a peak of $4 billion in 1975 to $3.5 billion in 1977, while Mexican exports to the US rose from $1.7 billion to $2.4 billion. In the first half of 1978, Mexico's imports from the US ($1.7 billion) dropped slightly below its exports to the US. The US share of Mexican imports dropped from 64 percent in 1977 to 54 percent in the first half of 1978, while its share of Mexico's exports rose from 66 to 70 percent. Mexico is a substantial beneficiary of the US Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). Its GSP exports to the US reached $368 million in 1977--nearly 10 percent of all GSP exports to the US--and may have reached $500 million in 1978.

NOT RELEASABLE TO CONTRACTORS OR CONTRACTOR-CONSULTANTS

Mexico is one of the few major trading countries that 1) has not adhered to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and 2) has benefited from most-favored-nation treatment without having to make its own concessions. It is the sixth largest developing-country exporter of manufactured goods. Exports of manufactures probably reached $2 billion in 1978 and should continue to grow strongly through the early 1980s. One-third of manufactured exports consisted of electronic items and apparel from border industries exporting to the US. In 1977, the US took three-fourths of Mexican manufactured exports.

The US views Mexico's future oil production as an important addition to world supply which will directly or indirectly benefit the US. The geographical proximity of the supplies would make the US the natural market for the country's energy exports. The US refused to approve, however, a recent Mexican contract with six US companies for 2 billion cf/d of natural gas. The price was set higher than that for Canadian gas imports and was directly linked to OPEC oil pricing. If Mexico continues its traditional protectionism, moreover, the probable increasing US deficit in bilateral trade likely will prove a source of friction.

(LOU) Foreign Debt and Aid. Mexico is carrying a heavy external public debt burden and will require additional borrowing through at least 1982. The structure of the debt has been improved, however, and the prospect of growing oil revenues makes the country a good credit risk.

In 1974-76, Mexico borrowed heavily to finance the current account deficit. Between the end of 1976 and the end of 1978, the debt rose from $20 billion to $26 billion; during that period, interest payments alone rose from 20 to 23 percent of Mexico's exports of goods and services. At the end of 1976, almost three-fourths of the debt was owed to foreign commercial banks (about $13 billion to US-owned banks). The proportion of short-term debt, however, was reduced from 19 percent to about 7 percent. The country's net new indebtedness was $2.6 billion in 1978, and it probably will borrow similar amounts annually for the next two to four years.

Although Mexico's development has relied heavily on foreign private loans, in recent years the country has been receiving about $500 million annually in commitments from official and multilateral lenders. The World Bank (IBRD) has been the largest source, followed by the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) and the Export-Import Bank. The IBRD and IDB programs concentrate on infrastructure expansion and modernization. In 1978, Mexico received about $800 million in such commitments. It can expect multilateral aid to remain at about the same level over the next few years. About $3 billion in aid remains in the pipeline. Mexico has refused major bilateral aid; US aid has been running only about $20 million a year.

(C) Science and Technology

Bilateral Scientific and Technological Cooperation. US-Mexican cooperation in science and technology is based on the bilateral agreement of 1972, which provides for a Mixed Commission to formulate and review programs. It is the purpose of the US to invigorate the Mixed Commission and expand its role in order that it may better serve as the focal point in scientific and technological cooperation between the two countries.

The designated priority areas of the 1978 Mexican National Plan for Science and Technology are precisely those where cooperation with the US would be of benefit. Common problems whose solution is dependent on science and technology include resource exploration and utilization, environmental problems (trans-boundary air and water pollution, desertification, etc.), migration, arid lands management, irrigation, non-nuclear energy technology, and desalinization.

Increased cooperation with Mexico could serve as an example at the UNCSTD of US interest in assisting middle-tier LDCs in scientific and technological development. During President Carter's visit in February, Secretary Vance and Foreign Minister Roel initialed new agreements on arid land management and housing/urban development as well as a recently concluded memorandum of understanding on science and technology.

Likely Attitudes at the UNCSTD. According to the Mexican National Council on Science and Technology (CONACYT),

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Mexico will participate actively in the UNCSTD and in the preparatory meetings preceding the Conference. In general, Mexico's approach should be moderate and practical but will not depart from firmly held convictions regarding national sovereignty over resources and the principles embodied in CERDS. As CONACYT notes, the main objectives of the Conference should lead to the formulation of a greater goal: "the elimination of inequalities through a new and more equitable scheme of international development."

Food and Agriculture: Regaining Mexico's self-sufficiency in food production and the development of its fisheries resources are high-priority items for the Mexican Government. Mexico may be expected to show considerable interest in proposals for the application of science and technology in these areas.

Natural Resources: Mexico welcomes foreign investment in general, but under its own ground rules. It is fiercely nationalistic regarding foreign participation in developing its natural resources--setting stringent limits in some areas and completely barring it in others (petroleum, for example). The development of energy sources (nuclear, solar, geothermal) ranks very high on Mexico's list of priorities, however. Conference delegates are likely to be particularly interested in obtaining information on scientific and technological developments in these areas.

Transfers of Technology: CONAYCT maintains that the technology of the future in developing countries should be oriented toward rural development and the necessities of the great majority--"provided that the solution of these problems is not made only in the form of 'packaged technology' commercialized by multinational corporations." Mexico feels that the developing countries need to acquire a domestic capacity to allow them to decide and judge for themselves the type of technology they want and need to import, or the type that needs to be developed locally.

Mexico's 1973 Law on Transfer and Technology illustrates this position; it was adopted to regulate the acquisition of foreign technology, stimulate the use of domestic technology, and develop national research in order to reduce dependence on foreign interests. The 1976 Law on Patents and Trademarks provides for linkage of foreign with Mexican trademarks and limits the length and availability of patents, providing only certificates of invention in certain fields.

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Health and Quality of Life: Mexico hopes to use part of its future oil revenues for expanded social programs, with particular emphasis on improving the lot of the rural and urban poor. UNCSTD delegates may be expected to take particular interest in matters dealing with housing and urban development.

Environment and World Resources: A major coastal state with strong navigational and resource development concerns, Mexico in 1976 declared a 200-mile economic zone. Highly promising estimates of mineral wealth (especially petroleum) beneath Mexico's continental shelf and its intention to fully develop its fisheries resources were important factors in this decision.

In Law of the Sea issues, Mexico has generally been a moderating influence, attempting to find points of common ground between the developed countries and the more radical LDCs.

E. O. 12065: N/A
TAGS: ELAB, SHUM, CI
SUBJECT: TRADE UNION RIGHTS: COMPLICATIONS FROM A SNAP DECISION

1. SUMMARY: THE REGIONAL INTENDANT OF VALPARAISO, VICE ADMIRAL ARTURO TRONCOSO, ORDERED A CUSTOMS INSPECTOR TO RESIGN FROM HIS UNION OFFICE BECAUSE HE BELIEVES THE EMPLOYEE (WHO IS ALSO A PART-TIME RADIO CORRESPONDENT AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT ACTIVIST) INSULTED HIS GUEST, THE MINISTER OF LABOR. IN A SEPARATE BUT CLEARLY RELATED ACTION THE INTENDANT ALSO ORDERED CUSTOMS OFFICIALS TO INITIATE THE PROCESS TO FIRE THE EMPLOYEE FROM HIS JOB FOR WORK PERFORMANCE CAUSE. THE TRADE UNIONS OF DIVERSE POLITICAL STRIPES HAVE EXPRESSED SUPPORT OF THE EMPLOYEE; BUT A NEW DECREE LAW REORGAINZING THE CUSTOMS SERVICE HAS DAMPENED THE ENTHUSIASM OF HIS FELLOW WORKERS FOR GETTING OUT IN THE FRONT ON THIS ISSUE. SOME TRADE UNIONS ARE TRYING TO PLAY THE WHOLE EPISODE AS A LIMITATION ON FREE DISCUSSION OF THE LABOR PLAN. WE SEE THE ISSUE AS SIMPLY PUNISHEMENT FOR LESE MAJESTE. END SUMMARY.

2. VICE ADMIRAL ARTURO TRONCOSO, THE REGIONAL INTENDANT OF VALPARAISO AND THE THEN ACTION COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CHILEAN NAVY PERSONALLY ORDERED THE RESIGNATION OF DANIEL LILLO, NATIONAL LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

PRESIDENT OF THE CUSTOMS WORKERS ASSOCIATION, ON MARCH 5. TRONCOSO TOOK UMBRAGE AT LILLO'S SCANTILY DOCUMENTED ASSERTION ON JANUARY 12 THAT THE MINISTER OF LABOR, JOSE PINERA, HAD TWO LABOR PLANS: ONE FOR WORKERS AND ONE FOR BUSINESSMEN. THE IMPLICATION BEING THAT PINERA WAS DOUBLE DEALING. TRONCOSO HAD INVITED PINERA TO ADDRESS A PUBLIC MEETING HELD AT THE BUSINESS SCHOOL OF VALPARAISO AND APPARENTLY FELT PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR INSURING THAT HIS GUEST BE TREATED WITH RSPECT.

3. LILLO, A 130 DOLLAR A MONTH CUSTOMS INSPECTOR, REFUSED TO RESIGN WHEN FIRST TOLD TO DO SO ON JANUARY 15, SAYING HE WAS AN ELECTED TRADE UNION LEADER. MOST NATIONAL TRADE UNIONS INCLUDING THE "GROUP OF TEN" SENT TELEGRAMS SUPPORTING HIS STAND. THE ISSUE REMAINED RELATIVELY QUIET UNTIL MARCH 5, WHEN TRONCOSO AGAIN REDERED LILLO TO RESIGN HIS UNION POSITION, THIS TIME INVOKING DECREE LAW 349 WHICH PERMITS A REGIONAL INTENDANT TO FIRE A UNION LEADER FOR ACTIVITY DISRUPTIVE TO THE NORMAL FUNCTIONING OF A PUBLIC INSTITUTION. UNDER THE LAW THE UNION LEADER MUST RESIGN OR GO TO JAIL. LILLO CHOSE RESIGNATION, BUT FOR THE TIME BEING HE IS ON ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE (WITH PAY) FROM HIS JOB WHILE CUSTOMS AUTHORITIES MAKE A DETERMINATION ON HIS DISCHARGE FOR CAUSE.

4. IN AN OBVIOUS ATTEMPT TO USE THE LILLO CASE FOR BROADER, TACTICAL AND POLITICAL ADVANTAGE, THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES IS ATTEMPTING TO PUMP THE ISSUE UP AS A CAUSE CELEBRE. IN A TWO PRONGED ATTACK, ANEF PRESIDENT, TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, HAS CHALLENGED THE AUTHORITY OF THE INTENDANT TO OUST A TRADE UNIONIST AND CALLED INTO QUESTION THE VALIDITY OF THE LABOR PLAN AS NOT PERMITTING FREE DESCUSSION SINCE LILLO WAS COMMENTING ON THE LABOR PLAN WHEN HE MADE HIS UNFORTUNATE REMARK.

5. LABOR MINISTER PINERA TOLD LABATT PRIVATELY THAT THE LABOR LIMITED OFFICIAL USE PLAN HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH LILLO'S GETTING FIRED. PINERA COMMENTED THAT TRONCOSO HAD INSISTED HE MAKE A SPEECH IN VALPARAISO AND SO THE ADMIRAL APPARENTLY FELT PERSONALLY INVOLVED. THE MEDIA WERE EXCLUDED FROM THE MEETING WHICH OTHERWISE REPRESENTED A CROSS-SECTION OF PORTENO SOCIETY. PINERA SAYS THAT HE WAS NOT INVOLVED IN THE DECISION TO DISCIPLINE LILLO AND WOULD HAVE PREFERRED TO HAVE IGNORED HIS STATEMENTS.

6. COMPLICATING THE PICTURE IS A NEW DECREE LAW (DL 2554) PUBLISHED MARCH 10 WHICH GIVES THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC SPECIAL AUTHORITY TO REORGANIZE THE CUSTOMS SERVICE AND SPECIFICALLY CONTAINS PROVISIONS FOR REDUCTION OF PERSONNEL. THE PURPOSE OF THIS INITIATIVE AND COMPANION PIECES FOR OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES IS TO ELIMINATE RED TAPE. PART OF THE SWEEPING AUTHORITY CONTAINED IN THIS LAW PERMITS THE HEAD OF CUSTOMS TO INTERPRET AND ADMINISTER THE CIVIL SERVICE CODE WITHOUT PRIOR COMPTROLLER GENERAL OVERSIGHT AND REVIEW OF DECISIONS TO HIRE OR FIRE EMPLOYEES. OWEVER, AFTER THE FACT, EMPLOYEES MAY SEEK JUDICIAL REMEDIES. THIS NEW LAW WAS DISCUSSED AT A MARCH 12 MEETING -- ORIGINALLY CALLED WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF A BROAD SEGMENT OF CHILEAN LABOR

GROUPS TO DEMONSTRATE SOLIDARITY WITH LILLO. HOWEVER, THE PROSPECT OF A RIF PUT A DAMPER ON THE MEETING WHICH BROKE UP WITHOUT ANY DECISION BEING TAKEN ON WHAT TO DO ABOUT LILLO.

7. COMMENT: MOST MAJOR LABOR INSTITUTIONS HAVE EXPRESSED SERIOUS MISGIVINGS ABOUT ALL OR PART OF THE GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSED LABOR POLICY. WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF THE ADVERSARY RELATIONSHIP, SOME LABOR LEADERS ARE TRYING TO LINK MINISTER PINERA TO THE LILLO CASE. THEY CLAIM THAT PINERA HAS TWOCE SIDESTEPPED MEETINGS WITH UNIONLEADERS WHO WANT HIM TO INTERCEED ON BEHALF OF LILLO. THEY SAY THIS PROVES THAT PINERA FULLY SUPPORTS TRONCOSO'S ACTIONS. WE HAVE IT OTHERWISE FROM PINERA WHO SAYS HE WAS, AND IS, NOT INVOLVED. THAT HE HAS NOT INTERVENED FOR LILLO WE ATTRIBUTE TO HIS UNWILLINGNESS TO TAKE ON THE ADMIRAL FOR TACTICAL AND POLITICAL REASONS. PINERA EARLIER TOLD EMBASSY OFFICERS THAT HE ALREADY HAS ENOUGH PROBLEMS WITH MORE CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS BALKING AT EVAN A LIMITED LIBERALIZATION OF LABOR POLICY. ALSO, TRONCOSO IS THE SECOND RANKING OFFICER IN THE CHILEAN NAVY AND A CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED ADMIRAL MERINO AS JUNTA MEMBER WHENEVER THE LATTER RETIRES.

8. FENCING OVER THE LILLO CASE IS UNLIKELY TO DIRECTLY AFFECT GOC RELATIONS WITH LABOR OVER THE LONG HAUL, BUT ATMOSPHERICS ARE PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT NOW. IT IS REGRETTABLE THAT TE ADMIRAL'S IRRITATION WITH LILLO'S LESE MAJESTE HAS BECOME ANOTHER IRRITANT IN WHAT IS ALREADY A STRAINED RELATIONSHIP, AS GOVERNMENT

Dear Senator Bradley:

Thank you for your letter of March 6, with which you transmitted a letter from [redacted] concerning the death in Chile of the American citizen Charles Horman.

Horman was killed in Santiago shortly after the military coup which took place in Chile on September 11, 1973. The circumstances of his death have not been established, despite intensive efforts by the State Department, our Embassy in Santiago, and Horman's own family. Charges have been made that he was killed by forces of the military government which took power just before his death. The Chilean Government has denied these charges, and to date the matter remains unresolved.

Some sinister allegations concerning the U.S. Government's role in the Horman case have been advanced since his death. Some of them are based upon simple misunderstandings of facts, some are distorted, and some appear to be inventions. Careful and exhaustive investigation by this Department has not substantiated allegations of negligence or wrongdoing by United States Government employees. The Department of State remains determined to pursue any information which may lead to a resolution of the case.

Sincerely,

Douglas J. Bennet, Jr.
Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations

EXCISE

Dear Senator Hatfield:

Thank you for your letter of February 6 to former Assistant Secretary Todman on behalf of [ ] concerning the disappearance of Moises Eduardo Mujica Maturana in Chile.

We know that Mr. Mujica is among the persons listed as "disappeared", but, unfortunately, we have no concrete information to add. We appreciate [ ] sentiments and efforts to learn more about the circumstances surrounding this disappearance.

We are deeply concerned about disappearances, detainees, and other evidence of human rights abuses in Chile. Part of our effort to influence the Chilean Government's human rights policies has been the termination of military and economic aid to Chile. We will continue to express our concern at every opportunity to the Chilean authorities, and we will do all we can to elicit a more thorough accounting of such cases.

Sincerely,

1. AT A COCKTAIL PARTY 3/16/79 HOSTED BY AN EMBASSY OFFICER ONE OF THE INVITED GUESTS WAS MR. LUIS ROSENBLITT, A CHILEAN CITIZEN. SHORTLY AFTER HE ARRIVED, WHILE SITTING NEXT TO ANOTHER EMBASSY OFFICER, ROSENBLITT SAID THAT THERE WAS GOING TO BE AN ATTEMPT ON THE AMBASSADOR'S LIFE. WHEN THE OFFICER ASKED WHICH AMBASSADOR, ROSENBLITT REPLIED AMBASSADOR LANDAU. THE OFFICER THEN ASKED WHO WAS PLANNING THE ASSASSINATION AND HOW IT WOULD BE IMPLEMENTED AS THE AMBASSADOR IS NOT IN CHILE AT THE PRESENT TIME. ROSENBLITT REPLIED THAT HE WAS AWARE THAT AMBASSADOR LANDAU WAS IN THE UNITED STATES ON VACATION AND THAT THE ATTEMPT WAS GOING TO BE MADE IN THE UNITED STATES. ROSENBLITT SAID THAT DINA WAS BEHIND THE ASSASSINATION PLAN AND TI WAS TO BE CARRIED OUT BECAUSE AMBASSADOR LANDAU HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN THE PARAGUAYAN PASSPORT AFFAIR (LETELIER/ MOFFITT ASSASSINATION CASE). THE OFFICER REPLIED THAT HE THOUGHT DINA WAS NO LONGER IN EXISTENCE AND ROSENBLITT SAID THAT CNI AND DINA WERE THE SAME ORGANIZATION AND THAT HIS SOURCE WAS "A CLOSE FRIEND". 1. [redacted] ABDUCTIONS BEING HALTED--
A. REPORTS OF ABDUCTIONS RECEIVED BY HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS AND THIS EMBASSY SHOW A SHARP DROP IN 1979. OUR FILES LIST NINE DISAPPEARANCES IN JANUARY, NONE IN FEBRUARY (SEE BA 2490 PARA 4) AND A POSSIBLE THREE IN MARCH (SEE AMBASSADOR'S REPORT OF HIS MARCH 28 TALK WITH GENERAL VIOLA REGARDING THESE THREE DISAPPEARANCES WHICH VIOLA IS INVESTIGATING (SEE ALSO FINAL PARA.)
THIS TREND OF THE DATA ON DISAPPEARANCES TENDS TO CONFIRM NUMEROUS REPORTS REACHING ALL ELEMENTS OF THE EMBASSY TO THE AFFECT THAT THE GOA HAS ORDERED A HALT TO EXTRA-LEGAL ABDUCTION OF SUSPECTED SUBVERSIVES AND HAS

SENIOR MILITARY AND PRESIDENCIA SOURCES STATE THAT OPERATIONS AGAINST SUBVERSIVES HENCEFORTH WILL BE CARRIED OUT THROUGH NORMAL POLICE PROCEDURES. JUNTA MEMBER GENERAL VIOLA HAS STRESSED THIS POINT SEVERAL TIMES IN RECENT MEETINGS WITH AMBASSADOR CASTRO. BRIG. GENERAL LEPORI, AN ARMY COMMANDER IN MENDOZA, RECENTLY CONFIRMED TO THE DAO HE HAD RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS THAT ALL DETENTIONS WERE TO BE MADE LEGALLY AND THAT HE WAS STRICTLY FOLLOWING THESE ORDERS. AN ARMY MAJOR IN THE PRESIDENCIA TOLD THE ASSISTANT ARMY ATTACHE THAT BOTH THE PRESIDENCIA AND ARMY HEADQUARTERS HAD ISSUED INSTRUCTIONS TO ALL SECURITY FORCE COMMANDERS TO INSURE THAT NOFURTHER ILLEGAL OPERATIONS TOOK PLACE WITHIN THEIR ZONES OF RESPONSIBILITY.

B. GOA PREPARATIONS FOR IAHCR VISIT--
A GOVERNMENTAL TASK FORCE HEADED BY THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR IS REPORTED TO BE ACTIVELY PREPARING FOR THE MAY 28-JUNE 9 VISIT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS (IACHR). IN ADDITION TO PRODUCING A THICK BRIEFING BOOK ON THE VISIT, GOVERNMENTAL AND OTHER SOURCES INDICATETHAT THE DECLINE IN DISAPPEARANCES AND OTHER ACTIVITIES REPORTED BELOW ARE RELATED IN SOME DEGREE TO THE IMMINENCE OF THE COMMISSION'S VISIT.

C. PRISON CONDUCT STANDARDS--
SENIOR MINISTRY OF INTERIOR (MININT) OFFICIAL HAS TOLD THE EMBASSY THAT THE PRESIDENTIAL DECREE ESTABLISHING UNIFORM RULES OF CONDUCT AND TREATMENT FOR ALL ARGENTINE PRISONERS IS BEING TYPED IN FINAL AND IS EXPECTED TO BE ISSUED BY THE PRESIDENT IN THE FIRST WEEK OF APRIL. THIS DECREE REPORTEDLY WILL ESTABLISH FOR THE FIRST TIME WRITTEN RULES OF CONDUCT AND NORMS [redacted]

[redacted]

FOR THE TREATMENT OF ALL ARGENTINE PRISONERS -- BOTH CRIMINAL AND POLITICAL.

D. REMOVALS FROM PEN STATUS--
THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR'S EFFORT TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF PERSONS BEING HELD BY THE PODER EJECUTIVO NACIONAL (PEN) PRESIDENTIAL DECREES IS CONTINUING. SINCE THE BEGINNING OF 1979 THROUGH MARCH 25, ACCORDING TO THE

Case Number: S200000044

PRESS, 208 PERSONS HAVE HAD THEIR PEN STATUS REMOVED AND ONLY 24 NEW CASES HAVE BEEN ADDED TO THE PEN ROLLS.
BY EMBASSY COUNT THE TOTAL NUMBER OF PERSONS PRESENTLY PUBLICLY
RECORDED UNDER PEN IS 2,689. MININT INTERNAL SECURITY DIRECTOR
SAN ROMAN TOLD THE EMBASSY THIS WEEK THAT HE HOPED THAT BY THE END OF MAY THE PEN PRISONER POPULATION WOULD BE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF 1,800 PERSONS. SAN ROMAN SAID HIS EARLIER GOAL OF LESS THAN 1,000 PEN PRISONERS PRIOR TO IACHR VISIT HOES NOT NOW SEEM POSSIBLE DUE TO "PROBLEMS WITH THE ARMED FORCES."
ACCORDING TO SAN ROMAN, MININT OFFICIALS ARE CONSULTING THE JUDICIARY REGARDING EACH INDICTED
PEN PRISONER TO VERIFY THAT THE SUPERVISING JUDGE WILL NOT RELEASE THE "DANGEROUS PRISONER" IF HIS OR HER PEN STATUS IS REMOVED. AS SOON AS THE MINISTRY RECEIVES ASSURANCES, THE PEN DECREE IS REMOVED, AND THE PRISONER REMAINS DETAINED DURING SUBSEQUENT JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.
MINIT AND FOWG SOURCES HAVE TOLD US THAT SPECIAL ATTENTION IS BEING FOCUSED ON THOSE PERSONS HELD HUNDER THE

THEIR CRIMINAL SENTENCES AND CONTINUE TO BE HELD ONLY UNDER THE PEN. ACCORDING TO SAN ROMAN, THE MININT WISHES TO RELEASE TOSE CASES WHICH THEY CONSIDERED TO BE "SMALLFRY" (PEREJIL). (COMMENT: PRESUMABLY THOSE WHO ARE CONSIDERED IN THE "MORE DANGEROUS" CATEGORY WILL CIMPLY REMAIN UNDER PEN.)
THIS MAY NOW BE EASIER AS THE PRESIDENTIAL ADVISORY PANEL, CREATED BY THE RIGHT OF OPTION LAW, HAS ADOPTED ACCORDING TO MININT SOURCE NEW WORKING PROCEDURES ELIMINATING THE VETO POWER OF THE ARRESTING AGENCY OVER THE RELEASE OR OPTION OF PEN PRISONERS. PRIOR TO 1979, THE APPROVAL OF THE ORIGINAL ARRESTING AGENCY WAS NEEDED FOR ANY REMOVAL OF PEN STATUS. THE RATIONALE OF THE ARRESTING AGENCY FOR CONTINUING THE PEN DETENTION WAS NEVER QUESTIONED OR REVIEWED. HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO THE MININT UNDER THE NEW 1979 GUIDELINES, THE PRESIDENTIAL ADVISORY COMMISSION MAY NOW OVERRULE THE ARRESTING AGENCY'S
[redacted]
[redacted]

DECISION NOT TO RELEASE A PRISONER IF IT FINDS THE ARRESTING AGENCY'S JUSTIFICATION INSUFFICIENT.
ANOTHER STEP TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF PEN DETAINEES, ACCORDING TO SAN ROMAN, IS TO PLACE NEW SUBVERSIVE CASES FOR PROCESSING DIRECTLY UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE MILI TARY OR CIVIL CRIMINAL COURT SYSTEM, INSTEAD OF PLACING THEM AUTOMATICALLY UNDER THE PEN.

3. REPORTED CLOSURES OF DETENTION FACILITIES--
HUMAN RIGHTS AND RELEASED DETAINEE SOURCES HAVE INDICATED THAT A NUMBER OF WELL KNOWN DETENTION FACILITIES HAVE BEEN CLOSED. IN SOME CASES, THIS HAS BEEN CONFIRMED BY GOVERNMENT SOURCES. AMONG THOSE FACILITIES REPORTED CLOSED ARE THE NAVY MECHANICS SCHOOL, THE CAMPO DE MAYO, THE BRIDGE NO 12 FACILITY IN THE TABLADA ARMY GARRISON, LA PERLA ESTANCIA OUTSIDE OF CORDOBA, LA ARANA ESTANCIA OUTSIDE OF LA PLATA MIXED REPORTS), THE VACILITY AT THE FAMAILLA ARMY BASE IN TUCUMAN. THE EMBASSY HAS BEEN TOLD BY A GOWG SOURCE THAT ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE FOR ACHR COMMISSIONERS TO VISIT ANY PLACE IN ARGENTINA DURING THEIR VISIT AND THEY WILL BE ENCOURAGED TO VISIT THE NAVY MECHANICS SCHOOL AND THE ARMY'S CAMPO

DE MAYO.

F. PRISON REORGANIZATION--
ON APRIL 20 THE GOA EXPECTS TO INAUGURATE THE NEW CASEROS MODEL PRION IN BUENOS AIRES. THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR PLANS TO TRANSFER 490 PEN PRISONERS FROM SIERRA CHICA, 220 PEN PRISONERS FROM RESISTENCIA, AND OVER 300 PEN PRISONERS FROM CORONDA TO THE NEW BUENOS AIRES FACILITY BY MID-MAY. THESE MOVES WILL COMPLETE THOSE PRISON CHANGES POSSIBLE BEFORE THE ARRIVAL OF [redacted]

THE COMMISSION IN THE GOVERNMENT'S PLANNED PRISON REORGANIZATION. SEVERAL HUNDRED PEN PRISONERS HAVE ALREADY BEEN MOVED TO LA PLATA FROM PRISONS IN THE III CORPS AREA AND FROM SMALL PROVINCIAL JAILS. PEN PRISONERS WILL BE CONCENTRATED IN THE VILLA DEVOTO (WOMEN -- SLATED FOR CLOSING AS PEN HOLDING FACILITY). RAWSON ("VERY DANGEROUS MEN"), LA PLATA AND CASEROS PRISONS. THREE PRISONS -- CORONDA, SIERRA CHICA AND RESISTENCIA -- WHICH ARE REGARDED BY THE IRC AND HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS AS THE WORST OF THE ARGENTINE PRISONS -- WILL NO LONGER BE USED FOR PEN PRISONERS.

2. [redacted] HRO PREPRATIONS FOR IACHR VISIT--
ARGENTINE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VICE PRESIDENT EMILIO MIGNONE SPENT A WEEK IN LATE FEBRUARY IN WASHINGTON WORKING WITH THE IACHR STAFF PREPARING FOR THE COMMISSION'S SITE VISIT. MIGNONE INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT DR. EDGARDO PAZ BARNICA, A HUNDURAN STAFF LAWYER, HAS BEEN APPOINTED TO PREPARE THE COMMISSION'S REPORT. MIGNONE SAID THAT HE SPENT SIX FULL DAYS WORKING WITH DR PAZ BARNICA PROVIDING THE COMMISSION DETAILED INFORMATION REGARDING THE ARGENTINE LEGAL SYSTEM AND THE OPERATIONS OF THE GOA'S ANTI-SUBVERSIVE FORCES. ACCORDING TO MIGNONE, THE COMMISSION HAS A DETAILED OUTLINE OF ITS REPORT IN HAND AND IS NOW FOCUSING ON THOSE AREAS WHICH THE SITE VISIT CAN BE USED TO SUPPLY INFORMATION FOR THE REPORT.
THE IACHR IS RECEIVING NUMEROUS DOCUMENTS REGARDING DISAPPEARANCES SENT BY FAMILIES AND GROUPS

WHO WANT TO INSURE THAT THEIR COMPLAINTS -- DATING FROM EARLY IN THIS MILITARY GOVERNMENT TO THE PRESENT -- ARE ALSO REGISTERED IN THAT FORUM. MIGNONE SAID THAT THE COMMISSION HAD OVER 1,500 CASES REGISTERED WHEN HE WAS IN WASHINGTON IN LATE

A LATER REPORT FROM A BUENOS AIRES HERALD WASHINGTON STRINGER REPORTED THAT THE COMMISSION HAD OVER 2,500 CASES AND WAS NO RECEIVING 80 LETTERS A DAY. ACCORDING TO PERMANENT ASSEMBLY SOURCES, THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION IS ESPECAILLY INTERESTED IN HELP FROM ARGENTINE HRO'S IN IDENTIFYING DIS-APPEARANCE CASES IN WHICH THERE IS SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE OF THE INVOLVEMENT OF GOVERNMENT SECURITY FORCES. THE ASSEMBLY HAS CREATED A SMALL TASK GROUP HEADED BY

DR. CONTE-MACDONALD TO IDENTIFY AND DOCUMENT THESE HARD EVIDENCE CASES FOR THE COMMISSION.

3. (U) JUDICIAL ACTIVITY--
SUPREME COURT INITIATIVES--
A NUMBER OF DECISION HAVE BEEN HANDED DOWN BY THE SUPREME COURT AND THE FEDERAL CRIMINAL APPEALS COURT RELATED TO HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTIONS SINCE DECEMBER, 1978. THE SUPREME COURT'S MARCH 20 DECISION FORCING THE ARMY FIRST CORPS TO RETURN

[redacted]

JUDICIAL CUSTODY ARMY NCO BERRUETA WHO WAS UNDER CIVIL PREVENTIVE DETENTION FOR BRANDISHING A PISTOL DURING A TRAFFIC DISPUTE AND BERREUTA'S SUVSEQUENT RETURN BY THE ARMY TO CIVILIAN JUDICIAL AUTHORITY CAPTURED WIDE ATTENTION IN THE PRESS. (SEE BUENOS AIRES 2244 AND PRVIOUS)
ALSO RECEIVING WIDE PRESS ATTENTIONWAS THE FEBRUARY 27 ORDER OF THE SUPREME COURT FOR A THOROUGH JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION OF THE DISAPPEARANCE OF ALFREDO ANTONI GIORGI (EMBASSY CASE NO 681/78/12). IN THIS CASE THE HIGH COURT CRITICIZED A FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE'S FAILURE TO PROCESS THE ORIGINAL GIORGI HABEAS CORPUS PETITION FOR THE INSUFFICIENT REASON THAT HIS XEROX MACHINE WAS NOT WORKING. THE COURT ORDERED THAT JUDGE BE SLECTED BY LOT TO CONDUCT A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF THE DISAPPEARANCE. THESE TWO CASES HAVE BEEN WIDELY POINTED TO IN THE PRESS AND BY GOA OFFICIALS AS DEMONSTRATING THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY.
REASONABLENESS OF PEN DETENTIONS--
THE SUPREME COURT ISSUED A SERIES OF DECISIONS ON JANUARY 12, 1979 IN THE YANEZ, ET AL. HABEAS CORPUS PETITIONS WHICH ACCORDING TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND BAR ASSOCIATION SOURCES CALLS INTO QUESTION THE "ZAMARANO DOCTRINE" WHICH WAS THE BASIS OF THE FEDERAL COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS DECISION IN LATE 1978 ORDERING OVER 160 PEN PRISONERS FREED BECAUSE OF THE VAGUE AND UNSUPPORTED NATURE OF THE GOVERNMENT'S JUSTIFICATIONS FOR DETAINING THEM UNDER THE PODER EJECUTIVO NACIONAL (PEN). THE ZAMARANO DOCTRINE, FIRST ENUNCIATED BY CRIMINAL APPEALS COURT IN 1977, HOLDS THAT THE EXECUTIVE POWER MAY ONLY

Case Number: S200000044

DETAIN PERSONS UNDER ITS CONSTITUTIONAL STATE OF SIEGE AUTHORITY FOR SPECIFIC CHARGES RELATED TO THE IMPOSITION
[redacted]

OF THE STATE OF SIEGE. THE DOCTRINE FURTHER HOLDS THAT PEN DETENTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO REVIEW BY THE JUDICIARY TO ENSURE THAT EACH DETENTION IS A REASONABLE EXERCISE OF THE STATE OF SIEGE POWER. HOWEVER, IN THE YANEZ, ET AL DECISIONS THE SUPREME COURT OVERTURNED
THE FEDERAL CRIMINAL APPEALS COURTS PREVIOUS ORDERS
FREEING OVER 100 PEN PRISONERS. THE SUPREME COURT
IN A SIMILAR TWO SENTENCE DECISION IN EACH CASE FOUND NO CIRCUMSTANCES "TO DISQUALIFY THE EXERCISE OF THE RIGHT OF THE EXECUTIVE POWER TO CONTINUE TO DETAIN THESE INDIVIDUALS." MOST OF THE PERSONS WHOSE CASES WERE BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT WERE BEING HELD.
UNDER PEN FOR REASONS SUCH AS SUSPICION OF ASSOCIATION WITH SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATIONS, ETC. THE SUPREME COURTS DECISION IS SEEN BY HRO'S AS A SERIOUS WEAKENING OF THE "ZAMARANO DOCTRINE," AND LOWERING THE "REASONABLENESS"
STANDARD SO THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS ONLY TO ASSERT THAT THE DETENTION IS RELATED TO "SUBVERSION" AND NOT TO A SPECIFIC CRIME. THE BUENOS AIREA BAR ASSOCIATION
IN A MARCH 16, 1979 STATEMENT PRAISING THE UPREME
COURTS HANDLING OF THE GIORGI CASE CHIDED THE COURT FOR ACCEPTING "UNREASONABLE ANSWERS" TO HABEAS CORPUS WRITS FILED ON PEN PRISONERS.
FOLLOWING THE "YANEZ, ET AL." SUPREME COURT DECISIONS, TWO NEW PEN PRISONER HABEAS CORPUS PETITIONS HAVE BEEN DECIDED BY THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS. THE PRESS
REPORTED ON MARCH 20, 1979, THAT THE CRIMINAL APPEALS COURT HAD HELD IN A PSLIT DECISION IN THE CASE OF SARA ADAMCHUCK THAT THE REASON GIVEN BY THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR
FOR THE PEN IMPRISONMENT OF MS. ADAMCHUCK WAS "INSUFFI-CIENT." THE MININT TOLD THE COURT THAT MS. ADAMCUCH WAS BEING HELD UNDER PEN DETENTION" "FOR HER CONNECTIONS WITH SUBVERSION." THE COURTS MAJORITY SAID THAT "IT IS NECESSARY TO DEMAND THE EVIDENCE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE BEHAVIOR OF THE DETAINED IS PUNISHABLE BY LAW." THE DISSENTER SAID THAT "GIVEN THE HISTORIC

A NUMBER OF REPERCUSSIONS. THE COURT'S CALL TO PRESIDENT VIDELA FOR THE EXECUTIVE TO TAKE STEPS TO REMEDY THIS SITATUION TRIGGERED A PRESIDENTIAL REPLY IN AN OPEN LETTER. THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT HE AGREED WITHTHE COURT THAT THERE HAD BEEN A SERIOUS DEPRIVATION OF JUSTICE IN ARGENTINA IN RECENT YEARS BUT NOTED THE DIFFICULT PERIOD WHICH THE COUNTRY HAD GONE THROUGH AND STATED THAT ONE OF THE PRIORITIES OF THE MILITARY'S NATIONAL REORGANIZATION PLAN WAS TO REESTABLISH A STRENGTHENED JUDICIAL SYSTEM. THE VIDELA LETTER OCCASIONED FULSOME POSITIVE COMMENTS FROM THE PRESS AND LEGAL COMMUNITY. HOWEVER, EMILIO MIGNONE, ONE OF THE PETITIONER'S LAWYERS IN THE SMITH III CASE PRESENTED THE SUPREME COURT WITH A LEGAL MEMORANDUO ON FEBRUARY 21, 1979 STATING THAT IF THE JUDICIARY COULD NOT PROPERLY FUNCTION AS THE COURT HAD STATED IN THE SMITH III CASE, THE SUPREME COURT MEMBERS HAD AN OBLIGATION TO RESIGN.

4. MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS REPORTED--
THE DISAPPEARANCE OF A PRISONER NAMED JUAN CARLOS JULLO FROM LA PLATA PRISON IN FEBRUARY 1979 WAS REPORTED BY OTHER PRISONERS TO [redacted] WHO RELAYED THE STORY TO THE EMBASSY. NEITHER [redacted] NOR, APPARENTLY, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR HAS BEEN ABLE TO DETERMINE WHETHER OR FOR WHAT PURPOSE HE WAS TRANSFERRED. LA PLATA PRISON OFFICIALS SAY NOW THAT JULLO IS NOT BEING HELD THERE, AND [redacted] IS CONTINUING ITS INVESTIGATION. [redacted] HAS RECENTLY RECEIVED AN ASSURANCE FROM MININT HARGUINDEGUY THAT PEN PRISONERW OULD NOT BE RELASED FROM JAIL TO ANTI-SUBVERSIVE UNITS FOR INTERROGATION. AND HIS ADVISORS REPLIED THAT LEGAL MATTERS WOULD BE RESTORED, BUT THAT IN CASES WHERE THERE WAS STRONG SUSPICION OF TERRORIST ASSOCIATIONS BUT NO PROOF THE SUSPECT'S RELEASE WOULD BE DIFFICULT. MARTINEZ DE HOZ ADDED HIS BELIEF THAT PROOF OF TERRORIST ASSOCIATIONS WOULD BE HARD TO PRESENT BECAUSE OFTEN IT DERIVED FROM SECURITY FORCE PENETRATION OF ORGANIZATIONS THAT COULD NOT BE MADE PUBLIC.

6. (U) OPERATIONS AGAINST HRO FAMILIARES DE DESAPARACIDOS Y DETENIDOS-- SPOT REPORTS RECEIVED OVER SEVERAL WEEKS BY THE EMBASSY FROM FAMILY AND FDD SOURCES NOW CAN BE READ TO INDICATE A PATTERN OF OPERATIONS DIRECTED AGAINST THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PARTIDO COMUNISTA ARGENTINA LINKED HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION -- FAMILIARES DE DESAPARECIDOS Y DETENIDOS POR RAZONES POLITICAS (FDD).

[redacted]

SINCE LATE SEPTEMBER 1978, TWENTY-ONE FDD LEADERS AND ASSOCIATES HAVE BEEN ABDUCTED --FOURTEEN WERE SUBSEQUENTLY RELEASED, SIX REMAINED DETAINED UNDER PEN, AND ONE, A CHILEAN, WAS KILLED. ON OCTOBER 14, 1978, A BUSLOAD OF SANTA FE FDD MEMBERS WAS PREVENTED BY SECURITY FORCES FROM ATTENDING A MEMORIAL MASS FOR THE DISAPPEARED IN ROSARIO. THEM MASS ITSELF WAS BROKEN UP WHE SEVERAL UNIDENTIFIED MEN ENTERED THE CHURCH AND DETONATED TEARGAS GRENADES.
THE BOMBING ON FEBRUARY 28, 1979 OF THE HOUSE OF DANIEL ZAPP, THE FDD'S ROSARIO LEADER (HIS CAR WAS BOMBED EARLIER ON OCTOBER 17, 1978) AND THE FIRE BOMBING OF THE AUTOMOBILE OF MR. AND MRS.LUCAS ORFANO, THE FDD'S BUENOS AIRES SECRETARY AND TEASURER RESPECTIVELY FURTHER INDICATE THE NATURE OF THE ANTI-FDD CAMPAIGN. MR. AND MRS. ORFANO HAD RECENTLY RETURNED TO BUENOS AIRES FROM PUEBLA, MEXICO WHERE THEY HEADED THE FDD'S LOBBYING EFFORTS DURING THE LATIN AMERICAN BISHOP'S CONFERENCE. THE COUPLE ALSO REPORTEDLY HAS TWO DISAPPEARANCE CASE INVESTIGATIONS UNDERWAY WITHIN THE IACHR.
THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY, FDD AND THE LEAGUE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MAN HAVE ISSUED PROTESTS AGAINST THESE ACTONS AND HAVE CALLED ON THE PRESIDENCY AND THE ARMY CORPS COMMANDERS FOR PROTECTION AGAINST THIS CONTINUING INTIMIDATION.

7. [redacted] OPEATIONS AGAINST THE PARTIDO SOCIALISTA DE TRABAJADORES (PST)--
REPORTS FROM RELATIVES AND PST PARTY MEMBERS WHO HAVE REPORTED RELIABLE IN THE PAST, INDICATE THAT ARGENTINE SECURITY FORCES HAVE TARGETED THE PST LEADERSHIP AND MEMBERS IN SEVERAL AREAS. THE RECENT ACTIONS AGAINST THE PST BEGAN IN LATE
[redacted]
[redacted]

OCTOBER AND EARLY NOVEMBER, 1978 WHEN 13 PST MEMBERS WERE LEGALLY ARRESTED BY PROVINCIAL POLICE IN THE PROVINCE OF SANTA FE. ACCORDING TO PST SOURCES, 12 OF THE ARRESTED MEMBERS WERE BEATEN BUT NOT FURTHER MISTREATED. HOWEVER, THE PST PROVINCIAL EADER, EDUARDO OSCAR LOPEZ, WAS REMOVED FROM ROSARIO CENTRAL POLICE STATION FOR THREE DAYS AND HOSTIELY INTERROGATED. PST PARTY MEMBERS HEREIN BUENOS AIRES HAVE TOLD US THAT HE WAS BADLY BEATEAN AND SCALDED WITH WATER DURING HIS INTERROGATION. AFTER HIS RETURN TO THE PROVINCIAL POLICE, HE WAS HELD INCOMMUNICADO FOR TWO WEEKS WHILE HE RECOVERED. ALL 13 OF THE SANTA FE PST MEMBERS HAVE BEEN CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL POLITICAL ACTIVITY AND POSSESSION OF SUBVERSIVE LITERATURE--ON IS FREED ON BAIL, FIVE ARE HELD UNDER THE PEN, AND THE OTHER SEVEN ARE UNDER A JUDICIAL DETENTION ORDER.

TWO PST MEMBERS WERE ABDUCTED IN LA PLATA ON JANUARY 19, 1979. ACCORDING TO A REPORT BY A FAMILY MEMBER OF ONE OF THE ABDUCTEES, BOTH WERE INTERROGATED WITH US OF AN ELECTRIC PICANA BEFORE GEING TURNED OVER TO THE CIVIL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM. BOTH HAVE BEEN CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL POLITICAL ACTIVITES AND HAVE BEEN FREED ON BAIL.
EIGHT PST MEMBERS WERE ABDUCTED IN MAR DEL PLATA IN EARLY JANUARY1, 979. ACCORDING TO PST PARTY LEADER SOURCES, THOSE ABDUCTED WERE PARTY ACTIVITS AND STUDENT LEADERS IN THREE MAR DEL PLATA HIGH SCHOOLS PRIOR TO THE 1976 COUP. LATE ON MARCH 24, 1979, ACCORDING TO A PST SOURCE, THREE PST MEMBERS WERE ABDUCTED IN TIGRE (A NORTHER SUBURB OF BUENOS AIRES). THERE HAS BEEN NO INFORMATION REGARDING THE WHEREABOUTS OF THESE INDIVIDUALS.
AMBASSADOR CASTRO RAISED THESE THREE CASES - THE FIRST SINCE JANUARY -- WITH GENERAL VIOLA ON MARCY 28, PROVIDING THE NAMES AND CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ABDUCTION AS REPORTED TO US. GENERAL VIOLA SAID HE COULD

Señores Jueces de la Suprema Corte de Justicia de la Nación

OSVALDO CESAR GIORGI-Argentino-L.E.3.684.077 con domicilio en [redacted] por mi y constituyendo domicilio ante V.S. me presento y digo con mi mayor respeto, refiriéndome a l secuestro de mi hijo ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI L.E. 4.518.950.-----

Que en mi pertinaz búsqueda de Justicia, he dedicado las dos últimas semanas a tratar de informarme sobre los trámites judiciales por el secuestro de mi hijo, en la ciudad de SAN MARTIN, provincia de Buenos Aires, en los Juzgados Federales.-

Acompañado s iempre por mi esposa legítima y madre legítima de mi hijo ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI, nos informaron en el Juzgado Federal Nº3 a cargo del Juez Dr.Manuel Agustín García Tuñón que habían recibido un expediente y que por haberse declarado el juzgado incompetente se elevaría al Juzgado Nº1 a cargo del señor Juez Federal Dr. GITAR.-

Luego de varios días, pasó este expediente de mi hijo, al juzgado Nº1 Federal, donde por la fecha del hecho,el lugar del sucedido, en la Repartición Nacional I.N.T.I. etc. correspondería la competencia y tramitación del mismo.-

Con particular deferencia, el señor Secretario del Juzgado Federal Nº1, el Doctor VIRASORO nos informó la entrada al Juzgado del expediente de mi hijo, con fecha 20 y nos dió audiencia para el día 23 a las 10.30 horas.- En ese día y hora fuemos atendidos por el señor Juez Dr.GITAR con igual amabilidad y deferencia, convenciéndonos que hay magistrados que honran el fuero de mi patria.----------

Pero entonces nos enteramos, que las actuaciones llegadas y obrantes en el juzgado, eran las correspondientes a las del juzgado de la Provincia, del Doctor Juez RODRIGUEZ VARELA y que no estaban agregadas las iniciadas por la Suprema Corte de Justicia en la Capital Federa l.-

¿Donde estaban las actuaciones ordenadas por la Suprema Corte de Justicia de la Nación, a un mes practicamente de su maravilloso dictamen del 27 de Febrero y a CUATRO MESES de la desaparición de mi hijo ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI

82 D 103

Por sugerencia del señor Juez Doctor CITAR volvimos al Juzgado Federal Nº3 y luego al Nº 2 y por sugerencia de un amable empleado funcionario de éste Juzgado, fuimos siempre con mi esposa y yo a la Delegación en SAN MARTIN de la Policía Federal que nos informaron se ocupan de los traslados y entregas a los Juzgados de los expedientes.-Y de vuelta al Juzgado Nacional Nº 1.- En todas partes fué buscado y en ninguna hallado.- ¿ Donde está el expediente iniciado y ordenado por la Suprema Corte de Justicia de la Nación, que el día 6 de Marzo el señor Juez Federal, doctor LEDESMA informó no ser de su competencia y que pasaría a l Juzgado Federal de turno de la Provincia de Buenos Aires, en la ciudad de SAN MARTIN ?

Sigo teniendo absoluta fé en la Justicia de mi patria ya que de otro modo, callaría para siempre.-Y quizás en mi lirismo patriotico supongo que al cambiar los tiempos y antiguos conceptos creidos fundamentales son modificados por nuevas verdades o realidades-"Hoy es comprensible en el mundo que ni las mayorías legitimizan un gobierno si ellas ó él no respetan las leyes del país y de la humanidad" "En el respeto de sus derechos y la justicia a UN HOMBRE respetamos a la humanidad" - también la Suprema Corte de Justicia de mi patria podría considerar declararse competente, o nombrar de su seno una comisión que se abocara al estudio y resolviera con justicia los casos de "desaparecidos" entre otras figuras que comprenden la supresión de los derechos humanos.- Cuando el mundo los repudia y nos pregunta por su cumplimiento y esta pregunta nos abochorna y ofende porque empaña nuestra historia de paz, de libertad y justicia y la tradicional hidalguia argentina.----------

De resultar factible, el CASO UNICO Y ESPECIAL de mi hijo ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI, permitiría citar testigos del más alto rango y llegar a la verdad y rápida justicia final, quizá a inaccesible en otros estrados.- Y cuando la Suprema Corte de Justicia de la Nación, con todo su poder y valentía vigorosamente demostrada en este glorioso mes de Marzo, demostrara rápida y eficazmente cual es la verdadera justicia argentina, cualesquiera fueran los resultados fi-

// nales y los afectados; se habría obtenido la máxima prenda de paz y seguridad de que ya nunca se repetirán los casos de "desaparecidos"a manos de poderosos desconocidos.---

Porque pienso que aún en el peor de los casos, que ya nunca pudiera recuperar a mi hijo vivo, habrá sido en su honor y memoria todo mi esfuerzo y mi único legado a mis nietos-los hijos de mi hijo desaparecido- el haberme brindado a la justicia hasta mis últimas fuerzas; con la fé y esperanza de que otros inocentes no pasen iguales penurias ni sus familias lo que ha sufrido la mía.----------

Se cumplen tres años de este Gobierno, con el estado de sitio que suspende los derechos constitucionales.-La guerrilla interna ha sido vencida y los culpables deben ser juzgados y severamente condenados, como todos lo deseamos.- Y todos esperamos la apertura a los inalienables derechos ciudadanos, porque jamás la humanidad su supresión podrá aceptarlos.- Las figuras de "a disposición del P.E.N." sin término y en algunos casos por años, que luego son liberados sin haber sido juzgados y sin condena; o la"desapprición" son las más monstruosas aberraciones contra el ser humano, imagen de Dios y centro del Universo, y con esto no puede compadecerse la noble soberanía argentina.----------

Si el Poder Legislativo nos mostró historicamente a alguna de sus Cámaras constituidas en Comisión, o nombró de su seno una Comisión Investigadora de un determinado hecho; si el P.E.N. en todas las épocas intervino las Provincias, Instituciones o personas jurídicas cuando lo creyó conveniente; p uedo tener la esperzan - y que hermosa esperanza - de que la majestuosa Suprema Corte de Justicia de la Nación tome por sí o nombre de su seno o fuera de él, una Comisión Investigadora que se aboque al estudio y resuelva con justicia la desaparición de mi hijo ALFREDO ANTONIO GIONNI como ejemplo y estímulo de fé a la ciudadanía.------

Esto pido, respetuosamente, señores Honorables Jueces de la Suprema Corte de Justicia de mi patria, excusándome por mis reiteraciones o defectos de forma que ruego disculparme, convencido de que SERA JUSTICIA.-

3. MINISTER ARLIA DUTIFULLY RECEIVED THE LISTS AND AFTER RESPONDING WITH A PRO FORMA STATEMENT REGARDING "INTERFERENCE IN ARGENTINE INTERNAL AFFAIRS," MADE THREE COMMENTS:
- - (A) NEITHER THE FOREIGN OFFICE NOR THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR HAVE THE MANPOWER NECESSARY TO REVIEW THIS AMOUNT OF INFORMATION. REQUESTS FROM THE FOREIGN OFFICE TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR TO REVIEW ALL OF

THIS MATERIAL WOULD BE FLATLY TURNED DOWN. THE GOA'S INFORMATION IS NOT ON COMPUTERS; EACH CASE MUST BE SEARCHED MANUALLY.

- - (B) THE AISC LIST IS AN INACCURATE COMPENDIUM OF INFORMATION. THE AISC LIST CONTAINS INFORMATION NOT ONLY REGARDING DISAPPEARED PERSONS, BUT ABOUT PERSONS WHO WERE ARRESTED OR DETAINED LEGALLY, AND ABOUT PERSONS WHO WERE RELEASED. MANY OF THE SOURCES CITED IN THE AISC DOCUMENT ARE DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY LINKED WITH TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS. - - (C) THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY'S LIST APPEARS HOWEVER TO BE A "SERIOUS DOCUMENT," AND THE FOREIGN MINISTERY WILL UNDERTAKE TO HAVE THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR REVIEW THAT SINGLE DOCUMENT.

4. COMMENT: IT SEEMS LIKELY THAT THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR HAS PREVIOUSLY REVIEWED THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY'S LIST OF 4,497 DISAPPEARANCE CASES WHICH APPEARED IN LATE 1978. THE MININT REVIEWED THE ASSEMBLY'S EARLIER MAY 17, 1978 LIST OF SOME 2,500 CASES AND PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED THAT 67 OF THOSE CASES HAD, ACCORDING TO MINISTRY'S RECORDS, BEEN RELEASED.

SUBJ: ORIT BOYCOTT: CHILEAN LABOR LEADER REPORTS ON U.S. TRIP

REF: STATE 75056

1. SUMMARY. RETURNING FROM A BRIEF TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES, GROUP OF TEN LABOR LEADER EDUARDO RIOS HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE. HE WARNED THAT THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR MOVEMENT DISTRUSTED THE GOC'S PLAN BUT WOULD WAIT UNTIL AFTER IT IS FULLY LAID OUT ON JUNE 30 BEFORE MAKING A FINAL DECISION ON A TRADE BOYCOTT. TO SUBSTANTIATE AFL-CIO CONCERN, RIOS RELEASED COPIES OF THE ERNIE LEE LETTER TO LABOR MINISTER PINERA (REFTEL). DRAWING UPON AN EARLY MARCH GROUP OF TEN POSITION PAPER REGARDING RELATIONS WITH OTHER UNION GROUPS, RIOS RECONFIRMED THAT GROUP WOULD CONCENTRATE ON MEETINGS WITH BASE UNIONS RATHER THAN CO-SIGN PETITIONS TO THE GOC WICH WERE UNREQUITED. SENSATIONALIST "LA SEGUNDA" AND GOC-OWNED "CRONISTA" DESCRIBED THIS AS A "THREAT" TO MOUNT "SEDITIOUS" DEMONSTRATIONS. END SUMMARY.

2. DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS EDUARDO RIOS, PRESIDENT OF THE MARTITIME WORKERS, AND TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, PRESIDENT OF THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, RETURNED MARCH 30 FROM A FOUR DAY VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES TO DISCUSS THE CHILEAN LABOR SITUATION AT THE INVITATION OF THE AFL-CIO. RIOS AND JIMENEZ REPORTED ON THEIR TRIP PRIVATELY TO THE GROUP OF TEN APRIL 3 AND HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE APRIL 4.

3. RIOS TOLD THE PRESS THAT THE AFL-CIO WAS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE LABOR SITUATION IN CHILE. HE REPORTED THAT ON MARCH 8, THE AFL-CIO DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS ERNIE LEE EXPRESSED THESE CONCERNS IN A LETTER TO THE LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA. RIOS GAVE COPIES OF THE LETTER OT THE PRESS BUT ADDED THAT PRIOR TO TAKING ACTION ON THE BOYCOTT RESOLUTION THE AFL-CIO WAS DISPOSED TO WAIT UNTIL AFTER JUNE 30 WHEN THE LABOR PLAN AS ANNOUNCED ON JANUARY 2 WOULD BE FULLY DEVELOPED. THE GROUP OF TEN, FOR ITS PART, WOULD NOW BEGIN ORGANIZING ACTION TO INFLUENCE POSITIVELY THE LABOR PLAN LEGISLATION.

4. SPEAKING FOR THE GROUP OF TEN, RIOS ARGUED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERS IN CHILE AND IN THE UNITED STATES UNDERSTOOD WHAT CONSTITUTED TRADE UNION FREEDEOM; ALL WERE AGREED THAT TRADE UNION LIBERTY MEANT MORE THAN THE RIGHT TO JOIN OR NOT JOIN A UNION; IT ALSO MEANT THE RIGHT TO FORM ORGANIZATIONS OF ONE'S CHOICE AS SET FORTH IN ILO CONVENTIONS 87 AND 98.

5. RIOS EXPLAINED THAT THE GOC IS NOT RESPECTING THE RIGHT TO MEET FREELY. HE CITED EXAMPLES OF OFFICIAL DENIAL OF THE RIGHT TO MEET AND HARASSMENT OF A LABOR

MEETING. TRADE UNIONS IN CHILE, HE SAID, CANNOT DEPEND ON THE GOOD FAITH OF THE GOVERNMENT TO GRANT THEM THEIR RIGHTS. THE TIME HAS COME TO MOBILIZE UNIONS THROUGHOUT CHILE. HE ANNOUNCED THAT TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS WOULD ORGANIZE THEIR OWN MAY DAY CELEBRATION THIS YEAR AND CALLED ON TRADE UNIONIST NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE GOVERNMENT-DIRECTED MAY DAY EVENTS.

6. MOST OF RIOS' STATEMENTS ON GROUP OF TEN POLICY WERE DRAWN FROM A MARCH 6 POSITION PAPER ISSUED IN CONNECTION WITH INVITATIONS FROM PRO-GOVERNMENT AND LEFTIST UNIONS TO JOIN IN A COMMON FRONT AGAINST THE GOC LABOR PLAN (SEE SANTIAGO 1759). AT THAT TIME, THE GROUP HAD EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO JOIN WITH ALLIES WHO ACCEPTED THEIR POSITIONS AND WOULD REFUSE TO ATTEND THE BRIEFING SESSIONS PINOCHET HAS CONDUCTED FOR LABOR AND REFRAIN FROM PARTICIPATING ON THE GOC DELEGATION TO THE ILO. THE POSITION PAPER ALSO MADE THE POINT THAT PLAINTIVE PETITIONS TO THE GOC WERE NOT PRODUCING RESULTS AND THAT THE TIME HAD COME TO CONCENTRATE ON BUILDING A PUBLIC CONSENSUS AMONG RANK AND FILE TO WHICH THE GOC WOULD BE MORE INCLINED TO LISTEN.

7. NONETHELESS, GOC-OWNED "CRONISTA" CHARACTERIZED RIOS' CALL FOR MEETINGS AND ASSEMBLIES TO PROTEST THE LABOR PLAN AS "SEDITIOUS", WHILE SENSATIONALIST "LA SEGUNDA" BANNERED "INTERVENTION OF THE AFL-CIO" AND SAID THAT RIOS WAS THREATENING" THE GOC. OTHER PAPERS GAVE THE PRESS CONFERENCE RESTRAINED UNCLASSIFIED

COVERAGE; IT DID NOT APPEAR ON TELEVISION.

8. COMMENT: RIOS TOLD LABATT THAT HE WAS AUTHORIZED IN WASHINGTON TO RELEASE THE LEE LETTER TO THE PRESS. AT THE PRESS CONFERENCE HE USED THE LETTER TO DEMONSTRATE CONTINUED FOREIGN INTEREST IN CILEAN LABOR AFFAIRS AND AS A PLATFORM TO ANNOUNCE A STRONG ORGANIZING CAMPAIGN. THE FIRST OBJECTIVE WILL BE A SEPARATE MAY DAY CLELBRATION. ACCORIDING TO ONE SOURCE, A REQUEST SIGNED BY VARIOUS GROUPS OF TRADE UNIONIST FOR A SEPARATE MAY DAY CELEBRATION IN THE PLAZA BULNES HAS ALREADY BEEN SENT TO THE INTERIOR MINISTRY. THE GOC IS PLANNING ITS OWN LABOR CELEBRATIONS FOR MAY 1,

PART I - NEW EVENT AND INDICATORS

1. (U) NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION VISIT -----
FIVE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING THE BAR ASSOCIATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION BEGAN A WEEK LONG INQUIRY INTO THE ARGENTINE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION ON APRIL 1. THE DELEGATION, WHOSE VISIT IS FINANCED BY THE ROCKEFELLER AND FORD FOUNDATIONS THROUGH GRANTS TO THE LAWYERS'S COMMITTEE FOR INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS, IS HEADED BY THE FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION, ORVILLE SCHELL. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE DELEGATION ARE: HAROLD

HEALY, PRESIDENT-ELECT OF THE INTERNATIONAL UNION OF LAWYERS (IUA), JUDGE MARVIN FRANKEL, SCOTT GREATHEAD, AND STEPHEN KASS.

ALTHOUGH THE GROUP HAD RECEIVED ASSURANCES IN WASHINGTON FROM ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR AJA ESPIL THAT THE GOA WOULD MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THEM TO MEET WITH SENIOR GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, NO APPOINTMENTS WERE MADE ON THEIR BEHALF. AMBASSADOR CASTRO MADE APPOINTMENTS FOR THE AMERICAN MEMBERS WITH GENERAL VIOLA, MINISTER OF JUSTICE RODRIGUEZ VARELA, SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT GABRIELLI, AND PRESIDENTIAL LEGAL ADVISOR COLONEL CERDA. OTHER ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE VISIT WERE MADE BY THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY AND THE COLEGIO DE ABOGADOS (FACA). A COMPLICATING FACTOR WAS THE SIMULTANEOUS VISIT OF IUS PRESIDENT ZERFLUG, WHO WAS UNACCEPTABLE TO THE GOA ON GROUNDS OF HIS CORRESPONDENCE AND CONTACTS WITH THELIGA PARA LOS DERECHOS HUMANOS, AND ORGANIZATION LINKE TO THE ARGENTINE COMMUNIST PARTY. ZERFLUG'S VISITS WERE INDEPENDENTLY ARRANGED.
THE NEW YORK GROUP HAS ALSO HELD MEETINGS WITH AMBASSADOR CASTRO, THE DIRECTORS OF FACA, THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY, BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR ROBERT COX, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW EXPER AND TIMERMAN'S ATTORNEY GENARO CARRIO, THE COLLEGE OF LAWYERS OF THE CITY OF BUENOS AIRES, A GROUP OF DEFENSE LAWYERS PLUS INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS WITH PROFESSIONAL LEGAL CONTACTS. THE GROUP IS SCHEDULED TO MEET WITH JEWISH COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP (DAIA), AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MOTHERS OF THE PLAZA DE MAYO.
AN APPOINTMENTS HAS BEEN REQUESTED WITH INTERIOR MINISTRY OFFICIALS, BUT HAS NOT AS YET BEEN ACCEPTED. ALTHOUGH THE LAWYERS HAVE MET WITH SOME FAMILY MEMBERS REGARDING INDIVIDUAL CASES (EG SARAGOVI), THE MAJOR FOCUS OF THEIR VISIT HAS BEEN DIRECTED TOWARDS THE LEGAL PROFESSION AND THE [redacted]

THRUST OF THEIR PRESENTATIONS HAS BEEN ON PROVIDING TRIALS UNDER ARGENTINE LAW OR RELEASING THE MANY EXECUTIVE DETAINEES PRESENTLY HELD BY THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT. AS OF WEDNESDAY (4/4), THE GROUP APPEARED PLEASED WITH THE RECEPTION GIVEN TO THEM BY THE GOA, THEIR LEGAL COLLEAGUES AND THE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

2. (U) RECENT DISAPPEARANCES-----
MRS. MARCELINA ARTOLA DE BARREIRO INFORMED THE EMBASSY ON APRIL 5 THAT HER SON, ROBERTO MARCELO BARREIRO WAS ABDUCTED AT CAMARONES AND TERRADA STREETS IN BUENOS AIRES ON MARCH 12, 1979 AND THAT MR. BARREIRO'S WIFE, MARIA ROSA PAREDES DE BARREIRO, WAS ALSO KIDNAPPED ON THAT SAME DAY ON CANDARCO AND CERVANTES STREETS AFTER LEAVING THE POLICE STATION WHERE SHE FILED A REPORT REGARDING HER HUSBAND'S ABDUCTION. MRS. BARREIRO HAS NO INFORMATION REGARDING THE WHERABOUTS OF THE COUPLE. THE AMBASSADOR CALLED GENERAL VIOLA IMMEDIATELY UPON HEARING THIS REPORT, SEEKING OFFICIAL EXPLANATION.

3. ([redacted] RUMORS OF POSTPONEMENT OF IACHR VISIT-----
THE EMBASSY HAS RECEIVED NO ADDITIONAL REPORTS REGARDING THE POSSIBLE POSTPONEMENT OF THE IACHR VISIT TO ARGENTINA (SEE BUENOS AIRES 2593). THE REBUTTAL BY AN IACHR SPOKESPERSON WHICH WAS CARRIED ON THE AP WIRE QUENCHED THE RUMORS TRIGGERED BY LAST SUNDAY'S "LA NACION WEEKLY POLITICAL COLUMN THAT THE IACHR WAS CONSIDERING A POSTPONEMENT. MINISTER OF JUSTICE RODRIGUEZ VARELA IN HIS MEETING WITH THE NEW YORK CITY BAR DELEGATION TALKED ABOUT THE IACHR VISIT AS AN EVENT FIRMLY INSCRIBED ON THE ARGENTINE HUMAN RIGHTS CALENDAR. WE CONTINUE WITH OUR FINGERS CROSSED, BUT OUR EARS TO THE GROUND.

THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR IN AN UNUSUAL PRESS ANNOUNCEMENT REPORTED THAT THE PEN PRISONER SITUATION WAS THE TOPIC OF A SPECIAL MARCH 29 MEETING OF THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR AND THE MEMBERS OF A SPECIAL COMMISSION WHICH REVIEWS THE REQUESTS FOR THE OPTION TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.
IN REPONSE TO SEVERAL OF THE THIS EMBASSY'S INITIATIVES, THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR HAS BEGUN TO DISTINGUISH IN ITS PERIODIC PEN PRISONER PRESS ANNOUNCEMENTS BETWEEN THOSE PERSONS WHOSE PEN STATUS HAS BEEN REMOVED AND WHO REMAIN IN PRISON UNDER JUDICIAL DETENTION AND THOSE WHO WILL BE FREED. MINISTRY OF INTERIOR DIRECTOR OF INTERNAL SECURITY SAN ROMAN HAD SUGGESTED TO EMBOFF RECENTLY THAT THE MINISTRY WOULD TAKE THIS STEP IN THE FUTURE. HOWEVER, SAN ROMAN CONTINUES TO BE NON-COMMITTAL REGARDING PROVIDING THIS INFORMATION TO THE EMBASSY FOR PAST PEN REMOVAL CASES.

BEEN THE FOCUS OFUNCHR'S ATTENTION. AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY DCM ALSO EXPRESSED DISAPPOINMTNET AT FAILURE OF THE USG TO SUPPORT THE AUSTRALIAN-CANADIAN INITIATIVE.

10. [redacted] UPDATE ON IMPORTANT CASES-----
HORACIO SARAGOVI DETENTION (269-78-1)-----
MRS. SARAGOVI CALLED AT THE EMBASSY ON MARCH 23 TO SEEK EMBASSY ASSISTANCE REGARDING THE COMMUTATION OF THE MILITARY SENTENCE ISSUED AGAINST HER SON IN NOVEMBER, 1976. MRS. SARAGIVI REPORTED THAT THE SUPREME COURT ON DECEMBER 9, 1978 REFUSED TO ACCEPT JURISDICTION ON PROCEDURAL GROUNDS OF HER APPEAL ALLEGING A NUMBER OF IRREGULARITIES IN THE MILITARY TRIAL OF HER SON. MRS. SARAGIVI FILED A FORMAL COMMUTATION PETITION ON MARCH 9, 1979 AND HAS BEEN MEETING WITH OFFICIALS IN THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT TO GAIN SUPPORT FOR ITS ACCEPTANCE.
-- DISAPPEARNACE OF ANTONIO EDUARDO CZAINIK (225-77-11) --
MR. DAVID CZAINIK, SUBJECTS FATHER, MET WITH AMBASSADOR CASTRO ON FEBRUARY 20 TO DISCUSS HIS SON'S DISAPPEARANCE AND TO INFORM THE AMBASSADOR THAT HE HAS RECEIVED INFORMATION THAT HIS SON IS BEING DETAINED SECRETELY BY THE SIDE. AMBASSADOR CASTRO UNDERTOOK TO RAISE CZAINIK'S CASE WITH GOA OFFICIALS.
-- THE LOKMAN CASE (90-78-11)-----
THE DECISION ON MARCH 29 BY THE FEDERAL COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS IN CORDOBA DENYING ALL FOUR COMPLAINTS CONTAINED IN THE HABEAS CORPUS PETITION FILED ON BEHALF OF MAIME LOKMAN RECEIVED WIDE PRESS COVERAGE BOTH IN THE CORDOBA PROVINCIAL NEWSPAPERS AND IN THE NATIONAL PRESS. (SEE H PASS SEPTELS FOR DETAILES DISCUSSION OF ECISION.) THE CORDOBA COURTS' DECISION IS THE FIRT UNANIUMOUS COURT OF APPEALS DECISION IN A HABEAS CORPUS CASE SINCE THE

SUPREME COURT ISSUED ITS SERIES OF DECISIONS IN THE YANEZ ET AL CASES. (SEE BUENOS AIRES 2501, PARA 3). THE CORDOBA APPEALS COURT OFFERED NARROW INTERPRETATION OF THE ZAMARANO SUPREME COURT DECISION, STATING THAT ASSERTIVE AND UNEQUIVOCAL AFFIRMATIONS FROM THE EXECUTIVE THAT A PERSON IS LINKE WITH SUBVERSION, OBLIGATES THE JUDICIAL POWER TO RESPECT THE RESEVED SPHERE OF THE POLITICAL POWER AND NOT SUBJECT SUCH DECISIONS TO JUDICIAL REVIEW DURING PERIOS OF STATE OF SIGE. IN ADDITION TO THIS CLEAR STATEMENT OF THE SEPARATION OF POWER DOCTRINE, THE COURT ADDED THAT LINKS WITH SUBVERSION COUL NOT ALWAYS BE PROVEN IN THE CONVINCING FORM THAT THE JUDICIAL PROCESS REQUIRED AND IN SUCH CASES THE EXECUTIVE WAS ENTITLED TO CONTINUE THE DETENTION OF DANGEROUS PERSONS BY VIRTUE

OF ITS CONSITUTIONAL STATE OF SIEGE POWERS.
BUENOS AIRES EDITOR ROBERT COX REPORTED TO THE EMBASSY THAT HE HAD RECEIVED A PHONE CALL FROM THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR ASKING THAT THE HERALD CEASE ITS CAMPAIN ON BEHALF OF JAIME LOKMAN'S RELEASE.

11. (U) VILLA DEVOTO PRISON RIOT INVESTIGATION CONTINUES----- IN MID-FEBRUARY THE SUPREME COURT RULED THAT FEDERAL JUDGE VALERGA MUST CONINTUE PROBING INTO THE MARCH 14, 1978 VILLA DEVOTO PRISON RIOT IN WHICH 70 INMATES DIES AND ANOTHER 70 WERE INJURED*?$HUDGE VALERGA AND JUDGE RIVAROLA. JUDGE RIVAROLA MADE A PERLIMINARY
INVESTIGATION EARLY IN 1978 AND ANNOUNCED THAT NONE OF THE VICTIMS HAD DIED FROM GUNSHOT FIRED BY THE GUARDS. IN MAKING THAT DECISION, JUDGE RIVAROLA DECIDED THAT FURTHER INVESTIGATION DID NOT COME WITHIN HIS JURISDICTION AS A FEDERAL JUDGE AND HE PASSED THE DOSSIER TO HIS COLLEAGUE, JUDGE VALERGA, WHO DECLINED TO CONTINUE THE PROBE. THE SUPREME COURT HAS NOW PUT AN END TO A CONTROVERSY, THE BASIS OF WHICH
[redacted]

HAS NOT BEEN MADE CLEAR.

12. (U) PRISON RELASE HOUR CHANGED-----
IN LATE JANUARY THE MINISTRY OF JUSTICE FORMALIZED A CHANGE IN THE ARGENTINE PENAL CODE REGARDING THE HOUR FOR RELEASING FEDERAL PRICONERS AT THE CONCLUSION OF THEIR SENTENCE. PREVIOUSLY, PRISONERS WERE RELASED AT MIDNIGHT THE DAY THEIR SENTENCE EXPIRED. IN FEBRUARY AND MARCH, 1978, FOUR PRISONERS WHO WERE JUDICIALLY FREED FROM LA PLATA PRISON DISAPPEARED
IMMEDIATELY AFTER THEIR MIDNIGHT RELEASE. THIS LED TO A MOVEMENT BY THE "FREED PRISONERS' LEAGUE" TO CHANGE
THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURAL CODE TO ALLOW PRISONERS TO BE RELEASED AT MIDDAY INSTEAD OF MIDNIGHT. THIS MEASURE
HAS NOW BEEN ADOPTED BY BOTH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND BY THE PROVINCIAL PRISON SYSTEM IN BUENOS AIRES.

COUNTRY LAWS ON TERRORISM: UPDATE

REF: STATE 69183

1. POST DOES NOT HAVE COPY OF REPONSE TO DEPARTMENT AIRGRAM CITED REFTEL. NONETHELESS, MANY LAWS ON TERRORISM HAVE BEEN AMENDED SINCE 1974, A A RESULT OF THE HIGH LEVEL OF TERRIROSM IN ARGENTINA THROUGH 1977 ARGENTINA IS NOT A PARTY TO THE NEW YORK OR OAS CONVENTIONS. WHILE LAWS 19,793 AND 20,411 RATIFY THE HAGUE AND MONTREAL CONVENTIONS RESPECTIVELY, THERE HAVE BEEN NO IMPLEMENTING REGULATIONS TO THESE LAWS.

2. THE BASIC LAW ON TERRORISM IS LAW 20,840 ENACTED ON SEP 28, 1974 WHICH WAS AMENDED BY LAW 21,459 OF NOVEMBER 18, 1976. ARTICLE 1 OF THE CURRENT LAW MANDATES A PRISON SENTENCE OF BETWEEN THREE AND EIGHT YEARS FOR THOSE WHO USE NON-CONSTITUTIONAL MEANS TO DISTURB THE ARGENTINE INTERNAL ORDER FOR IDEOLOGICAL REASONS, UNLESS THE OFFENSE COMES UNDER ANOTHER PROVISION OF EXISTING LAWS WITH STIFFER PENALTIES. ARTICLE 2 DECREES PRISON TERMS FROM TWO TO SIX YEARS FOR THOSE WHO TEACH OR SUPPORT OTHERS WHO CARRY OUT SUBVERSIVE ACTS. ACCORDING TO ARTICLE 3, THOSE WHO USE SYMOBLS OF TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS OR RADIO OR NEWSPAPERS AUTHORITIES WHO PUBLICIZE THEIR STATEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO TWO TO FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT. IF ANY OF THESE OFFENSES ARE COMMITTES BY NATURALIZED ARGENTINES, AFTER SERVICING THEIR SENTENCE, THEIR CITIZENSHIP IS REVOKED AND THEY ARE EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY. FOREIGNERS COMMITING THESE CRIMES ARE EXPELLED FROM ARGENTINA FOLLOWING THE CONCLUSION OF THEIR SENTENCE. UNDER LAW 21,458, ALSO ENACTED ON NOV 18, 1976, THE ARGENTINE ARMED FORCES AS WELL AS THE POLICE ARE GIVEN RESPONSIBILITY TO PROSECUTE TERRORISTS.

3. IN ADDITIONA TO THESE LAWS DEALING WITH IDEOLOGICALLY MOTIVATED TERRORIST ACTS, ARTICLE 210 OF THE ARGENTINE PENAL CODE STIPULATES A SENTENCE OF FIVE TO FIFTEEN YEARS FOR THOSE BELONGING TO AN ORGANIZED GROUP WHICH COMMITS VIOLENT ACTS AGAINST A PERSON OR INSTITUTION. UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE SAME ARTICLE, LEADERS OF SUCH ARMED GROUPS ARE SUBJECT TO IMPRISONMENT OF BETWEEN EIGHT AND TWENTY FIVE YEARS. IF THEIR ACT LEADS TO LOSS OF LIFE OR GRAVE WOUNDS SUSTAINED BY THEIR VICTIMS, THE ARTICLE STATES THAT THE PUNISHMENT SHALL BE DEATH OR LIFE IMPRISONMENT RESPECTIVELY. THE SENTENCE OF THOSE WHO VOLUNTARILY GIVE THEMSELVES UP IS REDUCED TO FIFTEEN TO TWENTY FIVE YEARS, TEN TO TWENTY YEARS, OR BY A THIRD FOR SENTENCES OF DEATH, LIFE IMPRISONMENT, OR A REDUCED PRISON TERM RESPECTIVELY.

4. ARTICLE 170 OF THE PENAL CODE MANDATES A FIVE TO FIFTEEN YEAR PRISON TERM FOR PERPETRATORS OF KIDNAPPING ATTEMPTS MADE FOR RANSOM AND AN EIGHT TO FIFTEEN YEAR TERM IF THEY ARE SUCCESSFUL. UNDER ARTICLE142, KIDNAPPERS ARE ALSO SUBJECT TO AN EIGHT TO TWENTY FIVE YEAR PRISON TERM IF THE VICTIM IS WOUNDED IN THE ACT OR IF FORCED TO GIVE AID TO A SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATION. IN CASE THE VICTIM DIES IN CAPTIVITY, THE OFFENDER IS SUBJECT TO THE DEATH SENTENCE. ARTICLE 225 DECREES A TWO TO SIX YEAR PRISON SENTENCES FOR THOSE WHO PAY RANSOM TO KIDNAPPERS OR ECONOMICALLY AID TERRORISTS.

DEAR SIR:

I AM ADDRESSING YOU BE MEANS OF THIS LETTER, IN A MANNER PERSONAL AND DIRECT, BECAUSE THIS IS THE ONLY WAY I CAN EXPLAIN TO YOU MY SITUATION.

I WRITE YOU TRUSTING IN YOUR QUALITIES AS A GENTLEMAN WHO WILL BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND THE FEELINGS OF ANOTHER MAN, WHO AT THE AGE OF 29 FINDS HIMSELF UNJUSTLY PROSECUTED AND WHO HAS ALREADY BEEN DEPRIVED OF HIS LIBERTY FOR NINE MONTHS.

I BELIEVE THAT YOU WILL BE ABLE TO APPRECIATE THE SIGNIFICANCE FOR AN HONORABLE PERSON TO BE IN THIS SITUATION, EVEN MORE IN A PERIOD CLOSE TO THE DEATH OF HIS FATHER WHEN FAMILY OBLIGATIONS HAVE INCREASED.

IN SENDING YOU THIS LETTER I WISH TO TELL YOU, MR. ETCHEBERRY, THAT I UNDERSTAND YOUR PROFESSIONAL ATTITUDE. NEVERTHELESS I DO NOTT SEE HOW THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES CAN PERSECUTE AN OFFICER OF THE CHILEAN ARMY WHO ALWAYS FOLLOWED ORDERS AND WHO DURING THE (EXTRADITION,) PROCEEDING HAS MAINTAINED THE LOYALTY THAT AT ALL TIMES HE OWES TO HIS SUPERIORS.

HONOR, LOYALTY AND DISCIPLINE ARE THE CHARACTERISTICS OF MY BELOVED INSTITUTION AND I THEREFORE TRUST THAT YOU WILL KNOW HOW TO APPRECIATE THE MORAL INTEGRITY WITH WHICH I MAKE THIS STATEMENT.

SINCERELY,

ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS

SUBJECT: HUMAN RIGHTS: ARBITRARY DETENTIONS

1. THE INTER-FAITH CHURCH COMMITTEE (STRICTLY PROTECT SOURCE) HAS PROVIDED EMBASSY WITH DOCUMENT WHICH CLAIMS INVESTIGATIONS POLICE WERE HOLDING 29 POLITICAL PRISONERS IN THEIR HEADQUARTER'S CELLS AS OF THE LAST WEEK IN MARCH. IN ADDITION, THE REPORT ALLEGES THAT THE INVESTIGATIONS POLICE KILLED TWO PERSONS BY TORTURE, ONE ON FEBRUARY 15 AND ONE ON MARCH 1. THE EMBASSY HAS NO INDEPENDENT VERIFICATION OF THIS INFORMATION ALTHOUGH A RECENT FORMER DETAINEE REPORTED 16 PRISONERS WERE THERE AS OF MARCH 15. IT IS NOT UNUSUAL FOR A CERTAIN NUMBER OF PRISONERS, USUALLY BETWEEN TEN AND THIRTY, TO SPEND A FEW DAYS TO A FEW WEEKS IN INVESTIGATIONS FOR CRIMINAL PROCESSING AS WELL AS THOSE HELD FOR POLITICAL OR EXTORTION REASONS.

2. THE EMBASSY'S SOURCES BELIEVE SOME OF THE FOURTEEN PRISONERS LISTED BELOW MAY HAVE BEEN DETAINED IN ARGENTINA AND WERE LATER TURNED OVER TO THE PARAGUAYAN POLICE FOR UNKNOWN REASONS. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY UNDERSTAND ARGENTINE POLICE DETAINED ELIDA VEGA DE LUGO (NO 14) ON MARCH 10 IN BUENOS AIRES. WE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN LEARNING WHETHER EMBASSY BUENOS AIRES HAS INFORMATI ON ANY OF THE PRISONERS. LIST FOLLOWS WITH ADDITIONAL INFORMATION IN PARENTHESES:
(1) REMIGIO GIMENEZ (TORTURED)
(2) ANASTASIO ALMEIDA (BROUGHT FROM FOZ DE YGUAZU, BRAZIL)
(3) HECTOR LUIZ GALZARZA

Rights Update for 1979

Abductions. There has been a sharp drop in the number of abductions reported to our Embassy and to human rights groups. Nine have been reported for January and none for either February or March. These figures, according to the Embassy, tend to confirm numerous reports that the government has ordered a halt to abductions and disbanded several counterterrorist units.

BUT See next page

Prisoner Treatment. According to a senior Ministry of Interior source, the government will soon issue a uniform code of conduct and treatment covering all criminal and political prisoners. (INR Note: [redacted] sources have consistently pointed to the absence of such a code as one of the sources of prisoner mistreatment.)

B1

Reducing PEN Roles. An Interior Ministry official stated to an Embassy officer his intent to reduce the number of executive (PEN) prisoners to 1,800 by the time the visit of the Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC), scheduled for May 28-June 9, takes place. Published figures show a net release of 184 individuals from PEN status between January 1 and March 25 (208 removed; 24 added), leaving the Embassy's count of acknowledged executive detainees at 2,689.

Juridical Activity. Two important 1979 Supreme Court actions have encouraged human rights advocates. In one case, the Court ordered the Army to return to judicial custody an Army NCO who had been under civilian detention for threatening a civilian with his pistol; the Army complied. In the other case, the Court for the first time ordered a lower court to investigate a disappearance case that was the subject of a habeas corpus writ.

Prisoner Mistreatment. February produced three cases of alleged prisoner mistreatment. According to reports from other prisoners, one person disappeared from prison and has not been relocated; another was taken from his cell and tortured while being interrogated; and a third died as a result of beatings by guards.

Groups Targeted by Security Agents. Reports reaching the Embassy reveal that two groups have been the object of consistent security force attention since late 1978. They are the Relatives of Persons Detained and Disappeared for Political Reasons (linked to the Argentine Communist Party) and the Socialist Workers' Party (PST). Thus far, however, members of the two groups who have been abducted by security forces can be accounted for, i.e., none is listed as "disappeared." (CONFIDENTIAL, Buenos Aires 2501, March 30)

INR Comment. Insofar as there have been positive signs in human rights developments they can be partially attributed to the Videla government's desire to soften what it knows will be highly negative IAHRC findings. [redacted]

Chile

Supreme Court Orders Special Investigation Into Missing Persons. The Chilean Supreme Court ordered five regional judges on March 21 to name special investigating judges to look into cases of missing persons and instructed six other circuits to concentrate attention on specific disappearances. The ruling, couched in careful terms, responded to a November 1978 petition by Catholic Church officials regarding 618 individual cases.

1. LONQUEN: THE INVESTIGATION INTO THE DISCOVERY OF FIFTEEN SKELETONS FOUND LAST NOVEMBER IN AN ABANDONED LIME KILN AT LONQUEN PASSED INTO THE JURISDICTION OF MILITARY COURTS ON APRIL 5. SCRUPULOUSLY OBSERVING THE SUPREME COURT'S REMINDER NOT TO DISCUSS THE CASE WITH THE PRESS (REF A) , JUDGE ADOLFO BANADOS HAD NO COMMENT. COURT SOURCES, HOWEVER, WERE CITED IN STORIES ASSERTING THAT BANADOS HAD PREPARED A LENGTHY CRITIQUE OF THE OFFICIAL MORGUE REPORT WHICH HE HAD RECEIVED LAST WEEK. HE ALLEGEDLY FOUND IT INCOMPLETE, CONFUSING AND NOT MUCH HELP. THE SAME SOURCES ALSO SAID THAT BANADOS RELINQUISHED JURISDICTION "BECAUSE IT APPEARED THAT MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE INVOLVED".

3. SPECIAL INVESTIGATION JUDGES: REGIONAL COURTS OF APPEAL HAVE NOW COMPLETED THE DESIGNATION OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATING JUDGES TO LOOK INTO DISAPPEARED CASES IN FIVE REGIONS, INCLUDING SANTIAGO. THE SUPREME COURT HAD ORDERED THE DESIGNATIONS ON MARCH 21 (REF B).

4. COMMENT: A HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYER TELLS US THAT JUDGE JORDAN, WHO IS TO HANDLE THE SANTIAGO CASES, DOES NOT HAVE PRIOR EXPERIENCE AS A CRIMINAL JUDGE. THUS, ALTHOUGH HE IS THOUGHT TO BE A SERIOUS PROFESSIONAL, HE WILL NOT HAVE THE HEAD START WHICH EQUIPPEDBANADOS TO SUCCESSFULLY DIG INTO THE LONQUEN CASE. BANADOS HAND-PICKED HIS OWN SQUAD OF TRUSTED INVESTIGATORS FROM THE DETECTIVE FORCE AND KNEW HOW TO RUN A CRIMINAL INVESTIKGATION. THERE IS ANOTHER, EVEN MORE IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE: BANADOS BEGAN WITH THE CORPUS DELICTI AND WORKED HIS WAY BACK; JORDAN MUST START WITH EVIDENCE OF DETENTION AND TRY TO LEARN WHAT HAPPENED TO THE BODIES.

On Tuesday, the 8th of April 1979, I arrived at the Villa Devoto prison. My secretary had been told by the chaplain of all prisons that there was no need to announce my arrival as things were considerably more relaxed. He said that in spite of all that, he would call anyway to announce my visit. The chaplain added that with the official document that I had in my possession, there would be no difficulty whatsoever.

When I arrived at 14:30, a priest was entering directly in front of me. He entered the prison directly. I was shown into a small waiting room where I had to wait until 15:00 for the necessary papers to be admitted to the prison. When I received them, I asked the police-woman attending me if there was any way I could avoid losing more time. She told me that she would contact the officers inside and that there would be no wait.

I arrived at 15:00 in the Patio before the large prison door and was told that I must wait. I waited for 50 minutes (until 15:50) and was told several times that the visitors could pass but that I was to continue waiting. I was finally admitted into the building at 15:55 and was told that I would have to be searched, something that was a usual procedure. I removed everything from my pockets and my watch and deposited all of it with the officer in charge. I was then submitted to a body search which was more thorough than usual and was told to take my pants off.

I was then taken down a flight of stairs and put into a special cubical where I waited for another 15 minutes alone until the first prisoner appeared. We were separated by glass and thus forced to converse by means of an iron tube. The first girl I saw, was 18 years old in July. She has a growth on her eyebrow and a cyst down her eyelid. For months she has requested to be seen by an eye specialist. She was finally taken to a doctor at the end of April, but she explained that she was never even examined. She had hopes that the Red Cross would be able to arrange a decent examination. She is terribly frightened about the growth on her eye. She has been in prison now for 22 months, without any accusation. She has never appeared before a judge and the only questions that were put to her, were with regard to her 17 year old brother, who was shot and killed in the bed next to her the night she was taken away. The girl's mother died a few years ago of cancer. She told me that she was sexually raped by the police when taken prisoner and was abused. She was insulted as a Jewess during the process. The only questions that she was ever asked, dealt with her brother. She stated that there was no subversive propaganda in the house; no weapons whatsoever and that to this day she had no idea why she is in prison. She has been denied her right of option to go to Israel in the past and is very anxiously awaiting for the month of June when the next right of option will receive a reply. She stated that she still has not received a book which I sent to her last December with her grandmother, entitled " The Essence of Judaism", by Leo Baeck. She also stated that none of the bibles that were sent to the Jewish prisoners by another rabbi, were ever received. She asked me if there is any truth to the rumours that there will be allowed more recreation or some opportunity to work. She stated that she must be by herself 19 hours a day. She has no right to listen to the radio, read newspapers or do any manual labour. She is desperately hoping to be allowed to go to Israel.

Case number 2: This deals with a woman of 30 years of age who has been a prisoner since November 1975. She stated that she has 3 children who are living with her husband from whom she was separated before her arrest. She had rented two rooms of her home to help her balance her budget. The police claimed that those 2 rooms had been rented by terrorists. She claims that she knew nothing of the people and that furthermore she saw nothing suspicious. She declared this before judge Adamo in La Plata in Juzgado (Court) number 3, in the middle of 1978. She has received absolutely no information of her case. Before she arrived at the Devoto prison, she was raped by three different policemen; she was tortured brutally, has 3 rips broken and was given electric shock. She was also told that she was receiving all this in a double measure, as a terrorist and as a Jew. She has applied for her right of option to go to Israel, on the 19th of April, and is desperately anxious to receive an affirmative reply. She has been told that she is on the 4th floor, because this is the floor of prisoners who are difficult and who present problems of conduct. She claims that she simply does not understand this at all and that she has never presented a problem during her imprisonment. She stated that she was never involved in terrorist affairs and that as a result of her torture and imprisonment, she was operated last year for intestinal disorders. She stated that the Red Cross on the same day, Tuesday, April 8, 1979 told her that she must have a very restrictive diet. She said that she informed the Red Cross that it is impossible to receive her diet and that consequently she is always ill. The Red Cross said that she should speak to the prison doctor. She explained to him that she had done this rapidly, but that nothing has changed. She begged me to inquire if there is any truth behind the rumours that prisoners on the 4th floor have no chance of being released. She also begged me to inquire into the state of her cause in Court number 3 in La Plata, under judge Adamo. She also begged me to intercede before the Israeli Embassy, so that someone from the Embassy visit her and help her to emigrate with her three children to Israel. With regard to the apparently new privileges in the prison, she was told by the Red Cross not to expect any changes.

I left the Devoto prison at 17:30.

SUBJ: ORIT BOYCOTT: LABOR MINISTER'S LETTER TO AFL-CIO AND RESPONSE TO GROUP OF TEN

REF: SANTIAGO 2343

1. SUMMARY: RESPONDING TO A GROUP OF TEN PRESS CONFERENCE, LABOR MINISTER PINERA RELEAED PARTS OF HIS REPLY TO THE ERNIE LEE LETTER OF MARCH 8. HE ASSERTED THATLEE HAD NOTT CRITICIZED THE LABOR PLAN BUT RATHER ASKED FOR CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND LABOR LEADERS. HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT MUST LISTEN TO ALL GROUPS BUT CANNOT SHARE ITS RESPONSIBILITY FOR FIAL DECISIONS. HE HAD SOME ACERBIC WORDS FOR EDUARDO RIOS. MAJOR MORNING PAPERS APRIL 6 CARRY EDITORIALS ON THE LEE LETTER AND GROUP OF TEN PRESS CONFERENCE. "CRONISTA" PREDICTABLY STRIDENT AND CONDEMNATORY, "EL MERDCURIO" AND "LA TERCERA" MORE MODERATE. END SUMMARY.

UNCLASSIFIED

2. PINERA RESPONDED TO THE GROUP OF TEN'S APRIL 5 PRESS CONFERENCE MAKING PUBLIC EXCERPTS FROM HIS MARCH 26 LETTER TO AFL-CIO INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS DIRECTOR ERNIE LEE. RESPONDING TO LEE'S CHARGE THAT TRADE UNIONS WERE NOT FREE IN CHILE, PINERA WROTE BACK THAT THE PROBLEM WAS COMPLEX ANDPROPERLY A FUNCTION OF THE GOC TO RESOLVE.

PINERA CONTINUED THAT THE GOVERNMENT COULD NOT ABDICATE THIS RESPONSIBILITY TO THOSE WHO MEANT BY PARTICIPATION A SYSTEM OF DUAL OR CO-GOVERNMENT ("CO-GOBIERNO"). FOR THIS REASON, THE GOVERNMENT HAD THE OBLIGATION TO HEAR AND SERIOUSLY CONSIDER THE PETITIONS OF DISTINCT GROUPS BUT NOT NECESSARILY "SUBMIT ITSELF TO THE POSITION OF PARTICULAR GROUPS."

3. PINERA ALSO QUOTED PART OF HIS LETTER WHICH REFERRRED TO THE DISMISSAL OF FOUR TRADE UNION LEADERS IN CHUQUICAMATA. PINERA TOLD LEE THAT THE PROBLEM WAS A LEGAL ONE WHICH WOULD BE DECIDED BY THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM AS IT DID NOT FALL UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF EITHER THE MINISTER OF LABOR OR THE GOVERNMENT TO INTERVENE IN CONFLICTS BETWEEN A CORPORATION AND ITS EMPLOYEES.

4. PINERA CONCLUDED THAT THE AFL-CIO LETTER DID NOT CRITICIZE THE LABOR PLAN PER SE; IT ONLY DEALT WITH THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PLAN AND PARTICIPATION OF WORKERS' ORGANIZATIONS. HE EMPHASIZED THAT HE SPECIFICALLY ADDRESSED THIS CONCERN IN HIS REPLY. THE MINISTER NOTED THAT EVERY TIME EDUARDO RIOS, PRESIDENT OF THE MARITIME WORKERS UNION "RETURNED TO CHILE EMPTY HANDED HE TRIED TO PROVOKE THE GOVERNMENT WITH LOUDLY VOICED FALSEHOODS." PINERA SAID THAT "RIOS MUST BELIEVE THAT HE IS STILL A CANDIDATE FOR THE CHAMBER OF DEUPUTIES."

5. EDITORIAL COMMENT IN "MERCURIO," "TERCERA" AND GOVERNMENT OWNED "CRONISTA" CCHOED THEMINISTER. "EL MERCURIO" AND "TERCERA" AGREED THAT THE LEE LETTER CARRIED NO THREAT OR CRITICISM OF THE LABORPLAN BUT ALL BELIEVED THAT LEE'S KIND OF PARTICIPATION WOULD MEAN CO-GOVERNMENT (DUAL GOVERNMENT) WHICH WOULD NOTT BE IN CHILE'S BEST INTEREST. "CRONISTA" CALLED TRADE UNION CRITICS POLITICIANS, WHO WOULD BRING RENEWED CHAOS TO CHILE. THE GOVERNMENT-OWNED NEWSPAPER DREW A PARALLEL BETWEEN THE LEE LETTER AND PAST US INTERVENTION IN CHILEAN AFFAIRS. THE EDITORIAL ARGUED THAT SECTORS IN THE UNITED STATES WISHED TO REGAIN THEIR FORMER INFLUENCE AND POWER IN CHILE THROUGH THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT WHICH THE LABOR PLAN WOULD SURELY PREVENT. THE PAPER ASSERTED THAT THE GOC WOULD REMAIN FLEXIBLE IN DEVELOPING LABOR POLICIES BUT INFLEXIBLY MAINTAIN PUBLIC ORDER.

PRENS, "TANZANIAN SIEGE OF KAMPALA CONTINUES." OPINION, "IDI AMIN IS SURROUNDED IN KAMPALA." HERALD, "KAMPALA SUBUBS SHELLED BY REBELS." NACION COENT INSIDE SAYS "THE LAST ACT OF A TRAGIC FARCE" IS BEING PLAYED AND PREDICTS "AMIN WILL BE DEFEATED NEAR THE CLOSE OF THE WEEK."
NACION SUNDAY EDITORIAL SAID FOLLOWING THE EGYPT-ISRAEL TREATY PROGRESS TOWARDS A FULLY ENFORCED PEACE IN MIDDLE EAST SHOULD NOT BE TOO DIFFICULT. "DIRECT DEALING PROVED TO BE AN EXCELLENT METHOD," IS SAID, AND AS A RESULT "A THIN RAY OF LIGHT SHINES ON A FUTURE WHICH STILL REMAINS IN THE DARK."

2.- SALT 2. PRENSA AND OPINION CARRY WIRE SERVICE REPORTS OF BRZEZINSKI STATEMENT TO U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT. PRENSA HAS UPI STORY HEADED "THE INCONVENIENCE OF USING FORCE." OPINION HAS AFP REPORT WHICH STRESSES "U.S. WILL NOT HESITATE TO USE FORCE," HEADED "WASHINGTON WILL PROTECT ITS INTERESTS WITH FORCE."

3.- NUCLEAR ENERGY. PRENSA EDITORIAL SUNDAY INDICATED CONCURRENCE WITH ARGENTINA'S NUCLEAR POLICY AS OUTLINED BY GOA OFFICIALS. SAYS "NEVERTHELESS, IN THE LIGHT OF THE SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN PENNSYLVANIA, IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO USE EXTREME CAUTION IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROGRAM. THE DRAMATIC EXPERIENCE UNDERGONE BY THE SCIENTIFICALLY AND TECHNOLOGICALLY MOST ADVANCED COUNTRY IN THE WORLD REVEALS THE RISKS AND DANGERS INVOLVED IN HANDLING NUCLEAR MATERIAL." HERALD EDITORIAL SATURDAY COMMENTED THAT AEC CHAIRMAN CASTRO MADERO "HAS REPORTEDLY STATED THAT THE IMPORTANCE OF THE THREE MILE ISLAND PLANT ACCIDENT WAS BLOWN OUT OF ALL PROPORTION BY THE ANTI-NUCLEAR LOBBYSTS.... HE MAY, OF COURSE, BE RIGHT.... NEVERTHELESS, HIS REMARKS.... ARE UNLIKELY TO HELP THE ARGENTINE NUCLEAR CAUSE WHICH HAS PROGRESSED SO IMPRESSIVELY UNDER THIS LEADERSHIP. ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF BLOCKING THE TRANSFER OF NUCLEAR TECHNOLOGY, FROM ADVANCED NATIONS TO OTHERS IS THE FEAR, GENUINE OR SIMULATED, THAT OFFICIALS IN TECHNOLOGICALLY LAGGING NATIONS WILL BE FAR TOO CASUAL IN THEIR APPROACH TO SAFETY."
NACION SUNDAY REPORTED "ARGENTINA MAY REJECT IAEO AID" ON BASIS OF NOTICIAS ARGENTINAS STORY WITH STATEMENT BY EAC CHAIRMAN CASTRO MADERO. HE SAID, ACCORDING TO STORY, THAT "ARGENTINA MAY DECIDE TO GIVE UP TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE IT RECEIVES FROM INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY ORGANIZATION, ALTHOUGH WILL NOT WITHDRAW FROM IT. OTHER PAPERS HAD SIMILAR STORIES.

4. - U.S. - ARGENTINE RELATIONS. NACION SUNDAY POLITICAL COLUMN NOTES THAT "GOA STILL DOES NOT HAVE AN IDEAL CANDIDATE TO REPLACE AMBASSADOR AJA ESPIL." ADDS THAT "THE MILITARY PREFERS TO WATCH THE DEVELOPMENT OF DOMESTIC AFFAIRS DURING APRIL, MAY AND JUNE, BEFORE MAKING A FINAL DECISION ON WHO WILL BE THE NEXT ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR TO U.S."
THE COLUMN ALSO INDICATES THAT U.S. WOULD LIKE TO SEE ARGENTINE MOVE COLSER TOWARDS PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA IN ECONOMIC AND DIPLOMATIC FIELDS, BUT ARGENTINA DOES NOT WANT TO STRAIN ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE USSR BECAUSE OF THE IMPORTANCE OF SOVIET-ARGENTINE TRADE AND "THE DISCREET WAY IN WHICH THE SOVIETS VOTED AT INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS ON MATTERS WHICH WERE EMBARRASSING FOR ARGENTINA."

5.- HUMAN RIGHTS. PRENSA EDITORIAL MONDAY SAID "EVIDENTLY" THE ATTEMPT BY A FEDERAL POLICEMAN TO INTIMIDATE EL LITORAL OF CORRIENTES (SEE FRIDAY MESSAGE) WAS EQUIVALENT TO CURBING FREEDOM OF THE PRESS. PRENSA DEPLORES THE INCIDENT "BECAUSE IT IS IN A CLASS WITH THOSE WHICH ARE USED OVERSEAS TO PROMOTE THE ANTI-ARGENTINE CAMPAIGN THAT IS STILL UNDER WAY," AND CALLS FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION BY THE INTERIOR MINISTRY.

Memorandum of Telephone Conversation With Rabbi Theodore Friedman of Jerusalem

Subject: Jacobo Timerman of Buenos Aires

Rabbi Friedman is the father-in-law of the American rabbi in Buenos Aires, Rabbi Marshall Meyer. He has just returned from a visit in Argentina during which he was able to see Mr. Timerman in his home. He reports that Mr. Timerman is in strong spirits and determined to undertake his hunger strike on April 16th.

Ambassador Castro has told Rabbis Meyer and Friedman that both Viola and Videla have assured him that, by the end of April, the Timerman "case will be resolved." Ambassador Castro believes, according to Rabbi Friedman, that the hunger strike would make it impossible for Videla and Viola to complete their plan. Rabbi Meyer has said that he will go to see Mr. Timerman and explain the situation again.

Rabbi Friedman was in the country ten days ago. He reports that things are "quiet now, but it is the quiet before the storm." He believes that economic difficulties are so severe for middle and low income people that they will not tolerate existing conditions much longer. He gave as an example the fact that a popsickle for his grandchild cost $1.25. The "upper classes are doing fantastically well and thriving and this difference in standard of living is not lost on those less fortunate."

SUGGESTED REPLY

Dear Mrs. Timerman:

I want to thank you for your very kind and thoughtful letter to me concerning your husband, Jacobo Timerman.

I have been deeply concerned about his case, as have many people in this country. I sincerely hope that he will soon be released from custody and that it will be possible for him to be reunited with you and your children. I have instructed Ambassador Castro to remain in close contact with the Government of Argentina on your husband's case and make every effort he can toward securing his release. Be assured that we continue to hope that justice for your husband will triumph.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Carter

MEMORANDUM FOR DR. ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Letter to the President from Mrs. Rische M. Timerman

Mrs. Rische M. Timerman, the wife of a prominent Argentine publisher who has been the victim of human rights abuse by the GOA, has written to President Carter to express her deep appreciation for the President's efforts on behalf of her husband. The letter, which was delivered to our Embassy in Israel where she resides, also expresses appreciation for Ambassador Castro's work on this case and Mrs. Timerman's hope that these efforts will lead to her husband's release.

The GOA has recently reconsidered Timerman's case and the Junta has discussed whether he might now be released. While this review was underway the Argentine Foreign Ministry asked our Embassy in Buenos Aires what our quid pro quo might be for Timerman's release. The Embassy offered no specific suggestions and reiterated our position that Timerman should be released on the merits of his case. In his most recent discussion of the Timerman case with Army Commander Viola, Ambassador Castro again urged that Timerman be released. General Viola told him that this is not likely to take place in the immediate future.

We recommend that the President sign the attached reply to Mrs. Timerman.

ARGENTINA

In seeking to achieve established goals and objectives, the Ambassador and the Country Team will:

-- Continue to press, both through official actions, USICA programs and unofficial contacts, for improved observance of human rights, respect for the rule of law, and determination of the fate of the "disappeared".

-- Monitor individual human rights cases of interest to the U.S.

-- Maintain close contact with legitimate human rights organizations and with representatives of a broad range of political groupings and interests.

-- Process "right of option" candidates for U.S. parole program rapidly.

-- Urge the Argentine Government to cooperate fully with the Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC) during its May, 1979, visit.

-- Urge the Argentine Government to sign and ratify the American Convention on Human Rights.

-- Urge the Argentine Government to permit regular visits by the IAHRC and the International Red Cross to detainees in military prisons.

-- Encourage the Argentine labor movement to join ORIT (Organizacion Regional Inter Americana de Trabajadores).

-- Support continued AIFLD (American Institute of Free Labor Development) presence.

-- Negotiate a new or amended nuclear cooperation agreement in accordance with U.S. legislation.

-- Urge ratification of the Treaty of Tlatelolco. Urge the conclusion of an agreement with the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) for full scope safeguards.

-- Discourage the acquisition of an independent reprocessing capability.

-- Encourage Argentina to participate in the International Nuclear Fuel Evaluation Program.

-- Promote U.S. participation in upcoming multimillion dollar infrastructural and other developmental projects.

-- Use the Country Commercial Plan to promote exports.

-- Use Export Import Bank financing to enhance competitiveness of U.S. suppliers in Argentine markets, when apropriate.

-- Conclude a tax treaty.

-- Encourage Argentine participation in hemispheric security efforts, including UNITAS.

-- Utilize Embassy contacts and informational and cultural programs to increase official and public awareness of the constructive nature of U.S. arms control and disarmament policies, especially in the areas of nuclear non-proliferation, the SALT negotiations, and regional arms control, as exemplified in the Ayacucho and Mexican arms limitation initiatives.

-- Complete a bilateral science and technology agreement in agricultural sciences.

-- Encourage a peaceful solution to the Beagle Channel dispute.

-- Reinforce a constructive Argentine role in liberalization of agricultural trade in international fora.

-- Enlarge existing agreements in the area of science and technology, such as alternate energy sources, space and rockets and bio-medical technologies.

-- Encourage a constructive Argentine role, supportive of U.S. positions, in international fora.

-- Negotiate a consular convention when authorized by the Department of State.

UNITED STATES PERMANENT MISSION TO THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20520

UNCLASSIFIED

Date: April 11, 1979

Participants: Dr. Arnoldo Listre, Minister Counselor
Argentine Mission to the OAS
Irving G. Tragen, Deputy US Permanent Representative

Subject: Possible Early Election of the New IAHRC

Distribution: ARA - Ambassador Vaky
Dr. Guzman
ARA/ECA - Mr. Ruser
NSC - Mr. Pastor
HA - Mr. Schneider
Amembassy BUENOS AIRES

Dr. Listre phoned to ascertain the position which the US would take on the proposal to move up the election of the members of the Inter-American Human Rights Commission (IAHRC) from the IX OAS General Assembly scheduled for early November 1979 to the Special OAS General Assembly planned for next May.

Listre reported that the GOA favored the proposal and would not use the election as a pretext for delaying the IAHRC inspection visit to his country scheduled for May 26-June 9. Listre explained that the GOA position had evolved in a series of conversations with IAHRC member Tom Farer. Listre was concerned about internal conflicts in the present Commission under the chairmanship of Dr. Carlos Alberto Dunshee de Abranches of Brazil. Listre commented that, even though an inspection conducted by Aguilar and Farer might uncover serious problems in Argentina, it would carry much more weight with the GOA and world public opinion than one conducted by Abranches. "An Abranches report of favorable developments in Argentina would be considered biased, while negative findings would tend to be discounted as only half truths;" this would not be the case with an Aguilar-Farer team.

Listre then pointed out that the IAHRC will be visiting Argentina next month and that the GOA would prefer a new Commission rather than the one which mishandled the Nicaraguan Report. Moreover, the current Commission is a lame duck body and its influence would be limited. He then stressed that the

[redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

81F184

GOA was "at this very moment meeting to weigh the implications to Argentina of a decision by the General Committee not to elect a new Commission at an early date."

I reminded Listre of the Gentleman's Agreement last November in which Brazil, Mexico, Argentina, Venezuela and the United States agreed to postpone the election of the new IAHRC in order to facilitate arrangements between the GOA and the IAHRC on the visit to Argentina. He assured me that Argentina no longer felt that we need be bound to this Gentleman's Agreement. I then told him that the US had no problem with the early election, but that we hope that a consensus would develop to avoid a division within the OAS on this issue.

Listre then asked me about the concerns of several countries about the elections, especially those expressed by the Jamaicans and Venezuelans. I urged him to contact these two delegations immediately and to try to explain to them the advantages of an early election.

COMMENT: The manifest concern of the Argentine Mission about the early election of a new IAHRC and the assurances of GOA determination to move ahead with the IAHRC inspection underline a linkage which had not been previously noted -- either here or in messages from Amembassy BUENOS AIRES. The Argentine and the Brazilian clashed sharply in the debate in the General Committee on April 11, and no consensus was reached. However, the Committee did vote favorably to recommend the early election of the new IAHRC by a vote of 17 for, 5 abstentions, and 3 non-participating; the abstentions, beside Brazil, were by pro-human rights countries (Venezuela, Jamaica, Grenada and Barbados -- Mexico refused to take part) who firmly believe the election is a ploy by Argentina to delay the IAHRC inspection visit.

WAS AT FIRST CANCELLED BY WRITTEN ORDER OF THE CARABINEROS (NATIONAL POLICE). THE MINISTRY OF LABOR MANAGED TO REVERSE THE ORDER WITHIN A FEW HOURS BUT ABOUT 15 POLICEMEN REMAINED OUTSIDE THE UNION HALL DURING THE ENTIRE TWO DAY SESSION. THE APTCH IS PART OF THE GROUP OF TEN.

6. DUES. TRADE UNION DUES ARE NOW BEING COLLECTED AT THE FEDERATION LEVEL BYP PETROLEUM, RAILROAD, MARITIME, COPPER AND TRANSPORTATION WORKERS. THE ONLY MAJOR UNIONS NOT NOW RECEIVING DUES IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW ARE THE PUBLIC WORKERS ASSOCIATION (ANEF). TUCAPEL JIMENEZ, PRESIDENT OF ANEF, SENT OFFICIAL REQUESTS TO BOTH THE MINISTERS OF LABOR AND FINANCE. THE FINANCE MINISTER BUCKED THE ISSUE TO THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL. ANEF HOPES TO HAVE ITS DUES RESTORED PRIOR TO APRIL 19.
EMBOFF HAS BEEN TOLD BY LABOR MINISTER PINERA THAT DUES CHECK-OFF FOR ANEF HAS BEEN APPROVED, BUT, APPARENTLY ANEF HAS NOT YET RECEIVED FORMAL NOTIFICATION.

Senator Jacob Javits
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C. 2 0 5 1 0

RECD APR 1 71979

Dear Senator Javits,

I urge you to give your full support to any and all attempts to extradite Manuel Contreras Sepulveda and other co-conspirators in the assasination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit. The Pinochet regime of Chile, by harboring these international terrorists, makes itself subject to all the legal sanctions and Presidential pledges against international terrorist regimes. These measures would include severe reprisals, including economic reprisals, according to President Carter's statements last year.

In the event that the Chilean government should refuse the extradition of the terrorists responsible for the brutal killing of Letelier and Moffit, I sincerely hope that your name will figure among the list of Congresspersons supporting the resolution of Tom Harkin, Congressman of Iowa, expressing official outrage of the U.S. Congress over such a refusal.

In the meantime, I urge you to contact the office of Congressman George Miller and give your support to the letter to Secretary Vance and Attorney General Griffin Bell which asks the full application of official pressure to achieve the extradiction.

This case is extremely important to the United States, for it will be a testimonial to the dictatorship of Pinochet that the people of the United States will not tolerate terrorism.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely yours,

THE COMMITTEE ALSO RAILED AT THE GOC TO ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE DETENTIONS OF ALL OF THE DISAPPEARED AND AT THE INTELLIGENCE SERVICE CNI TO RELEASE ALL INFORMATION REGARDING THE FATE OF THE DETAINEES. (COMMENT:

IF PAST PRECEDENT IS FOLLOWED, THE 60 DETAINEES WILL BE RELEASED FAIRLY QUICKLY, AFTER POLICE RECORD CHECKS AND STERN WARNINGS. END COMMENT.)

3. VICARIATE KEEPS PRESSING: RECENTLY DESIGNATED VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY DIRECTOR JUAN DE CASTRO REYES PETITIONED THE SUPREME COURT APRIL 17 TO INSTRUCT COURTS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY TO REQUIRE POLICE AND INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS TO COMPLY FULLY WITH LEGAL PROCEDURES GOVERNING ARRESTS. DE CASTRO URGED THE COURT TO STREAMLINE HABEAS CORPUS PROCEDURES BY REINSTATING THE PROVISIONS OF A 1932 LAW. DE CASTRO ALSO SUGGESTED THAT LOWER COURTS BE DIRECTED TO DESIGNATE ONE OF THEIR MEMBERS TO BE IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE FOR ON-THE-SPOT INVESTIGATIONS OF ILLEGAL ARRESTS. THE VICARIATE REQUESTED THAT THE COURT AFFIRM THE "INALIENABLE HUMAN RIGHT NOT BE EXPELLED FROM ONE'S COUNTRY OR TO BE PREVENTED FROM RETURNING." (COMMENT: THE DE CASTRO REQUEST IS DESIGNED TO DEMONSTRATE THAT HE WILL CONTINUE THE ACTIVE ROLE OF HIS PREDECESSOR. FULL COMPLIANCE WITH LEGAL NORMS GOVERNING ARRESTS WOULD, IN FACT, IMPOSE A SIGNIFICANT CONTROL OVER CAPRICIOUS DETENTIONS. END COMMENT.)

4. OLD BLAST FURNANCE: THE ARREST OF NIMIA ELENA JAQUE DE VENAVENTES, A COMMUNIST PARTY COURIER PICKED UP AT PUDAHUEL AIRPORT APRIL 14 (SEE SANTIAGO 2585), PROVOKED AN UNEXPECTEDLY VOCAL REACTION FROM VARIOUS VENEZUELAN SECTORS, ACCORDING TO WIRE SERVICE REPORTS. (COMMENT: LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

THE EXECUTIVE NOTED, IRONICALLY, THAT THE FURNACE IS ABANDONED AND THE PLANS WOULD PROBABLY HAVE BEEN PROVIDED UPON REQUEST. END COMMENT.)

5. MORE EXILES REFUSED: INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ DECLARED APRIL 17 THAT THE THREE CHILEAN MEMBERS OF THE VENEZUELAN-BASED ARTISTIC GROUP "COMPANIA DE LOS CUATRO" HAVE BEEN REFUSED PERMISSION TO RETURN TO CHILE DUE TO A "SERIES OF PRESENTATIONS AGAINST CHILE CARRIED OUT BY THOSE PERSONS." COMMUNIST PARTY EX-DEPUTY OSCAR DELFIN MOYA MUNOZ WAS REFUSED ENTRY AT PUDAHUEL AIRPORT APRIL 15 AS A POLITICAL ACTIVIST ON THE PROSCRIBED LIST. MOYA'S WIFE WAS ALLOWED BACK BUT HE WAS FORCED TO CONTINUE ON TO MONTEVIDEO. THE SANTIAGO OFFICE OF THE UN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES HAS CONFIRMED THAT MOYA HAS BEEN TAKEN UNDER

THE WING OF THE MEXICAN EMBASSY IN MONTEVIDEO. (COMMENT: MOYA, OF COURSE, KNEW HE WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO RETURN AT THIS JUNCTURE. HIS EFFORT TO DO SO FALLS IN THE CATEGORY OF PUBLICIZING THE GOC'S EXCLUSION POLICY. END COMMENT.)

6. MORE NOISE BOMBINGS: CNI DIRECTOR MENA ASSERTED APRIL 18 THAT TWO NOISE BOMBS THAT EXPLODED IN THE SANTIAGO AREA EARLY THAT MORNING WERE THE WORK OF REVOLUTIONARY LEFT MOVEMENT (MIR) EXTREMISTS. ONE OF THEM CAUSED MINOR DAMAGE TO THE EXTERIOR OF THE HOUSE OF THE MAYOR OF AN OUTLYING SUBURB. NO INJURIES WERE REPORTED.

Letelier/Moffitt Case: The Chamorro Recommendation

The Prosecutor (Fiscal) of the Chilean Supreme Court, Dr. Chamorro, recommended to the Court that it reject extradition and also trial in Chile for the three Chilean military officers indicted in the United States for the assassinations of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt. (Santiago 2609 is attached.)

-- Chamorro is in effect the Court's advocate and legal advisor. He works directly and exclusively for the Court, reviewing all pleadings in cases and making recommendations to the President of the Court, who works concurrently and independently on his own decisions on cases.

-- We have no information about Chamorro's independence of mind. The office of Fiscal, the highest legal position for a Supreme Court lawyer, is a prestigious post which is energetically sought after, and Chamorro is new to the job. We assume that Chamorro may have a myopic point of view on cases, probably cleaving to what he believes are the Government's views. We do not know to whom, if anyone, he is directly answerable for his recommendations.

Chamorro's recommendation in this extradition case is merely advisory and is not binding on the Court. The Court's President must now complete and announce his decision, which could come as early as next week. The President often concurs with the recommendation of the Fiscal, but there is ample precedent for his not doing so and announcing a contrary decision. Our Chilean lawyer, acknowledging that the President's decision is made somewhat more difficult now, is confident that the Court President will disregard Chamorro's recommendation.

While not binding, Chamorro's recommendation is bound to carry at least some weight. However, we cannot at this time gauge the effect it will have on the Court's decision. The Court could well deny extradition but still order trial in Chile.

We have consistently avoided placing ourselves in a position where we might be charged with interfering in or trying to influence the Chilean judicial system. So far we have limited our response to this latest development to noting that the Chamorro recommendation is advisory and not binding, that we expect the three will be brought to trial before a court of law, and that we are awaiting the Chilean Supreme Court's decision before commenting on the outcome.

INVOLVED IN THIS CASE WILL IN FACT APPEAR BEFORE A COURT OF JUSTICE. WE, I MIGHT ADD, ARE SEEKING EXTRADITION.

BEYOND THAT, THOUGH, I DON'T HAVE ANY COMMENT.

Q WELL, YOU SAY "EXPECT., IS IT AN EXPECTATION BASED ON A SENSE OF WHAT YOU THINK IS RIGHT?

A WE EXPECT IN THE SENSE OF WHAT WE THINK OUGHT TO BE DONE.

Q NOT THAT YOU HAVE BEEN INFORMED PRIVATELY.

A NO. I MEAN, TO BE MORE PRECISE, WE BELIEVE THAT THEY SHOULD. AND THAT IS AMONG THE REASONS WHY WE SOUGHT EXTRADITION.

Q SINCE YOU CAN'T DO ANYTHING LEGALLY IF THEY DON'T, WHAT WOULD YOU DO DIPLOMATICALLY?

A THAT IS WHY IT IS PREMATURE FOR ME TO COMMENT ON ANY-THING BEYOND THAT GENERAL STATEMENT, BECAUSE THERE HAS BEEN NO DECISION TAKEN YET.

Q THIS IS THE CHILEAN SUPREME COURT THAT HAS TO RULE ON THIS ONE.

SUBJ: GOC DENIES AUTHORIZATION FOR WORKERS' RALLY

REF: SANTIAGO 2538 (NOTAL)

1. SUMMARY: AFTER CONSIDERING A REQUEST BY COMMUNIST AND DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION TO HOLD AN "ARTISTIC AND CULTURAL" OPEN AIR RALLY ON MAY DAY, THE GOC DENIED AUTHORIZATION APRIL 20. MINISTER OF INTERIOR SERGIO FERNANDEZ IN A SHORT STATEMENT ADDED THAT LABOR UNIONS WERE FREE TO MEET ON LABOR DAY IN THEIR UNION HALLS IF THEY WISHED. END SUMMARY.

2. THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR ANNOUNCED APRIL 20 THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT AUTHORIZE A MAY DAY RALLY REQUESTED BY A GROUP OF "TRADE UNION AND EX-TRADE UNION LEADERS." THE STATEMENT SAID THAT THIS DECISION WAS BEING ANNOUNCED EARLY "TO AVOID INCONVENIENCES TO FOREIGN INVITED GUESTS" AND WAS "IRREVERSIBLE." THE STATEMENT CONTINUED THAT "AMONG THE SO-CALLED DEMOCRATIC" TRADE UNION LEADERS REQUESTING THE MAY DAY RALLY WERE SOME WELL KNOWN MARXISTS AND THE RALLY WAS OBVIOUSLY POLITICAL. MINISTER OF INTERIOR

SERGIO FERNANDEZ TOLD THE PRESS THAT DL 2544 ALREADY PROVIDED SUFFICIENT FREEDOM FOR TRADE UNIONS TO CELEBRATE REGULAR AND EXTRAORDINARY MEETINGS IN THEIR UNION HALLS ON MAY FIRST.

3. DEMOCRATIC AND COMUNIST TRADE UNION GROUPS HAD

JOINTLY DECIDED TO GO AHEAD WITH THEIR REQUEST FOR AUTHORIZATION OF A MAY DAY RALLY AFTER THE PRO-GOVERNMENT UNION OF CHILEAN WORKERS (UNTRACH) BACKED OUT. THE REQUESTS WERE ORIGINALLY ADDRESSED TO GENERAL ROLANDO GARAY, THE SANTIAGO INTENDENTE WHO NORMALLY HAS AUTHORITY TO PERMIT PUBLIC RALLIES. MINISTER OF LABOR JOSE PINERA NOTED THE REQUEST APRIL 16 BUT SAID HIS MINISTRY WAS NOT INVOLVED. HE ADDED THAT WORKERS ALREADY HAD THE RIGHT TO MEET WITHOUT PERMISSION ON MAY DAY IN THEIR RESPECTIVE UNION HALLS.

4. GENERAL MOREL (ACTING IN GARAY'S ABSENCE) DUSTED OFF A 1975 MILITARY ORDER (BANDO 82) REQUIRING THAT GROUPS SEEKING A "NATIONAL MEETING" HAVE THE PERMISSION OF THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FOUR PARTICIPATING ORGANIZATIONS THEN SENT THE FORMAL REQUEST TO FERNANDEZ WHICH HE DENIED TODAY.

5. COMMENT: FEDERICO MUJICA, PRESIDENT OF THE PRIVATE EMPLOYEES CONFEDERATION (CEPCH) HAD MADE IT CLEAR IN THE PAST THAT HE COULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN AN AUTHORIZED MAY DAY RALLY. MUJICA SAID THAT CEPCH WAS THE ONLY ONE OF FOUR ORGANIZERS WITH LEGAL STATUS WHICH THE GOC COULD REVOKE (AND CONFISCATE ITS PROPERTY) IF CEPCH PARTICIPATED IN AN ILLEGAL RALLY. "GROUP OF TEN" LEADERS ALSO HAD SAID PREVIOUSLY THAT THEY WOULD PROBABLY NOT ASK THEIR PEOPLE TO PARTICIPATE IN A RALLY WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION. BOTH UNITARY WORKERS FRONT (FUT) AND THE NATIONAL TRADE UNION

REFUSING TO ANSWER THE QUESTIONNAIRE, THE LEADERS REQUESTED 48 HOURS TO RESPOND AND LATER ASKED FOR GUARANTEES THEY WOULD NOT BE DETAINED UPON LEAVING THE BUILDING. AUTHORITIES DEMURRED. SHORTLY AFTERWARDS, THE 18 LABOR LEADERS PRESENT AT THE MEETING -- PLUS TWO MORE WAITING OUTSIDE IN A CORNER BAR -- WERE TAKEN AWAY BY PLAIN CLOTHES POLICE IN UNMARKED CARS TO AN UNDISCLOSED LOCATION.

2. AT THE SAME TIME, THE LABOR MINISTRY RELEASED A COMMUNIQUE CLASSIFYING THE STRIKE CALL AS "IRRESSPONSIBLE AND A CLEAR VIOLATION" OF JUNTA DECREE NO 9/76 BANNING LABOR ACTIVITIES. THE DECREE, REGULATED BY LAWS 21.356 AND 21.400, COULD INVOLVE SENTENCES OF UP TO SIX YEARS FOR ILLEGAL INSTIGATION OF STRIKES OR OTHER PROSCRIBED LABOR ACTIVITIES. SUBJECT: Argentine Labor Leaders Arrested

Q. Do you have any comment on the Argentine Government's arrest of 20 union leaders the night before last?

A. The detention of trade union leaders for, according to an Argentine Labor Ministry communique, announcing plans to call a strike is an infringement of internationally-recognized union rights and is therefore a matter of ~~serious~~ concern to us. We will continue to follow this situation closely and hope that the Argentine Government will release the detained leaders promptly. We will be raising the matter with the Argentine Government.

"COMMITTEE OF 25" RATIFIED THAT GROUP'S STRIKE CALL FOR APR 27, WHILE THE RIVAL NATIONAL LABOR COMMISSION

MAINTAINED ITS OPPOSITION TO THE STRIKE. BOTH GROUPS JOINED LABOR AND POLITICAL GROUPINGS IN CALLING FOR THE RELEASE OF THE LABOR LEADERS DETAINED MONDAY NIGHT. THOSE STILL DETAINED, INCLUDING SEVERAL LABOR LEADERS ARRESTED YESTERDAY (APR 24), ARE BELIEVED TO BE HELD UNDER PEN IN THE LOCAL FEDERAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS. HABEAS CORPUS WRITS HAVE BEEN FILED. THE MORNING PRESS SPECULATED THAT THE LABOR LEADERS MAY BE RELEASED WITHIN 15 DAYS WITH A "WARNING" OR MAY BE TURNED OVER TO THE FEDERAL COURTS FOR PROCESSING UNDER LAW 21,400 WHICH ESTABLISHES PENALTIES FOR ILLEGAL LABOR ACTIVITY. THE GOVERNMENT, MEANWHILE, ANNOUNCED A 19 PERCENT WAGE INCREASE FOR MAY, 15 PERCENT MORE THAN THAT ORIGINALLZ LRESCRIBED. END SUMMARY.

2. THE EMBASSY LEARNED FROM UNION SOURCES THAT EIGHT OF THE LABOR UNION LEADERS ARRESTED APR 23 AND 24 WERE RELEASED LAST NIGHT (APR 24). FOUR OF THE EIGHT ARE JORGE LUJAN (GLASS WORKERS), FRANCISCO RACISKY (TRUCKERS), HUGO BARRIONUEVO (NODDLE WORKERS) AND JOSE MONTANI (PETROLEUM WORKERS). LUJAN AND RACISKY WERE PICKED UP APR 23; BARRIONUEVO AND MONTANI, ON APR 24. ACCORDING TO THE SOURCES, THE UNION LEADERS WERE ALL BEING TREATED WELL AND WERE STILL DETERMINED TO CARRY THROUGH THE STRIKE ON APR 27.

3. A PROVISIONAL "EMERGENCY" COMMITTEE REPRESENTING THE UNIONS OF THE "COMMITTEE OF 25" WHOSE LEADERS WERE ARRESTED APR 23 RATIFIED THE "NATIONAL DAY OF PROTEST" FOR APR 27. THE RIVAL NATIONAL LABOR COMMISSION (CNT) ANNOUNCED IT WOULD CONTINUE NOT TO

SUPPORT THE STRIKE CALL AS THE MEASURE HAD BEEN PROPOSED "UNILATERALLY AND IN A HURRY, WITHOUT ACHIEVING THE UNITY OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT." THE CNT ALSO EXPLAINED ITS DECISION WAS TAKEN "BECAUSE OF THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE LEGITIMATE COMPLAINTS OF THE WORKERS COULD BE RISKED IN A CONFRONTATION OF FORCES THAT DO NOT REPRESENT THE UNITY OF POPULAR SENTIMENT." THE CNT COMMUNIQUE ALSO EXPRESSED FEAR THAT THE STRIKE CALL COULD PRECIPITOUSLY RISK THE FUTURE OF THE ARGENTINE LABOR MOVEMENT.

4. AT THE SAME TIME THE CNT APPEALED FOR THE RELEASE

OF THE DETAINED LABOR LEADERS IN TELEGRAMS SENT YESTERDARY TO PRESIDENT VIDELA, LABOR MINISTER RESTON, INTERIOR MINISTER HARGUINDEGUY AND ECONOMI MINISTER MARTINEZ DE HOZ. IT ALSO ASKED BUENOS AIRES ARCHBISHOP ARAMBURU TO INTERVENE ON BEHALF OF THE UNION LEADERS AND REQUESTED APPOINTMENTS WITH RESTON AND THE MILITARY COMMITTEE TO ARGUE FOR MODIFICATIONS IN THE ECONOMIC POLICY.

5. JOINING THE PROVISIONAL "25" COMMITTEE AND THE CNT IN CALLING FOR THE RELEASE OF THE ARRESTED UNION LEADERS AND SOLIDARITY WITH THE WORKERS' ECONOMIC PLIGHT WAS PERONIST PARTY LEADER DEOLINDO BITTEL, RADICAL LEADER RICARDO BALBIN, THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT FEDERATION, THE NATIONAL JUSTICIALISTA COUNCIL, THE UNIFIED SOCIALIST PARTY, THE POPULAR SOCIALIST PARTY, THE INSTRANSIGENTE PARTY, THE COMMUNIST PARTY, THE POPULAR LEFTIST FRONT AND SEVERAL OTHER POLITICAL PARTY GROUPINGS. THE PRESS FEATURED REPORTS THAT THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE LABOR UNIONS AND THE WORLD LABOR CONFEDERATION HAD ALSO CALLED UPON VIDELA TO RELEASE THE UNION LEADERS.

6. THE 20 LEADERS ARRESTED APR 23 -- PLUS ANOTHER

FOUR FROM THE "COMMITTEE OF 25" WHO WERE ARRESTED YESTERDAY -- WERE REPORTED TO BE HELD UNDER EXECUTIVE DETENTION IN THE "UNION SECTION" OF FEDERAL POLICE HEADQUARTERS IN BUENOS AIRES. HABEAS CORPUS WRITS ON THEIR BEHALF WERE FILED. THE MORNING PRESS SPECUALTED THAT THE UNION LEADERS COULD REMAIN HELD FOR "PROCESSING" FOR UP TO 15 DAYS AND THEN RELEASED FOR TRIAL UNDER THE TERMS OF LAW 21.400 WHICH ESTABLISHES PRISON SENTENCES FOR UP TO TEN YEARS (THE HEAVY SENTENCE FOR PUBLIC INCITEMENT TO STRIKE) FOR INCITING ILLEGAL LABOR ACTIVITY.

7. THE LABOR LEADERS ARRESTED APR 24 INCLUDE HUGO BARRIONUEVO (NOODLE WORKERS), FRANCISCO LOIACONO (TOBACCO WORKERS), JUAN RACCHINI (CARBONATED BOTTLING PLANT WORKERS), AND RAMON VALLE (INSURANCE WORKERS).

SUBJECT STRIKE STATUS REPORT

REF: BUENOS AIRES 3214 AND 3269

1. SUMMARY. NINE LESSER UNION LEADERS HAVE BY NOW BEEN RELEASED, LEAVING 21 PRINCIPAL MEMBERS OF THE THE COMMITTEE OF 25 UNDER ARREST AT THE DISPOSITON OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH (PEN). NEW ARREST ORDERS HAVE BEEN ISSUED FOR FOUR MORE LEADERS, INCLUDING ONE CURRENTLY IN THE US AND ANOTHER IN GERMANY. THE GOA REPORTEDLY IS ALSO CONSIDERING OTHER ACTIONS, INCLUDING THE INTERVENTION OF UNIONS PARTICIPATING IN THE STRIKE CALL. MORE STATEMENTS OF SUPPORT FOR THE JAILED UNION LEADERS FROM ARGENTINE POLITICAL PARTY FIGURES HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO THE PRESS. IN ADDITION TO THE PRESS COMMUNIQUES OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF FREE TRADE UNIONS (ICFTU) AND WORLD CONFEDERATION OF LABOR (WCL) EXPRESSING INTERNATIONAL WORKERS SOLIDARITY, THE PRESS REPORTED THAT THE PRESIDENT OF VENEZUELA HAD SENT A TELEGRAM TO ARGENTINE PRESIDENT VIDELA ON BEHALF OF THE JAILED UNION LEADERS. WCL-CLAT REPRESENTATIVES ARE NOW IN THE COUNTRY TO MAKE REPRESENTATIONS TO GOA AUTHORITIES. THE PRESS ALSO REPORTS THAT AFL-CIO VICE PRESIDENT CHAIKEN IS EXPECTED TO ARRIVE SHORTLY, ABOUT WHICH THE EMBASSY HAS NO INFORMATION. END SUMMARY.

2. A TOTAL OF NINE "COMMITTEE OF 25" ASSOCIATES WHO WERE ARRESTED ALONG WITH THE COMMITTEE'S TOP LEADERS HAVE NOW BEEN RELEASED, REPORTEDLY AFTER SECURITY FORCES DETERMINED THAT THEY HAD NOT BEEN DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE GENERAL STRIKE CALL. THOSE FREED ON THUESDAY, ACCORDING TO TODAY'S PRESS, WERE HORACIO ALONSO (LAW COURT EMPLOYEES), HUGO BARRIONUEVO (PASTA WORKERS), ALFREDO MALDONADO (PASTRY WORKERS), NESTOR ABRAHAM DORRA (MILLERS), FRANCISCO RACICKY (TRUCK DRIVERS), JORGE BARILACHE (BREWERS), JUAN RACHINI (SODA WORKERS), AND FELIPE MASCALLI (VEGETABLE OIL WORKERS). ANOTHER LEADER, FRANCISCO LOIACONO (TOBACCO WORKERS), WAS RELEASED WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

3. TWENTY-ONE PRINCIPAL LEADERS OF THE COMMITTEE OF 25 REMAIN IMPRISONED, HAVING BEEN TRANSFERRED FROM THEIR ORIGINAL PLACE OF DETENTION TO THE CASEROS JAIL IN BUENOS AIRES AFTER AFFIRMING IN A FORMAL POLICE INTERROGATORY PROCEDURE THAT THEY HAD CONVOKED A WORK STOPPAGE FOR APRIL 27. THE LEADERS REPORTEDLY ARE BEING HELD UNDER THE PEN, ALTHOUGH THE TERMS OF THE PEN DECREE HAVE NOT YET BEEN MADE PUBLIC. LABOR SOURCES SPECULATE THAT AFTER THE STRIKE DATE (POSSIBLE NEXT WEEK) THE JAILED LEADERS WILL BE TURNED OVER TO THE NORMAL JUDICIAL PROCESS, WHICH WOULD OPEN THE POSSIBILITY OF THEIR BEING LET OUT ON BAIL WHILE AWAITING ADJUDICATION OF THE CASE. ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, THE GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUED ARREST ORDERS FOR THE HEAD OF THE TRUCKER UNION, RICARDO PEREZ, WHO IS ATTENDING A UNION SEMINAR IN EUROPE, "OSCAR" OTERO OF THE RACE TRACK EMPLOYEES (PRESUMABLY JESUS MARIA OTERO WHO IS ATTENDING AN AIFLD COURSE IN THE US), TRAVLING SALESMEN LEADER ANGEL ESTEVEZ AND NAVAL SHIPYARD WORKER LEADER JOSE CASTILLO, WHO ARE SOMEWHERE IN ARGENTINA.

4. THE PRESS REPORTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERING FURTHER MEASURE IN RESPONSE TO THE STRIKE THREAT, SUCH AS INTERVENING SOME OR ALL OF THE UNIONS WHOSE LEADERS HAVE BEEN JAILED AND/OR TERMINATING THE UNION MANDATES OF ALL LEADERS INVOLVED IN THE STRIKE CALL (INCLUDING THOSE WHO ARE SUBSTITUTING FOR THE TOP LEADERS IN THE ALTERNATE OR "EMERGENCY" COMMITTEE OF 25).

5. THE PRESS REPORTED THAT TRADE UNION LEADERS IN CORDOBA HAVE COME OUT IN SUPPORT OF THE WORK STOPPAGE, ALTHOUGH THE CORDOBA PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUED A STRONG STATEMENT WARNING WORKERS NOT TO STRIKE. POLITICAL PARTY SOURCES IN CORDOBA APRIL 25 TOLD LABATT, HOWEVER, THERE WOULD NOT BE WIDESPREAD ADHERENCE TO THE STRIKE CALL IN THAT PROVINCE. ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, THE MENDOZA UNIONS ARE UNDECIDED, BUT LOCAL OBSERVERS DOUBT THERE WILL BE A STRIKE THERE. PRESS REPORTS FROM ROSAIOR AND TUCUMAN ALSO REFLECT SKEPTICISM CONCERNING ADHERENCE TO THE STRIKE IN THOSE CITIES.

6. THE RIVAL CNT IS SCHEDULED TO MEET TODAY TO ASSESS THE CURRENT LABOR SITUATION, INCLUDING THE RECENT WAGE INCREASES DECLARED BY THE GOVERNMENT. ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, TEXTILE AND METAL UNION "SECCION" (IE LOCAL) LEADERS MET YESTERDAY AND DECIDED, DESPITE THE

7. FURTHER STATEMENTS APPEARED IN THE PRESS FROM NATIONAL POLITICAL FIGURES COMMENTING ON THE STRIKE CALL AND ARRESTS, INCLUDING EX-PRESIDENT FRONDIZI, VARIOUS PERONIST FACTIONS AND THE UNIFIED SOCIALIST PARTY -- ALL ASKING FOR THE RELEASE OF THE JAILED UNION LEADERS. ON THE OTHER SIDE A RIGHT-WING GROUP CALLED THE "FALANGE DE FE" ISSUED A STATEMENT EQUATING THE STRIKE CALL WITH SUBVERSION.

8. WORLD CONFEDERATION OF LABOR (WCL) AND CLAT REPRESENTATIVES ERNESTO MOLANO AND RAMON DARIO GODOY ARRIVED IN ARGENTINA APRIL 25 TO SEEK APPOINTMENTS WITH GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES IN ORDER TO REQUEST THE RELEASE OF THE JAILED UNION LEADERS. BOTH EXPRESSED THEIR SOLIDARITY WITH THE ARGENTINE LABOR MOVEMENT UPON ARRIVAL IN THE COUNTRY. THE TWO CHRISTIAN LABOR ORGANIZATION REPRESENTATIVES INFORMED THE PRESS THAT, AT THE REQUEST OF THE VENEZUELAN TRADE UNION CENTRAL (CTV), LUIS HERRERA CAMPINS OF VENEZUELA HAD SENT A TELEGRAM TO PRESIDENT VIDELA ON BEHALF OF THE JAILED ARGENTINE UNION LEADERS. THE THREE TRADE UNION CENTRALS OF ITALY ALSO INFORMED THE PRESS THAT THEY HAD ASKED THEIR FOREIGN MINISTRY TO MAKE A REPRESENTATION TO THE GOA AND TO "THE MOST OPPORTUNE INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS" IN ORDER TO OBTAIN THE RELEASE OF THE ARGENTINE LEADERS, ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS. ARGENTINE UNION SOURCES ALSO TOLD THE PRESS THAT AFL-CIO VICE PRESIDENT SOL CHAIKIN AND INTERNATIONAL METAL WORKERS FEDERATION (IMF) REPRESENTATIVE FERNANDO MELGOSA WERE EXPECTED TO ARRIVE IN ARGENTINA APRIL 26 OR 27 ON SIMILAR MISSIONS.

Dear Senator Meltcher:

Having recently returned from a visit to Chili, South America, including major cities such as Santiago, Valparaiso, Vina Del Mar, Concepcion, and other smaller communities within this vicinity, I was pleasently surprised. The country of Chili, while not necessarily rich in material goods, was very rich in spirit. As I had the privilege to visit many schools (including public and private), hospitals, prisons, military installations, governmental authorities, as well as the general business and community life of the country, I discovered a happy, warm and enthusiastic Chilian people. Yes, the governmental structure is currently a dictatorship, but one clearly anti-communist, and one genuinely concerned with the proper welfare of the people. When I see and feel such earnest efforts, as I saw within Chili, to clearly maintain freedom for all people; freedom of worship, property ownership, business ownership, etc.; the high value as placed upon individual human respect and responsibility; and a clear effort to maintain proper liberty, justice, and pursuit of happiness for all; I am reminded of my country, the United States of America.

I believe the country of Chili possesses one of the highest potentials for developing and maintaining a vital and strong part of the free world. Therefore, as a citizen of the United States of America I hereby kindly request that my country reassess their position towards the country of Chili and seriously consider our moral obligation towards befriending a nation whose principals concerning life and liberty are very near our own. As you serve in a vital part of our governing process, I trust you will make every effort possible towards this end.

I also would be pleased to hear from you regarding this matter and will pray that God may grant you special wisdom, sound judgement, proper discernment, and the necessary courage to serve Him and our country in a full and responsible manner. Please consider a full and open support of Chili.

1. [redacted] - FULL TEXT)

2. INDICATIONS DEPT HAS CONTINUED TO SUGGEST THAT IAHRC WILL VISIT ARGENTINA AS PLANNED, ALTHOUGH INSTALLATION AND INTERNAL ORGANIZATION OF NEW IAHRC MAY REQUIRE SEVERAL WEEKS. OTHER ISSUES RAISED BY ARLIA (PARAGRAPH 6, REFTEL) ARE MET BY PERM COUNCIL RES. 253 OF SEPT. 20, 1978 TITLED "TRANSITION FROM THE PRESENT IAHRC TO COMMISSION PROVIDED FOR IN THE AMERICAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS".

3. WHILE POSSIBILITY CANNOT BE RULED OUT, WE ARE UNAWARE OF ANY SIGNIFICANT ROLE OF ORFILA IN SEEKING DELAY OF VISIT. OUR INFORMATION IS THAT STAFF MEMBERS OF IAHRC BEGAN LOBBYING COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS DELEGATIONS SEVERAL MONTHS AGO TO PUSH FOR EARLY ELECTION OF BOTH COURT AND NEW COMMISSION. THERE WAS SUSPICION ON PART OF JAMAICA AND OTHERS ABOUT ARGENTINE MOTIVES IN JOINING FORCES WITH COSTA RICA AND HONDURAS, AND AMBASSADOR CARASALES WENT TO CONSIDERABLE LENGTHS ON MORNING OF APRIL 18 TO ASSURE

DOUBTERS THAT GOA WOULD NOT (RPT. NOT) USE PRETEXT OF NEW COMMISSION TO SEEK DELAY. WITHOUT SUCH ASSURANCES, IT IS HIGHLY LIKELY THAT IAHRC ELECTION WOULD HAVE BEEN DEFERRED TO REGULAR GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN NOVEMBER.

4. EMBASSY MAY WISH TO MAKE FOREGOING POINTS IN ANY FOLLOW ON DISCUSSIONS WITH ARLIA. VANCE

SUBJECT: GENERAL STRIKE PARTIALLY EFFECTIVE; FURTHER TRADE UNION ARRESTS AND RELEASES ANNOUNCED

REF: A) BA-3313; B) STATE 105843

1. SUMMARY: TODAY'S STRIKE IS PARTIALLY EFFECTIVE IN THE BUENOS AIRES FACTORY DISTRICTS AND TRANSPORTATION SECTOR, WITH ONLY SCATTERED REPORTS OF MINOR STRIKE TROUBLE IN OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED THAT NINE MORE TRADE UNION LEADERS WERE RELEASED LATE APR 26, INCLUDING THREE MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF 5, ALTHOUGH WE DO NOT HAVE CONFIRMATION. HOWEVER, NEW ARRESTS HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCED. SOME PAPERS TOTAL THE NO. OF LEADERS RELEASED AT [illegible], WITH AROUND 10 OF THOSE ORIGINALLY DETAINED REPORTEDLY STILL UNDER ARREST, BUT ACCOUNTS VARY IN THE MEDIA AND REQUIRE FURTHER INVESTIGATION. STATEMENTS OF SUPPORT FOR THE JAILED ARGENTINE LABOR LEADERS FROM INTERNATIONAL AND NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS CONTINUE TO BE RECEIVED BY THE GOA, BUT THE AFL-CIO CABLE HAS NOT BEEN PUBLICIZED. END SUMMARY.

2. AS OF 1100 AM APRL 27, THE [illegible]-HOURS NATIONAL STRIKE CALLED BY "THE COMMITTEE OF 25" APPEARS TO BE PARTIALLY EFFECTIVE IN BUENOS AIRES. AT LEAST 2 OF THE 5 INTERURBAN COMMUTER RAILWAY LINES IN THE BUENOS AIRES AREA WERE NOT FUNCTIONING EARLY THIS MORNING, ALTHOUGH ACCORDING TO A LATE REPORT ONE OF THESE LINES IS NOW BEGINNING TO NORMALIZE. IN THE INDUSTRIAL BELT AROUND THE CITY OF BUENOS AIRES MOST AUTO PLANTS ARE VIRTUALLY SHUT DOWN -- MERCEDES BENZ, PEUGEOT, CITROEN AND CHRYSLER; FIAT REPORTS 80 PERCENT ABSENTEEISM, BUT FORD IS WORKING NORMALLY. SEVERAL METAL AND FIRE FACTORIES ARE NOT WORKING OR HAVE ONLY PARTIAL ATTENDANCE AND WE ASSUME THIS IS TRUE FOR OTHER INDUSTRIAS AS WELL. ACCORDING TO AN AUTO INDUSTRY SOURCE, THE CORDOBA AUTO PLANTS ARE WORKING NORMALLY OR NEAR NORMALLY. THERE WERE EARLIER REPORTS OF SLOWDOWNS IN THE BUENOS AIRES SUBWAYS

BUT PRESS SOURCES TELL US THAT THEY ARE NOW RETURNING TO NORMAL OPERATION. AIRLINE TRAFFIC APPEARS TO BE NORMAL. BUS, TAXI AND PASSENGER VEHICLE TRAFFIC WAS NORMAL AND THE OFFICE AND BUSINESS DISTRICTS IN THE CENTER OF BUENOS AIRES ARE OPERATING NORMALLY, INCLUDING THE STOCK EXCHANGE WHERE THERE ARE NO SIGNS OF PANIC. WE HAVE NO CONFIRMED REPORTS OF STRIKE ADHESION IN OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, BUT THERE MAY BE SOME WORKER NON-ATTENDENCE IN THE CORDOBA INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT AND SLOWDOWNS IN THE RAILWAY LINES IN MENDOZA.

3. AN INFORMED INDUSTRY SOURCE REPORTED THAT THE STRIKE IS MORE EFFECTIVE THAN INDUSTRIAL LEADERS HAD ANTICIPATED.

4. THE INTERIOR MINISTRY ISSUED A COMUNIQUE APRIL 26 DECLARING THE NATIONAL STRIKE TO BE ILLEGAL AND PROMISING TOGUARANTEE PUBLIC ORDER AND THE RIGHT TO WORK "WITH ALL MEANS AT HAND AND WITH THE STRENGHT GIVEN BY REASON AND LAW." THE MINISTRY ALSO STATED THAT " SMALL GROUP OF PERSONS HAVE INSTIGATED THE WORKERS TO HOLD AND ILLEGAL STRIKE ON FRIDAY, 27 APRIL, AND HAVE THUS PROMPTED THE GOVERNMENTS'S (ARREST) ACTION IN KEEPING WITH ITS RESPONSIBILITY TO PROMOTE THE COMMONGOOD AND TO ENFORCE THE LAW. THIS MINORITY GROUP CHOSE AN ILLEGAL WAY TO DISRUPT THE MARCH OF THE PROCESS OF NATIONAL REORGANIZATION WHICH HAS BEEN SEEKING, WITH UNDERSTANDABLE DIFFICULTIES, TO PULL THE COUNTRY OUT OF THE SITUATION IT IS NOW EXPERIENCING. THEY HAVE ATTEMPTED TO HAVE THE WORKERS ADOPT ILLEGAL, USELESS ATTITUDES. UNFORTUNATELY, THIS IS NOT THE FIRST TIME THESE ACTIONS HAVE HAPPENED IN THIS COUNTRY AND THE PEOPLE ARE CERTAINLY AWARE OF THIS. THE NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BRANCH, WITH PRUDENCE, OBJECTIVITY AND A DECISIVENESS WHICH DOES NOT AND WILL NOT INDULGE IN HESITATION, HAS PROCEEDED TO ENFORCE THE LAW."

5. THE MINISTRY'S COMUNIQUE INDICATED THAT THE INTERROGATION OF THE DETAINED TRADE UNION LEADERS RESULTED IN THE CONCLUSION THAT THE FOLLOWING WERE NOT INVOLVED IN THE STRIKE CALL AND THAT THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH, THEREFORE, HAD ORDERED THEIR RELEASE: ALBERTO CAMPOS (METAL WORKERS); FERNANDO DONAIRES (PAPER WORKERS LEADER AND A MEMBER OF THE "25'S" EXECUTIVE COMMITTE OF 5); BENJAMIN GAETANI (VEGETABLE OIL WORKERS); JORGE LUJAN (GLASS WORKERS); RODOLFO SOBERANO (MILLERS); CARLOS CABRERA (MINE WORKER AND MEMBER OF THE 25'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF 5); DELMIDIO MORET (LIGHT AND POWER WORKERS); SANTIAGO SERPA (SANITATION WORKERS LEADER), AND RAMON VALLE (INSURANCE WORKER LEADER AND MEMBER OF THE 25'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF 5).

6. WE DO NOT YET HAVE CONFIRMATION THAT THESE LEADERS HAVE INDEED BEEN RELEASED AND WE ARE SEEKING TO CONFIRM PRESS REPORTS THAT GLASS EMPLOYEE LEADER ALFONSO MILLAN WAS RELEASED LAST NIGHT. THE PRESS REPORTS THAT THERE ARE STILL 10 NATIONAL LEADERS UNDER ARREST, BUT ACCOUNTS DIFFER IN THE MEDIA AS TO THE TOTAL NO. BOAT MECHANIC LEADER JOSE LUIS CASTILLO REPORTEDLY RESPONDED TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS ARREST ORDER BY TURNING HIMSELF IN TO AUTHORITIES. THE PRESS ALSO REPORTED THAT AT LEAST 5 LOCAL TRADE UNION LEADERS IN CORDOBA HAVE BEEN ARRESTED, AS FOLLOWS: COMMERCIAL WORKER LEADER MANIR FATALA; TELEGRAPH WORKER LEADER MANUEL RODRIGUEZ; RESTAURANT EMPLOYEE LEADER JUAN REYES; STATE PETROLEUM WORKER LEADER JUAN DE BIASIS; AND METAL WORKER LEADER JULIO CESAR ROMERO.

7. THE PRESS ALSO REPORTED THAT PROTESTS AGAINST THE ARRESTS AND DEMANDS FOR THE RELEASE OF THE UNIONISTS CONTINUED TO CONVERGE ON THE GOVERNMENT IN THE FORM OF TELEGRAMS AND STATEMENTS FROM NATIONAL AND FOREIGN POLITICAL AND PROFESSIONAL GROUPS. THE STATE DEPT., STATEMENT WAS REPORTED, AS WELL AS THE FACT THAT THE UNITED AUTO WORKERS (UAW) HAD CABLED PRESIDENT VIDELA DEMANDING THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF THE ARGENTINE TRADE UNIONISTS. AN INTERNATIONAL METAL WORKERS FEDERATION (IMF) STATEMENT WAS ALSO REPORTED. THERE HAS BEEN NO MENTION IN THE LOCAL PRESS OF THE AFL-CIO CABLE TO PRESIDENT VIDELA AND LOCAL TRADE UION LEADERS ARE UNAWARE OF ITS EXISTENCE.

SUBJECT: MAY DAY PLANS AND RELATED MATTERS

1. SUMMARY: THE MAY DAY SITUATION EMAINS UNCERTAIN AND THERE IS A SUBSTANTIAL RISK OF CONFONTATION BETWEEN LEFTISTS AND SECURITY FORCES. DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SAY THAT THEY WILL STAY INSIDE. PINOCHET HAS REPEATED THE GOVERNMENT'S DETERMINATION TO PREVENT ANY STREET CELEBRATIONS BUT SAID THAT TRADE UNIONS MAY MEET IN UNION HALLS AND THAT BEGINNING MAY 1 NO PRIOR NOTIFICATION WILL BE REQUIRED FOR ANY SUCH MEETINGS. END SUMMARY.

2. PRESIDENT PINOCHET TOLD A BREAKFAST GATHERING OF JOURNALISTS APRIL 25 THAT TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS MAY CELEBRATE MAY DAY IN ANY UNION HALL WITHOUT PRIOR NOTIFICATION OR PERMISSION BY LOCAL AUTHORITIES. PREVIOUSLY, ONLY UNIONS WITH THEIR OWN HALLS HAVE HAD THIS UNFETTERED RIGHT. FROM MAY DAY ON, ANY UNION MAY BORROW ANOTHER UNION'S HALL WITHOUT GIVING PRIOR NOTICE TO THE CARABINEROS. THE PRESIDENT ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT PUBLIC DEMONSTRATIONS WILL NOT BE PERMITTED. IN VALPARAISO, THE REGIONAL INTENDANT VICE ADMIRAL TRONCOSO MADE A SIMILAR ANNOUNCEMENT SPECIFYING PRECISELY THAT THEATERS, SPORTS STADIUMS AND AUDITORIUMS

NOT PART OF A UNION HALL ARE NOT CONSIDERED AS PLACE FOR MEETINGS UNDER THE NEW CHANGE IN REGULATIONS.

3. THE DEMOCRATIC GROUP OF TEN, THE CHRISTIAN UNITARY WORKERS FRONT (FUT), THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NATIONAL WORKERS COORDINATING BODY (CNS) AND THE PRIVATE EMPLOYEES CONFEDERATION DIRECTED A

STRONGLY WORDED REQUEST APRIL 23 TO PINOCHET ASKING THAT HE PERMIT A PUBLIC WORKERS CELEBRATION. WHILE AWAITING THE ASSURED DENIAL, THE GROUP OF TEN MET AND DECIDED TO CELEBRATE MAY DAY AT A MASS IN THE ROMAN CATHOLIC BASILICA. AFTER MASS, THE GROUP OF TEN WILL READ A WHITE PAPER ON TRADE UNION FREEDOM TO THE CONGREGATION. IT IS LIKELY THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER LABOR GROUPSINGS WILL ALSO ATTEND THE MASS. THE CEPCH DECIDED THAT, WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION, IT WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY ACTIVITY ON MAY DAY, INCLUDING THE GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED MAY DAY CELEBRATION AT DIEGO PORTALES (GOVERNMENT HOUSE). REPORTEDLY, THE CNS AND FUT HAVE DECIDED TO DEFY THE GOC DENIAL AND ARE TRYING TO ORGANIZE A MASS PUBLIC RALLY FOR MAY DAY. THE TWO SUGGESTED SITES FOR THE RALLY ARE THE PASEO AHUMADA AND THE PLAZA BULNES -- BOTH IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO. ONE REPORT HAS GROUPS FORMING IN THE OUTSKIRTS AND ATTEMPTING TO MARCH TO THE CENTRAL RALLYING POINT. THE CNS HAS SUGGESTED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC LABOR GROUPS JOIN THEM AFTER THE MASS AT THE BASILICA. THIS HAS BEEN REJECTED BY THE GROUP OF TEN.

4. PDC UNIVERSITY AND WOMEN'S GROUPS SAY THEY ALSO PLAN TO DEMONSTRATE ON MAY DAY. FINDING THE GROUP OF TEN'S PLANS TOO TAME, THE PDC YOUTH SAY THEY WILL JOIN WITH THE CNS AND FUT FOR THE PUBLIC MARCH.

5. THE GOC HAS ORGANIZED A VARIETY OF OFFICIAL ACTIVITIES FOR THE PERIOD AROUND LABOR DAY, INVOLVING LABOR, BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT LEADERS. THESE INCLUDE VISITS BY PINOCHET TO UNCLASSIFIED

FACTORIES, A SEMINAR ON THE GOC LABOR POLICY FOR OVER 300 WORKERS, THE ELECTION OF A LABOR QUEEN, SPORTS EVENTS AND THE OFFICIAL CELEBRATION AT DIEGO PORTALES. THE LATTER WILL BRING TOGETHER 2,500 LABOR LEADERS, WORKERS, AND DIPLOMATS WHO WILL HEAR SPEECHES BY THE MINISTER OF LABOR, JOSE PINERA, THE LABOR REPRESENTATIVE TO THE COUNCIL OF STATE GUILLERMO MEDINA AND THE PRESIDENT. THE NATIONAL UNION OF CHILEAN WORKERS (UNTRACH) WILL ATTEND.

6. COMMENT: UNLESS THERE IS A LAST MINUTE CHANGE OF MIND ON THE PART OF LEFTIST LABOR LEADERS WE CAN EXPECT A REPEAT OF THE ATTEMPTED RALLY AND POLICE BUST OF LAST YEAR -- WHEN SOME 780 WERE ARRESTED AND HELD BRIEFLY. LIKE LAST YEAR SOME FOREIGN GUESTS HAVE BEEN INVITED -- WE HAVE HEARD DEFINITELY ABOUT DUTCH AND SPANIARDS. THERE IS SOME DANGER THAT THE GOC WILL REACT MORE HARSHLY THAN THE LAST TIME AROUND (DESPITE THE COURT'S REJECTION OF ITS RECENT ATTEMPT TO PIN INTERNAL SECURITY LAW VIOLATIONS ON DEMONSTRATING RELATIVES OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS). IN ANY EVENT THE WOULD-BE MARCHERS WILL GAIN HEADLINES AND INTERNATIONAL SYMPATHY.

Dear Senator Zorinsky:

The Secretary has asked me to answer your letter of April 27, in which you ask for comments on these proposed amendments to this year's security assistance legislation.

The Administration did not propose the amendments to Section 406 of the International Security Assistance, 1976, Section 620 (b) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, or Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act.

We are extremely concerned about the human rights situation in Argentina and Chile. The Administration does not contemplate military aid to either country at this time. We would not want any action by the U.S. government to be interpreted as a lessening of our concern for human rights.

We would, however, like to take this opportunity to point out that we have consistently opposed legislative prohibitions such as those in Section 406 and Section 620 (b) applicable to specific countries. We have taken this position because we believe the President needs this flexibility to respond to changing circumstances.

While we believe that singling out Argentina and Chile at this time would send the wrong signals, we would be prepared to support your proposal if it were broadened to remove the entire restriction as well as to cover all other country specific prohibitions.

Sincerely,

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC'S MAY DAT RALLY WAS MRAKED BY LEGTHY EXPOSITION OF GOVERNMENT THINIING ON LABOR MATERS, SOME CRITICISM OF THE AFL-CIO, AND THE FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT THAT ALL UNIONS CAN NOW MEET IN UNION HALLS WITHOUT PRIOR PERMISSION. IN OTHER ACTIONS, FIVE MEN ATTEMPTED TO HAVE A MAY DAY MESSAGE BROADCAST OVER A LOCAL RADIO STATION APRIL 30. THAT EVENING LABOR LEADERS, EDUARDO RIOS AND MANUEL BUSTOS, ERE ARRESTED AND DETAINED BRIEFLY FOR HOLDING AN UNAUTHORIZED MEETING IN AN AUDITORIUM. CARDINAL SILVA'S MAY DAY MESSAGE SAID WORKERS SHOULD BE ABLE TO RECOGNIZE THEIR RIGHTS. OVERALL, WITHOUT PROVOKING AS MANY ARRESTS AS LAST YEAR, LEFT AND CENTER LABOR GROUPS WERE FAIRLY SUCCESSFUL IN CARRYING OUT AN INDEPENDENT MAY DAY PROGRAM. END SUMMARY.

2. THE OFFICIAL MAY DAY RALLY: AS IN PREVIOUS YEARS, APPROXIMATELY 2,500 OFFICIALS, WORKERS, BUSINESSMENT AND DIPLOMATES MET AT DIEGO PORTALES TO HEAR SPOKESMEN FOR ORGANIZED LABOR, THE LABOR MINISTER AND PRESIDENT PINOCHET. AS IN THE PAST, ALL SPEAKERS CONDEMNED POLITICAL INVOVLVE-MENT IN THE CHILEAN TRADE MOVEMENT. COPPER WORKERS LEADER (AND MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL OF STATE) GUILLERMO MEDINA READ FROM A RECENT BULLETIN OF THE AFL-CIO WHICH SAID THAT THE GOC HAD GIVEN WAY UNDER THE THREAT OF A BOYCOTT AND AGREED TO RESTORE TRADE UNION RIGHTS. HE SAID THAT CHILEAN WORKERS REJECT THIS IMPUTATION, CLAIMING THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S LABOR PLAN IS INTERNAL NOT IMPOSED. LABOR MINISTE PINERA REVIEWED AT LEGNTH THE MAIN PRINCIPLES OF THE LABOR PLAN AND PROMISED THAT IT WOULD ALL BE IN PLACE ON SCHEDULE , I.,E., BY JUNE 30. HE ALSO MADE THE FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HENCEFORTH, UNIONS WITHOUT THEIR LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

OWN HALLS MAY MAKE USE OF HALLS BELONGING TO OTHER UNIONS FOR TRADE UNION MEETINGS WITHOUT PREVIOUSLY INFORMING THE CARABINEROS. (COMMENT: THIS NEW LAW REVISES DL 2544 OF FEBRUARY 9, 1979 WHICH IN TURN HAD AMENDED DL 198. AS SO OFTEN HAPPENS WITH GOC LEGISLATION, TH REVISION OF ONE ELEMENT LEAVES ANOTHER POINT UNCLEAR. UNDER DL 2544 UNIONS WITHOUT THEIR OWN HALL COULD MEET IN ANY PRIVATE PLACE SO LONG AS THE CARABINEROS WERE ADVISED 24 HOURS IN ADVANCE. THE LATEST REVISION, IN DL2620, APPEARS TO CLOSE THE "PRIVATE PLACE OPTION". A STRICT INTERPRETATION MAY MEAN THAT UNIONS WITHOUT THEIR OWN HALL CAN ONLY MEET IN SOME OTHER UNION'S HALL.) PINOCHET'S BRIEF ADDRESS CON-TAINED NO NEW IDEAS. LATER IN THE DAY HE VISITED HOSPITALIZED WORKERS.

3. PREACFUL PROTEST: THE LEADERS OF THE GROUP OF TEN, THE CONFEDERATION OF PRIVATE EMPLOYEES (CEPCH), THE NATIONAL TRADE UNION COORDINATING BOARD (CNS) AND THE UNITARY WORKERS FRON (FUT) HELD A SERIES OF JOINT MEETINGS AND CERE-MONIES DURING THE DAY. APPROXIMATELY 2,000 PERSONS WERE

PRESENT AT SANTIAGO'S EL SALVADOR BASILICA. (COMMENT: THE CHURCH FIRST AGREED AND THEN DENIED PERMISSION TO USE THE BASILICA. A COMPROMISE APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN STRUCK. THE BASILICA WAS TO BE OPEN FOR MASS REGARDLESS. IT JUST HAPPENED THAT 2,000 SUPPRTERS OF THE FOUR LABOR GROUPS TURNED UP. A PRIEST SPOKE ON CHILE'S SOCIAL DOCTRINE, DRAWING HEAVILY ON CELAM I AND II, AND BISHOP ALVEAR ALSO ADDRESSED THOSE IN ATTENDANCE.) SOME SCUFFLING BROKE OUT BETWEEN CARABINEROS AND DEMONSTRATORS OUTSIDE THE BASILICA WHERE CHRISTIAN-SOCIALIST LABOR LEADER CLOTARIO BLEST ATTEMPTED TO ADDRESS THE CROWD. THE INTERNAL PORTICO OF THE BASILICA COLLAPSED AS PEOPLE TRIED TO GET OUT OF THE WAY. ABOUT A DOZEN PEOPLE WERE INJURED, NONE SERIOUSLY. SOME ARRESTS WERE MADE OUTSIDE THE BASILICA. SUBSEQUENTLY, ABOUT 100 OF THE LEADERS OF THE FOUR GROUPS ATE LUNCH AT

THE FUT'S SOCIAL HALL. THEY THEN WENT TO THE UNION HALL OF SUMAR TEXTILES WHERE FEDERICO MUJICA SPOKE FOR THE CEPCH, MANUEL BUSTOS FOR THE CNS, CARLOS FREZ FOR THE FUT

AND EDUARDO RIOS FOR THE GOUP OF TEN. THERE WERE NO REPORTED INCIDENTS AT EITHER OF THESE TWO EVENTS.

4. FOREIGN GUESTS: SO FAR AS WE CAN TELL ONLY FIVE FOREIGN TRADE UNION LEADERS MADE IT TO CHILE THIS YEAR FOR MAY DAY. THESE INCLUDE THREE DUTCHMEN (WIM SPIT, V.D. SLUYS AND BRUNO CALLE); ONE COLOMBIAN (ERSNEST MOLANO, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE WORLD CONFEDERATION OF WORKERS); AND, ONE ITALIAN (FRANCO PATELLI). THE GOC DENIED ENTRY TO SPANISH SOCIALIST, ANGEL OTERO AND VENEZUELAN LABOR LEADER EDUARDO GARCIA, CLAIMING THATTHEY THAD BEEN ACTIVE IN ACTIVITIES DIRECTED AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF CHILE.

5. STREET DEMONSTRATIONS: MOST OF THE 365 PERSONS ARRESTED AND STILL BEING DETAINED WERE PICKED UP AT VARIOUS ATTEMPTED STREET DEMONSTRATIONS AROUND SANTIAGO. FROM PHOTOGRAPHS, MANY APPEAR TO BE STUDENTS; WE ASSUME SOME WORKERS WERE ALSO INVOLVED. THERE HAVE BEEN SOME REPORTS OF FIST FIGHTS WITH CARABINEROS AND IN SOME CASES THE DEMONSTRATORS ATTEMPTED TO HAND OUT LEAFLETS. THEY SHOUTED SLOGANS DEMANDING LIBERTY. OF THOSE ARRESTED, REPORTEDLY 17 ARE TO BE CHARGED IN THE MILITIARY JUDICIAL SYSTEM FOR ASSAULTS ON SECURITY OFFICIALS. THE REMAINING 348 WILL BE CHARGED FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE INTERNAL SECURITY CODE AND ARRAIGNED BEFORE CIVILIAN JDDGES. SO FAR AS WE KNOW, NO TRADE UNION LEADERS ARE AMONG THE DETAINEES.

6. OTHER EVENTS: THE AFTERNOON OF APRIL 30, FIVE MASKED MEN TOOK OVER THE RELAY STATION FOR RADIO MINERIA AND RE-

PORTEDLY DEMANDED THAT A TAPED ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING MAY DAY BE PLAYED. THEY WERE UNSUCCESSFUL AND DEPARTED IN ABOUT HALF AN HOUR. THE EVENING OF APRIL 30, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNIONISTS HELD A GATHERING AT A SANTIAGO AUDITORIUM. THE CARABINERSOS, AFTER DETERMINING THAT NO PERMISSION HAD BEEN GRANTED, ASKED THE LEADERS TO STOP THE MEETING. WHEN THEY REFUSED, THE CARABINEROS TOOK EDUARDO RIOS OF THE GROUP OF TEN AND MANUEL BUSTOS OF THE CNS INTO CUSTODY, ALONG WITH THREE OTHER PERSONS. THEY RECEIVED COURTEOUS TREATMENT AND WERE RELASED A FEW HOURS LATER, REPORTEDLY, ON INSTRUCTIONS FROM A HIGH OFFICIAL. ANTIAGO CARDINAL RAUL SILVA NOW TRAVELLING ABORAD, USSUDED A MAY DAY MESSAGE WHICH SAID AMONG OTHER THINGS, THAT NATIONAL SECURITY WOULD BE BETTER PROTECTED IF WORKERS COULD EXERCISE THEIR RIGHTS. THE MESSAGE ALSO REFERRED TO ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES OF CHILEAN WORKERS.

7. COMMENT: FOR THE FIRST TIME IN FIVE YEARS, OPPOSITION LABOR GROUPS SUCCEEDED IN CARRYING OUT AN INDEPENDENT MAY DAY PROGRAM. COMPARED WITH LAST YEAR, ONLY HALF AS MANY PEPOLE WERE ARRESTED AND DETAINED; NO LABORLEADERS, CLERGYMEN OR FOREIGNERS WERE INCLUDED; AND THERE WAS NO PROPERTY DAMAGE FROM EXPLOSIONS AS OCCURRED LAST YEAR AT THE FIRST NATIONAL CITY BANK. DEMOCRATIC AND COMMUNIST GROUPS WHO ADHERED TO THE REGULATIONS WERE, IN EFFECT, PERMITTED TO MEET PEACEFULLY INDOORS, ALBEIT UNDER SOME SURVEILLANCE AND TENSIONS.

SUBJECT: (U) REPORTED DISAPPEARANCES

[redacted] SUMMARY. TWO DISAPPEARANCES WERE REPORTED TO THE EMBASSY YESTERDAY, ONE DATING FROM APRIL 11 AND THE OTHER FROM APRIL 30. THE APRIL 11 CASE, THAT OF JULIO CESAR ABRUZZESE, AT PRESENT APPEARS A CASE OF ORDINARY "POLICE CRIME" WITH UNCLEAR MOTIVES. THE MORE RECENT CASE, THAT OF THELMA DOROTY JARA DE CABEZAS, A PROMINENT HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCATE, APPEARS TO BE TYPICALLY A POLITICAL ABDUCTION. BOTH CASES HAVE BEEN PRESENTED ON AN URGENT BASIS AT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY, TO THE OFFICE OF THE ARMY COMMANDER, AND TO ELEMENTS OF ARMY AND AIR FORCE INTELLIGENCE AND TO NAVY CONTACTS. NO RESPONSE HAS BEEN RECEIVED AS YET FROM MEMBER OF GOA. END SUMMARY.

1. DISAPPEARANCE OF HUMAN RIGHTS LEADER - THELMA DOROTY JARA DE CABEZAS --

1. (U) MEMBERS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION - FAMILIARES DE DESAPARACIDOS Y DETENIDOS (FDD) INFORMED EMBOFF ON MAY 2 OF THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THELMA DOROTY JARA DE CABEZAS (CASE NO. 1035/79/5). ACCORDING TO THE FDD SOURCES, MRS. CABEZAS WAS LAST SEEN THE EVENING OF APRIL 30TH VISITING HER HUSBAND,

A LUNG CANCER PATIENT, AT THE SPANISH HOSPITAL IN DOWNTOWN BUENOS AIRES. MRS. CABEZAS LEFT THE HOSPITAL AT 8 PM TO RETURN

TO THE HOME OF FRIENDS NEAR THE HOSPITAL WITH WHOM SHE WAS STAYING. SHE HAS NOT BEEN SEEN SINCE.

2. (U) THE FOLLOWING DAY, MAY 1, TWO MEN DRESSED IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES WHO IDENTIFIED THEMSELVES AS FEDERAL POLICEMEN CALLED AT THE APARTMENT WHERE MRS. CABEZAS WAS STAYING TEMPORARILY AND INQUIRED IF SHE HAD BEEN LIVING THERE. HER FRIENDS, GREATLY FRIGHTENED, REPORTEDLY DENIED TO THE POLICE OFFICERS THAT MRS. CABEZAS HAD RESIDED IN THEIR APARTMENT. ONE OF THE POLICE OFFICERS STATED THAT THEY WERE SEARCHING FOR HER AS SHE WAS A "MONTONERA".

3. (U) MRS. CABEZAS IS AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION OF THE FDD. IN THIS CAPACITY SHE REPRESENTED THE FDD AT THE RECENT LATIN AMERICAN BISHOPS' CONFERENCE IN PUEBLA, MEXICO. MRS. CABEZAS WAS ALSO THE FDD'S CHAPTER COORDINATOR RESPONSIBLE FOR RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PARENT ORGANIZATION AND THE FDD GROUPS ORGANIZED IN A NUMBER OF CITIES IN THE INTERIOR.

4. [redacted] THE FDD SOURCE STATED THAT MRS. CABEZAS' ABDUCTION, FOLLOWING RECENT BOMBINGS AGAINST THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS OF THE BUENOS AIRES AND ROSARIO FDD CHAPTERS, HAS RAISED FEARS WITHIN THE ORGANIZATION. FDD MEMBERS ARE ESPECIALLY CONCERNED BECAUSE MRS. CABEZAS HAD INTIMATE KNOWLEDGE NOT ONLY OF THE OPERATION OF THE FDD NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS BUT OF ALL THE REGIONAL CHAPTERS.

5. [redacted] THE FRENCH EMBASSY POLITICAL OFFICER RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS CONTACTED EMBOFF ON MAY 2 TO ASCERTAIN IF THIS EMBASSY HAD INFORMATION REGARDING THE CABEZAS ABDUCTION. THE FRENCH POLOFF STATED THAT MRS. CABEZAS [redacted]

HAD MET WITH MRS. GISCARD D'ESTAIN DURING THE FRENCH PRESIDENT'S RECENT VISIT TO MEXICO. DURING THIS MEETING MRS. CABEZAS HAD EXPRESSED FEARS FOR HER PERSONAL SAFETY AND THAT OF OTHERS WORKING IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS MOVEMENT IN ARGENTINA. FRENCH POLOFF STATED THAT THE FRENCH EMBASSY HAD PREVIOUSLY MADE REPRESENTATIONS TO THE GOA REGARDING MRS. CABEZAS'S SAFETY THROUGH THE PAPAL NUNCIO AND RECEIVED ASSURANCES THAT SHE WAS IN NO DANGER.

II. DISAPPEARANCE OF JULIO CESAR ABRUZZESE (CASE NO. 1017/79/5) --

[redacted] ABRUZZESE'S FAMILY BELIEVES THAT THE SITUATION WAS RELATED TO ABRUZZESE'S APPARENT UNWILLINGNESS TO COOPERATE WITH A POLICE OFFICIAL WHO WAS SEARACHING FOR ABRUZZESE'S BROTHER-IN-LAW -- - FORMER BURGLAR WHOSE CAPTURE THE POLICE OFFICER, FIRST SERGEANT JORGE ALBERTO DIAZ, BELIEVED WOULD WIN HIM A PROMOTION. ABRUZZEE WAS ABDUCTED WITH THE PORTERO OF HIS BUILDING EARLY IN THE MORNING OF APRIL 11 AND SUBSEQUENTLY TORTURED WITH PICANA. THE PORTERO WAS LATER RELEASED. (MEMCON FOLLOWS.)

6. [redacted] THE WIFE AND SISTER OF JULIO CESAR ABRUZZESE REPORTED TO EMBOFF MAY 2 THAT THEIR RELATIVE WAS ABDUCTED ON APRIL 11 AT 3:30 AM BY FOUR ARMED MEN WHO IDENTIFIED THEMSELVES AS POLICE OFFICERS. THERE HAS BEEN NO INFORMATION REGARDING MR. ABRUZZESE'S WHEREABOUTS SINCE HIS INTERROGATION. HABEAS CORPURS PETITIONS FILED WITH AUTHORITIES IN THE FEDERAL CAPITAL AND IN THE PROVINCE OF BUENOS AIRES HAVE BEEN NEGATIVE.

7. CHARGE REQUESTED INFORMATION ON REPORTED DISAPPEARANCES FROM FONOFF ON EVENING OF MAY 2 AND FROM GENERAL VIOLA'S OFFICE MAY 3. EMBOFFS HAVE MADE PARALLEL INQUIRIES TO ARMY INTELLIGENCE, AIR FORCE INTELLIGENCE, NAVY CONTACTS AND TO FEDERAL SECURITY SERVICE. NO RESPONSES HAVE BEEN RECEIVED YET.

TO: USOAS - Mr. Michael Yohn

FROM: HA/HR - Patrick J. Flood

SUBJECT: The OAS Office in Buenos Aires

Human rights leaders in Argentina told me the local OAS office is of no help in processing human rights complaints. Reason: the office is run by a retired Argentine Colonel (Col. Monti), who is hardly likely to stir up the people who pay his pension and control other aspects of his life. Result: The thousands of people who want to file human rights complaints on their own behalf or on behalf of their relatives have to submit them to Washington, and the OAS's Buenos Aires office just stays out of it. (An IAHRC source confirmed the foregoing statements.)

But: under OAS rules, no field office can be run by a national of the country in which it is located. Col. Monti is technically legal, because he is only the "acting director". As there has been no real director for years, the situation clearly involves a flagrant subterfuge.

Suggested solution: a few member states should approach the Secretary General to express their deep concern about this anomaly and request that the post of permanent director be filled without further delay.

Why? An independent OAS office can be a source of moral support and encouragement to Argentine human rights victims during the period before and during the IAHRC visit and can play a useful follow-through role on the Commission's recommendations afterward.

GOA BY VIRTURE OF DECREEES 901, 905 AND 906 HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM PEN, BUT SIX HAVE BEEN CRIMINALLY INDICTED. THE OTHER

SIX, EXCEPT FOR ONE SICK MAN, HAVE NOT YET BEEN RELEASED, TO OUR KNOWLEDGE. THERE ARE RUMORS OF NEW FACTORY LEVEL ARRESTS, BUT WE HAVE NO CONFIRMATION. THE GOA DECISION TO REMOVE THE 25-GROUP LEADERS FROM THE PEN STRENGTHENS ITS CASE THAT IT IS ACTING STRICTLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARGENTINE LAW AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURE AND MAY HAVE BEEN TAKEN IN THE FACE OF THE UPCOMING ICFTU AND ILO MEETINGS AND THE EXPRESSION OF A STATEMENT OF CONCERN ON THE PART OF THE US GOVERNMENT (WHICH THE GOA FORMALLY PROTESTED AS AN UNDUE INTERFERENCE IN ARGENTINA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS). LABOR MINISTER FAILED TO MENTION IN HIS MAY DAY ADDRESS WHEN A NEW TRADE UNION LAW MAY BE EXPECTED TO BE PROMULGATED. END SUMMARY.

1. (U) ON APRIL 30 FEDERAL INVESTIGATION UDGE GILETTA ORDERED THE PREVENTIVE CUSTODY OF SIX UNION LEADERS OF THE "COMMITTEE OF 25" AFTER MAKING A PRIMA FACIE DETERMINATION THAT THEY HAD VIOLATED LAW NO. 21,400 (WHICH SUSPENDED THE CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEE OF THE RIGHT TO STRIKE), WHEN THEY CALLED FOR A "DAY OF PROTEST" APRIL 27, AND HE ALSO ORDERED LIENS AGAINST THEIR ASSETS OF 300,000 PESOS (ABOUT $250 EACH. THE JUDGE'S ACTION IS TANTAMOUNT TO A CRIMINAL INDICTMENT. THE SIX UNION LEADERS ENCOMPASSED UNDER THIS ACTION AND WHO, UNTIL THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTION ANNOUNCED TODAY (SEE PARA 3 BELOW), WERE HELD UNDER BOTH "PEN" (I.E. THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH'S STATE-OF-SIEGE AUTHORITY) AND CRIMINAL CHARGES, ARE THE SAME LISTED IN PARA 9, REFTEL, I.E. ROBERTO GARCIA (TAXI UNION) ROBERTO DIGON (TOBACCO EMPLOYEES), RAUL RAVITTE (EX-RAILWAY UNION SECRETARY), ENRIQUE MICO (GARMENT UNION) DEMETRIO [redacted] LORENZO (FOOD WORKERS), AND JOSE LUIS CASTILLO (BOAT MECHANICS)). (NOTE: "EX"-LEADER IS A REFERENCE TO THE FACT THAT THE UNION IN QUESTION IS UNDER GOVERNMENT INTERVENTION AND THE MANDATE OF THE UNION LEADER IN QUESTION HAS BEEN OFFICIALLY TERMINATED BY THE GOVERNMENT, ALTHOUGH THE INDIVIDUAL CONTINUES TO BE ACTIVE DE FACTOR).

[redacted]

2. THE FIRST THREE, GARCIA, DIGON AND RAVITTI ARE CHARGED UNDER THE PENAL CODE (ARTICLE 6 OF LAW NO. 21,400) FOR "PUBLICLY INSTIGATING SERIOUS MEASURES OF DIRECT ACTION" (AGAINST THE STATE), WHICH IS A MORE SERIOUS CHARGE THAN THAT LODGED AGAINST THE OTHER THREE, MICO, LORENZO AND CASTILLO, TECHNICALLY LEAVING THE WAY OPEN FOR THE LATTER'S POSSIBLE RELEASE ON BAIL, BUT SO FAR AS WE KNOW THE JUDGE HAS DECLINED TO AUTHORIZE BAIL AND THEY REMAIN IN JAIL. BAIL IS NOT AVAILAO THE FIRST THREE UNDER THE PENAL CODE.

3. (U) THE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED MAY 3 THAT THE ABOVE NAMED SIX TRADE UNION LEADERS PLUS ANOTHER SIX LEADERS OF THE COMMITTEE OF 25 UNDER DETENTION WERE REMOVED FROM "PEN" ON THE EVENING OF MAY 2. THE SECOND SIX ARE SAUL UBALDINI (BEER WORKERS), JOSE MONTANI (PRIVATE PETROLEUM WORKERS), JUAN CARLOS CRESPI (A STATE PETROLEUM DE FACTOR REPRESENTATIVE IN THE 25-GROUP), GERONIMO IZZETTA (PROVINCIAL MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES), ANTONIO MARCHESE (SHOE WORKERS), AND JOSE RODRIGUEZ ("EX"-SMATA AUTO WORKERS HEAD). THESE SIX LEADERS REMAIN UNDER JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION, PENDING A DETERMINATION WHETHER OR NOT THEY ARE INDICTABLE. ALL OF THEM, WE BELIEVE, REMAIN IN JAIL WITH THE EXCEPTION OF MUNICIPAL UNION LEADER IZZETTA, WHO IS IN ILL HEALTH AND WAS ORDERED TRANSFERRED TO A PRIVATE CLINIC, WHERE HE CONTINUES UNDER POLICE GUARD AND AT THE DISPOSITION OF THE INVESTIGATING JUDGE, BUT PRESUMABLY HAVING BEEN REMOVED FROM PEN, THE WAY IS OPEN FOR THEM TO TETURN TO THEIR HOMES, PENDING THE JUDGE'S DETERMINATION.

4. (U) THE ATTORNEY FOR THE SIX UNION LEADERS LISTED IN PARA 1 HAS APPEALED ON THEIR BEHALF TO AN APPELLATE COURT TO OVERTURN THE PREVENTIVE DETENTION ORDER.

5. (U) ON MAY 2 EX-TRUCKING UNION LEADER AND 25-GROUP MEMBER RICARDO PEREZ, WHO WAS IN GERMANY DURING THE ONE-DAY STRIKE, RESPONDED TO A JUDICIAL CITATION AND APPEARED BEFORE JUDGE GILETTA.
[redacted]

6. [redacted] THERE ARE NO FURTHER REPORTS IN THE PRESS CONCERNING THE STATUS OF THE ARRESTED SMATA AUTO UNION ACTIVISTS REPORTED REFTEL. THE JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION IN CORDOBA, WHERE ANOTHER ARREST WAS REPORTED YESTERDAY, IS CONTINUING. THERE ARE RUMORS THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF LEGAL ARRESTS HAVE BEEN MADE OF PLANT LEVEL ACTIVISTS PRESUMABLY INVOLVED IN LAST WEEK'S STRIKE, BUT WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO CONFIRM THIS.

7. (U) THE PRESS ALSO REPORTS THAT THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES IN CHARGE OF THE INTERVENED NATIONAL LABOR CENTRAL (CGT HAVE SENT QUESTIONNAIRES TO A NUMBER OF UNIONS INQUIRING ABOUT THE NORMAL EXPIRY DATE OF UNION LEADERS' TERMS OF OFFICE ANDIR POSSIBLE DEGREE O F RESPONSIBILITY IN THE APRIL 27 STRIKE, WHICH IS PROMPTING SPECULATION THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS PREPARING TO INTERVENE MORE NATIONAL UNIONS OR PERHAPS TO DENY RENEWAL OF TRADE UNION MANDATES (WHEN THEIR DATES FALL DUE) OF 25-GROUP LEADERS INVOLVED IN THE STRIKE CALL.

8. (U) IN A BRIEF, INNOCUOUS MAY DAY ADDRESS, THE LABOR MINISTER, GENERAL RESTON, STATED THAT A PROCESS OF GRADUAL NORMALIZATION OF TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES ALREADY UNDERWAY WOULD CONTINUE AND THAT THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT, "STRENGTHENED (BUT) ADJUSTED TO SPECIFIC (LEGITIMATE) ENDS, WOULD NOT BE REMOVED FROM THE NATIONAL SCENE." HE MADE NO REFERENCE WHATSOEVER TO THE PROPOSED TRADE UNION REFORM BILL, OR WHEN IT WOULD BE PROMULGATED.

9. [redacted] IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THE THREE LEADERS BEING HELD UNDER ARTICLE 6 OF LAW NO. 21,4000, GARCIA, DIGON AND RAVITTI, ORIGINALLY CAME FROM THE PERONIST/CATHOLIC LEFT SECTOR OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT ASSOCIATED WITH THE MAVERICK RAYMUNDO ONGARO WING OF THE "CGT" AND ALL RE NOW IN THE SO-CALLED [redacted]

"MOVIMIENTO SINDICAL PERONISTA" (MSP), WHICH GROUPS TOGETHER SO-CALLED "VERTICALIST" AND "COMBATIVE" PERONIST UNION FACTIONS. GARCIA IS VICE PRESIDENT OF THE ICFTU. DIGON, AS MOST OF THE "COMBATIVES", IS CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH CLAT.

10. [redacted] COMMENT: THE GOVERNMENT'S ACTION REMOVING THE DETAINEES FROM PEN PRESUMABLY IS A MOVE TO REINFORCE THE IDEA THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS ON UNIMPEACHABLE LEGAL GROUNDS, PROCEEDING AGAINST THE STRIKE ORGANIZERS IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARGENTINE LAW AND JUDICIAL PRACTICE. THIS ACTION TAKES PLACE SHORTLY AFTER THE GOA PROTESTED A STATE DEPARTMENT EXPRESSION OF CONCERN OVER THE PEN DETENTIONS, WHICH THE GOA FORMALLY PROTESTED AS AN UNDUE INTROMISSION IN INTERNAL ARGENTINE AFFAIRS (SEPTEL); AND ON THE EVE OF THE ICFTU EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING WHICH REPORTEDLY WILL CONSIDER THE TINE LABOR SITUATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE UPCOMING ILO AGENDA. END COMMENT.

WITH A JOINT CABLE ASKING LABOR AND HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS TO URGE THE GOC TO DESIST. FOR ITS PART, THE GOC HAS ANNOUNCED THAT FEW OF THOS DETAINED ARE WORKERS, MOST ARE STUDENTS, THUS MAY DAY DEMONSTRATIONS WERE PART OF A POLITICAL CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT. THE GOC OBVIOUSLY WANTS TO DEMONSTRATE THAT IT WILL BROOK NO PUBLIC DISORDER. IT LOST A ROUND LAST MONTH

U) OF THE 365 PEOPLE POLICE ARRESTED A T VARIOUS POINTS IN DOWNTOWN SANTIAGO DURING ANTI-GOVERNMENT DEMONSTRATIO S MAY 1, 19 HAVE BEEN FORMALLY CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING POLICE OFFICERS. 258 OTHERS REMAIN IN JAIL WHILE A CIVILIAN JUDGE DECIDES ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS THE MERITS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CHARGE THAT THEY ENDANGERED NATIONAL SECURITY BY "PROVOKING DISORDERS OR OTHER VIOLENT ACTS DESIGNED TO ALTER PUBLIC TRANQUILITY" AND FOR BY "DISPARAGING PUBLICLY THE FLAG, CREST OR NAME OF THE FATHERLAND, DEFAMING OR SLANDERING THE PRESIDENT, MINISTERS OF STATE, SENATORS, CONGRESSMEN OR JUDGES." IN THIS CASE, HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS TELL US THAT THE PRESIDENT SIGNED OFF ON THE WARRANTS BY MAY 2, THUS PERMITTED DETENTION WITHOUT CHARGE FOR UP TO FIVE DAYS. THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR THEN PREPARED THE FORMAL CHARGE AND PRESENTED IT TO THE CIVILIAN COURTS ON MAY 3 OR 4. THE JUDGE BEGAN EARLY

MAY 4 TO SCREEN THE DETAINEES PRIOR TO LEGAL ARRAIGNMENT. CONVICTION WOULD RESULT IN JAIL SENTENCES OF FROM 541 DAYS TO FIVE YEARS. THE 19 NOW FORMALLY ACCUSED OF ASSAULTING POLICE OFFICERS ARE BEFORE MILITARY COURTS.

7. C) COMMENT: WHEN 62 WOMEN WERE ARRESTED LAST MONTH IN A TOTALLY PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION PROTESTING GOC HANDLING OF THE DISAPPEARANCE ISSUE, THE GOC GOT EGG ON ITS FACE WHEN THE CIVILIAN COURTS THREW OUT UNCEREMONIOUSLY ITS CHARGE THEY WERE TRYING TO OVERTHROW THE REGIME. THIS TIME THE GOC AUTHORITIES SEEM TO BE ON FIRMER LEGAL TURF EVEN THOUGH THEY ARE "THROWING THE BOOK" AT PARTICIPANTS IN WHAT WAS A DISRUPTIVE, BUT HARDLY VIOLENT, SERIES OF "LIGHTNING" PROTESTS. NO QUESTION, HOWEVER, THAT SOME OF THE DEMONSTRATORS BAITED POLICE AND SOUGHT TO PROVOKE A REACTION.

8. C) IN PART, THE GOC IS USING THIS CASE TO DETER FUTURE DEMONSTRATIONS. FEW MODERATE CRITICS OF THE REGIME ARE EAGER TO SPEND DAYS UNDER DETENTION AND UNDERGO THE UNKNOWN RISKS OF HAVING A POLICE RECORD--LET ALONE THE RISK OF SPENDING YEARS C[redacted]

[redacted]

IN JAIL. BUT WHETHER THEIS PROCEDURE WILL DISCOURAGE OR EMBITTER MORE ACTIVE CRITICS REMAINS TO BE SEEN. IN PRESS PHOTOS OF THE PRISONERS AND THE HUNDREDS OF RELATIVES WAITING NEAR COURTS AND POLICE STATIONS, THE PARTICIPANTS APPEAR ANYTHING BUT COWED.

9. C) PERHAPS MORE IMPORTANTLY, THE GOC IS NOW CLEARLY LAUNCHED ON A CAMPAIGN TO SHOW THE PEOPLE THAT THE SPECTOR OF THE ALLENDE PERIOD STILL HAUNTS THE COJNTRY. THIS CONCLUSION ALSO EMERGES FROM THE WAY THE GOVERNMENT IS PLAYING VARIOUS BOMBINGS AND BUSTS OF "EXTREMISTS", THE GREAT FANFARE WITH WHICH IT PROMULGATED ITS NEW ANTI-TERRORIST LAW, AND A STEPPED UP CADENCE ON THE FAMILIAR REFRAIN OF BLAMING THE POLITICANS FOR CHILE'S RUIN. AS USAALLY THE CASE WHEN A REPRESSIVE REGIME TIGHENS THE SCREWS, THE MODERATE CENTER LOSES MORE THAN THE OPPOSITE EXTREME; POLARIZATION INCREASES. FOR A GOVERNMENT NOTT EAGER TO STEP DOWN, THAT RESULT IS PROBABLY A NOT UNUSEFUL BIPRODUCT. LANDAU

Dear Sir:

I can't urge you more strongly to continue gathering intelligence in Chile about the hendreds of missing people. The group of researchers and fact finding ad hoc working groups should not be disbanded. The number of people alone killed these last few years is well worth the trouble of this group to find more information and continue their efforts of tracing; yet there are many more persecuted, as I understand it, every day.

World morality was shocked at Hitlers extermination camps, but what about the third-world and South American countries/?? As each year goes by now, another country commits similar horrors in the name of politics and because it has been tolerated, the many governments of the world and Carter too, leave them gain their world economic power holds just because there are some nationalistic consessions and other interests there that over look this real humanistic degradation in this age, worst than Himmler or Hitler ever imagined.

I demand that the group working on Chile for the U.N. be continued until all reported missing persons are accounted for. Thankyou.

Isincerly appreciate what you have done to help the persecuted people around the world and the great hope you have inspired in people who have met and suffered under these rip-off goverments who point and controll with pistols. Again thankyou. I remain yours,

Very sincerly,

SUBJECT: FORTY MAY DAY DEMONSTRATORS ARRAIGNED FOR INTERNAL SECURITY OFFENSES

REF: SANTIAGO 3087

1. ACCORDING TO RADIO REPORTS, A CHILEAN JUDGE HAS DECIDED TO CHARGE SOME FORTY DEMONSTRATORS DETAINED MAY 1 WITH INTERNAL SECURITY OFFENSES, CARRYING SENTENCES OF BETWEEN 541 DAYS AND 5 YEARS IF CONVICTED. AFTER HEARING TESTIMONY FROM ARRESTING POLICE OFFICERS AND INTERVIEWING THE DETAINEES, THE JUDGE RELEASED WITHOUT CHARGE ANOTHER TWO HUNDRED TWENTY PEOPLE. ANOTHER DOZEN ARE BEING HELD BEFORE MILITARY COURTS FOR THE LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

MORE SERIOUS OFFENSE OF MISTREATING POLICE OFFICERS; THE MILITARY JUDGE DROPPED CHARGES AGAINST FIVE OTHERS.

2. THE JUDGE MADE HIS DECISION LATE MAY 8; WE STILL DO NOT HAVE THE NAMES OF THOSE WHO WERE ARRAIGNED, BUT THEY INCLUDE BOTH MEN AND WOMEN. IT IS LIKELY THAT MOST WILL POST BOND AND BE LET OUT OF JAIL.

UNCLASSIFIED

3. MEANWHILE A GROUP OF RELATIVES OF THE DETAINEES WERE JOINED BY A PRIEST IN A HUNGER STRIKE AT A PARISH CHURCH ON MAY 6. AS FAR AS WE CAN DETERMINE, THEIR FAST CONTINUES.

4. COMMENT: WE HAD SPECULATED WHEN THE STATE OF SIEGE ENDED IN MARCH, 1978, THAT THE MAXIMUM LEGAL PERIOD OF DETENTION WITHOUT CHARGEWOULD BE TEN DAYS UNDER THE CONTINUING STATE OF EMERGENCY. THE MAY DAY DETENTIONS GIVE US THE FIRST SOLID EVIDENCE THAT SUCH IS THE CASE. PEOPLE DETAINED ON MAY 1 WERE HELD UNDER EXECUTIVE DETENTION FOR THREE OF THE ALLOWED FIVE DAYS BEFORE BEING PUT BEFORE THE JUDGE. HE TOOK HIS MAXIMUM FIVE DAY PERIOD TO ARRAIGN OR RELEASE THE BULK OF THE PRISONERS (HE HAD RELEASED SMALL BATCHES SATURDAY (REFTEL), SUNDAY, YESTERDAY, AND THIS MORNING).

5. A GENERAL RULE OF THUMB HAS BEEN THAT PERSONS PERMITTED TO POST BOND RARELY END UP SERVING SENTENCES, THUS IT IS UNLIKELY THAT ANY OF THE FORTY WHO ARE GRANTED BAIL WILL END UP IN JAIL. OF COURSE THEY WILL LIVE UNDER A CLOUD UNTIL THEIR CASES ARE FINALLY RESOLVED.

DISAPPEARED TO OBTAIN INFORMATION AS TO WHEN THE PERSON DISAPPEARED AND UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES. THIS WILL ENABLE INVESTIGATORS TO LEARN THE ZONE OF OPERATION OF A DISAPPEARANCE AND THEN CHECK WITH ZONE COMMANDERS. IN LOCATIONS WHERE INVESTIGATORS WERE ABLE TO DISCOVER RECORDS OF INTERROGATIONS DETAILED QUESTIONS ARE BEING ASKED OF THE INTERROGATORS.

5. ACCORDING TO THE SAME ARMY INTELLIGENCE SOURCE THESE INVESTIGATIONS HAVE BEEN GOING ON FOR ABOUT THREE TO FOUR WEEKS, BUT WITH LIMITED SUCCESS SINCE IT APPEARS THAT SECURITY FORCES HAVE DESTROYED RECORDS WHICH SERVED AS EVIDENCE THAT THERE HAD BEEN CONTACT BETWEEN A DISAPPEARED PERSON AND THAT PARTICULAR BRANCH OR UNIT.

6. IN CONNECTION WITH AVAILABILITY OF LISTS, RECORD KEEPING ETC. FORMER FIRST CORPS (BUENOS AIRES AND SURROUNDING AREA) COMMANDER SUAREZ MASON RECENTLY TOLD A FOREIGN AMBASSADOR THAT HE HAD SIGNED "FIFTY TO A HUNDRED DEATH WARRANTS PER DAY" OVER A LONG PERIOD. (ASKED WHETHER THIS WAS NOT AN OVERHELMING RESPONSIBILITY SUAREZ MASON REPLIED THAT NO, IT WAS NOT, SINCE IN ALL CASES PERSONS HAD CONFESSED TO SOME ASSOCIATION WITH TERRORISM.) WHAT INTERESTS US ESPECIALLY THAT THIS POINT IS THE IMPLICATION THAT EXTENSIVE RECORDS EXIST (OR HAVE EXISTED) ACCOUNTING FOR PERHAPS SEVERAL THOUSAND DEATHS.

7. COMMENT: IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO PREDICT THE OUTCOME OF THE GOA'S EFFORTS, GIVEN THE POSSIBILITIES FOR AND INSTITUTIONAL REASONS FOR COVER-UP AT EVERY LEVEL OF OPERATION. ALTHOUGH WE CAN ACCEPT THAT MANY TERRORISTS DIED IN ARMED [redacted]

FAMILY MEMBERS TOLD EMBOFF THAT PRISON CONDITIONS APPEAR TO BE IMPROVING, AT LEAST SUPERFICIALLY, WHICH THEY CREDIT TO THE COMING OF IACHR LATER THIS YEAR. PRISONERS IN VILLA DEVOTO HAVE BEEN MOVED FROM PAVILIONS WITH 27 GIRLS TO CELLS SHARED BETWEEN FIVE PERSONS. VILLA DEVOTO IS BEING REPAINTED AND REPAIRED. THOSE DETAINEES IN CLASS NO. 2 HAVE TELEVISION AND READING PRIVILEGES AND FIVE HOURS OF RECREATION A DAY. INMATES TAKE GYMNASTICS AND ARE BEING PROVIDED WITH NEW GYM CLOTHES. A RECENT VISITOR TO RAWSON PRISON SAID THAT ALL PEN DETAINEES FROM SIERRA CHICA HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO RAWSON AND THAT THE FORMERLY VERY HARSH CONDITIONS THERE HAVE SHOWN CONSIDERABLE IMPROVEMENT. THE RAWSON INMATES ARE NOW ALLOWED COMMUNAL EATING PRIVILEGES AND SILVERWARE. THEY CAN PRACTICE SPORTS AND HAVE A TWO HOUR REST PERIOD PER DAY DURING WHICH THEY ARE ALLOWED READING MATERIALS.

EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF WEALTH.

3. (U) FOWG TO COORDINATE RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM --

AN OFFICIAL OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE WORKING GROUP ON HUMAN RIGHTS INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT ALL CONTACTS BETWEEN FOREIGN EMBASSIES AND THE GOVERNMENT OF ARGENTINA REGARDING THE RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM SHOULD IN THE FUTURE BE DIRECTED TO HIS OFFICE. HE SAID THAT A CIRCULAR NOTE ANNOUNCING TO THIS EFFECT WOULD SOON BE DISTRIBUTED TO ALL DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS.

4. [redacted] AMNESTY DISAPPEARANCE LIST --

A BRITISH VOLUNTARY AGENCY REPRESENTATIVE TOLD THE EMBASSY THAT AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL HAS PREPARED A COMPUTERIZED LIST OF MORE THAN 10,000 ARGENTINE DISAPPEARANCE CASES WHICH IT WILL PROBABLY MAKE AVAILABLE TO THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS. EMBASSY WOULD APPRECIATE RECEIVING CONFIRMATION OR LIST FROM DEPARTMENT OR EMBASSY LONDON, IF POSSIBLE.

5. (U) FIVE POLICE SENTENCED--

THE PRESS HAS REPORTED THAT FIVE OF THE SEVEN POLICEMEN TRIED

FOR ILLEGAL ARREST AND MISTREATMENT OF EIGHT YOUTHS IN MENDOZA IN 1977 HAVE BEEN SENTENCED TO TWO TO THREE YEARS' IMPRISONMENT. TWO WERE CLEARED OF CHARGES. THE COURT ALSO OREDERED TWO CONVICTED POLICEMEN AND THE GOVERNMENT OF MENDOZA TO PAY DAMAGES OF TWO MILLION PESOS (ABOUT $1,170) TO THE VICTIMS. THE POLICEMEN HAVE APPEALED THE SENTENCE.

6. (U) POLITICIANS BRIEFLY ARRESTED--
POLICE BRIEFLY ARRESTED ON MAY 5 26 POLITICIANS--NINE LEADERS OF THE POPULAR LEFTIST FRONT MEETING IN BUENOS AIRES AND 17 LEADERS OF THE INTEGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT MOVEMENT MEETING IN RESISTENCIA. THE POLITICAL LEADERS, WHOSE PARTIES IMMEDIATELY CABLES PROTESTS TO VIDELA AND THE MILITARY COMMITTEE, WERE RELEASED SHORTLY THEREAFTER. THE PRESS SPECULATED THAT THE ARRESTS SIGNALLED A TIGHTENING OF THE GOVERNMENT'S BAN AGAINST POLITICAL ACTIVITIES IN THE WAKE OF THE FAILED APRIL 27 NATIONAL STRIKE.

7. (U) NO AMNESTY FOR CAMPORA --

THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT IS NOT NOW CONSIDERING AMNESTY OR SAFE CONDUCT FOR FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA WHO IS STILL ANY ASYLEE IN THE MEXICAN EMBASSY, SAID PRESIDENT VIDELA ON MAY 4. VIDELA SAID HE CONSIDERS CAMPORA "AN IDEOLOGICAL CRIMINAL" RESPONSIBLE FOR THE 1973 AMNESTY AND MOST OF THE "BLOOD THAT HAS BEEN SHED IN ARGENTINA FOR THE PAST THREE OR FOUR YEARS."

8. (U) GENERAL MENENDEZ WARNS OF IDEOLOGICAL SUBVERSION -- ARMED SUBVERSION HAS BEEN TOTALLY ERADICATED, BUT THE SAME CANNOT BE SAID FOR IDEOLOGICAL SUBVERSION WHICH MAY STILL BE LURKING IN THE UNIVERSITIES, CLUBS, NEIGHBORHOODS, AND LABOR CIRCLES, WARNED THIRD CORPS COMMANDER MENENDEZ IN REMARKS TO THE PRESS MAY 4. MENENDEZ ADVISED ARGENTINE CITIZENS TO BE VIGILANT OF IDEOLOGUES WHO "REMAIN HIDDEN AND COULD REVIVE SUBVERSIVE DELINQUENCY IF PERMITTED TO RECRUIT NEW ADHERENTS TO THEIR ANTI-PATRIOTIC CAUSE."

9. [redacted] PEN PRISONERS IN RESISTENCIA --
DESPITE OFFICIALS' STATED PLANS TO TRANSFER ALL PEN PRISONERS FROM RESISTENCIA PRISON TO LA PLATA, THE FATHER OF ONE DETAINEE TOLD EMBOFF THAT 60 PEN PRISONERS REMAIN IN RESISTENCIA AND HAVE BEEN TURNED OVER TO MILITARY TRIBUNALS FOR TRIAL. IT IS UNCLEAR WHETHER THE PEN STATUS OF THE 60 WAS REMOVED PRIOR TO THEIR BEING REMANDED TO MILITARY COURTS. THE FATHER, WHOSE SON IS AMONG THAT GROUP, BELIEVES THAT THE PRISONERS WILL BE TRIED BY MILITARY COURTS BECAUSE THE GOVERNMENT LACKS ADMISSIBLE EVIDENCE TO CONVICT THEM IN CIVILIAN COURTS.

10. [redacted] DISAPPEARED YOUTHS ALLEGEDLY HELD --
THE MOTHER OF US INTEREST CASE JUAN MIGUEL THANHAUSER (969/78/4) INFORMED EMBASSY THAT A DETAINEE RECENTLY RELEASED FROM LA PLATA CONFIDED TO HER BY PHONE THAT HER SON WAS ALIVE AND BEING HELD "SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH," TOGETHER WITH ANOTHER US INTEREST CASE MARTINE VAZQUEZ (740/79/1). THE MOTHER WAS TOLD SHE WOULD HAVE MORE NEWS SHORTLY.

11. (U) SARAGOVI COMMUTATION CAMPAIGN --
THE MOTHER OF HORACIO SARAGOVI, A HIGH US INTEREST CASE WHO RECENTLY LOST AN APPEAL OF HIS SIX YEARS' SENTENCE, PLANS TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES IN MAY TO DRUM UP SUPPORT FOR HER SON'S CASE. THE SARAGOVIS ARE SEEKING PRESIDENTIAL COMMUTATION OF THE SENTENCE TO TIME SERVED (ALMOST THREE YEARS). SENATORS HEINZ, CONGRESSMAN GILMAN AND A CATHOLIC HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP FROM SAN FRANCISCO HAVE WRITTEN PRESIDENT VIDELA ASKING HIM TO COMMUTE THE SENTENCE.

LAW PROFESSOR FRIEND OF THE FAMILY HAD BEEN GRANTED AN APPOINTMENT WITH PRESIDENT CARTER THIS WEEK TO DISCUSS THE GIRL'S CASE. MRS. HINOJOSA SAID SHE RECENTLY PICKED UP A COPY OF LILIANA'S SENTENCE DECREE WHICH SHE SAID INCLUDED MANY INACCURACIES, INCLUDING THE ACCUSATION THAT SUBVERSIVE LITERATURE WAS FOUND IN LILIANA'S ROOM. SHE SAID THE REPORT ALSO NOTES THAT A MR. GOMEZ, THE PROVINCIAL POLICE OFFICER WHO INTERROGATED (TORTURED, ACCORDING TO THE AUNT) LILIANA IN RIO CUARTO WAS IN DETENTION, ACCUSED OF "COMMON CRIMES," NOT OFFENSES CONNECTED WITH LILIANA'S TREATMENT.

13. (U) GOA ON HUMAN RIGHTS AT UN --

ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR TO THE UN ENRIQUE ROS TOOK A SWIPE AT THE US IN RECENT REMARKS AT THE UN ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL IN NEW YORK MAY 5. ROS FIRMLY DEFENDED ARGENTINA'S TRADITIONAL POLICY IN FAVOR OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND BLAMED COLONIALIST EXPLOITATION LEADING TO RACISM AND APARTHEID AND FOOTDRAGGING ON IMPROVING AN UNFAIR INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ORDER AS REAL SOURCES OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. ROS DEFENDED ARGENTINA'S NEED TO "IMPLEMENT EFFECTIVE MEASURES TO OVERCOME A LEGAL CRISIS AND REINSTATE ORDER" AND CRITICIZED THOSE "WHO PRETEND TO JUDGE OTHER COUNTRIES' AFFAIRS WITHOUT TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE SOURCE OF GENERALIZED VIOLENCE."

14. (U) MOTION TO REPEAL US ARMS BAN DEFEATED IN SENATE COMMITTEE--
THE LOCAL PRESS REPORTED MAY 9 THAT AN INITIATIVE OF SENATOR HAYAKAWA OF CALIFORNIA TO REPEAL THE CURRENT LEGISLATION BANNING FMS AND COMMERCIAL MILITARY SALES TO ARGENTINA AND CHILE FAILED TO WIN APPROVAL IN THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. THE PRESS QUOTED HAYAKAWA AS ARGUING THAT THE STATUTORY RESTRICTIONS ARE "INFLEXIBLE AND COUNTERPRODUCTIVE." THE REPORTS ALSO QUOTED A CARTER SPOKESMAN THAT NEITHER CHILE NOR ARGENTINA HAD REGISTERED SATISFACTORY IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN RIGHTS TO JUSTIFY REPEAL OF THE LESISLATION AND SENATOR SARBANES' ARGUMENT THAT REPEAL WOULD "SIGNAL TO THE VIOLATORS THAT IF [redacted]

A FEDERAL APPEALS COURT HAS CLEARED OF ALL CHARGES AND RESTORED THE "GOOD NAME AND HONOR" OF FOUR FORMER HIGH-RANKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ACCUSED OF WRONG-DOING IN CONNECTION WITH THE ALUAR ALUMINUM COMPANY SCANDAL. THE DECISION UPHOLDS THE VERDICT REACHED LAST YEAR BY A CRIMINAL COURT EXONERATING FORMER PRESIDENT ALEJANDRO LANUSSE, FORMER NAVY CINC PEDRO GNAVI, FORMER AIR FORCE CINC CARLOS REY, AND FORMER DEFENSE MINISTER RAFAEL CACERES MONIE.

16. (U) ENRIQUE ARDISSONE IN LA NACION OF 5/10/79 HAS A WELL-WRITTEN, BALANCED STORY COVERING THE DEBATE ON HUMAN RIGHTS DURING THE ARGENTINE-US SEMINAR SPONSORED BY GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY. ARDISSONE GIVES EACH INTERLOCUTOR HIS DUE.

E.O. 12065: GDS 5/8/85 (THAYER, YVONNE) OR-P
TAGS: SHUM, MNUC, AR
SUBJECT: (U) ARGENTINA AIRS COMPLAINTS OF US INTERFERENCE

REF: A) BUENOS AIRES 3451, B) BUENOS AIRES 2225

[redacted] SUMMARY: FROM ITS FORMER RELATIVELY PASSIVE PUBLIC REACTIONS TO USG INITIATIVES, THE REGIME HERE HAS OF LATE BEGUN TO ANSWER BACK, WITH CONSIDERABLE SUPPORT OF THE PRESS, EVEN THOSE PAPERS USUALLY PRO-US AND DEMOCRATICALLY-INCLINED. AMONG THE LIST OF GRIEVANCES WHICH HAVE ELICITED FIRM PUBLIC ARGENTINE RESPONSES AND REBUTTALS ARE: US STATEMENTS DEPLORING THE DETENTION OF ARGENTINE TRADE UNION LEADERS, US CRITICISM OF THE DELAYS IN THE RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM, AND US STATEMENTS REGARDING ARGENTINA'S NUCLEAR PROGRAM. PRIVATELY HEARD ARE COMPLAINT OF AMBASSADOR CASTRO'S ALLEGED PREDICTION OF LABOR TROUBLES IN HIS SPEECH IN NEW YORK LAST MONTH. THESE MAY BE ONLY SQUALLS, BUT THE CHANGE IN THE WEATHER IS WORTH NOTING. END SUMMARY.

1. (U) OFFICIAL PUBLIC ARGENTINE RESPONSE TO US POLICY INITIATIVES, PARTICULARLY ON HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, HAS ON THE WHOLE BEEN MUTED AND RESIGNED. OF LATE HOWEVER, THE GOVERNMENT HAS INCREASINGLY REFUSED TO TURN THE OTHER CHEEK. ON MAY 2, THE FOREIGN MINISTRY PROTESTED TO THE CHARGE US STATEMENTS DEPLORING THE RECENT ARREST OF ARGENTINE STRIKE LEADERS AND THEN WIDELY PUBLICIZED THE PROTEST. EVEN PRIOR TO THE OFFICIAL PROTEST, THE PRESS BITTERLY DENOUNCED "UNINFORMED US ARROGANCE" AND "SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS" IN DEFENDING THE JAILED UNION LEADERS. THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD ON MAY 3 SOUNDLY REPUDIATED THE AFL-CIO'S "BLATANT THREATS" OF A BOYCOTT AS WRONGLY DEFENDING "PATENTLY UNDEMOCRATIC AND FASCIST UNION LEADERS" AND THE POWER AND PRIVILEGE OF A HUGE AND REACTIONARY VESTED INTEREST". ON MAY 6 THE HERALD RETURNED TO THE THEME CLAIMING THAT "BY MAKING SUCH STATEMENTS THE US UNDERMINES ITS OWN CAMPAIGN ON BEHALF OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF ARGENTINES, BECAUSE, IF ANYTHING, IT IS THE RIGHT OF GOVERNMENTS TO ARREST THOSE SEEKING TO DISRUPT PUBLIC ORDER THAT IS RECOGNIZED, AND NOT THE REVERSE.... BY COMING OUT SO QUICKLY AND SO INDISCRIMINATELY ON THE SIDE OF A NAKEDLY ANTI-DEMOCRATIC GROUP IN A CONFLICT WITH A GOVERNMENT THAT, FOR ITS FAULTS, HAS DEMOCRACY AS ALONG-TERM OBJECTIVE, THE US REDUCED ITS MORAL AUTHORITY IN PRESSING FOR THE RELEASE OF THE MANY PEOPLE BEING HELD IN PRISON OR UNDER HOUSE ARREST WITHOUT ANY CONVINCING CAUSE." CONVICCION ALSO DEPLORED THE US STATEMENT AS "ANOTHER SIGN OF ARROGANCE FROM THE WHITE HOUSE," ARGUING THAT THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT HAD NOTED WITH THE LAW IS EXPECTING THE LIFE OF LEADERS. LA NACION BRANDED THE US ACTION IMPERTINENT, MISTAKEN AND SPITEFUL, LEADING TO THE CONCLUSION THAT "WASHINGTON HAS MOVED FAR AWAY FROM HARMONIOUS BILATERAL RELATIONS."

2. (U) THE PRESS WIDELY NOTED THAT ON MAY 1 THE ARGENTINE EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON PUBLICLY REBUTTED THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S APRIL 24 CHARGE THAT THE RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM WAS NOT WORKING. THE EMBASSY PLACED THE BLAME FOR DELAYS IN PROCESSING RIGHT OF OPTION CASES ON BUREAUCRATIC SNAGS RESULTING FROM US LEGISLATION. THE STATEMENT DECLARED THAT OF 141 PRISONERS PERMITTED VISITS FROM US CONSULAR OFFICIALS, 40 HAVE BEGUN MAKING ARRANGEMENTS FOR THEIR TRAVEL IN ACCORDANCE WITH ESTABLISHED PROCEDURES AND TWO HAVE ALREADY TRAVELED; WHILE 213 PEN DETAINEES HAD ALREADY TRAVELED ELSEWHERE ABROAD UP TO DECEMBER 1978.

3. (U) IN THE NUCLEAR FIELD, THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN US AND ARGENTINE POSITIONS ARE MORE FREQUENTLY AIRED. ARGENTINE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION PRESIDENT CASTRO MADERO RARELY LETS A WEEK GO BY NOW WITHOUT REITERATING HIS COUNTRY'S INTENTION TO OBTAIN AN INDEPENDENT FUEL CYCLE CAPABILITY, AS WELL AS ITS OPPOSITION TO THE NPT AS DISCRIMINATORY. IN MARCH, CASTRO MADERO AND THE PRESS EXPRESSED CHAGRIN AND OUTRAGE AT US STATEMENTS AND PERCEIVED EFFORTS TO HINDER ARGENTINA'S ACQUISITION OF ADVANCED REACTOR AND HEAVY WATER TECHNOLOGY FROM THIRD COUNTRIES. MORE RECENTLY ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR AJA ESPIL IN WASHINGTON ECHOED THE COMPLAINT, WHICH WAS CITED HERE BY THE PRESS. (COMMENT: SUBSEQUENTLY CASTRO MADERO HAS MODERATED SOMEWHAT HIS OWN REFERENCES TO THE US, ADMITTING THAT US POLICY DOES NOT OPPOSE THE SALE OF NUCLEAR REACTORS TO ARGENTINA AS LONG AS THEY ARE UNDER ADEQUATE SAFEGUARDS.)

4. [redacted] AMONG ANGRY RUMBLINGS AGAINST US INTERFERENCE IN ARGENTINE INTERNAL AFFAIRS IS HEARD CRITICISM OF AMBASSADOR CASTRO'S REMARKS IN NEW YORK IN LATE APRIL ANTICIPATING LABOR TROUBLE IN ARGENTINA. ALTHOUGH THE PRESS QUOTED AJA ESPIL'S CONGRATULATORY REPLY TO CASTRO ON HIS CLEAR EXPOSITION OF THE ECONOMIC SITUATION, THERE ARE INDICATIONS GOA AND GOVERNMENT SUPPORTERS WERE UPSET WITH THE LABOR TROUBLE COMMENTS IN HIS TALK.

5. [redacted] COMMENT: GOA'S OFFICIAL REBUKES ONLY BRING TO THE SURFACE LONG FELT RESENTMENT AT US PUBLIC CRITICISM OF ARGENTINA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS. SUPPORT OF GOA BY LIBERAL PRESS ALSO POINTS UP LOCAL SENSITIVITIES TOWARD US "MEDDLING" EVEN AMONG THOSE WHO STRONGLY SUPPORT OUR HUMAN RIGHTS STANCE. WE CANNOT SPEAK OF A "CHANGE OF CLIMATE" HERE BUT WE SHOULD NOTE THE STORM WARNINGS. END COMMENT.

UNREVIEWED DRAFT TRANSLATION

Letter R

DOS

Santiago, May thirteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-nine

WHEREAS :

The Government of the United States has formally petitioned the Government of Chile for the extradition of Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo and Armando Fernández Larios in Memorandum No. 60 dated September 20, 1978 from the United States Embassy, signed by U.S. Ambassador Mr. George W. Landau and brought to the attention of the Supreme Court in the form of a restricted official letter from the Legal Department of the Foreign Affairs Ministry bearing Number 22 and dated September 21, 1978.

According to the petition, the aforementioned individuals have been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury of the District of Columbia as perpetrators of the following crimes:

"1. Conspiracy to assassinate a foreign official, namely Orlando Letelier, punishable under Title 18, Section 1117 of the United States Code;

2. Murder of the foreign official, Orlando Letelier, on September 21, 1976, punishable under Title 18, Sections 1111 and 1116 of the United States Code;

3. First degree murder against the person of Orlando Letelier on September 21, 1976, punishable under Title 22, Section 2401 of the District of Columbia Code;

4. First degree murder against the person of Ronni Moffit on September 21, 1976, punishable under Title 22, Section 2401 of the District of Columbia Code;

5. Damages and injuries caused by explosives in a 1975 Chevrolet Malibu Classic used in interstate traffic and carrying Orlando Letelier, Ronni Moffit and Michael Moffit from the State of Maryland to the District of Columbia on September 21, 1976, causing the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit, punishable under Title 18, Section 844(i) of the United States Code."

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The petitioning Government requests that its petition be duly processed and that extradition be eventually granted, as requested, basing its plea on the provisions of the 1902 Extradition Treaty between the United States and Chile and ~~still precepts~~ currently in effect.

The aforementioned petition is accompanied by supporting facts presented in English and duly translated, as well as by various exhibits, a copy of all pertinent laws, miscellaneous statements, photographs, documents and copies of the warrants of arrest issued by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

According to the information presented, the defendants "unlawfully and deliberately conspired to assassinate Orlando Letelier, a foreign official, in full knowledge of the facts, in violation of Title 18, Section 1116 of the United States Code."

The purpose of the conspiracy was allegedly that of the assassination of Orlando Letelier.

According to the requisition, the facts were allegedly as follows: One of the defendants, former Colonel Manuel Contreras, acting in his capacity as Director of the National Intelligence Agency (DINA) ordered the assassination of Orlando Letelier, proceeding to issue pertinent instructions to his subordinate Major Pedro Espinoza Bravo, DINA Operations Director, who, in turn, passed these same orders on to Army Lieutenant Armando Fernández Larios and Michael Vernon Townley. The mission was allegedly carried out using DINA resources and funds, forging passports and arranging the various details in collaboration with other intelligence agencies.

Lieutenant Fernández allegedly traveled to the United States in pursuance of his mission in order to study all of Orlando Letelier's movements, habits and routines to subsequently turn this information over to Michael Townley.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Once in possession of the information, Townley then allegedly collaborated with a group of Cuban exiles in planning the assassination.

On or around September 19, 1976, Townley allegedly personally planted a bomb in Letelier's automobile, a fact he communicated to his wife, Mariana Callejas who was to pass the information on to DINA by phone.

The bomb was detonated two days later, resulting in the aforementioned consequences.

The explosion occured somewhere around the 2300 block of Massachusetts Avenue, N.W. more or less half-way around Sheridan Circle in the city of Washington. The vehicle was carrying Orlando Letelier, Ronni Moffit and her husband Michael Moffit, whose statement appears on page 51 of the Translation File.

According to the Spanish version of his statement appearing on page 123 of the respective translation file, Michael Vernon Townley Welch declares, in brief, that sometime either late in June or early in July of that year Lieutenant Fernández Larios had requested his presence at a meeting with Colonel or at that time Major Pedro Espinoza which was to be strictly confidential. During the course of such meeting the latter asked him whether he would accept a special assignment outside of Chile -- an assignment which he accepted on certain conditions.

In the course of a second meeting held a few days later the Major informed him that "the DINA mission in which I was to take part was the assassination of Orlando Letelier." They were to use falsified Paraguayan passports and the death was to appear accidental. However, the mission was to be accomplished at all costs, even, if necessary, through the use of a bomb.

Colonel Espinoza also informed him that the mission to assassinate Letelier was to be a joint endeavor to be carried out by himself and Lieutenant Fernández.

As part of the mission, he accompanied Fernández to Paraguay where they were to obtain the forged passports which were to be used in the assignment. He adopted the alias of Juan Williams Rose and Lieutenant Fernández went under the alias of Alejandro Romeral Jara.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

A little while later, Colonel Espinoza informed him that Fernández was conducting "pre-operative" intelligence operations in the United States, that the Letelier mission was still on and that he was to follow him to the States to "make contact" with a group of Cuban exiles who were to eliminate Letelier.

He traveled to the United States under the alias of Hans Petersen Silva where he was met at Kennedy International Airport by Fernández who was waiting for him accompanied by a woman and by his sister Rosemarie. The former had accompanied him as his "cover" on his assignment for the DINA to gather information on the movements and lifestyle of Letelier.

Upon his arrival in Washington, he proceeded to work with the Cuban Virgilio Paz in verifying the information supplied by Fernández and to purchase the materials required to prepare the bomb and plant it in Letelier's automobile. When the bomb was ready, Townley personally planted it on the outer crosspiece of the automobile chassis under the driver's seat, securing it with adhesive tape purchased at an earlier date. All this took place on September 19, 1976.

On the twenty-first, we were informed by Ignacio Novo that "something had happened in Washington."

He returned to Santiago on September 23rd and reported to Colonel or, at that time, Major Pedro Espinoza Bravo, describing what he had done.

In his statement appearing on page 52 of the translation file, Michael Moffit, who was a passenger in Orlando Letelier's automobile at the time of the explosion, says that while the vehicle driven by Letelier was traveling along Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., just as it entered Sheridan Circle, out of the corner of his right eye he suddenly saw a flash of light which seemed to come from directly behind Ronni, who was seated to his right. I also heard a buzzing sound which lasted less than a second. It was loud enough for me to hear it and sounded like water falling on a burning hot wire." "It seemed barely a fraction of a second after the flash when the car broke out in flames."

UNCLASSIFIED

The statement, in Spanish, appearing on page 174 of the same file was made by FBI special agent Stuart E. Case who offered a detailled description of the components and method used in preparing the bomb, in planting it and in activating it for detonation.

Page 187 contains the Spanish translation of the statement made by María Inés Callejas de Townley who, briefly, states that she is Michael Townley's wife, she knows of the agreement entered into between her husband and the United States Government and from which she was read pertinent excerpts, that her husband himself told her that he had accepted the assignment of assassinating Orlando Letelier and that these orders were given to him by Colonel Espinoza and that, furthermore, her husband called her six or seven times from the United States to give her messages to be passed on to DINA which she did by telephoning someone named Cristoph Willike.

Page 87 contains the translation of the autopsy report on Orlando Letelier which gives the cause of death as loss of blood, traumatic amputation of the lower extremities, injuries caused by an explosion, circumstances: homicide.

The translated version of the autopsy report on Ronni Moffit, female, 25 years of age, appearing on page 105, gives the cause of death as "inhalation of blood, laceration of the larynx and right carotid artery, injuries suffered as the result of an explosion."

The file of documents is accompanied by several photographs of the scene of the crime, of the damaged automobile, the bodies of the deceased and of various documents allegedly used in pursuing the mission, as well as by a file showing several sequences on an explosion in a car similar to that being driven by the victim in the case at hand.

Volume One, page 8, verso, of the records of the proceedings instituted in Chile contains an order to proceed with the investigation referred to in Articles 647 and 649 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the indictment drawn up and the order to hold the defendants under arrest.

Pages 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 57 and 58 contain the minutes written up in the different locations at which the Court convened to conduct the various proceedings and to examine the evidence.

Volume I, pages 59 and 68 contains the testimony offered by ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS, born in Washington, D.C., 29 years of age, single, Captain in the Army, assigned to the Infantry, residing at José Domingo Cañas 2937 in his appearance before the Court who, upon being duly sworn in, states that he is aware of the reason for his arrest; that he denies all charges preferred against him and derived from the statement made by Michael Townley and denies having been instructed either by Colonel Contreras or by Commander Espinoza to assassinate Orlando Letelier; admits that he accompanied Townley to Paraguay and obtained two forged passports to be used to travel to Washington under orders from Colonel Contreras and Commander Espinoza who supplied the details on the assignment which consisted of contacting United States Army General Vernon Walters, head of the United States Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to obtain information on certain high-ranking American politicians who were willing to support Chile and wanted to know exactly what the country's situation was; explains that he never actually made the trip and that sometime in August of 1976 he was sent to the United States "in reward for his services" simply as "back-up" for a woman who was to perform an assignment in that country. The name of the woman, as it appeared in the passport, was Liliana Walker Martínez. During his stay in the United States, he stayed mostly with his sister, both in Virginia and in New York. He ends his testimony by stating that his father's serious illness forced him to return to Chile and reaffirming that his stay in Washington and in the United States from late August to September 9, 1976 was for no other purpose than those mentioned in his statement and that he attributes Michael Townley's attitude whereby he accuses him of having taken part in the crime to a measure of convenience in an attempt to lighten the penalty or penalties which could allegedly be inflicted on him for the commission of crimes which he has personally confessed to.

Page 72 verso contains the testimony presented before the Court by PEDRO OCTAVIO ESPINOZA BRAVO, born in Santiago, 46 years of age, married, literate, Colonel in the Army attached to the Infantry, residing at O'Higgins 559 in Punta Arenas, in which he states that he knows the reason for his being arrested and after being advised by the Court of the charges preferred against him declares that the accusations are all untrue and denies any guilt whatsoever in connection with the criminal acts culminating in the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit.

He explains that the fact is that sometime late in June 1976 Colonel Contreras who was, at that time, head of DINA, informed him that he was to send two officers on an assignment to the United States where they were to contact General Vernon Walters. He thought of Townley, who he knew only as Andrés Wilson, because of his good command of English and suggested that he accompany Lieutenant Fernández on the mission. Actually, they only got as far as Paraguay where they obtained falsified passports as circumstances prevented them from making contact with Walters.

He also recalls that sometime in mid-August, acting under orders from Colonel Contreras, he sent Lieutenant Fernández to New York as "back-up" for another agent who was to investigate the actions of certain employees of Corfo-Codelco who were causing operational problems at the company's New York office. Lieutenant Fernández was chosen for this assignment as a type of reward for his services to DINA. He adds that he had no say in the selection of Liliana Walker for such mission. Therefore, all the statements made by Michael Townley and his wife Mariana Callejas with respect to Mr. Fernández's alleged mission in the United States are "lies."

Page 80 contains the testimony offered by JUAN MANUEL GUILLERMO CONTRERAS SEPULVEDA, born in Santiago, 49 years of age, married, literate, Retired Army General attached to the Corps of Engineers, residing at Príncipe de Gales 7045 in his appearance before the Court who, after being duly sworn in, states that he knows the reason for his being held under arrest at the Military Hospital. He states that the allegation to the effect that the Agency under his command -- DINA -- was involved in the planning, design or any other aspect of the assassination or death of Mr. Letelier was totally untrue.

He, likewise, denies any and all direct and indirect accusations against him personally made by Townley in his statemements to the authorities.

He says that he knew that one of DINA's outside agents or "collaborators" was a person who went by the name of Andrés Wilson and who supplied electronic equipment for intelligence operations and who was recently identified as Townley.

As to Fernández and Townley's trip to Paraguay from where they were to continue on to the United States, he states that their purpose was to make contact with General Vernon Walters, head of the CIA, who was to provide them with information on certain American politicians who wanted or who might be willing to help Chile -- a mission which was subsequently cancelled.

He maintains that both Colonel Guanes and the United States Ambassador to Paraguay knew the real identities of Fernández and Townley when they arrived in the country and applied for the passports.

As to Captain or, rather, former Lieutenant Fernández's trip to the United States late in August of 1976, it was decided to use him merely as "back-up" for a mission to be performed by another female agent in the New York offices of Corfo-Codelco as a type of reward for his many years of efficient service to DINA. He, moreover, denies that Captain Fernández Larios was given any assignment other than that mentioned above while on this trip.

Page 95 contains the testimony offered by Army Captain Cristoph Georg Paul Willeke Floel who, after being duly sworn in, stated that he never received nor was he aware of any telephone call from Mariana Callejas on any matter or mission whatsoever contrary to the remarks made in her statement. As for Townley, he knew him only as a mechanic by the name of "Mike" who was working in an automotive repair shop. Some time later he saw him at DINA headquarters where he was known as Andrés Wilson. He has no ideas as to the work or services he performed in DINA.

Page 105 contains the act of constitution of the Court convening in the Central Identification Office where it examined the civil files and other records on "Ana Luisa Pizarro Avilés."

Page 104 contains the testimony offered by Army Captain René Miguel Riveros Valderrama who had been working for DINA since 1974 and who, after being duly sworn in, stated that sometime in mid-August 1976 Colonel Contreras entrusted him with a mission in the United States where he was to make contact with Colonel Vernon Walters of the CIA who was to supply them with information favorable to Chile. The mission was to be carried out in conjunction with Lieutenant Rolando Mosqueira. Both went to Washington but were unable to make the contact and returned.

Page 106 sets forth the testimony offered by Army Captain Manuel Rolando Mosqueira Jarpa who, after being duly sworn in, informs the Court that he worked for DINA and was entrusted with a mission in which he was to travel to Washington to obtain information on certain high-ranking United States politicians who were sympathetic to Chile. His orders came from Colonel Contreras while the detailled instructions, as well as the passports and money were supplied by Commander Espinoza. My partner was Captain Riveros. He knew nothing whatsoever about a Lieutenant Fernández at that time.

The appearance of Rolf Gonzalo Wenderoth Pozo, Lieutenant Colonel in the Army, is annotated on page 108. Upon being questioned in conformance with the law as to the identity of Liliana Walker Martínez, the witness, who was working for DINA, replied that he did not know the woman and had been supplied only with her name and references as a "scout" or "informant" for the Agency.

Page 116 contains the testimony presented to the Court by Rosemarie Catherine Guest, sister of Armando Fernández Larios, resident of Arlington, Virginia, United States who stated that her brother arrived at National Airport on August 26, 1976 accompanied by a woman whom she did not know. The next day she took him home with her to Virginia where he remained until September 6th when they left together for New York, remaining there until September 9th when he was forced to return to Chile after receiving an urgent message to the effect that their father had been taken seriously ill.

As far as she recalls, her brother devoted himself to rest and relaxation and played tennis every day at the place where she worked. She asserts that he never hid his true identity during his stay in the United States at this time.

She adds that Attorney Propper prevented her from making this same statement before the Grand Jury despite her having been subpoenaed.

The testimony offered by Lawrence Arthur Guest, Armando Fernández Larios' brother-in-law, in response to a questionnaire submitted by the latter's defense counsel appears on page 119.

Page 136 contains the act of constitution of the Court convening at the Military Hospital in this city recording the fact that the Court examined the clinical records on hospital patients for the month of August 1976. The files corresponding to this month showed no record whatsoever of Ana Luisa Pizarro Avilés' being treated as a patient.

On page 238, the attorney representing the United States of America with respect to its petition for extradition explains the grounds for such petition in the form of a detailled brief in which, after a few general remarks and an analysis of the requirements of the bilateral treaty between the two countries with respect to form and content, launches into a full-scale study of the corpus delicti and of the role played by each of the defendants in the commission of such crime, concluding his brief with a reference to the option of extraditing nationals, pleading that the extradition of the defendants be granted inasmuch as the present case fulfills all the extradition requirements and inasmuch as the cumulative evidence constitutes sufficient proof that a crime has been committed and represents well-founded, admissible presumptions of guilt on the part of the defendants.

On page 311 verso the Court orders that the defendant Armando Fernández Larios be informed of the facts of the case. Attached to page 312 we find the brief prepared by Fernández's defense counsel where the attorneys present their own comments, analyse the charges preferred against their client, present grounds for their being challenged as to their validity, subsequently launch into an analysis of the evidence presented in the extradition file and conclude by pleading that the petition for the extradition of Army Captain Armando Fernández Larios be denied. The brief is accompanied by numerous exhibits.

On page 344 verso the Court acknowledges the comments made by Fernández Larios and the exhibits presented and orders that Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda and Pedro Octavio Espinoza Bravo be informed of the facts within a period of twenty days.

The defense counsel for Pedro Espinoza Bravo presents its comments in a brief appearing on page 413, challenging the evidence presented and presenting various exhibits as well as a report having the force of law. The brief analyses the charges serving as basis for the bill of indictment drawn up by the Grand Jury, the evidence presented, as well as the investigation conducted by the Chief Justice, makes reference to statute law and to legal doctine on extradition and to their application to the case at hand, finally arriving at the conclusion that extradition is inappropriate and must be denied.

Page 502 contains the detailled brief prepared by the defense counsel for Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda in which the attorneys present their comments, challenge the evidence, introduce exhibits and petition for various proceedings.

The defense counsel begins with an analysis of the proceedings and charges brought by the Grand Jury, goes into a lengthy and detailled exposition on the evidence presented, ending this portion of the brief with an analysis of the extradition process from the legal point of view in a series of closing statements. It then proceeds to challenge the admissibility of the petition, launches into an analysis of the alleged role played by its client, the jurisdiction of the Chilean courts and of the concept of political offense and ends pleading that the petition for extradition be denied.

Page 693 verso contains the decision ordering that the facts be made known to the Public Prosecutor's Office.

Following a detailled examination of the trial and of the various Court proceedings, the District Attorney arrives at a conclusion to the effect "that the petition for the extradition of Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Pedro Octavio Espinoza Bravo and Armando Fernández Larios presented by the United States Government should be denied."

On page 714 verso the Court gives notice that it is ready to announce judgement.

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE AND CONSIDERING:

WITH RESPECT TO THE PETITION FOR EXTRADITION AND THE GROUNDS FOR SUCH PETITION:

1. THAT the Government of the United States has formally petitioned the Government of Chile for the extradition of Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Pedro Octavio Espinoza Bravo and Armando Fernández Larios in Memorandum No. 60 dated September 20, 1978 from the United States Embassy, signed by U.S. Ambassador George W. Landau and brought to the attention of this Supreme Court in the form of a restricted official letter from the Legal Department of the Foreign Affairs Ministry bearing Number 22 and dated September 21, 1978 and that, according to the petition, these individuals were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in the District of Columbia, United States (or the petitioning Government) on August 1, 1978 to be tried under United States law as perpetrators of the following crimes: "1.- Conspiracy to assassinate a foreign official, namely Orlando Letelier, punishable under the U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1,117; 2.- Murder of a foreign official, namely Orlando Letelier, on September 21, 1976, punishable under U.S. Code, Title 18, Sections 1,111 and 1,116; 3.- First degree murder committed against the person of Orlando Letelier on September 21, 1976, punishable under the District of Columbia Code, Title 22, Section 2,401; 4.- First degree murder committed against the person of Ronni Moffit on September 21, 1976, punishable under the District of Columbia Code,

UNCLASSIFIED

Title 22, Section 2,401; and 5.- Damages and injuries caused by explosives in a 1975 Chevrolet Chevelle Malibu Classic used in interstate traffic and carrying Orlando Letelier, Ronni Moffit and Michael Moffit from the State of Maryland to the District of Columbia on September 21, 1976, causing the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit, punishable under the U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 844(1.)"

As stated in the introductory portion of the present ruling, the petitioner requests that its petition be duly processed and that extradition be ultimately granted, as requested, basing its plea on the provisions of the 1902 Extradition Treaty between the United States and Chile, currently in effect. In pursuit of this goal, the petition is supported by various exhibits in English, accompanied by their respective Spanish translations, as well as by statements, affidavits, photographs and copies of pertinent legislation and of the arrest warrants issued by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

All the information presented in support of the petition for extradition and serving as grounds for such petition, including copies of pertinent legislation and warrants of arrest, photostats of original documents such as transcripts of statements made by witnesses under interrogation and testimony presented before the Federal Grand Jury in the District of Columbia, testimony given to FBI agents and to attorneys attached to the United States District Attorney's Office, as well as the various photographs and other types of material evidence described in the index beginning on page 15 of the original English file, whose Spanish translations have been checked by experts Gloria Jiménez Matus and Marta Anders de Vargas appointed by the present Chilean District Court (page 23) and appear in the corresponding translation file, appear to have been duly certified as to their authenticity by competent officials of the petitioning government in the manner prescribed by Article III, Paragraph 2 of the 1902 Extradition Treaty signed by the United States and Chile and legalized in conformance with the law in the presence of United States as well as Chilean authorities pursuant to the provisions set forth in Paragraph 1 and in Paragraph 2, Number 3, Article 345 of the Chilean Code of Civil Procedure and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraphs 1, 2 and 4, Article 186 of the Chilean Code of Criminal Procedure, as set forth in the corresponding proceedings appearing on pages 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of the aforementioned original English volume or file. The proceedings appearing on page 11 refer to the authentication of the signatures of Mr. George W. Landau, United States Ambassador to Chile and Mr. Edwin L. Beffel, U.S. Consul. The former has presented the petition for extradition of the aforementioned individuals in accordance with Article III, Paragraph 1 of the 1902 Extradition Treaty.

WITH RESPECT TO THE PROCEDURAL ADMISSIBILITY OR VALIDITY "IN LIMINE" OF THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED:

2. THAT to ensure a logical line of reasoning and due to its particular importance from the legal standpoint to the extradition process under consideration and to the very concept of extradition, it is advisable to, first of all, refer to the statement made by the defense counsels for defendants Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras on pages 340 verso, 425 and 512 verso, respectively, which corresponds to the assertion made by Mr. Manuel Urrutia Salas, attorney and professor or procedural law in his report appearing on page 401 and which is attributed the force the law, as well as with the statement made by the Prosecuting Attorney for the Supreme Court in his opinion reproduced on page 694 of the present file -- a statement representing a general attack on all the supporting evidence presented with the petition for extradition and explained in detail in the first supplementary petition to each of the briefs presented by defendants Espinoza and Contreras -- an attack which essentially maintains that our procedural law determines which means of proof are admissible in courts of law (Article 457 of the Code of Criminal Procedural) and that admissibl evidence is, thereby, limited to documents, witnesses, to a confession by one of the parties to the legal action, to a personal examination by the Court itself, to expert testimony and to presumptions or circumstantial evidence and that all other means of proof which are not included in this list of "catalogue" are, therefore, inadmissible; that, in view of the foregoing, all the photographs and other enclosures comprising the file of exhibits presented with the petition for extradition "as it has been called by the court" must be declared inadmissible and of no value whatsoever as evidence inasmuch as they do not represent means of proof of the type required by Chilean law; that Chilean procedural law "requires that all means of proof must be compatible with the probative process previously defined by the law with respect to the method, timeliness and circumstances under which each means of proof must be presented"; that, in view of the above, we must infer - conclude that, in brief, the statement to the effect "that petitioner in the present action has failed to present any evidence against the defendants both in its petition as well as in any and all subsequent proceedings inasmuch as the photographs are inadmissible and the unofficial documents are challengeable on the grounds that they have not been duly authenticated, have not been duly acknowledged by their alleged authors in the presence of this Court, have not been duly checked and compared, have not been certified by the corresponding clerk with respect to their authenticity and have not been duly legalized, depite the fact that the petitioner has attempted to endow them with quite another status altogether.

Furthermore, the aforementioned opinion expressed by the Prosecuting Attorney before the Supreme Court with respect to the statement made by Michael Vernon Townley who allegedly subsequently made a deal with the United States Government under which he would not be tried for the murder of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit and obtained other promises, both for himself and for his wife María Inés Callejas, indicates that when making his statement Townley "was obviously intent on saying what he believed was best for himself with regard to the aforesaid agreement" and concludes that "Article 323 of our Code of Criminal Procedure prohibits the use of promises, coercive acts or threats in attempting to extract the truth from a defendant. Pursuant to Article 10 of the Civil Code all acts prohibited under the law are null and void. Yet another paragraph of the same opinion states that: "Consequently, Townley's statement in which he supplied information to the District Attorney and subsequently repeated before the District of Columbia Grand Jury is invalid under Chilean law inasmuch, as mentioned above, it violates Article 323 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The same holds true for all the accusations derived from Townley's statement to the District of Columbia Grand Jury. At the end of his report Prosecutor Chamorro states, and I quote: "The other presumptions of guilt mentioned by attorney Etcheberry derived from sources other than Townley's statement which, as mentioned above, is worthless, do not fulfill the requirements set forth in Article 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and, therefore, do not constitute full proof."

3. THAT as maintained in the defense briefs for defendants Espinoza and Contreras in support of their arguments and as similarly maintained by Fernández Larios, by the report by Professor Urrutia attributed the force of law and by the opinion issued by Prosecutor Chamorro, the decisions handed down by the Chilean Supreme Court "have been unanimous in the sense that they regard extradition as an act of sovereignty and, therefore, subject to the country's procedural legislation, particularly as regards the procedure for evaluating the evidence."

4. THAT the foregoing is effective only insofar as our Supreme Court has consistently ruled that extradition is an act of sovereignty, as demonstrated by the official quotations included in the defense brief prepared by the counsel for Espinoza appearing on pages 450 and 450 verso. The following quotation applies to the extradition proceeding brought against José Sarmiento or José Doblado in 1954 "In effect, the judicial authority responsible for determining the identity of the criminal, whether the crime in question is a common-law crime or a political offense or whether, for any reason, it falls outside the sphere of offenses subject to extradition, etc. performs an inherent act of sovereignty in deciding whether or not to extradite the party concerned." "All this justifies the examination of the evidence by the Court inasmuch as the omission of such procedure would mean the inadequate protection of the rights of the suspect who could easily find himself extradited on the basis of ad-hoc evidence." However, it is particularly important to point out that this is not only an expression of the desired verdict but, ~~in referring to the grounds for verdict~~ in the same clause, the brief adds: "Thus, this doctrine is consistent with Article 647 of our Code of Criminal Procedure which authorizes a brief investigation into the identity of the criminal, the ~~existence~~ perpetration of the crime and the role played by the defendant. And yet he can be held (Article 646 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.) The person responsible for conducting the extradition proceeding may introduce evidence (Article 649, Paragraph 1 of the Code of Criminal Procedure) and is heard under identical conditions to those granted to the defendant (Articles 652-654 of the Code of Criminal Procedure), all of which indicates that there is no obvious conflict between Governments who are party to such proceedings with respect to their sovereignty. Lucchini (Revista Penale, I, 348) rightfully declared that: "A government which opts for or grants a petition for extradition and subsequentl effectively extradites a person who has committed a crime in a foreign country neither disavows nor gives up its own jurisdiction over the matter inasmuch as it has already conducted proceedings derived from such jurisdiction such as a summary proceedings and the temporary or permanent arrest of the guilty party." We must add that these summary proceedings, arising out of a nation's sovereignty are essential to the legal process of extradition. And it is more than logical that before extraditing any person, the government must be certain that it is performing an act of justice. Furthermore, as to these proceedings which form represent an inherent part of the passive extradition process, please bear in mind that the government answering the petition for extradition is not up against a case of "ius puniendi" inasmuch, as mentioned above, the petition is not founde on the right to exact punishment but, rather, on international assistance which demands that the legal system be preserved -- a need common to all nations of the civilized world."

UNCLASSIFIED

One of the whereas clauses introducing the Chilean Supreme Court decision handed down in the extradition proceeding brought against Héctor Cámpora and others by the Government of Argentina in September 1957 and quoted in the defense brief prepared by the attorneys representing defendant Espinoza reads as follows: "Supplementing the rule of law established by Paragraph 2, Article 647 as mentioned above in connection with another line of reasoning, Paragraph 3 of the same rule of law requires that the native court substantiate the petition for extradition under examination specifically by determining whether or not the persons named as defendants actually committed the crimes of which they have been accused. Thus, a petition for extradition based on facts which the petitioning judge or authority deems sufficient to warrant that the petition be approved shall not be automatically granted. The courts trying the case must arrive at their own decision. Inasmuch as the extradition process falls under national jurisdiction it is the national courts who have jurisdiction over the matter and who must, therefore, judge the case independently from the opinions of the foreign tribunal." However, this does not mean that our Supreme Court has declared in this particular ruling or, as maintained by the petition, has consisten declared "that extradition is an act of sovereignty and, THEREFORE, MUST COMPLY WITH THE COUNTRY'S PROCEDURAL LEGISLATION, PARTICULARLY WITH REGARD TO THE PROCEDU FOLLOWED IN EXAMINING THE EVIDENCE PRESENTED." The latter conclusion or doctrine does not appear to have been ratified, nor expressed in any explicit or implicit declaration made in any Supreme Court decision handed down in a similar case of passive extradition or in any other case with legal characteristics similar to the case at hand.

5. THAT it is unacceptable that, in view of the principle of international law upholding the sovereignty of nations -- an undisputable principle -- for any country to be prevented from applying its internal legislation which, through its constitutional or executive channels it considers appropriate, adequate or necessa Each State, in an act of sovereignty, lays down rules of public law which must be complied with within its national borders, the most important of which are the rules of procedure for civil or criminal actions or all other matters brought before its respective courts of justice which safeguard the nation's exercise of its soverignty, which serve as the very foundation of a country's independence and as the philosophical basis for yet another indisputable principle -- that of a given country's nonintervention in the internal politics of another country, without prejudice to any eventual pertinent agreements entered into by the two countries.

6. THAT the Governments of the United States and Chile are bound by the provisions of the 1902 bilateral extradition treaty, presently in effect, with respect to legal proceedings. Under the terms and conditions of Article One of such treaty, both governments "agree to turn over to the other government all persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offenses set forth in the following article committed within the jurisdiction of either contracting party who seek asylum or who are found within their borders provided that such action is ~~based on~~ taken as evidence of guilt which the laws of the country to which the fugitive or suspect has fled consider sufficient grounds for his aprehension and prosecution assuming that the crime or offense had been committed within its territory.

7. THAT the appropriate Chilean laws applied in determining whether or not the evidence of guilt presented in support of the present petition for extradition offer sufficient grounds for the apprehension and prosecution of the defendants

Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras, as agreed under the treaty, are none other than those found in Paragraph 3, Title IV, Part One, Book II of the Code of Criminal Procedure and, more specifically, the provision of Article 274 of such Code which stipulates, and I quote: "Article 274. A judge will question a suspect, find him guilty and bring action against him in all cases where the facts:

1. Prove that the crime in question has in fact been committed; and

2. Show that there are at least well-founded presumptions of the guilt of the defendant either as perpetrator, accomplice or accessory to the crime in question.

8. THAT the court must analyse, weigh and evaluate the facts and evidence presented by the government petitioning for extradition solely on the basis of this rule of procedure and may resort to no other rule of Chilean procedural law, particularly with regard to its method of evaluating the evidence, as presented in these proceedings.

Furthermore, in attempting to demonstrate the illogical nature of the argument under consideration, as well as its lack of legal context within the framework of the good faith in which contracts must be entered into and executed if the contracting parties are to achieve what they had in mind when formalizing the agreement it suffices to point out that adherence to the aforementioned doctrine would make the extradition process completely inoperative inasmuch as this would mean requiring that the country petitioning for the extradition -- in this case the United States -- adapt its summary investigative proceedings and legal prosecutions to the principles of the Chilean Code of Criminal Procedure to ensure their value as evidence in such country, which, in turn, means requiring its judicial authorities and courts of justice to investigate crimes committed within its borders and subsequently file suit with its courts based on Chilean procedural law which is obviously different from its own legislation. Moreover, if, in presenting a petition for extradition, Chile was required to do likewise, this would be considered a "dead letter" by our own legislation inasmuch as all summary investigations and court proceedings must comply with Chilean law.

UNCLASSIFIED

Finally, the mere enunciation of this theory which signifies an "in limine" rejection of the evidence presented by the United States Government in support of its petition for extradition, resulting in the court's declaring such facts inadmissible under formal rules of procedure which are irrelevant to the case at hand means disclaiming that country's sovereignty to resort to the procedural legislation which it considers appropriate in conformance with the legal precepts referred to in ~~argument~~ ground number 5 of the present ruling -- a theory which, in practice, can be upheld only in the case of two countries with identical penal codes.

EXTRADITION PER SE AND THE GROUNDS FOR EXTRADITION:

9. THAT, according to grounds number 6, the Governments of the United States and Chile are bound by the provisions of the 1902 Extradition Treaty with respect to legal proceedings and pleadings and the last paragraph of Article II of this agreement stipulates that: "Under the provisions of this Treaty, the extradition of fugitives from justice in the Republic of Chile and the United States shall be carried out in conformance with the respective extradition laws in effect in the country to which the petition for extradition is directed."

Paragraph 2, Title VI, Book III of the Chilean Code of Criminal Procedure governs the process of passive extradition in which the first trial is handled by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, stipulating the rules of procedure which must be followed. Article 647 provides as follows: "The investigation will be essentially limited to the following points: 1.- to determine the identity of the criminal; 2.- to determine whether the crime attributed to the defendant is among those subject to extradition under the provisions of current treaties and, in the absence of any such treaties, in accordance with the principles of international law; and 3.- to prove whether or not the defenda has in fact committed the crime with which he has been charged."

10. THAT the identity of the defendants whose extradition has been requested by the United States Government appears to have been legitimately established in legal proceedings and by the evidence presented in support of the petition, as well as by the summary investigation conducted by the present court of original jurisdiction. They have, thus, been identified as Armando Fernández Larios, Pedro Octavio Espinoza Bravo and Juan Manuel Guillermo Contreras Sepúlveda, who are individually treated on pages 59, 72 verso and 80, respectivel of the case file, with the two first defendants respectively identified as an Army Captain and Colonel on active duty and the latter identified as a retired Army General.

11. THAT Article II of the current treaty limits the crimes and offenses for which the contracting parties agree to grant a petition for extradition, with the number one such crime listed as "homicide, including murder, parricide, infanticide and poisoning; attempted homicide; felonious murder in the second degree."

12. THAT the common denominator in the five crimes with which the petition for extradition charges the defendants Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras as perpetrators and circumstantially referred to in Argument No. 1 of the present ruling is that of homicide. However, as rightfully expressed by the Prosecuting Attorney to the Supreme Court on page 703, the crimes of "conspiracy", "damages" and "destruction" mentioned on the list included in the petition for extradition and with respect to the other two referred to in Number 5 of the aforesaid petition are not among those set forth in Article II of the Extradition Treaty of 1902 and in its Supplemental Protocol as subject to extradition. Therefore, it is useless to make any further references to such crimes in the present decision inasmuch as the petition for extradition of the defendants, which is founded on such facts, is to be rejected without further explanation.

13. THAT, regardless of whether or not the existence of the crimes of murder committed against the persons of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit has been duly determined in accordance with Chilean criminal law, the existence of such crimes appears to have been legitimately established by legal proceedings recorded in the exhibits accompanying the petition for extradition presented by the United States Government which, as mentioned in the last paragraph of Argument No. 1 of the present decision, "appear to have been duly certified as to their authenticity by competent officials of the petitioning government in the manner prescribed by Article II, Paragraph 2 of the Extradition Treaty of 1902 entered into between the United States and Chile and legalized in conformance with the law in the presence of United States as well as Chilean authorities pursuant to the provisions set forth in Paragraph 1 and in Number 3, Article 345 of the Code of Civil Procedure and in accordance with the provisions of Paragraphs 1, 2 and 4, Article 186 of the Chilean Code of Criminal Procedure, as set forth in the proceedings appearing on pages 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of the Engli original English file or volume "whose translations into Spanish appear in which have been checked, in part, by experts appointed by the present court of original jurisdiction, in the form of the following pieces of evidence: a) exhibits 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, namely statements by Michael Moffit, occupying one of the back seats in the automobile driven by Letelier, also carrying Ronni Moffit; by Doctor Danna Petersen who says that she gave Ronni Moffit first aid and witnessed the explosion of the automobile in which she was riding; by police officers Walter Johnson and Charles Kucmovich who were among the first to arrive at the scene of the crime and who indicate that they treated the victims, and by FBI special agent Carter Cornick who indicates that he arrived at the scene of the crime minutes after the crime took place or, in other words, at nine o'clock A.M. on the morning of September 21, 1976, as indicated by the deponents; b) exhibits 32 and 36 representing the autopsy reports on Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit prepared by Drs. James M. Luke and Leroy Riddick, respectively, which conclude that the cause of death for the former victim was "loss of blood, traumatic amputation of the lower extremities, injuries suffered as a result of an explosion; circumstances of death: homicide and for the latter victim "inhalation of blood, laceration of the larynx and right carotid artery; injuries suffered as a result of an explosion; circumstances of the death: homicide."; c) exhibits 14 to 31 consisting of photographs of the scene of the crime taken by FBI agents after the fact showing the condition of the car driven by Letelier after the explosion; d) exhibits 34, 35, 38, 39 and 40, all photographs of the bodies of Letelier and Mrs. Moffit accompanying the aforesaid autopsy reports; and e) exhibits 76 and 95 consisting of reports by explosives experts Stuart W. Case and William H. Koopman.

14. THAT as to the involvement of defendants Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras in the facts alluded to in the petition for extradition and, more specifically, their alleged involvement in the crimes of murder committed against the persons of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit, the existence of which has been established by the court sitting in the petitioning country and in the present extradition proceedings through the means of proof referred to in paragraph 13 above, in order to identify the line of reasoning leading directly to a determination of whether or not there has been criminal involvement in the facts on the part of the defendants in accordance with Article I of the Treaty of 1902, it might be desirable to begin with the introduction to an analysis of this point by the attorney for the United States Government appearing on page 257 as part of his brief beginning on page 238 and used as grounds for the petition for extradition in which he says: "There are multiple, serious, precise, direct and interrelated presumptions of the defendants' involvement in these facts which have been presented in the course of the proceeding in the manner outlined in the indictment, all of which are based on real, proven facts and not on other legal or artificial presumptions. There is also abundant testimony and documentary evidence on different aspects of their involvement sufficient not only to force the defendants to undergo trial under Chilean law, but to actually convict them as well."

15. THAT no such multiple presumptions of the criminal involvement of defendants Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras in the crimes with which they have been charged in the indictment handed down by the Federal Grand Jury for the District of Columbia in the United States -- or the petitioner -- have been presented in the course of this proceeding. Nor can it be said that the presumptions characterized as "admissible" by the aforesaid petition are in fact admissil presumptions or can, in fact, be qualified as such under Chilean law (Article 274 of the Code of Criminal Procedure) or under the provisions of the Extradition Treaty of 1902 which has the force of law for both parties thereto, Article I of which stipulates that the Governments of the United States and Chile agree to turn over to the other government any person accused or any of the crimes or offenses specified in Article II who seek asylum or who are discovered within their own borders "provided that such action is taken based solely on evidence of their guilt which the laws of the country to which the fugitive or suspect has fled (Chile) consider grounds for their apprehension and prosecution in the event the crime or offense had been committed within its own territory."

16. THAT, in fact, a thorough examination of each of the facts presented in the proceeding and which are used to infer presumptions of guilt against the defendants immediately shows that all such facts, as indicated by the Prosecuting Attorney for the Supreme Court in his legal opinion, are essentially either directly or indirectly derived from the accusations against them made by Michael Vernon Townley in his statement in response to questioning by Assistant U.S.

District Attorney for the District of Columbia, Eugene M. Propper appearing on pages 123 to 164 in the translation file and on pages 97 to 143 in the original English extradition file.

In this version of his statement in which he confesses to have been involved as a principal in the crimes of murder committed against the persons of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit, Townley asserts, in brief, that in or around the end of June or the beginning of July 1976, Army Lieutenant Armando Fernández Larios requested his presence at a meeting with Colonel, formerly Major, Pedro Espinoza which was to be strictly confidential. In the course of the meeting the latter asked him whether he would accept a special assignment outside of Chile -- an assignment which he did accept after laying down certain conditions. In a second meeting held a few days later, Espinoza informed him that "the DINA mission in which he was to take part was for the assassination of Orlando Letelier", that they were to use falsified Paraguayan passports and that the death was to appear accidental but that the assassination was to be accomplished in any event, even through the use of a bomb, if necessary. He said that Colonel Espinoza had informe him that the Letelier assassination was to be a joint endeavor between himself and Lieutenant Fernández. As part of the assignment, he accompanied Fernández to Paraguay to obtain false passports. He used the alias Juan Williams Rose, while Fernández went by the alias of Alejandro Romeral Jara. However, they did not continue on to the United States at that time but returned to Santiago under orders received by Fernández. Sometime later Colonel Espinoza informed him that Fernández was conducting "pre-operative" intelligence in the United States, that the Letelie mission was still on and that he (Townley) was also to travel to the United States and "make contact" with a group of Cuban exiles who were to do away with Letelier. He traveled to the U.S. under the alias Hans Petersen Silva and was met at Kennedy International Airport in New York by Fernández who was accompanied by a woman and by his sister Rosemarie. The former was traveling with Fernández to provide him with "cover" for the DINA mission in connection with which he was to collect information on Letelier's movements and lifestyle. He also stated that Fernández handed him a sheet of paper containing a sketch of Letelier's residence and office, as well as written details on Letelier's and his wife's automobiles. Once in Washington, he worked with the Cuban Virgilio Paz in confirming the information supplied by Fernández and purchased the materials needed to prepare the bomb and to plant it in Letelier's automobile. When the bomb was ready he personally planted it on the outer crosspiece of the automobile chassis under the driver's seat, fastening it with adhesive tape which he had purchased earlier for this very purpose. All these events took place on September 19, 1976. On the 21st he was advised by Ignacio Novo Sampol that "something had happened in Washington." He returned to Santiago on September 23rd, reporting directly to Colonel, or at that time Major, Pedro Espinoza Bravo.

As to Colonel Contreras who was director of DINA at the time of Letelier's assassination, the same version of Townley's statement reads more or less as follows: In March of 1978 as a result of some letters rogatory sent by the United States government (requesting that he be surrendered to police officers) but before his photograph and the name Juan Williams Rose had been published in the Santiago press, "I met with General Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda concerning the future strategy to be followed in answering any questions which might be raised with respect to my trip to Paraguay with Captain Fernández and our leter trip to the United States to assassinate Letelier." He then adds that they met in an automobile and drove around Santiago while Contreras suggested that he immediately flee Chile to avoid being questioned and that when he refused to leave he thought up a plan whereby he was to answer any questions as follows: "I went to Paraguay on an official DINA mission. I was given no details and was told it was a matter of national security. I returned to Santiago from Paraguay after completing my assignment for DINA. If they interrogated me further

I was to admit that Captain Fernández and I had planned to travel to the United States on assignment for DINA whereby we were to obtain a list of U.S. politicians who were sympathetic to the Chilean cause. However, the mission was never accomplished." Townley also stated that this meeting was followed by yet another interview with Contreras and Armando Fernández to go over what they were going to say about the trip to Paraguay, adding that Espinoza was not present and took no part whatsoever in any of these meetings. Yet another part of his statement reads as follows and I quote: "As to what I know about how DINA operated being, as I was, with the agency almost from the beginning, I know that noone in DINA,with the sole exception of Manuel Contreras, was authorized to order the accomplishment of a mission outside of Chile, particularly something like an assassination. Furthermore, only General Contreras was empowered to authorize the issue of false identification papers such as passports and only he could authorize the disbursement of any funds."

Following the investigation conducted by the U.S. District Attorney's Office through Assistant Attorneys for the District of Columbia Messrs. E. Lawrence Barcella and Eugene M. Propper and, in general, through the intermediary of special agents attached to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), as well as the investigation by the Grand Jury attached to the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, it is easy to see that all the statements presented by the witnesses, the depositions made by FBI agents, all the exhibits, photographs, copies of bills of sale for electronic and other types of components, the list of passengers and fares traveling by air from Chile to the United States and viceversa, the identification papers and the other documents presented, most of which were unofficial instruments, were simply a means of corroborating the statements made by Michael Townley for the obvious purpose of ~~providing grounds for~~ proving the truth of the accusations against defendants Fernández, Espinoza and Contreras made by Townley in his aforementioned statement, as dramatically demonstrated by a simple examination of the analysis or "arguments" presented by U.S. government attorney Mr. Etcheberry appearing on page 257 verso through page 299 verso and included in his brief beginning on page 238 used as grounds for the extradition petition.

UNCLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

17. THAT, however, none of these previous investigation proceedings carried out by the Office of the U.S. Attorney or the judicial actions conducted by the Grand Jury of the District Court of the United States make it possible to deduce "well-~~grounded~~ founded presumptions" of guilt to the effect that Townley received, through Pedro Espinoza, the order or mission of murdering Orlando Letelier and, consequently, Ronni Moffitt, which order would have been issued by Juan Manuel Contreras when, as a colonel in the Chilean Army, he was Director of National Intelligence (DINA),and that Captain Armando Fernandez Larios participated directly in such a plot by order of Contreras and under the leadership of Espinoza as Chief of Intelligence Operations of DINA when the latter was assigned there with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the Army during the months of August and September 1976, when the events that gave rise to the extradition occurred, and, in view of the fact that the murders of Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, as has been established in this trial, were ~~murdered~~ perpetrated at Washington, U.S.A., on September 21, 1976.[sic]

18. THAT Michael Townley's statement, despite Townley's unquestionable status as perpetrator of the aforementioned murders, must be considered the statement of a witness under the definition of that word in the Dictionary of the Royal Academy of the Spanish Language: " a person who witnesses or gains direct and true knowledge of something"; however, because the statement in question is that of a special type of witness, in order that it may be considered conclusive, and so that the weight of evidence may be attached to it with the scope of "a ~~grounded~~ well founded presumption," it is necessary to take into account, together with it, not only such other background as may serve to verify it, but, very specially, the impartiality of the witness, whether he has been consistent, and the circumstances in which were made the statements that are being used to support the charges against the accused.

19. THAT, with respect to Townley's impartiality and the circumstances

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

in which were made the statements charging Fernandez, Espinoza, and Contreras, it should be pointed out that, as recognized by United States attorney Etcheberry in folio 270, verso, of the document beginning in folio 238, on which he bases the request for extradition, before Michael Townley made his statement to Deputy Attorney Eugene M. Propper, he concluded an agreement with the Government of the United States on April 17, 1978, through the District of Columbia Attorney, the text of which agreement appears in the statement ~~he~~ made to the District of Columbia Grand Jury by Maria Ines Callejas, Townley's spouse, which appears in Folio 188 of the Translations Book, and paragraph 6 of which reads literally as follows: "The United States agrees not to bring legal action against Michael Vernon Townley for any other crimes that it may discover which occurred before the date of this agreement. That date is April 17. It is understood that the United States does not have knowledge on the date of this agreement that any crime of violence has been committed in the United States involving Michael Vernon Townley, except for the case of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt. The United States also agrees not to bring legal action against the wife of Michael Vernon Townley--Mariana Callejas H. Townley--for any crime that it may discover. This agreement not to bring legal action does not apply to crimes of violence, as that term is defined in Title 23, D.C. Code, Section 1331(4). It is understood that the United States does not have knowledge on the date of this agreement of any crime committed by Mariana Ines Callejas H. Townley." [Translator's note: The foregoing quotation has been translated without reference to its original text.]

20. THAT, in those conditions, it is obvious that Townley's statement confessing to his participation in the murders in question and implicating as accomplices Fernandez, Espinoza, and Contreras, is a "compensated accusation,"

UNCLASSIFIED

since in return for it he is "exempted" from direct criminal liability for the murders of Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, with the Government of the United States agreeing "not to bring legal action against Michael Vernon Townley" and promising, in addition, "not to bring legal action against the wife of Michael Vernon Townley--Mariana Ines Callejas H. Townley--for any crime that it may discover

21. THAT, consequently, it must be concluded, in view of such promises, which denature the criminal procedure and ~~wax~~ impair the credibility of the persons they favor, that ~~the~~ Townley's incriminating statement lacks impartiality; it was undoubtedly made under the influence of the aforementioned "agreement" and, therefore, it cannot be considered evidence with the scope of a "~~grounded~~ well founded presumption" of guilt against the accused.

22. THAT, moreover, the lack of consistency of the various statements made by Townley regarding his participation in the crimes under consideration, in which he denies direct and culpable participation in some of the acts ~~in some~~ and acknowledges it in others, as has been established in this record (statement mentioned in ground No. 16 and statement made to Military Judge Hector Orozco in the proceeding for "false documents et al"), strengthens what has just been expressed in the preceding paragraph and undermines the credibility of his statements.

23. THAT, with respect to the statement of Mariana Ines Callejas to the Grand Jury of the United States District Court ~~for~~ in the District of Columbia, which appears in folios 187 et seq. of the Spanish Translations Book, after she was advised by Deputy Attorney Barcella of the existence of the "agreement" between the Government of her country and her husband, Michael Townley, which agreement is transcribed in Whereas clause No. 19 of this decision, in which statement she says that she knew about the order to get rid of Orlando Letelier, which order, according to what her husband told her, had been given him by Pedro Espinoza, it should be pointed out that, in the Court's opinion, the testimony of Mrs. Townley lacks impartiality and cannot be given the weight of a "well-founded presumption" of guilt for the same reasons adduced in ground No. 21 of this decision in considering the incriminating statements made by Michael ~~Ewm~~ Townley.

UNCLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

24. THAT, as a logical corollary to that set forth in whereases 6 to 23, the judge pronouncing the decision considers that, up to this point in the case, there has not been attached nor produced such evidence of ~~guilt~~ criminality against Fernandez, Espinoza, and Contreras, the accused, as, according to Article I of the 1902 Treaty and Chilean law-especially that established in Article 274(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure-~~as to give merit "to"~~ warrants " their apprehension and ~~prosecution~~ committment for Trial "in the event that the crimes of murder of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt had been committed in Chile. Consequently, the extradition request presented by the Ambassador of the United States of America in the name of his government should be rejected.

25. THAT, it therefore seems even more advisable to the court to refer to that agreed to in Article V of the 1902 treaty, by the Governments of the United States and Chile, both because this material is dealt with extensively in folio 238 of the brief submitted by Attorney Etcheberry, representing the Government of the United States, in the chapter titled "The Option of ~~Delivering~~ Surrendering ~~Up~~ Nationals", which begins on folio 300, and because other reasons for a rejection of the extradition request can be derived from the examination and application of that treaty by the courts of the United States.

26. THAT in Article I of the aforementioned 1902 Extradition Treaty it is agreed that: "The Government of the United States and the Government of Chile mutually agree to deliver up persons who, having been charged with or convicted of any of the crimes and offenses specified in the following article, committed within the jurisdiction of one of the contracting parties, shall seek an asylum or be found within the territories of the other..." etc., and it is further agreed in Article V that: "Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this Treaty."

UNCLASSIFIED

The opinion handed down by United States Court 299, October 1936 term, states that:[*] "The persons named in the extradition request filed habeas corpus to prevent their extradition to France under the 1909 Treaty. 37 Statute 1526. They are citizens born in the United States and are accused of committing crimes in France that appear among the extraditable offenses specified in the treaty. Having escaped to the United States they were arrested in New York City upon the request of the French authorities by virtue of a preliminary order issued by a United States Commissioner and were arrested as a part of extradition proceedings. The writ of habeas corpus contested the basis of the Commissioner's jurisdiction inasmuch as the treaty exempted United States citizens and the President had no constitutional authority to deliver up to the French authorities the persons named in the extradition request.

The governing provisions of the treaty are the following: Article I. The Government of the United States and the Government of Chile mutually agree to deliver up persons who, having been charged with or convicted of any of the crimes and offenses specified in the following article, committed within the jurisdiction of one of the contracting parties, shall seek an asylum or be found within the territories of the other: Provided, that this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the laws of the place where the fugitive or person so charged shall be found, would justify his or her apprehension and committment for trial if the crime or offense had been there committed.' Article V. 'Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this convention.'

The Court of Appeals of this Circuit, vacating the orders of the District Judge, upheld the allegation of the accused and ordered the stay. 81 F (2d)32. This Court granted certiorari."

The District Court of Appeals for the Second District of the City of New York upheld this decision on, among others, the following grounds: "[*] It is a customary rule that treaty obligations should be liberally interpreted in order to be consistent with the clear intent of the parties. Tucker v. Alexandroff 183 U.S.A. 424, 437; Jordan v. Tashiro, 278 U.S.A. 123, 127; Factor v. Laubenheimer, 290 U.S.A. 276, 293, 294. However, in this instance, there is no doubt concerning the interpretation of the obligations set forth in the treaty. The treaty explicitly denies any obligation to deliver up citizens in a state of asylum - 'Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens.' Inasmuch as Article

V stipulates that neither of the two parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens, such citizens are necessarily excepted from the agreement set forth in Article I and from the 'persons' described therein. The fact that the exception is contained in a separate article does not alter its effect.

UNCLASSIFIED

This effect is precisely the same one that led to the provision in Article I that both Governments "shall agree ~~to~~ mutually to surrender persons other than their own citizens or individuals."

Of much greater significance is the fact that one common clause, used in many of our treaties and authorizing the exception of nationals by expressly granting discretionary authority to surrender them, was omitted in the treaty with France.

The 1886 treaty with Japan ~~provides in Article VII~~ stipulates in Article VII: "Neither Contracting Party shall be ~~obligated~~ (bound) to surrender its own citizens or individuals ~~by virtue of these stipulations~~ (under this Treaty) hereof, but they may do so if at their discretion they deem that appropriate." A similar stipulation is included in the extradition treaties of 1896 with ~~Argentina and with the Orange~~ (of) Argentina and of 1896 with the Orange Free State. The treaties with Mexico (1899), Guatemala (1903), Nicaragua (1905), and Uruguay (1905) expressly place the discretional authority in the "executive authority." We thus find the following article (Article IV) in the 1899 treaty with Mexico: "Neither ~~of~~ Contracting Party shall be obligated to surrender its own citizens under the stipulations of this agreement, but the executive power of each will have the authority to surrender them if, at its discretion, it deems it appropriate to do so..."

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Applying, as we must, our own laws in determining the powers of the President, we are obliged to maintain that his power, in the absence of any statute vesting an independent power in him, must be based on the terms of the treaty, and that, since the treaty with France does not grant the necessary authority, the President does not possess the power to surrender the persons sought. Regrettable as such lack of authority may be, any ~~remedial action can be taken only by the Congress or the Authorities treaty-making authorities and not by the courst.~~ measure to remedial action is a matter for the Congress or the treaty-making authorities provided that the Parties ~~consent to provide for~~ agree to action the surrender of their nationals, and not for the courts.

27. THAT, ~~xxxx~~ nothing being known to indicate otherwise, this is apparently the uniform jurisprudence of United States courts in all cases in which extradition treaties with other countries provide for the exception established in Article V with the Treaty with the Republic of Chile, viz. "Neither of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this Treaty." If it ~~is~~ be known in advance how the United States courts will apply this clause in cases in which Chile as the requesting State might seek extradition of a U.S. citizen, ~~xxxxxxx a~~ no moral obligation ~~can be discerned~~ to accede to the extradition request in question ~~could not even~~ would be discernible even if the evidence presented against the defendants ~~which is invoked~~ met the requirements established by the 1902 treaty and Chilean law.

UNCLASSIFIED

28. THAT on folio 305 verso of the observations on which the ~~UNITED x ST~~ United States Government Attorney bases his argument for extradition we find the following statement: "Nevertheless, as it has been mistakenly said that the United States would never have granted ~~x~~ a foreign country ~~x x~~ extradition of a U.S. citizen, we shall cite what are merely a few representative examples: extradition of Blas Aguirre (homicide, granted March 26, 1900); extradition of George P. Monroe (homicide, granted January 8, 1912); extradition of Juan Delgado Ortiz (robbery with homicide, granted December 12, 1939); extradition of Santos Ramos (homicide, granted May 8, 1942); extradition of Philip Gallo Bruno (homicide, granted April 23, 1953); extradition of Robert W. Hart, Gerald Bellis, and Leroy Downing (armed robbery, granted July 19, 1957)."

However, the enumeration of those cases of extraditions said to have been granted by United States courts is not accompanied by any indication as to the requesting State and the terms of the respective treaties: it is not said whether or not the treaties contained the exception clause included in Article V of the Treaty of 1902 with the State of Chile, and the assertion just

question
quoted is therefore irrelevant to the ~~matter~~ under examination.

The foregoing is confirmed precisely by the reference with next which Mr. Etcheberry proceeds to "Charlton v. Kelly, 229 U.S.
U.S.
447 (1912), in which the Supreme Court ~~affirmed~~ confirmed the extradition of a U.S. citizen sought by Italy. The decision says: We come to the conclusion that there is no principle of international law that would except citizens of this country from an agreement stipulating the surrender of persons, if the treaty itself does not make an explicit exception ~~in~~ to that effect. On the contrary, the word persons includes all persons when no explicit exception is made, as occurs in some treaties between this country and others." "The fact that this country has provided for this exception in some of its treaties and not in others demonstrates that the Contracting parties were fully aware of the consequences of not including a restrictive clause in respect of the term persons. This interpretation has continually been maintained by the United States ~~and~~ executed and ~~abided~~ observed with respect to those treaties that do not expressly exempt nationals."

UNCLASSIFIED

Any other commentary would be useless in viewof the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court which removes any doubt about the matter in question.

29. THAT, in order to justify the decision that will duly be made and in compliance with Article 83(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, some of the contradictions and absurd or contradictory responses to certain facts established in the proceeding during the investigation conducted by this Court should be made a matter of record.

A. The accused Armando Fernández Larios says in his statement (folio 63) that in his trip to the United States at the end of August 1976 he was the "support agent" of a woman named Liliana Walker who was to carry out a mission in that country. They traveled in a Braniff plane from Pudahuel to Miami and then proceeded in an Eastern Air Lines plane to Washington (this last fact verified by the Court's inspection of folio 51 verso) where they took one room in a hotel as if they were a married couple. However, the accused Pedro Espinoza and Manuel Contreras in their statements, folios 72 verso and 80, respectively, say that this mission of Liliana Walker was to be carried out in the offices of Corfo-Codelco in New York.

Fernández Larios traveled with Liliana Walker, and slept with her in a room in a hotel in Washington as if they were married, on a trip that lasted 15 days, and he states that he does not know who she is, why she went to the United States, and he cannot identify her.

B. On folio 82 verso of his statement, the accused Manuel Contreras says: "I never knew this Mrs. Callejas as an informant or 'ear' of the DINA, but I do not believe that she worked in any way for the service."

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

However, this Mrs. Callejas, whose name is Mariana Inés Callejas Honores, appears on the identification card issued by the Central Nacional de Informaciones /National Intelligence Agency/ as "A. Pizarro" and, according to the statement of Army Captain Cristoph Georg Willike Floel (folio 95) who worked in the DINA and in its successor, the aforementioned C. N. I., from 1973 to July 1978, this identification card is signed by the former Director of the Service, Colonel Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda. Moreover, it was determined in the court's inspection of folio 103 that the identification card with the name "A. Luisa Pizarro Aviles" and the existing photograph in the identification files that corresponds to "Ines Callejas Honores" are of the same person, namely, "Ines Callejas Honores."

In the personal investigation of folio 136 at the Military Hospital of this capital, the patient's record of release fromthat establishment--a photocopy of which appears with No. 102 of the file of documents accompanying the extradition request with the name of Ana Luisa Pizarro Aviles--was shown to Maria Angelica Munoz Mendoza, the gynecology assistant, and the signature of the physician stamped on that card was recognized by Munoz and by Dr. Juan Lombardi Borgoglio, a colonel in the medical service and thedirector of the Military Hospital, as being that of Dr. Oscar Novoa Allende. Dr. Novoa, in his statement on folio 141, acknowledges that all the writing on that release record is in his own handwriting. The patient entered the hospital on August 7, 1976 and was released on August 14, 1976, as stated on the release record.

For those reasons and pursuant to the provisions of Article 653 of the Code of Criminal Procedure,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. In view of what is set forth in grounds 1-8, it is contrary to law to rule on the objections stated in the first subsection of the pleading of folio 502;

2. The request for extradition brought by the Ambassador of the United States, in the name and as representative of his government, against the accused Armando Fernández Larios, Pedro Octavio Espinoza Bravo, and Juan Manuel Guillermo Contreras Sepúlveda, is denied, and they are to be released when this decision becomes final; and

3. A certified copy of this decision shall be duly transmitted to the Second Military Court in Santiago for the purposes of preparation of the appropriate proceeding, if one is not already in progress, to investigate what responsibility may be charged to Fernandez, Espinoza, and Contreras in the homicides of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffit in Washington, D.C., U.S.A. on September 21, 1976, in conformity with the provisions of Article 3(2)(2) of the Code of Military Justice.

TO BE REVIEWED IF NOT APPEALED.

This decision is to be recorded.

Mr. Claus W. Ruser, Director
ARA/ECA, East Coast Affairs
Room 4908
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Claus:

Bill Hallman and I have been puzzling how we would try to explain to a naturally skeptical audience in Washington about the phone calls and notes to their families from reportedly disappeared persons. My reaction right here is that somebody is playing games with somebody. And, it can't all be taken at face value. It would be natural for you to feel at least as dubious.

Some of our best efforts at speculation might inspire audible sneers if we put them in the cable traffic. When I pressed him for an explanation this morning Bill opined (seriously, I believe) that Sra. de Cabezas might have bean abducted and sent to Uruguay by the white hatted security guys because they had learened that the black hats were planning to zap her to embarrass the government. Such formulas require a heroic suspension of disbelief. Her family believes she is alive and well, just as the Barreirros' family believe they are safe. We are trying to get in touch with the missing junkman's family to see if they have heard anything. That seems clearly to be a case of police extortion of criminals, so we don't quite know how the military will choose to deal with it. (They would probably prefer to ignore it, since relations with the police are sensitive at best.) Whatever the facts behind these odd disappearances and subsequent phone calls,it is indisputable that there has been a dramatic decline, if not total halt, to abductions, torture and murders. This is something I had grave doubts could be achieved.

If the Ambassador returns as currently shheduled, I plan to join my wife in California for several weeks' leave, departing here May 24. We will be staying for about 8 days with [redacted] you ask Chuck to give me a call there on the 29th or 30th so I can pass on my plans for the rest of the vacation?

The distinguished Ambassador Meyer Landrut of the German F.O. was in town for a day or so last week and we are puzzled why there was no mention of it in the press. Last Friday there was a large stag dinner party for him given by the German Minister - with the Ambassador attending but not hosting - and from the feverish rushing around it was clear he had a busy schedule. I did not get a chance to do more than exchange greetings with him, and the host said only that he had been visiting Chile and was going to Caracas or Panama or some place for a Chiefs of Mission meeting. They could hardly have expected that his visit would be a secret after inviting thirity or forty talkative Argentines and diplomats to dine with him, but the lack of publicity still puzzles me.

Local attention remains focussed on foreign reaction to the jailing of labor leaders, the imminent publication of the labor law, the ILO meeting, and the visit of the international labor leaders. The IACHR visit was also on some reporter's list, for he raised it with the Foreign Minister in an interview last week, but it has not been headline material. The EC and other diplomats seem to be taking considerable pleasure from gigging me about the protest I was given with much publicity about Reston's statement on the jailings. I have found it effective to respond with a question on how soon they expect their Foreign Ministries to issue similar statements, and how they plan to field the resulting protests.

At the time John Finan is having his seminar on Argentina, the local Council on Foreign Relations will be having its third and fourth lectures on Human Rights in international relations. Col. Cerda will speak May 24 on International Human Rights Law. See the enclosed brochure.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Description of Permanent Assembly

Rabbi Graetz reported that the Assembly is a broad based movement composed of the families of disappeared and detained people, representatives of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish religious groups (in official and unofficial capacity), unions (with more joining), and concerned citizens.

Its functions are as follows:

-- The Assembly is the focal point for information about disappearances. Families report disappearances to the Assembly and receive information, legal advice and counseling. The Assembly has a committee which focuses and reports on women who disappear while pregnant, as well as the children of those who disappear,1 and soldiers who disappear. The Assembly places ads about disappearances in local newspapers. (One with 2,500 names was placed in La Prensa.)

-- The Assembly engages in direct representations to the leadership of the Argentine military government regarding human rights.

1/ Rabbi Graetz reported that the children of those who disappear are sometimes illegally adopted or in other instances given to officers, sent to orphan homes or given to relatives. Pregnant women in jail now can keep their babies for 6 months at which time the children are given to relatives for safe keeping.

UNCLASSIFIED

82D103
Box 17404

-- The Assembly has a Lawyers Committee which has put forward several significant class action law suits dealing with the legal status of both disappeared and detainees (PEN prisoners). The suits have succeeded in getting the Supreme Court to request the Executive Branch for information about disappeared cases.

-- The Assembly maintains contact on an informal basis with the Inter-American Human Rights Commission, Amnesty International, and other international organizations.

-- The Assembly assists visitors from abroad looking into the human rights situation.

Organizationally, the Assembly has an office and a growing staff. There is one Executive Secretary and four assistants.

Request for Funds

The Assembly's funds come from the World Council of Churches, the Catholic Churches in Europe and from individuals in Argentina. Its budget is $400,000.

Funds are needed for future programs. The Assembly will concentrate on cases of disappearances, prison conditions, persons detained without trials, migrants, health and education given the growing problem of illiteracy and public school drop-outs, as well as additional law suits and reports.

Funds also will be needed to pay for printing and distribution costs and to place costly ads in newspapers on disappeared cases. Since the Assembly receives no news coverage in Argentina, it must place paid ads in newspapers. The Assembly further had to buy its own printing press because others would not print its materials.

The Assembly also seeks to open regional offices in order to enlarge the collection of information on human rights cases in the interior.

Jonathan Silverstone suggested that AID 116e funds might be channeled to the Permanent Assembly through the Center for Law and Social Policy. The funds could be used for legal defense, counseling, assistance to families, publications and other ways to promote civil and political liberties. Pat Flood said he would contact Leonard Meeker to discuss the possibility and then inform Tex at the Embassy who would in turn contact Rabbi Graetz and others at the Assembly. In the event that Mr. Pimenthal of the Assembly visited Washington at the end of May, Pat would set up a meeting for him with Leonard Meeker to discuss this proposal.

Mr. Claus W. Ruser, Director
ARA/ECA, East Coast Affairs,
Room 4908
Department of State,
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Claus:

[redacted] This is in hasty reply to your letter of May 11. When is a disappearance not a disappearance? At the moment all we have which are not qualified are strange phone calls and notes saying they are well are the junk man and the A.I. case of Morero. Yvonne has been checking with all the human rights groups and can find no trace of the latter. If she can't come up with some traces by weekend we will be responding with a request for more information, such as where and when, and a local address for the missing person.

[redacted] The thesis that so long as the repressive apparatus remains in place illegal operations will continue as the virtues of many catch-phrases: there may be some truth to it. However it can also be misleading. To the extent that the security apparatus is part of a disciplined, if deliberately decentralized system, it is susceptible to some command and control. The dramatic reduction in disappearances is evidence of that. It also has the potential for and a lot of practice at illegal operations, so if the spirit moves some group they can go off and commit all sorts of atrocities. The converse is not true, however. Removing the security forces does not remove the capability or disposition to engage in criminal activities. The police have been legendary for this for years. We hear that Admiral Massera has his own group of thugs, and that General Suarez Mason has a tight little group of hard guys willing to do his bidding. This is in the fine old Argentine tradition of resorting to force when you can't get your way otherwise. In this kind of context the threat of an adverse MDB vote continues to be surreal.

[redacted] Thanks for the COHA flier on the Georgetown seminar. We can have some fun around here with that, but not with Bunge (who lacks even a shred of a sense of humor). We had a pretty good idea something of the sort would happen, and tried to hint to Bunge, but he's not used to being criticized. Bill Barnes of Fletcher who has been down here at Aja Espil's invitation to look at the Beagle problem thought the seminar was pretty good. It has gotten a very limited, but good press down here so far.

(U) Since the opportunity arises so seldom, I am going to engage in the luxury of 'I told you so.' There is enclosed a copy of my letter of last August to Jim Bumpus on the outlook for the AU seminar. It is one of the few instances in which my crystall ball was completely clear.

[redacted] Col. San Roman told Ken Sackett just a couple of hours ago that we would be getting 4 or 5 right of option cases on this week's list. He also said that the PEN prisoners were down to 2100, but Ken was unable to go into detail with him on how that came about, as our figures would be several hundred higher. Ken says he believes San Roman on this since his figures have always squared with the figures on the bulletin boards in the prisons which show prisoner totals by category. We will presumably be getting an explanation of how the total was lowered, thoughit may not be from San Roman. We have now been told by the Foreign Office that we are to deal with them on right of option, not the Ministry of Interior. San Roman, who has been helpful and a candid source, says the reason is that the FO wants to be the channel of information to the Foreign embassies for otherwise it rarely knows what's going on. San Roman also told Ken that there were a total of 133 prisoners who have received theRight of Option under the current and previous programs.

[redacted] Tony will be delighted to get your bouquets on his fine reporting. He will probably be able to tell you more than you really wanted to hear about the military's relations with various elements of the labor movement and the range of opinion within the military on how the movement should be organized. He suspects that perhaps the current government is capable of some reforms which could have a fundamental effect on the political power of organized labor and could change the rules by which modern Argentine politics have been played for the past 35 years. I reaain my skepticism. The local assumption is that any military leader who wants to retain a CGT-type organization does so with a view towards receiving its support in a presidential election -- the Peron pattern. We know that there has been a lot of division within the armed forces over the trade union law, and it will be interesting to see what it looks like after these extended birth pangs.

[redacted] Rumors of Aja Espil's replacement are periodic. We have not heard any for several weeks, so we had not given the matter much attention. It is true that he has been a lightning rod for the criticism of the US responding to US criticism of Argentina. I would not be surprised to see him go any day, but have no reason to expect that at the moment. There was virtually no play of the Zorinsky letter in the Argentine press.

[redacted] Your marginal note on the Beagle dispute appears to read that you have seen disclaimers of hostile Videla statementss Some press source told a mission member that Videla had to say something stiff since he was rumored to have said earlier when asked about the possibility of unsatisfactory mediation, "better to lose to the Pope than to Chile." We will check closely to confirm any reports of untimely Argentine military maneuvers. I do not recall seeing any such reports, but we will put the Attaches to work.

Sincerely,

Maxwell Chaplin

2. "EL MERCURIO" AND "LA TERCERA" HEADLINED RECALL OF AMBASSADOR LANDAU FOR CONSULTATIONS. AFTERNOON TABLOID "LA SEGUNDA" BANNERED AP STORY THAT PRESIDENT PERSONALLY ORDERED LANDAU HOME. "EL MERCURIO" LED OFF WITH AN UNOFFICIAL EMBASSY TRANSLATION OF HOODING CARTER'S MAY 15 STATEMENT ON SUPREME COURT CHIEF JUSTICE BORQUEZ' DENIAL OF EXTRADITION AND FOLLOWED UP WITH WIRE SERVICE-PROVIDED REACTION FROM FEDERAL PROSECUTOR PROPPER AND SECRETARY OF JUSTICE BELL. PROPPER WAS CITED AS DECRYING BORQUEZ' FAILURE TO MAKE PUBLIC EVIDENCE PRESENTED IN THE CASE AND CONCLUDING THAT IF THE FINAL DECISION IS THE SAME, THE SUREME COURT WILL HAVE GIVEN ITS APPROVAL TO AN ACT OF INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM. "TERCERA" COVERAGE WAS EXTENSIVE AND GAVE HEAVY PLAY TO KENNEDY, CHURCH CALLS FOR SANCTIONS, A "COMPLETE REVIEW" OF U.S.- CHILE TIES, AND AMBASSADOR LANDAU'S "INDEFINITE" RETURN TO WASHINGTON. "LA SEGUNDA" CARRIED CONFLICTING REPORTS MAY 15 AS TO THE SUPPOSEDLY IMMINENT DEPARTURE OF THE AMBASSAOR AND BANNERED AN INTERVIEW WITH AN UNNAMED INTERNATIONAL LAW EXPERT WHO ASSERTED THAT THE THREE ACCUSED EX-DINA OFFICIALS SOUTHT BY THE U.S. WOULD NOTT BE EXEMPT FROM TRIAL IN CHILE BY VIRTUE OF THE AMNESTY DECREE PROCLAIMED IN 1978 BECAUSE

THE CRIME WAS NOT COMMITTED IN CHILE.

3. GOC-OWNED DAILY TABLOID "EL CRONISTA" DOWNPLAYED LANDAU'S DEPARTURE, LIMITING COVERAGE OF U.S. REACTION TO THE AMBASSADOR'S PRE-FLIGHT PRESS CONFERENCE THE EVENING OF THE 15TH AND TO A QUICK SUMMARY OF THE DEPARTMENT COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY HODDING CARTER. BY CONTRAST, CHILEAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS MI NISTRY RESPONSE AND JUNTA MEMBER ADMIRAL MERINO'S OMMENTS REJECTING FOREIGN INTERFERENCE IN INTERNAL CHILEAN AFFAIRS RECEIVED PRIDE OF PLACE.

4. TABLOID "ULTIMAS NOTICIAS" HEADLINED MERINO'S ASSERTION THAT "NOBODY WILL SHOW US HOW TO DISPENSE JUSTICE" AND DEVOTED TWO PAGES AND SEVEN ASSOCIATED STORIES TO THE U.S. REACTION, LANDAU'S RETURN TO WASHINGTON, AND THE DECLARATION OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY. MERINO STRUCK A DEFIANT NOTE BY REJECTING WHAT HE TERMED "A CHALLENGE ("DESAFIO") TODAY TO THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THIS NATION" FROM "A COUNTRY WHICH CONSIDERS ITSELF GREAT," AT A MILITARY CLUB CEREMONY MAY 15 HONORING CHILEAN NAVAL VICTORIES 100 YEARS AGO. THE NAVY

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF RETURNED TO THE THEME AFTER DEFENDING THE CHILEAN JUDICIARY, REMARKING "WE THEREFORE REFUSE TO ALLOW OTHER COUNTRIES -- NO MATTER HOW POWERFUL OR LARGE -- TO SHOW HOW TO DISPENSE JUSTICE, BECAUSE WE ARE SOVEREIGN AND WILL DISPENSE IT IN ACCORDANCE WITH OUR LAWS."

5. INTERIOR MINISTER SERGIO FERNANDEZ, IN A SURPRISINGLY LOW-KEY REACTION, EXPRESSED HIS HOPE MAY 15 THAT U.S.-CHILEAN RELATIONS DO NOTT EXPERIENCE DETERIORATION AS A RESULT OF THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE'S RULING. FERNANDEZ REFUSED TO COMMENT ON THE DECISION, INDICATING THAT "FROM THE START EVERYTHING HAVING TO DO WITH THE LETELIER CASE WAS TURNED OVER TO THE COURTS FOR THEIR DISPOSITION." THE INTERIOR MINISTER, HOWEVER, UNLEASHED A VERBAL BLAST AT SENATOR KENNEDY FOR HAVING INTRODUCED, ACCORDING TO WIRE REPORTS, A RESOLUTION PROPOSING THE COMPLETE SUSPENSION OF DIPLOMATIC, ECONOMIC, AND FINANCIAL TIES BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES. FERNANDEZ STATED "HIS (KENNEDY'S) ACTIONS MUST BE CONSIDEREDIN LIGHT OF FROM WHOM THEY COME," A MORE OFFENSIVE IN SPANISH THAN IN ENGLISH MANNER OF EXPRESSING DISDAIN.

6. ALL MORNIGN DAILIES CARRIED THE FOREING MINISTRY DECLARATION (SEE SANTIAGO 3372 FOR UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION) IN ITS ENTIRETY, WITH "EL MERCURIO" FRONT-PAGING THE TEXT. "EL MERCURIO" ALSO FRONT-PAGED KENNEDY'S CALL FRO THE AFL-CIO TO CONSIDER THE VERDICT WHEN DECIDING WHETHER TO IMPOSE A BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN SHIPPING POSTPONED EARLIER THIS YEAR AND RAN AN UNCOMPLIMENTARY PHOTO SHOWING KENNEDY BEING GROOMED FOR A TELEVISION APPEARANCE.

7. "LA SEGUNDA," IN ITS MAY 15 EDITION, CARRIED AN INTERVIEW WITH SAUL LANDAU, OF THE INSTITUTE OF POLICY STUDIES (IPS), WHERE HE SUCCEEDED ORLANDO LETELIER. SAUL LANDAU'S DENUNCIATIONS LIMITED [redacted]

OF THE CHILEAN VERDICT WERE ACCOMPANIED BY DISAPPOINTMENT IN SILBERT'S FAILURE TO NEGOTIATE MORE STRENUOUSLY WITH TOWNLEY TO FOLLOW UP ON HIS ACTIVITIES IN ITALY, ARGENTINA, AND MEXICO. THE IPS OFFICIAL ADDED A NEW TWIST TO THE DISCUSSION BY PROCLAIMING HIS BELIEF THAT CHILE HAS A RIGHT TO REQUEST THE EXTRADITION OF FORMER CIA DIRECTOR RICHARD HELMS FOR THE ASSASSINATION OF CHILEAN GENERAL RENE SCHNEIDER, IN ORDER TO "PUT AN END TO, ONCE AND FOR ALL, POLITICAL MURDERS." HE ALSO ASSERTED THAT THE USG HAS OBTAINED MATERIAL WHICH CONTRERAS ALLEGEDLY TRIED TO SHIP INTO HIDING ABROAD.

8. THE AMBASSADOR'S DEPARTURE FROM PUDAHUEL AIRPORT THE EVENING OF MAY 15 AND HIS IMPROMPTU PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE FACILITY RECEIVED FULL COVERAGE IN ALL DAILIES MAY 16. MEMBERS OF THE APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED ONLOOKERS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE BOTH APPLAUDED THE AMBASSADOR AND SHOUTED DEROGATORY REMARKS.. (COMMENT: WE HEARD THE APPLAUSE, BUT NO BOOS.) LANDAU'S QUESTION-AND-ANSWER SESSION WITH THE PRESS WAS REPLAYED ON AT LEAST TWO TELEVISION NEWS SHOWS WITHIN THE HOUR. LANDAU WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS MAY 16 AS REFUSING TO SPECULATE WHETHER HE WILL BE PERMANENTLY WITHDRAWN FROM HIS EMBASSY, BUT POINTING OUT THE THE DEPARTMENT STATEMENT SPECIFICALLY REFERS ONLY TO CONSULTATIONS. LANDAU DID NOT DESIGN TO RESPOND TO CONTRERAS' ALLEGATION THAT THE LETELIER CASE WAS A "SHOW" STAGED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. LANDAU ALSO DECLINED TO ANSWER A JOURNALIST'S QUERY ABOUT HIS OPINION OF THE BRIEF PREPARED LAST MONTH BY FISCAL CHAMORRO, REFERRING THE QUESTION TO USG CHILEAN LAWYER ETCHEBERRY. THE AMBASSADOR INDICATED THAT U.S.- CHILE RELATIONS WOULD BE SUBJECTED TO AN OVERALL REVIEW BACK IN WASHINGTON, AND THAT HE WOULD BE IN A BETTER POSITION TO CONVEY THE RESULTS OF THE PROCEDURE UPON HIS RETURN. "EL MERCURIO" SUBHEADLINED LANDAU'S ANSWER TO THE QUESTION: WOULD HE RETURN? "POR SUPUESTO" (OF COURSE).

9. EDITORIAL COMMENT ON AMERICAN MEASURES IN "LA TERCERA" DECRIED WHAT IT TERMED A "NEW VERSION" (RE-EDICION) OF "BIG STICK" DIPLOMACY. "TERCERA" CHARACTERIZED AMERICAN AUTHORITIES AS "PERHAPS BADLY INFORMED -- BELIEVEING THAT A TOUGH ATTITUDE

WILL CAUSE HIGH COURT JUSTICES TO CHANGE ISRAEL BORQUEZ' DECISION." "EL MERCURIO" WEIGHED IN WITH AN EDITORIAL BASED ON HISTORICAL ANALOGIES BY ADMIRAL MERINO, DESIGNED TO SHOW THAT "CHILEANS WILL NEVER BE SLAVES OF ANYBODY" AND INVOKING THE WAR OF THE PACIFIC AND THE BORDER CONFLICT WITH ARGENTINA OVER BEAGLE CHANNEL ISLANDS AS FOSTERING THIS SENTIMENT. MERINO'S RHETORIC MAY 15 (ABOVE) WAS TONED DOWN TO REACH THE CONCLUSION THAT CHILE SHOULD CONFRONT INTERNATIONAL AND ECONOMIC PRESSURES IN A "SERNE AND LOFTY MANNER." "SEGUNDA" MAY 16 SAID USG PRESSURES APPARENTLY AIMED AT FORCING GOC TO ABSORB JUDICIAL AS WELL AS LEGISLATIVE AND EXECUTIVE POWERS -- THUS VIOLATING DUE PROCESS AND ENCOURAGING THE CREATION OF "A TOTALITARIAN GOVERNMENT."

10. WEEKLY NEWSMAGAZINES "HOY" AND "ERCILLA" FOR THE WEEK MAY 16-22 WENT TO PRESS AFTER THE BORQUEZ DECISION BECAME KNOWN BUT BEFORE WASHINGTON REACTION. "HOY" FEATURED A BRIEF RUNDONW ON THE DELIVERY OF THE VERDICT, THE DEFENDANTS' REACTIONS, AND BORQUEZ' PRESS CONFERENCE AT WHICH HE DISPLAYED THE ORIGINAL OF HIS OPINION (PRESUMABLY TO LAY TO REST UNKIND RUMORS THAT HIS ONLY TASK WAS TO WAIT FOR THE DECISION AS WRITTEN IN THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH BUILDING DIEGO PORTALES). "ERCILLA" SPECULATED THAT THE OPENING OF AN INVESTIGATION INTO THE LETELIER CASE BY A MILITARY COURT, AS CALLED FOR IN THE OPINION, WOULD DEFUSE WASHINGTON CONCERN AND AVERT A ""*8 743" IN CHILEAN RELATIONS WITH THE U.S.

11. COMMENT: PREDICTABLY, GOC SO FAR IS PLAYING UP TWO BASIC LINES: A) BY GOING THE EXTRADITION ROUTE, THE USG PLACED (AND BY APPEALING STILL PLACES) ITS FULL CONFIDENCE IN THE CHILEAN JUDICIARY AS AN INDEPENDENT, SERIOUS INSTITUTION; THUS IT CANNOT CRY FOUL BECAUSE IT DOESN'T LIKE THE BORQUEZ DECISION; AND B) ANY AND ALL OUTSIDE PRESSURES MUST BE RESISTED IN THE NAME OF

CHILEAN HONOR. THE GOVERNMENT HAS PLAYED ON THE CHAUVINIST CHORD MANY TIMES IN THE PAST WITH GENERALLY SATISFACTORY RESULTS. SO FAR THERE HAS BEEN RELATIVELY LITTLE ATTENTION PAID TO THE JUDGE'S ORDER FOR A MILITARY TRIAL. THE RATHER STIFF TONE OF THE FOREIGN MINISTRY STATEMENT HAS BEEN NOTED. AT LEAST ONE KNOWLEDGEABLE LOCAL OBSERVER SYMPATHETIC TO THE GOC MILDLY CRITICIZED IT AS PREMATURE.

SUBJECT: (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - MAY 17, 1979

REF: BUENOS AIRES 3756

([redacted]) SUMMARY: MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS EVENTS OF THE WEEK WERE UNCONFIRMED LATE REPORTS OF "DISAPPEAREDS" BROUGHT TO BUENOS AIRES AND THE REPORTED REAPPEARANCE IN JAIL OF SOCIALIST PARTY MEMBER LILIANA AMAYA AFTER TEN DAYS DETENTION INCOMMUNICADO. THE RECENT PHONE AND LETTER COMMUNICATIONS FROM MISSING PERSONS ROBERT AND MARIA BARREIRO AND THELMA JARA DE CABEZAS WERE REPORTED IN SEPTELS. ALSO, DURING THE WEEK FOREIGN MINISTER PASTRO SPOKE OF THE IACHR VISIT, ARGENTINA'S ELECTION TO THE UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE WAS WIDELY REPORTED IN THE PRESS. [redacted]

HIS PENSION AND PLITICAL ACTIVITIES IN THE UNIVERSITIES ARE LIKELY TO BE BANNED BY A NEW UNIVERSITIES LAW.

MRS. TIMERMAN REPORTED ON HER HUSBAND'S CONDITION. GOA IS PREPARING A "WHITE PAPER" OR POSSIBLY A SERIES OF STATEMENTS ON ITS VERSION OF THE REPRESSION OF SUBVERSIVES. WE HAVE REPORTS OF A POSSIBLE VISIT BY US JEWISH AUTHOR ELLIE WIESEL. END SUMMARY.

1. (U) FOREIGN MINISTER PASTOR ON THE IACHR VISIT ----
IN A MAY 13 PRESS INTERVIEW, ARGENTINE FOREIGN MINISTER PASTOR DECLARED THAT THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS VISIT WOULD NOT CHANGE IN ANY WAY THE TERMS OF THE ORIGINAL ARGENTINE INVITATION. THE POSTPONEMENT WAS WHOLLY DUE TO INTERNAL OAS PROBLEMS, HE SAID. PASTOR SAID THAT GOA "KNOWS THE COMMISSION WILL HEAR VOICES CRITICAL OF OUR GOVERNMENT, BUT IT WILL ALSO HEAR OURS. WE ARE SSURED OF OUR POSITION--THAT WE DID NOT INITIATE THE NOW-DEFEATED SUB-VERSIVE WAR AND THAT OUR OBJECTIVE IS SINGULAR AND CLEAR, THE FULL RESTORATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES." PASTOR ADDED THAT THE WORLD SHOULD KNOW THAT ARGENTINES ARE THE FIRST INTERESTED IN ENDING HUMAN RIGHTS PROB-LEMS AND THAT AN HONES APPRAISAL WILL CONFIRM THAT GREAT STRIDES HAVE ALREADY BEEN MADE.

2. (U) ARGENTINA ELECTED TO UN HUMAN RIGHTS BODY--
THE FOREIGN MINISTRY ANNOUNCED MAY 12 THAT ARGENTINA WAS UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED A MEMBER OF THE NEWLY EXPANDED HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE OF THE UN ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL. THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED THAT ARGENTINE MARIO AMADEO "HAS JOINED" THE SUBCOMMITTEE FOR THE PREVENTION OF RAICAL DISCRIMINATION AND PROTECTION OF MINORITIES. THE RELEASE STATED THAT "ARGENTINA'S PRESENCE IN THESE

[redacted]

INTERNATIONAL FORUMS IMPLIES A SERIES OF RESPONSIBILITIES AND ARE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COUNTRY'S INTEREST IN THIS FIELD."

3. (U) COURT PERMITS CAMPORA TO SUE---
A FEDERAL COURT HAS OPENED THE WAY FOR FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA TO CLAIM HIS PRESIDENTIAL PENSION. CAMPORA'S PENSION HAD BEEN BLOCKED BY THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL WELFARE BECAUSE OF HIS INCLUSION UNDER THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT. THE COURT RULED THAT CAMPORA COULD SUE FOR HIS PENSION, REJECTING THE MINISTRY'S ARGUMENTS THAT CAMPORA'S ASSETS WERE FROZEN UNDER THE ACT AND THAT CAMPORA COULD NOT SUE BECAUSE HE DID NOT RESIDE IN ARGENTINA, BUT IN THE EXTRATERRITORIAL CONFINES OF THE MEXICAN EMBASSY. THE MINISTRY WILL APPEAL THE DECISION TO THE SUPREME COURT.

4. (U) ABEL MEDINA'S ASSETS CONFISCATED BY STATE--PERONIST LEADER ABEL MEDINA, WHO HAS SHARED ASYLUM WITH HECTOR CAMPORA IN THE MEXICAN EMBASSY SINCE 1976, WAS STRIPPED OF ALL HIS ASSETS BY DECISION OF THE NATIONAL COMMISSION ON PATRIMONIAL RESPONSIBILITY. THE COMMISSION SAID MEDINA HAD NOT SHOWN PROOF OF MEDINA'S LEGAL ACQUISITION OF HIS GOOD, WHICH WERE EMBARGOED WHEN HE WAS PLACED UNDER THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT IN 1976.

5. (U) POLITICS WILL BE BANNED AT UNIVERSITIES---ARGENTINE EDUCATION MINISTER LLERENA AMADEO SAID MAY 10 THAT THE NEW UNIVERSITY LAW WILL BAN POLITICAL ACTIVITY FROM NATIONAL UNIVERSITIES AND WILL PROHIBIT UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS FROM HOLDING POSTS WITH POLITICAL PARTIES. THE MINISTER EXPLAINED THAT THE POLITICAL BAN WAS ESSENTIAL SINCE UNIVERSITIES ARE SOUNDING BOARDS AND IF THEY BECOME POLITICAL ONES, IT CREATES A STRUGGLE WHICH HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THEIR FUNCTION."

6. [redacted] JACOBO TIMERMAN UPDATE----
MRS. JACOBO TIMERMAN TOLD EMBOFF MAY 16 THAT SHE HAS RETUNED TO BUENOS AIRES FROM ISRAEL TO BE WITH HER HUSBAND, THEIR HOPES HAVING FADED THAT HE WOULD SHORTLY BE RELEASED TO EMIGRATE TO ISRAEL. SHE SAID THEIR LAWYER HAD APPEALED TO A CIVIL COURT THE RECENT DECISION OF THE NATIONAL COMMISSION ON PATRIMONIAL RECOVERY CONFISCATING TIMERMAN'S SHARES IN LA OPINION, A PRINTING PLANT AND A SMALL APARTMENT. TIMERMAN, SHE SAID, IS WELL BUT REMAINS DEPRESSED. HE RECEIVES HIS RABBI, BROTHER AND A RELATIVE PHYSICIAN REGULARLY, CAN HAVE ANY LOCAL READING MATERIAL AND RECEIVES ALL HIS MAIL UNTOUCHED EXCEPT THAT WHICH COMES IN ENGLISH, ACCORDING TO MRS. TIMERMAN. HE CAN SPEAK TO HIS CHILDREN AND RELATIVES BY PHONE. TIMERMAN WAS ESCORTED TO AN EYE CLINIC WHERE HIS EYE CONDITION WAS SUCCESSFULLY TREATED AND HE IS NOT DENIED ACCESS TO DENTISTS OR OTHER

SPECIALISTS. MRS. TIMERMAN DENIED RUMORS THAT HER HUSBAND WAS GOING ON A HUNGER STRIKE TO PROTEST HIS SITUATION. SHE SAID HE DISTRACTS HIMSELF BY WORKING INTERMITTENTLY ON A DETECTIVE STORY. MRS. TIMERMAN SAID NEITHER SHE NOR HER HUSBAND ENTERTAIN FALSE HOPES ABOUT AN EARLY RELEASE. SHE EXPRESSED APPRECIATION FOR AMBASSADOR CASTRO'S VISIT TO HER HUSBAND AND THE CONTINUING INTEREST SHOWN BY CONGRESSMEN CONTE AND GILMAN.

7. (U) MINOR SENTENCED FOR SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES---
A MINOR WHOSE NAME WAS WITH HELD BECAUSE OF HIS AGE WAS SENTENCED TO FOUR YEARS OF PRISON IN SANTIAGO DEL ESTERO PROVINCE FOR RECRUITING SECONDARY STUDENTS INTO THE ERP AND OTHER SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES.

8. GOA MAY REVEAL DETAILS OF ANTI-SUBVERSIVE FIGHT----

ROBERTO GARCIA OF LA OPINION PREDICTED IN THE MAY 16 EDITION THAT THE GOVERNMENT MAY SOON BEGIN TO DISSEMINATE DOCUMENTS AND REPORTS REVEALING GREATER DETAILS OF THE ANTI-SUBVERSION FIGHT. THESE WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED REPORTS WOULD PUT THE GOVERNMENT ON THE OFFENSIVE IN EXPLAINING THE SUBVERSIVE PROBLEM INSTEAD OF PASSIVELY DEFENDING ITSELD FROM ACCUSATIONS ORGINATING ABROAD. GARCIA SPECULATED THAT THE PROJECT HAD THE APPORVAL AND COLLABORATION OF THE THREE ARMED FORCES AS WELL AS THE PRESIDENCY AND SEVERAL MINISTRIES AND WOULD HELP DEMONSTRATE BOTH THE COST AND RESULT OF THE DEFEAT OF SUBVERSION IN THE COUNTRY.

9. (U) HERALD CRITICIZES US RESPONSE TO CHILE---
THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD SOUNDLY CIRITCIZED THE USG RESPONSE TO CHILE'S REFUSAL TO EXTRADITE THREE OFFICIALS ACCUSED IN THE LETELIER MURDER CASE. CLAIMING THAT THE [redacted]

CIA WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR FAR WORSE CRIMES IN THE PURSUIT OF US OBJECTIVES, THE HERALD EDITORIAL DEPLORED THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S " PERSISTENCE IN TREATING SOVEREIGN STATES TO THE SOUTH AS JUVENILE DELIQUENTS WHO MUST BE BULLIED FOR THEIR OWN GOOD." ALTHOUGH QUESTIONABLE, THE CHILEAN SUPREME COURT DECISION WAS LEGITIMATE AND PROBABLY APPROPRIATE-- (WOULD THE US EXTRADITE A CIA DIRECTOR TO STAND TRIAL IN MOSCOW FOR SOME MURDER COMMITTED BY ONE OF HIS SUBORDINATES?, ASKS THE HERALD.) BY TREATING THAT DECISION WITH CONTEMPT, THE US "MERELY GIVES EXTRA STRENGTH TO THE FORCES IT IS SEEKING TO DEBILITATE."

10. [redacted]XDS-4) THE EMBASSY RECEIVED A LATE REPORT FROM A SOMETIMES RELIABLE SOURCE, WHO QUOTED AN ARGENTINE PRISON OFFICIAL, THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF "DISAPPEAREDS"-- THE NUMBER GIVEN WAS A DIFFICULT-TO-CREDIT 3,000-- HAD RECENTLY BEEN TRANSFERRED TO BUENOS AIRES AND ARE HELD IN EXTREMELY CROWDED CONDITIONS BY THE ARMY AT CAMPO DE MAYO AND BY THE NAVY AT THE "PUERTO NUEVO" AREA OF THE BUENOS AIRES WATERFRONT. THE PRISON SOURCE PROFESSED FEAR FOR THE SAFETY OF THESE PRISONERS, SINCE THEIR EXPERIENCES CONSTITUTE AND INDICTMENT OF THE EXISTING GOVERNMENT. WE REGARD THIS INFORMATION AS A LEAD TO BE FOLLOWED UP BY OTHER MEANS, RATHER THAN AS A PIECE OF HARD INFORMATION. THE PRISON

SOURCE ALSO STATED THAT AT VILLA DEVOTO 300 WOMEN HAD ALREADY BEEN CLEARED OF CHARGES BUT COULD NOT BE RELEASED BECAUSE OF OPPOSITION BY PRISON DIRECTOR RUIZ, BACKED BY HARDLINE ELEMENTS IN THE MILITARY.

11. [redacted] AN IMPORTANT JEWISH CONTACT OF THE EMBASSY HAS INFORMED US THAT AMERICAN JEWISH AUTHOR AND LECTURER ELLIE WIESEL MAY BE PLANNING A TRIP TO ARGENTINA TO LOOK INTO THE GENERAL SITUATION HERE AND TO PLEAD THE CASE OF JACOBO TIMERMAN. WIESEL IS REPORTED

TAGS: SHUM, AR

SUBJECT: DAS GUZMAN MEETING WITH MINISTER DALTON OF ARGENTINE EMBASSY

REF: STATE 123460

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT)

2. DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY RALPH GUZMAN MET WITH ROBERT DALTON, MINISTER OF ARGENTINE EMBASSY, MAY 16 TO PRESENT HIM WITH REPORTED DISAPPEARANCE CASE OF MARIO MARRERO (SEE REFTEL) AND REQUEST THAT GOA CONDUCT INVESTIGATION OF THIS REPORT AND SEEK TO ESTABLISH WHEREABOUTS OF MARRERO. GUZMAN THEN INFORMED DALTON THAT WE ARE PLEASED WITH DRAMATIC DECLINE IN THE NUMBER OF DISAPPEARANCES THAT HAS OCCURRED SINCE EARLY FEBRUARY AND WITH THE GOA'S EXPEDITIOUS REPLIES TO OUR REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION. HE NOTED THAT WE STILL RECEIVED SOME REPORTS OF DISAPPEARANCES THAT REMAIN A MATTER OF CONCERN TO US, AND REITERATED OUR HOPE - BASED ON THE ASSURANCES OF AMBASSADOR AJA ESPIL - THAT ALL DISAPPEARANCES WOULD CEASE, THAT THOROUGH INVESTIGATIONS WOULD BE CONDUCTED OF ALL REPORTED DISAPPEARANCES, AND THAT ACTION WOULD BE TAKEN AGAINST RESPONSIBLE ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES. GUZMAN MENTIONED RECENT PUZZLING CASES IN WHICH GOA HAS BEEN UNABLE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION ON WHEREABOUTS OF MISSING PERSONS WHO HAVE RECENTLY COMMUNICATED WITH FRIENDS OR RELATIVES AND SAID WE HOPE THAT THESE WILL SOON BE RESOLVED.

3. GUZMAN THEN ADDRESSED ISSUES OF RIGHT OF OPTION CASES AND EXPRESSED OUR HOPE THAT THE GOA WOULD ACCELERATE THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES FOR CONSIDERING APPLICATIONS. HE NOTED REMARKS BY GENERAL VIOLA IN APRIL TO AMBASSADOR CASTRO THAT WE COULD SOON ANTICIPATE MOVEMENT IN APPROVING APPLICATIONS AND ASKED THAT THE GOA DO ALL IN ITS POWER TO EXPEDITE ACTION SO THAT WE CAN AVOID SITUATIONS IN WHICH WE AIR OUR DIFFERENCES PUBLICLY ON THE PROGRAM. GUZMAN ASKED THAT WE BE QUICKLY INFORMED OF ANY ACTIONS THE GOA BELIEVES WE MIGHT UNDERTAKE TO AID IN EXPEDITING MOVEMENT ON RIGHT OF OPTION CASES.

4. DALTON ACCEPTED REPORT OF MARRERO DISAPPEARANCE AND PROMISED THAT HE WOULD FORWARD IT IMMEDIATELY TO GOA FOR INVESTIGATION. HE ASSURED GUZMAN THAT ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT IS FULLY COMMITTED TO END DISAPPEARANCES DEFINITIVELY. ACKNOWLEDGING THAT SOME DISAPPEARANCES HAVE TAKEN PLACE, HE SAID THAT GOA IS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH ALL THE FACTS IN EACH CASE. IN REGARD TO REPORTED DISAPPEARANCE OF THELMA DOROTY JARA DE CABEZAS, WHOSE DISAPPEARANCE WE HAD REPORTED EARLIER TO ARGENTINE EMBASSY, DALTON SAID THAT THEY HAD NOT YET RECEIVED A REPORT ON HER CASE FROM BUENOS AIRES BUT THEY WERE PRESSING FOR INFORMATION. ON RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM, DALTON SAID THAT OUR DIFFERENCES IN STATISTICS WERE PROBABLY DUE TO DIFFERENCES IN DEFINITIONS SINCE U.S. COUNTS AS ISSUED ALL CERTIFICATES OF ELIGIBILITY DELIVERED TO AN APPLICANT. THE GOA DOES NOT COUNT A CERTIFICATE AS DELIVERED UNTIL THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR RECEIVES IT FROM THE APPLICANTS. DALTON AGREED THAT WE SHOULD MINIMIZE OUR DISAGREEMENTS ON THE RIGHT OF OPTION PROGRAM. HE SAID HE ANTICIPATES THAT WE WILL SEE GREATER MOVEMENT SOON ON APPLICATIONS. VANCE

SUBJECT: STATE VISIT BY FIDEL CASTRO TO MEXICO

REF: MEXICO 08279

1. (SUMMARY) CUBAN PREMIER FIDEL CASTRO WOUND UP HIS TWO DAY STATE VISIT TO MEXICO ON MAY 18. SPEAKING TO REPORTERS, HE ASSERTED THAT CUBAN TROOPS WERE NOT INTERVENING BUT MERELY ASSISTING IN ANGOLA AT THAT COUNTRY'S REQUEST, DENIED THAT CUBA HAD INTENTIONS TO SEND TROOPS TO OTHER AFRICAN COUNTRIES, DENIED THAT CUBA HAD POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DEMANDED A NEW CULTURAL ORDER SO THAT CULTURAL TREASURES STOLEN FROM THIRD WORLD COUNTRIES WOULD BE RETURNED TO THEM. THE CUBAN AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO STATED THAT CUBA WOULD DEFINITELY NOT SIGN THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO IN ORDER TO PROTECT ITS OPTIONS OF SELF-DEFENSE. A JOINT COMMUNIQUE FROM BOTH PRESIDENTS OUTLINED SEVERAL BILATERAL AGREEMENTS; EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR A NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER, OBLIQUELY CHIDED THE U.S. FOR ITS ECONOMIC BLOCKADE OF CUBA, AND FOR REMAINING IN GUANTANAMO; FOR LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

EFFORTS BY NON-ALIGNED COUNTRIES TO OBTAIN WORLD PEACE AND FOR SALT II AND DISARMAMENT; STATED THAT THE ENERGY CRISIS IS A COMMON PROBLEM OF ALL MANKIND; AND BOTH COUNTRIES AGREED THAT THE USE OF FORCE OR COERCION IN WORLD ECONOMIC OR POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS SHOULD NOT BE TOLERATED. (END SUMMARY)

2. THE COMMUNIQUE MADE NO MENTION OF POSSIBLE MEXICAN OIL SALES TO CUBA. WE WILL BE ASSESSING THE VISIT AFTER TALKING WITH MEXICAN PRINCIPALS EARLY NEXT WEEK. VIEWED FROM AFAR IT WOULD APPEAR THAT MEXICANS ACHIEVED GENERAL GOAL

OF STRENGTHENING RELATIONS WITH CUBA, AND GAINING A FEW POINTS WITH MEXICO'S LEFT, BUT THAT THEY MADE NO PROGRESS AT ALL IN ONE OF THEIR MAJOR FOREIGN POLICY OBJECTIVES - CUBAN ACCESSION TO TREATY OF TLATELOLCO. THE CUBANS ARE PROBABLY VERY SATISFIED WITH THE VISIT.

3. CUBAN PREMIER FIDEL CASTRO SPENT VIRTUALLY THE ENTIRE SECOND DAY OF HIS TWO DAY STATE VISIT TO MEXICO IN SCUBA DIVING AND VISITING LOCAL TOURIST ATTRACTIONS. HOWEVER, AT SEVERAL POINTS DURING THE DAY, HE EXPRESSED HIS VIEWS ON A WIDE VARIETY OF SUBJECTS.

4. CASTRO, RESPONDING TO QUERIES FROM THE PRESS, DENIED THAT CUBAN TROOPS WERE INTERVENING IN ANGOLA. CASTRO DEFINED INTERVENTION AS "GOING WHERE YOU DON'T WANT TO GO." IF CUBAN TROOPS ARE IN ANY CORNER OF THE WORLD, IT IS BECAUSE "THEIR COLLABORATION AND SUPPORT WAS SOLICITED." HE DENIED THAT CUBAN TROOPS IN ANGOLA WERE MERCENARIES. CASTRO ASSERTED THAT THEY WERE ALL THERE VOLUNTARILY, AS A RESULT OF THE "CONSCIENCE OF THE (CUBAN) PEOPLE, IT IS THE ARMY OF THE PEOPLE THAT HAS GONE, THEY ARE WORKERS AND PEASANTS." HE STATED THAT THEY DON'T WANT TO BE

THERE THE REST OF THEIR LIVES, NOR LESS TIME THAN THAT. HOWEVER, THIS DEPENDS "NOT ON US, BUT ON THE INTERESTS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF ANGOLA."

5. CASTRO DENIED THAT THERE WERE POLITICAL PRISONERS IN CUBA. THERE WERE, HOWEVER, "COUNTER-REVOLUTIONARY PRISONERS, MANY OF WHOM WE ARE LIBERATING; BUT THERE ARE SOME WHO ARE ALIGNED WITH TERRORISTS WHICH WE CANNOT LET LOOSE ON THE STREET." WHEN ASKED HOW MANY FELL INTO THIS CATEGORY HE SAID THERE WERE VERY FEW.

6. VISITING LOCAL MAYAN INDIAN RUINS, CASTRO PROFESSED TO BE IMPRESSED BY THE LOSS OF IMPORTANT ARTIFACTS TO MUSEUMS IN THE INDUSTRIALIZED NATIONS. HE CALLED FOR A NEW WORLD CULTURAL ORDER, SIMILAR TO THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER, IN WHICH THIRD WORLD COUNTRIES WOULD UNIT IN ORDER TO DEMAND THE RETURN OF THESE ARTIFACTS.

7. CUBAN AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO ERNESTO MADERO VAZQUEZ DECLARED THAT THE POSITION OF CUBA ON THE TREATY OF TLATELOLCO IS FIRM AND IRREVERSIBLE. EVEN THOUGH THE GREAT POWERS OF THE WORLD HAVE AFFIRMED THE TREATY, CUBA CANNOT RENOUNCE THE POSSIBILITIES OF "STRENGTHENING ITS INTERNAL DEFENSES." FOR THIS REASON, HE SAID, THE TREATY WAS NOT ONE OF THE MAJOR THEMES OF THE DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN THE TWO PRESIDENTS.

8. ON THE QUESTION OF MEXICO SELLING PETROLEUM TO CUBA INSTEAD OF SPAIN WHILE THE SOVIET UNION SUPPLIES SPAIN INSTEAD OF CUBA, THE CUBAN AMBASSADOR STATED THAT THE IDEA IS WORTH STUDYING. HOWEVER, THE SOVIET UNION SELLS PETROLEUM TO CUBA FOR AN EXTREMELY LOW PRICE. THIS IS THE PLAN'S PRIMARY OBSTACLE.

9. A JOINT COMMUNIQUE WAS ISSUED, OUTLINING SEVERAL POINTS

OF AGREEMENT IN WORLD POLITICS AND NOTING ADVANCES ON SEVERAL BILATERAL AGREEMENTS, AND CHIDING THE U.S. ON SEVERAL POINTS. THE MEXICAN PRESS HEADLINED MEXICAN SUPPORT FOR THE END OF THE U.S. BLOCKADE AGAINST CUBA. HOWEVER, THE COMMUNIQUE WAS NOT SO SPECIFIC. IT RECALLED 1972 U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL MEETING IN PANAMA WHICH CONDEMNED ALL TYPES OF ECONOMIC COERCION AGAINST LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES AND DEMANDED THAT SUCH ACTS OF ECONOMIC AGGRESSION BE STOPPED AS THEY WORK AGAINST WORLD PEACE AND THE OBJECTIVES CONTAINED IN THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, AND ADDED THAT "IN THIS SENSE THEY (THE PRESIDENTS) EXPRESSED THE NEED TO END THE ECONOMIC BLOCKADE IMPOSED ON THE PEOPLE OF CUBA."

10. IN ANOTHER ONLY SLIGHTLY OBLIQUE REFERENCE TO THE U.S., BOTH PRESIDENTS REITERATED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ELIMINATION OF FOREIGN MILITARY BASES MAINTAINED AGAINST THE WILL OF THE COUNTRY IN WHICH THE BASE IS LOCATED.

11. BOTH COUNTRIES AGREED ON THE NEED FOR A NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER. THE COMMUNIQUE POINTED OUT THE IMPORTANCE

OF RAW MATERIALS FOR THIRD WORLD COUNTRIES AND THE URGENCY WITH WHICH THEY SHOULD TAKE MEANS TO CORRECT THE ENORMOUS FLUCTUATIONS IN PRICES THAT HAVE CHARACTERIZED WORLD RAW MATERIAL MARKETS. ALSO, THE COMMUNIQUE REFERRED TO THE PROTECTIONIST POLICIES OF THE HIGHLY INDUSTRIALIZED NATIONS AND THE NECESSITY OF OBTAINING EASY ACCESS TO THESE MARKETS FOR THE EXPORTS OF PRODUCTS FROM THE THIRD WORLD.

12. THE COMMUNIQUE CITED CASTRO'S SUPPORT FOR LOPEZ PORTILLO'S POSITION THAT THE ENERGY CRISIS IS "A COMMON RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL MANKIND." THE TWO COUNTRIES AGREED ON THE NEED TO ASSURE ACCESS BY ALL COUNTRIES TO THE FINANCING AND TECHNOLOGY NEEDED TO DEVELOP ALTERNATE SOURCES OF ENERGY. ALL ENERGY RESOURCES SHOULD BE DIRECTED TOWARD THE FORMATION OF THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER.

13. THE COMMUNIQUE CITED BOTH LEADERS FIRM SUPPORT FOR THE STRUGGLE OF THE PANAMANIAN PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT TO OBTAIN "FULL SOVEREIGNTY OVER THEIR CANAL."

14. BOTH COUNTRIES PLEDGED TO SUPPORT SELF-DETERMINATION FOR THE PEOPLES OF ZIMBABWE AND NAMIBIA AND ANY OTHER COLONY IN CONFORMITY WITH THE DECISIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

15. SUPPORT WAS ALSO GIVEN TO SALT II, DISARMAMENT AS EXPRESSED BY THE UNITED NATIONS, AND THE EFFORTS OF NON-ALIGNED COUNTRIES TO FIND WORLD PEACE.

16. BOTH GOVERNMENTS EXPRESSED THEIR PLEASURE AT THE WORK DONE BY THE MIXED INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEE FORMED IN JANUARY, 1978. THEY REVIEWED PROGRESS DONE BY OTHER AGREEMENTS SIGNED BY THE TWO GOVERNMENTS. THE BASIC AGREEMENT ON SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL COOPERATION HAS PROGRESSED ON A WIDE VARIETY OF INTERCHANGES. 47 PROJECTS WITH 250 CUBAN TECHNICIANS ARE NOW TAKING PLACE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF MEXICO, WITH AN EQUAL NUMBER OF MEXICAN TECHNICIANS WORKING IN CUBA. CULTURAL, EDUCATIONAL, TOURISTIC AND SOCIAL SECURITY INTERCHANGE ARE PROCEEDING AT AN ACCEPTABLE PACE.

17. THE GOVERNMENTS PLEDGED THEMSELVES TO INVESTIGATE FURTHER BILATERAL DEVELOPMENT. KEY AMONG THESE IS A PROPOSITION TO SUPPLY CUBAN CHROME AND NICKEL TO THE MEXICAN METALLURGICAL INDUSTRY. ALSO, A WIDE-RANGING AGREEMENT FOR COOPERATION BETWEEN THE SUGAR INDUSTRY OF THE TWO COUNTRIES WAS SIGNED.

18. THE COMMUNIQUE CITED STANDARD LANGUAGE ON NON-INTERVENTION, STATED THE SATISFACTION OF BOTH PRESIDENTS AT THE

UNCLASSIFIED

CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS OF THE RELATIONS BETWEEN MEXICO AND CUBA, "COINCIDING WITH THE PROPOSITION TO PERSEVERE IN THEIR STRENGTHENING AND DIVERSIFICATION."

19. LEADERS OF THE THREE OFFICIALLY RECOGNZIED LEFT WING MEXICAN OPPOSITION PARTIES, THE PARTIDO COMUNISTA MEXICANA, THE PARTIDO SOCIALISTA DE LOS TRABAJADORES AND THE PARTIDO POPULAR SOCIALISTA, EXPRESSED THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE VISIT AND ITS OUTCOME. THEY WERE PRESENT IN COZUMEL DURING THE VISIT.

20. COMMENT: WE WILL BE ASSESSING VISIT AFTER TALKING WITH MEXICAN PARTICIPANTS NEXT WEEK (NEW FOREIGN MINISTER AND HIS ASSISTANTS ARE NOW DEEPLY INVOLVED IN PREPARATION FOR VISIT OF COSTA RICAN PRESIDENT CARAZO TOMORROW). VIEWED FROM AFAR AT THIS MOMENT, IT APPEARS TO US THAT MEXICANS ACHIEVED THEIR GENERAL GOAL OF STRENGTHENING TIES WITH CUBA, AND GAINING A FEW POINTS WITH MEXICAN LEFT,

SUBJECT: STATE VISIT BY FIDEL CASTRO TO MEXICO

1. (C - ENTIRE TEXT).

2. SUMMARY: CUBAN PREMIER FIDEL CASTRO IS MAKING HIS FIRST STATE VISIT TO MEXICO, THE ONLY LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRY TO NEVER BREAK RELATIONS WITH HIS TWENTY YEAR OLD REGIME. IN HIS PUBLIC STATEMENTS THUS FAR CASTRO HAS STATED THAT HE HAS NO INTEREST IN OBTAINING MEXICAN PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, DENIED THAT CUBA EXPORTED REVOLUTIONS, CHARACTERIZED CUBAN-U.S. RELATIONS AS "PERFECTLY BAD," SUPPORTED CIVIL RIGHTS FOR UNDOCUMENTED MEXICAN WORKERS IN

THE U.S., AND DENIED THAT CUBA WAS INVOLVED IN NICARAGUA. JOINT COMMUNIQUE TO BE ISSUED LATER TODAY. EMBASSY WILL REPORT ON COMMUNIQUE AND OTHER LATER DEVELOPMENTS ASAP. END SUMMARY.

3. FIDEL CASTRO ARRIVED IN THE ISLAND TOURIST RESORT OF COZUMEL, LOCATED ABOUT 800 MILES EAST OF MEXICO CITY ON THE CARIBBEAN, ON MAY 17, TO BEGIN A TWO DAY STATE VISIT TO MEXICO. THIS IS CASTRO'S FIRST VISIT TO MEXICO SINCE HE DEPARTED HERE ON NOVEMBER 25, 1956, TO LAUNCH HIS GUERRILLA MOVEMENT IN THE SIERRA MADRE OF CUBA.

JOSE NARANJO, MINISTER OF FOOD INDUSTRY; JOSE ABRANTES FERNANDEZ, VICE MINISTER OF INTERIOR AND JOSE MILLAR, CASTRO'S PRIVATE SECRETARY.

4. CASTRO WAS RECEIVED BY MEXICAN PRESIDENT JOSE LOPEZ PORTILLO WHO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY JOAQUIN GAMBOA PASCOE, PRESIDENT OF THE GRAND COMMISSION OF THE MEXICAN SENATE; RODOLFO GONZALEZ GUEVARA, PRESIDENT OF THE GRAND COMMISSION OF THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES; AGUSTIN TELLEZ CRUCES, PRESIDENT OF THE SUPREME COURT; JORGE CASTANEDA, THE NEW SECRETARY OF FOREIGN RELATIONS; JOSE ANDRES OTEYZA, SECRETARY OF PATRIMONY AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT; FERNANDO RAFFUL MIGUEL, CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES; AND JORGE DIAZ SERRANO, DIRECTOR OF PEMEX.

5. THE WELCOMING PARTY ALSO INCLUDED THE LEADERS OF THE THREE OFFICIAL REGISTERED LEFTIST PARTIESS JORGE

CRUICKSHANK OF THE PARTIDO POPULAR SOCIALISTA; ARNOLDO VERDUGO AND GERARDO UNZUETA OF THE PARTIDO COMUNISTA MEXICANA; AND RAFAEL AGUILAR TALAMANTES AND HUMBERTO ESPERON OF THE PARTIDO SOCIALISTA DE LOS TRABAJADORES. TWO OF THE RIGHT-WING PARTIES, THE PARTIDO DEL ACCION NACIONAL AND THE PARTIDO DEMOCRATICA MEXICANA, REPORTEDLY EXCUSED THEMSELVES FROM SENDING REPRESENTATIVES.

6. IN LIGHT OF THE NUMEROUS COMMENTS CAUSED BY LOPEZ PORTILLO'S FAILURE TO GIVE PRESIDENT CARTER AN "ABRAZO" (BEAR HUG) UPON ARRIVAL IN MEXICO, WE MENTION THAT THE NEWSPAPERS REPORTED THAT ALTHOUGH LOPEZ PORTILLO AND CASTRO EXCHANGED "ABRAZOS". NUMEROUS NEWSPAPER PHOTOGRAPHS AND TELEVISION COVERAGE SHOW THEM JUST CLASPING EACH OTHER'S ARMS AT A POLITE DISTANCE.

7. DURING THE DAY, THE TWO PRESIDENTS MET PRIVATELY FOR APPROXIMATELY ONE HOUR IN THE MORNING AND TWO HOURS IN THE AFTERNOON. A JOINT COMMUNIQUE WILL BE ISSUED ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 18.

8. CUBAN AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO FERNANDO LOPEZ MUINO TOLD THE PRESS ON MAY 16 THAT THE TWO LEADERS WOULD NOT DISCUSS SALES OF PETROLEUM TO CUBA AND CASTRO ON HIS ARRIVAL STATED "WE ARE NOT COMING TO SOLICIT MEXICAN PETROLEUM OR GAS". PEMEX DIRECTOR, JORGE DIAZ SERRANO, WAS ASKED ABOUT A PLAN TO SELL MEXICAN PETROLEUM TO CUBA INSTEAD OF ITS CURRENT CUSTOMER SPAIN, PARTIALLY REPLACING CUBA'S SUPPLIER, THE SOVIET UNION; SPAIN IN TURN WOULD BE

DECISION TO DECLARE WORLD PETROLEUM RESERVES AS THE PATRIMONY OF ALL MANKIND, WHILE AT SAME TIME CHARACTERIZING STATEMENT AS "CONTRADICTORY OF (LOPEZ PORTILLO'S) DECISION TO USE (THE PETROLEUM) FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF HIS OWN COUNTRY". CASTRO CONGRATULATED LOPEZ PORTILLO ON HIS DECISION NOT TO "CONTEMPLATE THE PETROLEUM DEVELOPMENT OF MEXICO AS A FUNCTION OF AMERICAN PETROLEUM NECESSITIES", AND DECLARED THAT MEXICO IS APPARENTLY BEING VERY INTELLIGENT IN THE USE OF ITS PETROLEUM RICHES, USING IT AS A POINT OF DEPARTURE FOR DEVELOPMENT, INSTEAD OF FORMING A HUGE ARMY, AS IN IRAN.

10. IN A PRESS CONFERENCE HELD LATE ON THE NIGHT OF MAY 17, CASTRO SURVEYED WORLD ISSUES THAT AFFECT BOTH ~~LIMITED OFFICIAL USE~~

MEXICO AND CUBA. HE CHARACTERIZED CUBAN-AMERICAN RELATIONS ARE "PERFECTLY BAD". HE STATED THAT THE UNITED STATES IS "BRUISED" FROM ITS EXPERIENCE IN VIETNAM AND WILL NOT WANT ANOTHER VIETNAM IN CENTRAL AMERICA. HE SUPPORTED CIVIL RIGHTS FOR THE UNDOCUMENTED MEXICAN WORKERS IN THE UNITED STATES AS THE "LEGITIMATE RECLAMATION OF THE MEXICAN EMIGRANTS, (WHO ARE THE) BITTER AND INEVITABLE FRUIT OF THE MUTILATION OF NATIONAL TERRITORY AND UNDER-DEVELOPMENT IMPOSED BY THE FORCE, SOVEREIGNITY AND DOMINATION OF THE UNITED STATES".

11. CASTRO STATED THAT HIS STATE VISIT TO SPAIN, TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED FOR JULY, MAY BE DELAYED DUE TO HEAVY WORKLOAD PREPARING FOR THE SIXTH CONFERENCE OF NON-ALIGNED NATIONS, DUE TO TAKE PLACE IN HAVANA IN SEPTEMBER.

12. CASTRO STATED THAT THE REVOLUTION IN GRENADA WAS A "GREAT REVOLUTION IN A SMALL COUNTRY". HE SAID IT WAS A SPONTANEOUS MOVEMENT IN WHICH CUBA WAS NOT INVOLVED, EVEN THOUGH CUBA IS RECEIVING THE BLAME.

13. CASTRO CHARACTERIZED BELIZE AS A UNIQUE CASE, AS BRITAIN WANTS TO GIVE BELIZE ITS INDEPENDENCE, BUT GUATEMALA IS THREATENING BELIZE WITH INVASION. CASTRO STATED THAT BELIZE'S ASPIRATIONS TO INDEPENDENCE WERE "LEGITIMATE, AS IT HAS NOTHING GUATEMALAN IN IT, AND HAS EVERY RIGHT (TO INDEPENDENCE)".

14. CASTRO SAID CUBA IS WILLING TO RESTORE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH BRAZIL, WHEN THAT NATION CEASES TO BE "THE MILITARY POLICE FOR UNITED STATES IMPERIALIST INTERESTS IN SOUTH AMERICA". CASTRO WOULD WELCOME ADVANCES FROM LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

BRAZIL PRIOR TO THAT TIME, HOWEVER.

15. CASTRO DENIED THAT CUBA WAS AN EXPORTER OF REVOL-UTIONS. REVOLUTIONS COME FROM THE PEOPLE WHEN THEY GET TIRED AND FED UP WITH THEIR SITUATION, NOT FROM INDIVIDUAL MEN. CASTRO CITED THE FACT THAT THE CUBAN AND MEXICAN REVOLUTIONS WERE NEITHER IMPORTED NOR EXPORTED.

16. CASTRO DENIED THAT CUBA WAS INTERVENING IN NICARAGUA, DESPITE NICARAGUA'S PARTICIPATION IN THE BAY OF PIGS INVASION. CUBA EAGERLY AWAITED THE DAY WHEN SOMOZA "IS DEPOSITED IN THE TRASHCAN OF HISTORY."
17. FURTHER CABLE FOLLOWS AS DEVELOPMENTS OF SECOND DAY OF VISIT ARE KNOWN AND JOINT COMMUNIQUE IS ISSUED.

2. [redacted] IN THE LETTER, MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS FIRST COPIED A LETTER SHE CLAIMS TO HAVE SENT TO PRESIDENT VIDELA, BUENOS AIRES ARCHBISHOP MONSGR. ARAMBURU, AND THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. THEREIN SHE CONTENDS THAT IN HER GRIEF AS MOTHER OF A DISAPPEARED SON, GUSTAVO ALEJANDRO, SHE WAS DUPED INTO WORKING WITH SUBVERSIVE ELEMENTS WHICH SHE HAS FINALLY DECIDED TO EXPOSE AND REJECT. SHE DESCRIBES HER SOJOURN TO MEXICO ON JANUARY 2, AT THE BEHEST OF HER EXILED SON DANIEL, A MEMBER OF THE MONTONERO PERONIST MOVEMENT (MPM), WHO PERSUADED HER TO COLLABORATE WITH HIS MONTONERO COMRADES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT THROUGH HER ACTIVITIES WITH THE FDD. IN MEXICO SHE WAS INTERVIEWED BY MPM ACTIVISTS IN A HOUSE ON CALLE EXTREMADURA( ) LATER, THE LETTER GOES ON, MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS MET WITH "CAPITAN" MARIA ANTONIA BERGER, WHO BROUGHT HER TO EUROPE ON MAY 10 TO MEET WITH MONTONERO COLLEAGUES. FIRST IN MADRID, SHE AND BERGER WERE REBUFFED IN ATTEMPTS TO MEET WITH A SPANISH CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP AND UNSUCCESSFUL IN LOCATING METHODIST PASTOR LUIS POVEDA. LATER IN ROME THE POPE REFUSED TO RECEIVE MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS. HOWEVER, WHILE THERE SHE ATTENDED A WEEKLONG MEETING OF THE MONTONERO LEADERSHIP, INCLUDING MARIO EDUARDO FIRMENICH, OSCAR BIDEGAIN, JAIME DRI, (SHE NAMES 20 PERSONS IN ALL). AT THE MEETING THE MONTONEROS PLANNED THEIR "COUNTERATTACK" STRATEGY AGAINST THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT. SOME OF THE MONTONEROS, JAIME DRI AND RAFAEL LACUZZI, AGREED TO RETURN CLANDESTINELY TO ARGENTINA.

3. [redacted] AFTER THE ROME MEETING, MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS RETURNED TO MEXICO CITY TO MEET WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MOTHERS OF PLAZA DE MAYO WHO HAD ARRANGED APPOINTMENTS WITH BISHOPS ATTENDING THE LATIN AMERICAN BISHOPS CONFERENCE IN PUEBLA. LATER, ACCORDING TO THE LETTER, BERGER GAVE HER INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTACT THE LIGA (LEAGUE FOR THE RIGHTS OF MAN, A COMMUNIST-FRONT HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION IN BUENOS AIRES) ON HER RETURN TO BUENOS AIRES.

4. [redacted] AT THIS POINT, MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS WRITES THAT SHE REALIZED HER CONTACTS WITH THE MONTONEROS WERE WRONG AND DESTRUCTIVE. SHE EMPHASIZES TO PRESIDENT VIDELA THAT SHE KNOWS HER LIFE IS AT STAKE AS THE MONTONEROS WILL NOT FORGIVE HER BETRAYAL AND SHE DOUBTS THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT WILL UNDERSTAND HER. SHE ASKS VIDELA TO WARN OTHER MOTHERS FROM BEING DUPED BY SUBVERSIVES AND RECOMMENDS HE END THEIR DISTRESS BY EXPLAINING HOW AND WHY THEIR SONS DIED. THE MOTHERS, SHE SAYS, WILL UNDERSTAND AND FORGIVE. SHE ALSO ASKS VIDELA TO HELP THE MOTHERS FROM BEING MANIPULATED BY POLITICAL PARTIES SUCH AS THE COMMUNIST PARTY, (SOCIALIST) WORKERS PARTY AND MONTONEROS.

5. [redacted] AT THIS POINT THE LETTER IS DIRECTED TO AMBASSADOR CASTRO. MRS. JARA DE CABEZAS POINTS OUT THAT THE US GOVERNMENT IS ALSO MAKING POLITICAL USE OF MOTHERS' GRIEF WHICH COULD LEAD ARGENTINA TO ANOTHER BLOODBATH. SHE ASKS THE AMBASSADOR TO DO WHATEVER POSSIBLE SO THAT GOA WILL UNDERSTAND, IF IT CANNOT JUSTIFY, HER ATTITUDE AND CONDUCT.

~~SECRET~~/NODIS DECAPTIONED

SUBJECT: Instructions Re U.S. Reaction to Outcome of Letelier Case

1. We have now carefully reviewed and analyzed the decision by Judge Borquez denying our request that Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez be extradited to the United States to stand trial for the crimes for which they were indicted by the U.S. Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. We have also carefully considered the implications of that decision for our relations with Chile. While you were in Washington, you made an invaluable contribution to our deliberations. We also benefitted greatly from the advice and counsel of Alfredo Etcheberry.

2. Our deliberations have strengthened our view that the Borquez decision is inconsistent with international norms of justice. We can neither understand nor accept his conclusion that the evidence we adduced in support of our extradition request was insufficient to warrant extradition. Under our extradition treaties with all countries, including Chile, evidence adduced in support of an extradition request need not establish guilt. Rather, it must simply be adequate to support a finding of probable cause to believe that the defendants in question committed the crimes charged. We have no doubt that the evidence we presented was adequate to meet that burden. Indeed, it was on the basis of precisely the same evidence that the U.S. Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. indicted the three defendants in question -- and the standard for indictment is essentially the same as the standard for extradition, namely, probable cause. Moreover, our evidence was strong enough to convince a jury to convict the two other defendants who were tried in Washington, D. C.

3. Because we find the Borquez decision so completely unacceptable, we believe that our immediate objective must be to seek a reversal or modification of the decision on appeal. We authorize and encourage Alfredo Etcheberry to pursue our appeal with all the vigor and determination at his command. We of course remain primarily interested in the extradition of the defendants, and we hope the appellate panel will order extradition. Failing that, our goal is a ruling on appeal that will permit a good faith prosecution of the defendants in Chile. In particular, we seek a reversal of Borquez' holding that our evidence is not credible or convincing and hence is insufficient to establish probable cause. Unless that holding is reversed, we do not see how a trial of the defendants in Chile could be genuine and thorough-going. This is so because the military tribunal conducting any such proceeding would be able to ignore the overwhelming evidence we have presented, on the grounds that the Chilean Supreme Court had already ruled that that evidence was not convincing and credible. Since we believe our evidence must form the core of any good-faith prosecution of these defendants for the murder of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt, it would seem clear that a trial in which our evidence was ignored would be a sham.

DECLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

4. If the appellate panel should simply affirm the Borquez decision, we will have arrived at an extremely grave moment in our relations with Chile. Known terrorists will be walking the streets in Chile with the full condonance of the Chilean judiciary and the Chilean executive. Neither we, nor the Congress, nor the American people will be able to understand or accept such a state of affairs. At that time we would be forced to take concrete steps of protest against the Government of Chile.

What is basis for transition from court to executive? (f) exp. &?

5. You should immediately seek an appointment with the Foreign Minister [Pinochet?] and make the following points to him:

(a) I have been instructed on the highest authority to reiterate to you our profound and grave disappointment at the ruling Judge Borquez issued on May 14 and at the lack of seriousness with which the Chilean Government has conducted its own investigation of the responsibility of Contreras, Espinoza, and Ferendez for the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt on the streets of Washington, D. C.

UNCLASSIFIED

(b) While I was in Washington, I participated in a full review of the Borquez decision and of our relations with Chile. Our review of the decision strengthened our conviction that it is grossly inconsistent with international norms of justice. ~~Not only did~~ Borquez erroneously characterized U.S. practice with respect to the extradition of its own nationals, because . . . More important, he held that the evidence we had adduced in support of our extradition request is insufficient. That holding is a sham. Under our extradition treaties with all countries, including Chile, it is not necessary that evidence presented as part of an extradition request establish the guilt of the defendants. Rather, it is only necessary that the evidence be sufficient to support a finding that there is probable cause to believe that the defendants in question committed the crimes charged. Our evidence was overwhelmingly sufficient to meet that standard. Indeed, it is on the basis of that same evidence that a U.S. Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. indicted these defendants -- and the standard for indictment is essentially the same as the standard for extradition, namely probable why?

Is probable cause the standard in Chile? Neither treaty nor Chilean extra statute say so cause. Moreover, our evidence was strong enough to convince a jury to convict the two other defendants in this case who were tried in Washington, D. C.

(c) Thus, we cannot understand and could never accept a finding that the evidence we adduced is insufficient. We can only conclude that such a finding, and the rest of the Borquez decision, reflect the judge's determination to ensure that these defendants will not be brought to justice either in the United States or in Chile. Unless overturned on appeal His unacceptable and inexplicable ruling on the weight of our evidence makes it impossible to believe that any proceeding conducted here in Chile could be genuine and thorough-going. The military tribunal conducting any such proceeding would be able to ignore the evidence we have presented, on the grounds that the Chilean Supreme Court had already ruled that that evidence was not convincing and credible. Since that evidence must be the core of any good-faith prosecution of these defendants for the crimes charged, it is clear that a trial at which our evidence was ignored would also be a sham.

UNCLASSIFIED

(d) It is indicative of the degree to which Borquez gave our evidence the back of his hand that he simply ignored most of our evidence in his opinion. He chose to focus almost exclusively on one statement by Michael Townley. He did not even treat the other full statement by Townley which we had presented and which Townley had made before any plea-bargain arrangement had been entered into.

(e) Needless to say, we will be appealing the Borquez decision with vigor and determination. The future course of our relations with Chile will depend very heavily on the outcome of that appeal. If we are faced with a situation at the end of the appellate process in which no extradition has been granted, or in which Borquez' ruling on the sufficiency of our evidence has not been reversed, so that any proceeding before a military tribunal would be hobbled from the outset, then I can tell you that the reaction of my government, the Congress, and the American people will be severe -- more severe than anything we have yet seen in our relations.

UNCLASSIFIED

(f) Nor is it only the Borquez decision that we find unacceptable. We are equally distressed and offended by the utter lack of seriousness with which the Chilean Government has conducted the investigation of Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez that has theoretically been under way in the military court for over a year, the so-called passport fraud investigation. So far as we can tell, this investigation has thus far led to precisely nothing. Given the magnitude and implications of the crimes involved, we cannot understand or accept the lethargy that has characterized the military tribunal's so-called investigation. In his decision, Judge Borquez asks this same tribunal to expand its investigation specifically to include the potential responsibility of Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez in the murders of Letelier and Moffitt. But the record of this tribunal in the passport-fraud investigation makes it clear that unless the Chilean Government takes a conscious decision to energize the tribunal, its proceedings will be without substance.

UNCLASSIFIED

In addition, of course, Borquez' ruling on the sufficiency of our evidence must be reversed if the military tribunal's proceedings are to be more than a formal exercise.

(g) I want to leave you in no doubt that in my government's view, relations between Chile and the United States are approaching a crossroads. Whether we are able to traverse that crossroads in a manner that will lead to the improvement in relations between our two countries, instead of a severe deterioration, depends on you, not on us.

(h) During the pending appeal, we will take no concrete steps of protest because we believe the judicial process must be allowed to run its course. However, I am instructed to tell you that should the Borquez ruling simply be affirmed on appeal -- which would mean that the matter would be referred to the military tribunal with our evidence completely and unjustifiably tainted -- then we would be forced to take concrete steps to register our outrage. Those steps will include the following:

UNCLASSIFIED

-- A Presidential Determination that the Ex-Im Bank should deny applications for the extension of credit to Chilean interests on the grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists and that such denial would advance US policy with respect to international terrorism;

-- a suspension /cancellation?/ of the military assistance "pipeline";

-- the immediate withdrawal of the US Military Assistance Group (MAG)in Chile.

/Add any, some or all of the following?:

-- Withdraw our military attachés (7 Americans);
-- Refuse Chilean participation in UNITAS;
-- Deny CCC Credits and all other USG credits and guarantees;
-- Oppose projects and aid for Chile in multilateral institutions;
-- Deny Chilean applications for Commerce Department export licenses;

UNCLASSIFIED

-- Cancel the remaining balances on AID loans [about $4 million]:

-- Withdraw the AID mission;

-- Support efforts to curtail lending by US banks to the Chilean public and private sectors;

-- Cut back on the number of Embassy personnel;

-- Withdraw the Peace Corps;

-- Withdraw Ambassador./

I cannot at this time get into the details of other steps that would be taken, but I would only reiterate that the US reaction would necessarily be severe. In this connection, I wish to call your attention to the letter Secretary Vance received last week from the Chairman of the House of Representatives Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs, Mr. Henry Reuss, in which Mr. Reuss addresses the question of private US bank lending to Chile. In addition, I am instructed to advise you that the unsatisfactory outcome which I have described would make it more difficult for the United States to be helpful with respect to any external problems Chile may have.

(i) In conclusion, I would underscore that the impasse we are approaching is not of our creation. The undeniable fact is that there is more than ample evidence to require Contreras, Espinoza and Fernandez to stand trial for the murders of Orlando Letelier and Ronnie Moffitt. They should either stand trial in the United States or in Chile. That trial must be full and fair. If it is, we have confidence that these men will be brought to justice. If, by contrast, no trial is held, or the trial that is held is a sham, and if these men therefore walk the streets, I assure you that the reaction of my government, of the US Congress, and of the American people will be severe.

deba perseguirse de oficio. Si el delito es de aquellos que, para ser perseguido, necesita denuncia o requisición previa de la persona ofendida, la acción pública debe ponerse en ejercicio tan pronto como se presente la denuncia o requisición.[1]

Art. 24. (44) Siempre que se trate de delitos que deban perseguirse de oficio, los tribunales competentes estarán obligados a proceder, aun cuando el Ministerio Público no crea procedente la acción.

En general, tienen los tribunales perfecta libertad para aceptar o rechazar las peticiones del Ministerio Público.

Art. 25. La intervención del querellante que ha ejercitado la acción pública no obsta a la del Ministerio Público, ni la de éste a la de aquél.

Sin embargo el querellante o las otras partes del juicio no podrán oponerse a las diligencias probatorias que solicite el Ministerio Público.[2-3]

Art. 26. (46) El oficial del Ministerio Público de un tribunal superior encargado de rever el fallo del tribunal inferior, puede continuar el ejercicio de la acción pública ante el tribunal cerca del cual funciona, no obstante que el oficial del tribunal inferior haya aceptado expresa o tácitamente aquel fallo.

Art. 26 bis. Los fiscales de las Cortes de Apelaciones podrán intervenir en la primera instancia en todos los juicios criminales de acción pública, cuando juzguen conveniente su actuación.

El Fiscal de la Corte Suprema podrá ordenar a los Fiscales de las Cortes de Apelaciones que actúen en la primera instancia para efectos determinados o durante toda la tramitación de uno o más juicios, y en este último caso tendrán las mismas facultades y obligaciones que este Código señala al Ministerio Público en dicha instancia.

Siempre que un Ministro, en carácter de juez de primera instancia, deba conocer de uno o más delitos, se entenderá designado para actuar en todas las instancias del proceso el Fiscal de la Corte correspondiente.[1]

Art. 27. (47) Es prohibido a los oficiales del Ministerio Público renunciar de antemano, expresa o tácitamente, al ejercicio de la acción pública, en los casos en que ella es procedente.[2]

Art. 28. (48) La acción penal pública no se extingue por la renuncia de la persona ofendida.

Pero se extinguen por esa renuncia la acción penal privada y la civil derivada de cualquiera clase de delitos.

Si el delito no puede ser perseguido sin previa denuncia o requisición, cualquiera que no sea el Ministerio Público puede renunciar al derecho de hacer la denuncia o la requisición; y en tal caso queda también extinguida la acción pública.

Art. 29. (49) La renuncia de una acción civil o penal renunciable sólo afectará al renunciante y a sus sucesores, y no a otras personas a quienes también correspondieren una u otra acción.

Art. 30. (50) El querellante podrá desistirse de la acción penal, sea ésta pública o privada.

Si la acción fuere pública, el juicio seguirá adelante, constituyéndose el Ministerio Público en parte principal, a falta de otro acusador particular.[3]

Si la acción fuere privada, podrá, además, ponerse término al juicio mediante una transacción. Pero el desistimiento o la transacción no producirá en ningún caso el efecto de que se devuelva la multa que hubiere sido satisfecha por vía de pena.

Art. 31. (51) El querellante que se desistiere del ejercicio de la acción pública no quedará por eso exento de la obligación de comparecer al tribunal cuando el juez lo creyere necesario para la instrucción del proceso.

Art. 32. (52) El desistimiento de la acción privada producirá el sobreseimiento definitivo de la causa, cualquiera que sea el estado

E.O. 12065: GDS 5/29/85 (CLARE, DANIEL H.) OR-P
TAGS: PINS SHUM CI
SUBJECT: INTERNAL SECURITY NOTES: SUCCESSES AGAINST ALLEGED MIRISTAS BUT BOMBINGS CONTINUE

1. (C) SUMMARY: TWO DAYS AFTER THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED A MANHUNT FOR THREE LEADERS OF THE MOVEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR), ONE OF THEM WALKED INTO A POLICE STATION ACCOMPANIED BY A HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYER. AN ALLEGED MIR FLYER TAKES CREDIT FOR THE KILLING OF A "TRAITOROUS MEMBER," FOUND SHOT MAY 18, BUT ANOTHER FLYER BLAMES SECURITY SERVICES. SECURITY FORCES IN CONCEPCION ARRESTED FOUR CHARGED WITH CONCEALING A WEAPONS CACHE; THE COURTS PROMPTLY RELEASED THREE ON BAIL. MEANWHILE THE SPATE OF BOMBINGS CONTINUES AND BOMB THREATS ABOUND. THE REGIME'S CRITICS ASSERT THAT THE MIR IS BEING FRAMED, BUT THEY CANNOT COME UP WITH PROOF. END SUMMARY.

2. (C) CHILEAN SECURITY SERVICES WENT PUBLIC WITH PHOTOS OF THREE PEOPLE DESCRIBED AS MIR LEADERS HEADING THE MOST WANTED LIST. WE HAVE REPORTED PREVIOUSLY ON TWO OF THEM: GASTON MUNOZ BRIONES AND GLORIA ELGUETA PINTO. MS ELGUETA IS THE DAUGHTER OF AN EXILED CHILEAN CONGRESSMAN, RESIDENT IN MEXICO, AND A FEISTY, INFIRM MOTHER WHOSE RUN-INS WITH LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN HER SEARCH FOR A SON MISSING SINCE 1975 HAVE BEEN THE

[redacted]

SUBJECT OF PREVIOUS REPORTING. FROM HUMAN RIGHTS SOURCES WE HAVE LEARNED THAT MUNOZ AND ELGUETA REFUSED ASSISTANCE IN LEAVING CHILE CLANDESTINELY IN ORDER TO CONTINUE "ARMED RESISTANCE" OPERATIONS IN THE COUNTRY.

3. (L) THE THIRD PERSON IS ABELARDO BRIONES MARDONES.

BRIONES HAS BEEN ACTIVELY SOUGHT SINCE POLICE IDENTIFIED HIM DURING A RAID ON TWO HOUSES CONTAINING ARMS (AND A BILL FOR MEDICINE PAID BY THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY) ON APRIL 30. ON MAY 24 BRIONES PRESENTED HIMSELF TO THE MILITARY PROSECUTOR IN RANCAGUA. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY A LAWYER ACQUAINTANCE WHO ALSO WORKS PART TIME WITH THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY.

4. (C) A MAN PEERING FROM HIS WINDOW LATE THE NIGHT MAY 17/18 SAW SEVERAL MEN GET OUT OF A CAR AND WALK INTO A FIELD; HE HEARD TWO SHOTS. IN THE FIELD HE FOUND THE BODY OF A YOUNG MAN. THE HOMICIDE SQUAD FINALLY IDENTIFIED THE VICTIM AS RICARDO NUNEZ MUNOZ, TWENTY-FIVE, CARDED IN POLICE FILES AS A LEFTIST. THEY WERE HELPED IN THE IDENTIFICATION BY A FLYER, ALLEGEDLY FROM THE MIR, STATING THAT A MEMBER HAD BEEN EXECUTED FOR NOT FOLLOWING THE MIR LINE. THE MORNING OF MAY 24 -- PRIOR TO PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION OF THE VICTIM -- VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY LAWYERS PREPARED A HABEAS CORPUS PETITION FOR NUNEZ ON BEHALF OF A FRIEND WHO ALLEGED THAT NUNEZ HAD BEEN OPENLY SURVEILLED FOR FIVE DAYS PRIOR TO HIS DISAPPEARANCE BY A GROUP OF MEN WHO REFUSED TO IDENTIFY THEMSELVES WHEN NUNEZ AND THE PETITIONER BEARDED THEM. ON MAY 27 A MIR FLYER DENIED INVOLVEMENT IN THE KILLING, WHICH IT BLAMED ON THE GOC. MIR SAID IT WOULD TAKE ACTION AGAINST MEDIA PRINTING "FALSE INFORMATION" ABOUT IT. (COMMENT: AS IS CLEAR FROM THE FOREGOING, THIS CASE SMELLS VERY STRANGE INDEED. TO OUR KNOWLEDGE, THERE HAS BEEN NO CASE OF MIR EXECUTING ITS OWN, AT LEAST

DURING THE PAST THREE YEARS. WHILE WE REMAIN SKEPTICAL OF THE HABEAS CORPUS PETITION -- WHY, FOR EXAMPLE, WOULD THE SECURITY SERVICES BE SO OBVIOUS IF THEY PLANNED TO KILL NUNEZ -- IT IS ALSO VERY DICEY BUSINESS FOR THE INDIVIDUAL WHO FILED THE PETITION ON HIS BEHALF. WE WILL BE WATCHING THE UNFOLDING OF THIS CASE CLOSELY. END COMMENT)

5. (U) SECURITY SERVICES ARE UNDOUBTEDLY KEEPING PRESSURE ON LEFTIST EXTREMISTS. ON MAY 18 THE THIRD ARMY DIVISION IN CONCEPCION ANNOUNCED THAT IT HAD PLACED BEFORE A MILITARY PROSECUTOR TWO MEN AND TWO WOMEN DETAINED EARLIER (NO DATE GIVEN) IN CONNECTION WITH THE DISCOVERY OF AN ARMS CACHE SAID TO CONTAIN THREE RUSSIAN SUBMACHINE GUNS, SEVERAL OTHER ARMS, AMMUNITION, AND COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. AS OF MAY 22 THE PROSECUTOR HAD RELEASED THREE OF THE QUARTET ON BAIL AND WAS CONSIDERING A REQUEST TO POST BOND FOR THE FOURTH. LEGAL AID WAS BEING PROVIDED BY THE CONCEPCION CHAPTER OF THE VICARIATE OF SOLIDARITY.

6. (U) BUT BOMBINGS IN THE SANTIAGO AREA HAVE CONTINUED. ON MAY 19 A BOMB WAS DISARMED BEFORE EXPLODING, ON MAY 24 A DEVICE WENT OFF NEAR A BRANCH OF THE STATE BANK AND ANOTHER IN A BUILDING A BLOCK OR SO FROM DIEGO PORTALES (GOVERNMENT HOUSE). THE BUILDING HOUSED OFFICES OF THE GOC'S YOUTH MOVEMENT AS WELL AS THE MANAGING EDITOR OF "QUE PASA" NEWS WEEKLY. MIDDAY MAY 28 ANOTHER DEVICE WAS DISCOVERED AND DISARMED IN THE SAME VICINITY. MAY 27 SECURITY FORCES SAFELY DETONATED A LOW-POWER BOMB FOUND IN A DOWNTOWN CHURCH. ANONYMOUS BOMB THREATS ARE ALSO COMMON. THE PRESS REPORTED AT LEAST EIGHT ON MAY 19; AN INTERNAL FLIGHT MADE AN UNSCHEDULED LANDING TO CHECK FOR BOMBS ON MAY 25.

7. (L) ON A DIFFERENT LEVEL OF VIOLENCE, INDEPENDENT BUT STRONG FREI SUPPORTER ALEJANDRO HALES COMPLAINED TO POLICE THAT FOR THE FIFTH TIME IN THE PAST YEAR A GROUP OF RUFFIANS HAD VANDALIZED THE OUTSIDE OF HIS HOUSE AND THROWN [redacted]NFIDENTIAL

[redacted]

ROCKS WHILE CURSING THE PDC. HALES' SON, A CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT ACTIVE IN HUMAN RIGHTS CAUSES, IS THE PROBABLE TARGET OF THESE BROWNSHIRT-TYPE ATTACKS.

8. (C) OPPONENTS OF THE REGIME HAVE REACHED THE ALL-TOO-FACILE CONCLUSION THAT VIRTUALLY ALL RECENT ATTENTION GIVEN THE MIR BY THE MEDIA AND THE GOC IS PART OF A CAMPAIGN TO KEEP ALIVE AMONG THE POPULACE THE FEAR OF THE ALLENDE YEARS' CHAOS. SINCE ALL KNOWLEDGEABLE OBSERVERS KNOW FOR A FACT THAT THE EX-DINA WAS INDEED RESPONSIBLE FOR CERTAIN BOMBINGS AND ROBBERIES CREDITED PUBLICLY TO THE MIR SEVERAL YEARS AGO, THE GOC HAS A PARTICULARLY DIFFICULT TASK IN PERSUADING THEM OF ITS INNOCENCE NOW.

9. (C) COMMENT: OUR OWN SOURCES OF INFORMATION TEND TO JIBE WITH THAT OF THOSE HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS CLOSEST TO EVENTS: THERE REMAIN IN CHILE A SMALL NUMBER OF LEFTIST EXTERMISTS WHO ESPOUSE VIOLENCE AND HAVE THE MEANS AND WILL TO CONDUCT WHAT THEY EUPHEMISTICALLY DESCRIBE AS "ARMED PROPAGANDA" EXERCISES. THUS, AT LEAST SOME OF THE BOMBINGS ARE THEIR WORK. THERE IS A REAL QUESTION, HOWEVER, IF THESE SPLINTER ELEMENTS ARE PREPARED TO EXECUTE THEIR OWN MEMBERS IN COLD BLOOD.

DURING THE FEW MINUTES BEFORE THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS ARRIVED, WILLOUGHBY TOLD ETCHEBERRY--ALMOST AS IF HE WERE A SPOKESMAN FOR THE GOC -- THAT PRESIDENT PINOCHET "WAS WORRIED AT THE PROSPECT OF HAVING MANUEL CONTRERAS AT LARGE" IF THE APPEALS COURT DENIED EXTRADITION. WILLOUGHBY DID NOT DETAIL WHAT SPECIFICALLY CAUSED CONCERN.

3. WITH THE ARRIVAL OF THE TWO DEFENSE LAWYERS, WILLOUGHBY AGAIN WENT OVER THE SAME OFFER PREFIOUSLY REJECTED HERE AND IN WASHINGTON: A) THE USG TO DROP THE EXTRADITION REQUEST FOR FERNANDEZ BASED ON OUR BELIEF THAT HE WAS

THEIR CONTINUING INTEREST ALONG TO HIS CLIENTS.

4. COMMENT: THE WILLOUGHBY OVERTURES ARE EVEN LESS EXPLICABLE NOW THAN BEFORE THE BORQUEZ DECISION. AS MATTERS STAND, NONE OF THE THREE OFFICERS ARE LIKELY TO BE EXTRADITED AND A FULL-SCALE TRIAL HERE ON MURDER CHARGES IS, AT BEST, A LONG WAY OFF. FURTHERMORE, CONVENTIONAL WISDOM HAS IT THAT PINOCHET DOES NOTT WANT TO, OR BELIEVES HE CANNOT, PERMIT CONTRERAS TO BE EXTRADITED. BUT THE BELIEF THAT CONTRERAS HAS A POWERFUL CONSTITUENCY WITHIN THE ARMY CORPS CUTS BOTH WAYS. CONCEIVABLY PINOCHET FEARS CONTRERAS' MISCHIEFMAKING POTENTIAL MORE IF HE REMAINS AT LARGE IN CHILE WHILE MILITARY JUSTICE CONSIDERS HIS CASE, THAN THE SHARP -- BUT PERHAPS BRIEF -- SHOCKWAVES HIS EXTRADITION WOULD SEND THROUGH THE SENIOR MILITARY COMMAND. EVEN IF CONTRERAS DECIDED TO BLOW THE WHISTLE ON PINOCHET ONCE IN THE US, THE PRESIDENT MIGHT BE ABLE TO DISMISS HIS ALLEGATIONS AS THAT OF ANOTHER PLEA-BARGAINER. AS TO WILLOUGHBY'S PERSISTENCE, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT HE BELIEVES WE WILL ACCEPT LESS IN THE FACE OF THE BORQUEZ DEDISION.

5. IF INDEED PINOCHET IS AWARE OF THE WILLOUGHBY EFFORTS -- SOMETHING WE DO NOT KNOW FOR SURE -- IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THIS IS A CALCULATED EXERCISE IN SENDING US CONFUSING SIGNALS, WITH THE FRINGE BENEFIT OF PERSUADING US THAT THE GOC, TOO, IS UNHAPPY WITH THE OUTCOME THUS FAR. OR, CONCEIVABLY, IT MIGHT EVEN BE SOME DEVIOUS ATTEMPT TO ENTRAP

6. OF COURSE, EVEN THE FERNANDEZ' STATEMENT AS NOW PROPOSED, WOULD DESTROY THE DEFENSE'S BASIS, BUT THERE, TOO, QUESTIONS REMAIN: FERNANDEZ' REVISED STATEMENT WOULD RESULT FROM ANOTHER PLEA BARGAIN ARRANGEMENT. WOULD IT CARRY ANY WEIGHT? WOULD FERNANDEZ BECOME THE DEFENDANT IN A PERJURY TRIAL AND HIS EVIDENCE AGAIN BE DISCREDITED?

7. WORTH KEEPING IN MIND, HOWEVER, IS ETCHEBERRY'S LINGERING FEELING THAT THE WILLOUGHBY EFFORTS SHOULD NOT BE WRITTEN OFF OUT OF HAND.

El Director de la Oficina de Asuntos Políticos de Washington, Saul Landau, que ocupa el cargo del ex-doctor Orlando Letelier, dijo que "el Subsecretario de Estado, Warren Christopher, considera que el chileno [illegible] y quiere el único gran logro [illegible] relaciones normales entre Chile y Estados Unidos lo constituye el hecho de que el Presidente Pinochet continúa al frente del Gobierno como cabeza de la Junta". En una conversación con periodistas, Saul Landau expresó que "el secretario del señor Christopher [illegible] la semana pasada y de otros cinco altos funcionarios del Departamento de ~~Justicia~~ Estado y del Ministerio de Justicia". Agregó que,"en honor a la verdad, nunca le [illegible] a la reforma [illegible] pruebas en las audiencias de preasignación en esas que se celebran en la Corte Suprema de Chile en [illegible] declaraciones de tres oficiales chilenos para su juzgamiento en el Distrito de Columbia".

Dijo también que "el fiscal chileno-Wolfit se determinar quiénes son los otros involucrados aparte de [illegible] Contreras, Pedro Espinoza y Armando Fernández Larios, los cubanos anticastristas, [illegible] Townley y Michael Townley".

Saul Landau —quien viajó a California para asistir a la ceremonia de graduación de dos de sus hijos y aprovechó los estudios de la Unión durante conferencia— reiteró que "Michael Wolfit fue interrogado por el abogado George Walter Landau que recomendó el restablecimiento de relaciones diplomáticas con Chile si el fallo de los tribunales de ese país no satisface completamente a los chilenos Unidos". Testigos de las palabras de George Walter ~~Landau~~ habrían sido Marcos Roskin, que trabaja para el Instituto de Estudios Políticos, y Mchael Tigar, abogado en representación de las familias Letelier y Moffit en la querella civil que entablaron contra el gobierno chileno por daños y perjuicios materiales y morales. (El próximo día 25, el Juez Oliver Puatto decidirá si "el Gobierno de Chile debe hacerse representar ante la Corte Civil por la demanda admitida, o si, por el contrario, el juicio no procede".

Los "documentos" de Saul Contreras

En cuanto al origen de [illegible] Saul Landau, [illegible], indicó: "Él no dio por cierto efectivo. Los documentos permanecen en Alemania Federal, en Frankfurt. Cree que trabajaba para el ex hombre fuerte de la policía secreta chilena y que lo abandonó por creer varios de esos documentos confidenciales". Agregó: "Constituyen, creo, una especie de seguro de vida y herramienta de presión para el ex Director de la Dina".

Ante una pregunta de qué contienen los referidos documentos y en número exacto, recalcó que "tenemos seis en nuestro poder, aunque la otra parte se tenía en Europa".

-¿Podría precisar su número total?

"No lo sé. Y no revelaré los fundamentos porque ello afectaría [illegible]".

-¿Qué contienen los seis que obran en poder del Instituto de Estudios Políticos?

"Informaciones relativas a los asesinatos del ex Comandante en Jefe del Ejército de Chile, Carlos Prats, y de su esposa; de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Moffitt; del atentado en contra de Bernardo Leighton y Ana Fresno..." "Existen documentos que mencionan a Mamo y a otro individuo, El Negro, y notas firmadas de felicitaciones a Contreras. También se cita a Michael Townley. Y un escándalo de una financiera, denunciado por el ex Director de la Dina, pidiendo acción contra determinadas personas, lo que nunca llegó a cursarse".

-¿Cuándo será revelado el contenido total de la documentación a que Ud. alude?

"Tan pronto llegue el momento. El compromiso tiene una fecha de vencimiento. Cabe destacar -afirmó Saul Landau-, que los fiscales Eugene Propper y Lawrence Barcella y los agentes del Fbi Carter Cornick y Robert Scherrer dieron pruebas evidentes errores de los Generales, la [illegible] Prensa y sobre enunciamiento lo que significaron".

Respecto a otro punto, Orfila señaló que "los errores y otros aspectos contradictorios encontrados en el proceso contra los Generales Chilenos hasta el final del cuadro". Afirmó que "Orfila creyó prudente abstenerse de opinar sobre el caso y de la periodista Carmen Paulsen, que sirvió de enlace entre la Embajada de Chile y los abogados de los cubanos encontrados culpables, denuncia que fue hecha a través de los medios norteamericanos de comunicación de Estado por altos funcionarios".

"En el Congreso -dijo Landau- hay la intención de hacer la revisión final de la justicia chilena por la solidaridad de parlamentarios. De no ser ésta concretada, se intentará involucrar a Chile en la lista de países que violentan los derechos humanos y, por lo tanto, no recibir ayuda de instituciones privadas o públicas de los Estados Unidos".

Como resultado del encuentro de periodistas chilenos, que se dio el Director del Instituto de Estudios Políticos [illegible] también se opinó a una decisión [illegible] de la justicia chilena, "que podría significar que no puedan canalizarse créditos hacia Chile porque no serán aprobados por congresistas de negros sin cuyo concurso no puede operarse".

Explicó Saul Landau que "oficiales del Departamento de Estado se reunieron con ejecutivos del Riggs Bank de Washington (lo que fue [illegible] por este reportero), de la Wells Fargo de California y de la manufacturas Hanover de Nueva York, a fin de persuadirlos que no otorguen créditos a Chile".

El otro Punto

En declaraciones exclusivas a este periodista, el agente del Fbi Carter Cornick, que desde Río de Janeiro vino por un día a Washington y prosiguió a Nueva –¿Qué opinan ustedes, en su [illegible] sobre [illegible]?

"Que arguyen, pues a eso, los procedimientos de la justicia chilena. Más allá de eso, no existe nada que [illegible]".

–¿A qué se debe la permanencia de Robert Scherrer en Buenos Aires?

"A materias relacionadas con investigaciones con [illegible]".

–¿Caso Prats, por ejemplo?

"Yo diría que sí. En otras palabras, no la negaría. Las investigaciones de Scherrer no necesariamente excluyen el asesinato de Carlos Prats y su esposa. (Se debe recordar que el mismo agente del FBI, Robert Scherrer, dijo en persona a este reportero que él no viaje en el caso Letelier desde junio de 1978 y sus viajes a Chile y otras partes posteriores a esa fecha obedecieron sólo a asuntos administrativos). El debe quedarse una semana o diez días más en Argentina y en ese plazo tal vez surja una noticia concreta con respecto a Prats. No sé qué haría, en la eventualidad, el gobierno de Argentina. Paz y Suárez: "Los encontré raros"

-Pasando a otro punto, ¿podría entrevistar a Michael Townley?

"No. Bajo ninguna circunstancia. Lo siento".

-Su viaje a Nueva York, ¿a qué se debe?

"A diversas materias, a varios asuntos. Permanecí allí hasta fines de semana".

-¿Avances en la búsqueda de los cubanos, Virgilio Paz y José Dionisio Suárez?

"Voy muy poco. Puedo señalar que avanzamos. Día tras día vamos a dar con el paradero de ambos. Eso es lo que cuenta".

-¿Indicios de que se encuentren en los Estados Unidos?

"Creo que no. Esa es mi impresión. No nos vamos. Siempre surgen nuevos antecedentes".

Y volviendo al tema del comienzo: Catherine Marshall, encargada de prensa de la División de Asuntos Interamericanos del Departamento de Estado, dijo a LUN PASA que "las relaciones con Chile son totalmente correctas, pero frías. Estamos siguiendo con suma atención lo relacionado con el veredicto en Santiago, por el caso Letelier. Consideramos que los tres oficiales deben ser entrevistados. Es, sin duda, un factor demasiado importante. Sólo el tiempo indicará qué vendrá después. No quiero especular en torno a lo que podría ocurrir".

En cuanto a lo afirmado por Saul Landau, en el sentido de que el Subsecretario de Estado, Cristopher, dijo con respecto al Presidente Pinochet, la funcionaria Catherine Marshall expresó: "Puede habérselo dicho al señor Saul Landau en una conversación privada".

El Embajador de Estados Unidos en Chile, [illegible] Walker Landau, no conoce personalmente a su "tocayo" Saul, hermano de Orlando Letelier en el Instituto de Estudios Políticos de Washington. Pero, [illegible] las afirmaciones contenidas en la crónica de Eduardo Labarca, QUE PASA pidió un comentario a la embajada norteamericana, y fue el propio Embajador quien lo dió en su nombre al apunto telefoneando dos veces ⟹ al Departamento de Estado y hablando una de ellas con Warren Christopher en persona. La preocupación del diplomático se justifica pues, a pocos días del fallo de segunda instancia de la Corte Suprema, cualquier malentendido arriesga envenenar una situación de por sí delicada, sobre todo cuando abundan los intereses en que el veredicto produzca alivio.

Luego de sus averiguaciones, el Embajador Landau determinó terminantemente ante QUE PASA que hubiera habido cualquier tipo de reunión entre el Subsecretario de Estado Warren Christopher y Saul Landau, ni en conversación privada ni ante cinco testigos. Por tanto, aquél no ha emitido ni oficialmente ni en "conversación privada" (hipótesis a que alude Catherine Purcell) el juicio que se le atribuye sobre el Presidente Pinochet.

En cuanto a su propia supuesta declaración a Michael Moffit, el Embajador nos dio detalles: "Cuando llegué a Washington en mi último viaje, recibí llamados de la señora Isabel Letelier y de Michael Moffit para que los recibiera, lo que ocurrió el penúltimo día de mi permanencia allí. Les manifesté que estábamos estudiando lo que haríamos en cuanto a nuestras relaciones con Chile y fue Moffit quien preguntó si íbamos a romper relaciones diplomáticas, y le contesté que yo no podía decirles cuál sería nuestra resolución en el tema, pero, al salir de la entrevista, Michael Moffit manifestó en una improvisada conferencia de prensa lo mismo que ahora dice, esto es, que yo le había anunciado la ruptura para el caso de un fallo adverso de los tribunales chilenos." Un consejero de prensa de nuestro servicio diplomático que se hallaba presente precisó de inmediato que eso sólo lo había dicho Letelier y no yo".

"En vista de lo ocurrido —prosiguió su relato— pedí a Moffitt todo lo que sabía, lo que efectivamente hizo en una reunión celebrada en su vecino con dos periodistas, uno de ellos un reportero de Scripps-Howard, O'Leary, del Washington Star. Allí quedó enterado de todo y de la participación de Estados Unidos por Chile en el asesinato".

También se habían conocido los "Documentos de Santiago" y las actividades de los agentes del FBI. Acerca de lo primero, y cuya lectura es enfática: "Cuando se informó de la existencia de documentos en poder del FBI de documentos enviados desde Chile por el Gobierno (X) Contreras, preguntó si ello era efectivo y se le informó que sólo había un texto, y que, por cierto, los agentes no tienen en su poder tales antecedentes". ¿Y la visita de un Robert Scherrer? "Sherrer a breve distancia visitó Buenos Aires. Allí en su recorrido hacía uso de sus vacaciones y, la verdad, no estuvo por esa época en Argentina, lo que sólo pudo hacer bajo la cobertura que daba su calidad de agente del FBI. Del diario La Segunda [illegible] que estuvieron, con ese motivo, en mi viaje estaba relacionado con la investigación por la muerte del General Prats y negó tener nada que ver con este asunto".

Recent Human Rights Violations in Chile

Serious violations of the integrity of the person, including arbitrary detentions and torture, have continued to take place in Chile in recent months, as reported by our Embassy and non-governmental organizations. Also, in late April, the Military Junta decreed a sweeping new "anti-terrorism law" which clearly established the principles of guilt by association and presumption of guilt, outlaws a wide range of nonviolent activities, and penalizes people who do not report on their fellow citizens. Finally, Chilean exiles continue to encounter stiff resistance in attempting to return home.

In an April 5 human rights round-up cable, Embassy Santiago noted the following:

TORTURE

"It is virtually certain that some in the security services...mete out heavy-handed treatment in political-related cases. The duration of torture now being alleged is shorter (than before). Beatings and electric shock are most commonly charged, with sessions conducted at several secret locations. The Vicariate of Solidarity received 20 complaints of physical mistreatment in December, 1978; 14 in January; 4 in February; and 7-8 in March."

POLITICAL PRISONERS

"The breakdown as of March, 1979 of people charged with nonviolent political activity: 7 paized serving sentences or under trial, 30 free on bail or parole --123." (Note: Subsequent Embassy reports that an additional 52 May Day demonstrators are now free on bail. Over 300 other May Day demonstrators were arrested but freed within hours or a few days. Several other cases of brief detention have been reported during the past two months.)

RETURN OF EXILES

"Although GOC officials give the definite impression following publication of the April, 1978 amnesty that they would greatly relax the criteria for readmission, in subsequent actions and statements it became clear that this was not to be the case...In confidence, a Foreign Ministry official told a visiting UNHRC representative in January that in 1978 some 1,300 requests had been received, 600 were still pending, and only 25 had been approved."

NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS

An article in the spring issue of the Rome-based publication, Chile-America describes a "new escalation of repression" in Chile during the first four months of 1979, citing numerous specific cases of detention and physical mistreatment. The article notes that a great many of the 1979 detentions are connected with investigation into the series of bomb explosions which has occurred in recent months, but states that "many innocent people have suffered along with individuals who, it appears, may have been involved in the bombings." The article also denounces the Government's refusal to permit the return of exiles and cites some cases of expulsion of persons who have attempted to return.

In an April 5 report, the Chilean Committee for the Defense of Human Rights* said:

"During March, 1979 the number of arbitrary detentions increased extraordinarily over the preceding month. There are numerous cases of brutal torture with electricity and beatings which have produced fractured ribs and other broken bones. When the report went to press, there were two cases of detainees whose detention had been denied by the security services for more than 10 days. There is also a report that the CNI (National Intelligence Center --i.e., security police) has opened at least one new torture center in Santiago. The arbitrary actions of the security services have reached the extreme of numerous agents having invaded and occupied a home for an entire week, beating and threatening the lady who owns the house."

(The report then lists 32 individual cases of arbitrary detention during March, including several arrested on March 8 for peaceful celebration of International Women's Day.)

NEW ANTI-TERRORISM DECREE

The Embassy describes the new "anti-terrorism" decree-law, promulgated in late April, as "appearing to open the way for legal harassment of virtually every social/political group in Chile." (Santiago 3024, attached.) The Embassy notes that: "the law...makes all members of an organization presumed conspirators in the action of each for a wide range of activities, only some of which are normally considered 'terrorist', increases pressure on all the citizenry to report on

*The Committee was founded in July, 1979. Clotario Blest Riffo, former president of the Central Unicade Trabajadores, has been its only president. In its Declaration of Principles, the Committee describes itself as a "lay, humanist pluralist organization dedicated to struggling for respect of human rights in accordance with the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights."

suspicious activities...(and) increases penalties for people charged or convicted of 'terrorist' acts." The accompanying Chilean Government statement says that all members of an illegal group, any member of which has carried out an illegal act, "will be taken before the courts...innocent or not... It will not have to be the judge who proves guilt, but the defendant who must prove his innocence."

2. WE HAVE GIVEN CAREFUL CONSIDERATION TO PURSUING POSSIBLE OPENING PRESENTED BY WILLOUGHBY GAMBIT AND TO ALTERNATIVES SUGGESTED PARAS 9 AND 10 OF REF B. WHILE WE ARE OF COURSE INTERESTED IN STRENGTHENING OUR CASE IN CHILEAN SUPREME COURT REVIEW, THERE IS SERIOUS DOUBT THAT FERNANDEZ' CONFESSION WOULD GO SUFFICIENTLY BEYOND WHAT HE HAS ALREADY TOLD US THROUGH WILLOUGHBY. IF IT DID NOT, THEN

WE WOULD BE LEFT WITH SITUATION WHERE FERNANDEZ WOULD BE OFF THE HOOK AND CONVICTIONS OF CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA HIGHLY PROBLEMATICAL IN EITHER US OR CHILEAN TRIALS. THERE IS ALSO QUESTION OF WILLOUGHBY'S BONA FIDES AS A GOC REPRESENTATIVE AND WHETHER HE COULD IN THE END DELIVER. IN TALKING WITH CUBILLOS, WILLOUGHBY WAS CERTAINLY LESS THAN

TRUTHFUL IN CLAIMING TO HAVE MET WHILE IN WASHINGTON WITH CHRISTOPHER, SILBERT, OR, AS FAR AS WE KNOW, SENATOR CHURCH.

2. DESPITE DOUBTS, WE DO NOT WANT TO CLOSE OUT ANY OPPORTUNITY, HOWEVER SLIGHT, THAT MIGHT EVENTUALLY BRING CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA TO JUSTICE. HOWEVER, WE DO NOT WANT TO DEAL FURTHER WITH WILLOUGHBY UNLESS WE CAN DETERMINE THAT FERNANDEZ IS WILLING TO GO SIGNIFICANTLY BEYOND WHAT HE HAS SAID BEFORE. AS WE TOLD WILLOUGHBY IN WASHINGTON, THE ONLY BASIS FOR AN AGREEMENT ON FERNANDEZ IS THE TRUTH. THEREFORE, WE WOULD LIKE ETCHEBERRY TO TELL WILLOUGHBY THAT PROPPER AND BARCELLA WOULD BE WILLING TO MEET WITH HIM IN BUENOS AIRES JUNE 15, WITH ETCHEBERRY PRESENT, IF WILLOUGHBY CAN INDICATE THAT FERNANDEZ IS WILLING TO BE TRUTHFUL AND CANDID IN HIS CONFESSION.

3. PROPPER TO LANDAU: WE DISAGREE WITH ETCHEBERRY CONCERNING THE TIMING OF OUR VISIT WITH HIM AND FEEL THAT HE MISPERCEIVES THE PURPOSE OF OUR TRIP. WE HAVE ALL REVIEWED BORQUEZ' DECISION AND HAVE GONE OVER MANY OTHER MATTERS AND WE WISH TO DISCUSS THEM WITH ETCHEBERRY AND GIVE HIM OUR IDEAS FOR HIS BRIEF. WE DO NOT WISH TO REVIEW HIS BRIEF. THIS WOULD BE DIFFICULT FOR US TO DO BECAUSE OF THE LANGUAGE PROBLEM. HOWEVER, OUR MAIN REASON IS THAT WE WISH TO HAVE INPUT INTO HIS DRAFTING OF THE BRIEF. WE HAVE CONFIDENCE IN ETCHEBERRY'S ABILITY TO WRITE THE BRIEF; WE JUST WANT HIM TO HAVE OUR THOUGHTS ON IT BEFORE HE WRITES IT. HE CAN ALWAYS SEND IT UP HERE AFTER COMPLETION FOR QUICK TRANSLATION AND REVIEW, IF HE WISHES.

4. THERE ARE OTHER REASONS TO COME DOWN AT THIS TIME (LEAVING JUNE 11). WE INTEND TO RESPOND TO THE REQUESTS BY GENERAL MENA PERSONALLY, IF POSSIBLE, WITH A B.A. CNI REPRESENTATIVE, OR AT LEAST GET MATERIAL TO YOU, THROUGH ETCHEBERRY, AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE. THIS WILL PRECLUDE THEIR ALLEGING LACK OF COOPERATION IF WE HAVE TO IMPOSE SANCTIONS BECAUSE WE ARE DISSATISFIED AFTER THE APPEAL. THREE OF US HAVE OTHER COMMITMENTS HERE AT THE TIME ETCHEBERRY WOULD LIKE TO SEE US. ADDITIONALLY, HE SUSPECTS BUT DOES NOT KNOW FOR SURE, THAT THE ARGUMENT WILL BE CONTINUED ALL THE WAY INTO JULY AND WE DO NOT WANT TO BE CAUGHT SHORT. FINALLY, WE HAVE DECIDED, AS THE CABLE INDICATES, TO INVITE WILLOUGHBY TO MEET WITH US AND ETCHEBERRY ON FRIDAY, JUNE 15. WE CERTAINLY WANT TO RESOLVE THIS AVENUE, ONE WAY OR THE OTHER, AS EXPEDITIOUSLY AS POSSIBLE. VANCE

TO : ARA/ECA - Mr. John André

DATE: June 8, 1979

FROM : POL - William B. Wood

SUBJECT: Embassy Commentary on "Desaparecidos" List

Attached are Embassy Montevideo's comments on the list of Uruguayan "desaparecidos" compiled by the Secretariat International de Juristes Pour L'Amnestie en Uruguay. I hope it fills the bill. Without a clearer idea of what use the Department and/or the NGO will make of our response, it was somewhat difficult to know how to reply to your inquiry.

Some explanation of our system of notation may be in order. (1) In cases where we have responded "no information", we have no data at all and, in fact, cannot even confirm that the subject has really disappeared. (2) The cases marked "Argentina" involve known disappearances which took place in Argentina and which are being handled, for the most part, by Embassy Buenos Aires. At the behest of interested parties in the Congress, NGOs, or the Department, Embassy Montevideo has made overtures to the GOU on a number of these cases, always without result. Predictably, the GOU will not respond to claims of human rights violations not occurring on Uruguayan soil. (3) The 15 remaining cases, involving Uruguayans missing and believed captured in Uruguay, have been commented on in somewhat more detail. Every one of these cases has been raised with the Foreign Ministry, most several times. For this reason, we will not make a special approach to the GOU on these cases now, but will continue to raise them as the opportunity arises.

SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR MEETS WITH FONMIN PASTOR

1. [redacted]-ENTIRE TEXT)

2. AT MY REQUEST, I MET WITH FONMIN CARLOS PASTOR YESTERDAY NOON (JUNE 7) TO DISCUSS SEVERAL FACETS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS FIELD. FONMIN, AFFECTIONATELY KNOWN AS "STONE FACE" BY DIPCORPS MEMBERS, WAS IN TRUE FORM. GARBED IN HIS UNDERTAKER SUIT, HE MET ME WITH A STERN LOOK, CERTAINLY NOT AS A MANIFESTATION OF FRIENSHIP. THE MINUS TWO DEGREES (CELSIUS) BELOW ZERO IN THE TOMB-LOOKING OFFICE MIGHT HAVE ADDED TO THE DISTORTED APPEARANCE. KEY POINTS DISCUSSED FOLLOW:

3. FONMIN INITIATED THE CONVERSATION BY REMINDING ME MY AUDIENCE WAS COMING AT A MOST UNFORTUNATE TIME. HE STATED HE, PRESIDENT VIDELA, AND OTHER KEY MEMBERS OF GOA WERE BRISTLING OVER THE LATEST BARRAGE OF SLANDEROUS (HIS WORDS) MATERIAL APPEARING IN AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS. HE STATED ALL THIS HAD THE APPEARANCE OF A CONCERTED EFFORT TO INFLUENCE THE VISIT OF IAHRC. HE DIDN'T QUITE SAY SO, BUT INFERRED MANY MILITARY MEMBERS FELT SOME OF THIS MIGHT BE USG INPUT. HE SPECIFICALLY WAS REFERRING TO ARTICLES APPEARING IN NEW YORK TIMES, PLUS AN EDITORIAL, AND THE LATEST IN THE WASHINGTON POST. HIS VOICE WENT UP ONE OCTAVE AND SAID "CAN YOU IMAGINE COMPARING GENERAL VIDELA TO IDI AMIN" AND CALLING HIM BLOOD-THIRSTY. COMMENT: HE REFERRED TO THE IDI AMIN COMPARISON SEVERAL TIMES, SO IT SEEMED THIS POINT WAS THE ONE THAT HURT THE MOST. FONMIN PASTOR AND PRESIDENT VIDELA ARE RELATED BY MARRIAGE. THEY ARE BOTH MARRIED TO SISTERS. END COMMENT

4. PASTOR HESITATED FOR A MOMENT. THIS PERMITTED ME TO BREAK THE MONOLOGUE AND EXPLAIN TO THE FONMIN OF INDEPENDENCE OF US NEWS MEDIA AND MOST CERTAINLY USG HAD NO INPUT INTO ARTICLES REFERRED TO BY PASTOR. FONMIN GAVE A SIGH OF RELIEF AND THANKED ME FOR EXPLANATION AS HE WAS MEETING PRESIDENT VIDELA LATER. HE ASSURED ME VIDELA WOULD BE HAPPY AND VERY MUCH RELIEVED TO LEARN OF USG NON-INVOLVEMENT. I FURTHER EXPLAINED EMBASSY SATISFIED SERIES OF ARTICLES ON ARGENTINA WERE NOT RESULT OF CONCERTED EFFORT ON ANYBODY'S PART TO EMBARRASS GOA. THIS HELPED PUT PASTOR AT EASE.

5. TIMERMAN CASE: I THEN INQUIRED ABOUT THE STATUS OF JACOBO TIMERMAN CASE. FONMIN REPLIED MATTER AT AN IMPASSE. HE ASURED ME HE AND VIDELA WERE TWO GOA OFFICIALS CARRYING BURDEN IN ATTEMPT TO FREE JACOBO TIMERMAN. FONMIN EXPLAINED AF AND NAVY HAVE BEEN CONVINCED. HE STATED THERE WERE STILL SEVERAL HARD-LINERS IN ARMY WITH NEGATIVE ATTITUDES. PASTOR TOLD ME IF TIMERMAN WOULD SIGN AN AGREEMENT, IN GOOD FAITH, AGREEING THAT ON HIS RELEASE HE WOULD NOT WRITE, CRITICIZE, STIR-UP PROBLEMS FOR GOA CHANCES OF TIMERMAN BEING RELEASED BECAME REAL. PASTOR SAID HE FELT HE COULD PERSUADE HARDLINERS TO GO ALONG WITH RELEASE. HE EXPLAINED HE HAD DISCUSSED THIS MATTER WITH RAM NIRGAD, ISRAELI AMBASSADOR, BUT HAD NOT RECEIVED AN ANSWER. NIRGAD DISCUSSED THIS MATTER WITH ME ON MAY 31 (SEE BUENOS AIRES 4429). NIRGAD MADE IT CLEAR GOA WANTED A PERSONAL GUARANTEE FROM HIM AS AMBASSADOR, AND ALSO FROM ISRAELI GOVERNMENT, SPECIFYING TIMERMAN WOULD NOT WRITE, CRITICISE OR CREATE PROBLEMS FOR ARGENTINA ONCE HE LEFT COUNTRY. ISRAELI AMBASSADOR STATED TIMERMAN HAS FAR EXCEEDED HIS AGE OF MAJORITY THUS HE (NIRGAD) NOT IN POSITION TO VOUCH FOR TIMERMAN'S BEHAVIOR AFTER RELEASE. I PROMISED FONMIN I WOULD CONVEY HIS SUGGESTION TO TIMERMAN'S RABBI. I REMINDED FONMIN IT WAS APERSONAL DECISION ONLY JACOBO TIMERMAN COULD MAKE.

VISIT, FONMIN REPLIED DATE HAD NOT BEEN SET. HE SAID IT COULD BE AUGUST. HE EMPHASIZED GOA HAD ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH POSTPONEMENT OF VISIT. HE REPEATED SEVERAL TIMES GOA WAS PREPARED TO RECEIVE IAHRC AT END OF MAY AND IS STILL READY TO RECEIVE IAHRC AT ANY TIME. HE CLARIFIED HE WOULD BE LESS THAT HONEST IF HE DIDN'T TELL ME THE LONGER IT TAKES IAHRC TO VISIT ARGENTINA THE MORE OPPORTUNITY GOA HAS TO IMPROVE ITS CONDITIONS. PASTOR STATED PLAN WAS TO CLEAR PRISON OF PEN DETAINEES BY END OF YEAR. HE EXPLAINED PRISONER STATUS IN ALL CATEGORIES ARE BEING REVIEWED BY PROPER AUTHORITIES. PASTOR SAID HE DIDN'T HAVE ANY SOLUTIONS FOR "DESAPARECIDOS" NOR HAD ANY CONCRETE INFORMATION BEEN GIVEN HIM ON THE MATTER.

7. NICARAGUA: FONMIN VOLUNTEERED INFORMATION ON CENTRAL AMERICAN CONDITIONS. HE MADE SPECIFIC REFERENCE TO NICARAGUA. EVEN THOUGH THIS EMBASSY WAS INFO TO STATE 146191, I TOOK OPPORTUNITY TO, IN GENERAL TERMS, REVIEW USG'S POSTURE REFERENCE NICARAGUAN ISSUE. I STAYED CLOSE TO AMBASSADOR'S MCGEE'S COMMENTS AS PASTOR INDICATED HE WAS FAMILIAR WITH AMBASSADOR'S REMARKS GIVEN TO OAS. HE APPEARED TO AGREE WITH USG'S POSITION AND ALSO ANDEAN FORMULA. HE STATED MEXICO HAD BEEN PRECIPITIOUS IN THEIR ACTION AND HAD ONLY ADDED FUEL TO THE FIRE. IN A DEFENSIVE MANNER HE STATED ARGENTINA, AT THIS MOMENT, WAS TAKING A SOMEWHAT NEUTRAL ROLE. HE DENIED GOA WAS IN NICARAGUA'S CAMP. HIS SUGGESTION WAS OAS SHOULD SEND A COMMITTEE TO NICARAGUA COMPRISED OF THOSE COUNTRIES NOT EMOTIONALLY INVOLVED. HE STATED PANAMA, VENEZUELA, COSTA RICA, MEXICO, GUATEMALA, HONDURAS, EL SALVADOR WERE ALL EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY INVOLVED. PASTOR STATED HE WOULD DISCUSS NICARAGUAN AND OTHER CENTRAL AMERICAN PROBLEMS WITH VIDELA.

8. DISAPPEARANCES: INASMUCH AS FONMIN SUMMARILY DISMISSED "DESAPARECIDOS" PROBLEMS BY STATING HE HAD NO SOLUTION TO PROBLEM, I AGAIN RAISED ISSUE. I ASKED IF HE KNEW WHAT GOA'S APPROACH WOULD BE WITH IAHRC. HE REPLIED VIDELA AND STAFF MEMBERS ARE SERIOUSLY STUDYING PROBLEM HOPING TO COME UP WITH AN ACCEPTABLE FORMULA. HE DID SAY UP TO NOW THERE WERE NO BRILLIANT REVELATIONS ON THE TOPIC. I STATED TALK OF THE DAY WAS DISAPPEARANCES OF SIX STUDENTS. HIS ANSWER WAS IT WAS A TREMENDOUS SET-BACK TO PROGRESS THAT HAD BEEN MADE. PASTRO ASSURED ME GOA IS EXERTING EVERY EFFORT TO FIND WHEREABOUTS OF THESE YOUNGSTERS. AT THIS POINT HE MADE A PLEA FOR PATIENCE AS IN HIS OPINION PROGRESS WAS BEING MADE, EVEN THOUGH AT A SLOWER PACE THAN SUITED THEM.

9. FONMIN REMINDED ME OF OUR DISCUSSION ON JEHOVA'S WITNESSES A FEW MONTHS AGO. HE TOLD ME A FULL STUDY IS BEING MADE ON HOW TO HANDLE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES WHO ARE CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS, CHILDREN NOT SALUTING THE FLAG, AND NOT SIGNING NATIONAL ANTHEM. PASTOR SAID THEY WANT TO FASHION THEIR "MODUS OPERANDI" IN THE AMERICAN STYLE. HE ASKED ME IF I COULD FURNISH HIM WITH LEGISLATION, LITERATURE OR WHATEVER IS AVAILABLE IN THE MANNER JEHOVAH PROBLEMS ARE HANDLED. I PROMISED HIM I WOULD MAKE THE INQUIRY FROM DEPARTMENT. THEREFORE, SUGGEST DEPARTMENT SEND THIS EMBASSY WHATEVER LITERATURE MAY BE AVAILABLE ON SUBJECT.

10. COMMENT: DIPCORPS LOOKS UPON PASTOR AS A PLEASANT BUT INNOUCOUS PERSON. HE IS CATEGORIZED AS COOPERATIVE BUT NOT KNOWLEDGEABLE IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS. HIS CLAIM TO FAME IS HIS RELATIONSHIP TO VIDELA BY MARRIAGE. UP TO NOW THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ANY INDICATION OF HOSTILITY TOWARDS USG. HE ALWAYS GIVES THE APPEARANCE OF BEING TIRED AND OF BEING A POTENTIAL MEMBER OF THE "GERITOL" SET. END COMMENT.

WE MUST ASSUME THAT BOTH THE PROPPER/BARCELLA VISIT TO BUENOS AIRES AND THE FACT OF THESE LETTERS ROGATORY COULD BECOME PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE. GIVEN THE PRESENT PRECARIOUS STATE OF CHILE/ARGENTINE RELATIONS (THE BEAGLE CHANNEL DISPUTE AND THE NEAR WAR OF LAST DECEMBER), THE ASSUMPTION HERE WOULD BE THAT WE ARE ENCOURAGING AND ASSISTING THE PRATS INQUIRY IN ORDER TO BRING PRESSURE ON THE GOC WITH RESPECT TO OUR EXTRADITION REQUEST. THIS WOULD HAVE A DEFINITE DELETERIOUS EFFECT ON THE CHANCES FOR REVIEW PANEL REVERSAL OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION: THE PROBLEM IS NOTT WITH THE PRATS INQUIRY OR THE REPORTED LETTERS ROGATORY. IN FACT IT MBE USEFUL IF THAT NEWS DID BECOME PUBLIC HERE IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS. WHAT WE NEED TO AVOID IS A CHANCE FOR THE LOCAL MEDIA AND INTERESTED PARTIES TO LINK THE PROPPER/BARCELLA TRIP TO WHATEVER THE ARGENTINE COURT IS DOING. THEREFORE A MID-JUNE MEETING SHOULD BE HELD ELSEWHERE. PLEASE ADVISE SOONEST SO WE CAN OAKE ALTERNATIVE TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS FOR ETCHEBERRY.

4. ETCHEBERRY IS IN AGREEMENT WITH THE PROPOSAL FOR HANDLING WILLOUGHBY AND WILL TALK TO HIM EARLY NEXT WEEK, LEAVING OPEN FOR NOW WHERE A MEETING MIGHT TAKE PLACE.

5. REGARDING THE PAPERS FOR MENA, I DO NOTT THINK THAT THEY SHOULD BE TRANSMITTED THROUGH A CNI AGENT IN BUENOS AIRES OR ELSEWHERE. RATHER I WANT TO STRENGTHEN OUR LINK HERE WITH MENA AND, THEREFORE, ETCHEBERRY SHOULD BRING THEM BACK WITH HIM FROM THE PROPPER/BARCELLA MEETING.

BRIEF OBSERVATIONS ON THE DECISION OF JUDGE BORQUEZ. WE WILL SEND A SUMMARY OF THE DOCUMENT BY SEPTEL AND ARE POUCHING A COPY TO THE CHILEAN DESK FOR PROPPER/BARCELLA. ACCORDING TO ETCHEBERRY, THIS IS A LARGELY PRO FORMA STEP IN THE APPEALS PROCESS AND IS THE ONLY WRITTEN DOCUMENT THAT WILL APPEAR IN THE FILE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE REVIEW PANEL JUDGES. HIS ORAL ARGUMENT BEFORE THE PANEL WILL BY TAPED BUT NOTT TRANSCRIBED.

7. THE PRESS THIS MORNING REPORTS THAT CURZ COKE, LAWYER FOR FERNANDEZ, FILED A SIMILAR DOCUMENT WITH THE COURT JUNE 7; MIRANDA HAS YET TO DO SO. ACCORDING TO ETCHEBERRY THESE DO NOTT CONSTITUTE APPEALS OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION; THE INTENT IS TO ENSURE THAT THE DEFENSE LAWYERS HAVE THE OPPRTUNITY TO SPEAK AT THE REVIEW PANEL HEARING.

SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE: SUMMARY OF DOCUMENT FILED BY ETCHEDERRY

REF: SANTIAGO 4014

1. SUMMARY: FOLLOWING IS A RESUME OF BRIEF USG LOCAL LAWYER ETCHEBERRY FILED BZFORE THE CHILEAN COURTSHON JUNE 7 WHICH OUTLINES OUR OBJECTIONS TO THE BORQUEZ DECISION. THE MAJOR POINT, OF COURSE, IS OUR CONTENTION THAT THE EVIDENCE IS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO JUSTIFY EXTRADITION. SUBSIDIARY POINTS OBJECT TO BORQUEZ' EXCLUSION OF OUR SEPARATE CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY; MALICIOUS DAMAGE AND DESTRUCTION; BORQUEZ INTERPRETATION OF U.S. AND CHILEAN EXTRADITION PRACTICE; AND THE JUDGE'S CONVOLUTED REASONING IN FINDING THE DEFENSE ARGUMENTS SO FILLED WITH FLAWS THAT HE WANTS THE MILITARY TO OPEN A LEGAL PROCESS HERE BUT DOES NOT FIND OUR EVIDENCE AND HIS OWN INVESTIGATIONS GOOD ENOUGH TO MEET THE TEST OF REASONABLE CAUSE. END SUMMARY.

2. ETCHEBERRY'S WRITTEN SUBMISSION TO THE APPEALS COURT OUTLINES

[redacted]

[redacted]AL

WHAT PART OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION THE USG AGREES WITH AND THE POINTS WE WISH TO APPEAL. IT WILL BE RECALLED THAT THE BORQUEZ DECISION HAS TWENTY-NINE NUMBERED POINTS, EACH DEALING WITH AN ASPECT OF THE CASE. ETCHEBERRY SAYS THAT WE AGREE WITH BORQUEZ' FIRST EIGHT POINTS, IN WHICHTHE JUDGE REJECTS THE OPINION OF FISCAL CHAMORRO THAT THE USG EVIDENCE SUFFERED FROM EITHER TECHNICAL DEFECTS IN PRESENTATION OR SUBSTANTIVE DEFECTS IN THE WAY IT WAS OBTAINED AND WAS THEREFORE INADMISSIBLE.

3. ETCHEBERRY THENAGREES WITH BORQUEZ' FINDINGS 9-24 WITH THE EXCEPTION OF BORQUEZ' RULING THAT SINCE "CONSPIRACY", "MALICIOUS DAMAGE" AND "DESTRUCTION" ARE NOT SPECIFIED IN THE TREATY THEY CANNOT BE A LEGAL GROUNDS FOR EXTRADITION. ETCHEBERRY CONTENDS THAT THIS IS SPLITTING HAIRS SINCE ALL THESE CRIMES COUNT SEPARATELY IN U.S. LAW BUT ARE INCLUDED IN THE BASIC CHILEAN CONCEPT OF HOMICIDE.

4. ETCHEBERRY THEN SUMMARIZES BORQUEZ' LOGIC IN CONCLUDING THAT OUR EVIDENCE IS INSUFFFICENT, STARTING FROM THE JUDGE'S ASSERTION THAT ALL OUR EVIDENCE IS ESSENTIALLY DERIVED FROM TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY (POINTH16) BUT TOWNLEY SHOULD NOT BE BELIEVED BECAUSE HE IS A PAID INFORMANT (POINT 18) WHOSE PLEA BARGAIN PERVERTS THE LEGAL PROCESS (POINT21) AND BECAUSE IT CONFLICTS WITH WHAT HE HAD TOLD GENERAL OROZCO IN CHILE (POINT 22) AND THAT HIS WIFE'S TESTIMONY IS SIMILARLY SUSPECT(POINT 23). AND THAT, SAYS ETCHEBERRY, IS ALL.

5. ETCHEBERY THEN RECAPS HIS SUPPORTING BRIEF SUBMITTED AFTER BORQUEZ CLOSED HE "SUMARIO" TO SHOW THAT OUR CASE DOES NOT JUST RELY ON TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY. TOWNLEY KILLED LETELIER AND MOFFITT (WHICH EVEN BORQUEZ ACKNOWLEDGES); HE WAS A

TRUSTED, LONGTIME AND IMPORTANT MEMBER OF DINA AS SHOWN BY

INDEPENDENT PROFF; HE WAS SENT TO WASHINGTON KILL LETELIER ON DINA'S ORDERS WHICH IS ALSO ESTABLISHED BY INDEPENDENT

PROFF. FURTHERMORE, STILL REFERRING TO HIS EARLIER SUBMISSION, ETCHEBERRY POINS OUT THAT HE HAD DEMONSTRATED 12 REASONS TO BELIEVE FERNANDEZ LARIOS' GUILT (NONE OF WHICH HINGE ON TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY) AND 12 OTHERS FOR CONTRERAS, ONLY TWO OF WHICH COME FROM TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY, PLUS 8 MORE AGAINST ESPIMOZA, ONLY ONE OF WHICH IS IN TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY. ETCHEBERRY NOTES THAT BORQUEZ DID NOT ADDRESS THESE POINTS AND RECOMMENDS THAT THE APPEALS COURT JUDGES REFER TO THE FILE.

6. ADDRESSING THE WEIGHT TO BE ATTACHED TO TESTIMONY RESULTING FROM A PLEA BARGAIN, ETCHEBERRY CONTENDS THAT THE JUDGE'S FIRST RESPONSIBILITY WAS SIMPLY TO VERIFY IF THE OTHER EVIDENCE CORROBERATED ORRDISPROVED HIS STATEMENTS. OUR LAWYER STRESSES THAT ALL THE EVIDENCE RECONFIRMS AND REINFORCES TOWNLEY'S STATEMENTS WHEREAS, AS BORQUEZ HIMSELF ADMITTED, WHEN HE STUDIED THE DEFENSE HE FOUND CONTRADICTIONS, ABSURDITIES AND LIES.

ETCHEBERRY DEVOTES A SPECIAL SECTION TO BORQUEZ' RATHER SELECTIVE CHOICE OF THE OROZCO CONFESSION TO SHOW TOWNLEY'S CONFLICTING VERSIONS BUT HIS FAILURE TO ADDRESS THE FT. BELVOIR DECLARATION TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT FERNANDEZ' STATEMENT TO PROPPER -- INCLUDED IN THE EXTRADITION PACKAGE -- IN WHICH FERNANDEZ ACKNOWLEDGES THAT CONTRERAS HAD TOLD THE PAIR TO LIE ABOUT GOING TO PARAGUAY AND THE U.S.

7. TURNING TO BORQUEZ' ANALYSIS OF U.S EXTRADITION PRACTICE AND THE POSSIBLE IMPACT OF RECIPROCITY ON CHILEAN LAW, ETCHEBERRY FIRST NOTES THAT HE HAD SUBMITTED U.S./MEXICO PRECEDENTS SHOWING THAT THE USG HAD EXTRADITED OUR NATIONALS EVEN WHEN WE HAD THE OPTION NOT TO (THESE PRECEDENTS OCCURRED EARLY IN THE CENTURY). BUT ETCHEBERRY CONCENTRATES ON THE CHILEAN SIDE OF THE EQUATION NOTING THAT CHILEAN PRACTICE HAS FAVORED EXTRADTION OF NATIONALS. HE ALSO MAKES A LEGALISTIC ANALYSIS OF THE NEIDECKER DECISION AIMING TO SHOW THAT THE BASIC ISSUE IN THAT CASE INVOLVED PREVENTIVE DETENTION.

8. REACHING THE OPERATIVE PART OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION, IN WHICH BORQUEZ REFERS TO INCONSISTANCIES IN THE DEFENSE AND ASKS A MILITARY COURT TO START, UNLESS AN APPROPRIATE CASE IS ALREADY

IN PROCESS, AN EXAMINATION INTO THE TRIOS' POSSIBLE INVOLVEMENT IN THE HOMICIDES OF LETELIER AND MOFFITT. ETCHEBERRY SAYS THAT IT IS PARADOXICAL AND HARD TO UNDERSTAND WHY THE JUDGE WOULD FIND THERE IS NOT ENOUGH EVIDENCE TO JUSTIFY EXTRADITION IF THE MATERIAL IN OUR SUBMIYSION, PLUS THE JUDGE'S OWN FINDINGS, LED HIM TO ORDER A LOCAL TRIAL TO BE BEGUM. AND BORQUEZ MUST KNOW ABOUT THE AMNESTY LAW OF 1978 WHICH WOQLD HAVE EXONERATED THEM UNLESS THEY FELL WITHIN THE EXCEPTION MADE FOR OROZCOS PASSPORT INVESTIGATION. ETCHEBERRY SAYS THZ JUDGE REALLY SHOULD HAVE BEEN MORE SPECIFIC. FINALLY ETCHEBERRY RETURNS TO THE POINT OF WHY BORQUEZ THOUGHT THERE WAS ENOUGH INFORMATION TO JUSTIFY OPENING A MILITARY "SUMARIO" IN CHILE FOR A CRIME WHICH OCCURRED IN THE U.S. BUT NOT ENOUGH FOR EXTRADITION. TO BE CONSISTANT,

SAYS ETCHEBERRY, BORQUEZ SHOULD HAVE ARGUED THAT CHILE HAD INITIAL JURISDICTION BECAUSE THE INVOLVEMENT OF CHILEAN MILITARY OFFICERS. BUT, HE SAYS, THAT CANNOT BE EITHER, FOR THE U.S. HAS ALREADY CONVICTED TWO MEMBERS OF THE CONSPIRACY AND JURISDICTION CANNOT BE PARCELLED OUT. LLANDAU

3. PRODUCTIVITY BARGAINING: CENTRAL TO THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW IS PRODUCTIVITY BARGAINING. PINERA CLAIMS THAT , AS IN THE UNITED STATES, A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW REAUIRES THE GOVERNMENT TO ENSURE THAT EMPLOYERS ENJOYING SEMI-MONOPOLISTIC POSITIONS DO NOTT COOPERATE WITH TRADE UNIONS TO PASS THROUGH "UNECONOMIC" WAGE INCREASES TO THE CONSUMER. THE GOC ENDORSES THE VIEW THAT CONSIDERS IT A PROPER FUNCTION OF GOVERNMENT TO PROTECT THE CONSUMER FROM SUCH "ABUSES." PINERA ALSO ARGUES THAT LACK OF WAGE COMPETITION FOR UNIONIZED WORKERS IN MINING AND INDUSTRY ENCOURAGE THE SUBSTITUTION OF CAPITAL FOR LABOR, THUS MAKING IT MORE DIFFICULT TO REDUCE UNEMPLOYMENT. THE GOVERNMENT, HE CONTENDS, MUST ESTABLISH A FRAMEWORK TO PROTECT BOTH THE UNEMPLOYEDS' ACCESS TO JOBS AND THE EMPLOYEDS' WORKING CONDITIONS. THE WAY THIS SEEMS LIKELY TO WORK IS THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BEGIN BY SETTING, PRIOR TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING NEGOTIATIONS, A RANGE WITHIN WHICH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING COULD PROCEED. THIS SYSTEM WOULD ACT AS A FORMAL PERMANENT VERSION OF WAGE AND PRICE GUIDELINES. THE RANGE WOULD COVER TOTAL REMUNERATION -- WAGES, SALARIES, AND BENEFITS -- AND BE BASED UPON PRODUCTIVITY STATISTICS PROVIDED BY THE COMPANIES. TRADE UNIONS WOULD BE FREE TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY WITHIN THESE LIMITS AND TO HALLENGE THE PRODUCTIVITY MEASUREMENT. TRADE UNIONS, HOWEVER, WOULD NOT BE PRMITTED TO INSIST ON WAGES AND BENEFITS WHICH EXCEED PRODUCTIVITY CRITERIA.

ENFORCEMENT WOULD BE THROUGH THE THOROUGH REVIEW OF AN AGREEMENT BY A GOC LABOR INSPECTOR BEFORE IT BECAME EFFECTIVE.

4. INCOME SUBSIDIES: THE GOC BELIEVES THAT THE CONCEPT OF AMINIMUM INCOME (NEGATIVE INCOME TAX) SHOULD REPLACE THE PRACTICE OF AMINIMUM WAGE. THE GOC CLAIMS THAT, AS IN THE U.S., THE MINIMUM WAGE REAISES THE COST OF LABOR AND THUS RESULTS IN INCREASED UNEMPLOYMENT. PINERA ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE MARGINAL REVENUE PRODUCT (SKILLS AND OUTPUT) OF SOME WORKERS MAY BE SUCH THAT MARKET FORCES WILL NOT ALLOW THEM A LIVING WAGE. ALTHOUGH WAGES AND BENEFITS WOULD BE BASED ON PRODUCTIVITY, A MINUMUM INCOME (NEGATIVE INCOME TAX) WOULD BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE GOVERNMENT AND INDEPENDENT OF MARKET FORCES. PINERA STRESSES THAT IN THOSE AREAS WHERE "MARKET REMUNERATION", BASED ON THE MARGINAL UTILITY OF THE EMPLOYEE TO THE COMPANY IS BELOW NORMAL LIVING STANDARDS, THE GOVERNMENT HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY TO AUGMENT THE WORKER'S WAGE THROUGH TRANSFER PAYMENTS TO PROVIDE A FAIR STANDARD OF LIVING. THE GOC INSISTS THAT WAGES, HOWEVER, MUST BE SET BY MARKET FORCES AND REFLECT PRODUCTIVITY GUIDELINES PROVIDED BY THE COMPANY AND THE GOVERNMENT. AS ONE WAY OF INCREASING EMPLOYMENT, LABOR LAWS WERE AMENDED LAST YEAR TO PERMIT HIRING YOUTH AT WAGES BELOW THOSE FOR OLDER WROKERS - THE SO-CALLED YOUTH WAGE.

THE GOC BELIEVES THAT THE MINIMUM WAGE SHOULD BE DIFFERENTIATED TO REFLECT THE COMPOSITION OF THE LABOR FORCE AND THE UNEMPLOYED. OF THE 14.8 PERCENT UNEMPLOYED (MARCH1978) ONLY 5 PERCENT ARE UNEMPLOYED MALE HEADS OF HOUSEHOLD. THE REMAINDER INCLUDE YOUTHS AND WOMEN. GOC MINIMUM WAGE-INCOME POLICY IS DIRECTED AT DIFFERENTIATING BETWEEN THESE VARIOUS SECTORS OF THE LABOR FORCE. THE GOC BELIEVES THAT THERE IS NOT A SINGLE MONOLITHIC UNEMPLOYMENT RATE, LABOR POLICY AIMS AT THIS REALITY.

5. RIGHT TO WORK: THE FUTURE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW WILL BUILD ON RECENT LEGISLATION, ESPECIALLY THOSE PROVISIONS FOUND IN THE REFORMULATION OF THE LABOR CODE OF JUNE, 1978, (DL-2200) AND THE OCTOBER, 1878 DECREE SETTING NORMS FOR TRADE UNION ACTIVITY (DL-2376). UNDER THIS LEGISLATION, WORKERS IN A BARGAINING UNIT MAY FORM AS MANY AS THREE TRADE UNIONS REPRESENTING THE SAME KINDS OF WORKERS. PERSONS WHO DO NOTT WISH TO JOIN A UNION MAY ELECT A SINGLE EMPLOYEE DELEGATE WHO CAN BARGAIN FOR ONON-UNIONIZED EMPLOYEES. HOWEVER, THE GOC HAS SAID PUBLICLY THAT BENEFITS OF THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS WILL BE

[redacted]

~~LIMITED OFFICIAL USE~~

EXTNEDED ONLY TO UNION MEMBERS -- A SITUATION THEORETICALLY PERMITTING UNION AND NON-UNION WORKERS IN THE SAME FACTORY TO BE PAID RADICALLY DIFFERENT WAGES AND BENEFITS FOR DOING THE SAME JOB -- AND THUS ENCOURAGING UNION MEMBERSHIP. HOWEVER, AN ALTERNATIVE IS THAT EMPLOYERS WILL OFFER NON-UNIONIZED WORKERS SUFFICIENTLY ATTRACTIVE WAGES AND BENEFITS TO PREVENT UNIONIZATION. THESE TWO DECREES CONSTITUTE A NATIONAL "RIGHT TO WORK" LAW PROHIBITING COMPULSORY UNIONISM. OTHER RECENT LEGISLATION SETS REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AFFILIATION OF LOCAL UNION WITH TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND FOR THE FINANCING OF FEDERATIONS.
6. OTHER PROVISIONS: THE NEW LAW IS EXPECTED TO CONTAIN PROVISIONS WHICH WILL LIMIT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING TO LOCAL UNIONS AT THE PLANT LEVEL AND PERMIT INDUSTRY-WIDE BARGAINING ONLY IN SPECIAL CASES. MOST LIKELY, INDUSTRY-WIDE BARGAINING WILL BE PERMITTED IN COPPER, MARITIME, AND CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRIES AS BOTH WORKER AND EMPLOYER GROUPS HAVE REQUESTED IT. PROVISIONS FOR MEDIATION WILL BE PART OF THE BARGAINING LAW, WITH COMPULSORY ARBITRATION FOR GOVERNMENT WORKERS IN STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES, AND THE RIGHT TO STRIKE IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR IF THE GOC DETERMINES THAT A STRIEK WOULD NOT BE PREJUDICIAL TO PUBLIC HEALTH AND WELFARE, TRANSPORTATION, OR NATIONAL SECURITY. WHERE STRIKES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR ARE NOTT PERMITTED, THE GOC WILL ALSO REQUIRE COMPULSORY ARBITRATION BY GOC-LICENSED ARGITRATORS. THE GOVERNMENT WILL BALANCE WORKERS RIGHT TO STRIKE WITH MANAGEMENT RIGHT TO LOCK OUT EMPLOYEES.

7. COMMENT: BEHIND THE VARIOUS PROVISIONS OF THE NEW LABOR CODE IS A POLITICAL CONCEPTUALIZATION AIMED AT DEPOLITICIZING CHILEAN LABOR UNIONS. THE OBJECTIVE IS TO CONVERT A LABOR SYSTEM WHERE POLITICAL PARTIES AND UNIONS HAVE DIRECT ASSOCIATION TO A SYSTEM WHERE [redacted]

~~LIMITED OFFICIAL USE~~

APOLITICAL LABOR UNIONS HAVE INDICRECT POLITICAL ASSOCIATIONS. THIS CONCEPTUALIZATION IS GIVEN CONCRETE EXPRESSION IN THE FORM OF MULTIPLE-PLANT BASED UNIONS. PINERA HAS STATED THAT THE IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE OF LABOR POLICY SHOULD BE TO DISCOURAGE WORKER-MANAGEMENT CLASHES WHICH WOULD SUPPORT A MARXIST VIEW OF CLASS STRUGGLE. THIS SUPPORT HE BELIEVES WOULD MANIFEST ITSELF IN RENEWED STRENGTH FOR THE CHILEAN COMMUNIST PARTY. FOR THIS REASON PINERA BELIEVES THAT, FOR THE TIME BEING, CHILE SHOULD BEGIN GENERALLY WITH BARGAINING WITHIN A FIRM AND NOT ACROSS AN INDUSTRY. THE HOPE OF PINERA AND OTHERS IS TO SUBSTITUTE "TECHNICAL" CRITERIA FOR THE INTERPLAY OF POLITICAL FORCES THAT FREQUENTLY DETERMINED LABOR SETTLE-

MENTS IN THE PAST. THE SAME HOPE HAS INSPIRED THE DRAFTERS OF CHILE'S NEW CONSTITUTION TO INCLUDE A PROHIBITION AGAINST LABOR LEADERS RUNNING FOR GOVERNMENT ELECTIVE POSITION.

8. THE ENSHIREMENT OF PRODUCTIVITY BARGAINING IN LAW LAST RECEIVED SERIOUS CONSIDERATION DURING THE ADMINISTRATION OF JORGE ALESSANDRI (1958-64). UNLIKE THE LAST TIME AROUND, THE CURRENT GOC DOES NOTT HAVE TO NEGOTIATE WITH VARIOUS INTEREST GROUPS AS REPRESENTED IN A POPULARLY ELECTED LEGISLATURE. END COMMENT.

"MERCURIO'S" POLITICAL WEEK COLUMN JUNE 10 MADE THE POINT SPECIFICALLY. THE COLUMN SAID THAT PARTICULARLY AT THIS DIFFICULT PERIOD FOR CHILE, ALL -- BUT ESPECIALLY THE MILITARY -- HAD TO STAND UNIFIED BEHIND THE PRESIDENT AND COULD NOTT ACCEPT ANY "INDISCIPLINE, EFFORTS TO DIVIDE, OR CORRUPTION." THE EDITORIAL MADE THE POINT THAT ESCAURIAZA WAS VERY CLOSE TO PINOCHET, IMPLYING THAT HE WAS SPEAKING FOR THE PRESIDENT. THE COLUMN WENT ON TO SAY THAT CHILE STILL LIKED AND NEEDED THE UNITED STATES AND THAT THE LETELIER/MOFFITT KILLINGS "CONTRIBUTED TO MAKING BILATERAL RELATIONS MORE DIFFICULT," THE POINT BEING THAT CONTRERAS WAS QUITE A LIABILITY AND IN NO POSITION TO MAKE WAVES.

3. FEDERICO WILLOUGHBY'S WEEKEND COLUMN IN "TERCERA" ALSO QUOTED ESCAURIAZA. IGNORING THE CASE OF FERNANDEZ LARIOS, THE JUNIOR OFFICER INVOLVED, WILLOUGHBY CONCENTRATED ON CONTRERAS AND ESPINOSA. HE SAID THEIR ATTACK ON THE THREE MINISTERS AND THE PRESIDENT HAD COST THEM PUBLIC SYMPATHY AND SHOWED THAT THEIR INTERESTS AND THOSE OF CHILE WERE NOT IDENTICAL. WILLOUGHBY SAID THAT THE GOC IN EFFECT WAS TELLING THE COURT THAT IT WAS COMPLETELY FREE TO DECIDE AS IT SAW FIT. HE ADDED THAT THERE WAS NO ROOM FOR "BLACKMAIL OR FOR FOSTERING SCHISMS," WHICH WAS "NOT TO DENIGRATE THE PATRIOTISM OF THOSE WHO IN THE PAST HAD WORKED TO ENSURE PUBLIC ORDER."

WITH REGARD TO THE WEIGHT ASSIGNED TO EVIDENCE RESULTING FROM PLEA BARGAINING, ETCHEBERRY SAYS THE MAIN ISSUE IS TO SEE IF THE TESTIMONY IS TRUE -- NOT HOW IT WAS OBTAINED. HE POINTS OUT THAT IN SOME WAYS -- GIVEN THE US PENALTY FOR LYING UNDER OATH AND THE LENGTHY CROSS-EXAMINATION PERMITTED IN THE US SYSTEM -- THE WITNESS HAS EXTRA INCENTIVES TO TELL THE TRUTH SINCE IF CAUGHT LYING THE DEAL IS OFF. ETCHEBERRY THEN DISCUSSES NUMEROUS PROVISIONS OF CHILEAN LAW WHICH PROVIDE FOR CLEMENCY, REDUCED SENTENCES OR NONE AT ALL FOR THOSE COOPERATING WITH THE INVESTIGATION INTO VARIOUS TYPES OF CRIMES. 8. IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION ABOUT THE KEY ROLE OF TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY AS PART OF THE SUG EVIDENCE JUSTIFYING EXTRADITION, ETCHEBERRY POINTS OUT THAT THE MAJOR POINTS IN DISPUTE

ARE ALL SUBSTANTIATED BY OUTSIDE EVIDENCE: TOWNLEY KILLED LETELIER AND MOFFITT; HE WAS A LONGTIME, IMPORTANT MEMBER OF DINA; AND DINA SENT HIM TO THE US TO KILL LETELIER. HE ALSO POINTS TO EVIDENCE AGAINST EACH OF THE THREE CHILEAN CONSPIRATORS, LITTLE OF WHICH -- HE SAYS -- IS BASED EXCLUSIVELY ON TOWNLEY'S STATEMENTS. RESPONDING TO CHARGES THAT THE USG IS TRYING TO PRESSURE THE COURT, ETCHEBERRY SAYS HE DOUBTS THAT CHILEAN COURTS ARE SUBJECT TO OUTSIDE INFLUENCE. HE SAYS HE IS SURE BORQUEZ WAS NOT SUBJECT TO PRESSURES, BUT LAMENTS THAT BORQUEZ' "UNFORTUNATE" REMARKS ABOUT THE US LEGAL SYSTEM AND THE NOTORIOUSLY OPEN FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN CONTRERAS AND GENERAL OROZCO, WHICH LED OROZCO TO ILLEGALLY BOOTLEG A COPY OF TOWNLEY'S FIRST CONFESSION TO CONTRERAS, HAD CLOUDED THE ISSUE OF JUDICIAL IMPARTIALITY.

1. SUMMARY: OVER SEVERAL MONTHS, THE NEW CHILEAN MINISTER OF LABOR HAS PBLICLY OUTLINED THE SHAPE OF THE FUTURE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW TO BE PUT INTO EDFECT PRIOR TO JUNE 30. AS PORTRAYED IN SPEECHES AND THE PRESS BY THE MINISTER, THE LAW WILL CONTAIN PROVISIONS FOR PRODUCTIVITY BARGAINING, MEDIATION, COMPULSORY ARBITRATION, AND STRIKES. THE NEW LAW WILL BE COMPATIBLE WITH OTHER RECENT LABOR LEGISLATION WHICH PROVIDES FOR RIGHT TO WORK, MULTIPLE PLANT-BASED UNIONS, AND A SYSTEM OF DIFFERENTIATED MINIMUM WAGES SUPPLEMENTED BY A GOVERNMENT GUARANTEED MIMINUM INCOME PROGRAM. END SUMMARY.

2. CHILEAN LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA HAS DESCRIBED THE SHAPE OF THE FUTURE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW TO BE PLACED INTO EFFECT PRIOR TO JUNE 30. THE LAW IS TO BE CONSISTENT WITH WHAT HE DEFINES AS SELF-FINANCED, AUTONOMOUS, DEMOCRATIC, AND INDEPTNDENT TRADE UNIONS. OF PRIMARY IMPORTANCE TO THE CHILEAN GOVERNMENT IS THAT THE NEW LABOR LEGISLATION ENCOURAGE NON-POLITICAL TRADE UNIONS WHICH WILL PERDORM

General de Brigada (R) Odlanier Mena Salinas
Director National de Informaciones
Santiago de Chile

Estimado General Mena:

En ausencia del Sr. Clegg, quien se encuentra de vacaciones en los Estados Unidos, contesto su carta del 22 de marzo de 1979 solicitando que el FBI y otros organismos de investigación proporcionen cierta información para posibles fines evidenciales en el Caso #192-78 de la "Fiscalía Militar Ad Hoc" contra el General Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda y otros por falsedad y otros cargos, incluyendo conspiración para asesinar y asesinato de un funcionario extranjero. Para asistirlo, le adjunto copias certificadas de varios documentos.

Adjunto a la presente envío copia de un memorandum, fechado 5 de junio de 1978 al General Héctor Orozco Sepúlveda, Fiscal Militar Ad Hoc chileno, de los Procuradores Adjuntos de los Estados Unidos Eugene M. Propper y E. Lawrence Barcella, Jr. La información contenida en el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978 contesta un considerable número de las preguntas y solicitudes expresadas en su carta del 22 de marzo de 1979. Para su información, el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978 incluye varios documentos que proporcionan información y documentación solicitada por el General Orozco. Los inclusos del memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978, tomados conjuntamente con la información contenida en dicho memorandum, deberían proporcionar respuesta a la mayoría de las preguntas formuladas en su carta del 22 de marzo de 1979. Entre los documentos proporcionados al General Orozco figuran el informe de la autopsia y las declaraciones hechas al FBI por testigos en la escena del crimen. Para su conveniencia, adjunto de nuevo como inclusos a este memorandum, copias del informe de la autopsia y las entrevistas del FBI con testigos de la escena. Incluyo también la declaración de Michael Vernon Townley Welch, contenido en la solicitud de extradición presentada por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos contra oficiales del Ejército de Chile involucrados en el caso Letelier-Moffitt. La declaración de Townley proporciona información detallada sobre la planificación y la conspiración que llevaron al asesinato de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Moffitt.

En su memorandum del 22 de marzo de 1979 Ud. solicitó cierta información referente a Rosemarie Fernández de Guest. Como Ud. podrá ver, el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978 al General Orozco proporciona gran parte de esta información al General Orozco. También deseo señalar que Rosemarie Fernández de Guest atestiguó en Santiago, Chile, durante 1978 y que su testimonio se incluyó en la defensa del Capitán Armando Fernández Larios en respuesta al pedido de extradición del Gobierno de los Estados Unidos que se encuentra archivado en la Corte Suprema de Chile.

Ud. ha preguntado si Lawrence Guest, el esposo separado de Rosemarie Fernández de Guest, era empleado del FBI cuando Armando Fernández Larios visitó los Estados Unidos en agosto-septiembre de 1976. El Sr. Guest no era empleado del FBI en esa época. Anteriormente, estuvo empleado en el FBI durante un breve período en 1969-1970 como empleado de archivos. En la época de la conspiración-asesinato de Letelier en septiembre de 1976, el Sr. Guest era empleado de la Marriott Corporation, cuya sede se encuentra en River Road en Bethesda, Maryland. Se notará que la sede de la Marriott Corporation está ubicada al otro lado de la calle directamente frente a un Restaurant Roy Rogers, local desde donde se efectuó la vigilancia de Orlando Letelier, antes de su asesinato. Como sin duda es de su conocimiento, el Capitán Fernández estuvo significativamente involucrado en la vigilancia pre-operacional de Orlando Letelier y proporcionó esta información a Townley en el Aeropuerto Internacional Kennedy el 9 de septiembre de 1976. El Sr. Guest manifestó que se encontró con el Capitán Fernández en el Aeropuerto National de Washington a fines de agosto de 1976, después que el Capitán Fernández llamó y avisó que estaba en Washington, D.C. El Sr. Guest recogió en el aeropuerto al Capitán Fernández y a su compañera de viaje de la DINA, Liliana Walker, en su automóvil y los llevó a Washington, D.C., donde se registraron en un hotel local. El Sr. Guest señaló que durante la estadía de ellos en Washington, acompañó al Capitán Fernández y a Liliana Walker en una gira turística en Washington D.C. de varios lugares no mencionados. Además, el Sr. Guest manifestó que no estuvo a toda hora con el Capitán Fernández o Walker Martínez durante la estadía de ellos en el área de Washington D.C.

UNCLASSIFIED

Según indicado en el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978, Rosemarie Fernández de Guest fue citada a comparecer en Washington D.C.; sin embargo, ella tenía libertad para prestar o rehusar prestar declaración ante investigadores del Gobierno de los Estados Unidos. Fue citada para asegurar su comparecencia en Washington D.C., y para permitir que sus gastos de viaje fueran pagados por el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos. Los agentes del FBI nunca le dijeron que su hermano debería salir de Chile porque podría sufrir daños o ser asesinado.

Su carta del 22 de marzo de 1979 también solicita cierta información sobre Jack Holcum, Presidente de Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc. Llamo nuevamente su atención hacia el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978 en el que se contestan varias de las preguntas formuladas sobre el Sr. Holcomb.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Como lo indican claramente los documentos adjuntos de Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc., el General Washington Carrasco fue utilizado como punto de referencia por Kenneth Enyart/Andrés Wilson/Michael Townley en 1975 para establecer su bonafides. Hubo una comunicación telefónica con el General Carrasco en alguna ocasión entre el 7 de febrero de 1975, fecha del pedido, y el 15 de febrero de 1975, fecha de entrega de los materiales descritos en la factura adjunta de Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc.

Cada una de sus preguntas relativas a Hans Sylten, Vice Presidente de Audio Intelligence Devices, han sido contestadas en el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978. Cada una de sus preguntas sobre Kenneth Enyart han sido también contestadas en el memorandum del 5 de junio de 1978.

El "Coronel Vlado" mencionado en su carta del 22 de marzo de 1979, fue identificado por el FBI como el Coronel Vladimir Secen, un nacionalista croata residente en el área de Miami, Florida. El Coronel Secen fue entrevistado por el FBI y manifestó que aproximadamente a principios del otoño de 1975, conoció a un individuo que usaba el apellido "Saavedra". Identificó fotografías de Michael Vernon Townley como el individuo que él conocía como "Saavedra". Se debe notar que un tal O. Robinson Saavedra trabajó para Michael Vernon Townley durante el período en que Townley estuvo empleado como agente de la DINA. El Coronel Secen manifestó que Townley le fue presentado por medio de cartas de presentación de chilenos que viven en Argentina, quienes habían tenido previamente contactos con Secen.

Michael Vernon Townley, usando la identidad de Hans Petersen Silva, llegó al Aeropuerto Internacional Kennedy el 9 de septiembre de 1976. Hizo los trámites de rutina en Inmigración y Aduanas de una manera normal.

Como le he manifestado anteriormente, el FBI está siempre dispuesto a proporcionar cualquiera asistencia e

También deseo reiterar que cada uno de los individuos sobre quienes Ud. ha solicitado información están con toda probabilidad totalmente a disposición de su Servicio para su propia entrevista, con el fin de que Ud. pueda formular cualesquiera preguntas que Ud. considere apropiadas para sus investigaciones. El FBI también tratará de facilitar, de cualquier modo apropiado, una entrevista suya con estos individuos en los Estados Unidos.

2. BRITISH CHARGE (PROTECT) TOLD ME LAST NIGHT THAT HE HAD RECEIVED TELEGRAM FROM LONDON ASKING HIM TO DEFER HIS LONG SCHEDULED HOME LEAVE. HE INTERPRETED THIS AS A SIGNAL THAT AN AMBASSADOR MIGHT BE NAMED SOON AND THAT THE FOREIGN OFFICE WANTED HIM TO REMAIN IN SANTIAGO PENDING THE ARRIVAL OF THE NEW AMBASSADOR.

3. IN CARRYING OUT MY INSTRUCTIONS CONTAINED IN REFTEL A, I MADE IT CLEAR TO FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS WHAT ACTION USG PLANNED TO TAKE IF AN APPEAL DECISION ON THE EXTRADITION REQUEST WOULD NOT, AS A MINIMUM, CALL FOR LOCAL TRIAL BASED ON OUR EVIDENCE. THE UK ANNOUNCEMENT THAT A NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR WOULD BE APPOINTED TO CHILE WOULD BE MOST UNHELPFUL DURING THE APPEAL PERIOD.

AND INFORM IT OF STEPS WE PLAN TO TAKE IF OUR APPEAL OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION IS NOTT SUCCESSFUL. IN MAKING THEIR DECISION THE BRITISH SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE LIKELIHOOD OF A PRESIDENTIAL DETERMINATION DENYING EXIM CREDITS ON GROUNDS OF CHILE'S HARBORING INTERNATIONAL TERRORISTS. IF IN FACT HMG IS PLANNING TO RAISE BRITISH REPRESENTATION IN CHILE AGAIN TO THE AMBASSADORIAL LEVEL, WE SHOULD URGE THEM TO HOLD OFF SUCH ACTION UNTIL THE APPEALS PROCESS HAS BEEN COMPLETED -- WE ESTIMATE BY MID-AUGUST.

5. I HOPE THE APPROACH CAN BE MADE SOONEST.

WEEK'S ISSUE ABOUT THE CONTRERAS/ESPINOZA IMPEACHMENT REQUEST AGAINST THREE CIVILIAN CABINET MEMBERS, CALLS THE DEFENDANTS' ACTIONS: "CONTRERAS' GRENADES." "ERCILLA" SAYS THAT WHEN THE STORY FIRST BROKE IT WAS BELIEVED THAT THE ISSUE HAD BEEN CONTRIVED AS A PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION TO SHOW THAT THE GOC'S AND CONTRERAS' INTERESTS WERE NOT IDENTICAL AND AS A CHECK AGAINST USG PRESSURE ON THE GOC. BUT, SAYS

"ERCILLA," CONTRERAS' "DARTS" DIRECTED AT PINOCHET CAUSED A REASSESSMENT. PICKING UP THE GOC-LINE, "ERCILLA" SPECULATED THAT CONTRERAS WAS SPEAKING ON BEHALF OF A HARD-LINE FACTION WHICH OPPSES THE PRESIDENT'S TRANSITION POLICIES. "ERCILLA" CONCLUDES THAT CONTRERAS FORCED THE ARMY TO PULL ITSELF TOGETHER BEHIND PINOCHET; THUS THE TRANSITION WILL GO FORWARD.

3. CHRISTIAN-DEMOCRAT "HOY" MAGAZINE REPORTED THE STORY UNDER THE HEAD: "THE LAST SALLY." AFTER REVIEWING THE CHARGES BROUGHT BY CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA, IT NOTED THAT FOR THE FIRST TIME AN ACTIVE DUTY COLONEL HAD GONE OUTSIDE MILITARY CHANNELS TO ACCUSE A CABINET MEMBER. CITIING THE APPLICABLE LAW, "HOY" SUGGESTED THAT ESPINOZA HAD VIOLATED THE MILITARY CODE. "HOY" SAID THAT SOURCES AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE (DIEGO PORTALES) WERE COMPARING CONTRERAS' CHARGES AND SUBSEQUENT BARELY VEILED THREAT AGAINST THE PRESIDENT AS EQUIVALENT TO THE ABORTIVE JUNE, 1973, "TANQUETAZO" WHICH ALSO FEATURED A RETIRED GENERAL AND AN ACTIVE DUTY COLONEL ATTEMPTING TO SOW DISCORD WITHIN THE ARMY'S RANKS. "HOY," SPECULATING ON CONTRERAS' MOTIVES, SUGGESTS THAT SOMETHIN IMPORTANT MUST HAVE PROMPTED HIM TO DISREGARD ADVICE TO REST EASY ON THE BASIS OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION: PERHAPS HE GOT WIND OF A DEAL BETWEEN THE USG AND THE GOC IN WHICH ONLY FERNANDEZ LARIOS WOULD BE EXTRADITED BUT CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA WOULD BE TRIED IN CHILE. IN THIS UNNAMED COUNTRY THE EX-CHIEF OF A SECRET POLICE KNOWN FOR ITS ABRITRARY AND ILLEGAL ACTIONS REMAINS IN THE LUXURY OF A HOSPITAL, ALTHOUGH IN GOOD HEALTH, WHILE CHARGES THAT HE MURDERED TWO PEOPLE OVERSEAS ARE BEING CONSIDERED. THAT IN A MADHOUSE THE INMATES DO NOTT UNDERSTAND THE ABSURDITY AND CONTINUE THE JOKE: THE THREE MEMBERS OF THE "LEGISLATURE" MEET AND WITH GREAT INDEPENDENCE AND SOLEMNITY DECIDE TO REJECT THE CHARGES; THE CHIEF OF STATE SUPPORTS HIS MINISTERS WHO PROSTRATE THEMSELVES IN GRATITUDE.

5. NOW, SAYS FREI, THE COMEDY, LIKE ALL INSANITY, BECOMES SAD. THE ACCUSERS LASH OUT AT THE CHIEF OF STATE, WITH ONLY A PASSING REFERENCE TO HIS LACKEYS. INSANE, BUT NOT STUPID, THE INMATES UNDERSTAND THE REAL TARGET AND THERE IS COMMOTION IN THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT. SOME INMATES GO THROUGH THE WARDS WONDERING: IF STUDENTS ARE EXPELLED FOR SINGING, AND LABOR LEADERS AND WOMEN ARRESTED JUST FOR MEETING, WHAT WILL HAPPEN NOW? BUT A FEW INMATES SAY: "HOW POWERFUL THIS ACCUSER MUST BE, HOW CONFIDENT HE MUST BE." AND, CONCLUDES FREI, THEY ARE RIGHT SINCE THE ONLY REACTION COMES FROM A MINISTER WHO CALLS THE INCIDENT "LAMENTABLE," A DESCRIPTION HORE APT THAN THE MINISTER INTENDED.

6. WHEN "MERCURIO" WANTED CONFIRMATION OF THE CONTRERAS STATEMENT LAST WEEK, IT REPORTED GETTING IT FROM "MAJOR" MARIO JARA SEQUEL, DESCRIBED AS CONTRERAS' MILITARY AIDE. OTHER PUBLICATIONSPICKED UP JARA'S TITLE, LEADING THE ARMY

TO ISSUE AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT DENYING THAT ANY AIDE HAD BEEN ASSIGNED THE DEFENDANTS IN THE MILITARY HOSPITAL. JARA, SAID THE ANNOUNCEMENT, RETIRED AS A MAJOR IN THE ARMY RESERVES IN JANUARY, 1978. (COMMENT: JARA WAS ONE OF THE TWO EX-DINA THUGS ACCOMPANYING MIRANDA CARRINGTON TO WASHINGTON A FEW MONTHS AGO. END COMMENT)

7. TWICE LAST YEAR -- IN AUGUST AND IN NOVEMBER -- SENSATIONALIST "SEGUNDA" ALLEGED THAT CONTRERAS HAD BOOTLEGGED DINA FILES OUT OF CHILE IN APRIL-MAY, 1978, FOR SAFEKEEPING ABROAD. AN EFE WIRE DATELINED WASHINGTON APPEARED IN YESTERDAY'S (JUNE 12) "TERCERA." THE STORY BASICALLY REPORTED FBI AGENT SCHERRER'S REBUTTAL TO A RECENT "SEGUNDA" STORY. IN THAT STORY CONTRERAS' DEFENSE LEAKED PARTS OF ITS BRIEF, ASSERTING THAT SCHERRER FORGED SOME OF THE EXTRADITION CASE EVIDENCE AND THAT HE SUGGESTED TO DINA THAT IT MURDER ANTI-CASTRO CUBAN ROLANDO OTERO RATHER THAN EXPEL HIM IN MID-1976.

8. SCHERRER TOLD EFE THAT IN FACT HE HAD KEPT DINA FROM KILLING OTERO TO KEEP HIM FROM SPILLING THE BEANS ABOUT HIS WORK FOR THE CHILEAN SECRET POLICE. THE EFE ITEM, CITING UNNAMED "WELL-INFORMED SOURCES," SAYS THAT CONTRERAS' DEFENSE ATTORNEY IS DESPERATE BECAUSE HE LOST ONE OF THE PACKETS OF DOCUMENTS HE TRIED TO GET OUT OF CHILE FOR CONTRERAS LAST MAY AND IT FELL INTO USG HANDS. THE JUNE 12 "SEGUNDA" PLAYS BACK THE EFE STORY AS CONFIRMING "SEGUNDA'S" EARLIER REPORTS.

1. (C) SUMMARY: "QUE PASA" THIS WEEK COMES DOWN MORE FORECEFULLY AND POINTEDLY AGAINST MANUEL CONTRERAS THAN THE OTHER TWO NEWS MAGAZINES. IT THUS JOINS "EL MERCURIO" IN THE FOREFRONT OF THE EFFORT TO DISCREDIT CONTRERAS ONCE AND FOR ALL AND TO ADVANCE THE THESIS THAT THE MODERATES UNDER PINOCHET'S LEADERSHIP ARE FIRMLY IN CONTROL OF CONTRERAS' FUTURE. FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS IS INFLUENTIAL IN BOTH PUBLICATIONS. WE SPECULATE THAT, ALTHOUGH CUBILLOS HAS PINOCHET'S APPROVAL FOR THE GENERAL THRUST, FOR HIS OWN REASONS HE MAY BE GOING FURTHER THAN PINOCHET MIGHT WISH. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) "QUE PASA'S" COVER STORY THIS WEEK IS ENTITLED "THE FAILURE OF CONTRERAS". THERE IS ALSO A STORY ON THE POLITICAL CLIMATE IN WASHINGTON SURROUNDING THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE AND AN EDITORIAL, "END OF MYTH," WHICH AIMS AT DISCREDITING THE RECALCITRANT RIGHT

THROUGH THEIR SYMBOL (CONTRERAS). THE COVER STORY CONTAINS A FEW EXTRA FILLIPS NOT FOUND IN THE OTHER PRESS STORIES. IT REPORTS THAT CONTRERAS' LAWYER, MIRANDA CARRINGTON, RECENTLY RAISED THE POSSIBILITY OF BRINGING A "CONSTITUTIONAL ACCUSATION" WITH JUNTA IDEOLOGUE JAIME GUZMAN (GUZMAN REPORTEDLY SAYING THAT WITHOUT A CONGRESS

YOU COULD NOT IMPEACH); AND THAT CONTRERAS HAD MADE SEVERAL UNAVAILING TELEPHONE CALLS TO MILITARY OFFICERS BEFORE SENDING HIS COMPLAINT TO THE JUNTA. THE ARTICLE SPECULATES ON WHAT MIGHT HAVE MOTIVATED CONTRERAS: HOT-HEADED CONTRERAS WENT AFTER CUBILLOS VENDETTA FASHION, BECAUSE CUBILLOS HAD ENDORSED THE LEGAL COURSE OF EXTRADITION RATHER THAN A BLANKET REJECTION OF THE USG CHARGES; MORE LIKELY, CONTRERAS MAY HAVE BEEN ACTING ON BEHALF OF A DISGRUNTLED HARDLINE RIGHT-WING WHICH OPPOSES PINOCHET'S POLICIES ACROSS THE BOARD.

3. (U) THE WASHINGTON DATELINED STORY CONTAINS SOME LOCAL COLOR ON MAJOR US ISSUES AND SOME SHORT INTERVIEWS WITH FBI AGENTS SCHERRER AND CORNICK AND STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN RESTON. IT INDICATES LITTLE SUPPORT FOR THE GOC POSITION AMONG KEY US SECTORS, ALTHOUGH IT STRESSES THAT THE US HAS MANY OTHER FISH TO FRY.

4. (U) THE "QUE PASA" EDITORIAL PICKS UP ON THE THEME THAT CONTRERAS IS THE HERO OF THE HARDLINE RIGHT. IT HARKS BACK EIGHT MONTHS TO A SPEECH IN WHICH INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ DEPICTED THE GOC AS A CENTRIST REGIME STRUGGLING BETWEEN THE LEFT AND "SOME WHO IDENTIFY STRONG AUTHORITY WITH ARBITRARY VIOLENCE," "QUE PASA" SAYS THAT EVEN THOUGH FEW WOULD LIKE TO THINK OF THEMSELVES IN THESE TERMS, THE POLICIES THEY SUPPORT GO IN THAT DIRECTION AND WITH OR WITHOUT CONTRERAS' APPROVAL, MOST OF

THE PEOPLE IN THIS GROUP DESCRIBE THEMSELVES AS ADMIRERS OF THE EX-DINA CHIEF. THUS THE FIRM REJECTION BY THE MILITARY OF CONTRERAS' EFFORTS TO ATTACK THE PRESIDENT AND UNDERMINE INSTITUTIONAL LOYALTY WAS PARTICULARLY SIGNIFICAANT: IT PUT TO REST THE MYTH THAT THIS SECTOR CAN SUBVERT POLICIES THAT ACCORD WITH THE ASPIRATIONS OF MOST CHILEANS.

5. (C) COMMENT: FIRST "MERCURIO" (REF A) AND NOW NEWSWEEKLY "QUE PASA" HAVE ASCRIBED THE WORST POSSIBLE MOTIVES TO MANUEL CONTRERAS' AND PEDRO ESPINOZA'S REQUEST THAT THREE CABINET MINISTERS BE IMPEACHED, AND TO CONTRERAS' SUBSEQUENT THREAT DIRECTED TOWARD PINOCHET. ALTHOUGH CONTRERAS' HAS SUFFERED AT THE HANDS OF ALL THE MEDIA (SEE REF A), THE EXCEPTIONALLY ADVERSE TREATMENT IN THESE TWO PUBLICATIONS UNDOUBTEDLY DERIVES FROM FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS' LONG-TIME CLOSE TIES WITH THEM.

6. (C) CUBILLOS TOLD THE AMBASSADOR CONFIDENTIALLY -- AFTER CONTRERAS' IMPEACHMENT REQUEST WAS REJECTED -- THAT HE WOULD "GET" THE EX-DINA CHIEF "IN SPITE OF " USG MANEUVERS OVER LETELIER/MOFFITT (WHICH, HE SAID, HAD THE EFFECT OF PLACING PUBLIC OPINION BEHIND CONTRERAS). OVER AND ABOVE ANY PERSONAL REVENGE INVOLVED, CUBILLOS RECOGNIZES CONTRERAS AS AN IMMENSE ALBATROSS COMPLICATING THE GOC'S FUTURE. AS A PRAGMATIC BUSINESSMAN, CUBILLOS LIKES THE GENERAL THRUST OF GOC POLICIES BUT WOULD LIKE TO SEE A SMOOTH -- EVEN IF LENGTHY -- TRANSITION TO CIVILIAN RULE. HE BELIEVES THIS IS THE BEST WAY TO EASE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS. CUBILLOS MAY ALSO HARBOR HOPES OF PLAYING AN INFLUENTIAL ROLE IN CHILE'S POLITICAL FUTURE.
CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

7. (C) CUBILLOS COULD HAVE DEMONSTRATED HOW MUCH MUSCLE HE HAD WITH OPINION-LEADING MEDIA WITHOUT PLACING SUCH STRESS ON CONTRERAS AS THE HERO OF THE HARDLINE RIGHT. THE GENERAL THEME THAT PORTRAYS CONTRERAS AS ACTING IN CAHOOTS WITH THE ULTRA-RIGHT APPARENTLY HAS SOME GOC ENDORSEMENT: IT HAS BEEN A COMMON THREAD IN STORIES FROM BOTH THE OPPOSITION AND GOC-SUPPORTING MEDIA, WITH SOME REPORTS CITING GOVERNMENT SOURCES (SEE REFTELS). BUT WE READ INTO THE CUBILLOS-INFLUENCED PUBLICATIONS COMMENTARY, AND PARTICULARLY THE "QUE PASA" REFERENCE TO THOSE WHO ADVOCATE "ARBITRARY VIOLENCE," AN ADDITIONAL TWIST OF THE KNIFE.

8. ALTHOUGH CUBILLOS AND OTHER SO-CALLED MODERATES WITHIN THE REGIME ARE NOW RIDING HIGH, IT IS PROBABLY PREMATURE TO COUNT OUT THE HARD LINE AS REPRESENTED BY CONTRERAS. AS HE HAS OFTEN SEEMED TO DO IN THE PAST, PINOCHET MAY BE TELLING BOTH SIDES A LITTLE OF WHAT EACH WANTS TO HEAR.

ACCIDENTAL. MAINTAINING THE LINE HE WAS TAKEN PUBLICLY, MIRANDA DISCLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONTRERAS/ ESPINOZA IMPEACHMENT MOTION AGAINST MINISTERS CUBILLOS, FERNANDEZ AND VIAL. AS HAS ALSO BEEN REPORTED IN "QUE PASA" THIS WEEK, MIRANDA DID SAY THAT CONTRERAS HAD ASKED HIM ABOUT THE CURRENT LEGALITY OF IMPEACHMENT

MOTIONS AND THAT HE, MIRANDA, HAD QUERIED JAIME GUZMAN ON THE SUBJECT. THE ANSWER WAS NEGATIVE. MIRANDA THEN TOLD ETCHEBERRY THAT CONTRERAS HAS INSTRUCTED HIM NOT REPEAT NOT TO REQUEST A POSTPONEMENT OF THE APPEAL BUT INDICATED THAT THE LAWYERS FOR FERNANDEZ LARIOS AND ESPINOZA, MAY BE PLANNING TO ASK FOR THE ONE WEEK EACH TO WHICH THEY ARE ENTITLED. IN ETCHEBERRY'S VIEW THIS MAY BE NO MORE THAN A CLEVER PUBLICITY MOVE ON THE PART OF CONTRERAS DESIGNED TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT HE IS CONFIDENT OF THE OUTCOME REGARDLESS WHICH PANEL HEARS THE APPEAL. IF BOTH FERNANDEZ LARIOS AND ESPINOZA REQUEST POSTPONEMENTS, THE TWO WEEKS DELAY WILL ENSURE THAT THE APPEAL IS HEARD BY THE FIRST PANEL.

3. (C) ETCHEBERRY THEN MET WITH JOSE BENQUIS, THE RAPPORTEUR ASSIGNED TO THE CASE. BENQUIS SAID THE ORAL HEARING ON THE APPEAL IS ALMOST CERTAIN TO BE PUT ON THE DOCKET FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20 AND THAT HIS OWN PRESENTATION TO THE PANEL OF JUDGES WILL TAKE ABOUT FIVE DAYS. SINCE THE COURT DOES NOT MEET ON FRIDAYS, THE BENQUIS PRESENTATION WOULD RUN THROUGH JUNE 27. ETCHEBERRY WOULD THEN BEGIN HIS ARGUMENT ON THURSDAY, JUNE 28. THIS OF COURSE, ASSUMES THAT NONE OF THE PARTIES REQUEST POSTPONEMENTS WHICH CAN BE DONE ANY TIME UP TO THE ACTUAL STARTING OF THE HEARING ON THE AFTERNOON OF JUNE 20. IT ALSO ASSUMES THAT THERE IS NO LAST MINUTE CHANGE IN THE COURT DOCKET -- I.E., PUTTING

SOME OTHER CASE AHEAD OF THE APPEAL.

4. (C) WHILE AT THE COURT ETCHEBERRY SPOKE WITH THE CLERK AND CONFIRMED THAT AN EMBASSY OBSERVER CAN BE PRESENT AT THE ORAL ARGUMENTS. THE CLERK PROMISED TO RESERVE A GOOD SEAT. ETCHEBERRY ALSO HAD A LOOK AT THE FILE ON THE CASE AND NOTED A RECENT REQUEST FROM ARMY VICE CHIEF OF STAFF GENERAL FORESTIER FOR COURT CONCURRENCE IN THE DEPARTURE OF ESPINOZA AND FERNANDEZ LARIOS FROM THE MILITARY HOSPITAL, SINCE THEY ARE NO LONGER UNDER MEDICAL TREATMENT. THE COURT ASKED WHERE THEY WOULD BE HELD IN LIEU OF THE HOSPITAL. IN HIS REPLY, FORESTIER SAID THAT FERNANDEZ LARIOS WOULD REMAIN IN THE HOSPITAL (NO EXPLANATION GIVEN) BUT THAT ESPINOZA WOULD BE KEPT UNDER HOUSE ARREST AT THE LO AGUIRRE NUCLEAR REACTOR SITE -- A MILITARY INSTALLATION ON THE ROAD TO VALPARAISO. THE COURT HAS AGREED, BUT ETCHEBERRY WAS UNABLE TO LEARN WHETHER ESPINOZA HAS, IN FACT, LEFT THE HOSPITAL.

5. (S) TECHEBERRY MET ALONE WITH WILLOUGHBY THE EVENING OF JUNE 13 AND GAVE HIM THE MESSAGE CONTAINED REFTEL B -- THAT THE JUSTICE TEAM WOULD BE INTERESTED IN TALKING TO WILLOUGHBY IN RIO BUT ONLY IF FERNANDEZ LARIOS IS WILLING TO BE TRUTHFUL AND CANDID IN HIS CONFESSION. WILLOUGHBY DID NOT RULE OUT FURTHER MOVEMENT IN THIS DIRECTION BY FERNANDEZ (AND PROMISED TO TALK TO HIM THIS MORNING) BUT SAID THAT CRUZ COKE, THE LAWYER FOR FERNANDEZ LARIOS, IS NOW STRONGLY AGAINST THIS SORT OF LAST MINUTE MANEUVER. ON BALANCE, WILLOUGHBY THOUGHT IT BEST TO CONTINUE HIS EFFORTS HERE TO CONVINCE THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES THAT THE GOC WOULD NOT OBJECT TO THE EXTRADITION OF CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA WHILE, IN THAT CASE, THE USG WOULD NOT MAKE AN ISSUE OF THE FACT THAT FERNANDEZ LARIOS WAS NOT INCLUDED. WILLOUGHBY CLAIMED TO HAVE TALKED TO PINOCHET ON HIS RETURN FROM THE UNITED STATES AND THAT IT WAS PINOCHET WHO SUGGESTED HE GO SEE FOREIGN MINISTER

~~SECRET~~

CUBILLOS AND INTERIOR MINISTER FERNANDEZ (SEE PARAGRAPH 3 OF REFTEL A). WILLOUGHBY ALSO CLAIMED THAT HE HAD BEEN TALKING TO MILITARY OFFICERS AND HE REFERRED TO HIS RECENT NEWSPAPER COLUMNS, WHICH HAVE TRIED TO DRAW A LEGAL DISTINCTION BETWEEN COFTRERAS AND ESPINOZA ON THE ONE HAND AND FERNANDEZ LARIOS ON THE OTHER.

6. (S) ETCHEBERRY GOES TO RIO THIS AFTERNOON TO MEET WITH THE JUSTICE TEAM. IN ADDITION TO DISCUSSING ETCHEBERRY'S ORAL ARGUMENT BEFORE THE APPEAL PANEL ETCHEBERRY WILL SEEK GUIDANCE FROM PROPPER/BARCELLA ON TWO POINTS RELATED TO THE WILLOUGHBY GAMBIT: (1) WHEN HE RETURNS CAN HE ASSURE WILLOUGHBY THAT IF THE APPEAL PANEL DECIDES IN FAVOR OF EXTRADITION FOR CONTRERAS AND ESPINOZA BUT NOT FERNANDEZ LARIOS, THE USG WILL NOT MAKE AN ISSUE OF THE LATTER'S EXCLUSION. WE SEE NO RISK IN SUCH ASSURANCES AND THERE IS STILL AN OUTSIDE CHANCE THAT WILLOUGHBY CAN PLAY A HELPFUL ROLE. (2) ETCHEBERRY WILL DISCUSS FURTHER THE IDEA OF ASKING WILLOUGHBY TO USE HIS INFLUENCE WITH CRUZ COKE AND FERNANDEZ LARIOS TO THE END THAT THEY DO NOT REQUEST A POSTPONEMENT. IF SUCCESSFUL AND IF MIRANDA STICKS TO HIS DECLARED INTENTION OF NOT ASKING FOR A POSTPONEMENT, IT WOULD STILL BE POSSIBLE TO HAVE THE APPEAL HEARD IN JUNE BY THE SECOND PANEL -- THE ONE WE BELIEVE MOST LIKELY TO DECIDE ON THE MERITS OF THE CASE.

3. ACCORDING TO A LOCAL DIPLOMATIC SOURCE, ANSA NEWS AGENCY HAS REPORTED THAT THE ARGENTINES HAVE SENT MICHAEL TOWNLEY A SERIES OF QUESTIONS REGARDING HIS KNOWLEDGE OF THE ASSASSINATION OF GENERAL PRATS IN BUENOS AIRES IN 1974. THE STORY REPORTEDLY ADDS THAT THE ITALIANS HAVE ALREADY SENT QUERIES TO TOWNLEY ABOUT THE ATTEMPT ON THE LEIGHTONS IN ROME IN 1975. Dear Sir:

Since 1960 I have been a customer of your bank, and for 16 years, my husband, Orlando Letelier, banked with Riggs. It has been very painful and disturbing to me to learn of loans extended by your bank to the current military dictatorship in Chile, and the apartheid government of South Africa.

As you must be aware, my husband served as Chilean ambassador to the United States. At the time of the 1973 military coup, he was arrested and tortured and then finally expelled from the country, as were thousands of others. On Sept. 21, 1976, Orlando was assassinated in a car-bombing which also took the life of a young woman, an American citizen, Ronni Moffitt. After much investigation, the U.S. government has found irrefutable evidence against high officials of the Chilean government, sufficient to warrant the U.S. government's demand for their extradition to this country to stand trial for conspiracy to murder.

The regime of General Augusto Pinochet, Chile's military dictator, has so flagrantly and brutally destroyed human lives--not to mention human rights and democratic principles --that in 1976 the U.S. Congress voted to cut off all aid to the Chilean dictatorship. Last year Michael Moffitt and I worked on a study of U.S. private banks' lending practices which proved that private bank loans to dictatorships in Chile and other countries totally undermine and nullify the effects of U.S. government aid cut-offs based on its human rights policies. These bank loans serve as the last resort for brutal, internationally isolated regimes such as those of Chile and South Africa. The human suffering such loans support cannot be measured in rates of return, or credit-worthiness. I believe the social costs of an economic policy such as has been currently imposed in Chile should be a factor in Riggs' considerations on whether to loan to a certain country. The harsh effects of these policies foment social instability and underdevelopment, and, consequently, a system imposed through force, that cannot be maintained indefinitely. I am sure that Riggs' money could be lent instead to underdeveloped neighborhoods here in this city, as an investment in a positive and productive future.

The murder of my husband and his colleague--a U.S. citizen--was an act of international terrorism that occurred within three blocks of the international branch of your bank. Yet the loans by Riggs Bank to Chile and South Africa help perpetuate the inhumane policies in both these countries. That is the reason I wish to herewith close both my checking and savings accounts at your bank, upon payment of all outstanding checks. I have also made the necessary arrangements to continue the monthly payments on the mortgage on my home.

Sincerely,

Isabel Letelier

SUBJECT: ORIT BOYCOTT: GOC EASES DEADLINE AND REQUIREMENTS ON UNION DUES AND AFFILIATIONS

REF: SANTIAGO 4023, SANTIAGO 3457

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC HAS INFORMALLY EASED THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS AND INDEFINITELY EXTENDED THE JUNE 1 DEADLINE REQUIRED BY DECREE LAW 2545 FOR AFFILIATING WITH TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND FOR AUTHORIZING DUES CHECKOFFS. WE ARE RELIABLY INFORMED THAT PRACTICALLY ALL TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS WHO HAVE ATTEMPTED TO COMPLETE THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS HAVE DONE SO SUCCESSFULLY. COPPER AND MARITIME SECTORS WERE EXCLUDED FROM THE LAW. END SUMMARY

2. THE GOC PUBLISHED DECREE LAW 2545 ON FEBRUARY 9, RESTORING TO TRADE UNIONS THE RIGHT TO AFFILIATE WITH A FEDERATION OF THEIR CHOICE AND TO CONTRIBUTE THROUGH THE DUES CHECKOFF SYSTEM. THESE RIGHTS HAD BEEN TAKEN AWAY BY DECREE LAW 2376 ON OCTOBER 20, 1978. THE FEBRUARY LAW, HOWEVER, CONTAINED WHAT WAS WIDELY INTERPRETED AS A SUDDEN DEATH DEADLINE OF JUNE 1 TO COMPLETE A COMPLICATED SERIES OF LEGAL REQUIREMENTS.

3. UNDER THE STRICT TERMS OF THE LAW, A TRADE UNION HAD TO CALL TWO SEPARATE MEETINGS. EACH OF THESE MMETINGS HAD TO HAVE A SINGLE ITEM ON THE AGENDA, EITHER DUES CHECKOFFS OR AFFILIATION WITH A FEDERATION. FIFTY PERCENT OF HE MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNION CONSTITUTED A QUORUM AND THE VOTE BY SECRET BALLOT HAD TO BE WON BY AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERSH THE TRADE UNION. A LABOR INSPECTOR OR

NOTARY PUBLIC HAD TO BE PRESENT AND ATTEST TO THE FULFILLMENT OF THESE REQUIREMENTS. THESE PROCEDURES WERE TO BE REPEATED EVERY TWO YEARS.

4. UNDER THE NEW EASEMENTS, LOCAL UNIONS ARE NOW PERMITTED TO AFFILIATE WITH A FEDERATION SIMPLY BY CALLING FOR AN ELECTION BY A SECRET BALLOT UNDER THE WATCHFUL EYES OF A NOTARY PUBLIC. FURTHERMORE, THE LABOR MINISTRY IS PERMITTING TRADE UNIONS WITH SEVERAL BRANCHES OR SEVERAL SHIFTS, OR WITH EMPLOYEES IN MORE THAN ONE COMPANY, TO HOLD SEVERAL SEPARATE MEETINGS. THE SECRET BALLOT VOTES, SUPERVISED BY A LABOR INSPECTOR OR NOTARY, ARE SUBSEQUENTLY AGGREGATED TO MEET THE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS FOR AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY. FINALLY, THE NEW INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW DOES AWAY WITH THE JUNE 1 CUTOFF DATE FOR AFFILIATION. UNIONS MAY NOW AFFILIATE WITH A FEDERATION AT ANY TIME. HOWEVER, EMPLOYERS ARE STILL REQUIRED BY LAW TO CUT OFF DUES CHECKOFFS FOR THOSE TRADE UNIONS WHICH HAVE NOT MET AFFILIATION REQUIREMENTS DURING THE FIRST COMPLETE PAY CYCLE AFTER JUNEE 1.

5. COMMENT: LABATT HAS SPOKEN TO A WIDE VARIETY OF TRADE UNION LEADERS WHO EXPRESS SATISFACTION THAT WORKERS HAVE OVERWHELMINGLY SUPPORTED THE CONTINUATION OF THEIR TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS BY AUTHORIZING BOTH DUES CHECKOFFS AND MEMBERSHIP IN EXISTING FEDERATIONS. SOME DEMOCRATIC TRADE

UNIONISTS HAVE USED THE MORE COMPLICATED PROCEDURES IN PARAGRAPH THREE AND STATE THAT THEY HAVE ACTUALLY INCREASED THE NUMBER OF AFFILIATES. SO FAR, TO OUR KNOWLEDGE, PRACTICALLY ALL TRADE UNIONS WHICH ATTEMPTED TO COMPLETE THE PROCEDURES REQUIRED BY THE LAW HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL, EXCEPT HUACHIPATO STEELWORKERS (CAP) AND PRO-GOVERNMENT CONSTRUCTION WORKERS. Dear Friends,

We are writing to encourage you and your organizations to join in the actions initiated by the D.C. Bank Campaign and withdraw any accounts you may have with the Riggs National Bank. The significance of your action would certainly outweigh any small inconveniences it may cause you.

Last Friday, June 15th, the Institute for Policy Studies participated in the launching of the D.C. Bank Campaign for withdrawal by closing its account with the Riggs National Bank to protest its loans to repressive governments, most notably, those currently ruling Chile and South Africa.

Private U.S. Bank loans have become the mainstay for these governments and in effect subsidize their policies of state terrorism. The Riggs boycott is one of many that have been undertaken across the country to protest the lending policies of some of America's largest banks: Wells Fargo and the Bank of America, San Francisco; First Chicago, Chicago; and Chase Manhattan, Chemical Bank, and Manufacturers Hanover Trust, New York. These same banks are among those whose redlining policies are hastening the deterioration of our major cities while they loan and/or invest in morally bankrupt regimes whose economic policies warrant force to impose them on the majority of the population.

Enclosed are sample letters to the officers of the Riggs National Bank that can serve as models for your letters. It is important that the bank be informed as to why the accounts are being withdrawn. Copies of letters should be sent to Rep. Henry Reuss, Chairman of the House Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Also enclosed is a newspaper clipping that outlines some of the research done by the D.C. Bank Campaign on the lending practices of the Riggs Bank here and abroad. If you, personally, or your organizations do not have savings or checking accounts with Riggs, please pass this on to those who do and ask them to join the withdrawal campaign.

You know from your own experiences the positive impact that broad public pressure can bring to bear on policy formulation; here's a chance to make our money speak--without spending any!

Sincerely,

Michael Moffitt

Dear Senator Cranston:

Thank you for your correspondence of June 5 concerning Mr. Guillermo Galvez Rivadeneira of Chile.

The Bureau of Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs wrote to [redacted] for Guillermo Galvez Rivadeneira on June 4. We notified him that we had requested our Embassy in Santiago to make an inquiry to the Chilean Government on Mr. Galvez Rivadeneira's behalf and to supply us with the names of appropriate Chilean officials to whom the Committee can write directly. We expect a response from the Embassy shortly and will notify [redacted] at that time.

We appreciate your interest in this case. As you know, our government has made repeated efforts to obtain information about disappeared persons in Chile. Part of our efforts to influence the Chilean Governments' policies on disappeared persons and other human rights problems has been the termination of military and economic aid to Chile. We will continue to express our concern at every opportunity to the Chilean authorities, and we will do all we can to elicit a more thorough accounting of such cases.

Sincerely,

AND THAT HE HAD BROUGHT ADDITIONAL MATERIAL BEARING ON THE CASE.

3. THE SUNDAY JUNE 17 "MERCURIO" CONTAINED A LENGTHY INTERIVIEW WITH EX-MINISTER OF ECONOMY PABLO BAROANA, APARENTLY ONE OF A SERIES DESIGNED TO SHOW THE ROLE OF CIVILIANS IN THE PINOCHET GOVERNMENT. IN RESPONSE TO A LEADING QUESTION AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE INTERVIEW, BARAONA AGREED WITH THE PROPOSAL THAT

"CHILEANS ALWAYS OVERESTIMATE THE ROLE OF THE UNITED STATES." BARAONA SAID THAT U.S. ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE IS "ABSOLUTELY MARGINAL" AND THAT CHILEANS HAVE "LIVED WITH A TREMENDOUS INTELLECTUAL COMPLEX REGARDING THE U.S. . . . . IT IS IMPORTANT FOR THE GOVERNEMT TO ERASE THIS MINSET." BARAONA ADDED THAT WHILE IT IS USEFUL TO HAVE GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE U.S. AND WESTERN EUROPE IT CERTAINLY IS "NO MATTER OF LIFE OR DEATH, OR EVEN THE KEY TO ECONOMIC PROGRESSM

4. "MERCURIO" ALSO PROMINENTLY PUBLISHED IN ITS SUNDAY EDITION A CONTRIBUTION FROM SERGIO GUTIERREZ OLIVOS, ALESSANDRI'S AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON AND CURRENTLY A LAW PROFESSOR. GUTIERREZ STARTS OF WITH A SECTION CONDEMNING SENATOR KENNEDY AND OTHER "U.S. POLITICIANS" FOR ATTEMPTING TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE CHILEAN COURTS WHILE THEY ARE CONSIDERING THE EXTRADITION CASE ON APPEAL. HE THEN DEDICATES THE REST OF THE COLUMN TO HIS OWN FORM OF PRESSURE THROUGH HIS DESCRIPTION OF U.S. EXTRADITION POLICY. HE CONTENDS (AS DID JUDGE BORQUEZ IN HIS FIRST INSTANCE OPINION) THAT CHILE HAS NO MORAL OBLIGATION TO EXTRADITE ITS NATIONALS TO THE U.S. SINCE IN A RECIPROCAL SITUATION THE USG WOULD NOT EXTRADITE TO CHILE. (COMMENT: OUR LOCAL LAWYER SAYS THAT THE ARTICLE CONTAINS SEVERAL FACTUAL ERRORS WHICH HE PLANS TO CORRECT WITH A LETTER TO THE PAPER.)

5. "MERCURIO'S" WEEKLY POLITICAL EDITORIAL, NORMALLY WRITTEN BY ARTURO FONTAINE, PICKS UP SOME RECURRENT THEMES BUT ENDS

ON A NEW NOTE. FONTAINE FINDS STATEMENTS AND THREATS BY U.S. LEGISLATORS UNFORTUNATE BUT DESCRIBES AS EVEN MORE SERIOUS AMBASSADOR LANDAU'S STATEMENT (ON HIS RECENT RETURN FROM WASHINGTON) THAT U.S. SOVEREIGNTY HAD BEEN VIOLATED BY THE WASHINGTON ASSASSINATIONS. THIS IMPLIES, ACCORDING TO FONTAINE, THAT CHILEAN OFFICIALS WERE SOMEHOW INVOLVED. FONTAINE THEN GOES ON TO SAY THAT CHILEANS WORRY TOO MUCH ABOUT THE USG'S POLICIES; THE STRENGTH OF THE GOC DERIVES FROM ITS STRONG ECNOMIC PROGRAM WHICH ALLOWS FOR TRUE INDEPENDENCE. "MERCURIO" -- WITH UNINTENDED IRONY -- FINDS THAT CHILEANS OVERESTIMATE THE VALUE OF USG SUPPORT WHICH NORMALLY HAS BEEN WANTING WHEN THE CHIPS ARE DOWN. SPECIFICALLY,

THE COLUMNIST FINDS THAT THE USG DID NOT TAKE THE GOC'S SIDE AGAINST THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST COMSPRIACY IN RECENT YEARS. ACCORDING TO "MERCURIO" THE BEST WAY TO DEFEND NATIONAL SECURITY IS THROUGH A HARMONIOUS CIVIL/MILITARY TRANSITION PERIOD RATHER THAN THE HARD-NOSED " NATIONAL SECURITY" DOCTRINE SOME HAVE ASCRIBED TO MILITARY GOVERNMENTS. HOWEVER, "MERCURIO" THINKS THAT NOW THAT THE ECONOMY HAS RECOVERED AND FOREIGN RESERVES ARE PLENTIFUL THE MILITARY, ALSO, SHOULD BE ALLOWED "TO INTROUCE MODERN, RATIONAL TECHNOLOGIES IN EQUIPMENT AND ORGANIZATION."

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Files June 19, 1979

SUBJECT: Talk with Etcheberry, June 17, 1979

E.O. 12065: GDS 6/19/85 (SERVICE, ROBERT E.) OR-M

Etcheberry had returned from his Rio meeting with Propper and the others late the preceding day. The Ambassador asked him to come to the Residence at 6:00 p.m. to report on the trip. Dan Clare, Wiley Gilstrap and Bob Service were also present. We talked for about an hour and a half.

The Willoughby Gambit

Etcheberry raised with Propper the idea of giving Willoughby an assurance that if the Supreme Court granted extradition for Contreras and Espinoza, but not Fernandez Larios, the USG would not make an issue of the exclusion of the latter; and whether we should ask Willoughby as a token of good faith to use his influence to prevent Fernandez Larios and his lawyers from requesting a postponement of the Review Panel oral arguments. On the first point, Propper was in agreement only on condition we got a written statement from Fernandez Larios saying he would be willing to come to the United States to testify in a trial of Contreras and Espinoza. Etcheberry had the distinct impression that Propper does not feel confident of our case against Contreras, before a U.S. jury, in the absence of direct testimony from Fernandez Larios. The letters-rogatory technique would not be adequate.

Given the importance attached by Propper to getting Fernandez to the US, Etcheberry argued that we should not seek any further for an agreement with Willoughby, pressing instead for the extradition of all three men. On the second point, in the absence of any concrete offer on our part, Etcheberry said it would not be appropriate to request Willoughby's good offices in avoiding a postponement on the part of Fernandez Larios or his lawyers. Etcheberry says that Propper and company accepted his position.

Etcheberry's Line of Argument Before the Review Panel

Etcheberry set forth to Propper, and reiterated to us, the line of argument he intends to take in his oral presentation to the Review Panel. Ostensibly, it's the all or nothing approach: the USG has requested the extradition of the three men and has provided adequate documentation to justify such a decision by the Court; if the Court does not grant extradition, it must do so in the full awareness that the men will escape all punishment for the acts committed; the nature of the crime and pertinent Chilean laws are such that there is no apparent way in which the three could be tried and prosecuted in Chile for the assassinations of Letelier and Moffitt; therefore, justice requires their extradition.

CONFIDENTIAL
UNCLASSIFIED

We pointed out to Etcheberry that this line of argument seemed to contradict the instructions the Ambassador received following his most recent trip to Washington and which have been communicated to the GOC. We have said that we will accept a serious trial in Chile based upon our evidence. Implicit in this line of reasoning is the possibility that the Review Panel could find the men extraditable but refuse extradition on grounds of nationality, thus giving full weight to our evidence for purposes of local trial. In replying, Etcheberry claimed, a point he has never made quite so forcefully in our discussions, that there is no obligation on the Chileans to try the three officers even if extradition is refused solely on grounds of nationality. It is not required by the Bilateral Extradition Treaty and the US reservation on this part of the Montevideo Convention nullifies its applicability to Chile in the present instance.

Nevertheless, Etcheberry believes that if the Supreme Court Review Panel is given only the options of extraditing or allowing the three to go unpunished in Chile, and confronted by a resolute USG position demanding extradition for all three, it will find some middle course that will permit a serious trial in Chile based upon our evidence. He is not sure of the precise shape of that solution much less whether it would be strictly legal, but he is confident that the Court will find a way: "That's their problem, not ours." Etcheberry said that this proposal and analysis evoked considerable discussion with Propper and the others in Rio but that in the end they agreed.

Comment

When Etcheberry makes his oral argument, Cubillos and others in the GOC who are aware of our position with respect to US-Chile relations more generally may wonder whether the USG is playing straight. Some judicious guidance may be necessary: Extradition has been and remains our priority interest. Etcheberry, as a highly skilled lawyer, is making the strongest case possible to achieve that objective. While he is unable to see any good alternative that would ensure justice being done in regard to the assassinations of Letelier and Moffitt, we cannot, of course, rule out that the Supreme Court Panel may find such a solution. The position of the USG has not changed from that conveyed by Ambassador Landau to Foreign Minister Cubillos on June 5.

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Buenos Aires, Argentina
June 19, 1979

DOJ

General de Brigada (R) Odlanier Mena Salinas
Director Nacional de Informaciones
Santiago de Chile

Dear General Mena:

In the absence of Mr. Clegg, who is in the United States on vacation, I am responding to your letter of March 22, 1979, requesting that the FBI and other pertinent investigative bodies provide certain information for possible evidentiary purposes in Case 3192-78 of the "Fiscalia Militar Ad Hoc" against General Manuel Contreras Sepulveda and others for misrepresentation and other charges, including conspiracy to murder and murder of a foreign official. I am attaching certified copies of various documents for your assistance.

Attached hereto is a copy of a memorandum, dated June 5, 1979, to General Hector Orozco Sepulveda, Ad Hoc Chilean Military Prosecutor, from Assistant U.S. Attorneys Eugene H. Propper and E. Lawrence Barcella, Jr. Information contained in the June 5, 1979, memorandum answers a significant number of the questions and requests made in your March 22, 1979, letter. For your information, the June 5, 1979, memorandum was accompanied by various documents which provided information and documentation requested by General Orozco. The attachments to the June 5, 1979, memorandum, taken in conjunction with information contained in the memorandum should answer the majority of questions set forth in your March 22, 1979, letter. Among documents provided to General Orozco were autopsy reports and statements provided to the FBI by witnesses at the crime scene. For your convenience, I am again submitting as an attachment to this memorandum, copies of the autopsy reports and FBI interviews of witnesses at the scene. Also, I am attaching the statement of Michael Vernon Townley Welch, which was contained in the United States Government's request for the extradition of the Chilean Army Officers involved in the Letelier-Moffitt case. Townley's statement provides detailed information concerning the planning and the conspiracy, which led to the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt.

In your March 22, 1979, memorandum, you requested certain information regarding Rosemarie Fernandez de Guest. As you will note, in the June 5, 1979, memorandum to General Orozco, a substantial amount of this information was provided to General Orozco. I would also point out that Rosemarie Fernandez de Guest was deposed in Santiago, Chile, during 1978, and her deposition was included in the defense response of Captain Armando Fernandez Larios to the United States Government's extradition request which is filed with the Supreme Court of Chile.

You have asked whether Lawrence Guest, the estranged husband of Rosemarie Fernandez de Guest, was an employee of the FBI at the time Armando Fernandez Larios visited the United States in August-September 1976. Mr. Guest was not an employee of the FBI at that time. Previously, he had been employed by the FBI for a brief period in 1969-1970 as a file clerk. At the time of the Letelier conspiracy-murder in September 1976, Mr. Guest was employed by the Marriott Corporation, headquarters for which are located on River Road in Bethesda, Maryland. It is noted that Marriott Corporation headquarters are located directly across the street from a Roy Rogers Restaurant, the location where surveillances of Orlando Letelier took place, prior to his murder. As you are no doubt aware, Captain Fernandez was significantly involved in the pre-operation surveillance of Orlando Letelier and provided this data to Townley at Kennedy International Airport on September 9, 1976. Mr. Guest indicated that he met Captain Fernandez at Washington National Airport in late August of 1976, after Captain Fernandez called and advised that he was in Washington, D. C. Mr. Guest picked up Captain Fernandez and his DINA traveling companion, Liliana Walker, in his car at the airport and took them to Washington, D. C., where they checked into a local hotel. Mr. Guest indicated that during their stay in Washington, he accompanied Captain Fernandez and Liliana Walker on a sightseeing tour of various unnamed locations in Washington, D. C. Additionally, Mr. Guest indicated that he was not with Captain Fernandez or Walker Martinez at all times during their stay in Washington, D. C., area.

As indicated in the June 5, 1979, memorandum, Rosemarie Fernandez de Guest was subpoenaed to appear in Washington, D. C.; however, she was free to give or decline to give a statement to U. S. Government investigators. She was subpoenaed to insure her appearance in Washington, D. C., and to allow for her travel expenses to be paid by the U. S. Government. She was never told by FBI Agents that her brother should leave Chile since he might be harmed or killed.

Your March 22, 1979, letter also requests certain information regarding Jack Holcum, President of Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc. I again invite your attention to the June 5, 1979, memorandum in which a number of the questions asked regarding

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Mr. Holcomb were answered.

As the attached documents from Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc., clearly indicate, General Washington Carrasco was utilized as a point of reference by Kenneth Enyart/Andres Wilson/Michael Townley in 1975 to establish his bonafides. General Carrasco was telephonically contacted sometime between the February 7, 1975 order date and February 15, 1975 delivery date of the materials described in the attached Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc., invoice.

Each of your questions regarding Hans Sylten, Vice President of Audio Intelligence Devices, is answered in the June 5, 1978, memorandum. Also, each of your questions regarding Kenneth Enyart has been answered in the previous June 5, 1978, memorandum.

"Colonel Vlado" referred to in your letter of March 22, 1979, was identified by the FBI as Colonel Vladimir Secen, a Croatian nationalist living in the Miami, Florida, area. Colonel Secen was interviewed by the FBI and advised that approximately in the early fall of 1975, he met an individual who used the surname of "Saavedra." He identified photographs of Michael Vernon Townley as the individual he knew as "Saavedra." It should be noted that one O. Robinson Saavedra worked for Michael Vernon Townley during the period of time that Townley was employed as a DINA Agent. Colonel Secen indicated that he was introduced to Townley through letters of introduction from Chileans living in Argentina, who had previous contact with Secen.

Michael Vernon Townley, using the identity of Hans Petersen Silva, arrived at Kennedy International Airport on September 9, 1976. He was processed through Immigration and Customs in a routine normal manner.

As I have previously indicated to you, the FBI is always willing to provide whatever assistance and information you deem helpful in this investigation. I will also reiterate that each of the individuals about whom you have requested information are in all likelihood totally available to your Service for your own interview, in order that you may ask whatever questions you may deem appropriate to your investigation. The FBI will also attempt, in any appropriate way, to facilitate your interviewing these individuals in the United States.

Very truly yours,

Subject abducted from home at 10am April 30, 1977 by four unidentified armed men in plain clothes. Family believes that they were security forces. Armed men stayed at the Arozarena's residence for four days; they were allowed to go shoping but not to tell anybody what was happening at home. Present whereabouts unknown.

Raised w/ForOFF WGHR by Sherman Harris on 9/28/77.

OFFICIAL-INFORMAL
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Honorable
Viron P. Vaky
Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs
Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Pete:

I attach a memorandum of a recent conversation with Alfredo Etcheberry, our Chilean lawyer for the Letelier/Moffitt case. You may want to show it to Frank Willis in L. I am not sending a copy to Gene Propper, Larry Barcella or anyone else.

The conversation with Etcheberry left me somewhat uneasy. For one thing, Etcheberry returned from his most recent meeting with Propper and Barcella with the feeling that Justice officials are not as confident about the strength of our case (particularly against Contreras and Espinoza) as we had previously been led to believe. It may well be strong enough for extradition, although this is the point that Borquez and others here contest, but could we get conviction in the United States thereafter?

Second, as explained more fully in the memorandum, there is an apparent contradiction between my instructions conveyed to Cubillos and the line of argument that Etcheberry will press in the oral arguments at the appeal. Etcheberry will argue that failure to extradite will mean impunity for the three Chileans; there is no obligation and perhaps not even good legal grounds to try them in Chile. I of course have told Cubillos that the USG can accept a serious trial here based on our evidence. However, the contradiction is,

I believe, only apparent and Etcheberry has convinced me, as he did Propper and Barcella, that his is the best approach. Nevertheless, I wanted you to be aware ahead of time.

We have been told that the lawyer for Fernandez Larios will request a one-week postponement. Other lawyers for the defense may also make use of that option. As of now, the earliest the appeal could begin is June 27.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

George W. Landau

ALSO.

According to the Herald Newspaper, 8-25-78, in Rio they reported him missing and presumed by the BPI that he may have been arrested and handed over to the Argentine authorities. Habegger was deputy editor and later editor of the newspaper Noticias, which was the official mouthpiece of the Peronist leftwing and often spoke for the Montoneros terrorists. ArgentineEmbassador to Brazil, Oscar Camilion, said on August 19th was the last time he had knowledge of Habegger. Date of des: August 3-78 while passing through Rio on his way to Madrid.
